In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

Praise be to Allâh, the Lord of the ‘Alamîn (mankind, jinn and all that exists) and peace be upon the Master of the Messengers, his family and companions.

We, the undersigned, have read this translation of the meanings of Sahîh Al-Bukhârî achieved by Dr. Muhammad Muhsin Khan and have done our best to revise and correct it from its beginning to its end so that, with the ability and efforts available; it has come near to correctness as much as possible.

We thank Allâh, the Elevated, for the success of this beneficial project and ask Him to bountifully reward all those who have undertaken it or participated in it — Allâh’s Pleasure being our aim, and it is He Who guides us on the Right Path.

Dr. Mohammad Hamad Nasir

Dr. Mahmûd Hamad Nasr
Graduate of Khartum University, Physician: King Hospital, Al-Madînâ.

Dr. M. Taqi-ud-Din Al-Hilâlî
Ph.D., Berlin University, Germany, Professor: Muhammad V University Morocco; Islâmic University, Al-Madînâ.

I have pursued a portion of this translation and found that the translator has succeeded in rendering the meanings of Al-Jami‘ As-Sahîh (Sahîh Al-Bukhârî) into English in a simple comprehensible style free from complications. I have also noticed that he has chosen successfully the best and most authentic interpretation of some Ahâdîth that are interpreted differently by different scholars.

Dr. Mahmûd Hamad As-Südani did his best to check the whole translation. The second revision was done by Mr. Shâkir Nasîf Al-Ubaydî. Finally, Dr. Muhammad Taqi-ud-Dîn Al-Hilâlî checked the translation with the translator Dr. Muhammad Muhsin Khan thoroughly and minutely, doing his utmost to correct the minor mistakes he detected, till the translation acquired a high degree of precision.

May Allâh bountifully reward whoever has participated in this benevolent work; and may He make people benefit by it.

I am perfectly sure that the translation, with Allâh’s Help and after all the great efforts exerted in its production, has neared perfection.

In Allâh’s Hands are all means of success. And praise be to Allâh, the Lord of the ‘Alamîn (mankind, jinn and all that exists).

PREFACE TO THE NEW EDITION

All the praises and thanks be to Allah, the Lord of the ‘Alamîn (mankind, jinn and all that exists) and peace be upon the Master of the Messengers — Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلام, and then after:

This translation of the meanings of Sahih Al-Bukhâri has been revised and the following changes have been made in this new edition:

1. Some additions and alterations have been made to improve the English translation and to bring the English interpretation very close to the correct and exact meanings of the Arabic text.

2. As regards the previous (old) editions of this book (Sahih Al-Bukhâri) nobody is allowed to reprint or to reproduce it, after this new edition has been published.

3. The new edition of this book is in two forms:
   a. First form — Summarized Sahîh Al-Bukhâri (Az-Zubaidy) At-Tajrid As-Sarih [in one volume].
   b. Second form — Original Sahih Al-Bukhâri [in nine (9) volumes].

All the praises and thanks be to Allah, the Lord of the ‘Alamîn (mankind, jinn and all that exists) and peace be upon our Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلام his family and his companions.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am greatly indebted to whoever participated in the accomplishment of this translation, especially my doctor colleagues who checked and rechecked the manuscript with great perseverance.

I am pleased to thank particularly Drs. Hasan Nāsir, Atâ Ullāh, Mirzâ Akbar Wallî, Ramadân Alî Korânî, Shamîl Atîyya, Abdul Qaiyûm and Nizâm Uddîn.

I am grateful to Dr. Mahmûd Nasr As-Sûdânî who devoted every hour of his leisure time to check the English manuscript comparing it word for word with the Arabic text.

My gratitude and acknowledgements are due to Dr. Muhammad Taqi-ud-Din Al-Hilâlî, Ph. D., Berlin University and Mr. Shâkir Nasîf Al-‘Ubaydi, M.A. in English; both took the responsibility of giving the finishing touches to this colossal work by checking and rechecking the English manuscript comparing it with the Arabic version word for word. They chose a suitable system of symbolizing the Arabic sounds, and transliterated the Arabic proper names and other technical terms accordingly. They did their best to improve the structure of the English sentences keeping the style simple and comprehensible. The glossary attached to the book has been compiled by them.

I am grateful to Dr. M. Amin Al-Misrî, Ph.D. in Hadîth Literature, for his advice concerning the translation of certain Ahâdîth and for his encouragement and sincere wish for the success of this enterprise.

To the Muslim World League at Makkah Al-Mukkarrama, I wish to express my deep gratitude and great appreciation for encouraging the project.

I am greatly indebted to the Islamic Religious scholars at Al-Madîna who, when consulted, gave willingly their opinions concerning the interpretation of certain Ahâdîth, etc.

My thanks are also due to Mr. Hasan Subhî and to the typists Mr. Amin Ash-Shâmîm and Mrs. Sharîfa Adam Makda who typed and retyped the manuscript patiently.

REMARKS

1. Due to the non-existence of appropriate and equivalent English words for many Arabic words, such words have been transliterated and an explanation has been given immediately after each word when it occurs for the first time and a glossary of such words has been compiled at the end of this book. Certain religious formulas and invocations are also transliterated.

2. The Arabic script is kept as it is for such expressions as تعال (The Most High), رضى الله عنه (peace be upon him), and (Allâh be pleased with him) etc.

3. Some materials concerned with Arabic grammar and etymology have been excluded from the English text.

4. Most of the subnarrators are often omitted when possible and sometimes only the first narrator in each string is kept.

5. Imâm Bukhârî in his Sahîh has classified and arranged the Hadîth according to the subject matter which they deal with. He gave to each chapter a title indicating a certain point and under that title he stated down all the Hadîth that are relevant. This procedure has resulted in the occurrence of the same Hadîth under various headings, because one Hadîth might deal with a great number of aspects of Islamic Jurisprudence. Imâm Bukhârî used each Hadîth so that every point that can be inferred from it is referred to.

The chapters and the Hadîth are numbered.

In this translation I have tried my best to convey the meanings of the Hadîth of our Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (peace be upon him) in such a way as to enable the average reader to understand them easily. At the same time I tried to translate the work accurately, taking into consideration the statement of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (peace be upon him): “Whoever voluntarily falsely ascribes anything to me, shall seek his place in the Hell.”

Suggestions and comments for the improvement of this translation shall be most welcomed.
Biography of Dr. Muhammad Muhsin Khan

Dr. Muhammad Muhsin s/o Muhi-ud-Din bin Ahmed Al-Essa Al-Khoashki Al-Jamandi Al-Afghani, was born in the year 1345 Al-Hijri, in Qasur, a city of the Punjab Province, in Pakistan.

His grandfathers emigrated from Afghanistan escaping from the wars and tribal strifes. Dr. Muhammad Muhsin belongs to the famous Afghanese tribe Al-Khoashki Al-Jamandi. The residence place of his tribe was the valley of Arghastan south east of the city of Kandhar (Afghanistan).

He had most of his education in that city, then he continued his education till he gained Degree in Medicine and Surgery from the University of Punjab, Lahore. Then he worked in the University Hospital in Lahore, after that he travelled to England and stayed there for about four years, where he got the Diploma of Chest Diseases from the University of Wales. Then he worked in the Ministry of Health, in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. He came during the period of late King Abdul Aziz Al-i-Saud. He stayed in the Ministry of Health for about 15 years, most of that period was in At-Taif, where he worked as the Director of El-Sadad Hospital for the Chest Diseases, then he moved to Al-Madina, where he worked as a Chief of the Department of Chest Diseases in the King’s Hospital. Then lastly, he worked as the Director of the Islamic University Hospital, Al-Madina Al-Munawwara.

A NOTE FROM THE PUBLISHER

Islam is a heavenly system (or regime) for all the dwellers of the earth, and it is a mighty treasure if only mankind realizes its authenticity and truth. And in what a great need the whole world is today for ready understanding and thorough studying of its rules and regulations — i.e. the Noble Qur’ân and the pious Sunna (legal ways, etc.) of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ as these (the Qur’ân and As-Sunna) accede to the demand of the people to know their Creator (the All-Mighty Allâh, the Blessed, the Most High); organize and regulate the relations between them on the foundations of (Godly) Divine Justice and equality; and respond to the human nature equally to that, which makes sure for them their welfare (happiness) in this world and in the Hereafter (after their deaths).

And how many disasters, calamities and wars, the mankind of the whole world is suffering because of their differences in their faith, and organizations, which have broken them into the worst type of breaking, so there remains no way out for any security or any safety or any peace except with Islam, i.e., by putting in practice the Laws of their Creator, Allâh, (i.e. the Qur’ân and As-Sunna).

Invitation to Islam is incumbent upon all those who have known it, and have enjoyed its taste and have been guided through its guidance. In fact, it is a great responsibility and a trust (of Allâh) over (the shoulders of) all those who know Islam, to preach it to mankind and invite them to it in a language which they speak and understand.

This above mentioned responsibility was realized by Dr. Muhammad Muhsin, a physician, specialist in chest diseases, who worked for a period of time in England, and then he moved from there and settled in Al-Madîna Al-Munawwara, after he witnessed an amazing matter of great fear and splendour during a dream at night. He saw the Messenger of Allâh, Muhammad ﷺ in that dream and the seeing of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ in a dream means the truth. He saw him in a great gathering and Muhammad Muhsin went ahead to kiss his knees, but the Prophet ﷺ did not allow him to kiss them. He was sweating profusely and Muhammad Muhsin started drinking his sweat till he felt satisfied (as if a thirsty man drinks water till his thirst is quenched). Then the Prophet ﷺ asked him for a piece of paper and wrote on it that he wants him. Then the Prophet ﷺ stamped it (that piece of written paper) with his stamp (Muhammad, the Messenger of Allâh)… till the end of the dream.
So when Muhammad Muhsin got up (from his dream), he was shaken by the amazement, fear and splendour of that dream!!! He asked the religious learned scholars about the interpretation of that dream. Some of them informed him that he will narrate the Ahadîth (statements, etc.) of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. So he looked for the project that can serve Islâm, i.e. by inviting and preaching those amongst human beings who can speak and understand English, he found that there is the book Sahîh (Al-Imâm) Al-Bukhârî and that is the most authentic and true among the books of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, which needs to be translated into the English language. So he went ahead for it, to translate its meanings. He started this colossal work with the Help of Allâh, putting his each and every effort. The project took nearly twelve years and the book (nine volumes, Arabic-English) was completed and printed with the Help of Allâh. All the praises and thanks be to Allâh (the only God and Lord of all), with Whose blessings are completed the righteous deeds. Peace, Blessings and Graces of Allâh be upon our Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, his family and his Companions.

Lastly I thank all the brothers who participated in the accomplishment of this colossal work particularly brother Saeeduddin and brother Mohammad Munawar who checked and rechecked again and again the manuscript with great perseverance. May Allah the All-Mighty bestow on them a great reward in this world and in the Hereafter.

THE MIRACLES OF PROPHET MUHAMMAD

At this point I would like to bring to the notice of the reader that the Prophet was granted many miracles by Allah (the Lord of the heavens and the earth) and some of them are as follows:

1. The Noble Qur'an is the living miracle bestowed by Allah upon Prophet Muhammad and this, Allah's Book, was revealed to him through the Ruh-ul-Qudus (Gabriel). Today 1400 years have passed and nobody has been able to change a single letter or produce its imitation, as it is said in the Qur'an (see Surah Hijr, V.15:9) and the statement of the Prophet: “Before me, every Prophet was given a miracle and they practised it during their lifetime: e.g., 'Isa (Jesus) used to cure the sick and make the dead alive, etc., Mūsā (Moses) was given the stick etc., and I have been given the permanent miracle of the Qur'an till the Hour is established, so I hope that my followers will be more in number than all the other Messengers' as my miracle will last till the Day of Resurrection, and it is a Glorious Book; when anyone reads it, even if he is a pagan, etc., he is convinced that it is produced by none but by the Creator of the heavens and the earth.”

2. The splitting of the moon: Narrated Anas that the Makkans requested Allah's Messenger to show them a miracle, so he showed them the splitting of the moon. (See Sahih Al-Bukhārī, Hadith No. 3637).

3. The crying of the stem of the date-palm tree in the Prophet's Mosque: Narrated Ibn 'Umar that the Prophet used to deliver his Khutba (religious talk) while leaning against a trunk of a date-palm tree. When he had the pulpit made and used it instead, the trunk started crying and the Prophet went to it, rubbing his hand over it (to stop its crying). (See Sahih Al-Bukhārī, Hadith No. 3583).

4. The flowing of the water from among the fingers of Allah's Messenger (See Sahih Al-Bukhārī, Hadith No. 3579).

Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: I was with the Prophet and the time for the 'Asr prayer became due. We had no water with us except a little which was put in a vessel and was brought to the Prophet . He put his hand into it and spread out his fingers and then said, "Come along! Hurry up! All those who want to perform ablution. The blessing is from Allâh.” I saw the water gushing out from his fingers. So the people performed the ablution and drank, and I tried to drink more of that water (beyond my thirst and capacity), for I knew that it was a blessing. The subnarrator said: I asked Jâbir, “How many persons were you then?” He replied, “We were one thousand four hundred men.” (Salim said: Jâbir said — 1500). (Sahîh Al-Bukhârî, Hadîth No. 5639).

5. The Prophet’s meals used to glorify Allâh while he ate, and this glorification was heard by the Companions of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. (See Sahîh Al-Bukhârî, Hadîth No. 3579).

6. Stones used to greet the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whenever he passed by through the lanes of Makkah.

7. The throwing out of a dead body of a Christian by the earth: Narrated Anas: There was a Christian who embraced Islâm and read Sûrat Al-Baqarah and Al-’Imrân and he used to write the revelation for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Later on he reverted to Christianity and used to say, “Muhammad knows nothing but what I have written for him.” Then Allâh caused him to die and the people buried him but in the morning they found that the earth had thrown out his body. They said, “This is the deed of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and his companions. They have opened the grave of our companion and took his body out because he ran away from them,” so they again dug the grave deeper for him, but in the morning they again found that the earth had thrown the body out. They said, “This is a deed of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and his companions.” So they dug a third grave for him as deep as they could, but in the morning they found that the earth had thrown the body out. Then they believed what had befallen him, was not done by mankind, and they had to leave the body on the ground. (See Sahîh Al-Bukhârî, Hadîth No. 3617).

8. The screening (shading) by the trees, for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to answer the call of nature.

9. The rising of water in the well at Hudaibîya after it had dried. (See Sahîh Al-Bukhârî, Hadîth No. 3577).

10. The increase in the amount of dates in the garden of Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh after the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went round the heaps of dates and invoked Allâh for His Blessings. (See Sahîh Al-Bukhârî, Hadîth No. 3580).

11. Speaking of the wolf: It has been written that a wolf also spoke to one of the Companions of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم near Al-Madîna, as narrated in Musnad of Ahmad, Vol.3, Musnad Abi Saeed Al-Khudri. Narrated Abî Saeed Al-Khudri: (While a shepherd was amongst his sheep) suddenly a wolf attacked a sheep and took it away. The shepherd chased the wolf and took back the sheep. The wolf sat on its tail and addressed the shepherd saying: “Be afraid of Allah, you have taken the provision from me which Allah gave me.” The shepherd said: “What an amazing thing! A wolf sitting on its tail speaks to me in the language of a human being.” The wolf said: “Shall I tell you something more amazing than this? There is Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم (the Messenger of Allâh) in Yathrib (Al-Madîna) informing the people about the news of the past.” Then the shepherd proceeded (towards Al-Madîna) driving his sheep till he entered Al-Madîna (city), cornered his sheep to one side and came to Allâh’s Messenger (Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) and informed the whole story. Allâh’s Messenger ordered for the proclamation of a congregational prayer (صلاة جامعه), then he صلى الله عليه وسلم came out and asked the shepherd to inform the people (about his story) and he informed them. Then Allâh’s Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said: “He (the shepherd) has spoken the truth. By Him (Allâh) in Whose Hands my soul is, the Day of Resurrection will not be established till beasts of prey سع speak to the human beings, and the stick lash and the shoe-laces of a person speak to him and his thigh informs him about his family as to what happened to them after him. [Musnad of Ahmad, Vol.3, Musnad Abi Saeed Al-Khudri].

12. The Mi‘râj: The Ascent of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to the heavens. (See Sahîh Al-Bukhârî, Hadîth No. 349 and Hadîth No.3887).
In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

INTRODUCTION

Imam Bukhari and his Book Sahih Al-Bukhari

It has been unanimously agreed that Imâm Bukhârî's work is the most authentic of all the other works in Hadîth literature put together. The authenticity of Al-Bukhârî's work is such that the religious learned scholars of Islâm said concerning him: "The most authentic book after the Book of Allâh (i.e. Al-Qur'ân) is Sahîh Al-Bukhârî."

Imâm Bukhârî was born on 13th Shawwâl in the year 194 A.H. in Bukhârâ in the territory of Khurâsân (West Turkistân). His real name is Muhammad bin Ismâîl bin Al-Mughîrah Al-Bukhârî.

His father died when he was still a young child and he was looked after by his mother. At the age of ten he started acquiring the knowledge of Hadîth. He travelled to Makkah when he was sixteen years old accompanied by his mother and elder brother. It seemed as though Imâm Bukhârî loved Makkah and its learned religious scholars for he remained in Makkah after bidding farewell to his mother and brother. He spent two years in Makkah and then went to Al-Madîna. After spending a total of six years in Al-Hijâz which comprises Makkah and Al-Madîna, he left for Basrah, Kûfa and Baghûdâd and visited many other places including Egypt and Syria. He came to Baghdad on many occasions. He met many religious learned scholars including Imâm Ahmad bin Hanbal.

Owing to his honesty and kindness and the fact that he was trustworthy he used to keep away from the princes and rulers for fear that he may incline to say things to please them.

Many a story has been told about Imâm Bukhârî regarding his struggles in collecting Hadîth literature. He travelled to many different places gathering the precious gems that fell from the lips of the noble Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه و سلم. It is said that Imâm Bukhârî collected over 300,000 Ahadîth and he himself memorized 200,000 of which some were unreliable. He was born at a time when Hadîth was being forged either to please rulers or kings or to corrupt the religion of Islâm.

It is said that Imâm Bukhârî (before compiling Sahîh Al-Bukhârî) saw in a dream, standing in front of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم having a fan in his hand and driving away the flies from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Imâm Bukhârî asked some of those who interpret dreams, and they interpreted his dream that he will drive away the falsehood asserted against the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

So it was a great task for him to sift the forged Ahadîth from the authentic ones. He laboured day and night and although he had memorised such a large number he only chose approximately 7,275 with repetition and about 2,230 without repetition of which there is no doubt about their authenticity.

Before he recorded each Hadîth, he would make ablution and offer a two Rak‘at prayer and supplicate his Lord (Allâh). Many religious scholars of Islâm tried to find fault in the great remarkable collection — Sahîh Al-Bukhârî, but without success. It is for this reason, they unanimously agreed that the most authentic book after the Book of Allâh is Sahîh Al-Bukhârî.

Imâm Bukhârî died on first Shawwâl in the year 256 A.H., and was buried in Khartank, a village near Samarkand. May Allâh have mercy on his soul.

11. Allâhumma innî a’ûdhu bika min ‘adhâbil-qabri, wa a’ûdhu bika min fitnatil-masîh-id-dajjâl, wa a’udhu bika min fitnatil-mahyâ wal-mamâti. Allâhumma innî a’ûdhu bika minal-mâ’thami wal-maghrami.
[O Allâh! I seek Your Protection against the punishment of the grave and against the Fitnah (trial and affliction) of Masîh Ad-Dajjîl and the Fitnah (trial and afflictions) of life and death. O Allâh, I seek Your Protection against sins and debts].

[O Allâh! I have done great injustice to myself and none except You forgive sins, so please forgive me and be Merciful to me as You are the Oft-Forgiver, the Most Merciful].

[None has the right to be worshipped but Allâh and He has no partners in worship (nothing is to be worshipped) along with Him, for Him is the kingdom and all the praises are for Him and He is Omnipotent. O Allâh! Nobody can hold back what You give and nobody can give what You hold back, and hard efforts by anyone (or good luck or riches) for anything cannot benefit one against Your Will and Decisions].

1 - THE BOOK OF REVELATION

Said Ash-Shaikh Al-Imâm Al-Hâfiz Abu-'Abdullãh Muhammad bin Isma'îl bin Ibrahim bin Al-Mughîra Al-Bukhârî (May Allah be Merciful to him):

(1) CHAPTER. How the Divine Revelation started to be revealed to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.

And the Statement of Allah ﷻ:
"Verily, We have sent the revelation to you (O Muhammad ﷺ) as We sent the revelation to Noah and the Prophets after him." (V.4:163)

1. Narrated 'Umar bin Al-Khattâb ﷺ: I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “The reward of deeds depends upon the intentions and every person will get the reward according to what he has intended. So whoever emigrates for worldly benefits or for a woman to marry, his emigration will be for what he emigrated for.”

(1) (H.1) The Prophet ﷺ said this on the occasion of someone’s emigration from Makkah to Al-Madîna not for the sake of the Islamic Cause but to marry a woman who had stipulated that he should emigrate if he wanted to marry her. Anyhow, this Hadîth implies a general principle, i.e., one is rewarded for his deeds according to his real intentions and not according to his actual deeds which might be good in themselves but were motivated by an ill intention.
2. Narrated `Āishah, the Mother of the faithful believers: (1) Al-Hārith bin Hishām asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ “O Allāh’s Messenger! How is the Divine Revelation revealed to you?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ replied, “Sometimes it is (revealed) like the ringing of a bell, this form of Revelation is the hardest of all and then this state passes off after I have grasped what is revealed. Sometimes the angel comes in the form of a man and talks to me and I grasp whatever he says.” `Āishah added: Verily I saw the Prophet ﷺ being inspired (Divinely) and (noticed) the sweat dropping from his forehead on a very cold day as the Revelation was over.

3. Narrated `Āishah, the Mother of the faithful believers: The commencement of the (Divine) Revelation to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was in the form of good righteous (true) dreams which came true like bright daylight, and then the love of seclusion was bestowed upon him. He used to go in seclusion in the cave of Hīrā’ where he used to worship (Allāh Alone) continuously for many nights before returning to (or his desire to see) his family. He used to take with him the journey food for the stay and then come back to (his wife) Khadija to take his food likewise again till suddenly the Truth descended upon him while he was in the cave of Ḥiḍrat. The angel came to him and asked him to read. The Prophet said, “I do not know how to read.”

The Angel added, “Then the angel caught me (forcefully) and pressed me so hard that I could not bear it any more. He then released me and again asked me to read and I replied, ‘I do not know how to read.’ Thereupon he caught me again and pressed me a second time till I could not bear it any more. He then released me and again asked me to read but again I replied, ‘I do not know how to read (or what shall I read?)’. Thereupon he caught me for the third time and pressed me, and then released me and said, ‘Read in the Name of your Lord, Who has created everything. Has created man from a clot (a piece of thick coagulated blood). Read! And your Lord is the Most Generous.’” (V.96:1-3) Then Allah’s Messenger returned with the Revelation and with his heart beating severely. Then he went to Khadija bint Khwailid and said, “Cover me! Cover me!” They covered him till his fear was over and after that he told Khadija everything that had happened (and said), “I fear that something may happen to me.” Khadija replied, “Never! By Allah, Allah will never disgrace you. You keep good relations with your kith and kin, help the poor and the destitute, serve your guests generously and assist the deserving calamity-afflicted ones.”

Khadija then accompanied him to her cousin Waraqa bin Naufal bin Asad bin ‘Abdul ‘Uzza, who, during the Period of Ignorance became a Christian and used to write the writing with Hebrew letters. He would write from the Gospel in Hebrew as much as Allah wished him to write. He was an old man and had lost his eyesight. Khadija said to Waraqa, “Listen to (the story of) your nephew, O my cousin!” Waraqa asked, “O my nephew! What have you seen?” Allah’s Messenger described whatever he had seen. Waraqa said, “This is the same one [who keeps the secrets i.e., angel Jibril (Gabriel)] whom Allah had sent to Musa (Moses). I wish I were young and could live up to the time when your people would turn you out.” Allah’s Messenger asked, “Will they drive me out?” Waraqa replied in the affirmative and said, “Anyone (man) who came with something similar to what you have brought was treated with hostility; and if I should remain alive till the day (when you will be turned out) then I would support you strongly.” But after a few days Waraqa died and the Divine Revelation was also paused for a while.

4. Narrated Jabir bin ‘Abdullah Al-Ansari while talking about the period of pause in revelation, reported the speech of the Prophet , “While I was walking, all of a sudden I heard a voice from the sky. I looked up and saw the same angel, who had visited me at the cave of Hira’, sitting on a chair between the sky and the earth. I got scared of him and came back home and said, ‘Wrap me (in blankets).’ And then Allah revealed the following Holy Verses (of the Qur’an):

‘O you (Muhammad ) enveloped (in garments)! Arise and warn … (up to) … and keep away from Ar-Rujz (the idols)! ’

(V.74:1-5)

After this, the revelation started coming strongly and frequently in succession one after the other.”
5. Narrated Sa‘îd bin Jubair: Ibn ‘Abbâs in the explanation of the Statement of Allâh ﷺ: ‘Move not your tongue concerning (the Qur’ân, O Muḥammad ﷺ) to make haste therewith’ (V.75:16) said, “Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to bear the revelation with great stress and hardness, and used to move his lips (quickly with the Revelation).” Ibn ‘Abbâs moved his lips saying, “I am moving my lips (in front of you) as Allâh’s Messenger used to move his.”

Sa‘îd moved his lips saying: “I am moving my lips, as I have seen Ibn ‘Abbâs moving his.”

[ Ibn ‘Abbâs ﷺ - added] “So Allâh revealed ‘Move not your tongue concerning (the Qur’ân, O Muḥammad ﷺ) to make haste therewith. It is for Us to collect it and to give you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) the ability to recite it (the Qur’ân) (V.75:16,17), [which means that Allâh will make him (the Prophet ﷺ) remember the portion of the Qur’ân which was revealed at that time by heart and recite it]. The Statement of Allâh: ‘And when We have recited it to you [O Muḥammad ﷺ through Jibrîl (Gabriel)] then follow you its (the Qur’ân’s) recital’ (V.75:18) (means ‘listen to it and be silent’). ‘Then it is for Us (Allâh) to make it clear to you’ (V.75:19) means then it is (for Allâh) to make you recite it (and its meaning will be clear by itself through your tongue). Afterwards, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to listen to Jibrîl whenever he came and after his departure he used to recite it as Jibrîl had recited it.”
6. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: Allah's Messenger was the most generous of all the people, and he used to reach the peak in generosity in the month of Ramaḍān when Jibril (Gabriel) met him. Jibril used to meet him every night of Ramaḍān to teach him the Qur'an.

Allah's Messenger was the most generous person, even more generous than the fair winds [sent (by Allah) with glad tidings (rain), in readiness and haste to do charitable deeds].

7. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās: Abū Sufyān bin Ḥarb informed me that Heraclius had sent a messenger to him while he had been accompanying a caravan from Quraиш. They were merchants doing business in Shām (Syria, Palestine, Lebanon and Jordan), at the time when Allah's Messenger had truce with Abū Sufyān and Quraиш infidels. So Abū Sufyān and his companions went to Heraclius at 'Ilya (Jerusalem). Heraclius called them in the court and he had all the senior Roman dignitaries around him. He called for his translator who, translating Heraclius' question said to them, "Who amongst you is closely related to that man who claims to be a Prophet?" Abū Sufyān replied, "I am the nearest relative to him (amongst the group)."

Heraclius said, "Bring him (Abū Sufyān) close to me and make his companions stand behind him.” Abū Sufyān added, “Heraclius told his translator to tell my companions that he wanted to put some questions to me regarding that man (the Prophet) and that if I told a lie they (my companions) should contradict me.” Abū Sufyān added, “By Allāh! Had I not been afraid of my companions labelling me a liar, I would not have spoken the truth about the Prophet ﷺ.

The first question he asked me about him was: ‘What is his family status amongst you?’ I replied, ‘He belongs to a noble family amongst us.’ Heraclius further asked, ‘Has anybody else amongst you ever claimed the same (i.e. to be a Prophet) before his (claim)?’ I replied, ‘No.’ He asked, ‘Was anybody amongst his ancestors a king?’ I replied, ‘No.’ Heraclius asked, ‘Do the nobles or the poor follow him?’ I replied, ‘It is the poor who follow him.’ He said, ‘Are his followers increasing or decreasing (day by day)?’ I replied, ‘They are increasing.’ He then asked, ‘Does anybody amongst those who embrace his religion become displeased and renounce the religion afterwards?’ I replied, ‘No.’ Heraclius said, ‘Have you ever accused him of telling lies before his claim (to be a Prophet)?’ I replied, ‘No.’ Heraclius said, ‘Does he ever betray or prove treacherous to his covenants?’ I replied, ‘No. We are at truce with him but we do not know what he will do in it.’ I could not find opportunity to say anything against him except that word. Heraclius asked, ‘Have you ever had a fight with him?’ I replied, ‘Yes.’ Then he said, ‘What was the outcome of your battles with him?’ I replied, ‘The fighting between us and him was undecided and victory was shared between us and him by turns.’ Heraclius said, ‘What does he order you to do?’ I said, ‘He tells us to worship Allāh Alone and not to worship anything along with Him, and to renounce all that our ancestors had said. He orders us to pray, to speak the truth, to be chaste and to keep good relations with our kith and kin.'

Heraclius asked the translator to convey to me the following, ‘I asked you about his family and your reply was that he belongs to a noble family amongst you. In fact all the Messengers come from noble families amongst their respective peoples. I questioned you whether anybody else amongst you claimed such a thing, your reply was in the negative. If the answer had been in the affirmative, I would have thought that this man was following the previous man's statement. Then I asked you whether anyone of his ancestors was a king. Your reply was in the negative, and if it had been in the affirmative, I would have thought that this man wanted to take back his ancestral kingdom. I further asked whether he was ever accused of telling lies before he said what he said, and your reply was in the negative.

So I wondered how a person who does not tell a lie about others could ever tell a lie about Allâh. I, then asked you whether the rich people followed him or the poor. You replied that it was the poor who followed him. And in fact these (poor always) are the followers of the Messengers. Then I asked you whether his followers were increasing or decreasing. You replied that they were increasing, and in fact this is the way of true faith, till it is complete in all respects. I further asked you whether there was anybody, who, after embracing his religion, became displeased and discarded his religion. Your reply was in the negative, and in fact this is (the sign of) true faith, when its delight enters the hearts and mixes with them completely. I asked you whether he had ever betrayed. You replied in the negative and likewise the Messengers never betray. Then I asked you what he ordered you to do. You replied that he ordered you to worship Allah (and Allah Alone) and not to worship anything along with Him and forbade you to worship idols and ordered you to pray, to speak the truth and to be chaste. If what you have said is true, he will very soon occupy this place [which is underneath my feet (now)] and I knew it (from the Scriptures) that he was going to appear but I did not know that he would be from you, and if I am sure to reach him, I would go immediately to meet him and if I were with him, I would certainly wash his feet.'

Heraclius then asked for the letter addressed by Allah's Messenger which was delivered by Diya to the governor of Busra, who forwarded it to Heraclius to read. The contents of the letter were as follows:

In the Name of Allah the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(This letter is) from Muhammad, the slave of Allah and His Messenger, to Heraclius the ruler of Byzantines. Peace be upon him who follows the right path. Then after: I invite you to Islām, and if you become a Muslim you will be safe, and Allah will double your reward, and if you reject this invitation of Islām you will be committing a sin by misguiding your Arāsiyīn (peasants). And (I recite to you Allah's Statement:)

'O people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians)! Come to a word that is just between us and you, that we worship none but Allah and that we associate no partners with Him, and that none of us shall take others as lords beside Allah. Then, if they turn away, say: Bear witness that we are Muslims.” (V.3:64).

Abu Sufyan then added, “When Heraclius had finished his speech and had read the letter, there was a great hue and cry in the royal court. So we were turned out of the court. I told my companions that the question of Ibn Abi Kabsha\(^1\) (Prophet Muhammad ﷺ) has become so prominent that even the king of Bani Al-Ashfar (Byzantines) is afraid of him. Thenceforth I became sure that he (the Prophet ﷺ) would be the conqueror in the near future till I embraced Islam (i.e. Allah guided me to it).” (The sub-narrator adds), Ibn An-Natūr was the governor of Ilyā’ (Jerusalem), and Heraclius was the head of the Christians of Shām.

Ibn An-Natūr narrates that once while Heraclius was visiting Ilyā’ (Jerusalem), he got up in the morning with a sad mood. Some of his priests asked him why he was in that mood? Heraclius was a foreteller and an astrologer.

He replied, “At night when I looked at the stars, I saw that the leader of those who practice circumcision had appeared (become the conqueror), (and asked) who are they who practice circumcision?”

The people replied, “Except the Jews nobody practices circumcision, so you should not be afraid of them (Jews). Just issue orders to kill every Jew present in the country.”

While they were discussing it, a messenger sent by the king of Ghassân to convey the news of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ to Heraclius was brought in.

Having heard the news, he (Heraclius)

\(^{1}\) Abi Kabsha was not the father of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ but it was a mockery done by Abu Sufyān out of hostility against the Prophet ﷺ. ordered the people to go and see whether the messenger of Ghassân was circumcised. The people, after seeing him, told Heraclius that he was circumcised. Heraclius then asked him about the Arabs. The messenger replied, “Arabs also practice circumcision.”

(At hearing that) Heraclius remarked that sovereignty of this nation (Arabs) had appeared. Heraclius then wrote a letter to his friend in Rome who was as good as Heraclius in knowledge. Heraclius then left for Homs (a town in Syria) and stayed there till he received the reply of his letter from his friend who agreed with him in his opinion about the emergence of the Prophet and the fact that he is indeed a Prophet. On that Heraclius invited all the heads of the Byzantines to assemble in his palace at Homs. When they assembled, he ordered that all the doors of his palace be closed. Then he came out and said,

“O Byzantines! If success is your desire and if you seek right guidance and want your empire to remain, then give the Bai‘ah (pledge) to this Prophet (i.e. embrace Islam).”

(On hearing the views of Heraclius) the people ran towards the gates of the palace like onagers but found the doors closed. Heraclius realised their hatred towards Islam and when he lost the hope of their embracing Islam, (he ordered): “Bring them back to me.” (When they returned) he said, “What I already said was just to test the strength of your conviction and I have seen it.” The people prostrated before him and became pleased with him, and this was the end of Heraclius’ story (in connection with his faith).
2 - THE BOOK OF BELIEF (i.e. FAITH)

[Faith: i.e. To believe in (the six (6) articles of Faith): (1) Allāh. (2) His (Allāh’s) Angels. (3) His (Allāh’s) Messengers. (4) His (Allāh’s) Books, e.g. the Torah, the Gospel, the Qur’ān etc. (5) The Day of Resurrection. (6) Al-Qadar (Divine Preordainments). Faith has more than sixty (60) subdivisions or parts, the highest one is Lā ilāha illallāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh), and the lowest one is to remove harmful things from the ways, roads, passages etc. (Please see Fath Al-Bārī, for details).

(1) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ, ‘Islam is based on five principles.’

And belief is both saying and acting, and it increases and decreases. Allāh ﷺ revealed the following Verses concerning the subject:

“That they may grow more in faith along with their (present) faith.” (V.48:4) “And We increased them in guidance.” (V.18:13) “And Allah increases in guidance those who walk aright [true believers in the Oneness of Allāh — who fear Allāh much (abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which He has forbidden) and love Allāh much (perform all kinds of good deeds which He has ordained])” (V.19:76). And said, “As for those who accept guidance, He (i.e. Allāh ﷺ) increases their guidance and bestows on them their piety.” (V.47:17) “And the believers may increase in faith.” (V.74:31) “Which of you has had his faith increased by it? As for those who believe, it has increased their faith.” (V.9:124) And also the Statement of Allāh ﷺ: “Fears them. But it

(1) (Ch.1) See Hadith No.8.
(only) increased them in faith.’” (V.3:173)
And also the Statement of Allâh (in His Glorious Qur'ân):
“And it only added to their faith and to their submissiveness (to Allâh).” (V.33:22).
And to love and hate for Allâh’s sake is a part of faith.
‘Umar bin ‘Abdul ‘Azîz wrote to ‘Adî bin ‘Adî: “Belief includes Farā’îd (enjoined duties), legal laws and Hudayd (Allâh’s boundary limits between lawful and unlawful things) and Sunan [legal ways and deeds (acts) of worship etc.]. And whoever follows (and acts on) all of them completely, has a complete belief, and whoever does not follow them completely (does not act on them), his belief is incomplete. And should I live, I will tell you all about them so that you may act on them. And should I die, I am not anxious to have your company.”
And the Prophet Ibrâhîm (Abraham) said, “But to be stronger in faith” (V.2:260). Mu‘âdh said (to Aswad bin Hilâl, one of his companions), “Let us sit for a while so that we may dedicate that period of time to faith.” Ibn Mas‘ûd said, “Yaqîn is perfect faith.” And Ibn ‘Umar said, “A person cannot attain true sense of piety unless and until he removes all suspicions from his heart.” (i.e. gives up all kinds of polytheism, evil deeds, and doubtful things, and start doing righteous good deeds regularly) [See Fath Al-Bârî, Vol. I, Page 54].
And Mujâhid said, “He (Allâh) has ordained for you…” (V.42:13) means “O Mu‘âammad (Peace and Blessings be upon him) We have ordained for you and him (Noah) one religion (i.e. Islamic Monotheism).”
And Ibn ‘Abbâs explained: “A law and a clear way” (V.5:48) as Islamic way and Sunna (traditions of the Prophet ﷺ).
Muhammad to the disbelievers): My Lord pays attention to you only because of your invocation to Him.” (V.25:77).

8. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger said: Islām is based on (the following) five (principles):

1. To testify that La ilãha illallah wa anna Muhammad-ar-Rasul Allah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah).

2. Iqāmat-as-Salāt [to perform the (compulsory congregational) Salāt (prayers)].

3. To pay Zakāt.

4. To perform Hajj (i.e. pilgrimage to Makkah).

5. To observe Saum [fasts (according to Islamic teachings)] during the month of Ramadān.

(3) CHAPTER. (What is said) regarding the deeds of faith.

And the Saying of Allāh, [1]:

every act of obedience to Allâh) that you turn your faces to east and (or) west (in prayers); but Al-Bîr (the quality of) the one who believes in Allâh, the Last Day, the Angels, the Book (Holy Scripture), the Prophets and gives his wealth, in spite of the love for it, to the kinsfolk and to the orphans and to Al-Masâkîn (the poor) and to the wayfarer and to those who ask, and to set slaves free; and perform As-Salât (Iqâmât-as-Salât) and gives the Zakât, and who fulfil their covenant when they make it, and who are patient (in severe poverty), and ailment (disease) and at the time of fighting (during the battles). Such are the people of truth, and they are Al-Muttaqîn. (1) “Successful indeed are the believers.” (V.23:1)

9. Narrated Abu Hurairah : The Prophet said, “Faith (Belief) consists of more than sixty sub-divisions or branches (i.e. parts). And Al-Hayâ (this term Al-Haya covers a large number of concepts which are to be taken together; amongst them are self-respect, modesty, bashfulness, and honour etc.) is a part of faith.” [See the Glossary “Al-Hayâ” and Fath Al-Bâri, for details as regard “Faith”]

(4) CHAPTER. A Muslim is the one who avoids harming Muslims with his tongue and hands.

10. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Amr : The Prophet said, “A Muslim is the one who avoids harming Muslims with his tongue and hands. And a Muhãjîr (emigrant) is the one who gives up (abandons) all what Allâh has forbidden.”

(1) (Ch.3) Al-Muttaqîn means pious and righteous persons who fear Allâh much (abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which He has forbidden) and love Allâh much (perform all kinds of good deeds which He has ordained).
2 - THE BOOK OF BELIEF (i.e. FAITH)

(5) CHAPTER. Whose Islam is the best (Who is the best Muslim)?

11. Narrated Abu Musa: Some people asked Allah's Messenger, "Whose Islam is the best (i.e., who is a very good Muslim)?" He replied, "One who avoids harming the Muslims with his tongue and hands."

(6) CHAPTER. To feed (others) is a part of Islam.

12. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Amr: A man asked the Prophet, "Whose Islam is good" or "What (sort of) deeds in (or what qualities of) Islam are good?" The Prophet replied, "To feed (others), and to greet those whom you know and those whom you do not know." (See Hadith No.28).

(7) CHAPTER. To like for one's (Muslim's) brother what one likes for himself is a part of faith.

13. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, "None of you will have faith till he likes for his (Muslim) brother what he likes for himself.”
2 – THE BOOK OF BELIEF (i.e. FAITH)

(8) CHAPTER. To love the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) is a part of faith (See Hadith No.6632, Vol.8.)

14. Narrated Abū Hurairah: “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, By Him in Whose Hands my life is, none of you will have faith till he loves me more than his father and his children.”

15. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “None of you will have faith till he loves me more than his father, his children and all mankind.”

(9) CHAPTER. Sweetness (delight) of faith.

16. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever possesses the following three qualities will have the sweetness (delight) of faith:

1. The one to whom Allāh ﷻ and His Messenger (Muḥammad ﷺ) become dearer...
2. Who loves a person and he loves him only for Allâh's sake.

3. Who hates to revert to atheism (disbelief) as he hates to be thrown into the fire.”

(10) CHAPTER. To love the Anşâr is a sign of faith:

17. Narrated Anas رضي‌الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “To love the Anşâr is a sign of faith and to hate the Anşâr is a sign of hypocrisy.”

(11) CHAPTER.

18. Narrated ‘Ubâda bin Aš-Šâmit رضي‌الله عنه, who took part in the battle of Badr and was a Naqib (a person heading a group of six persons), on the night of Al-‘Aqaba Pledge: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said while a group of his Companions were around him, “Give me the Bai’ah (pledge) for:

1. Not to join anything in worship along with Allâh.
2. Not to steal.
3. Not to commit illegal sexual intercourse.
4. Not to kill your children.
5. Not to utter slander intentionally forging falsehood (i.e., by making illegal children belonging to their husbands) or (not to accuse an innocent person and to spread such an accusation among people).
6. Not to be disobedient (when ordered) to do Ma’rûf (Islâmîc Monotheism and all other good deeds).
(The Prophetﷺ added): “Whoever amongst you fulfils his pledge will be rewarded by Allâh. And whoever indulges in any one of these (sins) gets the punishment in this world, that punishment will be an expiation for that sin. And if one indulges in any of them, and Allâh conceals (his sin), it is up to Him to forgive or punish him (in the Hereafter).”

‘Ubâda bin A-Sâmit added: “So we gave the Bai‘ãh for these.” (points to Allâh’s Messengerﷺ).

(12) CHAPTER. To flee (run away) from Al-Fîtn (afflictions and trials), is a part of religion.

19. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khadr: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A time will come when the best property of a Muslim will be sheep, which he will take on the top of mountains and the places of rainfall (valleys) so as to flee with his religion from Al-Fîtn (afflictions and trials)”.

(13) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophetﷺ: “I know Allâh better, than all of you do.”

And knowledge is the act of the heart as it is referred to by the Statement of Allâh ﷻ, “But He will call you to account for that which your hearts have earned.” (V.2:225)

20. Narrated ‘Aishah: Whenever Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered the Muslims to do something, he used to order them deeds which were easy for them to do, (according to their strength and endurance).
They said, "O Allah's Messenger! We are not like you. Allah has forgiven your past and future sins." So Allah's Messenger became angry and it was apparent on his face. He said, "I fear Allah more, and know Allah better, than all of you do."

(14) CHAPTER. Whoever hates to revert to Kufr (atheism or disbelief) as he hates to be thrown in fire, is a part of faith.

21. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, "Whoever possesses the following three qualities will taste the sweetness of faith:
1. The one to whom Allah and His Messenger become dearer than anything else.
2. Who loves a person and he loves him only for Allah's sake.
3. Who hates to revert to disbelief after Allah has brought him out (saved him) from it, as he hates to be thrown in fire."

(15) CHAPTER. The grades in superiority of the believers will be according to their good deeds.

22. Narrated Abū Sa'īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet said, "When the people of Paradise will enter Paradise and the people of Hell will go to Hell, Allah will order those who have had faith equal to the weight of a grain of mustard seed to be taken out from Hell. So they will be taken out but (by then) they will be blackened (charred). Then they will be put in the river of Ḥayā' or Ḥayār (life) (the narrator is in doubt as to which is the right word), and they will revive like a grain that grows near the..."
bank of a flood channel. Don’t you see that it comes out yellow and twisted?” Wuhaib stated: While narrating us ‘Amr used the word ‘Hayāt (life). Moreover he said, “...goodness equal to the weight of a grain of mustard seed.”

23. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri: Allah’s Messenger ✅ said, “While I was sleeping I saw (in a dream) that some people were displayed before me wearing shirts, of which some were reaching up to the breasts only, while others were even shorter than that. And ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb was displayed before me wearing a (long) shirt which he was dragging.” The people asked, “How did you interpret it? (What is its interpretation) O Allah’s Messenger?”

He (the Prophet ✅) replied, “It is the religion.”

24. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar): When Allah’s Messenger ✅ passed by an Ānārī (man) who was admonishing his brother regarding Al-Hayā, Allah’s Messenger ✅ said, “Leave him as Al-Hayā is a part of faith.”

(See the Glossary for the meaning of the word Al-Hayā’).
2 - THE BOOK OF BELIEF (i.e. FAITH)

(17) CHAPTER. (The Statement of Allah جلـه
"But if they repent [by rejecting Shirk (polytheism) and accept Islamic Monotheism] and perform As-Salât (Iqâmât-as-Ṣalât) and give Zakât(1) then leave their way free." (V.9:5).

25. Narrated Ibn 'Umar ﷺ: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said: "I have been ordered (by Allah) to fight against the people till they testify that Lâ ilâha illallah, wa anna Muḥammad-ar-Rasûl-Allah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah ﷺ and that Muḥammad ﷺ is the Messenger of Allah), and perform As-Salât [Iqâmât-as-Ṣalât (prayers)] and give Zakât so if they perform all that, then they save their lives and properties from me except for Islamic laws, and their reckoning (accounts) will be with (done by) Allah."

(18) CHAPTER. Whoever says that faith is action (good deeds).

Referring to the Statement of Allah جلـه
"And this is the Paradise which you have been made to inherit because of your deeds which you used to do (in the life of the world)", (V.43:72) a number of religious learned men explained the Verse (Statement of Allah ﷺ): "So by your Lord (O Muhammad ﷺ) We shall certainly call all of them to account for all that they used to do” (V.15:92,93). And the Statement: Lā ilāha illallāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh.)

(1) (Ch.17) Zakât زكاة: A certain fixed proportion of the wealth and of every kind of the property liable to Zakât of a Muslim to be paid yearly for the benefit of the poor in the Muslim community. The payment of Zakât is obligatory as it is one of the five pillars of Islam. Zakât is the major economic means for establishing social justice and leading the Muslim society to prosperity and security. [See Šaḥîh Al-Bukhârî, Vol.2, Book of Zakât (24)].

And Allāh said, “For the like of this let the workers work.” (V.37:61)

26. Narrated Abū Hurairah

Allāh’s Messenger was asked, “What is the best deed?”

He replied, “To believe in Allāh and His Messenger (Muḥammad ﷺ).”

The questioner then asked, “What is the next (in goodness)?”

He replied, “To participate in Jihād (holy fighting) in Allāh’s Cause.”

The questioner again asked, “What is the next (in goodness)?”

He replied, “To perform Ḥaḍ (pilgrimage to Makkah) Mabrūr [which is accepted by Allāh ] and is performed with the intention of seeking Allāh’s pleasure only and not to show off and without committing any sin and in accordance with the Sunna (legal ways) of the Prophet ﷺ.”

(19) CHAPTER. If one does not embrace Islam truly but does so by compulsion or for fear of being killed (then that man is not a believer).

According to the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:
The bedouins say, ‘We believe.’ Say (O Muḥammad ﷺ), ‘You believe not but you only say we have surrendered (in Islam).’ ” (V.49:14)

And if they had embraced Islam truly (sincerely) their Islam would have been as is referred to in the Statement of Allāh ﷻ: “Truly, the religion with Allāh is Islam.” (V.3:19). “And whoever seeks a religion other than Islam, it will never be accepted of him, and in the Hereafter he will be one of the losers”. (V.3:85).
27. Narrated Sa’d: Allah's Messenger distributed something amongst (a group of) people while I was sitting there but Allah's Messenger left a man whom I thought the best of the lot. I asked, "O Allah's Messenger! Why have you left that person? By Allah I regard him as a faithful believer."

The Prophet commented: "Or merely a Muslim."

I remained quiet for a while, but could not help repeating my question because of what I knew about him. And then I asked Allah's Messenger, "Why have you left so and so? By Allah! He is a faithful believer."

The Prophet again said, "Or merely a Muslim."

And I could not help repeating my question because of what I knew about him. Then the Prophet said, "O Sa'd! I give to a person while another is dearer to me, for fear that he might be thrown on his face in the Fire by Allah."

(20) CHAPTER. To greet is a part of Islam.

And 'Ammar said, "Whoever acquires the following three qualities will acquire faith:
1. To treat others as one likes to be treated by others.
2. To greet everybody (known and unknown).
3. To spend (give charitable gifts) in Allah's Cause, in spite of poverty."

28. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Amr: A person asked Allah's Messenger:
“What (sort of) deeds in (or what qualities of) Islam are good?” He replied, “To feed (others) and to greet those whom you know and those whom you do not know.”

(21) CHAPTER. To be ungrateful to one’s husband. And disbelief is of (different grades) lesser (or greater) degrees.

This is narrated by Abū Sa’īd Al-Khudri on the authority of the Prophet .

29. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet said: “I was shown the Hell-fire and that the majority of its dwellers were women who were disbelievers or ungrateful.” It was asked, “Do they disbelieve in Allāh?” (or are they ungrateful to Allāh?) He replied, “They are ungrateful to their husbands and are ungrateful for the favours and the good (charitable deeds) done to them. If you have always been good (benevolent) to one of them for a period of time and then she sees something in you (not of her liking), she will say, ‘I have never seen any good from you.’”

(22) CHAPTER. Sins are from ignorance and a sinner is not a disbeliever unless he worships others along with Allāh.

According to the statement of the Prophet . “You still have some characteristics of ignorance.” And the Statement of Allāh ﷺ: “Verily, Allāh forgives not that partners should be set up with Him (in worship) but He forgives except that...”
30. Narrated Al-Ma'rūr: At Ar-Rabadha I met Abū Dhar, who was wearing a cloak, and his slave, too, was wearing a similar one. I asked him about the reason for it. He replied, ‘I abused a man by calling his mother with bad names.’ The Prophet said to me, ‘Oh Abū Dhar! Did you abuse him by calling his mother with bad names? You still have some characteristics of ignorance. Your slaves are your brothers and Allāh has put them under your command. So whoever has a brother under his command, should feed him of that which he eats and dress him of that which he wears. Do not ask them (slaves) to do things beyond their capacity (power) and if you do so, then help them’.

CHAPTER. ‘And if two parties (or groups) from among the believers fall to fighting, then make peace between them both…” (V.49:9) Allāh has called them “believers.”

31. Narrated Al-Ahnaf bin Qais: While I was going to help this man (‘Ali bin Abī Ṭālib), Abū Bakrah met me and asked, ‘Where are you going?’ I replied, ‘I am going to help that person.’ He said, ‘Go back for I have heard Allāh’s Messenger saying, ‘When two Muslims fight (meet) each other with their swords, both the murderer as well as the murdered will go to the Hell-fire.’ I said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! It is alright for the murderer but what about the murdered one?’ Allāh’s Messenger replied, ‘He surely had the intention to kill his companion.’

(anything else) to whom He wills.’” (V.4:48).
2. Narrated ‘Abdulläh bin Mas’ûd رضي الله عنه: When the following Verse was revealed: “It is those who believe (in the Oneness of Allah and worship none but Him Alone) and confuse not their belief with Zułm (wrong i.e. by worshipping others besides Allah) for them (only) there is security and they are the guided” (V.6:82), the Companions of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ asked, “Who is amongst us who had not done Zułm (wrong)?” Then Allah ﷻ revealed: “Verily, joining others in worship with Allah is a great Zułm (wrong) indeed.” (V.31:13)

32. Narrated ‘Abdulläh bin Mas’ûd رضي الله عنه: When the following Verse was revealed: “It is those who believe (in the Oneness of Allah and worship none but Him Alone) and confuse not their belief with Zułm (wrong i.e. by worshipping others besides Allah) for them (only) there is security and they are the guided” (V.6:82), the Companions of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ asked, “Who is amongst us who had not done Zułm (wrong)?” Then Allah ﷻ revealed: “Verily, joining others in worship with Allah is a great Zułm (wrong) indeed.” (V.31:13)

33. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﺔ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The signs of a hypocrite are three:
1. Whenever he speaks, he tells a lie.
2. Whenever he promises, he always breaks it (his promise).
3. Whenever he is entrusted he betrays (proves dishonest). (If you keep something as a trust with him, he will not return it).”

34. Narrated ‘Abdulläh bin ‘Amr رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever has the following four (characteristics) will he a pure hypocrite, and whoever has one of the following four characteristics will have one characteristic of hypocrisy unless and until he gives it up.

1. Whenever he is entrusted, he betrays (proves dishonest).
2. Whenever he speaks, he tells a lie.
3. Whenever he makes a covenant, he proves treacherous.
4. Whenever he quarrels, he behaves in a very imprudent, evil and insulting manner.”

(25) CHAPTER. To establish the (Nawāfīl — voluntary) prayers on the night of Qadr is a part of faith.

35. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever establishes the (Nawāfīl — voluntary) prayers on the night of Qadr out of sincere faith and hoping to attain Allah’s rewards (not to show off) then all his past sins will be forgiven.”

(26) CHAPTER. Al-Jihād^{1} (holy fighting in Allah’s Cause) is a part of faith.

36. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Al-Jihād (Holy fighting) in Allah’s Cause (with full force of numbers and weaponry) is given the utmost importance in Islam and is one of its pillars (on which it stands). By Jihād Islām is established, Allah’s Word is made superior. (His Word — La ilāha illallah — none has the right to be worshipped but Allah), and His Religion Islām is propagated. By abandoning Jihād (may Allah protect us from that) Islām is destroyed and the Muslims fall into an inferior position; their honor is lost, their lands are stolen, their rule and authority vanishes. Jihād is an obligatory duty in Islām on every Muslim, and he who tries to escape from this duty, or does not in his innermost heart wish to fulfill this duty, dies with one of the qualities of a hypocrite.

^{1} Al-Jihād (Holy fighting) in Allah’s Cause
The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allah ﷻ assigns for a person who participates in (holy battles) in Allah’s Cause and nothing causes him to do so except belief in Allah and in His Messengers, that he will be recompensed by Allah either with a reward, or booty (if he survives) or will be admitted to Paradise (if he is killed in the battle as a martyr).” The Prophet ﷺ added: “Had I not found it difficult for my followers, then I would not remain behind any Sarīya (an army-unit) going for Jihād and I would have loved to be martyred in Allah’s Cause and then made alive, and then martyred and then made alive, and then again martyred in His Cause.”

(27) CHAPTER. It is a part of faith to establish the (Nawāafil — voluntary) prayers during the nights of Ramaḍān.

37. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said: “Whoever establishes (Nawāafil — voluntary) prayers during the nights of Ramaḍān faithfully out of sincere faith and hoping to attain Allah’s Rewards, all his past sins will be forgiven.”

(28) CHAPTER. To observe Saum [(fasts) (according to Islāmic teachings)] during the month of Ramaḍān (sincerely and faithfully) hoping for Allah’s Rewards only, is a part of faith.

38. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever observes Saum (fasts) during the month of Ramaḍān out of sincere faith, and hoping to attain Allah’s Rewards, then all his past sins will be forgiven.”
(29) CHAPTER. Religion is very easy.

And the statement of the Prophet ﷺ, “The most beloved religion to Allah is the tolerant Hanifīya [Islamic Monotheism, i.e., to believe in the Oneness of Allah and to worship Him (Allah) Alone and not to worship anything else along with Him].”

39. Narrated Abū Hurairah

And the Statement of Allah ﷻ: “And Allah would never make your faith (prayers) to be lost.” (V.2:143) (i.e. your prayers which you offered in the past facing the Bait-ul-Maqdis (Jerusalem).

40. Narrated Al-Barā’ (bin ‘Āzib)

When the Prophet ﷺ came to Al-Madīna, he stayed first with his grandfathers or maternal uncles from Ansār. He offered his Salāt (prayers) facing Bait-ul-Maqdis (Jerusalem) for sixteen or seventeen months, but he wished that he could pray facing the Ka’bah (at Makkah).

The first Salāt (prayer) which he ﷺ... offered facing the Ka'bah was the 'Asr prayer in the company of some people. Then one of those who had offered that Salāt with him came out and passed by some people in a mosque who were bowing during their Salāt (facing Jerusalem). He said addressing them, “By Allah, I testify that I have offered Salāt with Allah’s Messenger facing Makkah (Ka'bah).” (Hearing that), those people changed their direction towards the Ka'bah, (during the Salāt), they disapproved of it.

Al-Barā‘ī added, “Before we changed our direction towards the Ka'bah (at Makkah) in prayers, some Muslims had died or had been killed and we did not know what to say about them (regarding their prayers.) Allah then revealed: “And Allah would never make your faith (prayers) to be lost (i.e. your Salāt, prayers offered towards Jerusalem).” (V.2:143)

(31) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding the superiority of a person who embraces Islam sincerely).

41. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri: Allah’s Messenger said, “If a person embraces Islam sincerely, then Allah shall forgive all his past sins, and after that starts the settlement of accounts, the reward of his good deeds will be ten times to seven hundred times for each good deed and an evil deed will be recorded as it is unless Allah forgives it.”
42. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “If any one of you improves (follows strictly) his Islamic religion then his good deeds will be rewarded ten times to seven hundred times for each good deed and a bad deed will be recorded as it is.”

(32) CHAPTER. Ad-Dīn (good, righteous deed) — act of worship loved most by Allah is that which is done regularly. (And in fact the best religion with Allah is Islam).

43. Narrated ‘Āishah: Once the Prophet came while a woman was sitting with me. He said, “Who is she?” I replied, “She is so-and-so,” and told him about her (excessive) prayers. He said disapprovingly, “Do (good) deeds which are within your capacity (without being overtaxed) as Allah does not get tired (of giving rewards) but (surely) you will get tired and Ad-Dīn (good, righteous deed — act of worship) loved most by Allah is that which is done regularly.”

(33) CHAPTER. Faith increases and decreases.

And the Statements of Allah, “We increased them in guidance.” (V.18:13) “And the believers may increase in faith.” (V.74:31) — And Allah said, “This day...” (Ch.32) See Fath Al-Bārî (Ad-Dīn is explained as deeds).
I have perfected your religion for you. (V.5:3)

(The last Statement indicates that) if somebody leaves a part of (from) the perfection of the religion then his religion is incomplete.

44. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, “Whoever said La ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh) and has in his heart good (faith) equal to the weight of a barley grain, will be taken out of Hell. And whoever said: La ilaha illallah and has in his heart good (faith) equal to the weight of a wheat grain will be taken out of Hell. And whoever said “La ilaha illallah” (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh) and has in his heart good (faith) equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant) will be taken out of Hell.”

45. Narrated `Umar bin Al-Khattâb: Once a Jew said to me, “O chief of believers! There is a Verse in your Holy Book which is read by all of you (Muslims), and had it been revealed to us, we would have taken that day (on which it was revealed) as an ‘Eid (Festival) day’.” `Umar bin Al-Khattâb asked, “Which is that Verse?” The Jew replied, “This day I have perfected your religion for you, completed My Favour upon you, and have chosen for you Islam as your religion.” (V.5:3)

`Umar replied, “No doubt, we know when and where this Verse was revealed to the Prophet. It was Friday... and the Prophet was standing at ‘Arafat (i.e., the Day of Hajj)."

(34) CHAPTER. To pay Zakāt is a part of Islam.

And the Statement of Allah:

"And they were commanded not, but that they should worship Allah, and worship none but Him Alone (abstaining from ascribing partners to Him) and to perform As-Salāt (Iqamāt-as-Salāt) and to give Zakāt, and that is the right religion." (V.98:5)

46.Narrated Ṭalḥa bin ‘Ubaidullāh: A man from Najd with unkempt hair came to Allah’s Messenger and we heard his loud voice but could not understand what he was saying, till he came near (and then we came to know) that he was asking about Islam. Allah’s Messenger said, “You have to perform five Salāt (prayers) (Iqamāt-as-Salāt) in a day and night (24 hours).” The man asked, “Are there any other (more) Salāt (prayers) upon me?” Allah’s Messenger replied, “No, but if you want to perform the Nawāfīl Salāt (you can).” Allah’s Messenger further said to him: “You have to observe Saum [fasts (according to Islamic teachings)] during the month of Ramadān.” The man asked, “Are there any other (more) fasting upon me?” Allah’s Messenger replied, “No, but if you want to observe the Nawāfīl fasts (you can).” Then

(1) (Ch.34) Zakāt: A certain fixed proportion of the wealth and of each and every kind of the property liable to Zakāt of a Muslim to be paid yearly for the benefit of the poor in the Muslim community. The payment of Zakāt is obligatory as it is one of the five pillars of Islam. Zakāt is the major economic means for establishing social justice and leading the Muslim society to prosperity and security. [See Sahih Al-Bukhārī, Vol.2, Book of Zakāt (24)].
Allah’s Messenger ﷺ further said to him, “You have to pay the Zakat.” The man asked, “Is there anything other than the Zakat for me to pay?” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ replied, “No, unless you want to give alms of your own.” And then that man retreated saying, “By Allah! I will neither do less nor more than this.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If what he said is true, then he will be successful (i.e. he will be granted Paradise).”

(35) CHAPTER. To accompany the funeral processions (up to the place of burial) is a part of faith.

47. Narrated Abu Hurairah:

Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A believer who accompanies the funeral procession of a Muslim out of sincere faith and hoping to attain Allah’s Reward and remains with it till the funeral prayer is offered and the burial ceremonies are over, he will return with a reward of two Qirat. Each Qirat is like the size of the (mount) Uhud. He who offers the funeral prayer only and returns before the burial, will return with the reward of one Qirat only.”

(36) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) the fear of a believer that his good deeds may be annulled (lost) without his knowledge.

And Ibrâhîm At-Taimî said, “When I compare my talks with my deeds (then I find that my deeds are deficient compared with my talks). I am afraid, my deeds deny what I talk.” And Ibn Abî Mulaika said, “I met thirty Companions of the Prophet ﷺ and each of them was afraid of becoming a hypocrite and none of them said that he was as strong in belief as the angel Jibril (Gabriel) or Mikael (Michael)." And Al-Hasan (Al-Baṣrī) said, "It is only a faithful believer who dreads hypocrisy and only a hypocrite who considers himself safe (is not afraid of hypocrisy)."

And one should be afraid, not to persist in hypocrisy and disobedience of Allah (by committing sins) without repenting to Allāh immediately, as is referred to in the Statement of Allāh عَزَّ وَجَلَّ: "And (they) do not persist in what (wrong) they have done, while they know." (V.3:135).

48. Narrated ‘Abdullah (bin Mas‘ūd) رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Abusing a Muslim is Fusūq (an evil doing) and killing him is Kufr (disbelief)."

49. Narrated ‘Ubāda bin Aṣ-Ṣāmit رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ went out to inform the people about the (date of) the night of decree (Al-Qadr) but there happened a quarrel between two men from amongst the Muslims. The Prophet ﷺ said, "I came out to inform you about (the date of) the night of Al-Qadr, but as so-and-so quarrelled, its knowledge was taken away (I forgot it) and maybe it was better for you. Now look for it in the 7th, the 9th and the 5th (of the last 10 nights of the month of Ramadan)."

(37) CHAPTER. The asking of (angel) Jibril (Gabriel) from the Prophet ﷺ about Belief, Islam, Ihsan (perfection) and the knowledge of the Hour (Doomsday).

And their explanation given to him by the Prophet (PBUH). Then the Prophet (PBUH) said (to his Companions), “Jibril (Gabriel) came to teach you your religion.” So the Prophet (PBUH) regarded all that as religion. And all that which the Prophet (PBUH) explained to the delegation of Abdul Qais was a part of faith. (See Hadith No.53 and 87). And the Statement of Allah (SWT): “And whoever seeks a religion other than Islam, it will never be accepted of him.” (V.3:85).

50. Narrated Abu Hurairah (RA):
One day while the Prophet (PBUH) was sitting out for the people, (a man – the angel) Jibril (Gabriel) came to him and asked, “What is faith?” Allah’s Messenger (PBUH) replied, “Faith is to believe in Allah, His angels, (the) meeting with Him, His Messengers, and to believe in Resurrection.” Then he further asked, “What is Islam?” Allah’s Messenger (PBUH) replied, “To worship Allah Alone and none else, to perform the Salāt (prayers) (Iqāmat-as-Salāt), to pay the Zakāt and to observe Saum [fats (according to Islamic teachings)] during the month of Ramaḍān.

Then he further asked, “What is Ihsan (perfection)?” Allah’s Messenger (PBUH) replied, “To worship Allah as if you see Him, and if you cannot achieve this state of devotion then you must consider that...

1. (H.50) In this Hadith, only 4 items are mentioned, while in another Hadith, 6 items are mentioned. (i) Allah, (ii) His angels, (iii) His Books (The Torah, The Gospel, The Qur’an and all the other Holy Books revealed by Allah), (iv) His Messengers, (v) Day of Resurrection and (vi) Al-Qadar (Divine Pre-ordainments, i.e., whatever Allah has ordained, must come to pass).

2. (H.50) Again the principles of Islam mentioned here are 4, but in other narrations, they are five – 5th is the Pilgrimage (Hajj) to Makkah for the one who can afford it, once in a lifetime.
He is looking at you.” Then he further asked, “When will the Hour be established?” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ replied, “The answerer has no better knowledge than the questioner. But I will inform you about its portents.

1. When a slave (lady) gives birth to her master.

2. When the shepherds of black camels start boasting and competing with others in the construction of higher buildings. And the Hour is one of five things which nobody knows except Allah.

The Prophet ﷺ then recited:

“Verily, Allah! With Him (Alone) is the knowledge of the Hour —.” (V.31:34) Then that man (the angel) left and the Prophet ﷺ asked his Companions to call him back, but they could not see anything (him). Then the Prophet ﷺ said, “That was Jibril (Gabriel عليه السلام), who came to teach the people their religion.”

Abū ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنه said: He (the Prophet ﷺ) considered all that as a part of faith.

(38) CHAPTER.

51. Narrated Abū Sufyān that Heraclius said to him, “I asked you whether they (followers of Muḥammad ﷺ) were increasing or decreasing. You replied that they were increasing. And in fact, this is the way of true Faith till it is complete in all respects. I further asked you whether there was anybody, who, after embracing his (the Prophet ﷺ) religion (Islam) became displeased and discarded it. You replied in the negative, and in fact, this is (a sign of) True Faith. When its delight enters the heart and mixes with them completely, nobody can be displeased with it.”
2. THE BOOK OF BELIEF (i.e. FAITH)

(39) CHAPTER. The superiority of that person who leaves all doubtful (unclear) things for the sake of his religion.

52. Narrated An-Nu’mân bin Bashîr: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “Both legal and illegal things are evident but in between them there are doubtful (unclear) things and most of the people have no knowledge about them. So whoever saves himself from these doubtful (unclear) things, he saves his religion and his honour. And whoever indulges in these doubtful (unclear) things is like a shepherd who grazes (his animals) near the Hima (private pasture) of someone else, and at any moment he is liable to get in it. (O people!) Beware! Every king has a Hima and the Hima of Allah on the earth is His illegal (forbidden) things. Beware! There is a piece of flesh in the body, if it becomes good (reformed), the whole body becomes good, but if it gets spoilt, the whole body gets spoilt, and that is the heart.

(40) CHAPTER. To pay Al-Khumus (one-fifth of the war booty to be given in Allah’s Cause) is a part of faith.

53. Narrated Abû Jamra: I used to sit with Ibn ‘Abbás and he made me sit on his sitting place. He requested me to stay with him in order that he might give me a share from his property. So I stayed with him for two months. Once he told (me) that when the delegation of the tribe of ‘Abdul Qais came to the Prophet, the Prophet asked them, “Who are the people (i.e. you)? (Or) who are the delegates?” They replied, “We are from the tribe of Rabî’a.” Then the Prophet said to them, “Welcome! O people (or O delegation of ‘Abdul Qais)! Neither will you have disgrace or will you regret.” They said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We cannot come to you except in the sacred month and there is the infidel tribe of Mudar intervening between you and us. So please order us to do something good (religious deeds) so that we may inform our people whom we have left behind (at home), and that we may enter Paradise (by acting on them).” Then they asked about drinks (what is legal and what is illegal). The Prophet ordered them to do four things and forbade them from four things. He ordered them to believe in Allah Alone and asked them, “Do you know what is meant by believing in Allah Alone?” They replied, “Allah and His Messenger know better.”

Thereupon the Prophet said, “It means:

1. To testify that La ilaha illallah wa anna Muhammed-ar-Rasul Allâh” (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah).
2. Iqamat-as-Salât [to perform the (compulsory congregational) Salât (prayers)].
3. To pay the Zakât.
4. To observe Saum [fasts (according to Islamic teachings)] during the month of Ramadân.
5. And to pay Al-Khumus (one-fifth of the booty to be given in Allah’s Cause).

Then he forbade them four things, namely Al-Hantam, Ad-Dubbâ’, An-Naqîr and Al-Muzaffât or Al-Muqaiyar; (these were the names of pots in which alcoholic drinks were prepared) (the Prophet mentioned the container of wine and he meant the wine itself). The Prophet further said (to them): “Memorize them (these instructions) and convey them to the people whom you have left behind.”
(41) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the statement: “The reward of deeds depends upon the intention and hoping to get rewards from Allâh.”

And every person will get the reward according to what he has intended.

And this includes faith, ablution, As-Salât, Zakât, Hajj, As-Saum and all the Ahkâm (orders) of Allâh.

Allâh تعالى said, “Say: Each one does (deeds) according to Shakilâtihí (i.e., his way or his religion or his intentions etc)...” (V.17:84)

And the spending of a man for his family with the intention of having a reward from Allâh, will be regarded as alms.

And the Prophet ﷺ said, “Jihâd(1) and intentions.” (meaning — Jihâd — to fight for Allâh’s Cause, and when there is no call for it then at least one should have the intention to take part in Jihâd).

54. Narrated ‘Umar (bin Al-Khattab) ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The reward of deeds depends upon the intentions, and every person will get the reward according to what he has intended. So, whoever emigrates for Allâh and His Messenger (ﷺ) then his emigration will be for Allâh and His Messenger (ﷺ). And whoever emigrates for worldly benefits or for a woman to marry, his emigration will be for what he emigrated for.”

55. Narrated Abû Mas‘ûd ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If a man spends on his family with the intention of having a reward

(1) (Ch.41) Jihâd against Kufr i.e., to fight for Allâh’s Cause when there is a call for it, otherwise one should have the intentions to participate in Jihâd and this intention has the same reward as that of Jihâd itself.
from Allāh, sincerely for Allāh’s sake then it is a (kind of) alms-giving (in reward) for him.”

56. Narrated Sa‘d bin Abī Waqqās: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “You will be rewarded for whatever you spend for Allāh’s sake, even if it were a morsel which you put in your wife’s mouth.”

57. Narrated Jarir bin Abdullāh: “The statement of Allāh ﷺ: ‘If they are sincere (in duty) to Allāh and His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ).’” (V.9:91)

(42) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: Religion is An-Nasîhah (to be sincere and true) to Allāh, to His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ), to the Muslim rulers, and to all the Muslims. (1)

And the Statement of Allāh ﷺ: “If they are sincere (in duty) to Allāh and His Messenger.” (V.9:91)

(1) (Ch.42) (To be sincere and true)

1) To Allāh ﷺ! i.e., obeying Him, by following His religion of Islamic Monotheism, attributing to Him what He deserves and doing Jihād for His sake and to believe in Him, to fear Him much (abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which He has forbidden) and love Him much (perform all kinds of good deeds which He has ordained).]
2) To Allāh’s Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) [i.e. to respect him greatly, and to believe that he ﷺ is Allāh’s Messenger, and to fight on his behalf both in his lifetime and after his death and to follow his Sunna (legal ways etc.).]
3) To the Muslims rulers (i.e. to help them in their job of leading Muslims to the Right Path and alarm them if they are heedless).
4) To all the Muslims (in common) [i.e., to order them for Al-Ma‘rūf (i.e., Islamic Monotheism, and all that Islam has ordained), and to forbid them from Al-Munkar (i.e., disbelief, polytheism of all kinds and all that Islam has forbidden), to help them and to be merciful and kind to them etc.].
I gave Al-Bai‘ūth (pledge) to Allâh’s Messenger for the following:
1. Iqāmat-as-Ṣalât [to perform the (compulsory congregational) Ṣalât (prayers)].
2. To pay the Zakât
3. And to be sincere and true to every Muslim [i.e., to order them for Al-Ma‘rūf: (i.e., Islamic Monotheism, and all that Islam orders one to do), and to forbid them the Al-Munkar (i.e., disbelief, polytheism of all kinds, and all that Islam has forbidden), to help them and to be merciful and kind to them.

58. Narrated Ziyâd bin ‘Aaqa: I heard Jarîr bin ‘Abdullâh [praising Allâh alone] (on the day when Al-Mughîrâ bin Shu‘ba died, he (Jarîr) got up (on the pulpit) and thanked and praised Allâh and said, “Be afraid of Allâh alone. Who has none along with Him to be worshipped. (You should) be calm and quiet till the (new) chief comes to you and he will come to you soon. Ask Allâh’s forgiveness for your (late) chief because he himself loved to forgive others.” Jarîr added, “Ammâ ba du (then after), I came to the Prophet and said, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! I give my Bai‘úth (pledge) to you for Islam.’ The Prophet conditioned (my pledge) for me to be sincere and true to every Muslim i.e., to order them for the Al-Ma‘rūf [i.e., Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam orders one to do, and to forbid them from the Al-Munkar (i.e., disbelief, polytheism of all kinds, and all that Islam has forbidden), and to help them, and to be merciful and kind to them etc.], so I gave my pledge to him for this. By the Lord of this mosque! I am sincere and true to you (Muslims).’"

Then Jarîr asked for Allâh’s forgiveness and came down (from the pulpit).
(1) CHAPTER. The superiority of knowledge.

And the Statement of Allāh (Glory be to Him):

"...Allāh will exalt in degree those of you who believe, and those who have been granted knowledge. And Allāh is Well-Acquainted with what you do." (V.58:11)

And the Statement of Allāh (Glory be to Him):

"...My Lord, increase me in knowledge." (V.20:114)

(2) CHAPTER. Whoever is asked about knowledge while he is busy in some conversation, so he finished his talk, and then answered the questioner.

59. Narrated Abū Hurairah: While the Prophet was saying something in a gathering, a bedouin came and asked him, "When would the Hour (Doomsday) take place?" Allāh's Messenger continued his talk, so some people said that Allāh's Messenger had heard the question, but did not like what that bedouin had asked. Some of them said that Allāh's Messenger had not heard it. When the Prophet finished his speech, he said, "Where is the questioner, who enquired about the Hour?" The bedouin said, "I am here, O Allāh's Messenger." Then the Prophet said, "When Al-Amānah (i.e., the trust or moral responsibility or honesty and all the duties which Allāh has ordained) is lost, then wait for the Hour." The bedouin said, "How will that be lost?" The Prophet said, "When the power or authority is given to those who do not deserve it (i.e. they are not pious religious scholars), then wait for the Hour."

(1) (H.59) See Fath-Al-Bāri, for details.
(3) CHAPTER. Whoever raises his voice in (conveying) knowledge.

60. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Amr bin ‘Abd Múmmîn: Once the Prophet ﷺ remained behind us in a journey. He joined us while we were performing ablution for the Salãt (prayer) which was overdue. We were just passing wet hands over our feet (and not washing them properly) so the Prophet ﷺ addressed us in a loud voice and said twice or thrice: “Save your heels from the Fire.”
61. Narrated Ibn 'Umar Ḥ. : Allah's Messenger Ḥ. said, "Amongst the trees, there is a tree, the leaves of which do not fall and is like a Muslim. Tell me the name of that tree." Everybody started thinking about the trees of the desert areas. And I thought of the date-palm tree but felt shy to answer. The others then asked, "Please inform us, what is that tree, O Allah's Messenger?" He Ḥ. replied, "It is the date-palm tree."

(5) CHAPTER. The Īnām questioning his companions in order to test their knowledge.

62. Narrated Ibn 'Umar Ḥ.: The Prophet Ḥ. said, "Amongst the trees, there is a tree, the leaves of which do not fall and is like a Muslim. Tell me the name of that tree." Everybody started thinking about the trees of the desert areas. And I thought of the date-palm tree. The others then asked, "Please inform us what is that tree, O Allah's Messenger?" He Ḥ. replied, "It is the date-palm tree."

(6) CHAPTER. What is said about knowledge.

And the Statement of Allah ᴡ  : "And say: My Lord! Increase me in knowledge." (V.20:114)
To recite or read (something) and present it in front of a scholar.

The recitation or reading of the hadith.

To recite or read (something) and present it in front of a scholar.

Abd Allah bin Moses bin Sufyan said: If a qari' is reciting a hadith, he should not recite it in front of the scholar.

And Allah said: Verily, if you recite the qari' in front of the scholar, He will admonish you, he will teach you, and he will make you a qari'.

The qari' is a person who recites and reads something and presents it in front of a scholar.
63. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik:
While we were sitting with the Prophet in the mosque, a man came riding on a camel. He made his camel kneel down in the mosque, tied its foreleg and then said: "Who amongst you is Muhammad?" At that time the Prophet was sitting amongst us (his Companions) leaning on his arm. We replied, "This white man reclining on his arm." The man then addressed him, "O son of 'Abdul Muţtalib." The Prophet said, "I am here to answer your questions." The man said to the Prophet, "I want to ask you something and will be hard in questioning. So do not get angry." The Prophet said, "Ask whatever you want." The man said, "I ask you by your Lord, and the Lord of those who were before you, has Allâh sent you as a Messenger to all the mankind?" The Prophet replied, "By Allâh, yes." The man further said, "I ask you by Allâh. Has Allâh ordered you to offer five Salât (prayers) in a day and night (24 hours)?" He replied, "By Allâh, yes." The man further said, "I ask you by Allâh! Has Allâh ordered you to observe Saum (fasts) during this month of the year (i.e., Ramaďan)?" He replied, "By Allâh, yes." The man further said, "I ask you by Allâh. Has Allâh ordered you to take Zakât from our rich people and distribute it amongst our poor people?" The Prophet replied, "By Allâh, yes." Thereupon that man said, "I have believed in all that with which you have been sent, and I have been sent by my people as a messenger, and I am Dimâm bin Thâl'âba from the brothers of Bani Sa'd bin Bakr."
(7) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the hand to hand exchange (of books of knowledge), and the writing of knowledge by religious scholars to different countries.

Anas said that ‘Uthmān got the Qur’ān transcribed and sent its copies to far-off places. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar, Yahyā bin Sa‘īd and Mālik consider it permissible, and some people of Hijāz supported this opinion depending on the narration of the Prophet ﷺ, when the Prophet ﷺ got some instructions written to be given to the commander of the army, and told him (the commander) not to read them till he had reached such and such place. When that commander reached that place he read out what had been written to the people and informed them of the orders of the Prophet ﷺ.

64. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbas رضي الله عنه: Once Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ gave a letter to a person and ordered him to go and deliver it to the governor of Bahrain. (He did so) and the governor of Bahrain sent it to Khosrau, who read that letter and then tore it to pieces.

(The subnarrator (Ibn-Shihāb) thinks that Ibn Al-Musaiyab said that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ invoked Allāh against them (saying), “May Allāh tear them into pieces, and disperse them all totally.”
65. Narrated Anas bin Malik

Once the Prophet ﷺ wrote a letter or intended to write a letter. The Prophet ﷺ was told that they (rulers) would not read letters unless they were sealed. So the Prophet ﷺ got a silver ring made with “Muḥammad the Messenger of Allāh” engraved on it. As if I were just observing its white glitter in the hand of the Prophet ﷺ.

66. Narrated Abū Wāqīd Al-Laithī

While Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was sitting in the mosque with some people, three men came. Two of them came in front of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and the third one went away. The two persons kept on standing before Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ for a while and then one of them found a place in the circle and sat there while the other sat behind them (the gathering), and the third one went away. When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ finished his preaching, he said, “Shall I tell you about these three persons? One of them betook himself to Allāh, so Allāh took him into His Grace and Mercy and accommodated him, the second felt shy from Allāh and Allāh sheltered Him in His Mercy (and did not punish him), while the third turned his face... from Allāh and went away, so Allāh turned His Face from him likewise.”

(9) CHAPTER. The Statement of the Prophet ﷺ: It is probable that a person who receives a piece of information indirectly may comprehend it better than he who has heard it directly from its source.”

67. Narrated ‘Abdur Raḥmān bin Abī Bakrah’s father: Once the Prophet ﷺ was riding his camel and a man was holding its rein. The Prophet ﷺ asked, “What is the day today?” We kept quiet, thinking that he might give that day another name. He asked, “Isn’t it the day of Ṣa’d?” We replied, “Yes.” He further asked, “Which month is this?” We again kept quiet, thinking that he might give it another name. Then he said, “Isn’t it the month of Dhu-l-Hijja?” We replied, “Yes.” He said, “Verily! Your blood, property and honour are sacred to one another (i.e. Muslims) like the sanctity of this day of yours, in this month of yours and in this city of yours. It is incumbent upon those who are present to inform those who are absent because those who are absent might comprehend (what I have said) better than the present audience.”
(10) CHAPTER. It is essential to know a thing first before saying or acting upon it,

According to the Statement of Allāh ﷻ: "So know (O Muḥammad ﷺ) that “La ilāha illallāh... (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh),” (V.47:19) So Allāh stated that one should acquire knowledge first. And religious scholars are the inheritors of the Prophets, i.e., they inherit knowledge. And whoever gains knowledge is lucky and gains a great thing. And whoever followed a way to seek (religious) knowledge, Allāh ﷻ will make easy for him the way to Paradise. Allāh ﷻ said, "...It is only those who have knowledge among His slaves that fear Allāh..." (V.35:28) And Allāh ﷻ said, "...But none will understand them except those who have knowledge." (V.29:43). (And also Allāh’s Statement): “And they will say: Had we but listened or used our intelligence, we would not have been among the dwellers of the blazing Fire.” (V.67:10) And Allāh ﷻ also said, "...Are those who know equal to those who know not?..." (V.39:9)

And the Prophet ﷺ said, “If Allāh wants to do good to a person, He makes him comprehend the religion and verily, knowledge is attained by learning.” Abū Dhar pointing towards his neck said, “If you put the sword on this (my neck to kill me) and then I think that, before this sword could work, I can say even one sentence which I heard from the Prophet ﷺ, I would surely say it. (Indicating that one should convey the knowledge that one has acquired to the others).” And Ibn ‘Abbās said, “You should be Rabbaniyyān (religious scholars) forgiving, wise, and learned men.” And it is said that a Rabbaniyy (religious scholar) is the one who starts teaching people simple subjects of knowledge before touching big (difficult) ones.

(11) CHAPTER. The Prophet ﷺ used to take care of the people in preaching by selecting a suitable time so that they might not run away (never made them averse or bored them with religious talk and knowledge all the time).

68. Narrated Ibn Mas‘ūd رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ used to take care of us in preaching by selecting a suitable time, so that we might not get bored. (He abstained from pestering us with religious talk and knowledge all the time).

69. Narrated Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Make things easy for the people, and do not make things difficult for them and give them glad tidings and do not repel them”.

(12) CHAPTER. Whoever fixed a special day for giving (a religious talk) to the students.

70. Narrated Abū Wa‘īl ‘Abdullāh: ‘Abdullāh used to give a religious talk to the people on every Thursday. Once a man said, “O Abā ‘Abdur-Rahmān! (By Allāh)! I wish if you could preach us daily.” He replied, “The only thing which prevents me from doing so, is that I hate to bore you, and no doubt I take care of you in preaching by selecting a suitable time just as the Prophet ﷺ used to do with us, for fear of making us bored.”
(13) CHAPTER. If Allah wants to do good to a person, He makes him comprehend (the religion). [The understanding of the Qur'an and As-Sunna (legal ways) of the Prophet (Muḥammad ﷺ)].

71. Narrated Muʿāwiyah in a Khiṭaba (religious talk): I heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ saying, "If Allah wants to do good to a person, He makes him comprehend the religion [the understanding of the Qur'an and As-Sunna (legal ways) of the Prophet (Muḥammad ﷺ)], I am just a distributor, but the grant is from Allāh عรวج. (And remember) that this nation (true Muslims — real followers of Islamic Monotheism) will remain obedient to Allāh's Orders [i.e. following strictly Allāh's Book (the Qur'an) and the Prophet's Sunna (legal ways)] and they will not be harmed by anyone who will oppose them (going on a different path), till Allāh's Order (Day of Judgement) is established."

(14) CHAPTER. (The superiority of) comprehending knowledge.

72. Narrated Ibn `Umar رضي الله عنهما: We were with the Prophet ﷺ and a spadix of date-palm tree was brought to him. On that he said, "Amongst the trees, there is a tree which resembles a Muslim." I wanted to say that it was the date-palm tree but as I was the youngest of all (of them) I kept quiet. And then the Prophet ﷺ said, "It is the date-palm tree."
(15) CHAPTER. Wish to be like the one who has knowledge and Al-Hikmah [wisdom i.e., the knowledge of the Qur'an and the Sunna (legal ways) of the Prophet ﷺ].

And ‘Umar رضي الله عنه said, “Everyone must acquire sound religious knowledge early before he becomes a chief.” (Abū ‘Abdullāh said:) The Companions of the Prophet ﷺ had studied inspite of the fact that they were old in age.

73. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not wish to be like anyone except in two cases. (The first is) a person, whom Allāh has given wealth and he spends it righteously (according to what Allāh has ordered in a just and right way); (the second is) the one whom Allāh has given Al-Hikmah [wisdom i.e., the knowledge of the Qur’ān and the Sunna (legal ways) of the Prophet ﷺ] and he acts according to it and teaches it to others.” (See Fath Al-Bārī Vol. I, page 177)

(16) CHAPTER. What has been said about the journey of Prophet Mūsā (Moses) عليه السلام (when he went) in the sea to meet Al-Khḍr.

And the Statement of Allāh:

“...May I follow you so that you teach me” (V.18:66)

74. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنه that he differed with Ḥur bin Qais bin Ḥiṣn Al-Fazārī regarding the companion of (the Prophet) Mūsā (Moses). Ibn 'Abbās said that he was Khidr. Meanwhile, Ubay bin Ka'b passed by them and Ibn 'Abbās called him, saying "My friend (Hur) and I have differed regarding Mūsā's companion whom he asked the way to meet. Have you heard the Prophet mentioning something about him?" He said, "Yes. I heard Allah's Messenger saying, 'While Mūsā was sitting in the company of some Israelites, a man came and asked him: Do you know anyone who is more learned than you? Mūsā asked (Allah) how to meet him (Khidr). So Allah made the fish as a sign for him and he was told that when the fish was lost, he should return (to the place where he had lost it) and there he would meet him (Al-Khidr). So Mūsā went on looking for the sign of the fish in the sea. The boy-servant of Mūsā said to him: Do you remember when we betook ourselves to the rock, I indeed forgot the fish, none but Satan made me forget to remember it. On that Mūsā said: That is what we have been seeking! (V.18:64) So they went back retracing their footsteps, and found Khidr. (And) what happened further to them is narrated by Allah in His Book — the Qur'an. (V.18:54 up to V.18:82)
(17) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “O Allāh! Bestow on him (Ibn ‘Abbās) the knowledge of the Book (the Qur’ān).”

75. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ:
Once the Prophet ﷺ embraced me and said, “O Allāh! Bestow on him the knowledge of the Book (the Qur’ān).”

(18) CHAPTER. At what age may a youth be listened to (i.e. quotation of the Hadīth from a boy be acceptable).

76. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ:
Once I came riding a she-ass and had (just) attained the age of puberty. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was offering Salāt (prayer) at Minā. There was no wall in front of him and I passed in front of some of the rows while they were offering their Salāt. There I let the she-ass loose to graze and entered the row, and nobody objected to it.

77. Narrated Maḥmūd bin Rabī’ ﷺ:
When I was a boy of five, I remember, the Prophet ﷺ took water from a bucket (used for getting water out of a well) with his mouth and threw it on my face.
(19) CHAPTER. To go out in search of knowledge.

And Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh travelled for one month to get a single Hadīth from ‘Abdullāh bin Unais.

78. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās (رضي الله عنه) that he differed with Ḥur bin Qais bin Ḥiṣn Al-Fazārī regarding the companion of Prophet Mūsā (Moses). Meanwhile, Ubai bin Ka'b passed by them and Ibn ‘Abbās called him saying, “My friend (Ḥur) and I have differed regarding Musa’s (عليه السلام) companion whom he asked the way to meet. Have you heard Allah’s Messenger mentioning something about him? Ubai bin Ka'b said: “Yes, I heard the Prophet mentioning something about him (saying), ‘While Mūsā (عليه السلام) was sitting in the company of some Israelites, a man came and asked him: ‘Do you know anyone who is more learned than you? Mūsā (عليه السلام) replied: No. So Allah sent the Divine Revelation to Mūsā (عليه السلام): Yes, Our slave Khīdr is more learned than you. Mūsā (عليه السلام) asked Allah how to meet him (Al-Khīdr). So Allah made the fish a sign for him and he was told when the fish was lost, he should return (to the place where he had lost it) and there he would meet him (Al-Khīdr). So Mūsā (عليه السلام) went on looking for the sign of the fish in the sea. The boy-servant of Mūsā (عليه السلام) said: Do you remember when we betook ourselves to the rock, I indeed forgot the fish, none but Satan made me forget to remember it. On that Mūsā (عليه السلام) said: That is what we have been seeking. So they went back retracing their foot steps, and found Khīdr (and) what happened further about them is narrated by Allah in His Book – the Qur’an.” (V.18:54 up to V.18:82).

(20) CHAPTER. The superiority of a person who learns (Islam, becomes a religious scholar) and then teaches it to others.

79. Narrated Abu-Musa: The Prophet ﷺ said, "The example of guidance and knowledge with which Allah has sent me is like abundant rain falling on the earth, some of which was fertile soil that absorbed rain-water and brought forth vegetation and grass in abundance. (And) another portion of it was hard and held the rain-water and Allah benefited the people with it and they utilized it for drinking, making their animals drink from it and to irrigate the land for cultivation. (And) a portion of it was barren which could neither hold the water nor bring forth vegetation (then that land gave no benefits). The first is the example of the person who comprehends Allah’s religion (Islam) and gets benefit (from the knowledge) which Allah has revealed through me (the Prophet ﷺ) and learns and then teaches it to others. The (last example is that of a) person who does not care for it and does not take Allah’s guidance revealed through me (He is like that barren land.)"
3 - THE BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE

(21) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) the disappearance of the (religious) knowledge and the appearance of (religious) ignorance.

And Rabi‘a said, “It is not wise for a person who has been gifted with a part of the (religious) knowledge to ruin himself (by abstaining from teaching it to others).”

80. Narrated Anas: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “From among the portents of the Hour are (the following):
1. Religious knowledge will be taken away (by the death of religious learned men).
2. Ignorance (of religion) will prevail.
3. Drinking of alcoholic drinks (will be very common).
4. There will be prevalence of open illegal sexual intercourse.

81. Narrated Anas: I will narrate to you a Hadîth which none will narrate to you after me. I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying: “From among the portents of the Hour are (the following):
1. (Religious) knowledge will decrease (by the death of religious learned men).
2. Ignorance (of religion) will prevail.
3. There will be prevalence of open illegal sexual intercourse.
4. Women will increase in number and men will decrease in number so much so that fifty women will be looked after by one man. (See Hadîth No.1036. Vol.2).

(22) CHAPTER. The superiority of (religious) knowledge.

82. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “While I was sleeping, I saw that a cup full of milk was brought to me and I drank my fill till I noticed its (the milk) wetness coming out of my nails. Then I gave the remaining milk to ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb.” (The Companions of the Prophetﷺ) asked, “What have you interpreted (about this dream)? O Allāh’s Messenger!” He replied, “(It is religious) knowledge.”

(23) CHAPTER. To give a religious verdict while riding an animal or standing on anything else.

83. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr bin Al-‘Āṣ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ stopped (for a while near the Jimār) at Minā during his last Hajj for the people and they were asking him questions. A man came and said, “I forgot and got my head shaved before slaughtering the Hady (sacrificing animal).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “There is no harm, go and do the slaughtering now.” Then another person came and said, “I forgot and slaughtered (the camel) before Ramy (throwing of the pebbles at the Jamra).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do it now (the Ramy) and there is no harm.”

The narrator added: So, on that day, when the Prophet ﷺ was asked about anything (as regards the ceremonies of Hajj during the days at Mina) performed before or after its due time, his reply was: “Do it (now) and there is no harm.”

(24) CHAPTER. Whoever gave a religious verdict by beckoning or by nodding.

84. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ (during his last Hajj), “I did the slaughtering before doing the Ramy.”

The Prophet \( \text{ﷺ} \) beckoned with his hand and said, “There is no harm in that.” Then another person said, “I got my head shaved before offering the sacrifice.” The Prophet \( \text{ﷺ} \) beckoned with his hand saying, “There is no harm in that.”

85. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet \( \text{ﷺ} \) said, “(Religious) knowledge will be taken away (by the death of religious scholars), ignorance (in religion) and Al-Fītn (trials and afflictions) will appear; and Haır will increase.” It was asked, “What is Haır, O Allah’s Messenger?” He replied by beckoning with his hand indicating “killing.”

86. Narrated Asmā’ (bint Abū Bakr): I came to ‘Aishah while she was offering Salāt (prayer), and said to her, “What has happened to the people?” She pointed out towards the sky. (I looked towards the mosque), and saw the people offering Salāt (the prayer). Aishah said, “Subhān Allah.” I said to her, “Is there a sign?” She nodded with her head meaning, “Yes.” I, too, then stood (for the prayer of eclipse) till I became (nearly) unconscious and later on I poured water on my head. After the prayer, the Prophet \( \text{ﷺ} \) praised and glorified Allah and then said, “Just now at this place I have seen what I have never seen before, including Paradise and Hell. No doubt it has been revealed to me that you will be put to trials in your graves, and these trials will be like the trials of Al-Masih Ad-Dajjal or nearly like it (the subnarrator is not sure which expression Asmā’ used).

1) (H.84) Ramy: i.e., throwing small stones at the Jamarāt and it is one of the ceremonies of Hajj during the days at Mina, the others are Halaq (shaving of the head-hair), Dhābah (slaughtering of Hady), and Mobīt (to sleep at night there at Mina).

You will be asked, ‘What do you know about this man (Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ’? Then the faithful believer (or Asmā’ said a similar word) will reply, ‘He is Muḥammad ﷺ, Allah’s Messenger who came to us with clear evidences and guidance and so we accepted his teachings and followed him. And he is Muḥammad ﷺ.’ And he will repeat it thrice. Then the angels will say to him, ‘Sleep in peace as we have come to know that you were a faithful believer.’ On the other hand, a hypocrite or a doubtful person will reply, ‘I do not know, but I heard the people saying something and so I said it’ (the same).’ [See Vol. 2, Hadith No. 1338]

(25) CHAPTER. The Prophet ﷺ urged the people (mission) of ‘Abdul Qais to memorize the faith and the (religious) knowledge (as he explained to them) and to inform (convey) to their people whom they have left behind (at home).

Narrated Mālik bin Al-Huwairith that the Prophet ﷺ said to them, “Go back to your people and teach (religious knowledge) to them.

87. Narrated Abu Jamra: I was an interpreter between the people and Ibn ‘Abbas. Once Ibn ‘Abbas said that a delegation of the tribe of ‘Abdul Qais came to the Prophet ﷺ who asked them, ‘Who are the people (i.e. you)? (Or) who are the delegates?” They replied, “We are from the tribe of Rabi’a.” Then the Prophet said to them, “Welcome, O people [or said, “O delegation (of ‘Abdul Qais”)]. Neither will you have disgrace nor will you regret.” They said, “We have come to you from a distant place and there is the tribe of the infidels of Mu’ār intervening between you and us and we cannot come to you except in the sacred month. So please order us to do something good (religious deeds), and that we may inform our people whom we have left behind (at home), and that we may enter Paradise (by acting on them.)” The Prophet ordered them to do four things, and forbade them from four things. He ordered them to believe in Allāh Alone, the Honourable the Majestic and said to them, “Do you know what is meant by believing in Allāh Alone?” They replied, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” Thereupon the Prophet said, “That means to testify that Allāh is alone, the Majestic and Sublime. He is free from need of anything and He bestowed His blessings on His Messenger Muhammad, (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allāh), Ḥaqiyat-as-Ṣalāt [to perform As-Salāt (the compulsory congregational prayers) perfectly], to pay Zakāt, to observe Saum [fasts (during the month of Ramaḍān)], (and) to pay Al-Khums (one-fifth of the booty to be given in Allāh’s Cause).” Then he forbade them four things, namely Ad-Dubbā’, Al-Hantam, Al-Muzaffat (and) An-Naqīr or Al-Muqaiyar (These were the names of pots in which alcoholic drinks used to be prepared). The Prophet further said, “Memorize them (these instructions) and tell them to the people whom you have left behind.”

(26) CHAPTER. To travel seeking an answer to a problematic matter, and to teach it to one’s family.
88. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin Abī Mulaika: 'Uqba bin Al-Hārith said that he had married the daughter of Abī Ihāb bin 'Azīz. Later on a woman came to him and said, “I have suckled (nursed) Uqba and the woman whom he married (his wife at my breast).” 'Uqba said to her, “Neither I knew that you have suckled (nursed) me nor did you tell me.” Then he rode over to see Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ at Al-Madīna and asked him about it. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “How can you keep her as a wife when it has been said (that she is your suckling foster-sister)?” Then Uqba divorced her, and she married another man.

(27) CHAPTER. To fix the duties in rotation for learning (religious) knowledge.

89. Narrated 'Umar Anṣārī: My Anṣārī neighbour from Banī Umaiyya bin Zaid who used to live at ‘Awālī Al-Madīna and I, used to visit the Prophet ﷺ by turns. He used to go one day and I another day. When I went, I used to bring the news of that day regarding the Divine Revelation and other things, and when he went, he used to do the same for me. Once my Anṣārī friend, in his turn (on returning from the Prophet ﷺ), knocked violently at my door and asked if I was there. I became horrified and came out to him. He said, “Today a great thing has happened.” I then went to Ḥafṣa and saw her weeping. I asked her, “Did Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ divorce you all?” She replied, “I do not know.” Then, I entered upon the Prophet ﷺ and said while standing, “Have you divorced your wives?” The Prophet replied in the negative. On that I said, “Allâhu-Akbar (Allah is the Most Great).”

(See Hadîth No.5191, Vol.7 for details)

(28) CHAPTER. To be furious while preaching or teaching if one sees what one hates.

90. Narrated Abû Mas'ûd Al-Ansârî: Once a man said to Allah’s Messenger, “O Allah’s Messenger! I may not attend the (compulsory congregational) Salât (prayer) because so and so (the Imam) prolongs the Salât when he leads us for it.”

The narrator added: “I never saw the Prophet more furious in giving advice than he was on that day. The Prophet said, “O people! Some of you make others dislike good deeds. So whoever leads the people in prayer should shorten it because among them there are the sick, the weak and the one who is in a state that requires urgent relief (having some urgent jobs to do).”

91. Narrated Zaid bin Khâlid Al-Juhani: A man asked the Prophet about the picking up of a Luqâqa (fallen lost thing). The Prophet replied, “Recognise and get acquainted with its tying material and its container, and make public announcement...”
(about it) for one year, then utilize it but give it to its owner if he comes.” Then the person asked about the lost camel. On that, the Prophet ﷺ got angry and his cheeks or his face became red and he said, “You have no concern with it as it has its water container, and its feet and it will reach water, and eat (the leaves) of trees, so leave it till its owner finds it.” The man then asked about the (lost) sheep. The Prophet ﷺ replied, “It is either for you, for your brother (another person) or for the wolf.”

92. Narrated Abū Mūsa: The Prophet ﷺ was asked about things which he did not like, but when the questioners insisted, the Prophet ﷺ got angry. He then said to the people, “Ask me anything you like.” A man asked, “Who is my father?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Your father is Hudhāfa.” Then another man got up and said, “Who is my father, O Allāh’s Messenger?” He replied, “Your father is Salīm, Maula (the freed slave) of Shaiba.” So when ‘Umar saw that (the anger) on the face of the Prophet ﷺ he said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! We repent to Allāh (for offending you).”

(29) CHAPTER. Whoever knelt down before the Imām or a (religious) preacher.

93. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: One day Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came out
(before the people) and `Abdullāh bin Ḥudhāfa stood up and asked (him) “Who is my father?” The Prophet replied, “Your father is Ḥudhāfa.” The Prophet  told them repeatedly (in anger) to ask him anything they liked. ‘Umar knelt down before the Prophet  and said thrice, “We accept Allāh as (our) Lord and Islām as (our) religion and Muḥammād as (our) Prophet.” After that the Prophet  became silent.

(30) CHAPTER. Repeating one’s talk thrice in order to make others understand.

The Prophet  said: “Beware from giving a false statement,” and he kept on repeating it. (See Hadith No.2654, Vol.3). Ibn ‘Umar said that the Prophet  said thrice, “Haven’t I conveyed Allāh’s Message (to you?)”

94. Narrated Anas  : Whenever the Prophet  asked permission to enter, he knocked the door thrice with greeting and whenever he spoke a sentence (said a thing) he used to repeat it thrice. (See Hadith No.6244, Vol.8).

95. Narrated Anas  : Whenever the Prophet  spoke a sentence (said a thing), he used to repeat it thrice so that the people could understand it properly from him and whenever he asked permission to enter, (he knocked the door) thrice with greeting.
96. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr: Once Allāh’s Messenger remained behind us in a journey. He joined us while we were performing ablution for the ‘Asr prayer which was overdue. We were just passing wet hands over our feet (not washing them properly) so the Prophet addressed us in a loud voice and said twice or thrice, “Save your heels from the fire.”

(31) CHAPTER. A man teaching (religion to) his woman-slave and his family.

97. Narrated Abū Burdā’s father: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Three persons will have a double reward:
1. A person from the people of the Scriptures (a Jew or a Christian) who believed in his Prophet [‘Isa (Jesus) or Mūsā (Moses)] and then believed in Prophet Muḥammad (i.e., has embraced Islam).
2. A slave who fulfils his duties to Allāh and also to his master.
3. A master of a woman-slave who teaches her good manners and educates her in the best possible way (the religion) and manumits her and then marries her.”
(32) CHAPTER. The preaching (and teaching) of the (religious) knowledge to women by the Imam (Chief):

98. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Once Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came out while Bilāl was accompanying him. He went towards the women thinking that they had not heard him (i.e. his religious talk). So he preached them and ordered them to give alms. (Hearing that) the women started giving alms; some donated their ear-rings, some gave their rings and Bilāl was collecting them in the corner of his garment.

(33) CHAPTER. Eagerness to (learn) the Hadith.

99. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger!, Who will be the luckiest person, who will gain your intercession on the Day of Resurrection?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O Abū Hurairah! I have thought that none will ask me about it before you as I know your eagerness to (learn) the Hadith. The luckiest person who will have my intercession on the Day of Resurrection will be the one who said sincerely from (the bottom of) his heart ‘Lā ilāha illallah’ (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh).”
(34) CHAPTER. How the (religious) knowledge will be taken away?

And ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul ‘Aziz wrote to Abū Bakr bin Hazm, “Look for the knowledge of Ḥadīth and get it written, as I am afraid that religious knowledge will vanish and the religious learned men will pass away (die). Do not accept anything save the Ḥadīth of the Prophet ﷺ. Spread knowledge and teach the ignorant, for knowledge does not vanish except when it is kept secretly (to oneself).”

100. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr bin Al-‘Āṣi: ʿAbdullāh bin ‘Amr bin Al-‘Āṣi, I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “Allah does not take away the knowledge by taking it away from (the hearts of) the people, but takes it away by the death of the religious learned men till when none of the religious learned men remains, people will take as their leaders ignorant persons who when consulted will give their verdict without knowledge. So they will go astray and will lead the people astray.”

(35) CHAPTER. Should a day be fixed for women in order to teach them religion (apart from men)?

101. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: Some women requested the Prophet ﷺ to fix a day for them as the men were taking all his time. On that he promised them one day for religious lessons and commandments. Once during such a lesson the Prophet said, “A woman whose three children die will be shielded by them from the Hell-fire.” On that a woman asked, “If only two die?” He replied, “Even two (will shield her from the Hell-fire).”

102. Narrated Abu Sa’id Al-Khudri: Three children (as above (the subnarrators are different). Abu Hurairah qualified the three children (referred to in the above mentioned Hadith) as not having reached the age of committing sins (i.e., age of puberty).

(36) CHAPTER. Whoever heard something (but did not understand it) and then asked again till he understood it completely.

103. Narrated Ibn Abi Mulaika: Whenever ‘Aishah (the wife of the Prophet) heard anything which she did not understand, she used to ask again till she understood it completely. (‘Aishah said:) “Once the Prophet said, “Whoever will be called to account (about his deeds on the Day of Resurrection) will surely be punished.” I said, “Doesn’t Allāh say:

(1) (H.101) If she will bear their deaths with patience for getting reward from Allâh.

‘He surely will receive an easy reckoning.’” (V.84:8)

The Prophet ﷺ replied, “This means only the presentation of the accounts, but whoever will be argued about his account, will certainly be perished (or ruined”).

(37) CHAPTER. It is incumbent on those who are present [in a religious meeting (or conference)] to convey the knowledge to those who are absent.

This statement has come from the Prophet ﷺ on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbas ﷺ.

104. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Abī Shurailah said, [When ‘Amr bin Sa‘īd was sending the troops to Makkah (to fight ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair)] I said to him (‘Amr): O chief! Allow me to tell you what the Prophet ﷺ said on the day following the conquest of Makkah. My ears heard and my heart comprehended, and I saw him with my own eyes, when he said it. He glorified and praised Allāh and then said, “Allāh subha na ‘lamūna, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ not the people has made Makkah a sanctuary. So anybody who has belief in Allāh and the Last Day (i.e. a Muslim) should neither shed blood in it nor cut down its trees. If anybody argues that fighting is allowed in Makkah as Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ did fight (in Makkah), tell him that Allāh gave permission to His Messenger ﷺ, but He did not give it to you.” The Prophet ﷺ added: “Allāh allowed me only for a few hours on that day (of the conquest) and today (now) its sanctity is the same (valid) as it was before. So it is incumbent upon those who are present to convey it (this information) to those who are absent.” Abū Shuraiḥ was asked, “What did ‘Amr reply?” He said ‘Amr said, “O Abū Shuraiḥ! I know better than you (in this respect). Makkah does not give protection to one who disobeys (Allāh) or runs after committing murder, or theft (and takes refuge in Makkah).”

105. Narrated Abū Bakrah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “No doubt your blood, property;... and your honour (chastity)... are sacred to one another as is the sanctity of this day of yours in this month of yours. It is incumbent on those who are present to inform those who are absent.” (Muhammad the subnarrator used to say, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ told the truth.”) The Prophet ﷺ repeated twice: “No doubt! Haven’t I conveyed Allāh’s Message to you.”

(38) CHAPTER. The sin of a person who tells a lie against the Prophet ﷺ.

106. Narrated ‘Ali: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not tell a lie against me for whoever tells a lie against me (intentionally) then he will surely enter the Hell-fire.”

107. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair: I said to my father, “I do not hear from you any narration (Hadīth) of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ as I hear (his narrations) from so-and-so?” Az-Zubair replied, “I was always with him (the Prophet ﷺ) and I heard him saying, ‘Whoever tells a lie against me (intentionally) then (surely) let him occupy his seat in Hell-fire.’”

108. Narrated Anas: The fact which stops me from narrating a great number of Ahādīth to you is that the Prophet ﷺ said: “Whoever tells a lie against me intentionally, then (surely) let him occupy his seat in Hell-fire.”

109. Narrated Salama: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Whoever (intentionally) ascribes to me what I have not said, then (surely) let him occupy his seat in Hell-fire.”

110. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Name yourselves with my name (use my name) but do not name yourselves with my Kunya name (i.e., Abūl Qāsim). And whoever sees me in a dream then surely he has seen me for Satan cannot impersonate me. And whoever tells a lie against me intentionally, then (surely) let him occupy his seat in Hell-fire.”

(39) CHAPTER. The writing of knowledge.

111. Narrated Ash-Sha‘bī: Abū Juḥaifa said, “I asked ‘Ali, ‘Have you got any book (which has been revealed to the Prophet ﷺ) apart from the Qurʾān)? ‘Ali replied, ‘No, except Allāh’s Book or the power of understanding which has been bestowed (by Allāh) upon a Muslim, or what is (written) in this sheet of paper (with me).’” Abū Juhaifa said, ‘I asked, ‘What is (written) in this sheet of paper?’ ‘Ali replied, ‘It deals with Diya [compensation (blood money) paid by the killer to the relatives of the victim in case of man slaughter only], the ransom for the releasing of the captives from the hands of the enemies, and the law that no Muslim should be killed in Qisas (equality in punishment) for the killing of (a disbeliever).’”

112. Narrated Abū Hurairah: In the year of the conquest of Makkah, the tribe of Khuza’a killed a man from the tribe of Bani Laih in revenge for a killed person belonging to them. They informed the Prophet about it. So he rode his Rāhila (she-camel for riding) and addressed the people saying, “Allāh held back the elephant or killing from Makkah. (The sub narrator is in doubt whether the Prophet said “elephant” or “killing,” as the Arabic words standing for these words have great similarity in shape), but He (Allāh) let His Messenger and the believers overpower the infidels of Makkah. Beware! (Makkah is a sanctuary) Verily! Fighting in Makkah was not permitted for anyone before me, nor will it be permitted for anyone after me. It (war) in it was made legal for me for few hours or so on that day. No doubt it is at this moment a sanctuary, it is not allowed to uproot its thorny shrubs or to uproot its trees or to pick up its Luqata (fallen things) except by a person who will look for its owner (announce it publicly). And if somebody is killed, then his closest relative has the right to choose one of the two — the blood money (Diya) or... retaliation, having the killer killed.” In the meantime a man from Yemen came and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Get that written for me.” The Prophet ordered his Companions to write that for him. Then a man from Quraish said, “Except Al-Idhkhir (a type of grass that has good smell) O Allah’s Messenger, as we use it in our houses and graves.” The Prophet said, “Except Al-Idhkhir i.e. Al-Idhkhir is allowed to be plucked.”

113. Narrated Abū Hurairah: There is none among the Companions of the Prophet who has narrated more Hadiths than I except ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr (bin Al-‘Āṣ) who used to write them and I never did the same.

114. Narrated ‘Ubaidullāh bin ‘Abdullāh: Ibn ‘Abbās said, “When the ailment of the Prophet became worse, he said, ‘Bring for me (writing) paper and I will write for you a statement after which you will not go astray.’ But ‘Umar said, ‘The Prophet is seriously ill, and we have got Allah’s Book with us and that is sufficient for us.’ But the Companions of the Prophet differed about this and there was a hue and cry. On that the Prophet said to them, ‘Go away (and leave me alone). It is not right that you should quarrel in front of me.’”

Ibn ‘Abbās came out saying, “It was most unfortunate (a great disaster) that Allah’s Messenger was prevented from writing that statement for them because of their...
disagreement and noise.’

(Note: It is apparent from this Hadith that Ibn ‘Abbās had witnessed the event and came out saying this statement. The truth is not so, for Ibn ‘Abbās used to say this statement on narrating the Hadīth and he had not witnessed the event personally. See Fath Al-Bārī, Vol.I, p.220 footnote.) (See also Hadīth No.3168, Vol.4).

(40) CHAPTER. The knowledge and its teaching and preaching at night.

115. Narrated Umm Salama رضي الله عنها : One night Allah’s Messenger ﷺ got up and said, “Subhān Allāh! How many Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions) have been descended tonight and how many treasures have been disclosed! Go and wake the sleeping lady occupants of these dwellings (his wives) up (for prayers). A well-dressed (person) in this world may be naked in the Hereafter.”

(41) CHAPTER. To speak about (religious) knowledge at night.

116. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنه : Once the Prophet ﷺ led us in the ‘Ishā’ prayer during the last days of his life and after finishing it [the Salāt (prayer) with Taslim] he said: “Do you realize (the importance of) this night?” Nobody present on the surface of the earth tonight will be living after the completion of one hundred years from this night.”
117. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: I stayed overnight in the house of my aunt Maimūna bint Al-Ḥārith (the wife of the Prophet) while the Prophet was there with her during her night turn. The Prophet offered the ‘Ishā’ prayer (in the mosque), returned home and after having prayed four Rakʿā, he slept. Later on he got up at night and then asked whether the boy (or he used a similar word) had slept? Then he got up for the Salāt (prayer) and I stood up by his left side, but he made me stand to his right and offered five Rakʿā followed by two more Rakʿā. Then he slept and I heard him snoring and then (after a while) he left for the (Fajr) prayer.

人民曰：吾有口説多 Ahadith (the Prophet’s narrations). Had it not been for two Verses in the Qur’an, I would not have narrated a single Hadith, and the Verses are:

“Verily, those who conceal the clear proofs, and evidences and the guidance, which We have sent down, after We have made it clear for the people in the Book, they are the ones cursed by Allah and cursed by the curser. Except those who repent and do righteous deeds, and openly declare (the truth which they concealed). These, I will accept their repentance. And I am the One Who accept repentance, the Most Merciful.” (V.2:159-160).

And no doubt our Muhājir (emigrant) brothers used to be busy in the market with their business (bargains) and our Anṣārī brothers used to be busy with their property (agriculture). But I (Abū Hurairah) used to stick to Allah’s Messenger, contented with what will fill my stomach and I used to attend that which they used not to attend and I used to memorize that which they used not to memorize.

119. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I said to Allah’s Messenger: “I hear many narrations (Ahadīth) from you but I forget them.” Allah’s Messenger said, “Spread your Rīḍā (garment).”(1) I did accordingly and then he moved his hands as if filling them with something (and emptied them in my Rīḍā) and then said, “Take and wrap this sheet over your body.” I did it and after that I never forgot anything.

Narrated Ibrāhim bin Al-Mundhir: Ibn Abī Fudaik narrated the same as above (Hadīth No. 119) but added that the Prophet had moved his hands as if filling them with something.

120. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I have memorized two kinds of knowledge from Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. I have propagated one of them to you and if I propagate the second, then my pharynx (throat) will be cut off (i.e. killed).

(43) CHAPTER. To be quiet (and listen) to religious learned men.

121. Narrated Jarîr: The Prophet ﷺ said to me during Hajjat-al-Wîda’ (last pilgrimage of the Prophet ﷺ): “Let the people keep quiet and listen.” Then he ﷺ said (addressing the people), “Do not become infidels (revert to disbelief) after me by cutting the necks of one another (killing each other).”

(44) CHAPTER. When a religious learned man is asked, “Who is the most learned person,” it is better for him to attribute or entrust absolute knowledge to Allâh and to say, “Allâh is the Most Learned (than anybody else).”

122. Narrated Sa‘îd bin Jabir: I said to Ibîn ‘Abbâs, “Nauf Al-Bakâli claims that Mûsâ (Moses) (the companion of Khîdr) was not the Mûsâ of Bâni Isrâîl but he was another Mûsà.” Ibîn ‘Abbâs remarked that the enemy of Allâh (Nauf) has told a lie.\(^{(1)}\)

Narrated Ubâi bin Ka‘b: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Once the Prophet Mûsà (Moses) stood up and addressed Bâni Isrâîl. He was asked, ‘Who is the most learned man amongst the people.’ He said, ‘I am the most learned.' Allah admonished Mūsā as he did not attribute absolute knowledge to Him (Allāh). So Allāh revealed to him, 'At the junction of the two seas there is a slave amongst my slaves who is more learned than you.' Mūsā said, 'O my Lord! How can I meet him?' Allāh said, 'Take a fish in a basket (and proceed) and you will find him at the place where you will lose the fish.' So Mūsā set out along with his (servant) boy, Yūsha' bin Nūn and carried a fish in a basket till they reached a rock, where they laid their heads (i.e., lied down) and slept. The fish came out of the basket and it took its way into the sea (straight) as in a tunnel. So it was an amazing thing for both Mūsā and his (servant) boy. They proceeded for the rest of that night and the following day. When the day broke, Mūsā said to his (servant) boy: 'Bring us our early meal. No doubt, we have suffered much fatigue in this journey.' Mūsā did not get tired till he passed the place about which he was told. There the (servant) boy told Mūsā, 'Do you remember when we betook ourselves to the rock, I indeed forgot the fish.' Mūsā remarked, 'That is what we have been seeking.' So they went back retracing their foot-steps, till they reached the rock. There they saw a man covered with a garment (or covering himself with his own garment). Mūsā greeted him. Al-Khīḍr replied saying, 'How do people greet each other in your land?' Mūsā said, 'I am Mūsā.' He asked, 'The Moses of Bāni Isrā'îl?' Mūsā replied in the affirmative and added, 'May I follow you so that you teach me of that knowledge which you have been taught.' Al-Khīḍr replied, 'Verily! You will not be able to have patience with me, O Mūsā! I have some of the knowledge of Allāh which He has taught me and which you do not know, while you have some knowledge which Allâh has taught you which I do not know.' Mûsâ said, 'If Allâh will, you will find me patient and I will not disobey you in aught.' So, both of them set out walking along the sea-shore, as they did not have a boat. In the meantime a boat passed by them and they requested the (crew of the boat) to take them on board. The crew recognized Al-Khîdhr and took them on board without fare.

Then a sparrow came and stood on the edge of the boat and dipped its beak once or twice in the sea. Al-Khîdhr said: 'O Mûsâ! My knowledge and your knowledge have not decreased Allâh's Knowledge except like the amount of water taken by this sparrow from the sea with its beak.' Then Al-Khîdhr went to one of the planks of the boat and plucked it out. Mûsâ said, 'These people gave us a free lift but you have broken their boat and scuttled it so as to drown its people.' Al-Khîdhr replied, 'Didn't I tell you that you will not be able to have patience with me.' Mûsâ said, 'Call me not to account for what I forgot.' The first (excuse) of Mûsâ was that he had forgotten. Then they proceeded further and found a boy playing with other boys. Al-Khîdhr took hold of the boy's head from the top and plucked it out with his hands (i.e. killed him). Mûsâ said, 'Have you killed an innocent person who has killed none.' Al-Khîdhr replied, 'Did I not tell you that you cannot have patience with me?' Then they both proceeded till when they came to the people of a town, they asked them for food, but they refused to entertain them. There they found a wall on the point of collapsing. Al-Khîdhr repaired it with his own hands. Mûsâ said, 'If you had wished, surely you could have taken wages for it.' Al-Khîdhr replied, 'This is the parting between you and me.' The Prophet ﷺ added, 'May Allâh be Merciful to Mûsâ! Would that he could have been more patient to learn more about their story.”

(45) CHAPTER. Whosoever, while standing, asked a religious learned man who was sitting (on a pulpit or a similar thing, about something).

123. Narrated Abū Mūsā: A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! What kind of fighting is in Allah’s Cause? (I ask this), for some of us fight because of being enraged and angry and some for the sake of their pride and haughtiness.” The Prophet ﷺ raised his head (as the questioner was standing) and said, “He who fights that Allah’s Word (i.e. Allah’s Religion of Islāmic Monotheism) should be superior, fights in Allah’s Cause.”

(46) CHAPTER. To ask about a religious matter and to give a religious verdict (at Mina during Hajj) while doing the Ramy of Jimār (throwing of pebbles at the Jimār in Mina during Hajj).

124. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr: I saw the Prophet ﷺ near the Jamra and the people were asking him questions (about religious problems). A man asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have slaughtered the Hady (sacrificial animal) before doing the Ramy.” The Prophet replied, “Do the Ramy (now) and there is no harm.” Another person asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! I got my head shaved before slaughtering the animal.” The Prophet replied, “Do the slaughtering (now) and there is no harm.” So on that day, when the Prophet was asked about anything as regards the ceremonies of Hajj performed before or after its due time his reply was, “Do it (now) and there is no harm.”

(47) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah: “And of knowledge you (mankind) have been given only a little.” (V.17:85)

125. Narrated ‘Abdullãh (bin Ma’súd):

While I was walking along with the Prophet through the ruins of Al-Madina and he was reclining on a date-palm leaf stalk, some Jews passed by. Some of them said to the others: “Ask him (the Prophet) about the Râh (the spirit).” Some of them said that they should not ask him that question as he might give a reply which would displease them. But some of them insisted on asking, and so one of them stood up and asked, “0 Abul-Qásim! What is the Râh?” The Prophet remained quiet. I thought he was being inspired Divinely. So I stayed till that state of the Prophet (while being inspired) was over. The Prophet then said, “And they ask you (O Muhammad) concerning the Râh (the Spirit); Say: Râh (the spirit) is one of the things, the knowledge of which is only with my Lord. And of knowledge, you (mankind) have been given only a little.” (V.17:85)
(48) CHAPTER. Whosoever left some optional things simply for the fear that some people may not be able to understand them and may fall into something more difficult.

126. Narrated Aswad: Ibn Az-Zubair said to me, "'Aishah رضي الله عنها used to tell you secretly a number of things. What did she told you about the Ka'bah?" I replied, "She told me that once the Prophet ﷺ said, 'O 'Aishah! Had not your people been still close to the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance (infidelity), I would have dismantled the Ka'bah and would have made two doors in it; one for entrance and the other for exit.'" Later on Ibn Az-Zubair did the same.

(49) CHAPTER. Whoever selected some people to teach them (religious) knowledge preferring them over others for fear that the others may not understand it.

And 'Ali said, "You should preach to the people according to their mental calibre so that they may not convey wrong things about Allah and His Messenger ﷺ."

127. Narrated Abû At-Tufail the above-mentioned statement of 'Ali.

128. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: "Once Mu'âdh was riding behind Allah's Messenger as a companion rider. Allāh's Messenger said, "O Mu'ādh bin Jabal."
Mu'ādh replied, "Labbaik and Sa'daik.(1) O Allāh's Messenger!" Again the Prophet ﷺ said, "O Mu'ādh!" Mu'ādh said thrice, "Labbaik and Sa'daik, O Allāh's Messenger!
Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, "There is none who testifies sincerely from his heart that Lā ilāha illallah wa anna Muḥammad-ar-Rasul Allāh" (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh and Muhammad ﷺ is the Messenger of Allāh), except that Allāh will save him from the Hell-fire." Mu'ādh said, "O Allāh's Messenger! Should I not inform the people about it, so that they may have glad tidings?"
He replied, "When (the people hear about it), they will solely depend on it." Then Mu'ādh narrated the above mentioned Hadith just before his death, being afraid of committing a sin (by concealing the knowledge).

129. Narrated Anas: I was informed that the Prophet ﷺ had said to Mu'ādh, "Whosoever will meet Allāh without associating anything in worship with Him will go to Paradise."

Mu'ādh asked the Prophet ﷺ "Should I not inform the people of this good news?"
The Prophet ﷺ replied, "No, I am afraid, lest they should depend upon it (absolutely)."

(50) CHAPTER. (What is said as regards): To be shy (Al-Hayā) while learning (religious) knowledge.

And Mujāhid said, "Neither a shy nor a proud person can learn the religious knowledge." And 'Āishah ﷺ said, "How excellent the women of the Ansār are! They do not feel shy while learning sound knowledge in religion."

(1) (H.128) See Glossary.
130. Narrated Umm Salama

Umm Sulaim came to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ and said, “Verily, Allâh is not shy to tell the truth. Is it necessary for a woman to take a bath after she has a wet dream (sexual discharge)?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Yes, if she notices a discharge.” Umm Salama, then covered her face and asked, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Does a woman get a discharge?” He replied, “Yes, let your right hand be in dust (an Arabic expression you say to a person when you contradict his statement meaning “You will not achieve goodness”), and that is why the son resembles his mother.”

131. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar

Once Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Amongst the trees there is a tree, the leaves of which do not fall and is like a Muslim, tell me the name of that tree.” Everybody started thinking about the trees of the desert areas and I thought of the date-palm tree but felt shy (to answer). The others asked, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Inform us of it.” He replied, “It is the date-palm tree.” I told my father what had come to my mind and on that he said, “Had you said it I would have preferred it to such and such a thing that I might possess.”
(51) CHAPTER. Whosoever felt shy (to ask something) and then requested another person to ask on his behalf.

132. Narrated ‘Ali: I used to get the emotional urethral discharge frequently so I requested Al-Miqdad to ask the Prophet about it. Al-Miqdad asked him and he replied, “One has to perform ablution (after it).” (See Hadith No.269).

(52) CHAPTER. Teaching religious knowledge and giving religious verdicts in a mosque.

133. Narrated Nafi’: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: “A man got up in the mosque and said: ‘O Allah’s Messenger! At which place you order us that we should assume the Ihram?’

Allah’s Messenger replied, ‘The residents of Al-Madina should assume the Ihram from Dhul-Hulaifa, the people of Syria from Al-Juḥfa and the people of Najd from Qarn.’” Ibn ‘Umar further said, “The people claim that Allah’s Messenger also said, ‘The residents of Yemen should assume Ihram from Yalamlam.’” Ibn ‘Umar used to say, “I do not remember whether Allah’s Messenger had said the last statement or not.”

(53) CHAPTER. Whosoever answered to the questioner more than what he asked.

134. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: A man asked the Prophet: “What (kinds of... clothes) should a Muhrim (a Muslim intending to perform 'Umra or Hajj) wear?"
He replied, "He should not wear a shirt, a turban, trousers, a headcloak or a garment scented with saffron or Wars (kinds of perfumes). And if he has no slippers, then he can use Khuff (leather socks) but the socks should be cut short so as to make the ankles bare." (See Hadith No.1542, Vol.2).
4 - THE BOOK OF WUDÚ’

(1) CHAPTER. What has been revealed regarding ablution?

And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ says: “O you who believe! When you intend to offer Salât (prayer), wash your faces and your hands (forearms) up to the elbows, rub (by passing wet hands over) your heads, and (wash) your feet up to the ankles…” (V.5:6)

Abû ‘Abdullah said: The Prophet ﷺ had made clear that it is obligatory (while performing) ablution to wash the (above mentioned) body-parts once. And the Prophet ﷺ also did perform the ablution by washing (these) parts twice and thrice, but he never washed them more than three times.

And the religious learned men disliked exceeding the limits set by the Prophet ﷺ while performing ablution, and to surpass the action of the Prophet ﷺ.

(2) CHAPTER. No Salât (prayer) is accepted without ablution (i.e. to remove, the small Hadath(1) by ablution or the big Hadath by taking a bath).

135.Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Salât (prayer) of a person who does Hadath (passes urine, stool or wind) is not accepted till he performs (repeats) the ablution.”

A person from Ḥadârâ’mout asked Abû Hurairah, “What is Hadath?” Abû Hurairah replied, “Hadath means the passing of wind from the anus.”

(3) CHAPTER. The superiority of ablution. And Al-Ghurr-ul-Muḥâjjarân (the parts of the body of the Muslims washed in ablation will shine on the Day of Resurrection and the angels will call them by that name) from the traces of ablation.

136. Narrated Nu‘aim Al-Mujmir: Once I went up the roof of the mosque, along with Abū Hurairah. He performed ablation and said, “I heard the Prophet saying, ‘On the Day of Resurrection, my followers will be called Al-Ghurr-ul-Muhajjalûn from the traces of ablation and whoever can increase the area of his radiance should do so (i.e. by performing ablation in the most perfect manner).’”

4 ( CHAPTER. One should not repeat ablation if in doubt unless and until he is convinced (that he has lost his ablution by having Hadath).

137. Narrated ‘Abbâd bin Tamîm: My uncle asked Allâh’s Messenger about a person who imagined to have passed wind during Salât (prayer). Allâh’s Messenger replied: “He should not leave his Salât unless he hears sound or smells something.”

5 ( CHAPTER. To perform a light ablation.

(1) (H.136) The Prophet did not increase the area more than what is washed of the body-parts while doing ablation as Allâh ordered to be washed in the Qur’ân.
snored and then offered Salāt (prayer) (or probably lay till his breath sounds were heard and then got up and prayed).” Ibn ‘Abbās added: “I stayed overnight in the house of my aunt, Maimūna, the Prophet  slept for a part of the night; and late in the night, he got up and performed ablution from a hanging water-skin, a light (perfect) ablution and stood up for Salāt. I, too, performed a similar ablution, then I went and stood on his left. He drew me to his right and prayed as much as Allāh wished, and again lay and slept till his breath sounds were heard. Later on the Mua’dh-dhin (call-maker for the Salāt) came to him and informed him that it was time for Salāt. The Prophet  went with him for the Salāt without performing a new ablution.” (Sufyān said to ‘Amr that some people said, “The eyes of Allāh’s Messenger  sleep but his heart does not sleep.” ‘Amr replied, “I heard ‘Ubayd bin ‘Umar saying that the dreams of Prophets were Divine Revelations, and then he recited the Verse: ...(O my son! I have seen in a dream that I am slaughtering you (offer you in sacrifice to Allāh)...”) (V.37:102). (See Fath Al-Bāri, Vol.1, page 249).

(See Hadith No.183)

(6) CHAPTER. The completion (or perfection) of ablution (one should wash all the parts perfectly).

And Ibn ‘Umar said, “The completion of ablution means to clean the parts perfectly.”

139. Narrated Usāma bin Zaid  if I have seen in a dream that I am slaughtering you (offer you in sacrifice to Allāh)...”) (V.37:102). (See Hadith No.183)
'Arafat till when he reached a mountain path, he dismounted, urinated and then performed ablution but not a perfect one. I said to him, "(Is it the time for) Ṣalāt (prayer), O Allah's Messenger?" He said, "The (place of) Ṣalāt is ahead of you." He rode till when he reached Al-Muzdalifa, he dismounted and performed ablution — a perfect one. The (call for Adhān and) Ḥaḍāthma was pronounced and he  led the Maghrib prayer. Then everybody made their camels kneel down at its place. Then the Ḥaḍāthma was pronounced for the 'Ishā' prayer which the Prophet  led and no (optional Nawāfīl or Ṣunnā etc.) prayer was offered in between the two Ṣalāt (Ishā' and Maghrib).

140. Narrated 'Ata' bin Yasār: Ibn 'Abbas performed ablution and washed his face (in the following way): He ladled out a handful of water, rinsed his mouth and washed his nose with it by putting in water and then blowing it out. He, then, took another handful (of water) and did like this (gesturing) joining both hands, and washed his face, took another handful of water and washed his right forearm. He again took another handful of water and washed his left forearm, and passed (wet) hands over his head and took another handful of water and poured it over his right foot (up to his ankles) and washed it thoroughly and similarly took another handful of water and washed thoroughly his left foot (up to the ankles) and said, "I saw Allah's Messenger  performing ablution in this way."
(8) CHAPTER. To recite “In the Name of Allah,” during every action and on having sexual relations with one’s wife.

141.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If anyone of you on having sexual relations with his wife said (and he must say it before starting) ‘In the Name of Allah. O Allah! Protect us from Satan and also protect what You bestow upon us (i.e. the coming offspring) from Satan, and if it is destined that they should have a child then, Satan will never be able to harm that offspring.”

(9) CHAPTER. What to say while going to the lavatory (water closet).

142. Narrated Anas: Whenever the Prophet ﷺ went to answer the call of nature, he used to say, “Allāhummā inna a‘ūdhū bika min al khūthār wa l khāba’tih [i.e., O Allāh, I seek refuge with You from devils – males and females (or all offensive and wicked things, evil deeds etc.).]”
(10) CHAPTER. Providing water at lavatories (for washing the private parts after answering the call of nature).

143. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: Once the Prophet ﷺ entered a lavatory and I placed water for his ablution. He asked, “Who placed it?” He was informed accordingly and so he said, “O Allah! Make him (Ibn ‘Abbâs) a learned scholar in religion (Islam).”

(11) CHAPTER. While urinating or defecating, never face the Qiblah except when you are screened by a building or a wall or something like that.

144. Narrated Abû Ayyûb Al-Anãrî رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If anyone of you goes to an open space for answering the call of nature he should neither face nor turn his back towards the Qiblah; he should either face the east or the west.”

(12) CHAPTER. Defecating while sitting over two bricks.

145. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: People say, “Whenever you sit for answering the call of nature, you should not face the Qiblah or Bait-ul-Maqdis (Jerusalem).” I told them, “Once I went up the roof of our house and I saw Allah’s Messenger ﷺ answering the call of nature while sitting on two bricks facing Bait-ul-Maqdis [but there was a screen covering him. (Fath Al-Bãri, Vol.1, page 258)].
146. Narrated `Aishah: The wives of the Prophet used to go to Al-Manāṣi', a vast open place near Baqí' at Al-Madīna, to answer the call of nature at night. 'Umar used to say to the Prophet, “Let your wives be veiled,” but Allāh's Messenger did not do so. One night Sauda bint Zam'a, the wife of the Prophet, went out at `Īshā time and she was a tall lady. 'Umar addressed her and said, “I have recognized you, O Sauda.” He said so, as he desired eagerly that the Verses of Al-Ḥijāb (the observing of veils by the Muslim women) may be revealed. So Allāh revealed the verses of Al-Ḥijāb (a complete body cover excluding the eyes).

147. Narrated `Aishah: The Prophet said to his wives, “You are allowed to go out to answer the call of nature.”
(14) CHAPTER. To defecate in houses.

148. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: I went up to the roof of Ḥafṣa’s house for some job and I saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ answering the call of nature facing Shām (Syria, Jordan, Palestine and Lebanon regarded as one country) with his back towards the Qiblah. (See Hadith No.145).

149. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Once I went up the roof of our house and saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ answering the call of nature while sitting over two bricks facing Bait-ul-Maqdis (Jerusalem). (See Hadith No.145).

(15) CHAPTER. To wash the private parts with water after answering the call of nature.

150. Narrated Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه: Whenever Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ went to answer the call of nature, I along with another boy used to accompany him with a tumbler full of water. (Hishām commented, “So that he might wash his private parts with it.”)
(16) CHAPTER. Getting water carried by somebody else for purification (washing one’s private parts).

And Abū Ad-Dardā’ said (to the people of Irāq), “Is not the man whose nick-names are Ṣāḥib An-Na’la’īn, Ṣāḥib At-Tahūr and Ṣāḥib Al-Wisād (‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd) amongst you?” [‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd used to carry the Na’la’īn (shoes) and Tahūr (water for purification and ablution) and Wisād (carpet) for the Prophet ﷺ, so he was called by those names].

151. Narrated Anas: Whenever Allāh’s Messenger went to answer the call of nature, I along with another boy from us used to go behind him with a tumbler full of water.

(17) CHAPTER. To carry an ‘Anaza (spear-headed stick) along with the water for washing the private parts after answering the call of nature.

152. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Whenever Allāh’s Messenger went to answer the call of nature, I along with another boy used to carry a tumbler full of water (for cleaning the private parts) and an ‘Anaza (spear-headed stick).
(18) CHAPTER. It is forbidden to clean the private parts with the right hand.

154.Narrated Abū Qatāda: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whenever anyone of you urinates, he should neither hold his penis with his right hand nor clean his private parts with his right hand. (And while drinking) one should not breathe in the drinking utensil.”

(20) CHAPTER. To clean the private parts with stones.

155. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I followed the Prophet ﷺ while he was going out to answer the call of nature. He used not to look this way or that. So, when I approached near him he said to me, “Fetch me some stones for cleaning the privates parts (or said something similar), and do not bring a bone or a piece of dung”(1).” So I brought the stones in the corner of my garment and placed them by his side and I then went away from him. When he finished (from answering the call of nature) he used them.

(21) CHAPTER. Do not clean the private parts with dung.

156. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet went out to answer the call of nature and asked me to bring three stones. I found two stones and searched for the third but could not find it. So, I took a dried piece of dung and brought it to him. He took the two stones and threw away the dung and said, “This is Riksun (a degenerative or a filthy thing).”

(22) CHAPTER. The washing of the body parts (i.e., the parts which are washed in ablution) once only while performing ablution.

157. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet performed ablution by washing the body parts only once.

(23) CHAPTER. The washing of the body parts twice while performing ablution.
158. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin Zaid: The Prophet performed ablution by washing the body parts twice.

159. Narrated Humrân, the slave of ‘Uthmân: I saw ‘Uthmân bin ‘Affân asking for a tumbler of water (and when it was brought), he poured water over his hands and washed them thrice and then put his right hand in the water container and rinsed his mouth, washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out. Then he washed his face and forearms up to the elbows thrice, passed his (wet) hands over his head and washed his feet up to the ankles thrice. Then he said, “Allah’s Messenger said, ‘If anyone performs ablution like that of mine and offers a two Rak‘a Ṣalāt (prayer) during which he does not think of anything else then his past sins will be forgiven.’”

160. Narrated Humrân: When ‘Uthmân performed the ablution, he said, “I am going to tell you a Hadith which I would not have told you except for (had I not been compelled by) a certain Holy Verse. I heard the Prophet saying, ‘If a man performs ablution perfectly and then offers the compulsory congregational Salāṭ (prayer), Allah will forgive his sins committed between that (prayer) and the (next) prayer till he offers it.' The subnarrator ‘Urwa said: This Verse is: “Verily, those who conceal the clear proofs and evidences and the guidance which We have sent down…” (V.2:159).

(25) CHAPTER. The cleaning of the nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out during ablution.

161.Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever performs ablution should clean his nose with water by putting the water in it and then blowing it out, and whoever cleans his private parts with stones should do it with odd number of stones.”

(26) CHAPTER. To clean the private parts with odd number of stones.

162.Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If anyone of you performs ablution he should put water in his nose and then blow it out, and whoever cleans his private parts with stones should do so with odd numbers. And whoever wakes up from his sleep should wash his hands before putting them in the water for ablution, because nobody knows where his hands were during sleep.”
(27) CHAPTER. Washing both feet, and it is not sufficient to pass wet hands over the feet.

163. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Amr Li: The Prophet ﷺ remained behind us on a journey. He joined us while we were performing ablution for the ‘Asr prayer which was over-due and we were just passing (wet) hands over our feet (not washing them thoroughly) so he ﷺ addressed us in a loud voice saying twice or thrice, “Save your heels from the fire.”

(28) CHAPTER. To rinse the mouth with water while performing ablution.

This statement has come from the Prophet ﷺ on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbâs and ‘Abdullâh bin Zaid رضي الله عنهم.

164. Narrated Humrán, the freed slave of ‘Uthmân bin ‘Affân ﷺ: I saw ‘Uthmân bin ‘Affân asking (for a tumbler of water) to perform ablution (and when it was brought), he poured water from it over his hands and washed them thrice and then put his right hand in the water container and rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out. Then he washed his face thrice and (then) forearms up to the elbows thrice, then passed his (wet) hands over his head, and then washed each foot thrice. After that ‘Uthmân said, “I saw the Prophet ﷺ performing ablution like this of mine, and he ﷺ said, ‘If anyone performs ablution like that of mine and offers a two Rak’â prayer during which he does not think of anything else then his past sins will be forgiven’.”
29) CHAPTER. The washing of heels during ablution.
Whenever Ibn Sirin performed ablution he used to wash the place that was under the ring.

165. Narrated Muhammad bin Ziyad: I heard Abu Hurairah saying as he passed by us while the people were performing ablution from a utensil containing water, “Perform ablution perfectly and thoroughly for Abul-Qasim (the Prophet ﷺ) said, ‘Save your heels from the Hell-fire.’”

30) CHAPTER. Washing the feet, when one is wearing shoes; and it is not sufficient for one to pass a wet hand over the shoes (but one should take off the shoes and wash one’s feet).

166. Narrated Ubaid bin Juraij: I asked Abdullah bin Umar: “O Abu ‘Abdur-Rahman! I saw you doing four things which I never saw being done by anyone of your companions?” Abdullah bin Umar said, “What are those, O Ibn Juraij?” I said, “I never saw you touching any corner (of the Ka’bah) except these (two) facing south (Yemen), and I saw you wearing shoes made of tanned leather and dyeing your hair with Hinnã; (a kind of dye). I also noticed that whenever you were in Makkah, the people assume Ihlal on seeing the new moon crescent (1st of Dhul-Hijja) while you did not assume the Ihlal (Ihram is also called Ihlal which means ‘Loud calling’ because a Muhrim has to recite Talbiya aloud when assuming the state of Ihram) — till the 8th of Dhul-Hijja (Day of Tarwiya).

‘Abdullāh replied, “Regarding the corners (of Makkah), I never saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ touching except those facing south (Yemen) and regarding the tanned leather shoes, no doubt I saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ wearing non-hairy shoes, and he used to perform ablution while wearing the shoes (i.e. wash his feet and then put on the shoes). So I love to wear similar shoes. And about the dyeing of hair with Ḥinnā; no doubt I saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ dyeing his hair with it and that is why I like to dye (my hair with it). Regarding Ḥīlāl, I did not see Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ assuming Ḥīlāl till he set out for Ḥajj.”

(31) CHAPTER. While performing ablution or taking a bath one should start from the right side of the body.

167. Narrated Umm-'Atiyya that the Prophet ﷺ at the time of washing his deceased daughter had said to them, “Start from the right side beginning with those parts which are washed in ablution.”

168. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet ﷺ used to like to start from the right side on wearing shoes, combing his hair and cleaning or washing himself and on doing anything else.
(32) CHAPTER. To look for water (for ablution) when the time for the prayer is due.

‘Aishah رضي الله عنها said: Once the Fajr prayer was due and water was searched for (for ablution) but it was not found. Thereupon the Divine Revelation of Tayammum was revealed. (Tayammum means to put or strike lightly on clean earth with one’s hands and then pass the palm of each on the back of the other, blow off the dust and then pass them on the face).

169. Narrated Anas bin Mālik ﷺ: I saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ when the ‘Asr prayer was due and the people searched for water to perform ablution but they could not find it. Later on (a vessel full of) water for ablution was brought to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. He put his hand in that vessel and ordered the people to perform ablution from it. I saw the water springing out from underneath his fingers till all of them performed the ablution (it was one of the miracles of the Prophet ﷺ).

(33) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the water with which human hair has been washed.

‘Atā’ saw no harm in making threads and ropes out of the human hair. The utilization of the thing which is licked or eaten by a dog, and the passing of dogs through the mosque.

Az-Zuhri said. “It is permissible for one to perform ablution with water which has been licked by a dog provided that there is no water except that.” (See Hadith No.172).

Sufyān said. “This is the true religious verdict: Allah said: And you find no water then perform Tayammum." (V.4:43).

170. Narrated Ibn Sirin: I said to ‘Abida, “I have some of the hair of the Prophet which I got from Anas or from his family.” ‘Abida replied. “No doubt if I had a single hair of that it would have been dearer to me than the whole world and whatever is in it.”

171. Narrated Anas: When Allah’s Messenger got his head shaved, Abū Tālha was the first to take some of his hair.

CHAPTER. If a dog drinks from the utensil of any one of you then it is essential to wash it seven times.

172. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “If a dog drinks from the utensil of anyone of you it is essential to wash it seven times.”

173. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “A man saw a dog eating mud from (the severity of) thirst. So, that man took a shoe (and filled it) with water and kept on pouring the water for the dog till it quenched its thirst. So Allāh approved of his deed and made him to enter Paradise.”

174. Narrated Ḥāmza bin ‘Abdullāh: My father said, “During the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger Ⲟ, the dogs used to urinate, and pass through the mosque (come and go), nevertheless they never used to sprinkle water on it (i.e. urine of the dog.)”

175. Narrated ‘A‘dī bin Ḥātim: I asked the Prophet Ⲟ (about the hunting dogs) and he replied, “If you let loose (with Allāh’s Name) your tamed dog after a game and it hunts it, you may eat it, but if the dog eats of (that game) then do not eat it because the dog has hunted it for itself.” I further said, “Sometimes I send my dog for hunting and find another dog with it.”

He said, “Do not eat the game for you have mentioned Allāh’s Name only on sending your dog and you did not mentioned Allāh’s Name on the other dog.”

(34) CHAPTER. Whosoever considers not to repeat ablution except if something is discharged or passed from either exit (front or back private parts)

As is mentioned in the Statement of Allah, v.7:6. And ‘Aţā’ said, “If a worm comes out of one’s anus or if a drop of discharge equal to the size of a louse comes out of one’s penis (then it is essential to repeat the ablution.)” Jâbir bin ‘Abdullāh said, “If one laughs in Salah (prayer), he must repeat his Salah and not the ablution.” Al-Ḥāṣan said, “If someone takes out (cut) some of his hair, cuts his nails or removes his leather socks, he is not to repeat his ablution.” Abū Hurairah said, “It is not necessary to repeat ablation except on Ḥadāth.” And Jâbir stated, “The Prophet was in the battle of Dhât-ur-Riqa’ and a person was shot with an arrow and he bled profusely, but he bowed and prostrated and continued his Salah.” Al-Ḥāṣan said, “The Muslims used to offer Salah regularly with their wounds.” Tawūs, Muhammad bin ‘Alī, ‘Aţā and the people of Ḥijāz say, “Bleeding does not necessitate the repetition of ablution.” Ibn ‘Umar squeezed one of his pimples and blood came out but he did not repeat his ablution. Ibn ‘Abdul-‘Azīz spat out blood but he continued with his Salah. Ibn ‘Umar and Al-Ḥāṣan said, “If any one lets his blood out then it is necessary for him to wash the cut area only.”

176. Narrated Abū Hurairah (may Allah accept his good deeds): Allah’s Messenger (may Allah’s blessings be upon him) said, “A person is considered in Salah (prayer) as long as he is waiting for the prayer in the mosque and as long as he does not do Ḥadāth.” A non-Arab man asked, “O Abū Hurairah! What is Ḥadāth?” I replied, “It is the passing of wind (from the anus) (that is one of the types of Ḥadāth).”
177. Narrated `Abbâd bin Tamîm: My uncle said, the Prophet ﷺ said, “One should not leave (his prayer) unless he hears sound or smells something.”

178. Narrated `Ali: I used to get emotional urethral discharges frequently and felt shy to ask Allah’s Messenger ﷺ about it. So I requested Al-Miqdâd bin Al-Aswad to ask (the Prophet ﷺ) about it. Al-Miqdâd asked him and he replied, “One has to perform ablution (after it).”

179. Narrated Zaid bin Khâlid: I asked `Uthmân bin `Affân ﷺ about a person who engaged in intercourse but did not discharge. `Uthmân replied, “He should perform ablution like the one for an ordinary Salât (prayer), but he must wash his penis.” `Uthmân added, “I heard it from Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.” I asked `Ali, Az-Zubair, Ṭalḥa and Ubai bin Ka‘b ﷺ about it and they, too, gave the same reply. (This order was cancelled later on and taking a bath became compulsory for such cases).
180. Narrated Abū Saʿīd Al-Khudrī: Allāh’s Messenger ῶ was sent for an Ansārī man who came with water dropping from his head. The Prophet ῶ said, “Perhaps we have forced you to hurry up, haven’t we?” The Ansārī replied, “Yes.” Allāh’s Messenger ῶ further said, “If you are forced to hurry up (during intercourse) or you do not discharge then you should perform ablution.”

(This order was cancelled later on, i.e. one has to take a bath).

181. Narrated Usāma bin Zaid: “When Allāh’s Messenger ῶ departed from ‘Arafat, he turned towards a mountain path where he answered the call of nature. (After he had finished) I poured water and he performed ablution and then I said to him, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Will you offer Ṣalāt (prayer)?” He replied, “The Musallā (place of the prayer) is ahead of you (in Al-Muzdalifa).”

(35) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) a man who helps his companion to perform ablution (by pouring water for him).

182. Narrated Al-Mughira bin Shuṭba: I was in the company of Allāh’s Messenger ῶ on one of the journeys and he went out to answer the call of nature (and after he finished) I poured water and he performed ablution; he washed his face, forearms and passed his (wet) hand over his head and over the two Khuffain (two leather socks).

(36) CHAPTER. The recitation of Qur’an or doing other invocations etc. after Hadath.

And Mansūr quoted Ibrāhīm, “There is no harm in reciting anything in bathrooms (without closets) and in writing letters without ablution.” And Hammād quoted from Ibrāhīm, “Greet them if they are wearing their Izār (waist covers) otherwise do not greet them.”

183. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنه that he stayed overnight in the house of Maimūna رضي الله عنها, his aunt. He added: I lay on the cushion transversally in its breadthwise direction while Allah’s Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and his wife lay in its lengthwise direction. Allah’s Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم slept till the middle of the night, either a bit before or a bit after it and then woke up, rubbing the traces of sleep off his face with his hands. He صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited the last ten Verses of Sūrat Al-Îmran, got up and went to a hanging water-skin. He then performed the ablution from it and it was a perfect ablution, and then stood up to offer Salah (prayer). I, too, got up and did as the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had done. Then I went and stood by his side (on his left side). He placed his right hand on my head and caught my right ear and twisted it (pulled me, and made me to stand by his right side). He prayed two Rakā', then two Rakā', and then two Rakā', and then two Rakā', and then two Rakā' and then two Rakā' (separately six times), and finally one Rakā' (the Witr). Then he lay down again in the bed till the Mu'adh-dhin came to him whereupon the Prophet got up, offered a light two Rakā' prayer and went out and led the Fajr prayer.

(37) CHAPTER. Whoever does not repeat ablution except after falling into deep sleep — losing consciousness completely.

184. Narrated 'Asmā' bint Abī Bakr رضي الله عنهما: I came to ‘Āishah زوجة النبي ﷺ during the solar eclipse. The people were standing and offering the Salāt (prayer) and she was also praying. I asked her, "What is wrong with the people?" She beckoned with her hand towards the sky and said, "Subhān Allah."(1) I asked her, "Is there a sign?" She pointed out, "Yes." So, I too, stood for the Salāt till I fell unconscious and later on I poured water on my head. After the Salāt, Allah’s Messenger praised and glorified Allah and said, "Just now! I have seen something which I never saw before at this place of mine, including Paradise and Hell. And it has been revealed to me that you will be put to trials in your graves and these trials will be like the trials of Ad-Dajjāl, or nearly like it (the subnarrator is not sure of what Asmā’ said). Angels will come to every one of you and ask, ‘What do you know about this man?’ A believer will reply, ‘He is Muhammad, Allāh’s Messenger (saw), and he came to us with self-evident truth and guidance. So we accepted his teaching, believed and followed him.’ Then the angels will say to him to sleep in peace as they have come to know that he was a believer. On the other hand a hypocrite or a doubtful person will reply, ‘I do not know but heard the people saying something and so I said the same’.”

(38) CHAPTER. To pass wet hands over the whole head during ablution.

As is referred to by the Statement of Allāh (تُمَسَّحُ عَلَى رَأسِهَا، وَسُمِّيَ مَلِكٌ: أَيْ جَرَأَتْ أَنْ يُمَسَّحَ بَعْضُ الرَّأسِ؟ فَاخْتَبِجْ بِخَديْنِ عَيْنِ الْمُسَلِّمَاتِ). And Ibn Al-Musaiyab said, “This order is both for men and women.” And Mālik was asked, “Is the passing of a wet hand over a part of the head sufficient (and that is not sufficient)?” He took his verdict from the narration of ‘Abdullāh bin Zaid which follows.

185. Narrated Yaḥyā Al-Māzini: A person asked ‘Abdullāh bin Zaid, who was the grandfather of ‘Amr bin Yaḥyā, “Can you show me how Allāh’s Messenger used to perform ablution?” ‘Abdullāh bin Zaid replied in the affirmative and asked for... water. He poured it on his hands and washed them twice, then he rinsed his mouth thrice and washed his nose with water thrice by putting water in it and blowing it out. He washed his face thrice and after that he washed his forearms up to the elbow twice and then passed his wet hands over his head from its front to its back and vice versa (beginning from the front and taking them to the back of his head up to the nape of the neck and then brought them to the front again from where he had started) and then washed his feet (up to the ankles).

(39) CHAPTER. The washing of feet up to the ankles.

186. Narrated ‘Amr: My father saw ‘Amr bin Abi Hasan asking ‘Abdulläh bin Zaid about the ablution of the Prophet ﷺ. ‘Abdullah bin Zaid asked for earthen ware pot containing water and performed ablution like that of the Prophet ﷺ in front of them. He poured water from the pot over his hand and washed his hands thrice and then put his hands in the pot and rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out with three handfuls of water. Again he put his hand in the water and washed his face thrice and washed his forearms up to the elbows twice; and then put his hands in the water and then passed them over his head by bringing them to the front and then to the rear of the head once, and then he washed his feet up to the ankles.
CHAPTER 4. The using of the remaining water after ablution.

And Jarir bin ‘Abdullah ordered the members of his family to perform ablution with the water in which he had put his Siwak, a piece of a root of a tree called Al-Arak used as a tooth-brush.

187. Narrated Abu Juhaifa: Allah’s Messenger came to us at noon and water for ablution was brought to him. After he had performed ablution, the remaining water was taken by the people and they started smearing their bodies with it (as a blessed thing). The Prophet offered two Rak’a of the Zuhr prayer and then two Rak’a of the ‘Asr prayer while an ‘Anaza (spear-headed stick) was there (as a Sutra) in front of him.

188. Abu Musa said: The Prophet asked for a tumbler containing water and washed both his hands and face in it and then threw a mouthful of water in the tumbler and said to both of us (Abu Musa and Bilal), “Drink from the tumbler and pour some of its water on your faces and chests.”

189. Narrated Ibn Shihab: Mahmud bin Ar-Rabi who was the person on whose face the Prophet had ejected a mouthful of water from his family’s well while he was a boy, and ‘Urwa (on the authority of Al-Miswar and others) who testified each other, said, “Whenever the Prophet performed ablution, his Companions were nearly fighting for the remains of that water.”
CHAPTER.

190. Narrated As-Sā‘ib bin Yazīd: Ṭabī‘ bin ʿAmr bin ʿAbdullāh: My aunt took me to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! This son of my sister has got a disease in his legs.” So he ﷺ passed his hands on my head and prayed for Allāh’s Blessings for me; then he performed ablution and I drank from the remaining water. I stood behind him and saw the seal of Prophethood between his shoulders, and it was like the Zirrīl-Hajala” (means the button of a small tent, but some said ‘egg of a partridge.’ etc.)

(41) CHAPTER. Rinsing one’s mouth and putting water in one’s nose and cleaning it by blowing the water out with a single handful of water.

191. Narrated ‘Amr bin Yahyā on the authority of his father: ‘Abdullāh bin Zaid Ṭabī‘ bin ʿAmr bin ʿAbdullāh: He poured water on his hands from a utensil containing water and washed them and, then, with one handful of water he rinsed his mouth and cleaned his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out. He repeated it thrice. He, then, washed his hands and forearms up to the elbows twice and passed (wet) hands over his head, both forwards and backwards, and washed his feet up to the ankles and said, “Thus was the ablution of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.”
(42) CHAPTER. The passing of wet hands over the head once only (while performing ablution).

192. Narrated ‘Amr bin Yahya (رضي الله عنه): My father said, “I saw ‘Amr bin Abī Hasan asking ‘Abdullāh bin Zaid about the ablution of the Prophet (ﷺ). ‘Abdullāh bin Zaid asked for an earthenware pot containing water and performed ablution in front of them. He poured water over his hands and washed them thrice. Then he put his (right) hand in the pot and rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and, then, blowing it out thrice with three handfuls of water. Again he put his hand in the water and washed his face thrice. After that he put his hand in the pot and washed his forearms up to the elbows twice, and then again put his hand in the water and passed (wet) hands over his head by bringing them from the front to the back (and returned them) and once more he put his hand in the pot and washed his feet (up to the ankles.)”

Narrated Wuhaib (رضي الله عنه) that he (the Prophet ﷺ as in narration 191 above) had passed his wet hands on the head once only.

(43) CHAPTER. The performance of ablution by a man along with his wife. The utilization of water remaining after a woman has performed ablution. ‘Umar performed ablution with warm water and with water brought from the house of a Christian woman.

193. And narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar, “During the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) men and women used to perform ablution together.”
194. Narrated Jābir: Allāh’s Messenger came to visit me while I was sick and unconscious. He performed ablution and sprinkled the remaining water on me and I became conscious and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! To whom will my inheritance go as I have neither ascendents nor descendants?” Then the Divine Verses regarding Farā‘īd (inheritance) were revealed.

195. Narrated Anas: It was the time for Salāt (prayer), and those whose houses were near got up and went to their people (to perform ablution), and there remained some people (sitting). Then a painted stone pot (Mikhḍab) containing water was brought to Allāh’s Messenger. The pot was small, not broad enough for one to spread one’s hand in; yet all the people performed ablution. (The subnarrator said, “We asked Anas, ‘How many persons were you?’ Anas replied, ‘We were eighty or more’”). (It was one of the miracles of Allāh’s Messenger).

196. Narrated Abū Mūsa: Once the Prophet asked for a tumbler... containing water. He washed his hands and face in it and also threw a mouthful of water in it.

197. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin Zaid: Once Allâh’s Messenger came to us and we brought out water for him in a brass pot. He performed ablution thus: He washed his face thrice, and his forearms to the elbows twice, then passed his (wet) hands lightly over the head from front to rear and brought them to front again and washed his feet (up to the ankles).

198. Narrated ‘Aishah: When the ailment of the Prophet aggravated and his disease became worse, he asked his wives to permit him to be nursed (treated) in my house. So they gave him the permission. Then the Prophet came (to my house) with the support of two men, and his legs were dragging on the ground, between ‘Abbâs, and another man.” ‘Ubaid-Ullâh (the subnarrator) said, “I informed ‘Abdullah bin ‘Abbâs of what ‘Aishah said, Ibn ‘Abbâs said: ‘Do you know who was the other man?’ I replied in the negative. Ibn ‘Abbâs said, ‘He was ‘Ali (bin Abi Tâlib).’ ”

‘Aishah further said, “When the Prophet came to my house and his sickness became worse he ordered us to pour seven skins full of water on him, so that he might give some advice to the people. So he was seated in a Mikhdab (brass tub) belonging to Ḥafṣa, the wife of the Prophet.”
Then, all of us started pouring water on him from the water-skins till he beckoned to us to stop and that we had done (what he wanted us to do). After that he went out to the people."

(46) CHAPTER. To perform ablution from an earthen-ware pot.

199. Narrated ‘Amr bin Yahya on the authority of his father: My uncle used to perform ablution extravagantly and once he asked ‘Abdullãh bin Zaid to tell him how he had seen the Prophet performing ablution. He asked for an earthen-ware pot containing water, and poured water from it on his hands and washed them thrice, and then put his hand in the earthen-ware pot and rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out thrice with one handful of water; he again put his hand in the water and took a handful of water and washed his face thrice, then washed his hands up to the elbows twice, and took water with his hand, and passed it over his head from front to back and then from back to front, and then washed his feet (up to the ankles) and said, “I saw the Prophet performing ablution in that way.”

200. Narrated Thàbit: Anas said: “The Prophet asked for water and a tumbler with a broad base and not so deep, containing a small quantity of water, was brought to him whereby he put his fingers in it.” Anas further said, “I noticed the water springing out from amongst his fingers.” Anas added, “I estimated that the people who performed ablution with it numbered between seventy to eighty.”

(47) CHAPTER. To perform ablution with one Mudd of water. (Mudd is practically 2/3 of a Kilogram):

201. Narrated Anas: The Prophet used to take a bath with one Sa’ or up to five Mudd (1 Sa’ = 4 Mudd) of water and used to perform ablution with one Mudd of water.

(48) CHAPTER. To pass wet hands over Khuffain [two leather socks covering the ankles].

‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar asked ‘Umar about it. ‘Umar replied in the affirmative and added: “Whenever Sa’d narrates a Hadîth from the Prophet, there is no need to ask anyone else about it.”
203. Narrated Al-Mughîra bin Shu‘ba رضي الله عنه: Once Allah’s Messenger ﷺ went out to answer the call of nature and I followed him with a tumbler containing water, and when he finished, I poured water and he performed ablution and passed wet hands over his Khuffain (two leather socks).

204. Narrated Ja‘far bin ‘Amr bin Umaiya A–Dhamrî: My father said, “I saw the Prophet ﷺ passing wet hands over his Khuffain (two leather socks).”

205. Narrated Ja‘far bin ‘Amr: My father said, “I saw the Prophet ﷺ passing wet hands over his ‘Imama ( turban) and Khuffain (two leather socks).”

(49) CHAPTER. If one puts on (Khuff) just after performing ablution (there is no need to wash one’s feet again in ablution) (24 hours for non-travellers and three days for travellers).

206. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Al-Mughîra: My father said, “Once I was in the company of the Prophet in a journey and I dashed to take off his Khuff. He ordered me to leave them as he had put them on after performing ablution. So he passed wet hands over them.”

(50) CHAPTER. Not repeating ablution after eating mutton and As-Sawiq.

Abū Bakr, 'Umar and 'Uthmān ate such food but did not repeat ablution.

207. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Abbâs: Allah’s Messenger ate a piece of cooked mutton from the shoulder region and offered Salât (prayer) without repeating ablution.

208. Narrated Ja’far bin Amr bin Umaiyya: My father said, “I saw Allah’s Messenger taking a piece of (cooked) mutton from shoulder region and then he was called for Salât (prayer). He put his knife down and offered Salât without repeating ablution.”

(51) CHAPTER. Rinsing one’s mouth (with water) after eating As-Sawiq (1) without repeating ablution.

209. Narrated Suwaid bin Al-Nu’mân: Allah’s Messenger took a piece of mutton, and then he was called for Salât. He put his knife down and offered Salât without repeating ablution.

(1) (Ch.51) See glossary.
In the year of the conquest of Khaibar I went with Allah’s Messenger till we reached Sahba’, a place near Khaibar, where Allah’s Messenger offered the ‘Asr prayer and asked for food. Nothing but As-Sawiq was brought. He ordered it to be moistened with water. He and all of us ate it and the Prophet got up for Maghrib (prayer), rinsed his mouth with water and we did the same, and he then offered Salât (prayer) without repeating the ablution.

210. Narrated Maimûna: The Prophet ate (a piece of) mutton from shoulder region and then offered Salât (prayer) without repeating the ablution.

(52) CHAPTER. Whether to rinse the mouth after drinking milk.

211. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: Allah’s Messenger drank milk, rinsed his mouth and said, “It has fat.”

(53) CHAPTER. Ablution after sleep. And whoever considers it unnecessary to repeat ablation after dozing once or twice or after nodding once in slumber.

212. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, “If anyone of you feels drowsy while offering Ṣalāt (prayer) he should go to bed (sleep) till his slumber is over, because in praying while drowsy, one does not know whether one is asking for forgiveness or for a bad thing for oneself.”

213. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If anyone of you feels drowsy while offering Ṣalāt (prayer), he should sleep till he understands what he is saying (reciting).”

(54) CHAPTER. To perform ablution even on having no Ḥadāth.

214. Narrated 'Amr bin 'Amir رضي الله عنه: Anas رضي الله عنه said, “The Prophet ﷺ used to perform ablution for every Ṣalāt (prayer).” I asked Anas, “What you used to do?” Anas replied, “We used to pray with the same ablution until we break it with Ḥadāth.”

215. Narrated Suwaid bin Nu'mān رضي الله عنه: In the year of the conquest of Khaihār I went with Allâh's Messenger ﷺ till we reached Ṣahbâ' where Allâh's Messenger ﷺ led the 'Asr prayer and asked for food.
Nothing but Sawiq was brought and we ate it and drank (water). The Prophet got up for Maghrib (prayer), rinsed his mouth with water and then led the prayer without repeating the ablution.

(55) CHAPTER. One of the major sins is not to protect oneself (one's clothes and body) from one's urine (i.e. from being soiled with it).

216. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: Once the Prophet, while passing through one of the Heydan (gardens or graveyards) of Al-Madina or Makkah heard the voices of two persons who were being tortured in their graves. The Prophet said, "These two persons are being tortured not for a major sin (to avoid)." The Prophet then added, "Yes! (they are being tortured for a major sin.) Indeed, one of them never saved himself from being soiled with his urine while the other used to go about with calumnies (to make enmity between friends)." The Prophet then asked for a green branch (of a date-palm tree), broke it into two pieces and put one on each grave. On being asked why he had done so, he replied, "I hope that their torture might be lessened, till these get dried."

(56) CHAPTER. What is said regarding washing out urine.

(1) (H.216) This action was a kind of invocation on the part of the Prophet for the deceased persons (Fath Al-Bair).
And the Prophet remarked about the person in the grave that he never saved himself from being soiled with his urine. And the Prophet mentioned only the urine of human beings.

217. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
Whenever the Prophet went to answer the call of nature, I used to bring water with which he used to wash his private parts.

CHAPTER 218. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas:
The Prophet once passed by two graves and said, “These two persons are being tortured not for a major sin (to avoid). One of them never saved himself from being soiled with his urine, while the other used to go about with calumnies (to make enmity between friends).” The Prophet then took a green branch (of a date-palm tree), split it into two pieces and fixed one on each grave. They said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Why have you done so?” He replied, “I hope that their punishment might be lessened till these (branches) become dry.” (See the footnote of Hadith 216)

(57) CHAPTER. The Prophet and the people left the bedouin undisturbed till he
219. Narrated Anas bin Malik

The Prophet \( 	ext{رضي الله عنه} \) saw a bedouin urinating in the mosque and told the people not to disturb him. When he finished, the Prophet \( 	ext{رضي الله عنه} \) asked for some water and poured it over (the urine).

(58) CHAPTER. The pouring of water over the urine in the mosque.

220. Narrated Abú Hurairah

A bedouin stood up and started urinating in the mosque. The people caught him but the Prophet \( 	ext{رضي الله عنه} \) ordered them to leave him and to pour a bucket or a tumbler of water over the place where he had passed the urine. The Prophet \( 	ext{رضي الله عنه} \) then said, “You have been sent to make things easy (for the people) and not sent to make things difficult for them.”

221. Narrated Anas bin Malik

The Prophet \( 	ext{رضي الله عنه} \) said as above (Hadith No. 220).

CHAPTER. The spilling of water over the place where there is urine.

 Narrated Anas bin Malik

A bedouin came and passed urine in one corner of the mosque. The people shouted at him but the Prophet \( 	ext{رضي الله عنه} \) stopped them till he finished urinating. The Prophet \( 	ext{رضي الله عنه} \) ordered... them to spill a bucket of water over that place and they did so.

(59) CHAPTER. The urine of children.

222. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها, the Mother of faithful believers: A child was brought to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and it urinated on the garment of the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ asked for water and poured it over the soiled place.

223. Narrated Umm Qais bint Mihsan رضي الله عنها: I brought my young son, who had not started eating (ordinary food) to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ who took him and made him sit on his lap. The child urinated on the garment of the Prophet ﷺ, so he asked for water and sprinkled it over the soiled (area) and did not wash it.

(60) CHAPTER. To pass urine while standing and sitting.

224. Narrated Hudhaifa رضي الله عنه: Once the Prophet ﷺ went to the dumps of some people and passed urine while standing. He then asked for water and so I brought it to him and he performed ablution.
(61) CHAPTER. To urinate beside one’s companion while screened by a wall.

225. Narrated Ḥudhāifa: The Prophet and I walked till we reached the dumps of some people. He stood, as any one of you stands, behind a wall and urinated. I went away, but he beckoned me (to come). So I approached him and stood near his back till he finished.

(62) CHAPTER. To urinate near the dumps of some people.

226. Narrated Abū Wā’il: Abū Mūsā Al-Ash’ārī used to lay great stress on the question of urination and he used to say, “If anyone from Bani Isrā‘el happened to soil his clothes with urine, he used to cut that portion away.” Hearing that, Ḥudhāifa said to Abū Wā’il, “I wish he (Abū Mūsā) didn’t (lay great stress on that matter).” Ḥudhāifa added, “Allāh’s Messenger went to the dumps of some people and urinated while standing.”

(63) CHAPTER. The washing out of blood.

227. Narrated ʿĀṣimah: A woman came to the Prophet and said, “If anyone of us gets menses in her clothes then what should she do?” He replied, “She should (take hold of the soiled place), rub it and put it in the water and rub it in order to remove the traces of blood and then pour water over it. Then she can offer Salāt (prayer) in it.”

228. Narrated ʿĀṣimah: Fāṭima bint Abī Ḥubaysh came to the Prophet and said: “A woman came to the Prophet and said, “If anyone of us gets menses in her clothes then what should she do?” He replied, “She should (take hold of the soiled place), rub it and put it in the water and rub it in order to remove the traces of blood and then pour water over it. Then she can offer Salāt (prayer) in it.”

229. Narrated ʿĀṣimah: Fāṭima bint Abī Ḥubaysh came to the Prophet and said: “A woman came to the Prophet and said, “If anyone of us gets menses in her clothes then what should she do?” He replied, “She should (take hold of the soiled place), rub it and put it in the water and rub it in order to remove the traces of blood and then pour water over it. Then she can offer Salāt (prayer) in it.”
said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I get persistent bleeding (from the uterus) and do not become clean. Shall I give up my Salât (prayer)?” Allâh’s Messenger replied, “No, because it is from a blood vessel and not the menses. So when your real menses begin give up your Salât and when it has finished, wash off the blood (take a bath) and offer your Salât.”

Hishâm (the subnarrator) said that his father added: (the Prophet told her): “Perform ablution for every Salât (prayer) till the time of the next period comes.”

(64) CHAPTER. The washing out of semen with water and rubbing it off (when it is dry) and the washing out of what comes out of women (i.e. discharge).

229. Narrated ‘Âishah: I used to wash the traces of Janâba (semen) from the clothes of the Prophet and he used to go for Salât (prayers) while traces of water were still on it (water spots were still visible).

230. Narrated Sulaimân bin Yasâr: I asked ‘Âishah about the clothes soiled with semen. She replied, “I used to wash it off the clothes of Allâh’s Messenger and he would go for the Salât (prayer) while water spots were still visible.”
(65) CHAPTER. If the (traces of) Janāba (semen) or other spots are not removed completely on washing.

231. Narrated ‘Amr bin Maimūn: I heard Sulaimān bin Yasār talking about the clothes soiled with semen. He said: ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها said, “I used to wash it off the clothes of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and he would go for the Salah (prayers) while water spots were still visible on them.”

232. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: I used to wash the semen off the clothes of the Prophet ﷺ and even then I used to notice one or more spots on them.

(66) CHAPTER. (What is said) about the urine of camels, sheep and other animals and about their folds.

Abū Musa offered prayer at Dār-il-Barid (post office) and there was animal dung in it though a vast strip of land was near it. Abū Musa said: Both these places are similar (for offering of the prayers).

233. Narrated Abū Qilāba: Anas رضي الله عنه said, “Some people of ‘Ukl or ‘Uraina tribe came to Al-Madīna and its climate did not suit them. So the Prophet ﷺ ordered them to go to the herd of (milch) camels and to drink their milk and urine (as a medicine). So they went as directed and after they became healthy, they killed the shepherd of the Prophet ﷺ and drove away all the camels. The news reached the Prophet ﷺ early in the morning and he sent (men) in their pursuit and they were captured and brought at noon. He ﷺ then ordered to cut their hands and feet (and it was done), and their eyes were branded with heated pieces of iron. They were put in Al-Ḥarra and when they asked for water, no water was given to them.”

Abū Qilāba added, “Those people committed theft, murder, became disbelievers after embracing Islam (Murtadin مرتدين) and fought against Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ.”

234. Narrated Anas ﭽ: Prior to the construction of the mosque, the Prophet ﷺ offered Salāt (prayers) at sheep-folds.

(67) CHAPTER. An-Najasat(1) (impure and filthy things) which fall in cooking butter (ghee — which is obtained by evaporating moisture from butter) and water.

Az-Zuhrī said, “There is no harm in using water if its taste, odour or colour is not changed.” Ḥānnād said. “There is no harm

(1) (Ch.67) An-Najasat (impurity or impure things) is either: (a) physical or (b) spiritual.
a) Physical as regards urine, stool and sexual discharges etc.
b) Spiritual as regards not having belief in the Oneness of Allāh and His Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ e.g., Al-Muşhrīkūn* [See (V.9:28) the Qur’ān].
* Al-Muşhrīkūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ).
if the feathers of dead birds fell in it.” About the bones of dead animals like an elephant, Az-Zuhri said, “I met some of the old learned religious men who were using them (bones) as combs and as containers for oiling, etc., and they found no harm in that.” Ibn Sirin and Ibrãhim said, “There is no harm in the trade of ivory.”

235. Narrated Maimûna: The Rasûl Allâh ﷺ was asked regarding ghee (cooking butter) in which a mouse had fallen. He said, “Take out the mouse and throw away the ghee around it and use the rest.”

236. Narrated Maimûna: The Rasûl Allâh ﷺ was asked regarding ghee in which a mouse had fallen. He said, “Take out the mouse and throw away the ghee around it (and use the rest.)”

237. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Rasûl Allâh ﷺ said, “A wound which a Muslim receives in Allâh’s Cause will appear on the Day of Resurrection as it was at the time of infliction; blood will be flowing from
(68) CHAPTER. Urinating in stagnant water.

238. Narrated Abū Hurairah  said, “We (Muslims) are the last (people to come in the world) but (will be) the foremost (on the Day of Resurrection).”

239. The same narrator told that the Prophet  had said, “You should not pass urine in stagnant water which is not flowing then (you may need to) wash in it.”

(69) CHAPTER. If a dead body or a polluted thing is put on the back of a person offering Salāt (prayer), his Salāt will not be annulled (rejected by Allāh).

In prayer Ibn ‘Umar used to take off his clothes whenever he saw blood on them and used to continue his prayer. Ibn Al-Musaiyyab and Ash-Sha‘bī said, “Whenever a person offers his Salāt (prayers) while wearing clothes stained with blood or Janābah or offers Salāt facing in a direction other than the Qiblah (un-intentionally) or with Tayammum and finds water before the time of that Salāt is over, he has not to repeat his Salāt in any of the above-mentioned cases.”
240. Narrated `Abdullah bin Mas`ud: Once the Prophet was offering Salat (prayers) near the Ka`bah. Abu Jahl was sitting with some of his companions. Some of them said to the others, “Who amongst you will bring the abdominal contents (intestines, etc.) of a camel of Bani so-and-so and put it on the back of Muhammad, when he prostrates?” The most wretched of them (Uqba bin Abi Mu`ait) got up and brought it. He waited till the Prophet prostrated and then placed it on his back between his shoulders. I was watching but could not do anything. I wished I had some people with me to hold out against them. They started laughing and falling on one another. Allah’s Messenger was in prostration and he did not lift his head up till Fatima (Prophet’s daughter) came and threw that (camel’s abdominal contents) away from his back. He raised his head and said thrice, “O Allah! Destroy the (infidels of) Quraish.” So, it was hard for Abu Jahl and his companions when the Prophet invoked Allah against them as they had a conviction that the prayers and invocations were accepted in this city (Makkah). The Prophet said, “O Allah! Destroy Abu Jahl, ‘Utba bin Rab`i’, Shaiba bin Rab`i’, Al-Walid bin ‘Utba, Umaiyya bin Khalaf, and ‘Uqba bin Abi Mu’ait (and he mentioned the seventh whose name I cannot recall). By Allah in Whose Hands my life is, I saw the dead bodies of those persons who were counted by Allah’s Messenger in the Qalib (one of the wells) of Badr.
(70) CHAPTER. Spitting or blowing out the nose or doing similar action in one’s own garment.

Narrated Miswar bin Makhrama and Marwan: Allah’s Messenger set out at the time of Al-Hudaibiya (treaty), and mentioned the rest of Hadith and when Allah’s Messenger spitted, the spittle would fall in the hand of one them (the Prophet’s Companions) who would rub it on his face and skin.

(71) CHAPTER. It is unlawful to perform ablution with Nabidh (water in which dates or grapes etc. are soaked and is not yet fermented) or with any other intoxicant.

Hasan and Abul-‘Alia disliked it. ‘Ata’ said: I prefer to do Tayammum instead of doing ablution with milk or Nabidh.
242. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet said, “All drinks that produce intoxication are Harām (prohibited) to drink.

(72) CHAPTER. Washing blood by a woman off her father’s face.

Abul-'Aliya said: Rub my leg as it is aching.

243. Narrated Abū Ḥāzim: Sahl bin Sa'd was asked by the people, “With what was the wound of the Prophet treated?” Sahl replied, “None remains among the people living who knows that better than I. ‘Ali used to bring water in his shield and Fāṭima used to wash the blood off his face. Then straw mat was burnt and the wound was filled with it (i.e. its ashes).”

(73) CHAPTER. Siwāk (to clean the teeth with Siwāk which is a tooth-brush in the form of a pencil from the roots of the Arāk tree).

Ibn ‘Abbās said, “Once I passed the night with the Prophet and saw him cleaning his teeth (with Siwāk).”

244. Narrated Abū Burda: My father (Abu Musa) said: “I came to the Prophet and saw him carrying a Siwāk in his hand and cleaning his teeth, saying, ‘U’ U’,” as if he was retching while the Siwāk was in his mouth.”
245. Narrated Hudhaifa:
Whenever the Prophet ﷺ got up at night, he used to clean his mouth with Siwak.

(74) CHAPTER. To give Siwak to the oldest person of the group.

246. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar:
The Prophet ﷺ said, “I dreamt that I was cleaning my teeth with a Siwak and two persons came to me. One of them was older than the other and I gave the Siwak to the younger. I was told that I should give it to the older and so I did.”

(75) CHAPTER. The superiority of a person who sleeps with ablution.

247. Narrated Al-Barâ’ bin ‘Ázib:
The Prophet ﷺ said to me, “Whenever you go to bed perform ablution like that for Salât (prayer), lie on your right side and say, Alláhumma inni aslamtu wajhi ilaika, wa fauwadtu, amrî ilaika, wa aljâ’u zahri ilaika raghbatan wa rahbatan ilaika. Lâ maljâ’ wa là manjâ minka illâ ilaika. Alláhumma âmanu biktâbikal-ladhi anzalta wa bina-bîyikal-ladhi arsalta, [O Allâh! I surrender to You and entrust all my affairs to You and depend upon You for Your Blessings, both with hope and fear of You. There is no fleeing from You, and there is no place of protection and safety except with You. O Allah! I believe in Your Book (the Qur’an) which You have revealed and in Your Prophet (Muhammad ﷺ) whom You have sent. Then if you die on that very night, you will die with faith (i.e., on the religion of Islam). Let the aforesaid words be your last utterance (before sleep).”

I repeated it before the Prophet ﷺ and when I reached “Allahumma ámantu bikitabikal-ladhi anzalta (O Allah I believe in Your Book which You have revealed).” I said, “Wa Rasülika (and Your Messenger).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “No, (but say): ‘Wa Nabiyikal-ladhi arsalta (Your Prophet whom You have sent), instead.”
5 - THE BOOK OF GHUSL
(Washing of the whole body)

The Statement of Allah (W.5:6): “...If you are in a state of Janaba (i.e., after a sexual discharge), purify yourselves (bathe your whole body). But if you are ill or on a journey or any of you comes from answering the call of nature, or you have had been in contact with women (i.e. sexual intercourse) and you find no water then perform Tayammum with clean earth and rub therewith your faces and hands. Allah does not want to place you in difficulty, but He wants to purify you and to complete His Favour to you, that you may be thankful.”

(1) CHAPTER. The performance of ablution before taking a bath.

248. Narrated ‘Aishah: Whenever the Prophet took a bath after Janaba, he started by washing his hands and then performed ablution like that for Salāt (prayer). After that he would put his fingers... in water and move the roots of his hair with them, and then pour three handfuls of water over his head and then pour water all over his body.

249. Narrated Maimūna, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ performed ablution like that for Ṣalāt (prayer) but did not wash his feet.

He washed off the discharge from his private parts and then poured water over (his body). He withdrew his feet from that place (the place where he took the bath) and then washed them. And that was his way of taking the bath of Janāba.

(2) CHAPTER. Taking a bath by a man along with his wife.

250. Narrated ʿAishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ and I used to take a bath from a single pot called Faraq.

(3) CHAPTER. Taking a bath with a Ṣā‘ of water or so. (One Ṣā‘ = 3 kilograms approx.)
251. Narrated Abū Salama: ‘Aishah’s brother and I went to ‘Aishah and he asked her about the bath of the Prophet. She brought a pot containing about a Sā‘ of water and took a bath and poured it over her head and at that time there was a screen between her and us.

252. Narrated Abū Ja‘far: While I and my father were with Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh, some people were with him and they asked him about taking a bath. He replied, “A Sā‘ of water is sufficient for you.” A man said, “A Sā‘ is not sufficient for me.” Jābir said, “A Sā‘ was sufficient for one who had more hair than you and was better than you (meaning the Prophet).” And then Jābir (put on) his garment and led As-Salāt (prayer).

253. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet and Maimūna used to take a bath from a single pot.
(4) CHAPTER. Pouring water thrice on one's head.

254. Narrated Jubair bin Mu’tim that Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said, “As for me, I pour water three times on my head.” And he pointed with both his hands.

255. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh that the Prophet (ﷺ) used to pour water three times on his head.

256. Narrated Abû Ja’far: Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh (رضي الله عنهما) said to me, “Your cousin (Hasan bin Muhammad bin Al-Hanafiya) came to me and asked about the bath of Janaba. I replied, ‘The Prophet (ﷺ) used to take three handfuls of water, pour them on his head and then pour more water over his body.’ Al-Hasan said to me, ‘I am a hairy man.’ I replied, ‘The Prophet (ﷺ) had more hair than you.’”
5—THE BOOK OF GHUSL

(5) CHAPTER. To wash the body (parts) once only.

257. Narrated Maimūna: I placed water for the bath of the Prophet. He washed his hands twice or thrice and then poured water on his left hand and washed his private parts. He rubbed his hands over the earth (and cleaned them), rinsed his mouth, washed his nose by putting water in it and blowing it out, washed his face and both forearms and then poured water over his body. Then he withdrew from that place and washed his feet.

(6) CHAPTER. Starting one’s bath by scenting oneself with Hilāb or some other scent.

258. Narrated ‘Aishah: Whenever the Prophet took the bath of Janāba (sexual relation or wet dream) he asked for the Hilāb or some (other scent). He used to take it in his hand, rub it first over the right side of his head and then over the left and then rub the middle of his head (with both hands).

(7) CHAPTER. To rinse the mouth and to clean the nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out while taking the bath of Janāba.

259. Narrated Maimūna: I placed water for the bath of the Prophet and he poured water with his right hand on his left and washed them. Then he washed his private parts and rubbed his hands on the ground (and cleaned them), washed them with water, rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and blowing it out, washed his face and poured water on his head. He withdrew from that place and washed his feet. A piece of cloth (towel) was given to him but he did not use it.

260. Narrated Maimūna: The Prophet ﷺ took the bath of Janāba. (sexual relation or wet dream). He first cleaned his private parts with his hand, and then rubbed it (that hand) on the wall (earth) and washed it. Then he performed ablution like that for the Ṣalāt (prayer), and after the bath he washed his feet.

(8) CHAPTER. The rubbing of hands with earth in order to clean them thoroughly.

(9) CHAPTER. Can a Junub (a person who has yet to take a bath after the sexual act or wet dream) put his hands in a pot (containing water) before washing them if they are not polluted with a dirty thing except Janāba?

Ibn ‘Umar and Al-Bara’ bin ‘Āzib had put their hands in the water without washing them and then they performed ablution. Ibn ‘Umar and Ibn ‘Abbās did not think there was any harm if the water dribbled from the body (while taking a bath) back in the same container from which the bath of Janāba was taken.

261. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet and I used to take a bath from a single pot of water and our hands used to go in the pot after each other in turn.

263. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet and I used to take a bath from a single pot of water after Janāba.

264. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet and one of his wives used to take a bath from a single pot of water. (Shu'ba added to Anas's statement "After the Janāba.")

(10) CHAPTER. Interval during ablution or bath.

It is quoted from Ibn 'Umar: that he washed his feet after the other parts (which are washed in ablution) had become dry.

266. Narrated Maimūna bint Al-Hārith: I placed water for the bath of Allāh's Messenger, and put a screen. He poured water over his hands, and washed them once or twice. (The subnarrator added that he did not remember if she had said thrice or not). Then he poured water with his right hand over his left one and washed his private parts. Then he rubbed his hand over the earth or the wall and washed it. Then he rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and blowing it out. He washed his face, forearms and head. He poured water over his body and then withdrew from that place and washed his feet. I presented him a piece of cloth (towel) and he pointed with his hand (that he does not want it) and did not take it.
(12) CHAPTER. Having sexual intercourse and repeating it. And engaging with one's own wives and taking a single bath (after doing so).

267. Narrated Muḥammad bin Al-Muntašir on the authority of his father that he had asked ‘Aishah (about the Hadith of Ibn ‘Umar). She said, “May Allāh be Merciful to Abu ‘Abdur Rahman. I used to put scent on Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, and he used to go round his wives, in the morning he assumed the Ihram, and the fragrance of scent was still coming out from his body.”

268. Narrated Qatāda: Anas bin Mālik said, “The Prophet ﷺ used to visit all his wives in a round, during the day and night and they were eleven in number.” I asked Anas, “Had the Prophet ﷺ the strength for it?” Anas replied, “We used to say that the Prophet ﷺ was given the strength of thirty (men).” And Sa‘īd said on the authority of Qatāda that Anas had told him about nine wives only (not eleven).
(13) CHAPTER. The washing away of emotional urethral discharge and performing ablution after it.

269. Narrated 'Ali bin Abu Tali'ah: I used to get emotional urethral discharge frequently. Being the son-in-law of the Prophet ﷺ I requested a man to ask him about it. So the man asked the Prophet ﷺ about it. The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Perform ablution after washing your organ (penis).”

(14) CHAPTER. Whoever scented himself and then took a bath while the effect of scent remained even after bathing.

270. Narrated Muhammad bin Al-Muntashir on the authority of his father that he had asked 'Aishah رضي الله عنها about the saying of Ibn 'Umar (i.e. he did not like to be a Muhrim while the smell of scent was still coming from his body). 'Aishah رضي الله عنها said, “I scented Allah's Messenger ﷺ and he went round (had sexual intercourse with) all his wives, and in the morning he was a Muhrim (after taking a bath).”

271. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها: It is as if I am just now looking at the glitter of scent in the parting of the Prophet's head hair while he was a Muhrim.

(15) CHAPTER. To rub the hair thoroughly (while taking a bath) till one feels that one has made his skin wet (underneath the hair) and then one pours water over it.
272. Narrated Hishâm bin ‘Urwa on the authority of his father: ‘Aîshah رضي الله عنها said, “Whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ took the bath of Janâba, he cleaned his hands and performed ablution like that for Salâh (prayer) and then took a bath and rubbed his hair, till he felt that the whole skin of the head had become wet, then he would pour water thrice and wash the rest of the body.”

273. ‘Aîshah رضي الله عنها further said, “I and Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to take a bath from a single water container, from which we took water simultaneously.”

(16) CHAPTER. Whoever performed the ablution of Janâba and then washed his body but did not wash once again the parts which were washed in ablution.

274. Narrated Maimûna رضي الله عنها: Water was placed for the ablution of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ after Janâba. He poured water with his right hand over his left twice or thrice and then washed his private parts and rubbed his hands on the earth or on a wall twice or thrice and then rinsed his mouth, washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out, and then washed his face and forearms and poured water over his head and washed his body. Then he shifted from that place and washed his feet. I brought a piece of cloth, but he did not take it and removed the traces of water from his body with his hand.”
(17) CHAPTER. If someone while in the mosque remembers that he is Junub, he should leave (the mosque to take a bath) and should not perform Tayammum.

275. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Once the call (Iqāma) for the Salāt (prayer) was announced and the rows were straightened. Allāh's Messenger came out; and when he stood up at his Musalla, he remembered that he was Junub. Then he ordered us to stay at our places and went to take a bath and then returned with water dropping from his head. He said, "Allāhu Akbar", and we all offered the Salāt with him.

(18) CHAPTER. The removing of water from one's body with one's hands after taking the bath of Janaba.

276. Narrated Maimūna: I placed water for the bath of the Prophet and screened him with a garment. He poured water over his hands and washed them. After that he poured water with his right hand over his left and washed his private parts, rubbed his hands with earth and washed them, rinsed his mouth, washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out and then washed his face and forearms. He poured water over his head and body. He then shifted from that place and washed his feet. I gave him a piece of cloth but he did not take it and came out removing the water (from his body) with both his hands.

(19) CHAPTER. Starting from the right side of one’s head while taking a bath.

277. Narrated ‘Aishah: Whenever any one of us was Junub, she poured water over her head thrice with both her hands and then rubbed the right side of her head with one hand and rubbed the left side of the head with the other hand.

(20) CHAPTER. Whosoever took a bath alone (in seclusion) completely naked.

And whosoever screened himself and screening oneself is better. The Prophet ﷺ said, “One must feel shy from Allah more than from the people as He has the right for it.”

278. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The (people of) Bani Isrâ’il used to take bath naked (all together) looking at each other. Prophet Musa (Moses) used to take bath alone. They said, ‘By Allah! Nothing prevents Musa from taking a bath with us except that he has a scrotal hernia.’ So once Musa went out to take a bath and put his clothes over a stone and then that stone ran away with his clothes. Müsa followed that stone saying, ‘My clothes, O stone! My clothes, O stone!’ till the people of Banî Isrâ’îl saw him and said, ‘By Allah, Müsa has got no defect in his body. Müsa took his clothes and began to beat the stone.”

Abû Hurairah added, “By Allah! There are still six or seven marks present on the stone from that excessive beating.”

279. Narrated Abû Hurairah Z: The Prophet ﷺ said, “When the Prophet Ayyûb (Job) was taking a bath naked, golden locusts fell on him. Ayyûb started collecting them in his clothes. His Lord addressed him, ‘O Ayyûb! Haven’t I given you enough so that you are not in need of them.’ Ayyûb replied, ‘Yes! By Your Honour (Power)! But I cannot dispense with Your Blessings’. ” (See Hadîth No. 3391, Vol.4)

280. Narrated Umm Hâni bint Abî Tâlib رضي الله عنها: I went to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ in the year of the Conquest of Makkah and found him taking a bath while Fâtima رضي الله عنها was screening him. The Prophet ﷺ asked, “Who is it?” I replied, “I am Umm Hâni.”
281. Narrated Maimūna: I screened the Prophet while he was taking a bath of Janūba. He washed his hands, poured water from his right hand over his left and washed his private parts. Then he rubbed his hand over a wall or the earth, and performed ablution similar to that for the Salāt (prayer) but did not wash his feet. Then he poured water over his body, shifted from that place, and washed his feet.

(22) CHAPTER. If a woman has a wet dream (nocturnal sexual discharge).

282. Narrated Umm Salama: Umm Sulaim, the wife of Abū Ṭalḥa, came to Allāh’s Messenger and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Verily, Allāh is not shy to tell the truth. Is it necessary for a woman to take a bath after she has a wet dream (nocturnal sexual discharge)?” Allāh’s Messenger replied, “Yes, if she notices a discharge.”
(23) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) the sweat of a Junub. And a Muslim never becomes impure.

283. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet came across me in one of the streets of Al-Madīna and at that time I was Junub. So I slipped away from him and went to take a bath. On my return the Prophet said, “O Abū Hurairah! Where have you been?” I replied, “I was Junub, so I disliked to sit in your company while I was in a state of impurity.” The Prophet said, “Subḥān Allāh! A Believer (who believes in Islamic Monotheism) never becomes Najas (impure).” (See V.9:28 – the Qur’ān)

(24) CHAPTER. A Junub (person) can go out and walk in the market or anywhere else.

‘Atā’ said: A Junub person is allowed to let his blood out (medically), to clip his nails and also to get his head shaved even without ablution.

284. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet used to visit all his wives in one night and he had nine wives at that time.

1 (H.283) Najas i.e., impure; it is either: (a) Physical, as regards urine, stools and blood etc., (b) Spiritual, as regards not having belief in the Oneness of Allāh and His Messenger Muhammad e.g., Al-Mushrīkūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muhammad). And the word Najas is used only for those persons who have spiritual impurity e.g. Al-Mushrīkūn etc.
285. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger came across me and I was Junub. He took my hand and I went along with him till he sat down. I slipped away, went home and took a bath. When I came back, he was still sitting there. He then said to me, “O Abū Hurairah! Where have you been?” I told him about it. The Prophet said, “Subḥān Allāh! O Abū Hurairah! A Believer (who believes in Islamic Monotheism) never becomes Najas (impure).”

25 (25) CHAPTER. A Junub can stay at home without taking a bath but with ablution.

286. Narrated Abū Salama: I asked ‘Āishah, “Did the Prophet use to sleep while he was Junub?” She replied, “Yes, but he used to perform ablution (before going to bed).”

26 (26) CHAPTER. Sleeping of a Junub person.

287. Narrated ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb: I asked Allāh’s Messenger, “Can anyone of us sleep while he is Junub?” He replied, “Yes, if he performs ablution, he can sleep while he is Junub.”

27 (27) CHAPTER. A Junub person should perform ablution before sleeping.

288. Narrated ‘Āishah: Whenever the Prophet intended to sleep while he was Junub, he used to wash his private parts and perform ablution like that for the Salāt (prayer).

289. Narrated 'Abdullāh, "Umar asked the Prophet, "Can anyone of us sleep while he is Junub?" He replied, "Yes, if he performs ablution."

290. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar: 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb told Allāh’s Messenger, "I became Junub at night." Allāh’s Messenger replied, "Perform ablution (after) washing your penis (private parts) and then sleep."

(28) CHAPTER. When male and female organs come in close contact (bath becomes compulsory).

291. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "When a man sits in between the four parts of a woman and did the sexual intercourse with her(1), bath becomes compulsory."

(1) (H.291) The head of his private organ entered in her private female part.
(29) CHAPTER. Washing away what comes out from the private parts of a woman (woman’s discharge) if one gets soiled with that.

292. Narrated Zaid bin Khalid Al-Juhani: I asked ‘Uthman bin ‘Affan about a man who engaged in the sexual intercourse with his wife but did not discharge. ‘Uthman replied, “He should perform ablution like that for the prayer after washing his private parts.” ‘Uthman added, “I heard that from Allah’s Messenger.” I asked Ali bin Abi Talib, Az-Zubair bin Al-Awwam, Talha bin ‘Ubaidullah and Ubaib bin Ka’b and all gave the same reply.

(‘Abul Ayyub said that he had heard that from Allah’s Messenger) (This order was cancelled later on so one has to take a bath. See Hadith No.291).

293. Narrated Ubaib bin Ka’b: I asked Allah’s Messenger about a man who engages in sexual intercourse with his wife but does not discharge. He replied, “He should wash the parts which comes in contact with the private parts of the woman, perform ablution and then offer Salat (prayer).” (Abu ‘Abdullah said, “To be on the safe side one should take a bath and that is the last order.”) (See Hadith No.291).
6 - THE BOOK OF MENSES

And the Statement of Allāh ἦν ἔγγειλεν: 206

“They ask you (O Muḥammad ἦν) concerning menstruation. Say, that is an Adha (a harmful thing for a husband to have sexual intercourse with his wife while she is having her menses), therefore, keep away from women during menses and go not unto them until they have been purified (from menses and have taken a bath). And when they have purified themselves, then go in unto them as Allāh has ordained for you (go in unto them in any manner as long as it is in their vagina). Truly, Allāh loves those who turn unto Him in repentance and loves those who purify themselves.” (V.2:222).

(1) CHAPTER. How the menses started.

And the statement of the Prophet ἦν, “This is a thing which Allāh has ordained for the daughters of Ādām.” Some people said that the menses first came for Banī Isrā'īl. But what the Prophet ἦν said, is more comprehensive (the truth).

CHAPTER. Menses (a thing) ordained (by Allāh and instructions) for women when they get their menses.

294. Narrated Al-Qāsim: ‘Āishah ἦν said, “We set out with the sole intention of performing Hajj and when we reached Sarif, (a place 11 k.m. from Makkah) I got my menses. Allāh’s Messenger ἦν came to me while I was weeping. He said ‘What is the matter with you? Have you got your menses?’ I replied, ‘Yes.’ He said, ‘This is a thing which Allāh has ordained for the daughters of Ādām. So do what all the pilgrims do with the exception of the Tawaf (circumambulation) round the Ka’bah.’” ‘Āishah ἦν added,
"Allah’s Messenger sacrificed cows on behalf of his wives."

(2) CHAPTER. The washing of the husband’s head and the combing of his hair by a menstruating wife.

295. Narrated ‘Aishah: While in menses, I used to comb the hair of Allah’s Messenger.

296. Narrated ‘Urwa: A person asked me, “Can a woman in menses serve me? And can a Junub woman come close to me?” I replied, “All this is easy for me. All of them can serve me, and there is no harm for any other person to do the same.” ‘Aishah told me that she used to comb the hair of Allah’s Messenger while she was in her menses, and he was in I’tikaf (in the mosque). He would bring his head near her

(1) (H.296) I’tikaf: Seclusion in a mosque for the purpose of worshipping Allah only. The one in such a state should not have sexual relations with his wife, and one is not allowed to leave the mosque except for a very short period, and that is only for very urgent necessity e.g., answering the call of nature or joining a funeral procession etc.)
in her room and she would comb his hair, while she used to be in her menses.”

(3) CHAPTER. To recite the Qur'an while lying in the lap of one's own menstruating wife.

Abū Wā'il used to send his menstruating maid servant to bring the Qur'an from Abī Razin by carrying it from the hanger (of its case).

297. Narrated 'Āishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet صلی الله عليه وسلم used to lean on my lap during my menses and then would recite the Qur'an.

(4) CHAPTER. Using the word Niṣās for menses.

298. Narrated Umm Salama رضي الله عنها: While I was laying with the Prophet صلی الله عليه وسلم under a single woolen sheet, I got the menses. I slipped away and put on the clothes for menses. He said, “Have you got Niṣās (menses)?” I replied, “Yes.” He then called me and made me lie with him under the same sheet.
(5) CHAPTER. Fondling a menstruating wife.

299. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet ﷺ and I used to take a bath from a single pot while we were Junub.

300. (‘Āishah added): And he ﷺ used to order me to put on an Izār (dress worn below the waist) and used to fondle me. While I used to be in my periods (menses).

301. (‘Āishah added): While in I’tikāf, he ﷺ used to bring his head near me and I would wash it while I used to be in my periods (menses).

302. Narrated ‘Abdur Raḥmān bin Al-Aswad on the authority of his father: ‘Āishah said: “Whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ wanted to fondle anyone of us during her periods (menses), he used to order her to put on an Izār and start fondling her.” ‘Āishah added, “None of you could control his sexual desire as the Prophet ﷺ could.”

303. Narrated Maimūna: Whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ wanted to fondle any of his wives during their periods (menses), he used to ask her to wear an Izār.
CHAPTER. A menstruating woman should leave observing Ša‘ūm (fasting).

304.Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri: Once Allāh’s Messenger went out to the Musalla [(to offer the Šalāt (prayer)] of ‘Eid-al-Adhā or ‘Eid-al-Fitr, and he passed by the women and said, “O you the assembly of women! Give alms, as I have seen that the majority of the dwellers of Hell-fire were you (women).” They asked, “Why is it so, O Allāh’s Messenger?” He replied, “You curse frequently and are ungrateful to your husbands. I have not seen anyone more deficient in intelligence and religion than you. A cautious sensible man could be led astray by some of you.” The women asked, “O Allāh’s Messenger! What is deficient in our intelligence and religion?” He said, “Is not the witness (evidence) of two women equal to the witness of one man?” They replied in the affirmative. He said, “This is the deficiency in her intelligence. Isn’t it true that a woman can neither offer Šalāt (prayers) nor observe Ša‘ūm (fasting) during her menses?” The women replied in the affirmative. He said, “This is the deficiency in her religion.”

CHAPTER. A menstruating woman should perform all the ceremonies of Ḥajj except the Tawāf around the Ka‘bah.
Ibrãhim said, “There is no harm in reciting a Verse of the Qur'an by a menstruating woman.” Ibn ‘Abbás considers that there was no harm in the recitation of the Qur'an by a Junub. The Prophet ﷺ used to remember (glorify) Allâh at all times. Umm ‘Aţiyaa said that they were ordered to let the menstruating women come out (on festivals) to say Takbîrât (Allahu-Akbar), and to invoke Allâh. Ibn ‘Abbás narrated on the authority of Abū Sufyân: Heraclius asked for the letter of the Prophet ﷺ and read it. It began: “In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. O people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians): Come to a word that is just between us and you that we worship none but Allâh ...” (V.3:64). And ‘Aţâ quoted from Jâbir, “‘Aishah got her menses and she performed all the ceremonies of Hajj except the Tawâf round the Ka'bah and she did not offer Salât (prayers).” Al-Ḥakam said, “I slaughter the animal even if I were Junub.” And Allâh ﷺ said: “Eat not (O believers) of that (meat) on which Allâh’s Name has not been pronounced (at the time of slaughtering of the animal).” (V.6:121).

305. Narrated ‘Aishah: We set out with the Prophet ﷺ for Hajj and when we reached Sarif I got my menses. When the Prophet ﷺ came to me, I was weeping. He asked, “Why are you weeping?” I said, “I wish if I had not performed Hajj this year.” He asked, “May be that you got your menses?” I replied, “Yes.” He then said, “This is the thing which Allâh has ordained for all the daughters of Adam. So do what all the pilgrims do except that you do not perform the Tawâf round the Ka'bah till you are clean.”
(8) CHAPTER. Al-Istihāda [bleeding (from the womb) in between a woman’s periods].

306. Narrated ’Āishah bint Abī Ḥubaysh: Fāṭima bint Abī Ḥubaysh said to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, “O Allah’s Messenger! I do not become clean (from bleeding). Shall I give up my ʿazāt (prayers)?” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ replied: “No, because it is from a blood vessel and not the menses. So when the real menses begins give up your ʿazāt and when it (the period) has finished wash the blood off your body (take a bath) and offer your prayers.”

(9) CHAPTER. Washing out the menstrual blood.

307. Narrated Asmā’ bint Abī Bakr: A woman asked Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, “O Allah’s Messenger! What should we do if the blood of menses falls on our clothes?” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ replied, “If the blood of menses falls on the garment of anyone of you, she must take hold of the blood spot, rub it, and wash it with water and then offer ʿazāt (prayers) in (with) it.”
308. Narrated ‘Aishah: Whenever anyone of us got her menses, she, on becoming clean, used to take hold of the blood spot and rub the blood off her garment, and pour water over it and wash that portion thoroughly and sprinkle water over the rest of the garment. After that she would offer Salāt (prayers) in (with) it.

309. Narrated ‘Aishah: Once one of the wives of the Prophet did I’tikāf along with him and she was bleeding in between her periods. She used to see the blood (from her private parts) and she would perhaps put a dish under her for the blood. (The subnarrator ‘Ikrima added, ‘Aishah: once saw the liquid of safflower and said, “It looks like what so-and-so used to have.”)

310. Narrated ‘Aishah: “One of the wives of Allah’s Messenger joined him in I’tikāf and she noticed blood and yellowish discharge (from her private parts) and put a dish under her when she offered Salāt (prayers).”

311. Narrated ‘Aishah: One of the Mothers of the faithful believers (i.e. the wives of the Prophet) did I’tikāf while she was having bleeding in between her periods.
(11) CHAPTER. Can a woman offer her Salāt (prayers) in the clothes in which she has her menses?

312. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: None of us had more than a single garment and we used to have our menses while wearing it. Whenever it got soiled with blood of menses we used to apply saliva to the blood spot and rub off the blood with our nails.

(12) CHAPTER. Putting perfume by women at the time of taking a bath after finishing from the menses.

313. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyya رضي الله عنها: None of us had more than a single garment and we used to have our menses while wearing it. Whenever it got soiled with blood of menses we used to apply saliva to the blood spot and rub off the blood with our nails.

(13) CHAPTER. A woman should rub her own body thoroughly during a bath after the menses.
How to take a bath after menses and rub the place soiled with blood with a perfumed piece of cloth.

314. Narrated `Aishah رضي الله عنها: A woman asked the Prophet ﷺ about the bath which is taken after finishing from the menses. The Prophet ﷺ told her what to do and said, “Purify yourself with a piece of cloth scented with musk.” The woman asked, “How shall I purify myself with it?” He said, “Subhān Allāh! Purify yourself (with it).” I pulled her to myself and said, “Rub the place soiled with blood with it.”

(14) CHAPTER. To take a bath after finishing from the menses.

315. Narrated `Aishah رضي الله عنها: An Ansārī woman asked the Prophet ﷺ how to take a bath after finishing from the menses. He replied, “Take a piece of cloth perfumed with musk and clean the private parts with it, thrice.” The Prophet ﷺ felt shy and turned his face. So I pulled her to me and told her what the Prophet ﷺ meant.

(15) CHAPTER. The combing of head-hair by a woman on taking a bath after finishing from the menses.

316. Narrated `Aishah رضي الله عنها: In the last Hajj of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ I assumed the Ḥāram for Hajj along with Allāh’s Messenger ١. I was one of those who intended Tamattu’ (to perform Hajj and ‘Umra together, with a break in between) and did not take the Hady (animal for sacrifice) with me. I got my menses and was not clean till the night of ‘Arafa. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! It is the night of the Day of ‘Arafa and I intended to perform the Hajj Tamattu’ with ‘Umra.” Allah’s Messenger ١ told me to undo my head-hair and comb it and to postpone the ‘Umra. I did the same and completed the Hajj. On the night of Al-Haṣba (i.e. a place outside Makkah where the pilgrims go after finishing all the ceremonies of Hajj at Mina) he (the Prophet ١) ordered ‘Abdur Rahnãn ('Aishah’s brother) to take me to At-Tan‘im to assume the Ḥāram for ‘Umra in lieu of that of Hajj-at-Tamattu’ which I had intended to perform.

(16) CHAPTER. A woman should undo her head-hair while taking the bath after finishing from her menses.

317. Narrated ‘Aishah ١: On the 1st of Dhu‘ al-Ḥijja we set out with the intention of performing Hajj. Allah’s Messenger ١ said, “Anyone who likes to assume the Ḥāram for ‘Umra, he can do so. Had I not brought the Hady with me, I would have assumed the Ḥāram for ‘Umra”. Some of us assumed the Ḥāram for ‘Umra while the others assumed the Ḥāram for Hajj. I was one of those who assumed the Ḥāram for ‘Umra. I got menses and kept on menstruating until the Day of ‘Arafa and complained of that to the Prophet ١. He told me to postpone my ‘Umra, undo and comb my head-hair, and to assume the Ḥāram of Hajj and I did so. On the night of Ḥaṣba, he sent my brother ‘Abdur-Rahnãn bin Abi Bakr with me to At-Tan‘im, where I assumed the Ḥāram for ‘Umra in lieu of Ḥajj at Tan‘im.
Hishām said, “For that (‘Umra) no Hady, fasting or alms were required.”

(17) CHAPTER. “(A little lump of flesh) some formed and some unformed.” (V.22:5)

Then if Allah wishes (to complete) its creation, the angel asks, (O Lord!) : (A) Will it be a male or female, (B) a wretched(1) or a blessed(2), (C) and how much will his provision be? (D) And what will his age be? So all that [A, B, C, D] is written while the child is still in the mother’s womb.”

(18) CHAPTER. How a menstruating woman should assume Ihram for Hajj or for ‘Umra.

319. Narrated ‘Urwa: ‘Āishah said, “We set out with the Prophet in his last Hajj. Some of us intended to perform ‘Umra while others Hajj. When we reached Makkah, Allāh’s Messenger said, ‘Anyone who had assumed the Ihram for ‘Umra and had not brought the Hady should finish his Ihram, and whoever had assumed

(1) (H. 318) The wretched (in the Hereafter) is he who will choose the way which will lead him to Hell-fire.
(2) (H.318) The blessed (in the Hereafter) is he who will choose the way which will lead him to Paradise.
the Ḥayrah for ‘Umra and brought the Ḥady should not finish the Ihram till he has slaughtered his Ḥady, and whoever had assumed the Ḥayrah for Ḥajj should complete his Ḥajj.”

‘Aishah further said, “I got my menses and kept on menstruating till the Day of ‘Arafa, and I had assumed the Ihram for ‘Umra only (Tama’tu’). The Prophet ordered me to undo and comb my head-hair and assume the Ihram for Ḥajj only and leave the ‘Umra. I did the same till I completed the Ḥajj. Then the Prophet sent ‘Abdur Raḥmān bin Abi Bakr with me and ordered me to perform ‘Umra from At-Tan‘im in lieu of the missed ‘Umra.”

(19) CHAPTER. The beginning and the ending of menstrual periods.

Some women used to send the pads of cotton with traces of yellowish discharge to ‘Aishah (for her verdict to know whether they had become clean from menses or not). And ‘Aishah would say, “Do not hurry till you see the cotton pad is white (meaning the perfect disappearance of menses).” The daughter of Zaid bin Thābit was told that some women used to ask for candles at midnight to see whether the menses had stopped or not. On that the daughter of Zaid said that the ladies (the wives of the Prophet’s Companions) had never done so, and she blamed them (the former women).

320. Narrated ‘Aishah: Fāṭima bint Abī Ḥubāsh used to have bleeding in between the periods, so she asked the Prophet about it. He replied, “The bleeding is from a blood vessel and not the menses. So give up Ḥaṣ-Salāt (the prayers) when the (real) menses begin and when it has finished, take a bath and start offering prayers.”

(20) CHAPTER. There is no Ṣalāt (prayer) to be offered by a menstruating woman in lieu of the missed Ṣalāt during her menses.

And the Prophet ﷺ said, “The lady (in her menses) must leave her Ṣalāt (prayers).”

321. Narrated Mu‘ādha: A woman asked ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها, “Should I offer the Ṣalāt (prayers) that which I did not offer because of menses.” ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها said, “Are you from the Haraura’ (a town in ‘Iraq)/loader. We were with the Prophet ﷺ and used to get our periods but he never ordered us to offer them (the Ṣalāt missed during menses),” or ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها said, “We did not offer them.”

(21) CHAPTER. Sleeping with a menstruating woman (one’s wife) while she is wearing her clothes (that are worn during menses).

322. Narrated Zainab bint ‘Abi Salama: Umm Salama رضي الله عنها said, “I got my menses while I was lying with the Prophet ﷺ under a woolen sheet. So I slipped away, took the clothes for menses and put them on. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Have you got your menses?’ I replied, ‘Yes.’ Then he called me and took me with him under the woolen sheet.”

Umm Salama رضي الله عنها further said, “The Prophet ﷺ used to kiss me while he was observing Saum (fasting). The Prophet ﷺ:

(1) (H.321) Haraura’ was a village near Kūfa in ‘Iraq where the Kharijites assembled for the first time and a sect of those Kharijites regarded it compulsory for a menstruating women to offer the Ṣalāt (prayers) missed during menses.
6-THE BOOK OF MENSES

and I used to take the bath of Janāba from a single pot.”

(22) CHAPTER. Whoever kept a special dress for menses besides other dresses for the clean period.

323. Narrated Umm Salama: While I was lying with the Prophet under a woolen sheet, I got my menses. I slipped away and put on the clothes for menses. The Prophet said, “Have you got your menses?” I replied, “Yes.” He called me and I slept with him under the woolen sheet.

(23) CHAPTER. The participation of menstruating women in the two ‘Eid festivals and in religious gatherings of Muslims and their isolation from the Musalla (praying place).

324. Narrated Ayyūb: Ḥafṣa said, “We used to forbid our young women to go out for the two ‘Eid prayers. A woman came and stayed at the palace of Bani Khalaf and she narrated about her sister whose husband took part in twelve Ghazwāt (holy wars) along with the Prophet, and her sister was with her husband in six (out of these twelve). She (the woman’s sister) said, “We used to treat the wounded, look after the patients and once I asked the Prophet, ‘Is there any harm for any of us to stay at home if she doesn’t have a veil?’ He said, ‘She should cover herself with the veil of her companion and should participate in the good deeds and in the religious gathering of the Muslims.’ When Umm ‘Aṭīyya came I asked her whether she had heard it from the Prophet. She replied, ‘Yes. May my father be sacrificed for him (the Prophet)!’ (Whenever she mentioned the Prophet she used to say, ‘May my father be sacrificed for him’). I have heard the Prophet saying, ‘The unmarried virgins and the mature girls and the menstruating women should come out and participate in the good deeds as well as the invocations of faithful believers, but the menstruating women should keep away from the Musallā — praying place [i.e., ʿSalāt (prayers)].’

Ḥaṣa asked Umm ‘Aṭīyya (surprisingly), ‘Do you say the menstruating women?’ She replied, ‘Doesn’t a menstruating woman attend ‘Arafat (Hajj) and such and such (other deeds)?’

(24) CHAPTER. If a woman gets menses thrice a month.

Can we believe a woman if she says she is menstruating or pregnant, and whatever is related to menses as is referred to by the Statement of Allāh: “…And it is not lawful for them to conceal what Allāh has created in their wombs…” (V.2:228). Ṭāli and Šūrāth said, ‘If a woman presents witness from her relatives who are good Muslims that she is getting menses thrice a month then she is to be believed.’ ‘Aṭā said, ‘Her previous menstrual cycles are to be taken into consideration.’ The same was said by Ḥur̄. ‘Aṭā said, ‘Menses can last from one to fifteen days.’ Ibn Sirīn was asked about a woman who noticed blood five days after her menstrual cycle. He replied: The women knew better about that.

325. Narrated ‘Aishah: Fāṭima bint Abi Ḥuṣayn asked the Prophet ﷺ, “I got persistent bleeding (in between the periods) and do not become clean. Shall I give up ṣalāt (prayers)?” He replied, “No, it is from a blood vessel. Give up the Salāt only for the days on which you usually get the menses and then take a bath and offer your prayers.”

(25) CHAPTER. Yellowish discharge not during the menses.

326. Narrated Umm ‘Aṭiyya: We never considered yellowish discharge as a thing of importance (during a non-menstruating period).

(26) CHAPTER. Al-Iṣliḥādah (bleeding in between the periods is from a blood vessel.)

327. Narrated ‘Aishah: Umm Ḥabība got bleeding in between the periods for seven years. She asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ about it. He ordered her to take a bath (after the termination of actual periods) and added that it was from a blood vessel. But she used to take a bath for every Salāt (prayer). (Without being ordered by the Prophet ﷺ, See Fath Al-Bairi).
(27) CHAPTER. If a woman gets her menses after Tawaf-al-Ifada\(^{(1)}\)

328. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: I told Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ that Safiyya bint Huyayî had got her menses. He said, “She will probably delay us. Did she perform Tawaf (al-Ifada) with you?” We replied, “Yes.” On that the Prophet ﷺ told her to depart.

329. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: A woman is allowed to leave (go back home) if she gets menses (after Tawaf-al-Ifada).

(28) CHAPTER. When a woman having bleeding in between her periods notices signs of cleanliness from her menses.

Ibn ‘Abbâs said: She should take a bath and offer Salât (prayers) even if (she were clean) for an hour and she can have (sexual relation with her husband) after the prayer and Aṣ-Ṣalât (the prayer) is more superior and important (than anything else).

\(^{(1)}\) (Ch. 27) See glossary.
331.Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet said to me, “Give up As-Salāt when your menses begin and when it has finished, wash the blood off your body (take a bath) and start offering Salāt.”

(29) CHAPTER. The offering of a funeral prayer for a woman who had died during (or after) delivery and its (i.e., funeral prayer's) legal way of performing. [See Sahih Al-Bukhari, Vol.2, Hadith No.1333,1334 and its chapter No. 64].

332. Narrated Samura bin Jundab: The Prophet offered the funeral prayer for the dead body of a woman who died of (during) delivery (i.e., childbirth) and he stood by the middle of her body.

(30) CHAPTER.

333. Narrated Maimūna, the wife of the Prophet: During my menses, I never offered Salāt (prayer), but used to sit on the mat beside the mosque of Allāh's Messenger. He used to offer the Salāt on his sheet and in prostration some of his clothes used to touch me.”
7 - THE BOOK OF TAYAMMUM

The Statement of Allah: “…And you find no water, then perform Tayammum with clean earth and rub therewith your faces and hands…” (V.5:6).

(1) CHAPTER.

334. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet: We set out with Allah’s Messenger on one of his journeys till we reached Al-Baidā’ or Dhāṭul-Jaish, a necklace of mine was broken (and lost). Allah’s Messenger stayed there to search for it, and so did the people along with him. There was no water at that place, so the people went to Abu Bakr A-Siddiq and said, “Don’t you see what ‘Aishah has done? She has made Allah’s Messenger and the people stay where there is no water and they have no water with them.” Abu Bakr came while Allah’s Messenger was sleeping with his head on my thigh, He said, to me: “You have detained Allah’s Messenger and the people stay where there is no water and they have no water with them.”

So he admonished me and said what Allah wished him to say and hit me on my flank with his hand. Nothing prevented me from moving (because of pain) but the position of Allah’s Messenger on my thigh. Allah’s Messenger got up when dawn broke and there was no water. So Allah revealed the Divine Verses of Tayammum. So they all performed Tayammum. Usaid bin Hudair said, “O the family of Abu Bakr! This is not the first blessing of yours.” Then the camel on which I was riding was caused to move from its place and the necklace was found beneath it.

(1) (Ch.1) Tayammum: To strike lightly the hands over clean earth and then pass the palm of each on the back of the other, blow off the dust and then pass them on the face. This is performed instead of Wudū’ (ablution) and Ghusl (in case of Janaba etc.) when water is not available (or under other circumstances etc.) See Sahih Al-Bukhari, Vol.1, Hadith No.338 and 344.

335. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: The Prophet said, “I have been given five (things) which were not given to anyone else before me.

1. Allah made me victorious by awe, (by His frightening my enemies) for a distance of one month’s journey.

2. The earth has been made for me (and for my followers) a place for offering Salât (prayer) and a thing to purify (perform Tayammum), therefore anyone of my followers can offer Salât wherever he is, at the time of a Salât.

3. The booty has been made Halâl (lawful) to me yet it was not lawful to anyone else before me.

4. I have been given the right of intercession (on the Day of Resurrection).

5. Every Prophet used to be sent to his nation only but I have been sent to all mankind.

(2) CHAPTER. What to do if neither water nor earth is available.

336. Narrated ‘Urwa’s father: ‘Aishah said, “I borrowed a necklace from Asmâ’ and it was lost. So Allâh’s Messenger sent a man to search for it and he found it. Then the time of the Šalāt (prayer) became due and there was no water. They offered Šalāt (without ablution) and informed Allāh’s Messenger about it, so the Verse of Tayammum was revealed.” Usaid bin Ḥudair said to ‘Āishah, “May Allāh reward you. By Allāh, whenever anything happened which you did not like, Allāh brought good for you and for the Muslims in that.”

(3) CHAPTER. The performance of Tayammum by a non-traveller (is permissible) when water is not available and when one is afraid that the time of Šalāt (prayer) may elapse.

‘Āṭā’ supported that opinion. Al-Ḥasan says, “If a patient has water but there is no one to hand it over to him, then he can perform Tayammum.” Ibnu ‘Umar came from his land at Al-Juruf and the time for the ‘Asr prayer became due while he was at Marbadan-Na‘am (sheep-fold), so he (performed Tayammum) and offered Šalāt (prayer) there, and then entered Al-Madīna when the sun was still high but he did not repeat that Šalāt.

337. Narrated Abū Juhaime Al-Anṣa‘rī: The Prophet came from the direction of Bi‘r Jamal. A man met him and greeted him. But he did not return back the greeting till he went to a (mud) wall and rubbed his hands and his face with its dust (performed Tayammum) and then returned back the greeting.
(4) CHAPTER. Can a person blow off the dust from his hands in performing Tayammum (before passing them over his face).

338. Narrated ‘Abdur Rahmân bin Abza:

A man came to ‘Umar bin Al-Khattãb and said, “I became Junub but no water was available.” ‘Ammâr bin Yâsir said to ‘Umar, “Do you remember that you and I (became Junub while both of us) were together on a journey and you didn’t offer Salât (prayer) but I rolled myself on the ground and offered Salât? I informed the Prophet about it and he said, ‘It would have been sufficient for you to do like this.’ The Prophet then stroked lightly the earth with his hands and then blew off the dust and passed his hands over his face and hands.”

(5) CHAPTER. Tayammum is for the hands and the face.

339. Narrated Sa’îd bin ‘Abdur Rahmân bin Abza on the authority of his father who said: ‘Ammâr said so (the above statement). And Shu’ba stroked lightly the earth with his hands and brought them close to his mouth.
(blew off the dust) and passed them over his face and then the backs of his hands. ‘Ammār said, “Ablution (meaning Tayammum here) is sufficient for a Muslim if water is not available.”

340. Narrated ‘Abdur Raḥmān bin Abzā that while he was in the company of ‘Umar رضي الله عنه, ‘Ammār رضي الله عنه said to ‘Umar, “We were in a detachment and became Junub and I blew the dust off my hands [performed the rolling over the earth and offered Salāt (prayer)].”

341. Narrated ‘Abdur Raḥmān bin Abzā: ‘Ammār رضي الله عنه said to ‘Umar رضي الله عنه, “I rolled myself in the dust and came to the Prophet ﷺ who said, ‘Passing dusted hands over the face and the backs of the hands was sufficient for you.’”

342. Narrated ‘Ammār رضي الله عنه as above.

343. Narrated ‘Ammār رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ stroked the earth with his hands... and then passed them over his face and the back of his hands (while demonstrating Tayammum).

(6) CHAPTER. Clean earth is sufficient for a Muslim as a substitute for water for ablution (if he does not find water).

Al-Hasan said, “Tayammum is sufficient unless one does Hadath.” Ibn ‘Abbas led the Salât (prayer) with Tayammum. Yahyâ bin Sa‘id said, “There is no harm in offering Salât on a moorland (a barren salty land) and performing Tayammum with it.”

344. Narrated ‘Imran: Once we were travelling with the Prophet and we carried on travelling till the last part of the night and then we (halted at a place) and slept (deeply). There is nothing sweeter than sleep for a traveller in the last part of the night. So it was only the heat of the sun that made us to wake up; and the first to wake up was so-and-so, then so-and-so and then so-and-so (the narrator ‘Abû said that Abu Raja’ had told him their names but he had forgotten them) and the fourth person to wake up was ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb. And whenever the Prophet used to sleep, nobody would wake him up till he himself used to get up as we did not know what was happening (being revealed) to him in his sleep. So, ‘Umar got up and saw the condition of the people, and he was a strict man, so he said, “Allâhu-Akbar” and raised his voice with Takbîr, and kept on saying loudly till the Prophet got up because of it. When he got up, the people informed him about what had happened to them. He said,
There is no harm (or it will not be harmful). Depart!” So they departed from that place, and after covering some distance the Prophet ﷺ stopped and asked for some water to perform the ablution. So, he performed the ablution and the call for the Salāt was pronounced and he led the people in Salāt. After he finished from the Salāt, he saw a man sitting aloof who had not offered Salāt with the people. He ﷺ asked, “O so-and-so! What has prevented you from offering Salāt with us?” He replied, “I am Junub and there is no water.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Perform Tayammum with (clean) earth and that is sufficient for you.”

Then the Prophet ﷺ proceeded on, and the people complained to him of thirst. Thereupon he got down and called a person (the narrator ‘Auf added that Abū Rajā’ had named him but he had forgotten) and ‘Alī, and ordered them to go and bring water. So they went in search of water and met a woman who was sitting on her camel between two bags of water. They asked, “Where can we find water?” She replied, “I was there (at the place of water) this hour yesterday and my people are behind me.” They requested her to accompany them. She asked, “Where?” They said, “To Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.” She said, “Do you mean the man who is called the Sabī (with a new religion)?” They replied, “Yes, the same person. So come along.”

They brought her to the Prophet ﷺ and narrated the whole story. He said, “Help her to dismount.” The Prophet ﷺ asked for a pot, then he opened the mouths of the bags and poured some water into the pot. Then he closed the big openings of the bags and opened the small ones and the people were called upon to drink and water their animals. So they all watered their animals and they...
(too) all quenched their thirst and also gave water to others and last of all the Prophet ﷺ gave a pot full of water to the person who was Junub and told him to pour it over his body.

The woman was standing and watching all that which they were doing with her water. By Allah, when her water bags were returned they looked like as if they were more full (of water) than they had been before. Then the Prophet ﷺ ordered us to collect something for her; so dates, flour and Sawiːq were collected which amounted to a good meal that was put in a piece of cloth. She was helped to ride on her camel and that cloth full of food-stuff was also placed in front of her and then the Prophet ﷺ said to her, “We have not taken your water but Allah has given water to us.” She returned home late. Her relatives asked her: “O so-and-so what has delayed you?” She said, “A strange thing! Two men met me and took me to the man who is called the Sabiː and he did such and such a thing. By Allah, he is either the greatest magician between this and this (gesturing with her index and middle fingers raising them towards the sky indicating the heaven and the earth) or he is Allah’s Messenger, in truth.”

Afterwards the Muslims used to attack the pagans around her abode but never touched her village. One day she said to her people, “I think that these people leave you purposely. Have you got any inclination to Islam?” They obeyed her and all of them embraced Islam.

Abu ‘Abdullāh said: The word Sabiː means “The one who has deserted his old religion and embraced a new religion.” Abū ‘Alīya said, “The Sabiː’un are a sect of people of the Scripture who recite the Book (Psalms of Sabiː’un) they used to live in ‘Iraq. They were neither Jews nor Christians.”
(7) CHAPTER. A Junub can perform Tayammum if he is afraid of disease, death or thirst.

It is said that once ‘Amr bin Al-‘As became Junub in a very cold night. He performed Tayammum and recited the following Verse from the Qur’an: “…And do not kill yourself (nor kill one another). Surely, Allāh is Most Merciful to you.” (V.4:29) When that was reported to the Prophet ﷺ he did not object to it.

345. Narrated Abū Wā’il: Abū Mūsa said to ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd, “If one does not find water (for ablution) can he give up the prayer?” Abdullāh replied, “If you give the permission to perform Tayammum they will perform Tayammum even if water was available, if one of them found it cold.” Abū Mūsā said, “What about the statement of ‘Ammār to ‘Umar?” ‘Abdullāh replied, “‘Umar was not satisfied by his statement.”

346. Narrated Shaqiq bin Salama: I was with ‘Abdullāh and Abū Mūsa; the latter asked the former, “O Abū Abdur-Rahmān! What is your opinion if somebody becomes Junub and no water is available?” ‘Abdullāh replied, “Do not offer Salāt (prayer) till water is found.” Abū Mūsā said, “What do you say about the statement of ‘Ammār (who was ordered by the Prophet ﷺ to perform Tayammum). The Prophet ﷺ said to him: “Perform Tayammum and that would be sufficient.” ‘Abdullāh replied, “Don’t you see that ‘Umar was not satisfied by ‘Ammār’s statement?” Abū Mūsā said, “All right, leave ‘Ammār’s statement, but what will you say about this Verse (of Tayammum)?” ‘Abdullāh kept quiet and then said, “If we allowed it, then they would probably perform Tayammum even if water was available, if one of them found it (water) cold.”

The narrator added, “I said to Shaqīq, “Then did ‘Abdullāh dislike to perform Tayammum because of this?” He replied, “Yes.”

(8) CHAPTER. Tayammum with one light stroke (on the earth).

347. Narrated Al-A’mash: Shaqīq said, “While I was sitting with ‘Abdullāh and Abū Mūsā Al-Ash’arī, the latter asked the former, ‘If a person becomes Junub and does not find water for one month, can he perform Tayammum and offer his Salāt (prayer)?’ (He replied in the negative). Abū Mūsā said, ‘What do you say about this Verse from Sūrat Al-Mā’ida: ...And you find not water then perform Tayammum with clean earth and rub therewith your faces and hands... (V.5:6)’ ‘Abdullāh replied, ‘If we allowed it then they would probably perform Tayammum with clean earth even if water...”
were available but cold.' I said, "You then disliked to perform Tayammum because of this?" He said, "Yes." (Shaqiq added), "Abu Musa said, 'Haven't you heard the statement of 'Ammar to 'Umar? [He (Ammar) said:] I was sent out by Allâh's Messenger for some job and I became Junub and could not find water so I rolled myself over the dust (clean earth) like an animal does, and when I told the Prophet of that he said, 'Like this would have been sufficient.' The Prophet (saying so) lightly stroked the earth with his hand once and blew it off, then passed his (left) hand over the back of his right hand or his (right) hand over the back of his left hand and then passed them over his face.' So 'Abdullâh said (to Abu Musa), "Don't you know that 'Umar was not satisfied with 'Ammar's statement?"

Narrated Shaqiq: While I was with 'Abdullâh and Abu Musa, the latter said to the former, "Haven't you heard the statement of 'Ammar to 'Umar? He said, "Allâh's Messenger sent you and I out, I became Junub and rolled myself in the dust (clean earth) (for Tayammum). When we came to Allâh's Messenger I told him about it and he said, 'This would have been sufficient,' passing his hands over his face and the back of his hands once only.'"

(9) CHAPTER.

348. Narrated 'Imrân bin Husain Al-Khuza'i: Allâh's Messenger saw a person sitting aloof and not offering Salât (prayer) with the people. He asked him, "O so-and-so! What prevented you from offering the Salât with the people?"
He replied, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I am Junub and there is no water.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Perform Tayammum with clean earth and that will be sufficient for you.”
(1) CHAPTER. How As-Salat (the prayer) was prescribed on the night of Al-Isra’ (miraculous night journey) of the Prophet to Jerusalem (and then to the heavens).

Ibn ‘Abbas said: Abū Sufyān, when telling the narration of Heraclius, mentioned: “The Prophet ordered us to offer our Salāt (prayers) regularly and to be true and chaste.”

349. Narrated Abū Dhar: Allah’s Messenger said, “While I was at Makkah, the roof of my house was opened and Jibrīl (Gabriel) descended, opened my chest, and washed it with Zamzam water. Then he brought a golden tray full of wisdom and faith and having poured its contents into my chest, he closed it. Then he took my hand and ascended with me to the nearest heaven, when I reached the nearest heaven, Jibrīl said to the gatekeeper of the heaven, ‘Open (the gate).’ The gatekeeper asked, ‘Who is it?’ Jibrīl answered: ‘Jibrīl.’ He asked, ‘Is there anyone with you?’ Jibrīl replied, ‘Yes, Muhammad is with me.’ He asked, ‘Has he been called?’ Jibrīl said, ‘Yes.’ So the gate was opened and we went over the nearest heaven and there we saw a man sitting with Aswīda (a large number of people) on his right and Aswīda (a large number of people) on his left. When he looked towards his right, he laughed and when he looked toward his left he wept. Then he said, ‘Welcome! O pious Prophet and pious son.’ I asked Jibrīl, ‘Who is he?’ He replied, ‘He is Ādām and the people on his right and left are the souls of his offspring. Those on his right are the people of Paradise and those on his left are the people of Hell, and when he looked towards his right he laughed and when he looked towards his left he wept.

Then he ascended with me till he reached the second heaven and he (Jibril) said to its gatekeeper, 'Open (the gate)'. The gatekeeper said to him the same as the gatekeeper of the first heaven had said, and he opened the gate.

Anas said: "Abū Dhar added that the Prophet met Adam, Idrīs, Mūsā (Moses), 'Iesa (Jesus) and Ibrāhīm (Abraham) on the sixth heaven, but he (Abū Dhar) did not mention on which heaven they were but he mentioned that he (the Prophet) met Adam on the nearest heaven and Ibrāhīm on the sixth heaven."

Anas said, "When Jibril, along with the Prophet passed by Idrīs, the latter said, 'Welcome! O pious Prophet and pious brother.' The Prophet asked, 'Who is he?' Jibril replied, 'He is Idrīs'."

The Prophet added, "I passed by Mūsā and he said, 'Welcome! O pious Prophet and pious brother.' I asked Jibril, 'Who is he?' Jibril replied, 'He is Mūsā.' Then I passed by 'Iesa and he said, 'Welcome! O pious brother and pious Prophet.' I asked, 'Who is he?' Jibril replied, 'He is 'Iesa (Jesus)."

Then I passed by Ibrāhīm and he said, 'Welcome! O pious Prophet and pious son.' I asked Jibril, 'Who is he?' Jibril replied, 'He is Ibrāhīm.'

The Prophet added, "Then Jibril ascended with me to a place where I heard the creaking of the pens."

Ibīn Ḥazm and Anas bin Mālik said: The Prophet said, 'Then Allah enjoined fifty Salāt (prayers) on my followers, when I returned with this Order of Allah, I passed by Mūsā who asked me, 'What has Allah enjoined on your followers?' I replied, 'He has enjoined fifty Salāt on them.' Mūsā said, 'Go back to your Lord (and appeal for reduction), for your followers will not be able to bear it.’ (So, I went back to Allah and requested for reduction) and He reduced it to half. When I passed by Musa again and informed him about it, he said, ‘Go back to your Lord as your followers will not be able to bear it.’ So I returned to Allah and requested for further reduction and half of it was reduced. I again passed by Musa and he said to me: ‘Return to your Lord, for your followers will not be able to bear it.’ So I returned to Allah and He said, ‘These are five Salat and they are all (equal to) fifty (in reward) for My Word does not change.’ I returned to Musa and he told me to go back once again. I replied, ‘Now I feel shy of asking my Lord again.’ Then Jibril took me till we reached Sidrat-ul-Muntahā (lote tree of the utmost boundary) which was shrouded in colours indescribable. Then I was admitted into Paradise where I found small walls (made) of pearls and its earth was of musk (a kind of perfume).”

350. Narrated ‘Aishah the Mother of believers: Allah enjoined As-Salat (the prayer) when He enjoined it, it was two Rak’a only (in every Salat) both when in residence or during a journey. Then the Salat offered during a journey remained the same, but (the Rak‘a of) Salāt for non-travellers were increased.

(2) CHAPTER. It is obligatory to wear clothes while offering As-Salāt (the prayers).

And the Statement of Allāh عَالِمُ النَّعَمُ: ‘Take your adornment (by wearing your clean clothes covering completely the Aurah: [it means, – while offering Salāt (prayer), a male must cover himself with clothes from umbilicus of his abdomen up to his knees, and it is better that both his shoulders should be covered. And a female must cover all her body and feet, except face, and it is better that her both hands are also covered.] (1) while praying and going round (the Tawāf of) the Ka‘bah (V.7:31).

And offering Salāt while wearing a single garment wrapped round the body, Salma bin Al-Akwa’ narrated: The Prophet ﷺ said, “He should pin it, even if with a thorn.”

Offering Salāt with the same garment in which one has had sexual intercourse (is permissible) if one does not see anything dirty on it.

The Prophet ﷺ ordered that no one should go around the Ka‘bah (perform Tawāf) in a naked state.

351. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyya: We were ordered to bring out our menstruating women and veiled women in the religious gatherings and invocation of Muslims on the two ‘Eid festivals. These menstruating women were to keep away from their Musallā. A woman asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! What about one who does not have a veil?” He said, “Let her share the veil of her companion.”

(3) CHAPTER. To tie Izār (dress worn below the waist) at one’s back while offering Ṣalāt (prayers).

Sahl said, “Some people offered Ṣalāt (prayer) with the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ with their Izār tied to their necks.”

352. Narrated Muḥammad bin Al-Munkadīr: Once Jābir رضي الله عنه offered Ṣalāt (prayer) with his Izār tied to his back while his clothes were lying beside him on a wooden peg. Somebody asked him, “Do you offer your Ṣalāt in a single Izār?” He replied, “I did so to show it to the one with no sense like you. Had anyone of us two garments in the lifetime of the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ?”

353. Narrated Muḥammad bin Al-Munkadīr: I saw Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنه offering Ṣalāt (prayer) in a single garment and he said that he had seen the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ offering Ṣalāt in a single garment.
(4) CHAPTER. To offer Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayers) with a single garment wrapped round the body.

Umm Hāni said that the Prophet  wrapped his body with a single garment and crossed its ends over his shoulders.

354. Narrated 'Umar bin Abi Salama : The Prophet  offered Ṣalāt (prayer) in one garment and crossed its ends.

355. Narrated 'Umar bin Abi Salama : I saw the Prophet  offering Ṣalāt (prayer) in a single garment in the house of Umm Salama and he had crossed its ends around his shoulders.

356. Narrated 'Umar bin Abi Salama : In the house of Umm Salama, I saw Allāh's Messenger  offering Ṣalāt (prayer), wrapped in a single garment around his body with its ends crossed round his shoulders.
357. Narrated Abû Murra, the freed-slave of Umm Hâni, the daughter of Abî Ţâlib, said, “I went to Allah’s Messenger in the year of the conquest of Makkah and found him taking a bath and his daughter Fâṭima was screening him. I greeted him. He asked, ‘Who is she?’ I replied, ‘I am Umm Hâni bint Abî Ţâlib.’ He said, ‘Welcome! O Umm Hâni.’ When he finished his bath he stood up and prayed eight Rak’â while wearing a single garment (wrapped round his body) and when he finished I said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! My brother has told me that he will kill a person whom I gave shelter and that person is so-and-so the son of Hubaira.’ The Prophet said, ‘We shelter the person whom you have sheltered’.

Umm Hâni added, “And that was before noon (Duha).”

358. Narrated Abû Hurairah: A person asked Allah’s Messenger about the offering of Ṣalât (the prayer) in a single garment. Allah’s Messenger replied, “Has everyone of you got two garments?”

(5) CHAPTER. If someone offers Ṣalât (prayer) wrapped in a single garment, he should cross its corners round his shoulders.

359. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “None of you should offer Șalât (prayer) in a single garment that does not cover one’s shoulders.”

360. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever offers Șalât (prayer) in a single garment, must cross its ends (over the shoulders).”

(6) CHAPTER. If the garment is tight (over the body).

361. Narrated Sa‘îd bin Al-Hârith: I asked Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh about offering Șalât (prayer) in a single garment. He said, “I travelled with the Prophet ﷺ during some of his journeys, and I came to him at night for some purpose and I found him offering Șalât. At that time, I was wearing a single garment with which I covered my shoulders and offered Șalât by his side. When he finished the Șalât, he asked, ‘O Jâbir! What has brought you here?’ I told him what I wanted. When I finished, he asked, ‘O Jâbir! What is this garment which I have seen and with which you covered your shoulders?’ I replied, ‘It is a (tight) garment.’ He said, ‘If the garment is large enough, wrap it round the body (covering the shoulders) and if it is tight (too short) then use it as an İzar (tie it around your waist only).’”

362. Narrated Sahl: The men used to offer Șalât (prayer) with the Prophet with their Izār (lower-half body-cover sheet) tied around their necks as boys used to do; therefore the Prophet ☪ told the women not to raise their heads (from prostration) till the men sat down straight (while praying).

(7) CHAPTER. To offer Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) in a Syrian cloak (made by infidels).

Al-Ḥasan said that there was no harm in wearing clothes woven by a Magian. And Ma'mar said that he had seen Az-Zuhri wearing Yemenite garments dyed with urine. And ‘Ali offered Ṣalāt (prayer) in a new unwashed garment.

363. Narrated Mughīра bin Shu’ba ☪: Once I was travelling with the Prophet ☪ and he said, “O Mughīra! Take this container of water.” I took it and Allāh’s Messenger ☪ went far away till he disappeared. He answered the call of nature and he was wearing a Syrian cloak. He tried to take out his hands from its sleeve but it was very tight, so he took out his hands from under it. I poured water and he performed ablution like that for Ṣalāt (prayer) and passed his (wet) hands over his Khuff (leather socks) and then offered Ṣalāt.

(8) CHAPTER. It is disliked to be naked during Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayers).

364. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh ☪: While Allāh’s Messenger ☪ was carrying stones (along) with the people of Makkah for (the building of) the Ka'bah wearing an Izār (waist-sheet, lower-half body-cover), his uncle Al-‘Abbas said to him, “O my nephew! (It would be better) if you take off your Izār and put it over your shoulders underneath the stones.” So he took off his Izār and put it over his shoulders, but he fell unconscious and since then he had never been seen naked.

(9) CHAPTER. To offer Ṣalāt (prayer) with a shirt, trousers, a Tubbān or a Qabā’ (an outer garment with full length sleeves).

365. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man stood up and asked the Prophet about offering Ṣalāt (prayer) in a single garment. The Prophet said, “Has every one of you got two garments?” A man put a similar question to ‘Umar; on which he replied, “When Allah makes you wealthier then you should clothe yourself properly during Salāt. Otherwise one can offer Ṣalāt with an Izār and a Rīḍā’ (a sheet covering the upper part of the body), Izār and a shirt, Izār and a Qabā’, trousers and a Rīḍā’, trousers and a shirt or trousers and a Qabā’, Tubbān(1) and a Qabā’ or Tubbān and a shirt.” (The narrator added, “I think that he also said a Tubbān and a Rīḍā’.”)

(1) (H.365) Tubbān: Shorts that covers the knees.
366. Narrated Ibn `Umar: A person asked Allah’s Messenger, “What should a Muhrim wear?” He replied, “He should not wear shirts, trousers, a Burdus (a hooded cloak), or clothes which are stained with saffron or Wars (a kind of perfume). Whoever does not find a sandal to wear can wear Khuff, but these should be cut short so as not to cover the ankles.

(10) CHAPTER. What may be used to cover the private parts of the body.

367. Narrated Abu Sa`id Al-Khudri: Allah’s Messenger forbade Isti’imal-as-`Sammah (wrapping one’s body with a garment so that one cannot raise its end or take one’s hand out of it). He also forbade Al-Ihtiba (sitting on buttocks with knees close to abdomen, and feet apart with the hands circling the knees) while wrapping oneself with a single garment, without having a part of it over the private parts.

368. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet forbade two kinds of sales i.e., Al-Limas and An-Nibadh (the former is a kind of sale in which the deal is completed if the buyer touches a thing, without seeing or checking it properly; and the latter is a kind of sale in which the deal is completed when the seller throws a thing towards the buyer giving him no opportunity to see, touch or check it) and (the Prophet forbade) also Ištímãl-As-Sammâ’ and Al-Ihtibâ’ in a single garment.

369. Narrated Abû Hurairah: On the Day of Naḥr (10th of Dhul-Ḥijja, in the year prior to the last Hajj of the Prophet when Abû Bakr was the leader of the pilgrims in that Hajj), Abû Bakr sent me along with other announcers to Minā to make a public announcement (proclaiming): “No Mušrîk (polytheist, pagan, idolater and disbeliever in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad) is allowed to perform Hajj after this year; and no naked person is allowed to perform the Tawâf around the Ka’bah.” Then Allah’s Messenger sent ‘Alî to read out the Sûrât Barâ’a (At-Tauba) to the people; so he made the announcement along with us on the day of Naḥr in Minā: “No Mušrîk — (polytheist, pagan, idolater and disbeliever in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad) is allowed to perform Hajj after this year and no naked person is allowed to perform the Tawâf around the Ka’bah.”

(11) CHAPTER. To pray without a Ridâ’.

370. Narrated Muḥammad bin Al-Munkadîr: I went to Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh and he was offering Salât (prayer) wrapped in a garment and his Ridâ’ was lying beside him. When he finished the Salât, I said “O ‘Abdullâh! You offer Salât (in a single garment) while your Ridâ’ is lying beside you.” He replied, “Yes, I did it intentionally so that the ignorant ones like you might see me. I saw the Prophet offering Salât (prayer) like this.”
(12) CHAPTER. What is said about the thigh.

Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs and Jarhad and Muḥammad bin Jahsh: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The thigh is ‘Aurah (i.e., it is illegal to keep it bare).” And Anas bin Mãlik said, “The Prophet ﷺ uncovered his thigh.” The narration of Anas is dependable, but it would be safer to take Jarhad’s narration into consideration in order to get rid of the difference between them. Abû Mûsa said, “The Prophet ﷺ covered his knees when ‘Uthmân entered.” Zaid bin Thãbit said, “Divine Revelation came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ while his thigh was on my thigh and it became so heavy that I was afraid that it might break my thigh.”

371. Narrated ‘Abdul ‘Azîz: Anas said, “When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ invaded Khai̊bar, we offered the Fajr prayer there (early in the morning) when it was still dark. Allah’s Prophet ﷺ rode and Abû Ṭalîḥa rode, too, and I was riding behind Abû Ṭalîḥa. Allah’s Prophet ﷺ passed through the lane of Khai̊bar quickly and my knee was touching the thigh of Allah’s Prophet ﷺ. Then his thigh was uncovered by the shift of his Izar (waist-sheet), and I saw the whiteness of the thigh of Allah’s Prophet ﷺ. When he entered the town, he said, ‘Allahū Akbar! Khai̊bar is ruined. Whenever we approach near a (hostile) nation (to fight) then evil will be the morning of those who have been warned.’ He repeated this thrice. The people came out for their jobs and some of them said, ‘Muḥammad (has come) along with his army.’ We conquered Khai̊bar, (took the captives), and the booty was collected. Dihyā came and said, ‘O Allah’s Prophet! Give me a slave-girl from the captives.’ The Prophet ﷺ
He said, 'Go and take any slave-girl.' He took Safiyya bint Huyal. A man came to the Prophet and said, 'O Allah's Messenger! You gave Safiyya bint Huyal to Dihya and she is the chief-mistress of (the ladies) of the tribes of Quraiza and An-Nadir, she befits none but you.' So the Prophet said, 'Bring him along with her.' So Dihya came with her and when the Prophet saw her, he said to Dihya, 'Take any slave-girl other than her from the captives.'

Anas added: The Prophet then manumitted her and married her.

Thabit asked Anas, "O Abu Hamza! What did the Prophet pay her (as Mahr)?" He said, "She herself was her Mahr for he manumitted her and then married her." Anas added, "While on the way, Umm Sulaim dressed her for marriage and at night she sent her as a bride to the Prophet. So, the Prophet was a bridegroom and he said, 'Whoever has anything (food) should bring it.' He spread out a leather sheet (for the food) and some brought dates and others cooking butter. [I think he (Anas) mentioned As-Sawiq]. So they prepared a dish of Hais (a kind of meal). And that was Walima (the marriage banquet) of Allah's Messenger.”
(13) CHAPTER. In how many (what sort of) clothes a woman should offer Șalāt (prayer).

‘Ikrima said, “If she can cover all her body with one garment, it is sufficient.”(1)

372. Narrated ‘Aisah رضي الله عنها: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to offer the Fajr prayer and some believing women covered with their veiling sheets used to attend the Fajr prayer with him and then they would return to their homes unrecognized.

(14) CHAPTER. If a person offered Șalāt (prayer) in a dress with marks and looked at those marks during the Șalāt.

373. Narrated ‘Aisah رضي الله عنها : The Prophet ﷺ offered Șalāt (prayer) in a Khāmiṣa (a square garment) having marks. During the Șalāt, he looked at its marks. So, when he finished the Șalāt he said, “Take this Khāmiṣa of mine to Abū Jahl and get me his Anbiyāniyya (a woolen garment without marks) as it (the Khāmiṣa) has diverted my attention from the Șalāt.”

Narrated ‘Aisah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘I was looking at its (Khāmiṣa’s) marks during the Șalāt (prayer) and I was afraid that it may put me in trial (by diverting my attention).

(1) (Ch.13) It is agreed by the majority of the religious scholars that a woman while offering Șalāt (prayer) should cover herself completely except her face, and it is better that she should cover her hands with gloves or cloth etc., but her feet must be covered either with a long dress or she must wear socks to cover her feet. This verdict is based on the Prophet’s statement (Abū-Dawûd).
(15) CHAPTER. If someone offers Salāt (prayer) in a garment bearing marks of a cross or pictures, will the Salāt be annulled? And what is forbidden thereof.

374. Narrated Anas: 'Āishah had a Qirām (a thin, marked woolen curtain) with which she had screened one side of her home. The Prophet said, “Take away this Qirām of yours, as its pictures are still displayed in front of me during my Salāt (prayer) (i.e., they divert my attention from the Salāt).”

(16) CHAPTER. Whoever offered Salāt (prayer) in a silk Farrūj (an outer garment opened at the back) and then took it off.

375. Narrated 'Uqba bin 'Amir: The Prophet was given a silken Farrūj as a present. He wore it while offering Salāt. When he had finished his Salāt (prayer), he took it off violently as if with a strong aversion to it and said, “It is not the dress of Al-Muttaqun: [Al-Muttaqun means those pious and righteous persons who fear Allāh much (abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which He has forbidden) and love Allāh much (do all kinds of good deeds which He has ordained)].

(17) CHAPTER. (It is permissible) to offer Salāt (prayer) in a red garment.

376. Narrated Abū Juhaifa: I saw Allāh’s Messenger in a red leather tent and I saw

بنُ عُرُوْة، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةُ، قَالَ الْبِنِيَّةُ: "كَانَ أَنْظُرُ إِلَى عَلَيْهَا، وَأَنَا فِي الصَّلاةِ فَأَحَافُ أنَّ نُقْصُ صَلَاتِي." [النَّبَيَّةِ: 58:17, 6:52]

(15) بَابٌ: إِنْ صَلَّى فِي نُؤْبٍ مُصَلَّبٍ أَوْ تَصَوَّرَ هَلْ نَفَسُ صَلَاتِهِ؛ وَمَا يَنْتَهِي مِنْ ذِلَّكَ؟

(16) بَابٌ مِنْ صَلَّى فِي فَرْوُجٍ خَيْرٍ، ثُمَّ نُزُرَعَهُ

375 - حَدَّثَنَا عُبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفُ، قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا الْبِلَائِيْدُ، عَنْ بْنِ يَزِيدٍ، عَنْ أَبِي الْكَحْيَاتِ، عَنْ عُبْدِيْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ، قَالَ: أُهْدِيَ إِلَى الْبَيْتِ مُسْتَرَفَ فَرْوُجُ خَيْرٍ فَلَيسَ فِي ذَلِكَ فَرْوُجُ خَيْرٍ فَرُّزُعَ شَيْدًا كَالْكَارَاهِيَّةَ لِهِ، وَقَالَ: لَا يَنْتَهِي هَذَا لِلْمُقَرِّبِينَ. [النَّبَيَّةِ: 58:1]

(17) بَابُ الصَّلاةِ فِي النُّؤْبِ الأَخْمَرِ

376 - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عُرُوْةَ، قَالَ: "كَانَ أَنْظُرُ إِلَى عَلَيْهَا، وَأَنَا فِي الصَّلاةِ فَأَحَافُ أنَّ نُقْصُ صَلَاتِي." [النَّبَيَّةِ: 58:17, 6:52]
Bilāl taking the remaining water with which the Prophet had performed ablution. I saw the people taking the utilized water impatiently and whoever got some of it, rubbed it on his body and those who could not get any, took the moisture from the others' hands. Then I saw Bilāl carrying an 'Anaza (a spear-headed stick) which he planted in the ground. The Prophet came out tucking up his red cloak, and led the people in Salāt (prayer) and offered two Rak'ā (facing the Ka'bah) taking 'Anaza as a Sutra for his Salāt. I saw the people and animals passing in front of him beyond the 'Anaza.

(18) CHAPTER. (It is permissible) to offer Salāt (prayer) on roofs, a pulpit or wood.

Al-Ḥasan finds no objection for one to offer Salāt (prayer) over snow or bridges, even if urine were flowing underneath, or over, or in front of them as long as there was a Sutra (any object put in front of the praying person to act as symbolic barrier between him and others) in front of the person. Abū Hurairah offered Salāt on the roof of the mosque with the Imām, and Ibn 'Umar offered Salāt on snow.

377. Narrated Abu Ḥāzim: Sahl bin Sa'd was asked about the (Prophet's) pulpit as to what thing it was made of? Sahl replied, "None remains alive amongst the people, who knows about it better than I. It was made of tamarisk (wood) of the forest. So-and-so, the slave of so-and-so prepared it for Allah's Messenger. When it was constructed and placed (in the mosque), Allah's Messenger stood on it facing the Qiblah and said 'Allahu Akbar', and the people stood behind him [and he led the people in Salāt (prayer)]. He recited and bowed and the people bowed behind him. Then he raised his head and stepped back, got down and prostrated on the ground and then he again ascended the pulpit, recited, bowed, raised his head and stepped back, got down and prostrated on the ground. So, this is what I know about the pulpit.”

Aḥmad bin Ḥanbal said, “As the Prophet was at a higher level than the people, there is no harm according to the above-mentioned Ḥadīth if the Imām is at a higher level than his followers during the prayers.”

378. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Once Allah's Messenger fell off a horse and his leg or shoulder got injured. He swore that he would not go to his wives for one month and he stayed in a Mašhruba (attic room) having stairs made of date palm trunks. So his Companions came to visit him, and he led them in Salāt (prayer) sitting, whereas his Companions were standing. When he finished the Salāt, he said, “Imām is meant to be followed, so when he says Allāhu Akbar, say Allāhu Akbar and when he bows, bow and when he prostrates, prostrate

(1) (H.378) [This order is abrogated by the last action of the Prophet when he offered Salāt (prayer) sitting while his Companions (followers) were praying standing. Please see Ḥadīth No. 689.].
and if he offers Salāt standing offer Salāt standing\(^1\). After the 29th day the Prophet ﷺ came down (from the attic room) and the people asked him, “O Allah’s Messenger! You swore that you will not go to your wives for one month.” He said, “The month is of 29 days.”

(19) CHAPTER. If the clothes of a praying person in prostration touched his wife [would that make his Salāt (prayer) invalid]? 379. Narrated Maimūna رضي الله عنها, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was offering Salāt (prayer) while I was sitting beside him during my menses and sometimes his clothes would touch me during his prostration.”

Maimūna رضي الله عنها added, “He prayed on a Ḳhumra (a small mat hardly sufficient for the face and the hands, while prostrating during Salāt).

(20) CHAPTER. To offer Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayers) on the Ḥāṣir (a mat that is made of the leaves of date-palm trees and is as long as or longer than a man’s stature).

Jābir and Abū Sa‘īd offered Salat (prayers) standing on board a ship. Al-Ḥasan said, “If it is not hard for one’s companions, one may offer Salāt standing and turn himself with its (ship’s) turnings; otherwise pray sitting.”

380. Narrated Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه: My grand mother Mulaika invited Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ for a meal which she herself had prepared. He ﷺ ate from it and said, “Get up! I will lead you in Salāt (prayer).”

Anas added, “I took my Ḥāṣir, washed it with water as it had become dark because of prolong use and Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ stood on it. The orphan and I aligned behind him and the old lady (Mulaika) stood behind us. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ led us in the Ṣalât and offered two Rak’â and then left.”

(21) CHAPTER. To offer Ṣalât (the prayer) on a Khumra (a small mat, hardly sufficient for the face and hands while prostrating during Ṣalât).

381. Narrated Maimûna: “Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to offer Ṣalât (the prayer) on a Khumra.

(22) CHAPTER. To offer Ṣalât (the prayer) on the bed.

Anas offered Ṣalât (prayer) on his bed. Anas said: We used to offer Ṣalât (the prayer) with the Prophet ﷺ and prostrate on our clothes.

382. Narrated ‘Aishah (the wife of the Prophet ﷺ): I used to sleep in front of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and my legs were opposite his Qiblah and in prostration he pushed my legs and I withdrew them and when he stood, I stretched them. ‘Aishah added, “In those days the houses were without lights.”
383. Narrated ‘Aishah rulings: Allâh’s Messenger (peace be upon him) offered Salât (prayer) while I was lying like a dead body on his family bed between him and his Qiblah.

384. Narrated ‘Urwa rulings: The Prophet rulings was lying between him and his Qiblah on the bed on which they used to sleep.

385. Narrated Anas bin Malik rulings: We used to offer Salât (prayer) with the Prophet (peace be upon him) and some of us used to place the ends of their clothes at the place of prostration because of scorching heat.
(24) CHAPTER. To offer Ṣalāt (prayer) with the shoes on.

386. Narrated Abū Maslama Sa‘īd bin Yazīd Al-Azdī saying: I asked Anas bin Mālik whether the Prophet ﷺ had ever offered Ṣalāt (prayer) with his shoes on. He replied, “Yes.”

(25) CHAPTER. To offer Aṣ-Ṣalāt (prayer) wearing Khuff (leather socks).

387. Narrated Ibrāhīm: Hammām bin Al-Hārith said, “I saw Jarir bin ‘Abdullāh passing urine and then he performed ablution and passed his (wet) hands over his Ḳhuffain (two leather-socks), stood up and offered Ṣalāt (prayer). He was asked about it. He replied that he had seen the Prophet ﷺ doing the same.” They approved of this narration as Jarir was one of those who embraced Islām very late.

388. Narrated Al-Mughira bin Shu‘ba: I helped the Prophet ﷺ in performing ablution and he passed his (wet) hands over his Khuffain (two leather-socks) and prayed.

(26) CHAPTER. If some one does not prostrate properly.
389. Narrated Ḥudayfa that he saw a person bowing and prostrating imperfectly. When he finished his Ṣalāt (prayer), Ḥudayfa told him that he had not offered Ṣalāt. The subnarrator added, “I think that Ḥudayfa also said: Were you to die you would die on a “Sunna” (legal way) other than that of Muḥammad ﷺ.”

(27) CHAPTER. During prostrations one should show his armpits and separate his forearms from his body.

390. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mālik bin Buhaina, “Whenever the Prophet ﷺ offered Ṣalāt (prayer) (during prostration), he used to separate his arms from his body so widely that the whiteness of his armpits was visible.”

(28) CHAPTER. Superiority of (praying) facing the Qiblah with the toes toward it as well.

Abū Ḥumaid said that referring to what the Prophet ﷺ said or used to do.

391. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever offers Ṣalāt (prayer) like us and faces our Qiblah (Ka’bah at Makkah during Ṣalāt and eats our slaughtered animals, is a Muslim and is under Allah’s and His Messenger’s Protection. So do not betray Allah by betraying those who are in His Protection.”
392. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “I have been ordered to fight the people till they say: “Lā ilāha illallāh” (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh). And if they say so, offer prayers like our Salāt (prayers), face our Qiblah (Ka’bah at Makkah during prayer) and slaughter as we slaughter, then their blood and property will be sacred to us, and we will not interfere with them except legally and their reckoning will be with Allāh.”

393. Narrated Maimūn bin Siyāh that he asked Anas bin Malik, “O Abū Hamza! What makes the life and property of a person sacred?” He replied, “Whoever says: “Lā ilāha illallāh” (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh), faces our Qiblah (Ka’bah at Makkah) during the prayers, offers prayers like us and eats our slaughtered animal, then he is a Muslim, and has got the same rights and obligations as other Muslims have.”

(29) CHAPTER. The Qiblah for the people of Al-Madīnā, Shām and the East.

The Qiblah is neither to the East nor to the West (for the people of Al-Madīnā) as the Prophet ﷺ said (to them), “Do not face Qiblah (Ka'bah at Makkah) during defecation and urination (in an open space). Face either east or west.”

394. Narrated Abū Ayyūb Al-Anṣārī: The Prophet ﷺ said, “While defecating, neither face nor turn your back to the Qiblah (Ka'bah at Makkah) but face either east or west.” Abū Ayyūb added, “When we arrived in Sham we came across some lavatories facing the Qiblah; therefore we turned ourselves while using them and asked for Allah's forgiveness.”

395. Narrated ‘Amr bin Dīnār: I asked Ibn ‘Umar, “Can a person who has performed the Ṭawāf around the Ka'bah for ‘Umra but has not performed the Ṭawāf [Sa'y (going)] of Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa, have a sexual relation with his wife?” Ibn ‘Umar replied, “When the Prophet ﷺ reached Makkah he performed the Ṭawāf around the Ka'bah (circumambulated it seven times) and offered a two Rak'ā Ṣalāt (prayer) (at the place) behind the Maqām [place of Ibrāhīm (Abraham)] and then performed the Ṭawāf...
8—THE BOOK OF AS-SAIAT

Say (going) of A-Safa and Al-Marwa, and verily in Allâh's Messenger ﷺ you have a good example to follow...”

396. Then we put the same question (as in the above Hadith No.395) to Jâbir bin 'Abdullah and he too replied, “He should not go near his wife (for sexual relation) till he has finished the Tawâf [Sa'y (going)] of A-Safâ and Al-Marwa.”

397. Narrated Mujâhid: Someone came to Ibn 'Umar and said, “Here is Allâh's Messenger ﷺ entering the Ka'bah.” Ibn 'Umar said, “I went there but the Prophet ﷺ had come out of the Ka'bah and I found Bilâl standing between its two doors. I asked Bilâl, ‘Did the Prophet ﷺ offered Salât (prayer) in the Ka'bah?’ Bilâl replied, ‘Yes, he prayed two Rak'â between the two pillars which are to your left on entering the Ka'bah. Then Allâh's Messenger ﷺ came out and offered a two Rak'â Salât facing the Ka'bah’.”

398. Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs: When the Prophet ﷺ entered the Ka'bah, he invoked Allâh in each and every side of it and did not offer Salât (prayer) till he came out of it, and offered a two Rak'â prayer facing the Ka'bah and said, “This is the Qiblah.”

(1) (H. 398) The direction in which all Muslims turn their faces in Salât (prayers) and that direction is towards the Ka'bah in Makkah (Saudi Arabia). The narration of Bilâl (Hadith No.397) is more authentic as Ibn Abbâs did not enter the Ka'bah with the Prophet ﷺ but narrates the episode from another Companion.
(31) CHAPTER. [During the obligatory Salāt (prayers)] one should face the Qiblah (Ka'bah at Makkah) wherever one may be.

Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Face the Qiblah (Ka'bah at Makkah) and say Allāhu Akbar.”

399. Narrated Barā’ bin ‘Āzib: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ offered Salāt (prayer) facing Bait-ul-Maqdis (Jerusalem) for sixteen or seventeen months but he loved to face the Ka’bah (at Makkah) so Allāh revealed: “Verily! We have seen the turning of your (Muḥammad’s) face towards the heaven…” (V.2:144) So the Prophet ﷺ faced the Ka’bah and the fools amongst the people namely, the Jews said, “What has turned them from their Qiblah (prayer direction (towards Jerusalem) — Bait-ul-Maqdis)) to which they used to face in prayer?” (Allāh revealed): “…Say (O Muḥammad): ‘To Allāh belong both, east and the west. He guides whom He wills to the straight path’.” (V.2:142)

A man offered Salāt with the Prophet ﷺ (facing the Ka’bah) and went out. He saw some of the Ansār offering the ‘Asr prayer with their faces towards Bait-ul-Maqdis, he said, “I bear witness that I offered Salāt with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ facing the Ka’bah.” So all the people turned their faces towards the Ka’bah (at Makkah)...

400. Narrated Jābir: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to offer Salāt (prayer)
(optional, non-obligatory prayer) while riding on his mount (Râhilâ) wherever it turned, and whenever he wanted to offer the compulsory Salâh he dismounted and prayed facing the Qiblah (Ka'bah at Makkah).

401. Narrated 'Abdullah: The Prophet offered Salât (prayer) (and the subnarrator Ibrâhîm said, “I do not know whether he prayed more or less than usual”), and when he had finished Salât he was asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! Has there been any change in the As-Salât (the prayers)?” He said, “What is it?” The people said, “You have prayed so much and so much.” So the Prophet bent his legs, faced the Qiblah (Ka'bah at Makkah) and performed two prostrations (of Sahw) and finished his prayers with Taslîm (by turning his face to right and left saying: 'As-Salâmû 'Alâikum-wa Rahmat-Allâh'). When he turned his face to us he said, “If there had been anything changed in Salât, surely I would have informed you; but I am a human being like you and liable to forget like you. So if I forget remind me and if anyone of you is doubtful about his Salât, he should follow what he thinks to be correct and complete his Salât accordingly and finish it and perform two prostrations (of Sahw).”

(32) CHAPTER. What has been said about (facing) the Qiblah (Ka'bah at Makkah) and whoever considered that there was no need to repeat the Salât (prayer) if someone offered prayers by mistake facing a direction other than that of the Qiblah.

When the Prophet did Taslîm after offering two Rak'â of Zuhr prayer he then faced the people and then completed the rest of the prayer.

402. Narrated 'Umar (bin Al-Khaṭṭāb) رضي الله عنه: My Lord agreed (accepted my invocation) with me in three things:
1. I said, "O Allah's Messenger, I wish we took the "Maqâm" (place) of Ibrāhîm (Abraham) as our praying place [for some of our Ṣalât (prayers)]. So came the Divine Revelation: ...And take you (people) the Maqâm (place) of Ibrâhîm (Abraham) (or the stone on which Ibrâhîm stood while he was building the Ka'bah) as a place of prayer (for some of your prayers e.g., two Rak'â after the ʿTawâf of Ka'bah)." (V.2:125

2. And as regards the (Verse of) the veiling of the women, I said, 'O Allah's Messenger! I wish you ordered your wives to cover themselves from the men because good and bad ones talk to them.' So the Verse of the veiling of the women was revealed. [V.24:31 and V.33:59]

3. Once the wives of the Prophet ﷺ made united front against the Prophet ﷺ and I said to them, 'It may be if he (the Prophet ﷺ) divorced you, (all) that his Lord (Allah) will give him instead of you wives better than you.' So this Verse [(V.66:5) the same as I had said] was revealed.'

403. Narrated 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar رضي الله عنهما: While the people were offering the Fajr prayer at Qubâ (near Al-Madîna), someone came to them and said: "It has been revealed to Allah's Messenger ﷺ tonight, and he has been ordered to offer prayer facing the Ka'bah. So turn your faces to the Ka'bah." Those people were facing Sham (Jerusalem) so they turned their faces towards Ka'bah (at Makkah).
404. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: Once the Prophet  offered five Rak‘ã in Zuhr prayer. He was asked, “Is there an increase in the (Rak‘ã) of Salãt (prayers)?” The Prophet  said, “And what is it?” They said, “You have offered five Rak‘ã.” So he bent his legs and performed two prostrations (of Sahw).

405. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet  saw some sputum in the direction of the Qiblah (on the wall of the mosque) and he disliked that and the sign of disgust was apparent from his face. So, he got up and scraped it off with his hand and said, “Whenever anyone of you stands for the Salãt (prayer), he is speaking in private to his Lord, or his Lord is between him and his Qiblah. So, none of you should spit in the direction of the Qiblah but one can spit to the left or under his foot.” The Prophet  then took the corner of his sheet and spat in it and folded it and said, “Or you can do like this.”

406. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger  saw sputum on the wall of the mosque in the direction of the Qiblah and scraped it off. He faced the people and said, “Whenever anyone of you is offering Salāt (prayers), he should not spit in front of him because in the prayer Allāh is in front of him.”

407. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها, the Mother of faithful believers: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saw some nasal secretions, expectoration or sputum on the wall of the mosque in the direction of the Qiblah and scraped it off.

(34) CHAPTER. To scrape the nasal secretion off the mosque with gravel.

And Ibn ‘Abbās said, “If you tread on (any) wet, filthy thing, wash it away and if it is dry don’t wash it.”

408, 409. Narrated Abū Hurairah and Abū Sa‘īd رضي الله عنهم: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saw some expectoration on the wall of the mosque; he took gravel and scraped it off and said, “If anyone of you wanted to spit he should neither spit in front of him nor on his right but he could spit either on his left or under his left foot.”

(35) CHAPTER. It is forbidden to spit on the right side while in Salāt (prayers).

412. Narrated Anas: The Prophet  said, “None of you should spit in front or on his right but he could spit either on his left or under his foot.”

413. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet  said, “A faithful believer while in  (the prayer) is speaking in private to his Lord, so he should neither spit in front of him nor to his right side but he could spit either on his left or under his foot.”

414. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: The Prophet  saw sputum on (the wall of) the mosque in the direction of the Qiblah and scraped it off with gravel. Then he forbade spitting in front or on the right, but allowed it on one’s left or under one’s left foot.

(37) CHAPTER. The expiation for spitting in the mosque.

415. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, “Spitting in the mosque is a sin and its expiation is to bury it.”

(38) CHAPTER. The burying of the expectoration in the mosque.

416. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “If anyone of you stands for Suṣūr (the prayers), he should not spit in front of him because, in Suṣūr (prayer) he is speaking in private to Allāh and he should not spit on his right as there is an angel, but he can spit either on his left or under his foot and bury it (i.e., the expectoration).”

(39) CHAPTER. If the spit or sputum comes out suddenly then one should spit in the corner of one’s garment.

417. Narrated Anas: The Prophet saw expectoration (on the wall of the mosque) in the direction of the Qiblah and scraped it off with his hand. It seemed that he disliked it and the sign of disgust was apparent from his face. He said, “If anyone of you stands for offering prayer, he is speaking in private to his Lord, (or) his Lord is between him and his Qiblah, therefore he should not spit towards his Qiblah, but he could spit either on his left or under his foot.” Then he took the corner of his sheet and spat in it, folded it and said, “Or do like this.”

(40) CHAPTER. Preaching of the Imâm to the people regarding the proper offering of As-SaThi (the prayer) and the mention of the Qiblah (Ka’bah at Makkah).

418. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Do you consider or see that my face is towards the Qiblah (Ka’bah at Makkah)? By Allah, neither your submissiveness nor your bowing is hidden from me, surely I see you from my back.”

419. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet led us in a Salât (prayer) and then got up on the pulpit and said, “In your Salât and Rukū’ (bowing), I certainly see you from my back as I see you (while looking at you.)”
(41) CHAPTER. It is permissible to say, "Masjid (mosque) of Bani so-and-so?"

420. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered for a horse race; the trained horses were to run from a place called Al-Ḥafî’ah to Thaniyât-ul-Wadâ’ and the horses which were not trained were to run from Ath-Thaniyâ to the Masjid (mosque of) Bani Zuraïq. The subnarrator added: Ibn ‘Umar was one of those who took part in the race.

(42) CHAPTER. The distribution (of goods or wealth) and the hanging of a cluster of dates in the mosque.

421. Narrated Anas: Some goods (or wealth) was brought to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ from Bahrain. The Prophet ﷺ ordered the people to spread them in the mosque — it was the biggest amount of goods (or wealth) Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ had ever received. He left for As-Sâlat (the prayer) and did not even look at it. After finishing As-Sâlat, he sat by those goods (or wealth) and gave from those to everybody he saw. Al-‘Abbâs came to him and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Give me (something) too, because I gave ransom for myself and ‘Aqîl.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ told him to take. So, he stuffed his garment with it and tried to carry it away but he failed to do so. He said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Order someone to help me in lifting it.” The Prophet ﷺ refused. He then said to the Prophet ﷺ: “Will you please help me to lift it?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ refused. Then Al’Abbās threw some of it and tried to lift it (but failed). He again said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Order someone to help me to lift it.” He refused. Al’Abbās then said to the Prophet ﷺ: “Will you please help me to lift it?” He again refused. Then Al’Abbās threw some of it, and lifted it on his shoulders and went away. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ kept on watching him till he disappeared from his sight and was astonished at his greediness. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ did not get up till the last coin was distributed.

(43) CHAPTER. Receiving an invitation to dinner in the mosque and accepting it.

422. Narrated Anas : I found the Prophet ﷺ in the mosque along with some people. He said to me, “Did Abū Talḥa sent you?” I said, “Yes”. He said, “For a meal?” I said, “Yes.” Then he said to his Companions, “Get up.” They set out and I was ahead of them.

(44) CHAPTER. To give the judicial verdicts in the mosque and to perform the Al-Li’ān(1) between men and women (husbands and wives) there.

423. Narrated Sahl bin Sa‘d: A man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! If a man finds another man with his wife (committing adultery), should the husband kill him?” Later on I saw them (the man and his wife) doing Li‘ān in the mosque.

(45) CHAPTER. If someone enters a house, should he offer prayers where he likes, or as he is told? And he should not look out to seek information about the place or do spying.

424. Narrated ‘Itbān bin Mālik: The Prophet  came to my house and said, “Where do you like me to offer Salāt (prayers)?” I pointed to a place. The Prophet  then said, Allāhu-Akbar, and we aligned behind him and he offered a two Rak‘ā prayer.

(46) CHAPTER. About (taking) the mosques in the houses.

And Al-Barā’ bin ‘Āzib offered Salāt (prayers) in the mosque in his house with other people in congregation.
425. Narrated 'Itbān bin Mālik who was one of the Companions of Allāh's Messenger ﷺ and one of the Ansār who took part in the battle of Badr: I came to Allāh's Messenger ﷺ and said, "O Allāh's Messenger, I have weak eyesight and I lead my people in Ṣalāt (prayers). When it rains the water flows in the valley between me and my people so I cannot go to their mosque to lead them in Ṣalāt. O Allāh's Messenger! I wish you would come to my house and offer Ṣalāt in it so that I could take that place as a Musalla (appointed place for Ṣalāt)." Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, "If Allāh will, I will do so." Next day after the sun rose high, Allāh's Messenger ﷺ and Abū Bakr came and Allāh's Messenger ﷺ asked for permission to enter. I gave him permission and he did not sit on entering the house but said to me, "Where do you like me to offer Ṣalāt?" I pointed to a place in my house. So Allāh's Messenger ﷺ stood there and said Allāhu Akbar, and we all got up and aligned behind him and offered a two-Rakʿā prayer and ended it with Taslim. We requested him to stay for a meal called Ḥジャة which we had prepared for him. Many members of our family gathered in the house and one of them said, "Where is Malik bin Ad-Dukhaishin or Ibn Ad-Dukhshun?" One of them replied, "He is a hypocrite and does not love Allāh and His Messenger." Hearing that, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "Do not say so. Haven’t you seen that he said, "Lā ilāha illallāh" (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh), for seeking Allāh’s Countenance (i.e. for Allāh’s sake only)?" He said, "Allāh and His Messenger know better. We have seen him helping and advising hypocrites."

Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "Allāh has forbidden the (Hell) fire for those who say "Lā ilāha illallāh" (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) for seeking Allāh's Countenance (i.e. for Allāh's sake only).”

(47) CHAPTER. While entering the mosque etc., one should start with the right foot.

And ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar used to enter the mosque by putting in his right foot first and while leaving he used to put out his left foot first.

426. Narrated ‘Aishah : The Prophet used to start every thing from the right (side) whenever it was possible in all his affairs; for example: in washing, combing or wearing shoes.

(48) CHAPTER. Is it permissible to dig the graves of pagans of the Period of Ignorance, and to use that place as a mosque?

And the saying of the Prophet “Allāh cursed the Jews because they built the places of worship at the graves of their Prophets.”
And what is said regarding the disapproval of offering Ṣalāt (prayers) at graves. And ‘Umar saw Anas bin Mālik offering Ṣalāt at a grave and shouted, “The grave! The grave!! (meaning: Do not offer Ṣalāt there).” But he did not order him to repeat his Ṣalāt.

427. Narrated ‘Aisyah bint Abu Tha’labah: Umm Ḥabiba and Umm Salama (رضي الله عنهم) mentioned about a church they had seen in Ethiopia in which there were pictures. They told the Prophet about it, on which he رضي الله عنهم said, “If any religious man dies amongst those people they would build a place of worship at his grave and make these pictures in it. They will be the worst creature with Allāh on the Day of Resurrection.”

428. Narrated Anas (رضي الله عنهم): When the Prophet رضي الله عنهم arrived at Al-Madīna, he dismounted at the upper side of Al-Madīna amongst the tribe called Banū ‘Amr bin ‘Aūf. He stayed there for fourteen nights. Then he sent for Banū An-Najjār and they came armed with their swords. As if I am looking (just now) as the Prophet رضي الله عنهم was sitting over his Rāḥila (mount) with Abū Bakr riding behind him, and all Banū An-Najjār around him till he dismounted at the courtyard of Abū Aiyyāb’s house. The Prophet رضي الله عنهم loved to offer Ṣalāt (prayer) wherever the time for Ṣalāt was due even at sheep-folds. Later on he ordered that a mosque should be built and sent for some people of Banū An-Najjār and said, “O Banū An-Najjār! Suggest to me the price of this (walled) piece of land of yours.”

They replied, “No! By Allāh! We do not demand its price except from Allāh.”

Anas added: There were graves of pagans in it and some of it was unlevelled and there were some date-palm trees in it. The Prophet ﷺ ordered that the graves of the pagans be dug out and the unlevelled land be levelled and the date-palm trees be cut down. (So all that was done). They aligned these cut date-palm trees towards the Qiblah of the mosque (as a wall) and they also built two stone side-walls (of the mosque). His Companions brought the stones while reciting some poetic verses. The Prophet ﷺ was with them and he kept on saying, “There is no goodness except that of the Hereafter, O Allah! So please forgive the Ansār and Al-Muhājirah (the emigrants).”

(49) CHAPTER. To offer Ḥaḍāthi Salāt (the prayer) in a sheep-fold.

(50) CHAPTER. To offer Ḥaḍāthi Salāt (the prayer) in the camel-yards (the places where the camels are stationed).

430. Narrated Nafl: I saw Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنه offering Ḥaḍāthi Salāt (prayer) while taking his camel (as a Sutra) in front of him and he said, “I saw the Prophet ﷺ doing the same.”

(51) CHAPTER. Whoever offered Ḥaḍāthi Salāt (prayer) with furnace or fire or any other worshipable thing in front of him but he intended Salât solely for Allâh.

Az-Zuhri narrated that Anas said that the Prophet ﷺ said: “While I was offering Salât (prayer), the (Hell) Fire was displayed in front of me.”

431. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Abbas ﷺ: The sun eclipsed and Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ offered the eclipse prayer and said, “I have been shown the (Hell) Fire (now) and I never saw a worse and horrible sight than the sight I have seen today.”

(52) CHAPTER. The displeasiveness of offering As-Salât (the prayers) in grave-yards.

432. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Offer some of your Salât (prayers) (Nawâfi) at home, and do not take your houses as graves.”

(53) CHAPTER. (What is said about) offering Salât (prayer) at the places where the earth had sunk down and Allâh’s punishment had fallen.

It is said that ‘Ali bin Abû Tâlib ﷺ disliked offering As-Salât (the prayers) in the land of Babylon which had sunk down.

433. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not enter (the places) of those people where Allâh’s punishment had fallen unless you do so weeping. If you do not weep, do not enter...
(the places of these people) because Allâh’s Curse and punishment which fell upon them may fall upon you.”

(54) CHAPTER. To offer As-Salât (the prayer) in a church or in a temple etc.

‘Umar said, “We do not enter your churches because of the statues and pictures.” Ibn ‘Abbâs used to offer Salât (prayers) in the church provided there were no statues in it.

434. Narrated ‘Aishah: Umm Salama told Allâh’s Messenger about a church which she had seen in Ethiopia and which was called Mariya. She told him about the pictures which she had seen in it. Allâh’s Messenger said, “If any righteous pious man dies amongst them, they would build a place of worship at his grave and make these pictures in it; they are the worst creatures with Allâh.”

(55) CHAPTER.

435, 436. Narrated ‘Aishah and ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Abbâs: When the last moment of the life of Allâh’s Messenger came, he started putting his ‘Khamîsa’ (a woolen blanket) on his face and when he felt hot and short of breath he took it off his face and said, “May Allâh curse the Jews and Christians, for they built the places of worship at the graves of their Prophets.”
[The Prophet was warning (Muslims) of what those people had done].

437. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “May Allah’s Curse be on the Jews, for, they built the places of worship at the graves of their Prophets.”

(56) CHAPTER. The saying of the Prophet , “The earth has been made for me a Masjid (place for praying) and a thing to purify (to perform Tayammum).”

438. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: Allah’s Messenger said, “I have been given five (things) which were not given to any amongst the Prophets before me. These are:

1. Allah made me victorious by awe (by His frightening my enemies) for a distance of one month’s journey.
2. The earth has been made for me (and for my followers) a Masjid (place for praying) and a thing to purify (perform Tayammum). Therefore anyone of my followers can offer prayers wherever he is, at the time of a Salāt (prayer).
3. The booty has been made Halāl (lawful) to me (and was not made so to anyone else).
4. Every Prophet used to be sent to his nation only but I have been sent to all mankind.
5. I have been given the right of intercession (on the Day of Resurrection.)"

(57) CHAPTER. Sleeping of a woman in the mosque (and residing in it).

439. Narrated 'Aishah: There was a black slave-girl belonging to an Arab tribe and they manumitted her but she remained with them. The slave-girl said, "Once one of their girls (of that tribe) came out wearing a red leather scarf decorated with precious stones. It fell off from her or she placed it somewhere. A kite passed by that place, saw it lying there and mistaking it for a piece of meat, flew away with it. Those people searched for it but they did not find it. So, they accused me of stealing it and started searching me and even searched my private parts." The slave-girl further said, "By Allah! While I was standing (in that state) with those people, the same kite passed by them and dropped the red scarf and it fell amongst them. I told them, 'This is what you accused me of stealing and I was innocent and now here it is.'" 'Aishah added: That slave-girl came to Allah's Messenger and embraced Islam. She had a tent or a small room with a low roof in the mosque. Whenever she called on me, she had a talk with me and whenever she sat with me, she would recite the following: "The day of the scarf (band) was one of the wonders of our Lord, verily, He rescued me from the disbelievers' town." 'Aishah added: "Once I asked her, 'What is the matter with you? Whenever you sit with me, you always recite these poetic verses.' On that she told me the whole story."
(58) CHAPTER. Sleeping of men in the mosque.

And narrated Anas, “Some people of the tribe of ‘Ukl came to the Prophet and joined the men of ‘As-Suffa.” ‘Abdul Rahman bin Abi Bakr said, “Ashab-as-Suffa (Suffa companions) were poor people.”

440. Narrated Nafi’: ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar said: I used to sleep in the mosque of the Prophet while I was young and unmarried.

441. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’id: Allah’s Messenger went to Fatima’s house but did not find ‘Ali there. So he asked, “Where is your cousin?” She replied, “There was something between us and he got angry with me and went out. He did not sleep (midday nap) in the house.” Allah’s Messenger asked a person to look for him. That person came and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! He is sleeping in the mosque.” Allah’s Messenger went there and ‘Ali was lying. His ‘Rida (a garment covering the upper part of the body) had fallen down to one side of his body and he was covered with dust. Allah’s Messenger started cleaning the dust from him saying: “Get up! O Aba Turab. Get up! O Aba Turab (literally means: O father of dust).”
442. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I saw seventy of Aṣ-Ṣuffa men and none of them had a Rida’ (a garment covering the upper part of the body). They had either Izār (only) or sheets which they tied round their necks. Some of these sheets reached the middle of their legs and some reached their heels and they used to gather them (sheets) with their hands lest their private parts should become bare.

(59) CHAPTER. To offer Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) when returning from a journey.

Kaʿb bin Mālik said: “Whenever the Prophet returned from a journey, he entered the mosque and offered prayers in it.”

443. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: I went to the Prophet in the mosque (the subnarrator Misʿar thought that Jābir said, “In the forenoon.”) He ordered me to offer two Rakʿā prayer. He owed me some money and he repaid it to me and gave more than what was due to me.
(60) CHAPTER. If one entered a mosque, one should offer two Rak'ā (Tahayyat-al-Masjid) before sitting.

444. Narrated Abū Qatada Al-Salami: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If anyone of you enters a mosque, he should offer two Rak’ā (Tahayyat-al-Masjid) prayer before sitting.”

(61) CHAPTER. Al-Ḥadath (passing wind) in the mosque.

445. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The angels keep on asking Allah’s forgiveness for anyone of you, as long as he is at his Musalla (praying place) and he does not pass wind (Hadath). They say, ‘O Allah! Forgive him, O Allah! Be Merciful to him.’

(62) CHAPTER. The construction of (the Prophet’s ﷺ) mosque.

Abū Sa’īd said, “The roof of the mosque was made of the leaves of date-palms.”

‘Umar ordered the Prophet’s ﷺ mosque to be expanded (built) and said, “Protect the people from rain. Beware of red and yellow decorations, for they put the people to trial.”

Anas reciting a part of a Hadith said, “They will boast of them (mosques) rather than coming frequently to them for offering prayers.” Ibn ‘Abbās said, “You (Muslims) will surely decorate your mosques as the Jews and Christians decorated (their churches and temples).
446.Narrated 'Abdullãh (bin 'Umar): In the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ the (Prophet's) mosque was built of adobes, its roof of the leaves of date-palms and its pillars of the trunks of date-palms. Abû Bakr did not alter it. 'Umar expanded it on the same pattern as it was in the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ by using adobes, leaves of date-palms and changing the pillars into wooden ones. ‘Uthmãn changed it by expanding it to a great extent and built its walls with engraved stones and lime, and made its pillars of engraved stones and its roof of teak wood.

(63) CHAPTER. To co-operate in building a mosque.

"It is not for Mushrikãn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans, disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah) to maintain the Mosques of Allah (i.e., to pray and worship Allah therein, to look after their cleanliness and their building), while they witness against their own selves of disbelief. The works of such are in vain, and in Fire shall they abide.

The Mosques of Allah shall be maintained only by those who believe in Allah and the Last Day, perform Salât (Iqamat-as-Salât) and give Zakât and fear none but Allah. It is they who are on true guidance.” (V.9:17, 18).

447. Narrated ‘Ikrima: Ibn ‘Abbãs said to me and to his son ‘Ali, “Go to Abû Sa‘îd and listen to what he narrates.” So, we went and found him in a garden looking after it. He picked up his Ridā', wore it and sat down and started narrating till he came to the topic of the construction of the Prophet's mosque. He said, “We were carrying one adobe at a time while 'Ammār was carrying two. The Prophet ﷺ saw him and started removing the dust from his body and said, “May Allah be Merciful to 'Ammār. He will be inviting them (i.e. his murderers, the rebellious group) to Paradise and they will invite him to Hell-fire.”' 'Ammār said, “I seek refuge with Allah from Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions)”.

(64) CHAPTER. Employing the carpenter and the technical hand (artisan) in making the wooden pulpit or building the mosque.

448. Narrated Sahl: Allah's Messenger ﷺ sent someone to a woman telling her to “Order her slave, carpenter, to prepare a wooden pulpit for him to sit on.”

449. Narrated Jābir: A woman said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Shall I get something constructed for you to sit on as I have a slave who is a carpenter?” He replied, “Yes, if you will.” So, she got that pulpit constructed.
(65) CHAPTER. (The superiority of) whoever built a mosque.

450. Narrated ’Ubaidullah Al-Khaulâni: I heard ‘Uthmân bin ‘Affân saying, when people argued too much about his intention to reconstruct the mosque of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, “You have talked too much. I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, ‘Whosoever built a mosque, (Bukair thought that ’Asim, another sub-narrator, added, “With the intention of seeking Allâh’s Countenance i.e. His Pleasure’), Allâh will build for him a similar place in Paradise.’”

(66) CHAPTER. While passing through a mosque, (one should better) hold the arrowheads (with the hand).

451. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: “A man passed through the mosque carrying arrows. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said to him, ‘Hold them (the arrows) by their heads.’”

(67) CHAPTER. Passing through a mosque (is permissible).

452. Narrated Abû Burda bin ‘Abdullâh on the authority of his father: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever passes through our mosques or markets with arrows, should hold them (the arrows) by their heads lest he should injure a Muslim.”
(68) CHAPTER. (What is said about reciting poetry in the mosque?)

(69) CHAPTER. The presence of spearmen (with their spears) in the mosque (is permissible).

454. Narrated ‘Aishah: Once I saw Allah’s Messenger ﷺ at the door of my house while some Ethiopians were playing in the mosque (displaying their skill with spears). Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was screening me with his Ridā’ so as to enable me to see their display.

455. ‘Urwa said that ‘Aishah added, “I saw the Prophet ﷺ while the Ethiopians were playing with their spears.”

(70) CHAPTER. Mentioning about sales and purchases on the pulpit in the mosque.

456.Narrated ‘Aishah: Barira came to seek my help regarding her manumission. I told her, “If you like I would pay your price to your masters but your Al-Walā’(1) would be for me.” Her masters said, “If you like, you can pay what remains (of the price of her manumission), (Sufyān the subnarrator once said), or if you like you can manumit her, but her Al-Walā would be for us.” When Allāh’s Messenger came, I spoke to him about it. He said, “Buy her and manumit her. No doubt Al-Walā is for the manumitter.” Then Allāh’s Messenger stood on the pulpit (or Allāh’s Messenger ascended the pulpit as Sufyān once said) and said, “What about some people who impose conditions which are not present in Allāh’s Book (Laws)? Whoever imposes conditions which are not in Allāh’s Book (Laws), his conditions will be invalid even if he imposed them a hundred times.”

(1) (H.456) Al-Walā’ : A kind of relationship (between the master who freed a slave and the freed-slave).
(71) CHAPTER. Asking a debtor to repay what he owes, and catching the debtor in the mosque.

457. Narrated Ka'b: In the mosque I asked Ibn Abi Ḥadrad to pay the debts which he owed to me and our voices grew louder. Allah's Messenger heard that while he was in his house. So, he came to us raising the curtain of his room and said, "O Ka'b!" I replied, "Labbaik, O Allah's Messenger!" He said, "O Ka'b! Reduce your debt (to half, gesturing with his hand)." I said, "O Allah's Messenger! I have done so." Then Allah's Messenger said (to Ibn Abi Ḥadrad), "Get up and pay the debt to him."

(72) CHAPTER. Sweeping (cleaning) of the mosque and removing rags, dirt and sticks from it.

458. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A black man or a black woman used to clean (sweep) the mosque and he or she died. The Prophet asked about her (or him). He was told that she (or he) had died. He said, “Why did you not inform me? Show me his grave (or her grave).” So he went to her (his) grave and offered her (his) funeral prayer.”

(73) CHAPTER. The order of banning the trade of alcoholic drinks was issued in the mosque.

459. Narrated ‘Aishah: When the Verses of Sūrat Al-Baqarah about Ar-Ribā(1) (usury) were revealed, the Prophet went to the mosque and recited them in front of the people and then banned the trade of alcoholic drinks.

(74) CHAPTER. Servants for the mosque.

Ibn ‘Abbās referred to the Verse:

“... I have vowed to You what (the child that) is in my womb to be dedicated for Your services (free from all worldly work, to serve Your place of worship)...” (V.3:35)

460. Narrated Abū Rāfi’: Abū Hurairah said, “A man or a woman used to clean the mosque.” (A subnarrator said, ‘Most probably a woman.’) Then he narrated the Hadith of the Prophet where it is

---

(1) (H.459) Ar-Ribā — Usury which is of two major kinds: (a) Ribā Nast’a, i.e., interest on lent money; (b) Ribā Fadl, i.e., taking a superior thing of the same kind of goods by giving more of the same kind of goods of inferior quality, e.g., dates of superior quality for dates of inferior quality in greater amount. Islam strictly forbids all kinds of usury.
mentioned that he offered her funeral prayer at her grave.

(75) CHAPTER. To fasten a prisoner or a debtor in the mosque.

461. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Last night a big Ijīf (demon) from the jinns came to me and wanted to interrupt my As-Salāt (the prayers) (or said something similar) but Allāh enabled me to overpower him. I wanted to fasten him to one of the pillars of the mosque so that all of you could see him in the morning but I remembered the statement of my brother Sulaimān (Solomon) (as stated in the Qur’ān): My Lord! Forgive me and bestow upon me a kingdom such as shall not belong to any other after me... (V.38:35).” The sub-narrator Rūḥ said, “He (the demon) was dismissed humiliated.”

(76) CHAPTER. To take a bath on embracing Islam and fasten a prisoner in the mosque.

Shuraḥ used to order the offender or debtor to be fastened to one of the pillars of the mosque.

462. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ sent some horsemen to Najd and they brought a man called Thumāma bīn Uthāl from Bani Hanifa. They fastened him to one of the pillars of the mosque. The Prophet ﷺ came and ordered them to release him. He (Uthāl) went to a (garden of) date-palms near the mosque, took a bath and entered the mosque again and said, “La ilāha illsallāh wa anna Muḥammad-ar-Rasūl-Allāh” [none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh and Muḥammad is the Messenger of Allāh] (i.e., he embraced Islām)."

(77) CHAPTER. To pitch a tent in the mosque for patients, etc.

463. Narrated ‘Āishah: On the day of Al-Khandaq (battle of the Trench), the medial arm artery or vein of Sa’d (bin Mu‘ādh) was injured and the Prophet pitched a tent in the mosque to look after him. There was another tent for Banî Ghifār in the mosque and the blood started flowing from Sa’d’s tent to the tent of Banî Ghifār. They shouted, “O occupants of the tent! What is coming from you to us?” They found that Sa’d’s wound was bleeding profusely and Sa’d died in his tent.

(78) CHAPTER. To take the camel inside the mosque if necessary.

And Ibn ‘Abbās said: The Prophet performed the Ṭawāf while riding a camel.

464. Narrated Umm Salama: I complained to Allāh’s Messenger that I was sick. He told me to perform the Ṭawāf behind the people while riding. So, I did so and Allāh’s Messenger was offering Salāt
(prayer) beside the Ka'bah and reciting the Sûrah starting with "Waf-ür-wa-Kitâbim-mastûr..." [Sûrat At-Tûr, No.52]

(79) CHAPTER.

465. Narrated Anas bin Mãlik: Two of the Companions of the Prophet departed from him on a dark night and were led by two lights like lamps (going in front of them from Allâh as a miracle) lighting the way in front of them, and when they parted, each of them was accompanied by one of these lights till they reached their (respective) houses.

(80) CHAPTER. Al-Khaukhah (a small door) and a path in the mosque.

466. Narrated Abû Sa'îd Al-Khûdri: The Prophet addressed the people and said, “Allâh gave a choice to one of (His) slaves either to choose this world or what is with Him in the Hereafter. He chose the latter.” Abû Bakr wept. I said to myself, “Why is this Sheikh weeping, if Allâh gave choice to one (of His) slaves either to choose this world or what is with Him in the Hereafter and he chose the latter?” And that slave was Allâh’s Messenger himself. Abû Bakr knew more than us. The Prophet said, “O Abû Bakr! Don’t weep.” The Prophet added: “Abû Bakr has favoured me much with his property and company. If I were to take a Khalil\(^1\) from mankind, I would certainly have taken Abū Bakr, but the Islamic brotherhood and friendship is sufficient. Close all the gates in the mosque except that of Abū Bakr.”

467. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas L4: “Allah’s Messenger in his fatal illness came out with a piece of cloth tied round his head and sat on the pulpit. After thanking and praising Allah he said, “There is no one who had done more favour to me with his life and his property than Abū Bakr bin Abi Quhāfa. If I were to take a Khalil, I would certainly have taken Abū Bakr but the Islamic brotherhood is better. Close all the Khaukgh (small doors) in this mosque except that of Abū Bakr.”

(81) CHAPTER. The doors and locks of the Ka‘bah and the mosques.

Narrated Ibn ‘Juraij: Ibn Abi Mulaika

\(^1\) (H.466) Khalil: The one whose love is mixed with one’s heart and it is superior to a friend or beloved. The Prophet had only one Khalil, i.e., Allah, but he had many friends.
said to me, “O ‘Abdul Mâlik! I wish that you had seen the mosque of Ibn ‘Abbâs and its doors.”

468. Narrated Nâfi’: Ibn ‘Umar said, “The Prophet arrived at Makkah and sent for ‘Uthmân bin Ėlaḥa. He opened the gate of the Ka’bah and the Prophet, Bilâl, Usâma bin Zaid and ‘Uthmân bin Ėlaḥa entered the Ka’bah and then they closed its door (from inside). They stayed there for an hour, and then came out.” Ibn ‘Umar added, “I quickly went to Bilâl and asked him whether the Prophet had offered Salât (prayer). Bilâl replied, ‘He offered Salât in it.’ I asked, ‘Where?’ He replied, ‘Between the two pillars.’” Ibn ‘Umar added, “I forgot to ask how many Rak‘â he (the Prophet) had prayed in the Ka’bah.”

(82) CHAPTER. The entering of a pagan in the mosque.

469. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger sent some horsemen to Najd and they brought a man called Thumâma bin Uthal from Bani Ḥanifa. They fastened him to one of the pillars of the mosque.

(83) CHAPTER. Raising the voice in the mosque.

470. Narrated As-Sâ‘îb bin Yazid: I was standing in the mosque and somebody threw a gravel at me. I looked and found that he was 'Umar bin Al-Khattab. He said to me, “Fetch those two men to me.” When I did, he said to them, “Who are you? (Or) where do you come from?” They replied, “We are from Ta’if.” 'Umar said, “Were you from this city (Al-Madina) I would have punished you for raising your voices in the mosque of Allah’s Messenger.”

471. Narrated Ka'b bin Malik: During the life-time of Allah’s Messenger I asked Ibn Abi Ḥadrād in the mosque to pay the debts which he owed to me, and our voices grew so loud that Allah’s Messenger heard them while he was in his house. So he came to us after raising the curtain of his room. The Prophet said, “O Ka'b bin Malik!” I replied, “Labbaik, O Allah’s Messenger.” He gestured with his hand to me to reduce the debt to half. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger, I have done it.” Allah’s Messenger said (to Ibn Ḥadrād), “Get up and pay it.”

(84) CHAPTER. The religious gatherings in circles and sitting in the mosque.
472. Narrated Nafi': Ibn 'Umar said, "While the Prophet was on the pulpit, a man asked him how to offer the night Salāt (prayers). He replied, 'Pray two Rak'ā at a time and then two and then two and so on, and if you are afraid of the dawn (the approach of the time of the Fajr prayer) pray one Rak'ā and that will be the Witr for all the Rak'ā which you have offered.' Ibn 'Umar said, "Make an end of your (Tahajjud) night Salāt with an odd Rak'ā, for the Prophet ordered it to be so.'"

473. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: A man came to the Prophet while he was delivering a religious talk and asked him how to offer the night Salāt (prayers). The Prophet replied, 'Pray two Rak'ā at a time and then two and then two and so on and if you are afraid of dawn (the approach of the time of the Fajr prayer) pray one Rak'ā and that will be the Witr for all the Rak'ā which you have prayed.' Narrated 'Ubaidullah bin 'Abdullah bin 'Umar: A man called the Prophet while he was in the mosque.

474. Narrated Abu Wāqid Al-Laithi: While Allāh's Messenger was sitting in the mosque (with some people) three men came, two of them came in front of Allāh's Messenger and the third one went away. One of them found a place in the circle and sat there while the second man sat behind the gathering, and the third one went away. When Allāh's Messenger finished his preaching, he said, 'Shall I tell you about these three persons? One of them betook himself to Allah and so Allah accepted him and accommodated him; the second felt shy before Allah so Allah did the same for him and sheltered him in His Mercy (and did not punish him), while the third turned his face from Allah, and went away, so Allah turned His Face from him likewise.”

(85) CHAPTER. To lie flat (on the back) in the mosque.

475.Narrated ‘Abbad bin Tamīm that his uncle said, “I saw Allah’s Messenger lying flat (on his back) in the mosque putting one of his legs over the other.” Narrated Sa‘īd bin Al-Musaiyab that ‘Umar and ‘Uthmān used to do the same.

(86) CHAPTER. (If) a mosque (is built) on a road, it should not be a cause of harm for the people.

476. Narrated ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet: I had seen my parents following Islam since I attained the age of puberty. Not a day passed but the Prophet visited us, both in the mornings and evenings. My father Abū Bakr thought of building a mosque in the courtyard of his house and he did so. He used to offer prayers and recite the Qur’an in it. The pagan women and their children used to stand by him and look at him with surprise. Abū Bakr was a soft-hearted person and could not help...
weeping while reciting the Qur’an. The chiefs of the Quraish pagans became afraid of that (i.e. that their children and women might be affected by the recitation of the Qur’an).

(87) CHAPTER. To offer As-Salāt (the prayers) in a mosque situated in a market.

Ibn ‘Aūn offered prayers in a mosque situated in a house and the gate used to be closed while they were inside.

477. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The Salāt (prayer) offered in congregation is twenty-five times more superior (in reward) to the Salāt offered alone in one’s house or in a business centre, because if one performs ablution and does it perfectly, and then proceeds to the mosque with the sole intention of offering As-Salāt, then for each step which he takes towards the mosque, Allāh upgrades him a degree in reward and crosses out (forgives) one sin (at each step) till he enters the mosque. When he enters the mosque he is considered in Salāt as long as he is waiting for the Salāt and the angels keep on asking for Allāh’s Forgiveness for him and they keep on saying: ‘O Allāh! Be Merciful to him, O Allāh! Forgive him’, as long as he keeps on sitting at his praying place and does not pass wind.” (See Ḥadīth No.647).
(88) CHAPTER. To clasp one’s hands by interlocking the fingers in the mosque or outside the mosque.

480. Narrated ‘Abdullāh that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr! What will be your condition when you will be left with the sediments of (worst) people?” (They will be in conflict with each other).

481. Narrated Abū Mūsā رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A faithful believer to a faithful believer is like the bricks of a wall, reinforcing each other.” While (saying that) the Prophet ﷺ clasped his hands by interlocking his fingers.

482. Narrated Ibn Sirīn: Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ led us in one of the two ‘Ishā’ prayers (Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه named that prayer but I forgot it).” Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه added, “He offered two Rak‘ā and then finished the Salāt (prayer) with Taslim. He stood up near a piece of wood lying across the mosque and leaned on it in such a way as if he was angry.
Then he put his right hand over the left and clasped his hands by interlocking his fingers and then put his right cheek on the back of his left hand. The people who were in haste left the mosque through its gates. They wondered whether As-Salat (the prayer) was reduced. And amongst them were Abû Bakr and ‘Umar, but they hesitated to ask the Prophet. A long-handed man called Dhul-Yadain asked the Prophet, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! Have you forgotten or has As-Salat been reduced?’ The Prophet replied, ‘I have neither forgotten nor has the Salât been reduced.’ The Prophet added, ‘Is what Dhul-Yadain has said true?’ They (the people) said, ‘Yes, it is true.’

The Prophet stood up again and led the Salât, completing the remaining Salât, forgotten by him, and performed Taslim, and then said Allâhu Akbar. And then he did a prostration as he used to prostrate or longer than that. Then he raised his head saying Allâhu Akbar; he then again said Allâhu Akbar and prostrated (a second time) as he used to prostrate or longer than that. Then he raised his head and said Allâhu Akbar.’’

[The subnarrator added, “I think that they asked (Ibn Sirîn) whether the Prophet completed the prayer with Taslim. He replied, “I heard that ‘Imrân bin Husain had said, ‘Then he (the Prophet) did Taslim’.”]

(89) CHAPTER. The mosques which are on the way to Al-Madîna and the places where the Prophet had offered Salât (prayers).

483. Narrated Fudajil bin Sulaimân: ‘I saw Salim bin ‘Abdullah looking for some places on the way and offered Salât (prayers) there. He narrated that his father used to offer Salât there, and had seen the Prophet offering Šalât at those very places.”

Narrated Nāfi’ on the authority of Ibn ‘Umar, who said, “I used to offer Šalât at those places.” Mūsā the narrator added, “I asked Šalîm on which he said, ‘I agree with Nāfi’ concerning those places, except the mosque situated at the place called Sharaf Ar-Rawḥā.’”

484. These Aḥadīth Nos. 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 492 narrated by Abdullāh bin ‘Umar is about the various places on the way from Al-Madīna to Makkah where the Prophet offered Šalât (prayers) and their locations. It is not possible to translate.

491. Narrated Abdullah bin 'Umar "The Prophet ﷺ while approaching Makkah used to dismount at Dhi-Tuwa (near Makkah) and stay the night there till the morning and then perform the morning Salāt (prayer). The Musalla (praying place) of Allah's Messenger was over the big hillock and not at the mosque which was built later, but at a place lower than that, over the big hillock.

(90) CHAPTER. The Sutra\(^{(1)}\) of the Imām is also a Sutra for those who are behind him.

\(\text{\textsuperscript{1}}\) (Ch.90) Sutra: An object like a pillar, wall or stick, a spear etc., the height of which should not be less than a foot; and it should be in front of a person offering Salāt (prayers) to act as a symbolic barrier between him and the others.
493. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās

Once I came riding a she-ass when I had just attained the age of puberty. Allāh’s Messenger was offering the prayer at Mina with no wall in front of him and I passed in front of some of the rows. There I dismounted and let my she-ass loose to graze and entered the row and nobody objected to me about it.

494. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar

Whenever Allāh’s Messenger came out on ‘Eid day he used to order that a ‘Arba (a short spear) to be planted in front of him [as a Sutura for his Salāt (prayer)] and then he used to offer Salāt facing it with the people behind him; and he used to do the same while on a journey. After the Prophet, this practice was adopted by the Muslim rulers (who followed his Sunna – legal ways)."

495. Narrated ‘A‘ūn bin Abī Juḥaifa

I heard my father saying, “The Prophet led us and offered a two-Rak‘ā Zuhr prayer and then a two Rak‘ā ‘Asr prayer at Al-Baṭhā with an ‘Anaza (planted) in front of him (as a Sutra) while women and donkeys were passing in front of him (beyond that ‘Anaza).”

(91) CHAPTER. What should be the distance between the person offering Ṣalāt (prayer) and the Sūtra?

496. Narrated Sahl (bin Sa'd): The distance between the Musallā (praying place) of Allāh's Messenger ﷺ and the wall was just sufficient for a sheep to pass through.

497. Narrated Salama: The distance between the wall of the mosque and the pulpit (by the side of which the Prophet ﷺ used to offer prayers) was hardly enough for a sheep to pass through.

(92) CHAPTER. To offer Ṣalāt (the prayer) using a Ḥarba (a short spear) (as a Sūtra).

498. Narrated 'Abdullāh: The Prophet ﷺ used to get a Ḥarba planted in front of him (as a Sūtra) and offer Ṣalāt (the prayer) behind it.

(93) CHAPTER. To offer Ṣalāt (the prayer) using an 'Aanaz (a spear-headed stick) (as a Sūtra).

499. Narrated 'Aun bin Abi Juhaifa that he had heard his father saying, "Allāh's Messenger ﷺ came to us at mid-day and water was brought for his ablution. He performed ablution and led us in Zuhr and 'Asr prayers with an 'Aanaz planted in front of him (as a Sūtra), while women and donkeys were passing beyond it."
500. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik:
Whenever the Prophet went for answering the call of nature, I and another boy used to go after him with a staff, a stick or an 'Anaza and a tumbler of water and when he finished from answering the call of nature, we would hand over that tumbler of water to him.

501. Narrated Abû Juhaifa:
Allâh’s Messenger came out at mid-day and offered a two-Rak'â Zuhr and 'Asr prayers at Al-Ba’thâ and an ‘Anaza was planted in front of him (as a Sutra). He performed ablution and the people took the remaining water left after his ablution and rubbed their bodies with it.

502. Narrated Yazid bin Abî ‘Ubial:
I used to accompany Salama bin Al-Akwa’ and he used to offer the Salât (prayer) behind the pillar which was near the place where the Qur’âns were kept. I said, “O Abû Muslim! I see you always seeking to offer As-Salât (the prayers) behind this pillar.” He replied, “I saw Allâh’s Messenger always seeking to offer Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayers) near that pillar."

503. Narrated Anas ibn Ma‘īm: I saw the most famous people amongst the Companions of the Prophet SAW hurrying towards the pillars at the Maghrīb prayer before the Prophet SAW came for the prayer.

(96) CHAPTER. To offer non-congregational Ḡaṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayers) between the pillars.

504. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet SAW entered the Ka’bah along with Usāma bin Zaid, ‘Uthmān bin Ṭalḥa and Bilāl, and remained there for a long time. When they came out, I was the first man to enter the Ka’bah. I asked Bilāl, “Where did the Prophet SAW offer prayers?” Bilāl replied, “Between the two front pillars.”

505. Narrated Nafi`: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar said, “Allāh’s Messenger entered the Ka’bah along with Usāma bin Zaid, Bilāl and ‘Uthmān bin Ṭalḥa Al-Hajabī (i.e., the one who keeps the key of the gate of the Ka’bah and is considered as a servant of the Ka’bah), and closed the door and stayed there for some time. I asked Bilāl when he came out, ‘What did the Prophet SAW do?’ He replied, ‘He offered Ṣalāt (prayer) with one pillar to his left and one to his right and three behind.’ In those days the Ka’bah was supported by six pillars.”

Mālik said: “There were two pillars on his
(97) CHAPTER.

506. Narrated Nāfi': Whenever 'Abdullāh entered the Ka'bah, he used to go ahead leaving the door of the Ka'bah behind him. He would proceed on till the remaining distance between him and the opposite wall was about three cubits. Then he would offer prayer there where the Prophet had offered Salah (prayers), as Bilāl informed me. Ibn 'Umar said, “It does not matter for any of us to offer prayers at any place inside the Ka'bah.”

507. Narrated Nāfi': Ibn 'Umar said, “The Prophet used to make his she-camel sit across and he would offer Salah (prayer) facing it (as a Sutra).” I asked, “What would the Prophet do if the she-camel was provoked and moved?” He said, “He would take its camel-saddle and put it in front of him and offer Salah facing its back part (as a Sutra).” And Ibn 'Umar used to do the same. (This indicated that one should not offer Salah except behind a Sutra).
(99) CHAPTER. To offer As-Salāt (the prayer) facing a bed.

508. Narrated 'Āishah 41 ii: Do you make us (women) equal to dogs and donkeys? While I used to lie in my bed, the Prophet ﷺ would come and offer Salāt (prayer) facing the middle of the bed. I used to consider it not good to be in front of him in his Salāt. So I used to slip away slowly and quietly from the foot of the bed till I got out of my blanket.

(100) CHAPTER. The person offering Salāt (prayer) should repulse that person who tries to pass in front of him.

While sitting in Tashah-hud [a specific sitting position adopted by a person during the Salāt (prayer)] and while in the Ka'bah Ibn 'Umar repulsed a man (who tried to pass in front of him). He used to say, “Use force if that person refuses to retreat.”

509. Narrated Abū Sāliḥ Aṣ-Ṣammān: I saw Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī offering Salāt (prayer) on a Friday, behind something which acted as a Sutra. A young man from Bani Abī Mu‘a‘īt wanted to pass in front of him (between him and the Sutra), but Abū Sa‘īd repulsed him with a push on his chest. Finding no alternative, he again tried to pass but Abū Sa‘īd pushed him with a greater force. The young man abused Abū Sa‘īd and went to Marwān and lodged a complaint against Abū Sa‘īd. Abū Sa‘īd followed the young man to Marwān who asked him, “O Abū Sa‘īd! What has happened between you and the son of your brother?” Abū Sa‘īd said to him, “I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, ‘If anybody amongst you is offering Salāt behind something as a Sutra and somebody tries to pass in front of him (between him and the Sutra), then he should repulse him and if he refuses, he should use force against him for he is a Satan’.”

(101) CHAPTER. The sin of a person who passes in front of a person offering Ṣalāt (prayer).

510. Narrated Busr bin Sa‘id, that Zaid bin Khālid رضي الله عنه said, ‘Abū Juhaim sent him to Abū Juhaim to ask him what he had heard from Allah’s Messenger ﷺ about a person passing in front of another person who was offering Ṣalāt (prayer). Abu An-Na‘īr said, “I do not remember exactly whether he said 40 days, months or years.”

511. Abū An-Na‘īr said, “I do not remember exactly whether he said 40 days, months or years.”

(102) CHAPTER. A man facing a man while offering Ṣalāt (prayer) —
8 - THE BOOK OF AS-SALĀT (The Prayer)

‘Uthmān disliked to face a praying person if it diverted his attention. Zaid bin Thābit said, “But if it does not have such an effect, a man does not cancel the Salāt (prayers) of another man.”

511. Narrated ‘Āishah: The things which annul As-Salāt (the prayers) were mentioned before me. They said, “Prayer is annulled by a dog, a donkey and a woman (if they pass in front of the praying people).” I said, “You have made us (i.e., women) dogs. I saw the Prophet offering Salāt (prayers) while I used to lie in my bed between him and the Qiblah. Whenever I was in need of something, I would slip away, for I disliked to face him.”

(103) CHAPTER. To offer As-Salāt (the prayer) behind a sleeping person.

512. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet used to offer Salāt (prayer) while I used to sleep across in his bed in front of him, and then, when he wanted to pray Witr, he would wake me up and I would pray Witr.

(104) CHAPTER. To offer Nawāfīl (non-obligatory prayers) behind a sleeping woman.
513.Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ،الوَّالدةِ الَّتِيْنَا عَنْهَا عَنْهَا، that the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: I used to sleep in front of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ with my legs opposite his Qiblah (facing him); and whenever he prostrated, he pushed my feet and I withdrew them and whenever he stood, I stretched them.” ‘Aishah ﷺ added, “In those days there were no lamps in the houses.”

(105) CHAPTER. Whoever said: “Nothing annuls As-Salât (the prayer) (i.e. nothing of what others do, not the praying person himself).”

514. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ،الوَّالدةِ الَّتِيْنَا عَنْهَا, The things which annul prayer were mentioned before me (and those were): a dog, a donkey and a woman. I said, “You have compared us (women) to donkeys and dogs. By Allâh! I saw the Prophet ﷺ offering prayers while I used to lie in (my) bed between him and the Qiblah. Whenever I was in need of something and, I disliked to sit and trouble the Prophet ﷺ, then, I would slip away by the side of his feet.”

515. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ،الوَّالدةِ الَّتِيْنَا عَنْهَا, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to get up at night and offer prayers while I used to lie across between him and the Qiblah on his family’s bed.

(106) CHAPTER. If a small girl is carried on one’s neck during As-Salât (the prayer).

516.Narrated Abû Qatâda Al-Ansâri رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was offering Salât (prayer) and he was carrying Umama the daughter of Zainab, the daughter of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and she was the daughter of ‘As bin Rabî’ bin ‘Abd-Shams. When he prostrated, he put her down and when he stood, he carried her (on his neck).

(107) CHAPTER. To offer Salât (prayer) facing a bed occupied by a menstruating woman.

517. Narrated Maimûna bint Al-Ḥârisib: My bed was beside the Musalla (praying place) of the Prophet ﷺ and sometimes his garment fell on me while I used to lie in my bed.
518. Narrated Maimūna: The Prophet used to offer prayers while I used to sleep beside him during my periods (menses) and in prostrations his garment used to touch me.

(108) CHAPTER. Is it permissible to touch or push one's wife in prostration, in order to prostrate properly?

519. Narrated 'Āishah: It is not good that you people have made us (women) equal to dogs and donkeys. No doubt I saw Allāh’s Messenger offering prayers while I used to lie between him and the Qiblah and when he wanted to prostrate, he pushed my legs and I withdrew them.

(109) CHAPTER. A woman can remove troublesome or offensive things from a person in Ṣalāt (prayer).

520. Narrated ‘Amr bin Maimūn: ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd) said, “While Allāh’s Messenger was offering Ṣalāt (prayer) near the Ka’bah, there were some Quraysh people sitting in a gathering. One of them said, ‘Don’t you see this Murā‘ey (the one who does deeds just to show off)? Who amongst you can go and bring the dung, blood and the abdominal contents (intestines, etc.) of the slaughtered camels of the family of so-and-so and then wait till he prostrates and put that in between his shoulders?’ The most wretched amongst them (‘Uqba bin Abi Mu’ait) went (and brought them) and when Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ prostrated, he put them between his shoulders. The Prophet ﷺ remained in prostration and they laughed so-much-so that they fell on each other. A passer-by went to Fâtima (the daughter of the Prophet ﷺ), who was a young girl in those days. She came running and the Prophet ﷺ was still in prostration. She removed them (the abdominal contents of the camel) and cursed at the Quraish on their faces. When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ completed his prayer, he said, ‘O Allâh! Destroy the (infidels of) Quraish.’ He said so thrice and added, ‘O Allâh! Destroy ‘Amr bin Hishâm, ‘Utba bin Rabî’a, Shaiba bin Rabî’a, Al-Walid bin ‘Utba, Umaiyya bin Khalaf, ‘Uqba bin Abi Mu’ait and ‘Umâra bin Al-Walid’.

‘Abdullâh added, “By Allâh! I saw all of them dead in the battlefield on the Day of Badr, and they were dragged and thrown in the Qalib (a well) at Badr. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ then said, ‘Allâh’s Curse has descended upon the people of the Qalib’.”
(1) CHAPTER. The times of As-Salãt (the prayers) and the superiority of offering Salãt (prayers) in time.

And the Statement of Allâh: “... Verily, As-Salãt (the prayer) is enjoined on the believers at fixed hours.” (V.4:103)

521. Narrated Ibn Shihãb: Once ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul ‘Azîz delayed As-Salãt (the prayer) and ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair went to him and said, “Once in ‘Iraq, Al-Mughîrah bin Shu’ba delayed his Salât (prayers) and Abû Mas’ûd Al-Ansari went to him and said, ‘O Mughîrah! What is this? Don’t you know that once Jibrîl (Gabriel) came and offered Salât (Fajr prayer) and Allâh’s Messenger offered Salât too, then he offered Salât again (Zuhr prayer) and so did Allâh’s Messenger and again he offered Salât (‘Asr prayer) and Allâh’s Messenger did the same; again he offered Salât (Maghrib prayer) and so did Allâh’s Messenger; and again he offered Salât (‘Ishâ prayer) and so did Allâh’s Messenger and (Jibrîl said, ‘I was ordered to do so (to demonstrate Salât prescribed to you)’)

‘Umar (bin ‘Abdul ‘Azîz) said to ‘Urwa, “Be sure of what you say. Did Jibrîl lead Allâh’s Messenger at the stated times of Salât?” ‘Urwa replied, “Bashîr bin Abî Mas’ûd narrated like this on the authority of his father.”
522. Narrated ‘Urwa: ‘Aishah told me that Allah’s Messenger used to offer ‘Asr prayer when the sun-shine was still inside her residence (i.e., the early stated prescribed time of ‘Asr).”

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh عز و جل:

(And remain always) turning in repentance to Him (only), and be afraid and dutiful to Him; and perform As-Salāt (Iqāmat as-Salāt) and be not of Al-Muşṣirūn (the disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh, polytheists, idolaters).” (V.30:31)

523. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Once a delegation of ‘Abdul Qais came to Allāh’s Messenger and said, “We belong to such and such branch of the tribe of Rabi’a and we can only come to you in the sacred months. Order us to do something good (religious deeds) so that we may take it from you (act on them) and also invite to it our people whom we have left behind (at home). The Prophet said, “I order you to do four things and forbid you from four things. (The first four are as follows):

1. To believe in Allāh. (And then he explained it to them i.e.) to testify that Lā ilāha illā l-lah wa anni Muḥammad Rasūl Allāh, (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) and I (Muḥammad) am the Messenger of Allāh.
2. Iqāmat as-Salāt [To perform As-Salāt (prayers) (at their stated times)].
3. To pay Zakāt
4. To give me Khumūs (i.e., 1/5th of the booty to be given in Allāh’s Cause).

(The other four things which are forbidden are as follows):

1. Id-Dubbā
(3) CHAPTER. To give the Bai‘āh (pledge) for Iqāmat-as-Salāt [the offering of As-Salāt (the prayers)].

524. Narrated Jarīr bin ‘Abdullāh: I gave the Bai‘āh (pledge) to Allah’s Messenger for Iqāmat-as-Salāt (1), to pay Zakāt regularly, and to be sincere and true to every Muslim (i.e., to order them for Al-Ma‘raif, i.e., Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam orders one to do and to forbid them from Al-Munkar i.e., disbelief, polytheism of all kinds and all that Islam has forbidden), to help them, and to be merciful and kind to them. [See Hadith No.57]

(4) CHAPTER. As-Salāt (the prayer) is expiation (of sins).

525. Narrated Shaqīq that he had heard Hudhaifa saying, “Once we were sitting with ‘Umar and he said, ‘Who amongst you remembers the statement of Allah’s Messenger about the Al-Fītnah (trial and affliction)?’ I said, ‘I know it as the Prophet had said it.’ ‘Umar said, ‘No doubt you are bold.’ I said, ‘The Al-Fītnah caused for a man...”

1. (H.524) Iqāmat-as-Salāt: [the offering of As-Salāt (the prayers)]. It means that:

   a) Every Muslim, male or female, is obliged to offer his Salāt (prayers) regularly five times a day at the specified times; the male in a mosque in congregation and the female at home. As the Prophet has said: “Order your children for Salāt (prayers) at the age of seven and beat them (about it) at the age of ten.” The chief (of a family, town, tribe, etc.) and the Muslim ruler of a country are held responsible before Allah in case of non-fulfilment of this obligation by the Muslims under his authority.

   b) To offer the Salāt (prayers) as the Prophet used to offer them with all their rules and regulations, i.e., standing, bowing, prostrating, sitting as he said: “Offer your Salāt (prayers) the way you see me performing them (See Hadith No.631.” For the characteristics of the prayer of the Prophet see Sahih Al-Bukhārī, Vol.1, Ahadīth Nos. 735,736,739,756,823,824 and 825.
by his wife, money, children and neighbour is expiated by his As-Salāt (the prayers), As-Saum (the fasts), charity and by enjoining Al-Ma'rūf (Islamic Monotheism and all that Allāh has ordained) and forbidding Al-Munkar (disbelief, polytheism, and all that Allāh has forbidden).’ ‘Umar said, ‘I did not mean that but I asked about that Al-Fīnah which will spread like the waves of the sea.’ I (Hudhaifa) said, ‘O leader of the faithful believers! You need not be afraid of it as there is a closed door between you and it.’ ‘Umar asked, ‘Will the door be broken or opened?’ I replied, ‘It will be broken.’ ‘Umar said, ‘Then it will never be closed again.’’ I was asked whether ‘Umar knew that door. I replied that he knew it as one knows that there will be night before the tomorrow morning. I have narrated a Hadith that is free from any mis-statement.” The subnarrator added that they deputed Masrūq to ask Hudhaifa (about the door). Hudhaifa said, “The door was ‘Umar himself.”

526. Narrated Ibn Mas‘ūd: A man kissed a woman (unlawfully) and then went to the Prophetﷺ and informed him. So Allāh revealed:

“And perform As-Salāt (Iqāmat-as-Salāt(1)), at the two ends of the day and in some hours of the night [i.e., the five compulsory Salāt (prayers)]. Verily, the good deeds remove the evil deeds (i.e., small sins)...” (V.11:114).

The man asked Allāh’s Messengerﷺ, “Is this instruction for me only?” He said, “It is for all those of my followers (who encounter a similar situation).”

(1) (H.526) Iqāmat-as-Salāt: See the footnote of Hadith No. 524.
(5) CHAPTER. Superiority of offering As-Salāt (the prayer) at the stated times.

527. Narrated ʿAbdullāh ibn ʿAbī Šaṭīr: I asked the Prophet ﷺ, “Which deed is the dearest to Allāh?” He replied, “To perform the (daily compulsory) ʿSalāt (prayers) at their (early) stated fixed times.” I asked, “What is the next (in goodness)?” He replied, “To be good and dutiful to your parents.” I again asked, “What is the next (in goodness)?” He replied, “To participate in Jihād (religious fighting) in Allāh’s Cause.”

ʿAbdullāh added, “These were told by the Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and if I had asked more, the Prophet ﷺ would have told me more.”

[See Ḥadīth No.7534, Vol.9].

(6) CHAPTER. The five ʿSalāt (prayers) are expiations (of sins).

528. Narrated Abū Hurairah Z : I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “If there was a river at the door of anyone of you and he took a bath in it five times a day, would you notice any dirt on him?” They said, “Not a trace of dirt would be left.” The Prophet ﷺ added, “That is the example of the five (daily compulsory) ʿSalāt (prayers) with which Allāh blots out (annuls) evil deeds.”
(7) CHAPTER. Not offering Aš-Šalāt (the prayer) at its stated fixed time.

529. Narrated Qhailān: Anas said, “I do not find (now-a-days) things as it were (practised) at the time of the Prophet ﷺ.” Somebody said, “Have you not done in Aš-Šalāt (the prayer) what you have done?”

530. Narrated Az-Zuhri that he visited Anas bin Malik at Damascus and found him weeping and asked him why he was weeping. He replied, “I do not know anything which I used to know during the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ except Aš-Šalāt (the prayer), and this Šalāt too is lost (not offered as it should be).”

(8) CHAPTER. A person in Šalāt (prayer) is speaking in private to his Lord (Allāh)

531. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whenever anyone of you offers Šalāt (prayer) he is speaking in private to his Lord. So he should not spit on his right but under his left foot.” Qatāda said, “He should not spit in front of him but on his left or under his feet.” And Shu’ba said, “He should not spit in front of him, nor on his right but on his left or under his foot.” Anas said: The Prophet ﷺ said, “He should neither spit in the direction of his Qiblah nor on his right but on his left or under his foot.”

532. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, “Do the prostration properly and do not put your forearms flat with elbows touching the ground like a dog. And if you want to spit, do not spit in front, nor on the right, for the person in Salāt (prayer) is speaking in private to his Lord (Allah).”

(9) CHAPTER. In severe heat, offer Zuhr prayers when it becomes (a bit) cooler.

533, 534. Narrated Abū Hurairah and ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger said, “If it is very hot, then offer the Zuhr prayer when it becomes (a bit) cooler, as the severity of the heat is from the raging of the Hell-fire.”

535. Narrated Abū Dhar: The Mu‘adhdhīn (call-maker) of the Prophet pronounced the Ādḥān (call) for the Zuhr prayer but the Prophet said, “Let it be cooler, let it be cooler.” Or said, “Wait, wait, because the severity of heat is from the raging of the Hell-fire. In severe hot weather, offer As-Salāt (the prayer) when it becomes (a bit) cooler and the shadows of hillocks appear.”

536. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “In very hot weather delay the Zuhr prayer till it becomes (a bit) cooler because the severity of heat is from the raging of the Hell-fire.

537. The fire of Hell complained to its Lord saying: O Lord! My parts are eating (destroying) one another. So Allah allowed it to take two breaths, one in the winter and the other in the summer. The breath in the summer is at the time when you feel the severest heat and the breath in the winter is at the time when you feel the severest cold.”

538. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: that Allah’s Messenger said, “Offer Zuhr prayer when it becomes (a bit) cooler as the severity of heat is from the raging of the Hell-fire.”

(10) CHAPTER. When going on a journey, pray Zuhr prayer when it becomes cooler.

539. Narrated Abū Dhar Al-Ghifārī: We were with the Prophet on a journey and the Muʿadhdhin [call-maker for Salāt (prayer)] wanted to pronounce the Adhān (call) for the Zuhr prayer. The Prophet said, “Let it become cooler.” He again (after a while) wanted to pronounce the Adhān but the Prophet said to him, “Let it become cooler till we see the shadows of hillocks.” The Prophet added, “The severity of heat is from the raging of the Hell-fire, and in very hot weather, offer Salāt (Zuhr) when it becomes cooler.”

(11) CHAPTER. The time of Zuhr prayer is when the sun declines (just after mid-day).

Jābir said: The Prophet used to offer the Zuhr prayer just after mid-day (as the sun declines at noon.)

540. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allāh’s Messenger came out as the sun declined at mid-day and offered the Zuhr prayer. He then stood on the pulpit and spoke about the Hour (Day of Judgement) and mentioned great events and matters therein. He then said, “Whoever likes to ask me about anything he can do so and I shall reply as long as I am at this place of mine.” Most of the peole wept and the Prophet said repeatedly, “Ask me.” ‘Abdullāh bin Hudhafā As-Sahmi stood up and said, “Who is my father?” The Prophet said, “Your father is Hudhafā.” The Prophet repeatedly said, “Ask me.” Then ‘Umar knelt before him and said, “We are pleased with Allāh as our Lord, Islām as our...
The Prophet then became quiet and said, “Paradise and Hell-fire were displayed in front of me on this wall just now and I have never seen a better thing (than the Paradise) and a worse thing (than the Hell-Fire.)”

541. Narrated Abu Al-Minhāl: Abū Barza said, “The Prophet used to offer the Fajr (early morning prayer) when one could recognize the person sitting by him [after the Salāt (prayer)], and he used to recite between 60 to 100 Āyāt (Verses) of the Qur’ān. He used to offer the Zuhr prayer as soon as the sun declined (at noon) and the ‘Asr prayer at a time when a man might go and return from the farthest place in Al-Madīna and find the sun still hot. (The subnarrator forgot what was said about the Maghrib). He did not mind delaying the ‘Ishā prayer to one-third of the night or the middle of the night.”

542. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: When we offered the Zuhr prayers behind Allāh’s Messenger, we used to prostrate on our clothes to protect ourselves from the heat.
(12) CHAPTER. To delay the Zuhr (prayer) up to the ‘Asr (prayer) time.

543.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ prayed eight Rak‘a for the Zuhr and ‘Asr, and seven for the Maghrib and ‘Ishā prayers in Al-Madīnā.” Ayyūb said, “Perhaps those were rainy nights.” Anas said, “May be.” (See Ḥadīth No. 562)

(13) CHAPTER. The time of the ‘Asr prayer.

Narrated Hishām (that ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها said) “Sunshine used to be still inside my chamber (i.e., at the time of ‘Asr prayer).

544. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to offer the ‘Asr prayer when the sunshine had not disappeared from my chamber.

545. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to offer the ‘Asr prayer at a time when the sunshine was still inside my chamber and no shadow had yet appeared in it.

546. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ used to offer the ‘Asr prayer at a time when the sunshine was still inside my
547. Narrated Sayyār bin Salama: I along with my father went to Abū Barza Al-Aslāmī and my father asked him, “How Allah’s Messenger used to offer the five compulsory congregational prayers?” Abū Barza said, “The Prophet used to offer the Zuhr prayer which you (people) call the first one, at mid-day when the sun had just declined. The 'Āṣr prayer at a time when after the prayer, a man could go to the house at the farthest place in Al-Madīna (and arrive) while the sun was still hot. I forgot about the Maghrib prayer. The Prophet loved to delay the 'Ishā which you call Al-‘Atama and he disliked sleeping before it and speaking after it. After the Fajr prayer he used to depart when a man could recognize the one sitting beside him and he used to recite between 60 to 100 ‘Ayāt (in the Fajr prayer).

548. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: We used to offer the ‘Āṣr prayer and after that if someone happened to go to the tribe of Bani ‘Amr bin ‘Auf, he would find them offering the ‘Āṣr (prayer).
549. Narrated Abū Bakr bin ‘Uthmān bin Sahl bin Ḥunaif that he heard Abū ‘Umāmah saying: We offered the Zuhr prayer with ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul ‘Azīz and then went to Anas bin Mālik and found him offering the ‘Asr prayer. I asked him, “O uncle! Which prayer have you offered?” He said, “The ‘Asr and this is (the time of) the prayer of Allah’s Messenger which we used to offer with him.”

550. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah’s Messenger used to offer the ‘Asr prayer at a time when the sun was still hot and high, and if a person went to Al-‘Awālī Al-Madīna, he would reach there when the sun was still high. Some of Al-‘Awālī of Al-Madīna were about four miles or so from the town.

551. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: We used to offer the ‘Asr prayer and after that if one of us went to Qubā’, he would arrive there while the sun was still high.

(14) CHAPTER. The sin of one who misses the ‘Asr prayer (intentionally).

552. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar:
Allâh’s Messenger said, “Whoever misses the ‘Asr Salât (prayer) intentionally then it is as if he lost his family and property.”

(15) CHAPTER. One who omits (does not offer) the ‘Asr prayer (intentionally)\(^{(1)}\).

553. Narrated Abû Al-Malîh: We were with Buraida in a battle on a cloudy day and he said, “Offer the ‘Asr Salât (prayer) early as the Prophet said, ‘Whoever omits the ‘Asr Salât all his (good) deeds will be lost’.”

(16) CHAPTER. Superiority of the ‘Asr prayer.

554. Narrated Qais: Jarir said, “We were with the Prophet and he looked at the moon on a full-moon night and said, ‘Certainly you will see your Lord as you see this moon and you will have no trouble in seeing Him. So if you can avoid missing (through sleep or business, etc.) a Salât (prayer) before the sunrise (Fajr) and a Salât (prayer) before sunset (‘Asr), you must do so.’ He then recited Allâh’s Statement:

Ismâ’il said, “Offer those prayers and do not miss them.”

\(^{(1)}\) (Ch.15) The one who does not offer the ‘Asr prayer intentionally until its stated time is over and if he offers the prayers after that time, then it is useless.
555. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Angels come to you in succession by night and day, and all of them get together at the time of the Fajr and 'Asr prayers. Those who have passed the night with you (or stayed with you) ascend (to the heaven) and Allah asks them, though He knows everything about you, "In what state did you leave my slaves?" The angels reply: "When we left them, they were offering Salāt (prayer) and when we reached them, they were offering Salāt.”

(17) CHAPTER. Whoever got (or was able to offer) only one Rak‘ā of the ‘Asr prayer before sunset.

556. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “If anyone of you got (or was able to offer) one Rak‘ā of the ‘Asr prayer before sunset, he should complete his Salāt (prayer). If any of you got (or was able to offer) one Rak‘ā of the Fajr prayer before sunrise, he should complete his Salāt.”

557. Narrated Sālim bin 'Abdullāh: My father said, “I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, ‘The period of your stay as compared to the previous nations is like the period equal to the time between the ‘Asr prayer and sunset. The people of the Taurât (Torah) were given the Taurât and they acted (upon it) till mid-day, then they were exhausted and were given one Qur'ân and they acted (upon it) till the ‘Asr prayer, then they were exhausted and were given one Qur'ân each. And then we were given the Qur'ân and we acted (upon it) till sunset and we were given two Qur'ân each. On that the people of both the Scriptures said: ‘O our Lord! You have given them two Qur'âns and given us one Qur'ân, though we have worked more than they. Allah said: ‘Have I usurped some of your rights?’ They said: ‘No.’ Allah said: ‘That is my Blessing, I bestow upon whomsoever I wish (or will, or want).’”

558. Narrated Abu Mūsā: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The example of Muslims, Jews and Christians is like the example of a man who employed labourers to work for him from morning till evening. They worked till mid-day and they said, ‘We are not in need of your reward.’ So the man employed another batch and said to them, ‘Complete the rest of the day and yours will be the wages I had fixed (for the first batch).’ They worked up till the time of the ‘Asr prayer and said, ‘Whatever we have done is for you.’ He employed another batch. They worked for the rest of the day till sunset, and they received the wages of the two former batches."(1) (See Hadith No. 2271, Vol. 3)

(18) CHAPTER. The time of the Maghrib prayer (evening prayer).

‘Atā’ said: “A person who is sick can offer Maghrib and ‘Ishā’ prayers together.”

559. Narrated Rāfi‘ bin Khadijā:
We used to offer the Maghrib prayer with the Prophet ﷺ and after finishing the Salāt (prayer) one of us may go away and could still see as far as the spot where one’s arrow might reach when shot by a bow.

560. Narrated Jābir ‘Abdullāh:
The Prophet ﷺ used to offer the Zuhr prayer at mid-day, and the ‘Asr at a time when the sun was still bright, the Maghrib after sunset (at its stated time) and the ‘Ishā’ at a variable time. Whenever he saw the people assembled (for ‘Ishā’ prayer) he would offer Salāt (prayer) earlier and if the people delayed, he would delay the Salāt. And they or the Prophet ﷺ used to offer the

(1) (H.558) So, this is the similitude of Muslims who accepted Allāh’s Guidance and the teachings of His Messenger ﷺ, and the similitude of the Jews and Christians who distorted and corrupted their Book and disbelieved in the Prophet ﷺ who came after ‘Iesa (Jesus). We notice that the Jews and Christians referred to in this Hadith are different from those referred to in Hadith No.532 for the latter were believers and died before the advent of Muḥammad ﷺ and this is why they are rewarded, while the rewards of the former were given to the Muslims.
561. Narrated Salama: We used to offer the Maghrib prayer with the Prophet when the sun disappeared from the horizon.

562. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet offered seven Rak‘ā together and eight Rak‘ā together. (See Hadith No. 543)

(19) CHAPTER. Whoever disliked to call the Maghrib prayer as the Ishā prayer.

563. Narrated ‘Abdullāh Al-Muzani: The Prophet said, “Do not be influenced by bedouins regarding the name of your Maghrib prayer which is called Ishā by them.”

(20) CHAPTER. The mention of Ishā and ‘Atamā and whoever took the two names as one and the same.

Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The most difficult and the hardest Salāt (prayers) for the hypocrites are... the ‘Ishā’ (prayer) and the Fajr (prayer.)” He added, “Had they known what is (the reward of) the ‘Atama (‘Ishā’) and the Fajr (prayer) they would have come to attend them even if they had to crawl.”

Few discussions about Maghrib, ‘Atama i.e. ‘Ishā’, which are merely repetition of the topic of this chapter, are mentioned here in the Arabic text.

564. Narrated Abdullah رضي الله عنه: One night Allah’s Messenger ﷺ led us in the ‘Ishā’ prayer and that is the one called Al-‘Atama by the people. After the completion of the prayer, he faced us and said, “Do you know the importance of this night? Nobody present on the surface of the earth tonight will be living after one hundred years from this night.” (See Hadith No.601).

(21) CHAPTER. The time of the ‘Ishā’ prayer. If the people get together (pray earlier), and if they come late (delay it).

565. Narrated Muhammad bin ‘Amr: We asked Jābir bin ‘Abdullah رضي الله عنهما about the Salāt (prayers) of the Prophet ﷺ. He said, “He ﷺ used to offer Zuhr prayer at mid-day, the ‘Asr when the sun was still hot, and the Maghrib after sunset (at its stated time). The ‘Ishā’ was offered early if the people gathered, and used to be delayed if their number was less; and the morning prayer (Fajr) was offered when it was still dark.”

(22) CHAPTER. Superiority of the ‘Ishā’ prayer.

566. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ once delayed the ‘Ishā’ prayer and that was during the days when Islam still had not spread. The Prophet ﷺ did not come out till ‘Umar informed him that the women and children had slept. Then he came out and said to the people in the mosque: “None amongst the dwellers of the earth has been waiting for it (‘Ishā’ prayer) except you.”

567. Narrated Abū Mūsā رضي الله عنه: My companions, who came with me in the boat, and I landed at a place called Baqī’ Būṭhān. The Prophet ﷺ was at Al-Madīnah at that time. One of us used to go to the Prophet ﷺ by turns every night at the time of the ‘Ishā’ prayer. Once, I, along with my companions went to the Prophet ﷺ and he was busy in some of his affairs, so the ‘Ishā’ prayer was delayed to the middle of the night. He then came out and led the people [in (Salāt)] prayer]. After finishing from the Salāt, he addressed the people present there saying, “Be patient! Don’t go away. Have the glad tidings. It is from the Blessing of Allāh upon you that none amongst mankind has offered Salāt at this time save you.” Or said, “None except you has offered prayer at this time.” Abū Mūsa added, “So we returned happily after what we heard from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.”

(23) CHAPTER. What is disliked about sleeping before the ‘Ishā’ prayer.

568. Narrated Abū Barza: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ disliked to sleep before the ‘Ishā’ prayer and to talk after it.

(24) CHAPTER. Sleeping before the ‘Ishā’ prayer if (one is) overwhelmed by it (sleep).

569. Narrated Ibn Shihāb from ‘Urwā: ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها said, “Once Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ delayed the ‘Ishā’ prayer till ‘Umar reminded him by saying, ‘The Salāt (prayer)! The women and children have slept.’ Then the Prophet ﷺ came out and said, ‘None amongst the dwellers of the earth has been waiting for it (the prayer) except you.’” Urwā said, “Nowhere except in Al-Madina the prayer used to be offered (in those days).” He further said, “The Prophet used to offer the ‘Ishā’ prayer in the period between the disappearance of the twilight and the end of the first third of the night.”

570. Narrated Nafi’ : ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar said, “Once Allāh’s Messenger was busy (at the time of the ‘Ishā’), so the prayer was delayed so much so that we slept and woke up and slept and woke up again. The Prophet came out and said, ‘None amongst the dwellers of the earth but you have been waiting for As-Ṣalāt (the prayer)’. Ibn ‘Umar did not find any harm in offering it earlier or in delaying it, unless he was afraid that sleep might overwhelm him and he might miss the prayer, and sometimes he used to sleep before the ‘Ishā’ prayer.

571. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās : Once Allāh’s Messenger delayed the ‘Ishā’ prayer to such an extent that the people slept and got up and slept again and got up again. Then ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb stood up and reminded the Prophet of the prayer. ‘Aṭā’ said, ‘Ibn ‘Abbās said: “The Prophet came out as if I am looking at him at this time, and water was trickling from his head and he was putting his hand on his head and then said, ‘Hadn’t I thought it hard for my followers, I would have ordered them to offer Ṣalāt (prayer) (‘Ishā’ prayer) at this time.’ I asked ‘Aṭā’ for further information, how the Prophet had kept his hand on his head...”
head as he was told by Ibn 'Abbas. ‘Aṭā’ separated his fingers slightly and put their tips on the side of the head, brought the fingers downwards approximating them till the thumb touched the lobe of the ear at the side of the face at the temple and towards the beard. He neither slowed nor hurried in this action but he acted like that. The Prophet said: ‘Hadn’t I thought it hard for my followers I would have ordered them to offer Ṣalāt at this time.’”

(25) CHAPTER. Time of the ‘Ishā’ prayer is up to the middle of the night.

And Abū Barza said that the Prophet used to prefer to pray ‘Ishā’ late.

572. Narrated Anas: The Prophet delayed the ‘Ishā’ prayer till midnight and then he offered the prayer and said, “The people offered Ṣalāt (prayer) and slept but you have been in prayer as long as you have been waiting for it (the prayer).”

Anas added: As if I am looking now at the glitter of the ring of the Prophet on that night.

(26) CHAPTER. Superiority of the Fajr (early morning) prayer.
573. Narrated Jarir bin 'Abdullah: We were with the Prophet and he looked at the moon on a full-moon night and said, “You will certainly see your Lord as you see this (moon), and there will be no trouble in seeing Him. So, if you can avoid missing (through sleep, business, etc.) a prayer before the rising of the sun (Fajr) and before its setting ('Asr) you must do so.”

He (the Prophet) then recited the following Verse:

“...And glorify the Praises of your Lord before the rising of the sun and before (its) setting.” (V.20:130)

574. Narrated Abu Musa: Allah’s Messenger said, “Whoever offers the two cool Salat (prayers) (‘Asr and Fajr) will enter Paradise.”

(27) CHAPTER. Time of the Fajr (early morning) prayer.

575. Narrated Anas bin Zaid bin Thabit said, “We took the Sahur [the meal taken before dawn while Saum (fasting) is observed] with the Prophet and then stood up for the (early morning) Salat (prayer).”
asked him how long the interval between the two (Sahūr and ʿĀṣaʾir) was. He replied, “The interval between the two was just sufficient to recite fifty or sixty ‘Ayāt.”

576. Narrated Qatāda: Anas bin Mālik said, “The Prophet and Zaid bin Thābit took the Sahūr together and after finishing the meal, the Prophet stood up for ʿĀṣaʾir (the prayers) (Fajr prayer).” I asked Anas, “How long was the interval between finishing their Sahūr and starting ʿĀṣaʾir?” He replied, “The interval between the two was just sufficient to recite fifty ‘Ayāt (Verses of the Qurʾān).”

577. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: I used to take the Sahūr meal with my family and hasten so as to catch the Fajr (early morning prayer) with Allāh’s Messenger.

578. Narrated ‘Aishah: The believing women, covered with their veiling sheets, used to attend the Fajr prayer with Allāh’s Messenger, and after finishing the Salāt (prayer) they would return to their homes and nobody could recognize them because of darkness.
(28) CHAPTER. Whoever got (or was able to offer) one Rak'ã of the Fajr prayer (in time). [One Rak'ã means, one standing, one bowing, and two prostrations].

579.Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever got (or was able to offer) one Rak'ã of the Fajr prayer (in time), and whoever got (or was able to offer) one Rak'ã of the ‘Asr prayer before sunset, he got the ‘Asr prayer.”

(29) CHAPTER. Whoever got (or was able to offer) one Rak'ã of a prayer (in time).

580. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever got (or was able to offer) one Rak’ã of Aṣ-Ṣalât (the prayer), (in time) he got that Salât (prayer).”

(30) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the offering of Aṣ-Ṣalât (the prayers) between the Fajr prayer and sunrise.

581. Narrated ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ forbade offering Aṣ-Ṣalât (the prayer) after the Fajr prayer till the sun rises and after the ‘Asr prayer till the sun sets.

Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: Some people told me the same narration (as above).
582. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not offer Salât (prayer) at the time of sunrise and at the time of sunset.”

583. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If the edge of the sun appears (above the horizon) delay As-Salât (the prayer) till it becomes high, and if the edge of the sun disappears, delay As-Salât till it sets (disappears completely).”

584. Narrated Abû Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ forbade two kinds of sales, two kinds of dresses, and two Salât (prayers). He forbade offering Salât after the Fajr prayer till the rising of the sun; and after the ’Asr prayer till the setting of the sun. He also forbade Ištîmâl-Asâmâ and Al-Ihtibâ in one garment in such a way that one’s private parts are exposed towards the sky. He also forbade the sales called Munâbaghâ and Mulâmasa. (See Hadîth No.2144 and 2145, Vol.3).
(31) CHAPTER. One should not try to offer As-Salāt (the prayer) just before sunset.

585. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “None of you should try to offer As-Salāt (the prayer) at sunrise or sunset.”

586. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنه: I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “There is no Salāt (prayer) after the morning prayer (Fajr prayer) till the sun rises, and there is no prayer after the ‘Asr prayer till the sun sets.”

587. Narrated Mu‘āwiyah رضي الله عنه: You offer a Salāt (prayer) which I did not see being offered by Allah’s Messenger ﷺ when we were in his company, and he certainly had forbidden it (i.e., two Rak‘ā after the ‘Asr prayer).

588. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ forbade the offering of two Salāt (prayers):
1. After the Fajr (early morning) prayer till the sun rises.
2. After the 'Asr prayer till the sun sets.

(32) CHAPTER. Whoever did not dislike to offer optional prayers except after the compulsory prayers of 'Asr and Fajr only.

This has been narrated by ‘Umar, Ibn ‘Umar, Abū Sa‘īd and Abū Hurairah.

589. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: I offer Salāt as I saw my companions offering them. I do not forbid offering of prayers at any time during the day or night except at sunset and sunrise.

(33) CHAPTER. To offer the missed Salāt (prayers) and the like after the 'Asr prayer.

And narrated Umm Salama رضي الله عنها: The Prophet said two Rak‘ā after the 'Asr prayer and said, “Some people of the tribe of ‘Abdul-Qais made me busy and did not let me offer the two Rak‘ā after the Zuhr prayer.”

590. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: By Allah Who took away the Prophet, the Prophet never missed them (two Rak‘ā) after the 'Asr prayer till he met Allah; and he did not meet Allah till it became heavy for him to offer As-Salāt (the prayer) while standing. So, he used to offer most of the Salāt (prayers) while sitting. (She meant the two Rak‘ā after 'Asr). He used to offer them in the house and never offered them in the mosque, lest it might be hard for his followers and he loved what was easy for them.

591. Narrated Hisham's father: 'Aishah (addressing me) said, "O son of my sister! The Prophet never missed two prostrations (i.e. Rak'ã) after the 'Asr prayer in my house." (1)

592. Narrated 'Aishah: Allah's Messenger never missed two Rak'ã before the Fajr prayer and two Rak'ã after the 'Asr prayer openly and secretly.

593. Narrated 'Aishah: Whenever the Prophet came to me after the 'Asr prayer, he always offered two Rak'ã. (2)

(34) CHAPTER. To offer (the 'Asr prayers) earlier on a cloudy day.

594. Narrated Ibn Abû Mâlih: I was with

(2) (H.593) See chapter No.33 after the Hadith No.589.
Buraidha on a cloudy day and he said, “Offer the ‘Asr prayer earlier as the Prophet \( \tilde{s} \) said, ‘Whoever omits (does not offer) the ‘Asr prayer, all his (good) deeds will be lost.’

(See Hadith No.552 and 553).

(35) CHAPTER. The \textit{Adhān} for the \textit{Ṣalāt} (prayer) after its stated time is over.

595. Narrated Abī Qatādā: One night we were travelling with the Prophet \( \tilde{s} \) and some people said, “We wish that Allâh’s Messenger \( \tilde{s} \) would take rest along with us during the last hours of the night.” He said, “I am afraid that you will sleep and miss the \textit{(Fajr)} prayer.” Bilāl said, “I will make you get up.” So, all slept and Bilāl rested his back against his Rāhila and he too was overwhelmed (by sleep) and slept. The Prophet \( \tilde{s} \) got up when the edge of the sun had risen and said, “O Bilāl! What about your statement?” He replied, “I have never slept such a sleep.” The Prophet \( \tilde{s} \), performed ablution and when the sun came up and became bright, he stood up and offered the \textit{Ṣalāt} (prayer).

(36) CHAPTER. Whoever led the people in \textit{Ṣalāt} (prayer) after its time was over.
596. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullah: On the Day of Al-Khandaq (the battle of Trench), ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb came cursing the disbelievers of Quraish after the sun had set and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger, I could not offer the ‘Asr prayer till the sun was about to set.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “By Allāh! I, too, have not offered the Salāt (prayer).”

So, we turned towards Buthân, and the Prophet ﷺ performed ablution and we too performed ablution and offered the ‘Asr prayer after the sun had set, and then he offered the Maghrib prayer.

(37) CHAPTER. One who forgets a Salāt (prayer) should offer it when he remembers it, and should not repeat anything except that particular prayer.

Ibrāhīm said: If one missed unintentionally one prayer 20 years ago then he should offer only that Salāt (prayer).

597. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If anyone forgets a Salāt (prayer) he should offer that prayer when he remembers it. There is no expiation except to offer the same.” Then he recited: “…And perform As-Salāt (Iqāmat-as-Salāt) for My (i.e., Allāh’s) Remembrance.” (V.20:14).
(38) CHAPTER. The Qadā of prayers (Qadā means to perform or offer or do a missed religious obligation after its stated time).

598. Narrated Jābir ibn 'Umar came cursing the disbelievers (of Quraish) on the day of Al-Khandaq (the battle of Trench) and said, “I could not offer the ‘Asr prayer till the sun had set.” Then we went to Buthān and he offered the (‘Aṣr) prayer after sunset and then he offered the Maghrib prayer.

(39) CHAPTER. What is disliked about talking after the ‘Īshā’ prayer.

599. Narrated Abūl-Minhāl: My father and I went to Abī Barza Al-Aslami and my father said to him, “Tell us how Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to offer the compulsory congregational Salāt (prayers).” He said, “He used to offer the Zuhr prayer, which you call the first prayer, as the sun declined at noon, the ‘Asr at a time when one of us could go to his family at the farthest place in Al-Madīna while the sun was still hot. (The narrator forgot what Abī Barza had said about the Maghrib prayer), and the Prophet ﷺ preferred to offer the ‘Īshā’ prayer late and disliked to sleep before it or talk after it. And he used to return after finishing the morning prayer (Fajr prayer) at such a time when it was possible for one to recognize the person sitting by his side and he (the Prophet ﷺ) used to recite 60 to 100 'Ayāt' (Verses) of the Qur'an in it.

(40) CHAPTER. Talking about the Islamic jurisprudence and good things after the 'Ishā' prayer.

600. Narrated Qurra bin Khālid that once he waited for Al-Ḥasan and he did not show up till it was about the usual time for him to start his speech; then he came and apologized saying, “Our neighbours invited us.” Then he added, “Narrated Anas: Once we waited for the Prophet ﷺ till it was midnight or about midnight. He came and led us in the prayer, and after finishing it, he addressed us and said, ‘All the people have offered their prayers and then slept and you had been in prayer as long as you were waiting for it.’” Al-Ḥasan said, “The people are regarded as performing good deeds as long as they are waiting for doing good deeds.” Al-Ḥasan’s statement is a portion of Anās Hadīth from the Prophet ﷺ.

601. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ offered one of the 'Ishā' prayer in his last days and after finishing it with Taslim, he stood up and said, “Do you realize (the importance of) this night? Nobody present on the surface of the earth tonight would be living after the completion of one hundred years from this night.”
The people made a mistake in grasping the meaning of this statement of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and they indulged in those things which are said about these narrations (i.e., some said that the Day of Resurrection will be established after 100 years etc.) but the Prophet ﷺ said, “Nobody present on the surface of earth tonight would be living after the completion of 100 years from this night”; he meant “When that century (people of that century) would pass away.”

(41) CHAPTER. To talk with the family and the guests after the ‘Ishā’ prayer.

602. Narrated Abū ‘Uthmān: ‘Abdur Raḥmān bin Abī Bakr ﷺ said, “As-Suffa companions were poor people and the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Whoever has food for two persons should take a third one from them (As-Suffa companions). And whosoever has food for four persons he should take one or two from them’ Abū Bakr took three men and the Prophet ﷺ took ten of them.”

Abdur Raḥmān added: My father my mother and I were there (in the house). (The subnarrator is in doubt whether ‘Abdur Raḥmān also said, ‘My wife and our servant who was common for both my house and Abu Bakr’s house). Abū Bakr took his supper with the Prophet ﷺ and remained there till the ‘Ishā’ prayer was offered. Abū Bakr (after the prayer) went back and stayed with the Prophet ﷺ till the Prophet ﷺ took his meal and then Abū Bakr returned to his house.

(H.601) This was a sign of Prophethood, for what Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said was proved, as the last of his companions to die was Abū At-Tūfāl ‘Āmir bin Wāthila who died 100 years after the prophecy of the Prophet ﷺ and he was 110 years old then.
after a long portion of the night had passed. Abū Bakr's wife said, "What detained you from your guests (or guest)?" He said, "Have you not served them yet?" She said, "They refused to eat until you come. The food was served for them but they refused." Abū Ṭā‘ī added: I went away and hid myself (being afraid of Abū Bakr) and in the meantime he (Abū Bakr) called me, "O Ghunṭar (a harsh word)!" and also called me bad names and abused me and then said, "Eat! No welcome for you." Then (the supper was served). Abū Bakr took an oath that he would not eat that food. The narrator added: By Allāh, whenever any one of us (myself and the guests of Aṣ-Ṣūfa companions) took anything from the food, it increased from underneath. We all ate to our fill and the food was more than it was before its serving.

Abū Bakr looked at it (the food) and found it as it was before serving or even more than that. He addressed his wife (saying) "O the sister of Bani Firas! What is this?" She said, "O the pleasure of my eyes! The food is now three times more than it was before." Abū Bakr ate from it, and said, "That (oath) was from Satan”, meaning his oath (not to eat). Then he took a morsel (mouthful) from it and then took the rest of it to the Prophet ﷺ. So that meal was with the Prophet ﷺ. There was a treaty between us and some people, and when the period of that treaty had elapsed the Prophet ﷺ divided us into twelve (groups) (the Prophet's Companions) each being headed by a man. Allāh knows how many men were under the command of each (leader). So all of them (12 groups of men) ate of that meal (or said something like that).
(1) CHAPTER. How the \textit{Adhān} for \textit{Ṣalāt} (prayer) was started.

And the Statement of Allāh (prayer):

“...When you proclaim the call for \textit{As-Salāt} [call for the prayer (\textit{Adhān})], they take it (but) as a mockery and fun; that is because they are a people who understand not.”

(V.5:58).

And also the Statement of Allāh (prayer):

“...When the call (\textit{Adhān}) is proclaimed for the \textit{Ṣalāt} (prayer) on the day of Friday...”

(V.62:9).

603. Narrated Anas (prayer): The people mentioned the fire and the bell [they suggested those as signals to indicate the time to offer \textit{Ṣalāt} (prayers)], and by that they mentioned the Jews and the Christians. Then Bilāl was ordered to pronounce \textit{Adhān} for the \textit{Ṣalāt} by saying its wordings twice (in doubles) and for the \textit{Iqāma} (the call for the actual standing for the \textit{Ṣalāt} in rows) by saying its wordings once (in singles) (\textit{Iqāma} is pronounced when the people are ready for the \textit{Ṣalāt}).

604. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar (prayer): When the Muslims arrived at Al-Madīna, they used to assemble for \textit{As-Salāt} (the prayer), and used to guess the time for it. During those days, the practice of \textit{Adhān} for \textit{Ṣalāt} (prayers) had not been introduced yet. Once they discussed this problem regarding the call for \textit{Ṣalāt}. Some people suggested the use of a bell like the Christians, others proposed a trumpet like the horn used by the Jews, but ‘Umar was the first to suggest that a man should call (the people) for ‘As–Salāt; so, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered Bilal to get up and pronounce the Adhān for ‘As–Salāt.

(1) (Book. 10) \textit{Adhān}: The call to prayer pronounced loudly to indicate that the time of praying is due. And it is as follows: \textit{Allāhu Akbar, Allāhu Akbar, Allāhu Akbar, Allāhu Akbar, Ash-hadu an lā ilāha illāllāh, Ash-hadu an lā ilāha illāllāh, Ash-hadu an nā Muḥammadan Rasūl-Ullāh, Ash-hadu an nā Muḥammadan Rasūl-Ullāh, Ḥaṭiya ‘alas-Ṣalāh, Ḥaṭiya ‘alas-Ṣalāh, Ḥaṭiya ‘alas-Ṣalāh, Ḥaṭiya ‘alaṣ-Falaḥ, Ḥaṭiya ‘alaṣ-Falaḥ, Allāhu Akbar, Allāhu Akbar, Lā ilāha illallāh.}

(2) CHAPTER. Pronouncing the wording of Adhān for Salāt (prayers) twice (in doubles).

605. Narrated Anas b. Malik: Bilal was ordered to repeat the wording of the Adhān for Salāt (prayers) twice (in doubles) and to pronounce the wording of the Iqāma once (in singles) except Qad-qāmat-īs–Salāt.

606. Narrated Anas b. Malik: When the number of Muslims increased they discussed the question as to how to know the time for As-Salāt (the prayers) by some familiar means. Some suggested that a fire be lit [at the time of Salāt (prayer)] and others put forward the proposal to ring the bell.

Bilāl was ordered to pronounce the wording of Adhān twice (in doubles) and of the Iqāma once (in singles) only.

(3) CHAPTER. To pronounce the wording of Iqāma once (in singles) except Qad-qāmat-īs–Salāt.

607. Narrated Abū Qilāba: Anas b. Malik said, “Bilal was ordered to pronounce the wording of Adhān twice (in doubles) and of Iqāma once (in singles) only.” The subnarrator Ismā’īl said, “I mentioned that to Ayyūb and he added (to that), “Except Iqāma (i.e., Qad-qāmat-iṣ-Ṣalāt which should be said twice ).”

(4) CHAPTER. Superiority of the Adhān.

608. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “When the Adhān is pronounced Satan takes to his heels and passes wind with noise during his flight in order not to hear the Adhān. When the Adhān is completed he comes back, and again takes to his heels when the Iqāma is pronounced; and after its completion he returns again till he whispers into the heart of the person [to divert his attention from his Ṣalāt (prayer)] and makes him remember things which he does not recall to his mind before the Ṣalāt and that causes him to forget how much he has prayed.”

609. Narrated Abū Raḥmān: Abū Sa’īd Al-Khudrī told my father, “I see you liking sheep and the wilderness. So whenever you are with your sheep or in the wilderness and you want to pronounce Adhān for the Salāt (prayer) raise your voice in doing so, for whoever hears the Adhān, whether a human being, a jinn or any other creature, will be a witness for you on the Day...”
of Resurrection.” Abū Sa‘īd added, “I heard it (this narration) from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.” (See Hadīth No.3296, Vol.4 and Hadīth No.373, Summarized Sahīh Al-Bukhārī)

(6) CHAPTER. To suspend fighting on hearing the Adhān.

610. Narrated Anas bin Mālik “Whenever the Prophet ﷺ went out with us to fight (in Allāh’s Cause) against any nation, he never allowed us to attack till morning and he would wait and see. If he heard Adhān he would postpone the attack, and if he did not hear Adhān he would attack them.” Anas added, “We reached Khaibar at night and in the morning when he did not hear the Adhān for the prayer, he (the Prophet ﷺ) rode and I rode behind Abī Ta‘lība and my foot was touching that of the Prophet ﷺ.

“The inhabitants of Khaibar came out with their baskets and spades and when they saw the Prophet ﷺ they shouted ‘Muḥammad! By Allāh, Muḥammad and his army.’ When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saw them, he said, ‘Allāhu Akbar! Allāhu Akbar! Khaibar is ruined. Whenever we approach a (hostile) nation (to fight), then evil will be the morning of those who have been warned.’”

(7) CHAPTER. What to say on hearing the Adhān.

611. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri Ṭabīḥy Allāh
10 – THE BOOK OF ADHån

10: THE BOOK OF ADHÂN

Allāh’s Messenger said, “Whenever you hear the Adhân, say just as the Mu’adh-dhin is saying.

612. Narrated ‘Īsa bin Ṭalḥa that he had heard Mu’āwiyah repeating the words of Adhân up to “Wa aṣḥ-hadu anna Muḥammadan Rasūl-Allāh (and I testify that Muḥammad is Allāh’s Messenger.)”

613. Narrated Yahyā as above (586) and added: “Some of my companions told me that Hishām had said, “When the Mu’adh-dhin said, ‘Ḥayya ’alaṣ-Salah (come for the prayer).’” Mu’āwiyah said, “Lā ḥawla wala quw-wata illa billāh (there is neither might nor any power except with Allah)” and added, “We heard your Prophet saying the same.”

614. Narrated Jābri bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Whoever after listening to the Adhân says, ‘Allāhumma Rabba ḥādhīhid-da’ watī-tāmmati was-ṣalātil qā’imati, āti Muḥammadanil-wastīlat wal-fadīlatāla, wab-ʾāthhu maqāman mahmūdanil-ladī ḡaʾ-adtahū [O Allāh! Lord of this perfect call (of not ascribing partners to You) and of the regular Salāt (prayer) which is going to be established! Kindly give Muhammad (ﷺ) Al-Wasilah (highest position in Paradise) and Al-Fadilah (extra degree of honour) and raise him to Maqām Mahnūd {a station of praise and glory, i.e., the honour of intercession (شفاعة الكبر) on the Day of Resurrection}, which You have promised him], then intercession for me will be permitted for him on the Day of Resurrection”.

(9) CHAPTER. To draw lots for pronouncing the Adhān.

And it is said that some people differed regarding the pronunciation of Adhān (i.e., who should pronounce the Adhān). So Sa’d drew lots amongst them.

615. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If the people knew (the reward for) pronouncing the Adhān and for standing in the first row [in congregational Salāt (prayers)] and found no other way to get that except by drawing lots they would draw lots; and if they knew (the reward of) the Zuhr prayer (in the early moments of its stated time) they would race for it (go early); and if they knew (the reward of) ‘Ishā’ and Fajr (early morning) prayers in congregation, they would come to offer them even if they had to crawl.”

(10) CHAPTER. Talking during the Adhān.

Sulaimān bin Surad talked while pronouncing Adhān. Al-Hasan said, “There is no harm if the Mu‘adh-dhin laughs while pronouncing the Adhān or Iqāma.”

616. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Al-Hārith: Once on a rainy, muddy day, Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما delivered a Khutba (religious talk) in our presence and when the Mu‘adh-dhin pronounced the Adhān and was going to say: "Haiyya 'alas-Salāh (come for the prayer)," Ibn 'Abbās ordered him to say, "Offer As-Salāt (the prayers) at your homes." The people began to look at each other (surprisingly). Ibn 'Abbās said, "It was done by one who was much better than I (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ or his Mu'adh-dhīn), and it is a license."

(11) CHAPTER. The Adhān pronounced by a blind man (is permissible) when there is a person to inform him about the time of the Salāt (prayer).

617. Narrated Sālim bin 'Abdullāh: My father said that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Bilāl pronounces Adhān at night, so keep on eating and drinking (Sahūr) till Ibn Umm Maktūm pronounces Adhān." Sālim added, "He was a blind man who would not pronounce the Adhān unless he was told that the day had dawned."

(12) CHAPTER. The Adhān after Al-Fajr (dawn).

618. Narrated Ḥafṣa bint Mālik: When the Mu'adh-dhīn pronounced the Adhān for Fajr prayer and the dawn became evident, the Prophet ﷺ would offer a two Rak'ā light prayer (Sunna) before the Iqāma of the compulsory (congregational) Salāt (prayer).
619. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet used to offer two light Rak‘a between the Adhan and the Iqama of the early morning (Fajr) prayer.

620. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: Allâh’s Messenger said, “Bilâl pronounces the Adhan at night, so keep on eating and drinking (Sahûr) till Ibn Umm Maktûm pronounces the Adhan.”

(13) CHAPTER. The Adhan before Al-Fajr (dawn).

621. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Mas‘ûd: The Prophet said, “The Adhan pronounced by Bilâl should not stop you from taking Sahûr, for he pronounces the Adhan at night, so that the one offering the late night prayer (Tahajjud) from among you might hurry up and the sleeping from among you might wake up. It does not mean that Al-Fajr (dawn) or As-Subh (morning) has started.” Then he (the Prophet) pointed with his fingers and raised them up (towards the sky) and then lowered them (towards the earth) like this (Ibn Mas‘ûd imitated the gesture of the Prophet). Az-Zaheer gestured with his two index fingers which he put on each other and then stretched them to the right and left. These gestures illustrate the way real dawn appears. It spreads left and right horizontally.

Adhān at night, so eat and drink (Sahūr) till Ibn Umm Maktūm pronounces the Adhān.”

(14) CHAPTER. How long should the interval between the Adhān and the Iqāma be? (And something concerning) the person who waits for the Iqāma.

624. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mughaffal Al-Muzānī: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said thrice, “There is a Salāt (prayer) between the two Adhān (Adhān and Iqāma),” and (then while saying it) the third time he added, “for the one who wants to offer it.” (See Hadith No. 627)

625. Narrated Anās bin Mālik: “When the Mu‘adhdhin pronounced the Adhān, some of the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ would proceed to the pillars of the mosque (for the prayer) till the Prophet ﷺ arrived and in this way they used to offer two Rak‘ā before the Maghrib prayer. There used to be a little time between the Adhān and the Iqāma.”

Shu‘ba said, “There used to be a very short interval between the two (Adhān and Iqāma).”
626. Narrated 'Aishah: Allah's Messenger used to offer two light Rak'a before the Salāt-il-Fajr (morning compulsory prayer) after the day dawned and the Mu'adh-dhin had finished his Adhān. He then would lie on his right side till the Mu'adh-dhin came to pronounce the Iqāma.

Between every two calls (Adhān and Iqāma) there is a Salāt (prayer) (that is optional), for the one who wants to offer it.

627. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin Mughaffal: The Prophet said, “There is a Salāt (prayer) between the two Adhān (Adhān and Iqāma), there is a Salāt between the two Adhān.” And then while saying it the third time he added, “For the one who wants to (offer it).”

628. Narrated Malik bin Uuwairth: I came to the Prophet with some men... from my tribe and stayed with him for twenty nights. He was kind and merciful to us. When he realized our longing for our families, he said to us, "Go back and stay with your families and teach them (the religion), and offer As-Salât (the prayer) and one of you should pronounce the Adhân for Salât (prayer) when its time is due and the oldest one amongst you should lead the Salât (prayer)."

(18) CHAPTER. If there are many travellers, Adhân and Iqâma should be pronounced, (the same is to be observed) in 'Arafât and Al-Muzdalifa too.

On a very cold or a rainy night, the Mu'adh-dhin’s saying: As-Salât fir-Riñal [Offer Salât (prayer) at your Ar-Riñal (homes or camps)]."

629. Narrated Abû Dhar رضي الله عنه: We were in the company of the Prophet ﷺ on a journey and the Mu'adh-dhin wanted to pronounce the Adhân for the (Zuhr) prayer. The Prophet ﷺ said to him, "Let it become cooler." Then he again wanted to pronounce the Adhân but the Prophet ﷺ said to him, "Let it become cooler." The Mu'adh-dhin again wanted to pronounce the Adhân but the Prophet ﷺ said, "Let it become cooler, till the shadows of the hillocks become equal to their sizes." The Prophet ﷺ added, "The severity of the heat is from the raging of Hell."

630. Narrated Mâlik bin Huwairith رضي الله عنه: Two men came to the Prophet ﷺ with the intention of a journey. The Prophet said, “When (both of) you set out, pronounce Adhān and then Iqāma, and the oldest of you should lead the Salāt (prayer).”

631. Narrated Mālik: We came to the Prophet and stayed with him for twenty days and nights. We were all young and of about the same age. The Prophet was very kind and merciful. When he realized our longing for our families, he asked about our homes and the people there, and we told him. Then he asked us to go back to our families and stay with them and teach them (the religion) and to order them to do good things. He also mentioned some other things which I have (remembered or) forgotten. The Prophet then added, “Offer Salāt (prayer) as you have seen me praying; and when it is the time for As-Salāt (the prayer) one of you should pronounce the Adhān and the oldest of you should lead the Salāt.”

632. Narrated Nāfi’: Once, in a cold night, Ibn ‘Umar Ḥanṣān pronounced the Adhān for the Salāt (prayer) at Dajnān (the name of a mountain) and then said, “Offer Salāt (prayer) at your homes”, and informed us that Allāh’s Messenger used to tell the Mu‘adh-dhin to pronounce Adhān and say, “Ala Sallī fir-Rihāl [offer Salāt (prayer) at your Ar-Rihāl (homes or camps)]” at the end of the Adhān on a rainy or a very cold night during the journey.
633.Narrated ‘Aün bin Abi Juhaifa: My father said, “I saw Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ at a place called Al-Abtaḥ. Bilâl came and informed him about Salât (prayer) and then came out with an ‘Anaza and planted it in front of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ at Al-Abtaḥ and pronounced the Iqâma for As-Salât (the prayer).”

(19) CHAPTER. Should the Mu‘adh-dhin turn his mouth (face) and look from side to side during the Adhân?

It is said that (during the Adhân) Bilâl used to put his (two) fingers in his (two) ears, whereas Ibn ‘Umar never put the fingers in his ears. Ibrâhîm said that there was no harm in pronouncing the Adhân for the Salât (prayer) without ablution. ‘Aţâ’ said, “Ablution is essential and it is Sunnah (legal way).” ‘Aishah ٓsaid, “The Prophet ﷺ used to remember Allâh during all times.”

634. Narrated ‘Aün bin Abi Juhaifa: My father said, “I saw Bilâl turning his mouth (face) from side to side while pronouncing the Adhân (for the prayer).”

(20) CHAPTER. The saying of a person: “We have missed As-Salât (the prayer).”

According to Ibn Sirin, it is disliked to say: “We have missed As-Salât (the prayer).”
It is better to say: “We have not been able to offer As-Salāt”, but the Prophet’s statement (i.e. we missed As-Salāt), is more correct.

635. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Qatāda: He said, “While we were offering As-Salāt (the prayer) with the Prophet, he heard the noise of some people. After Salāt (prayer) he said, ‘What is the matter?’ They replied, ‘We were hurrying for As-Salāt.’ He said, ‘Do not make haste for As-Salāt, and whenever you come for As-Salāt, you should come with calmness, and offer whatever you get (with the people) and complete the rest which you have missed.’”

(21) CHAPTER. One should not run for Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) but present himself with calmness and solemnity.

“Offer prayer (in congregation) whatever you are able to pray and complete what you have missed.” Abū Qatāda narrated this from the Prophet.

636. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “When you hear the Iqāma, proceed to offer Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) with calmness and solemnity and do not make haste. And pray whatever you are able to offer and complete whatever you have missed.”

(22) CHAPTER. When should the people get up for the Ṣalāt (prayer) if they see the Imām
(the person leading Ṣalāt) during the Iqāma?\(^{(1)}\)

637. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Qatādā: My father said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘If the Iqāma is pronounced then do not stand for ʿAṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) till you see me (in front of you)’.”

(23) CHAPTER. One should not stand for ʿAṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) hurriedly but with calmness and solemnity.

638. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Qatādā: My father said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘If the Iqāma for ʿAṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) is pronounced, then do not stand for the prayer till you see me (in front of you) and do it calmly’.”

(24) CHAPTER. Can one go out of the mosque (after the Adhān, or the Iqāma) if there is a genuine excuse?

639. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ went out (of the mosque) when the Iqāma had been pronounced and the rows straightened. The Prophet ﷺ stood at his Musallā (praying place) and we waited for the Prophet ﷺ to begin (the prayer) with Takbir. He left and asked us to remain in our places. We kept on standing till the Prophet returned and the water was trickling from his head for he had taken a bath (of Janāba).

\(^{(1)}\) (Ch.22) The wordings of the Adhān is reduced so that the wordings that is said twice in the Adhān is said once in Iqāma except the last utterance of Allahu-Akbar, and the Ṣalāt is offered immediately after Iqāma.

(25) CHAPTER. If the Imam says, “Remain at your places till I return”, then wait for him.

640. Narrated Abū Hurairah Z.: Once Iqāma was pronounced and the people had straightened the rows, Allah’s Messenger went forward [to lead the Salāt (prayer)] but he was Junub, so he said, “Remain in your places.” And he went out, took a bath and returned with water trickling from his head. Then he led the Salāt.

(26) CHAPTER. The saying of a man to the Prophet , “We have not prayed.”

641. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: On the day of Al-Khandaq (the battle of Trench), ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb went to the Prophet and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! By Allah, I could not offer the (‘Asr) prayer till the sun had set.” ‘Umar told this to the Prophet at the time when a fasting person had done Ifār (taken his meals). The Prophet said: “By Allah! I, too, have not offered the Salāt (prayer).” The Prophet then went to Buṭḥān and I was with him. He performed ablution and offered the 'Asr prayer after the sun had set and then he offered the Maghrib prayer. (See Hadith No. 596)

(27) CHAPTER. If the Imam is confronted with a problem after the Iqama.

642. Narrated Anas: Once the Iqama was pronounced and the Prophet was talking to a man (in a low voice) in a corner of the mosque and he did not lead As-Salat (the prayer) till (some of) the people had slept (dozed in a sitting posture).

(28) CHAPTER. To talk after the Iqama.

643. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Once, after the Iqama for the Salat (prayer) was pronounced a man came to the Prophet and detained him (from the Salat).

(29) CHAPTER. Congregational Salat (prayer) is obligatory.

Al-Hasan said, “If somebody is forbidden by his mother from going to the congregational ‘Ishâ’ prayer because of mercy and pity for him, he should not obey her.”

644. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger said, “By Him, in Whose Hand my soul is, I intended or planned or was about to order for collecting fire-wood (fuel) and then order someone to pronounce the Adhān for As-Ṣalāt (the prayer) and then order someone to lead the Ṣalāt (prayer), then I would go from behind and burn the houses of men who did not present themselves for the (compulsory congregational) Ṣalāt. By Him, in Whose Hands my soul is, if anyone of them had known that he would get a bone covered with good meat or two (small) pieces of meat present in between two ribs, he would have turned up for the ‘Ishā’ prayer.’

(30) CHAPTER. Superiority of the congregational Ṣalāt (prayer).

Whenever Al-Aswad missed the congregational Ṣalāt (prayer) he used to go to another mosque (to offer the Ṣalāt in congregation). Once, Anas came to a mosque where the Ṣalāt was finished; he pronounced the Adhān and then Iqāma and offered the Ṣalāt in congregation.

645. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Ṣalāt (prayer) in congregation is twenty-seven times superior in degrees to the Ṣalāt offered by a person alone.”

646. Narrated Abū Sa’īd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The Ṣalāt (prayer) in congregation is twenty-five times superior in degrees to the Ṣalāt offered by a person alone.”
647. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “The reward of the Salah (prayer) offered by a person in congregation is multiplied twenty-five times as much than that of the Salah offered in one’s house or in the market (alone). And this is because if he performs ablution and does it perfectly and then proceeds to the mosque with the sole intention of offering Salah, then, for every step he takes towards the mosque, he is upgraded one degree in reward and his one sin is taken off (crossed out) from his accounts (of deeds). When he offers his Salah, the angels keep on asking Allah’s Blessings and Allah’s Forgiveness for him as long as he is (staying) at his Miqalla. They say, ‘O Allah! Bestow Your Blessings upon him, be Merciful and kind to him.’ And one is regarded in Salah as long as one is waiting for the Salah.”

(31) CHAPTER. Superiority of the Fajr (early morning) prayer in congregation.

648. Narrated Abū Salama bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān : Abū Hurairah said, “I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, ‘The reward of a Salah (prayer) in congregation is twenty-five times superior in degrees than that of a Salah offered by a person alone. The angels of the night and the angels of the day gather at the time of Fajr prayer.’”

Abū Hurairah then added, “Recite (the Qur’an) if you wish, “Verily, the recitation of the Qur’an in the early dawn (i.e. the morning – Fajr prayer) is ever witnessed (attended by the angels in charge of mankind of the day and the night).” (V.17:78).

649. Narrated ‘Abdulläh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنه: The reward of the congregational ـلاَت is twenty-seven times more (than that of the ـلاَت offered by a person alone).

650. Narrated Sālim: I heard Umm Ad-DardA’ saying, “Abū Ad-DardA’ entered the house in an angry mood. I said to him, ‘What makes you angry?’ He replied, ‘By Allah! I do not find the followers of Muhammad بس ﷺ doing those good things (which they used to do before) except the offering of congregational ـلاَت (prayer).’” (This happened in the last days of Abū Ad-DardA’ during the rule of ‘Uthmân).

651. Narrated Abū Mūsa رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The people who get tremendous reward for ـلـاَت (the prayer) are those who are farthest away (from the mosque) and then those who are next farthest and so on. Similarly one who waits to offer ـلـاَت with the ـلاَم has greater reward than one who offers it (alone) and goes to bed.”

(32) CHAPTER. The superiority of offering the Zuhr prayer early.

652. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Alläh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “While a man was going on a way, he saw a thorny branch and removed it from the way and Alläh became pleased by his action and forgave him for that.”
653. Then (the Prophet ﷺ) said, “Five are martyrs: One who dies of plague, one who dies of an abdominal disease, one who dies of drowning, one who is buried alive (and) dies and one who is killed in Allah’s Cause.”

The Prophet ﷺ further said, “If the people knew (the reward for) pronouncing the Adhān and for standing in the first row (in the congregational Salāt) and found no other way to get it except by drawing lots they would do so.

654. [The Prophet ﷺ added:] “And if they knew (the reward of) offering the Zuhr prayer early (in its stated time), they would race for it and if they knew (the reward for) ‘Ishā’ and Fajr prayers in congregation, they would attend them even if they were to crawl.”

(33) CHAPTER. Every step towards good deeds is rewarded.

655. (V.36:12) Narrated Ḥumaid: Anas ﺑ. رضي الله عنه said, “The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘O Bānī Salīma! Don’t you think that for every step of yours (that you take towards the mosque) there is a reward [while coming for the five compulsory Salāt (prayers)]?’” Mujahīd said: Regarding Allah’s Statement: “...We record that which they send before (them), and their traces...” (V.36:12)

656. (V.36:12) ‘Their traces’ means ‘their steps’.” And Anas said that the people of Bānī Salīma wanted to shift to a place near the Prophet ﷺ but Allah’s Messenger ﷺ disliked that Al-Madīnā (city) should become naked [i.e., with empty outskirts – without inhabitants. i.e., the leaving of their houses (empty)] and said, “(O Bani Salima) Don’t you think that you will get the reward for your traces (every step) of yours (that you take towards the Prophet’s mosque) there is a reward while coming for the five compulsory Salat.” Mujahid said, “Their traces mean their foot-steps and their going on foot.”

(34) CHAPTER. The superiority of the ‘Ishâ’ prayer in congregation.

657. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “No Salât (prayer) is more heavy (harder) for the hypocrites than the Fajr and the ‘Ishâ’ prayers and if they knew the reward for these Salât, at their respective times, they would certainly present themselves (in the mosques) even if they had to crawl.” The Prophet added, “Certainly I intended or planned or was about to order the Mu‘adh-dhin (call-maker) to pronounce Iqâma and order a man to lead the Salât and then take a fire flame (burning torch) to burn all those men (along with their houses) who had not yet left their houses for the Salât (in the mosques).”

(35) CHAPTER. Two or more than two persons are considered as a group (for the congregational prayers).

658. Narrated Mâlik bin Huwairith: The Prophet said (to two persons), “Whenever As-Salât (the prayer) time becomes due, you should pronounce Adhân and then Iqâma and the older of you should lead the prayer.”
(36) CHAPTER. (The reward of a person) who waits for As-Salāt (the prayer) in the mosque and the superiority of mosques.

659. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The angels keep on asking for Allah’s Blessing and Forgiveness for anyone of you as long as he is at his Musallā (praying place) and does not do Hadāth (passes wind). The angels say, ‘O Allah! Forgive him and be Merciful to him.’ Each one of you is in Salāt as long as he is waiting for the Salāt and nothing but Salāt detains him from going to his family.”

660. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allah will give shade to seven, on the Day when there will be no shade but His. (These seven persons are:) (1) a just ruler, (2) a youth who has been brought up in the worship of Allah (i.e. worships Allah Alone sincerely from his childhood), (3) a man whose heart is attached to the mosques [i.e., who offers the five compulsory congregational Salāt (prayers) in the mosques], (4) two persons who love each other only for Allah’s sake and they meet and part in Allah’s Cause only, (5) a man who refuses the call of a charming woman of noble birth for illegal sexual intercourse with her and says: I am afraid of Allah, (6) a man who gives charitable gifts so secretly that his left hand does not know what his right hand has given (i.e. nobody knows how much he has given in charity), and (7) a person who remembers Allah in seclusion and his eyes become flooded with tears.”

661. Narrated Humaid: Anas was asked, “Did Allah’s Messenger ﷺ wear a ring?” He said, “Yes. Once he delayed the ‘Ishâ’ prayer till mid-night and after the prayer, he faced us and said, ‘The people has offered Salât and have slept and you remained in Salât as long as you waited for it.’” Anas added, “As if I were just now observing the glitter of his ring.”

(37) CHAPTER. The superiority of going to the mosque (every) morning and in the afternoon and evening [for the congregational Salât (prayers)].

662. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Allâh will prepare for him who goes to the mosque (every) morning and in the afternoon [for the congregational Salât (prayer)] an honourable place in Paradise with good hospitality for (what he has done) every morning and afternoon goings.

(38) CHAPTER. No Salât (prayer) (is to be offered) except the compulsory Salât after the Iqâma has been pronounced for that compulsory Salât.

663. Narrated Mâlik bin Buhaina: Allâh’s Messenger passed by or saw a man offering two Rak’â after the Iqâma (had been pronounced). When Allâh’s Messenger completed the Salât (prayer), the people gathered around him (the Prophet) or that man and Allâh’s Messenger said to him (protestingly), “Are there four Rak’â in Fajr prayer? Are there four Rak’â in Fajr prayer?”
(39) CHAPTER. The limit set for a patient to attend the congregational Ṣalāt (prayer)?

664. Narrated Al-Aswad, "We were with ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها discussing the regularity of offering ʿĀṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) and dignifying it. She said, 'When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ fell sick with his fatal illness and when the time of ʿĀṣ-Ṣalāt became due and ʿĀdhān was pronounced, he said, 'Tell Abū Bakr to lead the people in Ṣalāt (prayer).’ He was told that Abū Bakr was a soft-hearted man and would not be able to lead the Ṣalāt in his place. The Prophet ﷺ gave the same order again but, he was given the same reply. He gave the order for the third time and said, 'You (women) are the companions of Yūsuf (Joseph). Tell Abū Bakr to lead the Ṣalāt.’ So, Abū Bakr came out to lead the Ṣalāt. In the meantime the condition of the Prophet ﷺ improved a bit and he came out with the help of two men, one on each side. As if I was observing his legs dragging on the ground owing to the..."
discomfort. Abū Bakr wanted to retreat but the Prophet ﷺ beckoned him to remain at his place and the Prophet ﷺ was brought till he sat beside Abū Bakr.” Al-A‘mash was asked, “Was the Prophet ﷺ offering prayers and Abū Bakr was following him, and were the people following Abū Bakr in that Salāt,” Al-A‘mash replied in the affirmative with a nod of his head.

Abū Mu‘awiyya said, “The Prophet ﷺ was sitting on the left side of Abū Bakr who was offering prayers while standing.”

665. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: When the Prophet ﷺ became seriously ill and his disease aggravated, he asked for permission from his wives to be nursed in my house and he was allowed. He came out with the help of two men while his legs were dragging on the ground. He was between Al-‘Abbās and another man.”

‘Ubaid-Ullāh said, “I told Ibn ‘Abbās what ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها had narrated and he said, ‘Do you know who was the (second) man whose name ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها did not mention?’ I said, ‘No.’ Ibn ‘Abbās said, ‘He was ‘Ali bin Abī Ṭalib’.”

(40) CHAPTER. It is permissible to pray at one’s dwelling during rain or if there is a genuine excuse.

666. Narrated Nāfi’: Once, on a very cold and stormy night, Ibn ‘Umar pronounced the Adhān for the Salāt (prayer) and then said, “Offer prayers in your homes.” He (Ibn ‘Umar) added, “On very cold and rainy nights Allah’s Messenger used to order the Mu’ādh-dhin to say, ‘Offer prayers in your homes’."

667. Narrated Maḥmüd bin Rabī’ Al-Anṣārī: ‘Ibīn bin Malik used to lead his people (tribe) in prayer and he was a blind man, he said to Allah’s Messenger, “O Allah’s Messenger! At times it is dark and flood water is flowing (in the valley) and I am a blind man, so please offer prayers at a place in my house so that I can take it as a Musalla (praying place).” So, Allah’s Messenger went to his house and said, “Where do you like me to pray?” ‘Ibīn pointed to a place in his house and Allah’s Messenger offered the prayer there.

(41) CHAPTER. Can the Imam offer the Salāt (prayer) with only those who are present (for the prayer)? And can he deliver a Khutba (religious talk) on Friday if it is raining?

668. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Al-Ḥārith: Ibn ‘Abbās addressed us on a (rainy and) muddy day and when the Mu‘adh-dhīn said, “Haiya ‘ala-Salāh [Come for As-Salāt (the prayer)].” Ibn ‘Abbās ordered him to say, “Offer prayers in your Ar-Raizāl (homes).” The people began to look at one another with surprise as if they did not like it. Ibn ‘Abbās said, “It seems that you thought ill of it but no doubt it was done by one who was better than I (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ). It (As-Salāt) is a strict order and I disliked to bring you out.”

In another narration Ibn ‘Abbās narrated the same as above but he said, “I did not like to make you sinful (in refraining from coming to the mosque) and to come (to the mosque) covered with mud up to the knees.”

669. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khūdri: A cloud came and it rained till the roof (of the mosque) started leaking, and in those days the roof used to be of the branches of date-palms. Iqāma was pronounced and I saw Allah’s Messenger ﷺ prostrating in water and mud and even I saw the mark of mud on his forehead.

670. Narrated Anas bin Sirīn: I heard Anas saying, “A man from Anṣār said to the Prophet ﷺ, ‘I cannot offer As-Salāt (the prayer) with you (in congregation).’ He was a very fat man and... he prepared a meal for the Prophet ﷺ and invited him to his house. He spread out a mat for the Prophet ﷺ, and washed one of its sides with water, and the Prophet ﷺ offered two Rak'ā prayers on it.” A man from the family of Al-Jarild asked, “Did the Prophet ﷺ used to offer the Ẓuḥūr (forenoon) prayer?” Anas said, “I did not see him offering the Ẓuḥūr prayer except on that day.”

(42) CHAPTER. (What should one do) if the meal has been served and Iqāma has been pronounced for As-Ṣalāt (the prayer).

And Ibn ‘Umar used to start with the supper first. Abu Ad-Dardã’ said, “It is a sign of comprehension (of a person) to fulfil or turn to his needs first so as to offer prayer attentively with a clear mind.”

671. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If supper is served, and Iqāma is pronounced one should start with the supper.”

672. Narrated Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If the supper is served, start having it before offering the Maghrib prayer and do not be hasty in finishing your supper.”

is served for anyone of you and the Iqâma is pronounced, start with the supper and don't be in haste (and carry on eating) till you finish it.” If food (supper) was served for Ibn ‘Umar and Iqâma was pronounced, he never came to the prayer till he finished it (i.e., the food) in spite of the fact that he heard the recitation (of the Qur’ân) by the Imâm (in the prayer).

674. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar Râhiim Allâhi ‘Arhamhu:
The Iqâmat-al-fajr said, “If anyone of you is having his meals, he should not hurry up till he is satisfied even if the Salât (prayer) has been started.”

(43) CHAPTER. When the Imâm is called for As-Salât (the prayer) while he has in his hands something to eat.

675. Narrated Ja’far bin ‘Amr bin Umaiyya: My father said, “I saw Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ eating a piece of meat from the shoulder of a sheep and he was called for As-Salât (the prayer). He stood up, put down the knife and offered Salât (prayers) but did not perform ablution.”

(44) CHAPTER. If somebody was busy with his domestic work and Iqâma was pronounced and then he came out [for offering the Salât (prayer)].
676. Narrated Al-Aswad that he asked ‘Aishah, “What did the Prophet ﷺ use to do in his house?” She replied, “He used to keep himself busy serving his family and when it was the time for As-Salāt (the prayer), he would go for it.”

677. Narrated Ayyūb: Abū Qilāba said, “Mālik bin Ḥuwairith came to this mosque of ours and said, ‘I offer As-Salāt (the prayers) in front of you and my aim is not (to lead) the Salāt (prayer) but to show you the way in which the Prophet ﷺ used to offer Salāt.’” I asked Abū Qilāba, “How did he use to offer Salāt?” He replied, (The Prophet ﷺ used to pray) like this Sheikh of ours, and the Sheikh used to sit for a while after the prostration before getting up after the first Rak‘a’.

(46) CHAPTER. The religious learned men are entitled to precedence in leading the Salāt (prayers).

678. Narrated Abū Mūsa, “The Prophet ﷺ became sick and when his disease aggravated, he said, ‘Tell Abū Bakr to lead the people in the Salāt (prayer).’ ‘Aishah ﷺ said, “He is a soft-hearted man and would not be able to lead the Salāt in your place.” The Prophet ﷺ said again, “Tell Abū Bakr to lead the people in Ṣalāt. You are the companions of Yūsuf (Joseph).” So a messenger went to Abū Bakr (with that order) and he led the people in Ṣalāt in the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ.

679. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها, the Mother of the believers: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ in his illness said, “Tell Abū Bakr to lead the people in Ṣalāt (prayer).” I said to him, “If Abū Bakr stands in your place, the people would not hear him owing to his (excessive) weeping. So please order ‘Umar to lead the Ṣalāt.” ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها added, I said to Ḥafṣa, “Say to him: If Abū Bakr should lead the people in the Ṣalāt in your place, the people would not be able to hear him owing to his weeping; so please order ‘Umar to lead the Ṣalāt.” Ḥafṣa did so but Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Keep quiet! Indeed you (women) are the companions of Yūsuf (Joseph). Tell Abū Bakr to lead the people in the Ṣalāt.”

Ḥafṣa said to ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها, “I never got anything good from you.”

680. Narrated Az-Zuhri: Anas bin Mālik Al-Ansāri رضي الله عنه told me, “Abū Bakr used to lead the people in Ṣalāt (prayer) during the fatal illness of the Prophet until it was Monday. When the people aligned (in rows) for Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer), the Prophet lifted the curtain of his house and started looking at us and he was standing at that time. His face was (glittering) like a page of the Qur'an and he smiled cheerfully. We were about to be put to trial for the pleasure of seeing the Prophet. Abū Bakr retreated to join the row as he thought that the Prophet would lead Aṣ-Ṣalāt. The Prophet beckoned us to complete the Ṣalāt and he let the curtain fall. On the same day he died."

681. Narrated Anas: The Prophet did not come out for three days. The people stood for Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) and Abū Bakr went ahead to lead Aṣ-Ṣalāt. (In the meantime) the Prophet caught hold of the curtain and lifted it. When the face of the Prophet appeared, we had never seen a scene more pleasing than the face of the Prophet as it appeared then. The Prophet beckoned to Abū Bakr to lead the people in Aṣ-Ṣalāt and then let the curtain fall. We did not see him (again) till he died.
682. Narrated Ḥamṣa ʾAbdullāḥ: My father said, “When Allāh’s Messenger became seriously ill, he was told about ʾĀṣ-Šalāt (the prayer). He said, ‘Tell Abū Bakr to lead the people in ʾĀṣ-Šalāt.’ ʿĀishah ʾAbdullāḥ said, ‘Abū Bakr is a soft-hearted man and he would be over-powered by his weeping if he recited the Qurʾān.’ He ʾAbdullāḥ said to them, ‘Tell him (Abū Bakr) to lead ʾĀṣ-Šalāt.’ The same reply was given to him. He said again, ‘Tell him to lead the prayer. You (women) are the companions of Yūsuf (Joseph).’”

(47) CHAPTER. Whoever stood by the side of the Imām because of a genuine cause [in ʾSalāt (prayer)].

683. Narrated ʿUrwa’s father ʾAbdullāḥ: ʾĀishah ʾAbdullāḥ said, “Allāh’s Messenger ʾ ordered Abū Bakr to lead the people in ʾĀṣ-Šalāt (the prayer) during his illness and so he led them in prayer.” ʿUrwa, a subnarrator, added, “Allāh’s Messenger ʾ felt a bit relieved and came out and Abū Bakr was leading the people (in ʾSalāt). When Abū Bakr saw the Prophets, he retreated but the Prophet ʾ beckoned him to remain there. Allāh’s Messenger ʾ sat beside Abū Bakr. Abū Bakr was following the ʾSalāt of Allāh’s Messenger ʾ and the people were following the ʾSalāt (prayer) of Abū Bakr.”
(48) CHAPTER. If somebody is leading the Salāt (prayer) and (in the meanwhile) the first (usual) Imām comes, the Salāt is valid whether the former retreats or does not retreat.

This was narrated by 'Aishah who heard this from the Prophet ﷺ.

684.Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd As-Sa'ūdī ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger went to establish peace among Bani ‘Amr bin ‘Auf. In the meantime the time of As-Salāt (the prayer) was due and the Mu'adh-dhīn went to Abū Bakr and said, “Will you lead the Salāt (prayer), so that I may pronounce the Iqāma?” Abū Bakr replied in the affirmative and led the Salāt. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ came while the people were still offering Salāt and he entered the rows of the praying people till he stood in the (first row). The people clapped their hands. Abū Bakr never glanced sideways in his Salāt but when the people continued clapping, Abū Bakr looked and saw Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ beckoned him to stay at his place. Abū Bakr raised his hands and thanked Allah for that order of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and then he retreated till he reached the first row. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ went forward and led the Salāt. When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ finished the Salāt, he said, “O Abū Bakr! What prevented you from staying when I ordered you to do so?” Abū Bakr replied, “How can Ibn Abī Quṭāfa (Abū Bakr) dare to lead the Salāt in the presence of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ?” Then Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Why did you clap so much? If something happens to anyone during his Salāt he should say Subḥān Allāh(1). If he says so he will be attended to, and clapping is for women.”

(49) CHAPTER. If some people are equally proficient in the recitation of the Qur'ān (and religious knowledge), the oldest of them should lead Aš-Šalāt (the prayer).

685. Narrated Mālik bin Ḥuwairith: We went to the Prophet ﷺ and we were all young men and stayed with him for about twenty nights. The Prophet ﷺ was very merciful. He said, “When you return home, impart religious teachings to your families and tell them to offer perfectly such and such a Salāt (prayer) at such and such time and such and such a Salāt at such and such a time. And at the time of Aš-Šalāt (the prayer) one of you should pronounce the Adhān and the oldest of you should lead the Salāt.”

(50) CHAPTER. If the Imām visited some people and led them in Salāt (prayer).

686. Narrated Iltbān bin Mālik Al-Ansāri

(1) (H.684) To honour Allāh and make Him free from all that (unsuitable evil things) that are ascribed to Him (or glorified be Allāh).
The Prophet (ﷺ) came to my house and asked permission for entering and I allowed him. He asked, “Where do you like me to offer Salāt (prayer) in your house?” I pointed to a place which I liked. He (ﷺ) stood up for Salāt and we aligned behind him and he finished the Salāt with Taslīm and we did the same.

(51) CHAPTER. The Imām is appointed to be followed.

The Prophet (ﷺ) in his fatal illness led the people in Salāt (prayer) while he was sitting (and the people were standing). Ibn Masʿūd said, “If anyone raises his head (while in prostration) before the Imām, he must prostrate again and must remain in prostration for a period equal to that he has lost by lifting his head before the Imām, and then he should follow the Imām.” And Al-Ḥasan said, “A person who is offering two Rakʿā Salāt with the Imām but because of the rush of people is unable to prostrate, then he should prostrate twice for the last Rakʿā and make up for his Rakʿā with its prostrations. And if somebody forgets to prostrate and stands up then he should prostrate.”

687. Narrated 'Ubaid-ullāh bin 'Abdullāh bin 'Utba: I went to 'Āishah Rضي الله عنها and asked her to describe to me the illness of Allāh’s Messenger (ﷺ). 'Āishah Rضي الله عنها said, “Yes (I will tell you). The Prophet (ﷺ) became seriously ill and asked whether the people had offered the Salāt (prayer). We replied, ‘No, O Allāh’s Messenger! They are waiting for you.' He added, 'Put water for me in a trough.' 'Aishah added: 'We did so. He took a bath and tried to get up, but fainted. When he recovered, he again asked whether the people had offered the Salāt. We said, 'No, they are waiting for you. O Allāh's Messenger.' He again said, 'Put water in a trough for me.' He sat down and took a bath and tried to get up, but fainted again. Then he recovered and said, 'Have the people offered the Salāt?' We replied, 'No, they are waiting for you, O Allāh's Messenger.' He said, 'Put water for me in the trough.' Then he sat down and washed himself and tried to get up but he fainted. When he recovered, he asked, 'Have the people offered the Salāt?' We said, 'No, they are waiting for you, O Allāh's Messenger!' The people were in the mosque waiting for the Prophet ﷺ for the 'Ishā prayer. The Prophet ﷺ sent for Abū Bakr to lead the people in the Salāt. The messenger went to Abū Bakr and said, 'Allāh's Messenger orders you to lead the people in the Salāt.' Abū Bakr was a soft-hearted man, so he asked 'Umar to lead the Salāt but 'Umar replied, 'You are more rightful.' So Abū Bakr led the Salāt in those days. When the Prophet ﷺ felt a bit better, he came out for the Zuhr prayer with the help of two persons one of whom was Al-‘Abbās, while Abū Bakr was leading the people in the Salāt. When Abū Bakr saw him (the Prophet ﷺ), he wanted to retreat but the Prophet ﷺ beckoned him not to do so and asked them to make him sit beside Abū Bakr and they did so. Abū Bakr was following the Prophet ﷺ (in the Salāt) and the people were following Abū Bakr. The Prophet ﷺ (offered Salāt) sitting."

‘Ubaid-ullāh added, “I went to ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās and asked him, 'Shall I tell you what 'Āishah ṭellah about the fatal illness of the Prophet?' Ibn 'Abbas said, 'Go ahead.' I told him her narration and he did not deny anything of it but asked whether 'Āishah ṭellah me the name of the second person (who helped the Prophet) along with Al-'Abbas. I said, 'No.' He said, 'He was ‘Ali (Ibn Abi Ṭalib).'

688. Narrated ‘Āishah ṭellah, the Mother of the believers: Allah’s Messenger, during his illness, offered Salāt (prayer) at his house while sitting; whereas some people offered Salāt behind him standing. The Prophet beckoned them to sit down. On completion of the Salāt, he said, “The Imām is to be followed: bow when he bows, raise up your heads (stand erect) when he raises up his head and when he says, ‘Sami Allahu liman-hān’ (Allah heard those who sent praises to Him) say then ‘Rabbanã wa laka’l-iamd’ (O our Lord! All the praises are for You), and if he (Imām) is (leading) the Salāt in sitting position, you should also offer Salāt like that.”(1)

(1) (H.688) The provision of this Hadīth has been abrogated by the last action of the Prophet [See Hadīth No.689 and Hadīth No.5658 - Vol.7 for taking the verdict].
689. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Once Allah's Messenger ﷺ rode a horse and fell down and the right side (of his body) was injured. He offered one of the Salãt (prayers) while sitting and we also offered Salãt behind him sitting. When he completed the Salãt, he said, “The Imãm is to be followed. Offer Salãt standing if he is offering the Salãt standing and bow when he bows; raise up when he raises up and if he says, ‘Sami’ Allãhu liman ëmãdah,’ say then, ‘Rabbana wa laka1-ëmãd’ and offer the Salãt sitting (all of you) if he is offering the Salãt sitting.”

Humaidi said: The statement of the Prophet ﷺ “Offer Salãt sitting, if he (Imãm) is offering the Salãt sitting” was said in his former illness (during his early life) but later on the Prophet ﷺ offered Salãt sitting (in the last illness) and the people offered Salãt standing behind him and the Prophet ﷺ did not order them to sit. So one has to follow the last action of the Prophet ﷺ [Please see Hadith No.5658].

(52) CHAPTER. When should those who are behind the Imãm prostrate?

Anas said, “Prostrate when the Imãm prostrates.”

690. Narrated Al-Barã’ (and he was not a liar): When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Sami’ Allãhu liman ëmãdah” none of us bent his back (for prostrations) till the Prophet ā ā prostrated and then we would prostrate after him.

(53) CHAPTER. The sin of the one who raises his head before the Imām (raises his head).

691. Narrated Abū Hurairah ٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ: The Prophet ā ā said, “Isn’t he who raises his head before the Imām afraid that Allāh may transform his head into that of a donkey? Or his figure (face) into that of a donkey?” [See Hadith No.717 and its footnote].

(54) CHAPTER. A slave or a manumitted slave can lead the Salāt (prayer).

(‘Aishah ٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنَّهَا was led in the Salāt (prayer) by her slave Dhakwān who used to recite from the Mushaf [the written Qur’ān (not from memory)]. Can an illegitimate boy, a bedouin or a boy who has not reached the age of puberty lead the Salāt? (It is permissible according to) the statement of the Prophet ā ā that the Imām should be a person who knows the Qur’ān more than the others.

692. Narrated Ibn ʻUmar ٪ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُما: When the earliest emigrants came to Al-‘Uṣba, a place in Qubţ, before the arrival of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وآله وسلم, Sālih, the slave of Ābu Ḥudhayfah, who knew the Qur’ān more than the others, used to lead them in Ṣalāt (prayer).

693. Narrated Anas: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وآله وسلم said, “Listen and obey (your chief) even if an Ethiopian whose head is like a raisin were made your chief.”

(55) CHAPTER. If the Imām does not offer the Ṣalāt (prayer) perfectly and the followers offer it perfectly.

694. Narrated Ābu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger صلی الله علیه وآله وسلم said, “If they (Imām) lead the Ṣalāt (prayer) correctly then they and you will receive the rewards, but if they make a mistake (in the Ṣalāt), then you will receive the reward for the Ṣalāt and the sin will be theirs.”

(56) CHAPTER. Offering prayers behind a man who is a victim of Al-Fītān (trials and afflictions) or a heretic.

Al-Ḥasan said, “You can offer prayers behind that Imām and the sin of heresy will be against him.”

695. Narrated ‘Ubaid-Ullāh bin ʿAdī bin Khiyar: I went to ʿUthmān bin ʿAffān رضی الله عنه: قال: حدثنا أنس بن عباد، عن عبيد الله، عن نافع، عن ابن عمر قال: لما قُلْنَا المهاجرون الأولون على الصحابة - موضع بِطِيع - قال مقدِّم رسول الله ﷺ كان يُؤمَّن سالِمُ مُؤلَّف أبي حذيفة. وكان أكثرهم من أئمَّة

694 – حدثنا الفضل بن سهل قال: حدثنا الحسن بن موسى الأشْبَه قال: حدثني عبد الرحمن بن عبد الله بن دينار، عن زيد بن أسلم، عن عطاء بن أبي سهَّوات، عن أبي هريرة أن رسول الله ﷺ قال: «إِذْ يُؤَمِّنُوكُمْ فَلْكُمْ وَإِذْ يُؤَمِّنُوا فَلَكُمْ وَإِذْ أَصَابُوا فَلَكُمْ وَإِذْ أَخَطَّوا فَلَكُمْ وَإِذْ أَخَطَّوا».

while he was besieged, and said to him,
“You are the chief of all Muslims in general and you see what has befallen you. We are led in the Ṣalāt (prayer) by a leader of Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions etc.) and we are afraid of being sinful in following him.”

‘Uthmān said, “As-Ṣalāt (the prayers) is the best of all deeds so when the people do good deeds do the same with them and when they do bad deeds, avoid those bad deeds.” Az-Zuhri said, “In our opinion one should not offer Ṣalāt behind an effeminate person unless there is no alternative.”

696. Narrated Anas bin Mālik
The Prophet ☪ said to Abū-Dhar, “Listen and obey (your chief) even if he is an Ethiopian with a head like a raisin.”

(57) CHAPTER. To stand on the right side of the Imam on the same line if only two persons (counting the Imam) are offering Ṣalāt (prayer) in congregation.

697. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās:
Once I passed the night in the house of my aunt Maimūna. Allāh’s Messenger ☪ offered the ‘Ishā’ prayer and then came to the house and offered four Rakʿā prayers and slept.
Later on, he woke up and stood for the Ṣalāt (prayer) and I stood on his left side. He drew me to his right and offered five Rakʿā and then two Rakʿā. He then slept till I heard him snoring (or heard his breath sounds). Afterwards he went out for the (morning) \textit{Ṣalāt} (prayer).

(58) \textbf{CHAPTER. If a man stood on the left side of the \emph{Imām} and the \emph{Imām} drew him to his right side, then the \emph{Ṣalāt} of none of them would be invalid.}

698. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: One night I slept at the house of (my aunt) Maimūna and the Prophet \textsuperscript{a} was there on that night. He performed ablution and stood up for the \emph{Ṣalāt} (prayer). I joined him and stood on his left side but he drew me to his right and offered thirteen \textit{Rakā} and then slept till I heard his breath sounds. And whenever he slept, he used to breathe with audible sounds. The \textit{Mu’adh-dhin} came to the Prophet \textsuperscript{a} and he went out and offered \emph{Ṣalāt} (the morning prayer) without repeating the ablution.

(59) \textbf{CHAPTER. If the \emph{Imām} has not had the intention of leading the prayer and then some persons join him and he leads them.}

699. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: Once I passed the night in the house of my aunt Maimūna. The Prophet \textsuperscript{a} stood for the night prayer and I joined him and stood on his left side but he drew me to his right by holding me by the head.
(60) CHAPTER. If the Imam prolongs the Salát (prayer) and somebody has an urgent work or need and so he leaves the congregation and offers Salát alone.

700. Narrated Mu‘ādh bin Jabal رضي الله عنه: I used to offer the ‘Ishã prayer with the Prophet ﷺ and then go to lead my people in the prayer.

701. Narrated ‘Amr: Jãbir bin ‘Abdullãh رضي الله عنه said, “Mu‘ādh bin Jabal رضي الله عنه used to offer Salát (prayer) with the Prophet ﷺ and then go to lead his people in Salát. Once he led the ‘Ishã‘ prayer and recited Sûrat Al-Baqarah. Somebody left the Salát and Mu‘ādh criticized him. The news reached the Prophet ﷺ and he said to Mu‘ādh, ‘You are putting the people to trial,’ and repeated it thrice (or said something similar) and ordered him to recite two medium Sûrah of Al-Mufassal.”(1) (‘Amr said that he had forgotten the names of those Sûrah).

(61) CHAPTER. The shortening of the Qiyâm (standing) by the Imam [in Salát (prayer)] but performing the bowings and the prostrations perfectly.

(1) (H.701) Al–Mufassal or Al-Mufassalât are the Sûrah starting from Sûrah No. 50 till the end of the Qur’ân, i.e. Sûrah No. 114.
702. Narrated Abu Mas'ud: A man came and said, "O Allah's Messenger! I keep away from the (early) morning prayer (Fajr prayer) only because so-and-so prolongs the Salât (prayer) when he leads us in it." The narrator said, "I never heard Allah's Messenger more furious in giving advice than he was at that time. He then said, "Some of you make people dislike good deeds (the Salât). So, whoever among you leads the people in Salât should shorten it because among them are the weak, the old and the one who is in a state that requires urgent relief."

(62) CHAPTER. When offering Salât (prayer) alone, one can prolong the Salât as much as one wishes.

703. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "If anyone of you leads the people in the Salât (prayer), he should shorten it, for amongst them are the weak, the sick and the old; and if anyone among you offer prayers alone then he may prolong (the prayer) as much as he wishes."

(63) CHAPTER. Complaining against one's Imam if he prolongs the prayer.

Abu Usaid said, "O my son! You have prolonged the prayer."

704. Narrated Abu Mas'ud: A man came and said, "O Allah's Messenger! I keep away from the early morning prayer (Fajr prayer) because so-and-so (Imam) prolongs it too much." Allah's Messenger became furious and I had never seen him more furious than he was on that day. The Prophet said, "O people! Some of you make others hate or dislike the good deeds [e.g., the Salāt (prayers etc.)] so whoever becomes an Imām he should shorten (the prayer), as behind him are the weak, the old and the one who is in a state that requires urgent relief.

705. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh Al-Anṣārī: Once a man was driving two Nādiḥa (camels used for agricultural purposes) and night had fallen. He found Mu‘ādh offering Salāt (prayers) so he made his camel kneel and joined Mu‘ādh in Salāt. The latter recited Sūrat Al-Baqarah or Sūrat An-Nisā', (so) the man left the Salāt and went away. When he came to know that Mu‘ādh had criticised him, he went to the Prophet ﷺ and complained against Mu‘ādh. The Prophet ﷺ said thrice, “O Mu‘ādh! Are you putting the people to trial? It would have been better if you had recited Sabbih Isma Rabbikal-a’la (Sūrah 87), Waš-Shamsi wadu-hāhā (Sūrah 91), or Wal-laili Idhā yaghsha (Sūrah 92)”, for the old, the weak and the one who is in a state that requires urgent relief offers Salāt behind you.”

Jābir said that Mu‘ādh recited Sūrat Al-Baqarah in the ‘Iṣhā’ prayer.
(64) CHAPTER. The shortening and perfection of the prayer (by the Imām).

706. Narrated Anas: The Prophet used to offer a short Salāt (prayer) (in congregation) but used to offer it in a perfect manner.

707. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Abī Qatāda: My father said, 'The Prophet said, 'When I stand for As-Salāt (the prayer), I intend to prolong it but on hearing the cries of a child, I cut it short, as I dislike to trouble the child's mother'."

708. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: I never offered prayers behind any Imām a Salāt (prayer) lighter and more perfect than that behind the Prophet; and he used to cut it short whenever he heard the cries of a child lest he should put the child's mother to trial.

709. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet said, 'When I start As-Salāt (the prayer) I intend to prolong it, but on hearing the cries of a child, I cut short the Salāt (prayer) because I know that the cries of the child will incite its mother's passions."

710. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Whenever I start Ay-Salāt (the prayer) I intend to prolong it, but on hearing the cries of a child, I cut it short because I know that the cries of the child will incite its mother's passions."

(66) CHAPTER. If one offers Salāt (prayer) and then leads the people in Salāt.

711. Narrated Jābir binʿAbdullāh رضي الله عنه: Mu‘ādh used to offer Salāt (prayer) with the Prophet ﷺ and then go and lead his people (tribe) in the Salāt.

(67) CHAPTER. One who repeats the Takbir (Allāhu Akbar) of the Imām so that the people may hear it.

712. Narrated ‘Aīshah رضي الله عنها: When the Prophet ﷺ became ill in his fatal illness, someone came to inform him about Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer), and the Prophet ﷺ told him to tell Abū Bakr to lead the people in the Ṣalāt (prayer). I said, “Abū Bakr is a soft-hearted man and if he stands for the Ṣalāt in your place, he would weep and would not be able to recite (the Qur'an).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Tell Abū Bakr to lead the Ṣalāt.” I said the same as before. He ﷺ (repeated the same order and) on the third or the fourth time he said, “You (women) are the companions of Yusūf (Joseph). Tell Abū Bakr to lead the Ṣalāt.” So Abū Bakr led the Ṣalāt and meanwhile the Prophet ﷺ felt better and came out with the help of two men; as if I see him just now dragging his feet on the ground. When Abū Bakr saw him, he tried to retreat but the Prophet ﷺ beckoned him to carry on. Abū Bakr retreated a bit and the Prophet ﷺ sat on his (left) side. Abū Bakr was repeating the Takbīr (Allāhu Akbar) of Allāh's Messenger for the people to hear.

(68) CHAPTER. If a person follows the Imām and the others follow that person (then it is all right).

The Prophet ﷺ said, “You should follow me and the people behind you should follow you (in the prayers).”

713. Narrated 'Aishah: When Allāh's Messenger ﷺ became seriously ill, Bilāl came to inform him about Ṣalāt (prayer). He ﷺ said, “Tell Abū Bakr to lead the people in the Ṣalāt.” I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Abū Bakr is a soft-hearted man and if he stands in your place, he would not be able to make the people hear him. Will you order ‘Umar (to lead the Salāt)?’ The Prophet ﷺ said, “Tell Abū Bakr to lead the people in the Salāt.” Then I said to Hafṣa, “Tell him, Abū Bakr is a soft-hearted man and if he stands in his place, he would not be able to make the people hear him. Would you order ‘Umar to lead the Salāt (prayer)?” Hafṣa did so. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Indeed you (women) are the companions of Yusuf (Joseph). Tell Abū Bakr to lead the people in the Salāt (prayer).” So Abū Bakr stood for the Salāt (prayer). In the meantime Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ felt better and came out with the help of two persons; and both of his legs were dragging on the ground till he entered the mosque. When Abū Bakr heard him coming, he tried to retreat but Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ beckoned him (to carry on). So, the Prophet ﷺ came and sat by the left side of Abu Bakr. Abū Bakr was offering Salāt (prayer) while standing and Allāh’s Messenger was leading the Salāt (prayer) while sitting. Abū Bakr was following the Prophet ﷺ and the people were following Abū Bakr [in the Salāt (prayer)].

(69) CHAPTER. Can the Imam depend on the people’s saying if he is in doubt (about a certain matter)?

714. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Once Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ offered two Rak’ā (instead of four) and finished his prayer. Dhul-Yadain asked him whether the (number of Rak’ā in the) Salāt has been reduced or he had forgotten? Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ asked the people whether Dhul-Yadain was telling the truth. The people replied in the affirmative. Then Allah's Messenger ﷺ stood up, offered the remaining two Rak'ā and then finished his Salāt with Taslim and then said 'Allāhu Akbar' and performed two prostrations (of Sahw) like ordinary prostrations or a bit longer.

715. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ offered two Rak'ā of Zuhr prayer (instead of four) and he was told that he had offered two Rak'ā only. Then he offered two more Rak'ā and finished them with the Taslim followed by two prostrations (of Sahw).

(70) CHAPTER. If the Imam weeps in As-Salāt (the prayers) (will his Salāt be valid)?

‘Abdullāh bin Shaddād said, “I heard ‘Umar weeping while I was in the last row and ‘Umar was reciting: ‘...I only complain of my grief and sorrow to Allah...’” (V.12:86)

716. Narrated ‘Aishah, the Mother of the faithful believers: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in his last illness said, “Tell Abū Bakr to lead the people in the Salāt (prayer).” I said, “If Abū Bakr stood in your place, he would not be able to make the people hear him because of (his) weeping. So please order ‘Umar to lead the people in the Salāt.” He said, “Tell Abū Bakr to lead the people in As-Salāt (the prayer).” I said to Hafṣa, “Say to him, ‘Abū Bakr is a soft-

(71) باب نصيحة الصوف عند الإقامة وبدها

717. نARRATED An-Nu'man bin 'Bashir رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Straighten your rows or Allâh will alter your faces." (1) (See Hadîth No. 691)

718. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Straighten your rows, for I see you from behind my back."

(72) باب إقالة الإمام على الناس

(1) (H.717) This is a severe warning, that if you do not straighten your rows [in Salât (prayers)], Allâh may change your faces to that of an animal, e.g., donkey etc., or make them like the backs of necks etc. [See Fath Al-Bârî, Vol.2, P.349].
his followers while straightening the rows.

719. Narrated Anas bin Malik

Once the Iqāma was pronounced and Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ faced us and said, “Straighten your rows and stand closer together, for I see you from behind my back.”

(73) CHAPTER. The first row.

720. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Martyrs are those who die because of drowning, plague, an abdominal disease, or of being buried alive by a falling building.”

721. And then he added, “If the people knew (the reward for) the Zuhr prayer in its early time, they would race for it. If they knew (the reward for) the ‘Isha’ and the Fajr prayers in congregation, they would join them even if they had to crawl. If they knew (the reward for) the first row, they would draw lots for it.”

(74) CHAPTER. The straightening of the rows is amongst those obligatory and good things which make your Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) a correct and perfect one.

722. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “The Imām is (appointed) to be followed. So do not differ from him, bow when he bows, and say ‘Rabbanā lakal ḥam’d’ if he says ‘Sami’ Allahu liman hamida'; and if he prostrates, prostrate (after him), and if he offers Salât (prayer) sitting, offer Salât sitting all together, and straighten the rows for Salât, as the straightening of the rows is amongst those things which make your Salât a correct and perfect one.” (See Hadîth No.717).

723. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Straighten your rows as the straightening of rows is essential for Iqâmat-as-Salât (a perfect and correct prayer).”

(75) CHAPTER. The sin of a person who does not complete the rows (who is out of alignment) for the prayer.

724. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: I arrived at Al-Madina and was asked whether I found any change since the days of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ I said, “I have not found any change except that you do not straighten the rows for the Salât (prayer) (i.e., you do not stand in alignment in your Salât).”

(76) CHAPTER. To stand shoulder to shoulder and foot to foot in the row.

And An-Nu‘mân bin Bashîr said, “I saw that every one of us used to put his heel with the heel of his companion.”
725. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, "Straighten your rows for I see you from behind my back." Anas added, "Everyone of us used to put his shoulder with the shoulder of his companion and his foot with the foot of his companion."

(77) CHAPTER. If a person stands by the left side of the Imam, and the Imam draws him to the right from behind, his Salat (prayer) is correct.

726. Narrated Ibn 'Abbás: I offered Salat (prayer) with the Prophet one night and stood on his left side. Allah's Messenger caught hold of my head from behind and drew me to his right and then offered the Salat and slept. Later the Mu'adh-dhin came and the Prophet stood up for Salat without performing ablution.

(78) CHAPTER. One woman can form a row.

727. Narrated Anas bin Malik: One night an orphan and I offered the prayers behind the Prophet in my house and my mother (Umm Sulaim) was standing behind us (by herself forming a row).

(79) CHAPTER. The right side of the mosque and the place to the right of the Imam.

728. Narrated Ibn 'Abbás: One night I stood to the left of the Prophet.
in the Salât (prayer) but he caught hold of me by the hand or by the shoulder (arm) till he made me stand on his right and beckoned with his hand (for me) to go from behind (him). (Al-Kashmahini-Fath Al-Bâri).

(80) CHAPTER. If there is a wall or a Sutra between the Imãm and followers.

Al-Hasan said, “There is no harm in offering Salât (prayer) if there is a river between you and the Imãm.” Abû Mijlaz said, “One can follow the Imãm even if there is a road or a wall between the Imãm and followers provided the Takbîr (Allâhu Akbar) is audible.”

729. Narrated ‘Aishah : Allâh’s Messenger used to offer Salât (prayer) in his room at night. As the wall of the room was short (low), the people saw him and some of them stood up to follow him in the Salât (prayer). In the morning they spread the news. The following night the Prophet stood for the Salât (prayer) and the people followed him. This went on for two or three nights. Thereupon Allâh’s Messenger did not stand for the Salât (prayer) the following night, and did not come out. In the morning, the people asked him about it. He replied, that he was afraid that the night prayer might become compulsory.
(81) CHAPTER. The night prayer.

730. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet had a mat which he used to spread during the day and use as a curtain at night. So a number of people gathered at night facing it and offered Salāt (prayer) behind him.

731. Narrated Zaid bin Thābit: Allāh’s Messenger made a small room in the month of Ramadan (Sa‘īd said, “I think that Zaid bin Thābit said that it was made of a mat.”) and he offered Salāt (prayer) there for a few nights, and so some of his Companions offered prayers behind him. When he came to know about it, he kept on sitting. In the morning, he went out to them and said, “I have seen and understood what you did. O people, you should offer Salāt (prayer) in your houses, for the best Salāt (prayer) of a person is that which he offers in his house except the compulsory congregational Salāt (prayer).”

[Chapters about the characteristics of the Salāt (prayer)].
(82) CHAPTER. The necessity of saying the Takbir, i.e., Allahū Akbar (Allāh is the Most Great) and the commencement of As-Ṣalat (the prayer).

732. Narrated Anas bin Mālik Al-Anṣārī: Allāh’s Messenger ṣṣ rode a horse and fell down and the right side of his body was injured. On that day he offered one of the Salāt (prayers) sitting and we also offered Salāt behind him sitting. When the Prophet ṣṣ finished the Salāt with Taslīm, he said, “The Imām is to be followed(1) and if he offers Salāt standing then pray standing, and bow when he bows, and raise your heads when he raises his head; prostrate when he prostrates; and if he says ‘Sami’ Allāhu liman ḥamīda’, you should say ‘Rabbanā wa lakal ḥamda’.”

733. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allāh’s Messenger ṣṣ fell from a horse and got injured, so he led the Salāt (prayer) sitting and we also offered Salāt sitting. When he completed the Salāt he said, “The Imām is to be followed; if he says Takbir then say Takbir, bow if he bows; raise your heads when he raises his head, when he says, ‘Sami’ Allāhu liman ḥamīda’, say ‘Rabbanā wa lakal ḥamda’, and prostrate when he prostrates.”(2)

(1) (H.732) See Ahadith Nos.689 and 5658 for taking the verdict as being the last action of the Prophet. (The Prophet ṣṣ, led the Salāt (prayer) while sitting and the Muslims followed him while they were standing.

(2) (H.733) See the F.N. No.1.
734. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The Imãm is to be followed. Say the Takkîr when he says it; bow if he bows; if he says ‘Sami’ Allâhu liman hamida’, say ‘Rabbanâ wa lakal-hamd’, prostrate if he prostrates and pray sitting altogether if he offers the Šalât sitting.” (See the footnote of Hadîth No. 732)

(83) CHAPTER. To raise both hands on saying the first Takkîr simultaneously with opening the Šalât (prayer).

735. Narrated Sâlim bin ‘Abdullâh: My father said, “Allâh’s Messenger used to raise both his hands up to the level of his shoulders when opening Aš-Šalât (the prayer); and on saying the Takkîr for bowing. And on raising up his head from bowing he used to do the same and then say ‘Sami’ Allâhu liman hamida, Rabbanâ wa lakal-hamd.’ And he did not do that (i.e., raising his hands) in prostrations.”

(84) CHAPTER. To raise both hands while saying Takkîr [on opening Aš-Šalât (the prayer)], and while bowing and on raising up the head (after bowing).

736. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: I saw that whenever Allâh’s
Messenger used to raise both his hands up to the shoulders, and used to do the same on saying the Takbir for bowing and on raising his head from it and used to say ‘Samī’ Allāhu liman ḥamīdā’. But he did not do that (i.e., raising his hands) in prostrations.

737. Narrated Abū Qilāba: I saw Mālik bin Huwairīth saying Takbir and raising both his hands [on starting As-Salāt (the prayer)] and raising his hands on bowing and also on raising up his head after bowing. Mālik bin Huwairīth said, “Allāh’s Messenger did the same.”

(85) CHAPTER. To what level should one raise one’s hands?

In the presence of his companions Abū Ḥumaid said: “The Prophet raised his hands up to his shoulders.”

738. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: I saw Allāh’s Messenger opening As-Salāt (the prayer) with the Takbir and raising his hands to the level of his shoulders at the time of saying the Takbir, and on saying the Takbir for bowing he did the same; and when he said ‘Samī’ Allāhu liman ḥamīdā’, he did the same and then said, Rabbanā wa lakal-ḥamd. But he did not do the same on prostrating and on raising up the head from it.

(86) CHAPTER. To raise one’s hands after finishing the second Rak‘ā (on standing for the third Rak‘ā).

739. Narrated Nāfi‘: Whenever Ibn ‘Uma, رضي الله عنه, started Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) with Takbīr, he used to raise his hands, whenever he bowed, he used to raise his hands (before bowing) and also used to raise his hands on saying ‘Sami’Allahu liman ḥamīda’, and he used to do the same on rising from the second Rak‘ā (for the third Rak‘ā). Ibn ‘Umar said: “The Prophet ﷺ used to do the same.”

(87) CHAPTER. To place the right hand on the left [in Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayers)].

740. Narrated Sahl bin Sa‘d رضي الله عنه: The people were ordered to place the right hand on the left forearm in Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer). Abū Ḥāzim said, “I knew that the order was from the Prophet ﷺ.”
(88) CHAPTER. Submissiveness in As-Šalāt (the prayer).

741. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “You see me facing the Qiblah; but, by Allah, nothing is hidden from me regarding your bowings and submissiveness; and I see you from behind my back”.

742. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Perform the bowing and the prostrations properly in a correct and perfect way. By Allah, I see you from behind me (or from behind my back) when you bow or prostrate.”

(89) CHAPTER. What to say after the Takbir.

743. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ﷺ, Abū Bakr and ‘Umar used to start As-Šalāt (the prayer) with “Al-ḥamdu lillāhi Rabbi'l-‘ālamīn (All praises and thanks be to Allah the Lord of the ‘Ālamīn (mankind, jinn and all that exists)).”

744. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to keep silent between the Takbîr and the recitation of the Qur’ân (Surat Al-Fâtiha) and that interval of silence used to be a short one. I said to the Prophet ﷺ, “May my parents be sacrificed for you! What do you say in the pause between Takbîr and recitation?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I say, ‘Allâhumma, bâ’id baini wa baina khaṭâyâya kamâ bâ’adta baina marrîqi wal-maghrib. Allâhumma, naqqîn min khaṭâyâya kamâ yunaqqâ-aththâwbul-abâdu minad-danas. Allâhumma, aghsil khaṭâyâya bil ma’i wa tîjâlji wal barâd [O Allâh! Set me apart from my sins (faults) as the east and west are set apart from each other and clean me from sins as a white garment is cleaned of dirt (after thorough washing). O Allâh! Wash off my sins with water, snow and hail.]’”

(90) CHAPTER.

745. Narrated Asmâ’ bint Abî Bakr ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ once offered the eclipse Salāt (prayer). He stood for a long time and then did a prolonged bowing. He stood up straight again and kept on standing for a long time, then bowed a long bowing and then stood up straight, and then prostrated a prolonged prostration and then lifted his head and prostrated a prolonged prostration. And then he stood up for a long time, and then did a prolonged bowing and then stood up straight again, and then prostrated a prolonged prostration and then lifted his head and prostrated a prolonged prostration. On completion of the Salāt, he said, “Paradise became so near to me that if I had dared, I would have plucked one of its bunches for you, and Hell became so near to me that I said, ‘O my Lord, will I be among those people?’ Then suddenly I saw a woman; and a cat was lacerating her with its claws. On enquiring, it was said that the woman had imprisoned the cat till it died of starvation, and she neither fed it nor freed it so that it could feed itself from the insects, vermin and creatures of earth.” [See Hadith No.3318, Vol.4]

(91) CHAPTER. To cast a look at the Imam during As-Salât (the prayer).

‘Afshah said: The Prophet was narrating about the Salât (prayer) of eclipse and said, “I saw Hell, and one of its sides was destroying the other. (And that was) when you saw me retreating (during the Salât).”

746. Narrated Abû Ma’mar: We asked Khabbâb about whether Allah’s Messenger used to recite (the Qur’an) in the Zuhr and the ‘Asr prayers. He replied in the affirmative. We said, “How did you come to know about it?” He said, “By the movement of his beard.”

747. Narrated Al-Barâ’ (And Al-Bara’ was not a liar): Whenever we offered Salât (prayer) with the Prophet and he raised up his head from the bowing, we used to remain standing till we saw him prostrating.

748. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Abbás: Once solar eclipse occurred during the lifetime of Allah's Messenger ﷺ. He offered the eclipse Salāt (prayer). His Companions asked, "O Allah's Messenger! We saw you trying to take something while standing at your place and then we saw you retreating." The Prophet ﷺ said, "I was shown Paradise and wanted to have a bunch of fruit from it. Had I taken it, you would have eaten from it as long as the world remains."

749. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ﷺ led us and offered Salāt (prayer). Then he ﷺ went up the pulpit and beckoned with both hands towards the Qiblah of the mosque and said, "When I started leading you in Salāt, I saw Paradise and Hell displayed on the wall of the mosque (facing the Qiblah.) I never saw such a good and bad thing as I saw today." He repeated the last statement thrice.

92) CHAPTER. Looking towards the sky during Ash-Salāt (the prayer).

750. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ﷺ said, "What is wrong with those people who look towards the sky during
10—THE BOOK OF ADHĀN

Ṣalāt (prayer)?” His tone grew stern while delivering this speech and he said, “They should stop (looking towards the sky during the Ṣalāt): otherwise their eyes (or eyesight) would be snatched away.”

(93) CHAPTER. To look hither and thither in Ṣalāt (the prayer).

751. Narrated ‘Aishah Ṭabarikhi ἁ. I asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ about looking hither and thither in Ṣalāt (the prayer). He replied, “It is a way of stealing by which Satan takes away (a portion) from the Ṣalāt (prayer) of a person.”

752. Narrated ‘Aishah Ṭabarikhi ἁ. Once the Prophet ﷺ offered Ṣalāt (prayer) while wearing a Khamiṣa (a woollen square blanket) with marks on it. Then he ﷺ said, “The marks on this (Khamiṣa) have diverted my attention, take it to Abū Jahm and bring an Inbijāniya (a plain sheet) (from him)” (See Hadith No.5817. Vol.7).

(94) CHAPTER. Is it permissible for one to look around in Ṣalāt (prayer) if something happens to one? Or can one look at something like expectoration in the direction of the Qiblah?

Sahl said: “Abū Bakr Ṭabarikhi ἁ turned and saw the Prophet ﷺ [during the Ṣalāt (prayer)].”

753. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar Ṭabarikhi ἁ. The Prophet ﷺ saw expectoration in the direction of the Qiblah of the mosque while he was leading As-Salāt (the prayer), and scratched it off. After finishing the Salāt (prayer), he said, “Whenever any of you is in Salāt (prayer) he should know that Allāh is in front of him. So none should spit in front of him during the Salāt (prayer).”

754. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: While the Muslims were offering the Fajr prayer, Allāh’s Messenger صلی الله عليه وسلم suddenly appeared before them by lifting the curtain of the dwelling place of ‘Aishah، and looked towards the Muslims who were standing in rows. He smiled with pleasure. Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه started retreating to join the row on the assumption that the Prophet صلی الله عليه وسلم wanted to come out for As-Salāt (the prayer). The Muslims intended to leave As-Salāt (and were on the verge of being put to trial), but the Prophet صلی الله عليه وسلم beckoned them to complete their Salāt (prayers) and then he let the curtain fall. He died in the last hours of that day.

(95) CHAPTER. Recitation of the Qur’ān (Sūrat Al-Fātīha) is compulsory for the Imām and the followers, at home and on journey, in all As-Salāt (the prayers) whether the recitation is done silently or aloud.

755. Narrated Jābir bin Samura: The people of Kūfah complained against Sa’d to ‘Umar dismissed ‘Ammār as their chief. They lodged many complaints against Sa’d and even they alleged that he did not offer Șalāt (prayer) properly. ‘Umar sent for him and said, “O Abū Ishāq! These people claim that you do not offer Șalāt properly.” Abū Ishāq said, “By Allah, I used to offer with them a Șalāt similar to that of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and I never reduced anything of it. I used to prolong the first two Rakā’ of Iṣḥā prayer and shorten the last two Rakā.” ‘Umar said, “O Abū Ishāq, this was what I thought about you.” And then he sent one or more persons with him to Kūfah so as to ask the people about him. So, they went there and did not leave any mosque without asking about him. All the people praised him till they came to the mosque of the tribe of Bani ‘Abs; one of the men called Usāmah bin Qatāda with surname of Abā Sa’da stood up and said, “As you have put us under an oath; I am bound to tell you that Sa’d never went himself with the army and never distributed (the war booty) equally and never did justice in legal verdicts.” (On hearing it) Sa’d said, “I invoke Allāh for three things: O Allāh! If this slave of Yours is a liar and got up for showing off, give him a long life, increase his poverty and put him to trials.” (And so it happened). Later on when that person was asked how he was, he used to reply that he was an old man in trial as the result of Sa’d’s curse.

‘Abdul Malik, the subnarrator, said that he had seen him afterwards and his eyebrows were overhanging his eyes owing to old age and he used to tease and assault the small girls on the roads.
756. Narrated ‘Ubāda bin As-Šāmit رضي الله عنه: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever does not recite Sûrat Al-Fâtiha (the first Sûrah of the Qur’ân) in his Salât (prayer), his Salât is invalid.”

757. Narrated Abû Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ entered the mosque and a person followed him. The man offered Salât (prayer) and went to the Prophet ﷺ and greeted him. The Prophet ﷺ returned the greeting and said to him, “Go back and offer the Salât (prayer), for you have not offered Salât (prayer).” The man went back, offered Salât (prayer) in the same way as before, returned and greeted the Prophet ﷺ who said, “Go back and offer Salât (prayer), for you have not offered Salât (prayer).” This happened thrice. The man said, “By Him, Who sent you with the Truth, I cannot offer Salât (prayer) in a better way than this. Please teach me how to offer Salât (prayer).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “When you stand for Salât (prayer) say Takbir and then recite from the Qur’ân (of what you know by heart) and then bow till you feel at ease. Then raise your head and stand up straight, then prostrate till you feel at ease during your prostration, then sit with calmness till you feel at ease (do not hurry) and do the same in all your Salât (prayer).”
758. Narrated Jābir bin Samura: Sa'd  said, “I used to offer Salat (prayer) with them one similar to that of Allâh’s Messenger (the prayer of Zuhr and ‘Asr) reducing nothing from them. I used to prolong the first two Rak’â and shorten the last two Rak’â.”  Umar said to Sa’d “This was what I thought about you.”

759. Narrated Abū Qatāḍa: The Prophet  in Zuhr prayers used to recite Sūrat Al-Fatiha along with two other Sūrah in the first two Rak’â: a long one in the first Rak’â and a shorter (Sūrah) in the second, and at times the Verses were audible. In the ‘Asr prayer the Prophet  used to recite Sūrat Al-Fatiha and two more Sūrah in the first two Rak’â and used to prolong the first Rak’â. And he used to prolong the first Rak’â of the Fajr (early morning) prayer and shorten the second.

760. Narrated Abū Ma’mar: I asked Khabbãb whether the Prophet  used to recite the Qur’ân in the Zuhr and the ‘Asr prayers. He replied in the affirmative. We said, “How did you come to know that?” He said, “From the movement of his beard.”
(97) CHAPTER. The recitation of the Qur’ān in the ‘Asr prayer.

761. Narrated Abū Ma’mar: I asked Khabbāb bin Al-Aratt whether the Prophet used to recite the Qur’ān in the Zuhr and the ‘Asr prayers. He replied in the affirmative. I asked, “How did you come to know that?” He replied, “From the movement of his beard.”

762. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Qatādā: My father said, “The Prophet used to recite Sūrat Al-Fātiha along with another Sūrah in the first two Rak‘ā of the Zuhr and the ‘Asr prayers and at times a Verse or so was audible to us.”

(98) CHAPTER. The recitation of the Qur’ān in the Maghrib prayer.

763. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: (My mother) ‘Umm Al-Faql heard me reciting Wal Mursalatī ‘Urfān (Sūrah No. 77) and said, “O my son! By Allah, your recitation made me remember, that, it was the last Sūrah I heard from Allah’s Messenger. He recited it in the Maghrib prayer.”
764. Narrated Marwān bin Al-Ḥakam: Zaid bin Thābit said to me, “Why do you recite very short Sūrah in the Maghrib prayer while I heard the Prophet reciting the longer of the two long Sūrah?” [Al-A’rāf and Al-Mā’idah (No.7 & No.5) or Al-A’rāf and Al-An’ām (No.7 & No.6)]. (See Fath Al-Bārī, Vol.2, pages 389, 390 for details)

(99) CHAPTER. To recite aloud in the Maghrib prayer.

765. Narrated Jubair bin Muṭ’im: I heard Allāh’s Messenger reciting Al-Tūr (Sūrah No. 52) in the Maghrib prayer.

(100) CHAPTER. To recite aloud in the ‘Ishā’ prayer.

766. Narrated Abū Rāfī’: I offered the ‘Ishā’ prayer behind Abū Hurairah and he recited Idhas-Samā’un-Shaqqat (Sūrah No. 84) and prostrated. On my enquiring, he said, “I prostrated behind Abul-Qāsim (the Prophet when he recited that Sūrah) and I will keep on with this prostration while reciting it till I meet him.”

767. Narrated Al-Barā’: The Prophet was on a journey and recited in one of the first two Rak‘a of the ‘Isha‘ prayer Wat-tini waz-zaitüni. (Surah No. 95)

(101) CHAPTER. To recite in the ‘Isha‘ prayer, with As-Sajda (prostration).

768. Narrated Abu Räfi‘: Once I offered the ‘Isha‘ prayer with Abu Hurairah and he recited Idhas-Sama‘ un-Shaggat (Surah No. 84) and prostrated. I said, “What is that?” He said, “I prostrated behind Abu-Qasim, (the Prophet) (when he recited that Surah) and I will keep on with this prostration while reciting it till I meet him.”

(102) CHAPTER. Recitation in the ‘Isha‘ prayer.

769. Narrated Al-Barä‘i: I heard the Prophet reciting Wat-tini waz-zaitüni (Surah No. 95) in the ‘Isha‘ prayer, and I never heard a sweeter voice or a better way of recitation than that of the Prophet.

(103) CHAPTER. Prolonging the first two Rak‘a and shortening the last two.

770. Narrated Jäbir bin Samura: ‘Umar said to Sa‘d, “The people complained against you in everything, even in Salát (prayer).” Sa‘d replied, “Really, I used to prolong the first two Rak‘a and shorten the last two and I will never shorten the Salāt in which I follow Allah’s Messenger

‘Umar said, “You are telling the truth and that is what I think about you.”

(104) CHAPTER. The recitation of the Qur’an in the Fajr prayer.

And Umm Salama said: “The Prophet recited Sūrat At-Tūr. (Sūrah No. 52)

771. Narrated Saiyyār bin Salama: My father and I went to Abū Barza Al-Aslami رضي الله عنْهُ to ask him about the stated times for the Salāt (prayers). He replied, “The Prophet used to offer the Zuhr prayer when the sun just declined from its highest position at noon; the ‘Asr prayer at a time when if a man went to the farthest place in Al-Madina (after offering Šalāt) he would find the sun still hot (bright). (The subnarrator said: I have forgotten what Abū Barza said about the Maghrib prayer). The Prophet never found any harm in delaying the ‘Ishā’ prayer to the first third of the night and he never liked to sleep before it and to talk after it. He used to offer the Fajr (early morning) prayer at a time when after finishing it one could recognize the person sitting beside him and used to recite between 60 to 100 Verses in one or both the Rak’ā.”

772. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنْهُ: The Qur’an is recited in every Salāt (prayer) and in those Salāt in which Allah’s Messenger recited aloud for us, we recite aloud in the same Salāt for you; and the Salāt in which the Prophet recited quietly, we recite quietly. If you recite Surat Al-Fatiha only, it is sufficient, but if you recite something else in addition, that would be better.

(105) CHAPTER. To recite aloud in the Fajr (early morning) prayer.

And Umm Salama said, “I was performing Tawaf behind the people while the Prophet was offering Salat (praying) and reciting Surat At-Tur. (Surah No. 52)

773. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbás: The Prophet set out with the intention of going to Sūq ‘Ukaz (market of ‘Ukaz) along with some of his Companions. At that time, a barrier was put between the devils and the news of heaven. Burning fires were shot at them. The devils went to their people, who asked them, “What is wrong with you?” They said, “A barrier has been put between us and the news of heaven. Burning fires are shot at us.” They said, “The thing which has put a barrier between you and the news of heaven must be something which has happened recently. Go eastward and westward and see what has put a barrier between you and the news of heaven.” Those who went towards Tihama came across the Prophet at a place called Nakhla and it was on the way to Sūq ‘Ukaz and the Prophet was offering the Fajr (early morning) prayer with his Companions. When they heard the Qur’an they listened to it and said, “By Allah, this is the thing which has put a barrier between us and the news of heaven.” They went to their people and said, “O our people; verily we have heard a wonderful recital (the Qur'an). It guides to the Right Way and we have believed therein and we shall never join (in worship) anything with our Lord (Allah)."

Allah revealed the following verses to his Prophet ﷺ (Sūrat Al-Jinn) (No. 72): “Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): It has been revealed to me... (V.72:1)” And what was revealed to him was the conversation of the jinn.

774 (A). Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet ﷺ recited aloud in the Salāt (prayers) in which he was ordered to do so and quietly in the Salāt in which he was ordered to do so. “...And your Lord is never forgetful.” (V.19:64). “Indeed in the Messenger of Allah (Muhammad ) you have a good example to follow...” (V.33:21).

(106) CHAPTER. To recite two Sūrah in one Rak’ā and to recite the last Verses of some Sūrah, or to recite the Sūrah in their reverse order, or to recite the beginning of a Sūrah.

Narrated ‘Abdulrah bin As-Sa‘īb: The Prophet ﷺ recited Sūrat Al-Mu‘minün (No. 23) in the Fajr prayer and when he reached the story of Mūsa (Moses) and Hārūn (Aaron) or ‘Iesa (Jesus) he got cough and bowed. ‘Umar recited 120 Verses from Sūrat Al-Baqarah (No. 2) in the first Rak'ā and in the second Rak'ā he recited a Sūrah from the Mathānī (Sūrah of less than 100 Verses). Ahnaf recited in the first Rak'ā Sūrat Al-Kahf (No. 18) and in the second Rak'ā Sūrat Yūsuf (Joseph) (No.12) or Sūrat Yunus (Jonah). and said that he had offered the Fajr prayer with 'Umar reciting the same Sūrah. Ibn Mas'ūd recited 40 Verses from Sūrat Al-Anfāl (No.8) (in the first Rak'a) and in the second Rak'a, a Sūrah from the Mufassal Sūrah [the Sūrah starting from Qāf (No.50) to the end of the Qur'ān]. Qatāda said about a person who recited one Sūrah divided between two Rak'a or repeated the same Sūrah in both Rak'a that he can do so as all those Verses are from Allāh's Book.

774 (B). Anas said: One of the Ansâr used to lead the Ansâr in Salāt (prayer) in the Qubā' mosque and it was his habit to recite Qul Huwal-lahu Ahad (Say: He is Allah the One) (No.112) (after Sūrat Al-Fatiha) (No.1) whenever he wanted to recite something in Salāt. When he finished that Sūrah, he would recite another with it. He followed the same procedure in each Rak'a. His companions discussed this with him and said, "You recite this Sūrah and do not consider it sufficient and then you recite another. So would you recite it alone or leave it and recite some other." He said, "I will never leave it and if you want me to be your Imam on this condition then it is all right; otherwise I will leave you." They knew that he was the best amongst them and they did not like someone else to lead them in Salāt. When the Prophet went to them as usual, they informed him about it. The Prophet addressed him and said, "0 so-and-so, what forbids you from doing what your companions ask you to do? Why do you read this Sūrah particularly in every Rak'a?" He replied, "I love this Sūrah." The Prophet said, "Your love for this Sūrah will make you enter Paradise."
775. Narrated Abū Wā’il: A man came to Ibn Mas‘ūd and said, “I recited the Mufassal (Sūrah) at night in one Rak‘a.” Ibn Mas‘ūd said, “This recitation is (too quick) like the recitation of poetry. I know the identical Sūrah which the Prophet used to recite in pairs.” Ibn Mas‘ūd then mentioned 20 Mufassal Sūrah including two Sūrah from the family of (i.e., those Sūrah which begin with) Ḥa-Mīm (خم) (which the Prophet used to recite) in each Rak‘a.

(107) CHAPTER. To recite only Sūrat Al-Fātiha in the last two Rak‘a during a four Rak‘a Salāt (prayer).

776. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Qatāda: My father said, “The Prophet used to recite Sūrat Al-Fātiha followed by another Sūrah in the first two Rak‘a of the Salāt (prayer) and used to recite only Sūrat Al-Fātiha in the last two Rak‘a of the Zuhr prayer. Sometimes a Verse or so was audible and he used to prolong the first Rak‘a more than the second and used to do the same in the ‘Asr and Fajr prayers.”

(108) CHAPTER. To recite (the Qur‘ān) quietly in the Zuhr and ‘Asr prayers.

777. Narrated Abū Ma‘mar: We said to Khabbāb, “Did Allāh’s Messenger... used to recite (the Qur'an) in Zuhr and 'Asr prayers?" He replied in the affirmative. We said, "How did you come to know about it?" He said, "By the movement of his beard."

(109) CHAPTER. (In a quiet prayer) if the Imām recites a Verse or so audibly.

778. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin Abī Qatāda: My father said, "The Prophet used to recite Sūrat Al-Fātiha along with another Sūrah in the first two Rak'a of the Zuhr and 'Asr prayers. A Verse or so was audible at times and he used to prolong the first Rak'a."

779. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin Abī Qatāda: My father said, "The Prophet used to prolong the first Rak'a of the Zuhr Salāt (prayer) and shorten the second one and used to do the same in the morning (Fajr) Salat."

(110) CHAPTER. To prolong the first Rak'a.

780. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin Abī Qatāda: My father said, "The Prophet used to prolong the first Rak'a of the Zuhr Salāt (prayer) and shorten the second one and used to do the same in the morning (Fajr) Salat."

(111) CHAPTER. Saying of Āmin aloud by the Imām.

'Āṭā' said: ‘Āmin is an invocation. Ibn Az-Zubair and the persons behind him said Amin loudly till the mosque echoed. Abū Hurairah used to say to the Imām “Do not say Amin before me (i.e. before I join the row for the prayer).” Nāfi’ said: “Ibn ‘Umar never missed Amin, and urged the people to say it. I heard something good about it from him.”

870. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Say Amin when the Imām says it and if the Amin of any one of you coincides with that of the angels then all his past sins will be forgiven.”

Ibn Shihāb said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to say Amin.”

(112) CHAPTER. Superiority of saying Amin.

871. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If any one of you says Amin and the angels in the heavens say Amin and the former coincides with the latter, all his past sins will be forgiven.”

(113) CHAPTER. Saying of Amin aloud by the followers.

872. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Say Amin when the Imām says Ghairil-maghdūbi ‘alaihim walad-dāl-lin [not the path of those who earn Your Anger (such as Jews) nor of those who go astray (such as Christians)], all the past sins of the person whose saying (of Amin) coincides with that of the angels, will be forgiven.

(114) CHAPTER. If someone bowed behind the rows, [on entering the mosque and before joining the rows of Salāt (prayer)].

783. Narrated Abū Bakrah: I reached the Prophet in the mosque while he was bowing in Salāt (prayer) and I too bowed before joining the row. I mentioned it to the Prophet and he said to me, “May Allāh increase your love for the good. But do not repeat it again (bowing in that way).”

(115) CHAPTER. Ḥimām At-Takbir (i.e., to end the number of Takbir or to say the Takbir perfectly) on bowing. [See Fath Al-Bārī].

Ibn ‘Abbās narrated it from the Prophet. One of the narrators of the Ḥadīth is Mālik bin Ḥuwairith. 784. Narrated ‘Imrān bin Ḥuṣain: I offered the Salāt (prayer) with ‘Alī in Basra and he made us remember the Salāt which we used to offer with Allah’s Messenger. ‘Alī said Takbir on each raising and bowing (and prostrating etc.) [See Fath Al-Bārī, for details].
785. Narrated Abū Salama: When Abū Hurairah led us in Salāt (prayer) he used to say Takbīr on each bowing and raising. On the completion of the Salāt he used to say, “My Salāt is more similar to the Salāt of Allāh’s Messenger than that of anyone of you.”

(116) CHAPTER. Itmām At-Takbīr (i.e., to end the number of Takbīr, or to say the Takbīr perfectly) on prostrating. [See Fath Al-Bārī]

786. Narrated Muṣarrif bin ‘Abdullāh: ‘Imrān bin Ḥūṣain and I offered the Salāt (prayer) behind ‘Ali bin Abī Ṭālib: ‘Imrān said: When ‘Ali prostrated, he said the Takbīr, when he raised his head, he said the Takbīr and when he got up for the third Rak‘a he said the Takbīr. On completion of the Salāt ‘Imrān took my hand and said, “This (i.e., ‘Ali) made me remember the Salāt of Muḥammad.” Or he said, “He led us in a Salāt like that of Muḥammad.”

787. Narrated ‘Ikrima: I saw a person offering Salāt (prayer) at Maqām Ibrāhīm [the place of Ibrāhīm (Abraham)] and he was saying Takbīr on every bowing, rising, standing and sitting. I asked Ibn ‘Abbās (about this Salāt). He admonished me saying: “Isn’t that the Salāt of the Prophet?” [Indicating that, that was the way, the Prophet used to offer his Salāt (prayer)].

(117) CHAPTER. Saying the Takbir on raising from the prostration.

788. Narrated ‘Ikrima: I offered prayers behind a Sheikh at Makkah and he said twenty-two Takbir (during the prayer). I told Ibn ‘Abbās that he (i.e., that Sheikh) was foolish. Ibn ‘Abbās admonished me and said, “This is the As-Sunna (legal way) of Abul-Qāsim.”

789. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Whenever Allah’s Messenger stood for As-Salāt (the prayer), he said Takbir on starting the Salāt (prayer) and then on bowing. (On rising from bowing he said) Samī Allāhu liman hamida, and then while standing straight he used to say Rabbanā lakal-ḥamā‘ Al-Laīth said, “(The Prophet said) ‘Wa lakal-ḥamā’. He used to say Takbir on prostrating and raising his head from prostration; again he would say Takbir on prostrating and raising his head. He would then do the same in the whole of the Salāt till it was completed. And on rising from the second Rak’a after sitting (for At-Tahiyyāt), he used to say Takbir.
(118) CHAPTER. To put the hands (palms) on both knees while bowing.

While in the company of his companions, Abū Ḥumaid said, “The Prophet ﷺ used to put both his hands on his knees.”

790. Narrated Muṣʿab bin Saʿd: I offered Salāt (prayer) beside my father (Sa'd bin Abī Waqqas) and approximated both my hands and placed them in between the knees. My father told me not to do so and said, “We used to do the same but we were forbidden (by the Prophet ﷺ) to do so and were ordered to place the hands on the knees.”

(119) CHAPTER. Not performing bowing perfectly.

791. Narrated Zaid bin Wahb: Ḥudhaifa  رضي الله عنه saw a person who was not performing the bowings and prostrations perfectly. He said to him, “You have not offered Salāt and if you should die, you would die on a religion other than that of Muḥammad ﷺ.”

(120) CHAPTER. To keep the back straight in bowing.

In the presence of his companions, Abū Ḥumaid said, “The Prophet ﷺ bowed and kept his back straight.”
(121) CHAPTER. And what is said regarding the limit of the completion of bowing and of keeping the back straight and the calmness with which it is performed.

792. Narrated Al-Barā’ Rāshīḍī: The bowing, the prostration, the sitting in between the two prostrations and the standing after the bowing of the Prophet ﷺ but not Qiyām [standing in the Salāt (prayer)] and Qu’ud (sitting in the Salāt) used to be approximately equal (in duration).

(122) CHAPTER. The order of the Prophet ﷺ to a person who did not perform his bowing perfectly that he should repeat his Salāt (prayer).

793. Narrated Abū Hurairah Rāshīḍī: Once the Prophet ﷺ entered the mosque, a man came in, offered the Salāt (prayer) and greeted the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ returned his greeting and said to him, “Go back and offer Salāt again for you have not offered Salāt.” The man offered the Salāt again, came back and greeted the Prophet ﷺ. He said to him thrice, “Go back and offer Salāt again for you have not offered Salāt.” The man said, “By Him, Who has sent you with the truth! I do not know a better way of offering Salāt. Kindly teach me how to offer Salāt.” He ﷺ said, “When you stand for the Salāt, say Takbīr and then recite from the Qur’ān what you know and then bow with calmness till you feel at ease, then rise from bowing till you stand straight. Afterwards prostrate calmly till you feel at ease and then raise (your head) and sit with calmness till you feel at ease, and then prostrate with calmness till you feel at ease in prostration and do the same in the whole of your Salât.”

(123) CHAPTER. Invocation in bowing.

794. Narrated 'Aishah: ‘The Prophet used to say in his bowings and prostrations, Subhânaka-Allâhumma Rabbanâ wa-bihamdîka Allâhumma-agh firli [I honour Allâh from all that (unsuitable things) which are ascribed to You, O Allâh Our Lord! And all the praises and thanks are for You, O Allâh! Forgive me].”

(124) CHAPTER. What the Imâm and the followers say on raising their heads from bowing.

795. Narrated Abu Hurairah: When the Prophet said “Sami‘ Allâhu liman  hamida (Allâh heard those who sent praises and thanks to Him),” he would say, “Allâhumma Rabbanâ wa-bihamdîka Allâhumma (O Allâh! Our Lord! All the praises and thanks are for You).” On bowing and raising his head from it [Salât (prayers)] the Prophet used to say Takbir. He also used to say Takbir on rising after the two prostrations.

(125) CHAPTER. The superiority of saying Allâhumma Rabbanâ wa-bihamdîka (O Allâh, Our Lord! All the praises and thanks are for You).

796. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger said, “When the Imâm sions, Sami' Allâhu liman ̣hamida (Allâh heard those who sent praises and thanks to Him), you should say, Allâhumma Rabbanâ lakal-ḥamd (O Allâh! Our Lord! All the praises and thanks are for You). And if the saying of any one of you coincides with that of the angels, all his past sins will be forgiven."

(126) CHAPTER.

797. Narrated Abû Salama: Abû Hurairah said, "No doubt, my Salât (prayer) is similar to that of the Prophet ﷺ.” Abû Hurairah used to recite Qunût (invocation) after saying Sami' Allâhu liman ̣hamida in the last Rak'a of the Zuhr, 'Ishâ' and Fajr prayers. He would ask Allâh's Forgiveness for the true believers and curse the disbelievers.

798. Narrated Anas: Qunût used to be recited in the Maghrib and the Fajr prayers.

799. Narrated Rifâ‘a bin Râfi‘ Az-Zuraqi: One day we were offering Salât (prayer) behind the Prophet ﷺ. When he raised his head from bowing, he said, "Sami' Allâhu liman ̣hamida. A man behind him said, "Rabbanâ lakal-ḥamd, ̣hamdan
10— THE BOOK OF ADHÀN

127) CHAPTER. To stand straight with calmness on raising the head from bowing.

And Abū Ḥumaid said: The Prophet ﷺ rose (from bowing) and stood straight till all the vertebra of his spinal column came to a natural position.

800. Narrated Thābit: Anas used to demonstrate to us the Salāt (prayer) of the Prophet ﷺ and while demonstrating, he used to raise his head from bowing and stand so long that we would say that he had forgotten (the prostration).

801. Narrated Al-Barā': The bowings, the prostrations, the period of standing after bowing and the interval between the two prostrations of the Prophet ﷺ used to be equal in duration.

802. Narrated Ayyūb: Abū Qilāba said, "Mālik bin Ḥuwairith used to demonstrate to us the Salāt (prayer) of the Prophet ﷺ at times other than that of the compulsory prayers. So, (once) he stood up for ـلـلـ and performed a perfect ـيـمـ (standing and reciting from the Qurʾān) and then bowed and performed bowing perfectly; then he raised his head and stood straight for a while.” Abū Qilāba added, “Mālik bin Ḥuwairith in that demonstration, offered ـلـلـ like this Sheikh of ours, Abū Yazīd.” Abū Yazīd used to sit (for a while) on raising his head from the second prostration before getting up.

(128) CHAPTER. One should say ـكـبـر while going in prostration.

Nāfī said: “Ibn ʿUmar used to place both his hands (on the ground) before his knees.”

803. Narrated Abū Bakr bin ʿAbdur Raḥmān bin Ḥārīth bin Hīshām and Abū Salama bin ʿAbdur Raḥmān: Abū Hurairah ـرضي الله عـنهـ used to say ـكـبـر in all ـسـلـلـ (the prayers), compulsory and optional — in the month of Ramadān or other months. He used to say ـكـبـر on standing for ـلـلـ (prayer) and on bowing; then he would say ـصـلـى اللـلـه ـلـلـمـن ـتـمـدـة, and before prostrating he would say Rabbanā walakallāhīm. Then he would say ـكـبـر on prostrating and on raising his head from the prostration, then another ـكـبـر on prostrating (for the second time), and on raising up his head from the prostration. He also would say the ـكـبـر on standing from the second ـعـ. He used to do the same in every ـعـ till he completed ـسـلـلـ. On completion of the ـلـلـ, he would say, “By Him in Whose Hands my soul is! No doubt my ـلـلـ closely resembles to that of Allāh’s Messenger ـ عليه السلام than yours, and this was his ـلـلـ till he left this world.”
804. Narrated Abū Hurairah (ﷺ): "When Allah's Messenger ﷺ raised his head from (bowing) he used to say Sami' Allahū liman ħamīda, Rabbanā walakal-ḥamd. He would invoke Allah for some people by naming them: 'O Allah! Save Al-Walid bin Al-Walid and Salama bin Hishām and 'Ayyāsh bin Abī Rabi'a and the weak ones among the faithful believers. O Allah! Be hard on the tribe of Muqār and let them suffer from drought (famine) years like that of the time of Yūsuf (Joseph)." In those days the eastern section of the tribe of Mudar was against the Prophet ﷺ.

805. Narrated Anas bin Mālik (ﷺ): Allah's Messenger ﷺ fell from a horse and the right side of his body was injured. We went to enquire about his health, meanwhile it was time for As-Salāt (the prayer) and he led the Salāt (prayer) sitting and we also offered Salāt while sitting. On completion of the Salāt he said, "The Imām is to be followed; say Takbīr when he says it; bow when he bows; raise up when he raises up his head and when he says Sami' Allahū liman ħamīda, say Rabbanā walakal-ḥamd, and prostrate if he prostrates."(1)

(1) (H.805) See Hadith No.689 and 5658 (for taking the verdict).
Sufyān narrated the same from Ma’mar. Ibn Juraij said that his (the Prophet’s) right leg had been injured.

(129) CHAPTER. Superiority of prostrating.

806.Narrated Abū Hurairah: The people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Shall we see our Lord on the Day of Resurrection?” He replied, “Do you have any doubt in seeing the moon on a full-moon night when there are no clouds?” They replied, “No, O Allah’s Messenger!” He said, “Do you have any doubt in seeing the sun when there are no clouds?” They replied, “No, (O Allah’s Messenger).” He said, “You will see Allah (your Lord) in the same way. On the Day of Resurrection, people will be gathered and He will order the people to follow what they used to worship. So, some of them will follow the sun, some will follow the moon, and some will follow other (false) deities; and only this nation (Muslims) will be left with its hypocrites. Allah will come to them and say, ‘I am your Lord.’ They will say, ‘We shall stay in this place till our Lord comes to us and when our Lord will come, we will recognize Him.’ Then Allah will come to them again and say, ‘I am... your Lord.' They will say, 'You are our Lord.' Allah will call them, and As-Sirāt [a slippery bridge on which there will be clamps and hooks like the thorn of Sa'dān – see Hadith No.6573, Vol.8 and Hadith No.7439, Vol.9] will be laid across Hell and I (Muḥammad ﷺ) shall be the first amongst the Messengers to cross it with my followers. Nobody, except the Messengers, will then be able to speak and they will be saying, 'O Allah! Save us, O Allah! Save us.' "There will be hooks like the thorns of Sa'dān in Hell. Have you seen the thorns of Sa'dān?" The people said, "Yes." He said, "These hooks will be like the thorns of Sa'dān; but nobody except Allah knows their greatness in size and these will entangle the people according to their deeds; some of them will fall and stay in Hell forever; others will receive punishment (torn into small pieces) and will get out of Hell till when Allah intends mercy on whomever He likes amongst the people of Hell, He will order the angels to take out of Hell those who worshipped none but Him Alone. The angels will take them out by recognizing them from the traces of prostrations, for Allah has forbidden the (Hell) Fire to eat away those traces. So they will come out of the Fire, it will eat away from the whole of the human body except the marks of the prostrations. At that time they will come out of the Fire as mere skeletons. The Water of Life will be poured on them, and as a result, they will grow like the seeds growing on the bank of a flowing flood-water stream. Then when Allah had finished from the Judgement amongst His creations, one man will be left between Hell and Paradise and he will be the last man from the people of Hell to enter Paradise. He will be facing Hell, and will say, 'O Allah! Turn my face from the Fire as its wind has dried me and its steam has burnt me.’ Allah will ask him, ‘Will you ask for anything more in case this favour is granted to you?’ He will say, ‘No by Your (Honour) Power!’ And he will give to his Lord (Allah) what he will of the pledges and the covenants. Allah will then turn his face from the Fire. When he will face Paradise and will see its charm, he will remain quiet as long as Allah will. He then will say, ‘O my Lord! Let me go to the gate of Paradise.’ Allah will ask him, ‘Didn’t you give pledges and make covenants (to the effect) that you would not ask for anything more than what you requested at first?’ He will say, ‘O my Lord! Do not make me the most wretched amongst Your creatures.’ Allah will say, ‘If this request is granted, will you then ask for anything else?’ He will say, ‘No! By Your (Honour) Power! I shall not ask for anything else.’ Then he will give to his Lord what He will of the pledges and the covenants. Allah will then let him go to the gate of Paradise. On reaching there and seeing its life, charm, and pleasures he will remain quiet as long as Allah will and then will say, ‘O my Lord! Let me enter Paradise.’ Allah will say, ‘May Allah be Merciful unto you, 0 son of Adam! How treacherous you are! Haven’t you made covenants and given pledges that you will not ask for anything more that what you have been given?’ He will say, ‘O my Lord! Do not make me the most wretched amongst Your creatures.’ So Allah will laugh and allow him to enter Paradise and will ask him to request as much as he likes. He will do so till all his desires have been fulfilled. Then Allah will say, ‘Request more of such and such things.’ Allah will remind him and when all his desires and wishes have been fulfilled, Allah will say, ‘All this is granted to you and a similar amount besides’.”

Abu Sa’d Al-Khudri رضي الله عنَّهُ said to Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Allāh تَعَالَى said, ‘That is for you and ten times more like it’.” Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه said, “I do not remember from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ except (his saying), ‘All this is granted to you and a similar amount besides.’” Abū Sa‘īd said, “I heard him saying, ‘That is for you and ten times more the like of it’.”

(130) CHAPTER. During the prostrations one should keep one’s arms away from one’s sides and the abdomen should be kept away from the thighs.

807. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mālik bin Buḥaina رضي الله عنه: Whenever the Prophet ﷺ offered Salāt (prayers) (in prostration) he used to keep away his arms widely separated (from his body) so that the whiteness of his armpits was visible.

(131) CHAPTER. One should keep the toes in the direction of the Qiblah.

Abū Ḥumaid Āṣ-Sā‘īdī narrated this from the Prophet ﷺ.
(132) CHAPTER. If one does not perform the prostrations perfectly.

808. Narrated Abū Wā’il: Ḥudhāifa said, “I saw a person not performing his bowings and prostrations perfectly. When he completed Asūlāt (the prayer), I told him that he had not offered Salāt (prayer).” I think that Ḥudhāifa added (i.e., said to the man), “Had you died, you would have died on a Sunna (legal way, act of worship etc) other than that of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.”

(133) CHAPTER. To prostrate on seven bones.

809. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ was ordered (by Allāh) to prostrate on seven body-parts and not to tuck up the clothes or hair while offering Salāt (prayers). Those parts are: the forehead (along with the tip of nose), both hands, both knees, and (toes of) both feet.

810. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ said, “We have been ordered to prostrate on seven bones and not to tuck up the clothes and the hair.”

811. Narrated Al-Barā’ bin ‘Āzib: ﷺ said, “If one does not offer Sala ‘Allām, if one does not perform and he was not a liar: We used to offer Salāt (prayer) behind the Prophet ﷺ and when he said, “Sami‘Allāhu liman hamīda,” none of us would bend his back (to go for prostration) till the Prophet ﷺ had placed his forehead on the ground.

(134) CHAPTER. To prostrate on the nose.

812. Narrated Ibn ʿAbbās رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I have been ordered to prostrate on seven bones, i.e., on the forehead along with the tip of the nose and the Prophet ﷺ pointed towards his nose, both hands, both knees and the toes of both feet and not to gather the clothes or the hair.”

(135) CHAPTER. To prostrate on the nose and in the mud.

813. Narrated Abū Salāma: Once I went to Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنه and asked him, “Won’t you come with us to the date-palm trees to have a talk?” So Abū Sa‘īd went out and I asked him, “Tell me what you heard from the Prophet ﷺ about the Night of Qadr.” Abū Sa‘īd replied, “Once Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ performed I’tikāf(1) (seclusion) on the first ten days of the month of

The one in such a state should not have sexual relations with his wife, and one is not allowed to leave the mosque except for a very short period, and that is only for very urgent necessity e.g., answering the call of nature or joining a funeral procession etc.
Ramadan and we did the same with him. Jibril (Gabriel) came to him and said, ‘The night you are looking for is ahead of you.’ So, the Prophet performed the I’tikaf in the middle (second) ten days of the month of Ramadan and we too performed I’tikaf with him. Jibril came to him and said, ‘The night which you are looking for is ahead of you.’ In the morning of the 20th of Ramadan the Prophet delivered a Khutba (religious talk) saying, ‘Whoever has performed I’tikaf with me should continue it. I have been shown the Night of Qadr, but have forgotten its date, but it is in the odd nights of the last ten nights. I saw in my dream that I was prostrating in mud and water.’ In those days the roof of the mosque was made of branches of date-palm trees. At that time the sky was clear and no cloud was visible, but suddenly a cloud came and it rained. The Prophet led us in the Salah and I saw the traces of mud on the forehead and on the nose of Allah’s Messenger. So it was the confirmation of that dream.”

(136) CHAPTER. To tie the clothes and wrap them properly [in Salah (prayer)]; and whoever gathered his clothes for fear that his private parts may become exposed.

814. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: The people used to offer prayers with the Prophet tying their Ijār around their necks because of their small sizes; and the women were directed that they should not raise their heads from the prostrations till the men had sat straight.
(137) CHAPTER. One should not tuck up the hair [during Salât (prayers)].

815. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet was ordered to prostrate on seven bony parts and not to tuck up his clothes and hair [during Salât (prayers)].” [See Hadîth No. 809]

(138) CHAPTER. One should not tuck up his garment in As-Salat (the prayer).

816. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet said, “I have been ordered to prostrate on seven (bones) and not to tuck up the hair and garment (during prayers).”

(139) CHAPTER. To invoke and glorify Allâh in prostration:

817. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet used to say frequently in his bowings and prostrations, Subhânaka Allâhumma Rabbanâ Wabihamdika, Allâhumma Ighîrîlî [I honour Allâh from all that (unsuitable things) that are ascribed to Him, O Allâh! Our Lord! All praises and thanks are for You, O Allâh! Forgive me]. In this way he was acting according to the Qur’ân.

(140) CHAPTER. To sit for a while between the two prostrations.

818. Narrated Abû Qilâba: Once Mâlik bin Ḥuwairith said to his friends, "Shall I show you how Allah's Messenger used to offer his Salāt (prayers)?" And it was not the time for any of the compulsory congregational prayers. So he stood up (for the Salāt) bowed and said the Takbīr, then he raised up his head and remained standing for a while and then prostrated and raised up his head for a while (sat up for a while). He offered Salāt like our Sheikh 'Amr bin Salama. Ayyūb said, "The latter used to do a thing which I did not see the people doing, i.e., he used to sit between the third and the fourth Rak'a.

819. Malik bin Ḥuwairith said, "We came to the Prophet (after embracing Islām) and stayed with him. He said to us, ‘When you go back to your families, offer such and such a Salāt (prayer) at such and such a time, offer such a Salāt (prayer) at such and such time, and when there comes the time for the Salāt (prayer) then one of you should pronounce the Adhān for the Salāt (prayer) and the oldest of you should lead the Salāt (prayer).’"

[See Fath Al-Bārī, Vol.2, p.444 as regards sitting for rest between the first and the second Rak'a and then between the third and the fourth Rak'a (جلسة الاستراحة)].

820. Narrated Al-Barā‘: The time taken by the Prophet (in prostrations, bowings, and the sitting interval between the two prostrations was about the same.

821. Narrated Thabit: Anas said, “I will leave no stone unturned in making you offer the Salât (prayer) as I have seen the Prophet making us offer it.” Anas used to do a thing which I have not seen you doing. He used to stand after the bowing for such a long time that one would think that he had forgotten (the prostrations) and he used to sit in-between the prostrations so long that one would think that he had forgotten the second prostration.

(141) CHAPTER. One should not put the forearms on the ground during prostrations.

Abū Ḥumaid said: The Prophet prostrated and put his hands (on the ground) with the forearms away from the ground and away from the body.

822. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, “Be straight in the prostrations and none of you should put his forearms on the ground (during prostration) like a dog.”

(142) CHAPTER. Sitting straight in a Witr prayer (i.e., an odd Rak'a) and then getting up.

823. Narrated Malik bin Ḥuwairith Al-Laithi: I saw the Prophet offering Salât (prayer) and in the odd Rak'a, he used to sit for a moment before getting up.

(143) CHAPTER. How to support oneself on the ground while standing after finishing the Rak’a (after the two prostrations)

824. Narrated Ayyūb: Abū Qilāba said, “Mālik bin Huwairith came to us and led us in Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) in this mosque of ours and said, ‘I lead you in Ṣalāt but I do not want to offer the Ṣalāt but just to show you how Allāh’s Messenger performed his Ṣalāt (prayer).’” I asked Abū Qilāba, “How was the Ṣalāt (prayer) of Malik bin Huwairith?” He replied, “Like the Ṣalāt (prayer) of this Sheikh of ours — i.e., ‘Amr bin Salama.” That Sheikh used to pronounce the Takbīr perfectly and when he raised his head from the second prostration he would sit for a while and then support himself on the ground and get up.

(144) CHAPTER. Saying Takbīr on rising from the two prostrations.

Ibn Az-Zubair used to say the Takbīr on rising.

825. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Al-Hārith: Abū Sa‘īd (Al-Khudri) led us in the Ṣalāt (prayer) and said the Takbīr aloud on arising from the prostration, and on prostrating, on rising again, and on getting up from the second Rak’a. Abū Sa‘īd said, “I saw the Prophet doing the same.”
826. Narrated Muţarrif: ‘Imrān and I offered Ṣalāt (prayers) behind ‘Ali bin Abī Tālib and he said Tatkīr on prostrating, on rising and on getting up after the two Rak‘a (i.e., after the second Rak‘a). When the Ṣalāt was finished, ‘Imrān took me by the hand and said, “He (‘Ali) has offered Ṣalāt (like the) Ṣalāt of Muḥammad ﷺ,” (or said, “He made us remember the Ṣalāt of Muḥammad ﷺ”).

(145) CHAPTER. The Prophet’s Sunna (legal way) for the sitting in the Tašah-hud [in the Ṣalāt (prayer)].

Umm Ad-Dardā’ used to sit in the Ṣalāt (prayer) like men and she was a woman well-versed (in religious knowledge).

827. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Abdullāh): I saw ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar crossing his legs while sitting in As-SAṣlāt (the prayer) and I, a mere youngster in those days, did the same. Ibn ‘Umar forbade me to do so, and said, “The proper way is to keep the right foot propped up and bend the left in As-SAṣlāt.” I said questioningly, “But you are doing so (crossing the legs).” He said, “My feet cannot bear my weight.”

828. Narrated Muḥammad bin ‘Amr bin ‘Aṭā‘: I was sitting with some of the Companions of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and we were discussing about the way of Ṣalāt (prayer) of the Prophet ﷺ. Abū Ḥumaid Aṣ-Sādi said, “I remember the Ṣalāt of Allāh’s Messenger better than anyone of you. I saw him raising both his hands up to the level of the shoulders on saying the Tukbīr; and on bowing, he placed his hands on both knees and bent his back straight, then he stood up straight from bowing till all the vertebrae took their normal positions. In prostrations, he placed both his hands on the ground with the forearms away from the ground and away from his body, and his toes were facing the Qiblah. On sitting in the second Rak’a, he sat on his left foot and propped up the right one; and in the last Rak’a he pushed his left foot forward and kept the other foot propped up and sat over his buttocks.”
(146) CHAPTER. Whoever considered that the first Tashah-hud is not compulsory.

As the Prophet stood up after the second Rak'a (without sitting for Tashah-hud) and did not perform it.

829. Narrated `Abdulläh bin Buḥaina (he was from the tribe of Azd Shanū’a and was one of the Companions of the Prophet) : Once the Prophet led us in the Zuhr prayer and stood up after the second Rak’a and did not sit down. The people stood up with him. When As-Ṣalāt (the prayer) was about to end and the people were waiting for him to say the Taslim, he said Takbir while sitting and prostrated twice (of Sahw-forgetfulness) before saying the Taslim and then he (finished the Ṣalāt saying the) Taslim.”

(147) CHAPTER. (Saying of the) Tashah-hud in the first sitting.

830. Narrated `Abdulläh bin Mālik bin Buḥaina: Once Allāh’s Messenger led us in the Zuhr prayer and got up (after the prostrations of the second Rak’a) although he should have sat (for the Tashah-hud). So, at the end of the Ṣalāt (prayer), he prostrated twice while sitting (prostrations of Sahw).
831. Narrated Shaqiq bin Salama: ‘Abdullah (bin Mas‘ūd) said, “Whenever we offered Salāt (prayer) behind the Prophet ﷺ, we used to recite (in sitting) As-Salām (peace) be on Jibril (Gabriel), Mikāil (Michael), peace be on so-and-so. Once Allah’s Messenger  [after finishing the Salāt (prayer)] looked back at us and said, “Allahummā khiṣaṣṣu La ilāhi allāh.” (148) CHAPTER. (Saying of the) Taṣahha-hud in the last Rak‘a.

832. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger  used to invoke Allah in As-Salāt (the prayer) saying, “Alláhumma inni a‘ddu bika min ‘adhabil-qabrī, wa a‘ddu bika min fitnatil-mashīhid-dajjāl, wa a‘ddu bika min fitnatil-mahyā wa fitnatil-mamātī. Alláhumma inni a‘ddu bika minal-mahāmātī wal-maghrāmī. [O Allah, I seek refuge with You from the punishment of the grave and from the Fītnah (trial and affliction etc.) of Masṭih Ad-Dajjāl and from the Fitnah of life and from the Fitnah of death. O Allah, I seek refuge with You from the sins and from being in debt)." Somebody said to him, "Why do you so frequently seek refuge with Allah from being in debt?" The Prophet ﷺ replied, "A person in debt tells lies whenever he speaks, and breaks promises whenever he makes (them)."

833. ‘Aishah also narrated: I heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ in his Salat seeking refuge with Allah from the Fitnah of Ad-Dajjal.

834. Narrated Abu Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddiq: I asked Allah's Messenger ﷺ to teach me an invocation so that I may invoke Allah with it in my Salat (prayer). He ﷺ told me to say, "Allahumma inni zalumtu nafsi zulman kathiran, wa lâ yaghfirudhu dhâbana innâ anika antal-Ghafurur-Rahim." (O Allah! I have done great Zulm (wrong) to myself and none except You forgives sins, so please forgive me and be Merciful to me as You are the Oft-Forgiver, the Most Merciful]."

(150) CHAPTER. What optional invocation may be selected after the Tashah-hud, and it is not obligatory.

835. Narrated ‘Abdullah (bin Mas‘ūd): Whenever we offered Salat (prayer) with the Prophet ﷺ we used to say, As-Salām. (peace) be on Allah from His slaves and peace be on so-and-so.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Don’t say As-Salām be on Allah, for He Himself is As-Salām, but say, ‘At-tahiyāt lillāhi waṣ-ṣalawātū waṭ-taiyibātū. As-Salāmu ‘alaika aiyuhan-Nabīyyu waraḥmatul-lâhi wa barakātuhu. As-Salāmu ‘alainā wa ‘ala ‘ibādillāh isṣāliḥin. If you say this then it will be for all the slaves in heaven or between heaven and earth. Aṣḥ-hadu an lā-ilāha ill-Allāhu wa aṣḥ-hadu anna Muḥammadan ‘abdulhā wa Rasūluhā.’

Then select the invocation you like best and recite it.” (See Hadith No.831, 832, 833 & 834).

(151) CHAPTER. No cleaning (rubbing) one’s forehead and nose till one has completed As-Salāt (the prayer).

And Abū ‘Abdullāh said: I saw Al-Humaidī quoting this Hadith (No.798) to support his argument that the forehead should not be cleaned (rubbed) in As-Salāt (prayer).

836. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنَّهُ: I saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ prostrating in mud and water and saw the mark of mud on his forehead.

(152) CHAPTER. Taslim [turning the face to the right and then to the left and saying “As-Salāmu ‘alaikum wa rahmat-ullāh” at the end of the Salāt (prayers)].

837. Narrated Umm Salama: Whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ finished his Salāt (prayers) with Taslim, the women would get up and he would stay on for a while in his place before getting up.

Ibn Shihāb said, “I think (and Allah knows better), that the purpose of his stay was that the women might leave before the men who had finished their Salāt (prayer).”

(153) CHAPTER. To finish the Salāt (prayer) with Taslim along with the Imām.

Ibn ‘Umar liked for those offering Salāt (prayers) behind the Imām to say Taslim (immediately) after the Imām had said it.

838. Narrated ‘Ibān (bin Mālik): We offered Salāt (prayer) with the Prophet ﷺ and used to finish our Salāt with the Taslim along with him.

(154) CHAPTER. Whoever did not say (a Taslim) in addition to the Taslim of the Imām but thought that Taslim of the Salāt (prayer) was sufficient.

839. Narrated Maḥmūd bin Ar-Rabī’i: I remember Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and also the mouthful of water which he took 839 - أَخْيَرُنا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: أَخْيَرُنا مَعْمَرُ from a bucket in our house and ejected (on me).

840. I heard from 'Itbân bin Mâlik Al-Ansâri, who was one from Banî Sâlim, saying, “I used to lead my tribe of Banî Sâlim in Salât (prayer). Once I went to the Prophet ﷺ and said to him, ‘I have weak eyesight and at times the rain-water floods intervenes between me and the mosque of my tribe and I wish that you would come to my house and offer Salât at some place so that I could take that place as a Musalla (appointed place for Salât).’ He said, ‘If Allâh will, I will do so.’ Next day Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, along with Abû Bakr, came to my house after the sun had risen high and he asked permission to enter. I gave him permission, but he didn’t sit till he said to me, ‘Where do you want me to offer Salât in your house?’ I pointed to a place in the house where I wanted him to offer Salât. So he stood up for the Salât and we aligned behind him. He completed the Salât with Taslîm and we did the same simultaneously.”

(155) CHAPTER. The Dhîkr (remembering Allâh by Glorifying, Praising and Magnifying Him) after Aş-Salât (the prayer).

841. Narrated Abu Ma’bad, the freed slave of Ibn ‘Abbâs: Ibn ‘Abbâs told me, “In the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ it was the custom to remember Allâh (Dhîkr) by glorifying, praising and magnifying Allâh aloud after the compulsory congregational Salât (prayers).” Ibn ‘Abbâs further said, “When I heard the Dhîkr, I would learn that the compulsory congregational \(\text{Salāt}\) had ended.

842. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: I used to recognise the completion of \(\text{As-Salāt}\) (the prayer) of the Prophet ﷺ by hearing \(Takbīr\).

843. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Some poor people came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “The wealthy people will get higher grades and will have permanent enjoyment, and they offer \(\text{Salāt}\) (prayer) like us and observe \(\text{Saum}\) (fast) as we do. They have more money by which they perform the \(\text{Hajj}\), and \(\text{Umrah}\); fight and struggle in Allah’s Cause and give in charity.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Shall I not tell you a thing upon which if you acted you would catch up with those who have surpassed you? Nobody would overtake you and you would be better than the people amongst whom you live except those who would do the same. Say \(\text{Subhān Allāh, Alhamdu-lillāh and Allāhu Akbar}\) thirty-three times each after every (compulsory) \(\text{Salāt}\) (prayer).” We differed and some of us said that we should say \(\text{Subhān Allāh}\) thirty three times and \(\text{Alhamdu lillāh}\) thirty-three times and \(\text{Allāhu Akbar}\) thirty-four times. I went to the Prophet ﷺ who said, “Say, Subhān Allāh and Alḥammad Allāhu Akbar all of them for thirty-three times.”

844. Narrated Warrad, the clerk of Al-Mughira bin Shu’ba: Once, Al-Mughira dictated to me in a letter addressed to Mu‘āwiyya that the Prophet ﷺ used to say after every compulsory Salāt (prayer), “Lā ilāhā illallahu wahdahā la sharika lahu, lahul-mulk wa-lahul-hamdu, wa huwa ala kulli shai’in Qadīr. Allāhumma lā mani’a lima ‘a’ta, wa lā mu’tiya limā mana’ta, wa lā yanfa’i dhal-jaddi minkal-jadd. (None has the right to be worshipped but Allāh and He has no partner in Lordship or in worship or in the Names and the Qualities(1) and for Him is the kingdom and all the praises and thanks are for Him and He is Omnipotent. O Allāh! Nobody can hold back what You give and nobody can give what You hold back. Hard efforts by anyone (or good luck or riches) for anything cannot benefit one against Your Will.” And Al-Hasan said, “Al-Jadd means riches (prosperity)).”

846. Narrated Zaid bin Khâlid Al-Juhani: The Prophet  led us in the Fajr prayer at Hudaibiya after a rainy night. On completion of the Salât (prayer), he faced the people and said, “Do you know what your Lord has said (revealed)?” The people replied, “Allah and His Messenger know better.” He said, “Allah has said, ‘In this morning some of Ibâdi (My slaves) remained as true believers and some became disbelievers; whoever said that the rain was due to the Blessings and the Mercy of Allah, is the one (Ibâdi) who believes in Me and he disbelieves in the star, and whoever said that it rained because of a particular star is a disbeliever in Me and a believer in the star’.”

847. Narrated Anas (bin Malik): Once the Prophet  delayed the ‘Ishâ’ prayer until midnight and then came to us. Having offered Salât (prayers) he faced us and said, “The people had offered and slept but you were in the Salât as long as you were waiting for it.”
(157) CHAPTER. The staying of the Imam at his Musalla (praying place) after (finishing the prayer with) Taslim.

848. Narrated Nafi': Ibn 'Umar used to offer prayers (Nawafil) at the place where he had offered the compulsory prayer. Al-Qasim (bin Muhammad bin Abi Bakr) did the same.

The narration coming from Abü Hurairah (from the Prophet ) forbidding the Imam from offering prayers (optional prayer) at the same place where he has offered the compulsory prayer (is incorrect).

849. Narrated Umm Salama, "The Prophet after finishing the prayer with Taslim used to stay at his place for a while."

Ibn Shihâb said, "I think (and Allâh knows better), that he used to wait for the departure of the women who had offered prayers."

850. Ibn Shihâb wrote that he had heard it from Hind bin Al-Hârith Al-Firasîyya who heard it from Umm Salama, the wife of the Prophet (Hind was from the companions of Umm Salama) who said, "When the Prophet finished the prayer with Taslim, the women would depart and enter their houses before Allâh's Messenger departed."
(158) CHAPTER. Whoever led the people in Salât (prayer) and remembered an urgent matter or necessity and had to pass over the people (to carry out that).

851. Narrated `Uqba b. `Abd Allâh: I offered the 'Asr prayer behind the Prophet at Al-Madina. When he had finished the Salât (prayer) with Taslim, he got up hurriedly and went out by crossing the rows of the people to one of the dwellings of his wives. The people got scared at his speed.

The Prophet came back and found the people surprised at his haste and said to them, “I remembered a piece of gold lying in my house and I did not like it to divert my attention from Allâh’s worship, so I have ordered it to be distributed (in charity).”
To leave or depart from the right and from the left after finishing from the Salât (prayers).

Anas bin Mâlik used to leave off from his right and from his left, and he used to criticize all those who always aimed to leave from their right side only.

852. Narrated Abdullâh (bin Mas'ûd):
You should not give away a part of your Salât (prayer) to Satan by thinking that it is necessary to depart (after finishing the Salât) from one's right side only; I have seen the Prophet frequently departing from the left side.

(160) CHAPTER. What has been said about uncooked garlic, onion and leek.

And the statement of the Prophet ﷺ: "Whoever has eaten garlic or onion because of hunger or otherwise should not come near our mosque."

853. Narrated Ibn 'Umar:
During the holy battle of Khaiâr the Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever ate from this plant (i.e., garlic) should not enter our mosque."
854. Narrated ‘Aţā: I heard Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh saying, “The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Whoever eats (from) this plant (he meant garlic) should keep away from our mosque.’” I said, “What does he mean by that?” He replied, “I think he means only raw garlic.”

855. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh, in another narration said, “Once a big pot containing (cooked) vegetables was brought. On finding unpleasant smell coming from it, the Prophet ﷺ asked, ‘What is in it?’ He was told all the names of the vegetables that were in it. The Prophet ﷺ ordered that it should be brought near to some of his Companions who were with him. When the Prophet ﷺ saw it he disliked to eat it and said, ‘Eat. (I don’t eat) for I converse with those whom you don’t converse with (i.e., the angels).’”
856. Narrated ‘Abdul ‘Azîz: A man asked Anas, “What did you hear from the Prophet about garlic?” He said, “The Prophet said, ‘Whoever has eaten this plant should not come near us or he should not offer Salât (prayer) with us’.”

(161) CHAPTER. The ablution for boys. When they should perform Ghusl (take a bath) and Tuhûr (purification). Their attendance at congregational prayers, Eid prayers and funeral prayers and their rows in the prayers.

857. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet passed by a grave that was separated from the other graves and led the people in the (funeral) prayer and the people aligned behind him. I said, “O Ab ‘Amr! Who told you about it?” He said, “Ibn ‘Abbâs.”

858. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudrî: The Prophet said, “Ghusl (taking a bath) on Friday is compulsory for every Muslim reaching the age of puberty.”
859. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs:
One night I slept at the house of my aunt Mâimûna and the Prophet also slept (too). He got up [for Ṣalât (prayer)] in the last hours of the night and performed a light ablution from a hanging leather water-skin. (‘Amr, the subnarrator described that the ablution was very light). Then he stood up for Ṣalât and I got up too and performed the ablution in the same way and joined him on his left side. He pulled me to the right and offered prayers as much as Allâh will. Then he lay down and slept and I heard his breath sounds till the Mu’adh-dhin came to him to inform him about the (Fajr) prayer. He left with him for the Ṣalât and offered Ṣalât without repeating the ablution. (Sûfînân the subnarrator said: We said to ‘Amr, “Some people say, ‘The eyes of the Prophet sleep but his heart never sleeps’.” ‘Amr said, “ ‘Ubâd bin ‘Umair said, ‘The dreams of the Prophets are Divine Revelations. Then he recited, ‘...O my son, I have seen in a dream that I am slaughtering you (offering you in sacrifice to Allâh...)” (V.37:102).

860. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik:
My grandmother Mulaika invited Allâh’s Messenger for a meal which she had prepared specially for him. He ate some of it and said, “Get up. I shall lead you in the prayer.” I brought a mat that had become black owing to excessive use and I sprinkled water on it. Allâh’s Messenger stood on it and offered two Rak’a; and the orphan was with me (in the first row), and the old lady stood behind us.
861. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Once I came riding a she-ass and I, then, had just attained the age of puberty. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was leading the people in Salāt (prayer) at Mīnā facing no wall. I passed in front of the row and let loose the she-ass for grazing and joined the row and no one objected to my deed.

862. Narrated ‘Aishah: Once Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ delayed the ‘Ishā’ prayer till ‘Umar informed him that the women and children had slept. Then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came out and said: “None from amongst the dwellers of earth have offered this Salāt (prayer) except you. In those days none but the people of Al-Madīnah used to offer Salāt (prayer).”

"Have you ever presented yourself at the ('Eid) prayer with Allâh's Messenger ﷺ?" He replied, "Yes. And had it not been for my kinship (position) with the Prophet, it would not have been possible for me to do so (for he was too young). The Prophet ﷺ went to the mark near the house of Kathîr bin As-Salt and delivered a Khutba (religious talk). He then went towards the women. He advised and reminded them and asked them to give in charity. So the woman would bring her hand near her neck and take off her necklace and put it in the garment of Bilal. Then the Prophet ﷺ and Bilal came to the house."

(162) CHAPTER. Going of women to the mosques at night and in darkness.

864. Narrated 'Aishah ﷺ: Once Allâh's Messenger ﷺ delayed the 'Ishâ' prayer till 'Umar informed him that the women and children had slept. The Prophet ﷺ came out and said, "None except you from amongst the dwellers of earth were waiting for this Salât (prayer)." In those days, none offered Salât except the people of Al-Madîna and they used to offer the 'Ishâ' prayer between the disappearance of the twilight and the first third of the night.

865. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, "If your women ask permission to go to the mosque at night, allow them."
(163) CHAPTER. The waiting of the people for the religious learned Imâm to get up (after the prayer to depart).

866. Narrated Umm Salama \( \text{رضية الله عنها} \): In the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger \( \text{رسول الله} \) the women used to get up when they finished their compulsory Salât (prayers) with Taslîm. The Prophet \( \text{رسول الله} \) and the men would stay on at their places as long as Allah will. When the Prophet \( \text{رسول الله} \) got up, the men would then get up.

867. Narrated ‘Aishah \( \text{رضية الله عنها} \): Whenever Allah’s Messenger \( \text{رسول الله} \) finished the Fajr prayer, the women would leave covered in their sheets and were not recognized owing to the darkness.

869. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها: Had Allah's Messenger ﷺ known what the women were doing, he would have forbidden them from going to the mosque as the women of Bani Isra'il were forbidden.

Yahyā bin Sa'id (a subnarrator) asked 'Amra (another subnarrator), “Were the women of Bani Isra'il forbidden?” She replied, “Yes.”

(164) CHAPTER. The Salāt (prayer) of women behind men.

870. Narrated Umm Salama رضي الله عنها: Whenever Allah's Messenger ﷺ completed the Salāt (prayer) with Taslim, the women used to get up immediately and Allah's Messenger ﷺ would remain at his place for sometime before getting up. [The subnarrator (Az-Zuhri) said, “We think, and Allah knows better, that he did so, so that the women might leave before the men could catch up with them.”]

871. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ offered Salāt (prayers) in the house of Umm Sulaim; and I, along with an orphan stood behind him while Umm Sulaim (stood) behind us.

(165) CHAPTER. Returning of the women immediately after the Fajr prayer and their staying in the mosque for a short period only.

872. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allāh’s Messenger used to offer the Fajr prayer when it was still dark and the believing women used to return (after finishing their prayer) and nobody could recognize them owing to darkness, or they could not recognize one another.

873. Narrated Salim bin ‘Abdullāh: My father said, “The Prophet said, ‘If the wife of any one of you asks permission (to go to the mosque), do not forbid her.’”

(166) CHAPTER. A woman shall ask her husband’s permission (on wishing) to go to the mosque.

874. Narrated Anas: The Prophet offered Salāt (prayers) in the house of Umm Sulaim; and I, along with an orphan stood behind him while Umm Sulaim (stood) behind us.
875. Narrated Umm Salama:
When Allah's Messenger ﷺ completed the Salāt (prayer) with Taslīm, the women used to get up immediately and Allah's Messenger ﷺ would remain at his place for sometime before getting up. [The subnarrator (Az-Zuhri) said, “We think, and Allah knows better, that he did so, so that the women might leave before the men could catch up with them.”]

11 – THE BOOK OF AL-JUMU’AH (FRIDAY)

(1) CHAPTER. The prescription of Friday [Salât-ul-Jumu’ah (Jumu’ah prayer)] and Khutba (religious talk) according to the Statement of Allah ﷺ: “When the call is proclaimed for the Salât (prayer) of Friday (Jumu’ah prayer) come to the remembrance of Allâh [Jumu’ah religious talk (Khutba) and Salât (prayer)] and leave off business (and every other thing).” (V.62:9)

876. Narrated Abû Hurairah: I heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “We (Muslims) are the last (to come) but (will be) the foremost on the Day of Resurrection though the former nations were given the Scripture before us. And this was their day (Friday) the celebration of which [i.e. religious ceremonies like Khutba (religious talk)], (Jumu’ah prayer etc.) was made compulsory for them but they differed about it. So, Allâh gave us the guidance for it (Friday) and all the other people are behind us in this respect: the Jews’ (holy day is) the following day (i.e. Saturday) and the Christians’ (is) the day after the following day (i.e. Sunday).”

(2) CHAPTER. The superiority of taking a bath on Friday. And is it necessary for boys and women to attend the Friday (prayer)?

877. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Anyone of you attending the Friday (prayer) should take a bath.”
878. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: While ‘Umar bin Al-Khattãb was standing and delivering the Khutba (religious talk) on a Friday, one of the Companions of the Prophet, who was one of the foremost Muhajir (emigrants) came. ‘Umar said to him, “What is the time now?” He replied, “I was busy and could not go back to my house till I heard the Adhã:n. I did not perform more than the ablution.” There-upon ‘Umar said to him, “Did you perform only the ablution although you know that Allah’s Messenger used to order us to take a bath (on Fridays)?”

879. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudri: Allah’s Messenger said, “The taking of a bath on Friday is compulsory for every Muslim who has attained the age of puberty.”

(3) CHAPTER. To perfume (oneself) before going for the Friday (prayer).

880. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd: I testify that Allah’s Messenger said, “The taking of a bath on Friday is compulsory for every Muslim who has attained the age of puberty and also the cleaning of his teeth with Siwãk, and the using of perfume, if available.”

‘Amr (a subnarrator) said, “I confirm that the taking of a bath is compulsory, but as for the Siwâk and the use of perfume, Allâh knows better whether it is obligatory or not, but according to the Hadîth it is as above.’

(4) CHAPTER. The superiority of Jumu‘ah (prayer and Khutba).

[The weekly congregational Salât (prayer) offered by Muslims at the time of Šalât-uz-Zuhr (Zuhr prayer). This Šalât (prayer) is preceded by a Khutba (religious talk).]

881.Narrated Abu Hurairah Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Any person who takes a bath on Friday like the bath of Janâba and then goes for the Šalât (prayer) (in the first hour i.e., early), it is as if he had sacrificed a camel (in Allâh’s Cause); and whoever goes in the second hour it is as if he had sacrificed a cow; and whoever goes in the third hour, then it is as if he had sacrificed a horned ram; and if one goes in the fourth hour, then it is as if he had sacrificed a hen; and whoever goes in the fifth hour then it is as if he had offered an egg. When the Imam comes out [i.e. starts delivering the Khutba (religious talk)], the angels present themselves to listen to the Khutba.”
882. Narrated Abū Hurairah: While 'Umar (bin Al-Khaṭṭāb) was delivering the Khutbah (religious talk) on a Friday, a man entered (the mosque). 'Umar asked him, "What has detained you from the Salāt (prayer)?" The man said, "It was only that when I heard the Adhān I performed ablution (for the Salāt)." On that 'Umar said, "Did you not hear the Prophet saying: 'Anyone of you going out for the Friday (prayer) should take a bath'?"

883. Narrated Salman Al-Fārsi: The Prophet said, "Whoever takes a bath on Friday, purifies himself as much as he can, then uses his (hair) oil or perfumes himself with the scent of his house, then proceeds [for the Salāt-ul-Jumu'ah (Jumu'ah prayer)] and does not separate two persons sitting together (in the mosque), then offers Salāt (prayers) as much as (Allāh has) written for him and then remains silent while the Imām is delivering the Khutbah (religious talk), his sins in-between the present and the last Friday would be forgiven."

884. Narrated Tāwūs Ibn 'Abbās: I said to Ibn 'Abbās, "The people are narrating that the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Take a bath on Friday and wash your heads (i.e., take a thorough bath) even though you were not Junub and use perfume.’” On that Ibn ‘Abbās replied, “I know about the bath, (i.e., it is essential) but I do not know about the perfume (i.e., whether it is essential or not.]“

885. Narrated Ṭāwūs: Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما mentioned the statement of the Prophet ﷺ regarding the taking of a bath on Friday and then I asked him whether the Prophet ﷺ had ordered perfume or (hair) oil to be used if they could be found in one’s house. He (Ibn ‘Abbās) replied that he did not know about it.

886. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb رضي الله عنهما saw a silken cloak (being sold) at the gate of the mosque and said to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, “I wish you would buy this to wear on Fridays and also on occasions of the arrivals of the delegations”. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ replied, “This will be worn by a person who will have no share (reward) in the Hereafter.” Later on similar cloaks were given to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and he gave one of them to ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb. On that ‘Umar said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! You have given me this cloak although on the cloak of ‘Uṭārīd (a cloak merchant who was selling that silken cloak at the gate of the mosque) you passed such and such a remark.” Allāh’s Messenger replied, “I have not given you this to wear”. And so ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb gave it to his pagan brother in Makkah to wear.

(8) CHAPTER. To clean the teeth with Siwāk on Friday.

And Abū Sa`īd said that the Prophet used to clean his teeth.

887. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “If I had not found it hard for my followers — or the people — I would have ordered them to clean their teeth with Siwāk for every Salāt (prayer).”

888. Narrated Anas: Allāh’s Messenger said, “I have told you repeatedly to (use) the Siwāk.” (The Prophet put emphasis on the use of the Siwāk.)

889. Narrated Hudhaifa: Whenever the Prophet got up at night [for the night Salāt (prayer)], he used to clean his mouth.
9) CHAPTER. Whoever cleans his teeth with Siwák belonging to someone else.

890. Narrated ‘Āishah: ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Abī Bakr came holding a Siwák with which he was cleaning his teeth. Allâh’s Messengerî looked at him. I requested ‘Abdur-Rahmān to give the Siwák to me and after he gave it to me, I divided it into two, chewed one of it, and gave it to Allâh’s Messengerî. Then heî cleaned his teeth with it and (at that time) he was resting against my chest.

10) CHAPTER. What should be recited (from the Qur’ān) in the Salât-ul-Fajr (Fajr prayer) on Friday.

891. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophetî used to recite (the following) in the Salât-ul-Fajr (Fajr prayer) of Friday: “Alif, Lâm, Mîm, Tanzîl” (Sûrat Âs-Sajdah), (No.32) and “Hal-āta-alal-Insâni” (i.e. Sûrat Ad-Dahr). (No.76).

11) CHAPTER. To offer the Salât-ul-Jumu‘ah (prayer and Khutba (religious talk)) in villages and towns.

892. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The first Jumu‘ah (prayer) offered after the Jumu'ah (prayer) offered at the mosque of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was in the mosque of the tribe of ‘Abdul Qais at Jawâthâ in Bahrain.

893. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “All of you are guardians.”

Yûnus said: Ruzaiq bin Ḥukaim wrote to Ibn Shihâb while I was with him at Wâdi Al-Qura saying, “Shall I lead the Jumu’ah (prayer)?” Ruzaiq was working on the land (i.e., farming) and there was a group of Sudanese people and some others with him; Ruzaiq was then the Governor of Aila. Ibn Shihâb wrote (to Ruzaiq) ordering him to lead the Salât-ul-Jumu’ah (Jumu’ah prayer) and telling him that Sâlim told him that ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar had said, “I heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, ‘All of you are guardians and responsible for your wards and the things under your care. The Imam (i.e., ruler) is the guardian of his subjects and is responsible for them, and a man is the guardian of his family and is responsible for them. A woman is the guardian of her husband’s house and is responsible for it. A servant is the guardian of his master’s belongings and is responsible for them.’”

Ibn Umar added, “I thought that he also said, ‘A man is the guardian of his father’s property and is responsible for it. All of you are guardians and responsible for your wards and the things under your care.’”
(12) CHAPTER. Is the taking of a bath (on Friday) necessary for women, boys, and others who do not present themselves for the Jumu‘ah (prayer).

And Ibn ‘Umar said, “A bath is compulsory for those on whom the Jumu‘ah (prayer) is obligatory.”

895. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: Allah’s Messenger said, “The taking of a bath on Friday is compulsory for every Muslim who has attained the age of puberty.”

896. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said “We (Muslims) are the last (to come) but (will be) the foremost on the Day of Resurrection. They were given the Scripture before us and we were given the Qur‘ān after them. And this was the day (Friday) about which they differed and Allah gave us the guidance (for that). So the following day (i.e. Saturday) is for the Jews and the day after the following day (i.e. Sunday) is for the Christians'.” The Prophet remained silent (for a while).

897. Then said, “It is obligatory for every Muslim that he should take a bath once in seven days, when he should wash his head and body.”

898. Narrated Abū Hurairah through different narrators that the Prophet ﷺ said, “It is Allah’s Right on every Muslim that he should take a bath (at least) once in seven days.”

(13) CHAPTER.

899. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar :
The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allow women to go to the mosques at night.”

900. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar :
One of the wives of ‘Umar (bin Al-Khaṭṭāb) used to offer the Fajr and the ‘Iṣharga Salāt (prayers) in congregation in the mosque. She was asked why she had come out for the Salāt as she knew that ‘Umar disliked it, and he has great Ghaira (self-respect). She replied, “What prevents him from stopping me from this act?” The other replied, “The statement of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ: ‘Do not stop Allāh’s ‘Imā’ (women-slaves) from going to Allāh’s Mosques’, prevents him.”

(14) CHAPTER. It is permissible for one not to attend the Jumu‘ah (prayer) if it is raining.

901. Narrated Muḥammad bin Sirīn: On a rainy day Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنه said to his Mu‘adh-dhīn, “After saying, ‘‘Ash-hadu anna ‘Ullāh wālaina’ (I testify that Muhammad is Allāh’s Messenger), do not say ‘‘Haiya ‘alās-‘Alāh’ [Come for the Šalāt (prayer)] but say: ‘Salā Fi Būtikum (offer Šalāt in your houses)’.” (The man did so). But the people disliked it. Ibn ‘Abbās said, “It was done by one who was much better than I (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ). No doubt, the Jumu‘ah (prayer) is compulsory but I dislike to put you to task by bringing you out walking in mud and slush.”

(15) CHAPTER. From where (distance) should one present oneself for the Jumu‘ah (prayer) and for whom is the Jumu‘ah (prayer) compulsory?

(What judgement is inferred from) the Statement of Allāh ﷻ: ‘...When the call is proclaimed for the Šalāt (prayer) on Friday (Jumu‘ah prayer) come to the remembrance of Allāh [Jumu‘ah religious talk (Khutba) and Šalāt (prayer)].” (V.62:9)

And ‘Atā said, “If you are in a village and... the \(\text{Adhān}\) is pronounced for the \(\text{Salāt-ul-Jumu'ah}\) (Jumu'ah prayer), it is obligatory for you to present yourself for the Jumu'ah (prayer) whether you hear the \(\text{Adhān}\) or not. And at times, Anas used to establish the \(\text{Salāt-ul-Jumu'ah}\) (Jumu'ah prayer) at his palace and sometime he did not, while he was at a place called Az-Zāwīya, situated at a distance of two parasangs (about six miles from Basrah).

902. Narrated 'Āishah, the wife of the Prophet \(\text{SAWS}\): The people used to come from their abodes and from \(\text{Al-'Awālī}\) (i.e., outskirts of Al-Madīna up to a distance of four miles or more from Al-Madīna). They used to pass through dust and used to be drenched with sweat and covered with dust; so, sweat used to trickle from them. One of them came to Allah's Messenger \(\text{SAWS}\) who was in my house. The Prophet \(\text{SAWS}\) said to him, “I wish that you keep yourself pure and clean on this day of yours (i.e., take a bath).”

(16) CHAPTER. The time for the Jumu'ah (prayer) due when the sun declines, i.e., just after mid-day.

The same was said by 'Umar, 'Alī, An-Nu'mān bin Bashir and 'Amr bin Ḥuraithah.

903. Narrated Yaḥyā bin Sa'īd: I asked 'Amra about taking a bath on Fridays. She replied, “'Āishah,-\text{SAWS}\) said, 'The people used to work (for their livelihood) and whenever they went for the Jumu'ah (prayer) they used to go to the mosque in the same shape as they had been in work. So they were asked to take a bath on Friday.'"

904. Narrated Anäs bin Malik : The Prophet used to offer the Jumu'ah (prayer) immediately after mid-day.

905. Narrated Anas bin Malik : We used to offer the Jumu'ah (prayer) early and then have an afternoon nap.

(17) CHAPTER. If it becomes very hot on Fridays (then what should be done)?

906. Narrated Anas bin Malik : The Prophet used to offer the Salât (prayer) earlier if it was very cold; and if it was very hot he used to delay the Salât, i.e. the Jumu'ah (prayer).
(18) CHAPTER. To go for the Jumu’ah (prayer) walking unhurriedly.

And the Statement of Allâh the Majestic:
“...Come to the remembrance of Allâh [Jumu’ah religious talk (Khutba) and Salât (prayer)]” (V.62:9) and whoever said that the meaning of “come” is “to prepare and go for the Salât (prayer)” as is inferred from the Statement of Allâh the Majestic: “And strives for it, with the necessary effort due for it...” (V.17:19)

And Ibn ‘Abbâs Ṭabâtâbâ: “Selling is forbidden at that time.” And ‘Atâ’ said, “All types of work are forbidden [at the time of the Salât (prayer)].” And narrated Az-Zuhri: If the Adhân is pronounced by the Mu’âdh-džîn on Friday [for Salât-ul-Jumu’ah (Jumu’ah prayer)] anyone on a journey should attend the Salât (prayer).

907. Narrated Abû ‘Abs Ṭabâtâbâ, while he was going for the Jumu’ah prayer: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Anyone whose feet are covered with dust in Allâh’s Cause, shall be saved by Allâh from the Hell-fire.”

908. Narrated Abû Hurairah: I heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “If the Iqâma is pronounced for the Salât (prayer), do not run for it but just walk for it calmly and offer \textit{Salāt} whatever you get, and complete whatever you have missed.”

\textbf{909}. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Qatāda on the authority of his father: The Prophet \textit{ṣ}allātullahi 'alaihi wa sallam said, “Do not stand up for \textit{Salāt} (prayer) unless you see me (in front of you), and observe calmness and solemnity”.

\textbf{(19) CHAPTER. One should not separate two persons (sitting together in a row) on Fridays.}

\textbf{910}. Narrated Salmān Al-Fārisī: Allah’s Messenger \textit{ṣ}allātullahi 'alaihi wa sallam said, “Anyone who takes a bath on Friday and cleanse himself as much as he can and puts oil (on his hair) or scents himself; and then proceeds for the \textit{Salāt} (prayer) and does not separate two persons [sitting together in a mosque for the \textit{Salāt-ul-Jumu'ah} (\textit{Jumu'ah} prayer)], and offers \textit{Salāt} (prayer) as much as is written for him and remains quiet when the \textit{Imām} delivers the \textit{Khutba} (religious talk), all his sins in-between the present and the last Friday will be forgiven.”
(20) CHAPTER. A man should not make his brother get up to sit in his place (i.e. usurp his seat) on Friday.

911. Narrated Ibn Juraij: I heard Nāfi' saying, "Ibn 'Umar said, 'The Prophet forbade that a man should make another man to get up to sit in his place.'" I said to Nāfi', 'Is it for Jumu'ah (prayer) only?' He replied, "For Jumu'ah (prayer) and also for any other (prayer)."

(21) CHAPTER. Adhān on Friday (for the Jumu'ah prayer).

912. Narrated Aṣ-Ṣā’īb bin Yazīd: In the lifetime of the Prophet, Abū Bakr and 'Umar, the Adhān for the Jumu'ah prayer used to be pronounced when the Imam sat on the pulpit. But during the caliphate of 'Uthmān, when the Muslims increased in number, a third Adhān at Az-Zaurā' was added. Abū 'Abdullāh said, "Az-Zaurā' is a place in the market of Al-Madina."

(22) CHAPTER. One Mu‘adh-dhin on Friday.

913. Narrated Aṣ-Ṣā’īb bin Yazīd: The person who increased the number of Adhân for the Jumu‘ah prayer to three was ‘Uthmân bin ‘Affân and it was when the (Muslim) population of Al-Madīna increased. In the lifetime of the Prophet there was only one Mu‘adh-dhin and the Adhân used to be pronounced only after the Imam had taken his seat (i.e., on the pulpit).

(23) CHAPTER. The Imam, while sitting on the pulpit, repeats the wordings of the Adhân when he hears it.

914. Narrated Abū Umāma bin Sa‘l bin Hunaif: I heard Mu‘āwiya bin Abī Sufyān (repeating the wording of the Adhân) while he was sitting on the pulpit. When the Mu‘adh-dhin pronounced the Adhân saying, “Allahu-Akbar, Allahu-Akbar”, Mu‘āwiya said: “Allahu-Akbar, Allahu-Akbar.” And when the Mu‘adh-dhin said, “Ash-hadu an la ilāha illallah (I testify that none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh)”, Mu‘āwiya said, “And (so do) I”. When he said, “Ash-hadu anna Muḥammadan Rasūl Allâh (I testify that Muḥammad is Allâh’s Messenger)”, Mu‘āwiya said, “And (so do) I”. When the Adhân was finished, Mu‘āwiya said, “O people, when the Mu‘adh-dhin pronounced the Adhân, I heard Allâh’s Messenger on this very pulpit saying what you have just heard me saying”.

914 - حديثنا عبيدُ العزيز بن أبي سلمة
المالكُون عن الزهرِي، عن السَّابِب
بن يزيد: أن الذي رآى التأذين الثالث
يوم الجماعة عثمان بن عفان رضي
الله عنه، حين كان أهل المدينة، ولم
يكن للنبي ﷺ مُؤذنٌ غرٍّ واجدٍ,
وكان التأذين يوم الجماعة حين يجلس
الإمام، يعني على المنبر.

[راجع: 914]
CHAPTER. To sit on the pulpit while the Adhân is being pronounced.

915. Narrated Aṣ-Ṣâ‘îb bin Yazîd رضي الله عنه: ‘Uthmân bin ‘Affân introduced the second Adhân on Fridays when the number of the people in the mosque increased. Previously the Adhân on Fridays used to be pronounced only after the Imam had taken his seat (on the pulpit).

CHAPTER. To pronounce the Adhân before delivering the Khutba (religious talk).

916. Narrated Az-Zuhri: I heard Aṣ-Ṣâ‘îb bin Yazîd رضي الله عنه saying, “In the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, and Abu Bakr and ‘Umar رضي الله عنهم, the Adhân for the Jumu‘ah prayer used to be pronounced after the Imam had taken his seat on the pulpit. But when the people increased in number during the caliphate of ‘Uthmân رضي الله عنه, he introduced a third Adhân on Friday for the Jumu‘ah prayer and it was pronounced at Az-Zaurâ and that new state of affairs remained stable and firm (in the succeeding years).

CHAPTER. (To deliver) the Khutba (religious talk) on the pulpit.

And Anas ﷺ said: “The Prophet ﷺ delivered the Khutba on the pulpit.”

917. Narrated Abû Ḥāzim bin Dinâr: Some people went to Sahl bin Sa‘d Aṣ-Ṣâ‘îdī and told him that they had different opinions regarding the wood of the pulpit. They asked him about it and he said, “By Allah, I know of what wood the pulpit was made, and no doubt I saw it on the very first day when Allah’s Messenger took his seat on it. Allah’s Messenger sent for such and such an Ansari woman (and Sahî mentioned her name) and said to her, ‘Order your slave-carpenter to prepare for me a pulpit on which I may sit at the time of addressing the people.’ So, she ordered her slave-carpenter and he made it from the tamarisk of the forest and brought it (to the woman). The woman sent that (pulpit) to Allah’s Messenger who ordered it to be placed here. Then I saw Allah’s Messenger offering Salât (prayer) on it and then bowed on it. Then he stepped back, got down and prostrated on the ground near the foot of the pulpit and again ascended the pulpit. After finishing the Salât (prayer) he faced the people and said, ‘I have done this so that you may follow me and learn the way I offer the Salât’ (prayer).”

918. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: The Prophet used to stand by a stem of a date-palm tree [while delivering a Khutba (religious talk)]. When the pulpit was placed for him we heard that stem crying like a pregnant she-camel till the Prophet got down from the pulpit and placed his hand over it.
919. Narrated Sálim: My father said, “I heard the Prophet delivering the Khuṭba (religious talk) on the pulpit and he said, ‘Whoever comes for the Jumu‘ah (prayer) should take a bath (before coming).’”

(27) CHAPTER. To deliver the Khuṭba (religious talk) while standing.

And Anas said: “While the Prophet was delivering the Khuṭba (religious talk) standing...” [This narration of Anas is a part of Hadith No. 933. (See Fath Al-Bāri)].

920. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet used to deliver the Khuṭba (religious talk) while standing and then he would sit, then stand again as you do nowadays.

(28) CHAPTER. The facing of the Imam towards the people and the facing of the people towards the Imam during the Khuṭba (religious talk).

And Ibn ‘Umar and Anas faced the Imam.
921.Narrated Abü Sā‘îd Al-Khūdri: One day the Prophet sat on the pulpit and we sat around him.

922. Narrated Fatimah bint Al-Mundhir: Asmā’ bint Abî Bakr Ab-sa-Siddîq said, “I went to ‘Anshah and the people were offering Salât (prayers). I asked her, ‘What is wrong with the people?’ She pointed towards the sky with her head. I asked her, ‘Is there a sign?’ ‘Aishah nodded with her head meaning ‘Yes.’” Asmā’ added, “Allah’s Messenger prolonged the Salât (prayer) to such an extent that I fainted. There was a waterskin by my side and I opened it and poured some water on my head. When Allah’s Messenger finished Salât, and the solar eclipse had cleared, the Prophet addressed the people and praised Allah as He deserves and said, ‘Ammā ba’du.’” Asmā’ further said, “Some Anṣārī women started talking, so I turned to them in order to make them quiet. I asked ‘Aishah what the Prophet had said. ‘Aishah said: ‘He said, ‘I have seen things at this place of mine which were never shown to me before; (I have seen) even Paradise...”

(29) CHAPTER. Saying “Ammā ba’du” in the Khutba (religious talk) after glorifying and praising Allâh.

Ibn ‘Abbâs quoted this from the Prophet ﷺ.

and Hell. And, no doubt it has been revealed to me that you (people) will be put to trial in your graves like or nearly like the trial of Masih Ad-DajjaL. (The angels) will come to everyone of you and ask him, ‘What do you know about this man (Prophet Muhammad ﷺ)?’ The faithful believer or firm believer (Hishãm was in doubt which word the Prophet ﷺ used), will say, ‘He is Allãh’s Messenger ﷺ and he is Muhammãd ﷺ who came to us with clear evidences and guidance. So we believed him, accepted his teachings and followed and trusted his teachings.’ Then the angels will tell him to sleep (in peace) as they have come to know that he was a believer. But the hypocrite or a doubtful person (Hishãm is not sure as to which word the Prophet ﷺ used), will be asked what he knew about this man (Prophet Muhammad ﷺ). He will say, ‘I do not know but I heard the people saying something (about him) so I said the same’ Hishãm added, ‘Fãtima told me that she remembered that narration completely by heart except that she said about the hypocrite or a doubtful person that he will be punished severely.’

923. Narrated ‘Amr bin Taglib: Some property or something else was brought to Allãh’s Messenger ﷺ and he distributed it. He gave to some men and ignored the others. Later he got the news of his being admonished by those whom he had ignored. So he glorified and praised Allãh and said, ‘Ammã ba ’du. By Allãh, I may give to a man and ignore another, although the one whom I ignore is more dearer to me than the one whom I give. But I give to some people as I feel that they have no patience and no contentment in their hearts and I leave those who are patient and self-contented with the goodness and richness which Allah has put in their hearts and 'Amr bin Taglib is one of them.' ‘Amr added, “By Allah! Those words of Allah’s Messenger were more dearer to me than the best red camels.”

924. Narrated ‘Aishah: Once in the middle of the night Allah’s Messenger went out and offered Salat (prayer) in the mosque and some men also offered Salat (prayer) with him. The next morning the people spoke about it and so more people gathered and offered Salat (prayer) with him (in the second night). They circulated the news in the morning, and so, on the third night the number of people increased greatly. Allah’s Messenger came out and they offered Salat (prayer) behind him. On the fourth night the mosque was overwhelmed by the people till it could not accommodate them. Allah’s Messenger came out only for the early morning Salat (prayer) and when he finished the Salat (Fajr prayer), he faced the people and recited Tashah-hud (I testify that none has the right to be worshipped but Allah and that Muhammad is His Messenger), and then said, “Ammà ba’du. Verily your presence (in the mosque at night) was not hidden from me, but I was afraid that this Salat (prayer) might be made compulsory and you might not be able to carry it out.”
925. Narrated Abu Humaid As-Sa‘idi: One night Allah’s Messenger stood up after the Salât (prayer) and recited Taṣḥah-hud and then praised Allâh as He deserved and said, “Ammã ba’du.”

926. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: Once Allah’s Messenger got up for delivering the Khutba (religious talk) and I heard him after “Taṣḥah-hud” saying “Ammã ba’du.”

927. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbás: Once the Prophet ascended the pulpit and it was the last gathering in which he took part. He was covering his shoulder with a big cloak and binding his head with an oily bandage. He glorified and praised Allâh and said, “O people! Come to me.” So the people came and gathered around him and he then said, “Ammã ba’du.”

“From now onward, this community of the Anṣâr will decrease and other people will increase. So anybody who becomes a ruler of the followers of Muḥammad (ﷺ) and has the power to harm or benefit people, then, he should accept the good from the good-doers amongst them (Anṣār) and excuse the wrongdoers amongst them.”

(30) CHAPTER. To sit in between the two ḫuṭba (religious talk) (on Friday).

928. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar): The Prophet ﷺ used to deliver two ḫuṭba (religious talk) and sit in between them.

(31) CHAPTER. To listen to the ḫuṭba (religious talk) on Friday.

929. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “When it is a Friday, the angels stand at the gate of the mosque and keep on writing the names of the persons coming to the mosque in succession according to their arrivals. The example of the one who enters the mosque in the earliest hour is that of one offering a camel (in sacrifice). The one coming next is like one offering a cow and then a ram and then a chicken and then an egg respectively. When the Imām comes out [for Salāt-ul-Jumu’ah (Jumu’ah prayer)] they (i.e. angels) fold their papers and listen to the ḫuṭba (religious talk).”
(32) CHAPTER. When the Imam sees a person entering the mosque during the Khutba, he should order him to offer two Rak'a Salat (prayer) before sitting (Tahayyat-ul-Masjid).

930. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: A person entered the mosque while the Prophet was delivering the Khutba (religious talk) on a Friday. The Prophet said to him, “Have you offered Salat (prayer)?” The man replied in the negative. The Prophet said, “Get up and offer two Rak'a Salat (prayer) (Tahayyat-ul-Masjid).”

(33) CHAPTER. Whoever comes when the Imam is delivering the Khutba (religious talk) should offer a light two Rak'a Salat (prayer) (Tahayyat-ul-Masjid).

931. Narrated Jābir: A man entered the mosque while the Prophet was delivering the Khutba (religious talk). The Prophet said to him, “Have you offered Salat (prayer)?” The man replied in the negative. The Prophet said, “Offer two Rak'a Salat (prayer) (Tahayyat-ul-Masjid).”

(34) CHAPTER. To raise hands during the Khutba (religious talk).

932. Narrated Anas: While the Prophet was delivering the Khutba (religious talk) on a Friday, a man stood up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The livestock and the sheep are dying, so pray to Allah for rain.” So he (the Prophet) raised both his hands and invoked Allah (for it).
933. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
Once in the lifetime of the Prophet, the people were afflicted with drought.

While the Prophet was delivering the Khuṭba (religious talk) on a Friday, a bedouin stood up and said, "O Allāh's Messenger! Our possessions are being destroyed and the children are hungry; please invoke Allāh (for rain)"). So the Prophet raised his hands, (invoked Allāh for rain). At that time there was not a trace of cloud in the sky. By Him, in Whose Hands my soul is, as soon as he lowered his hands, clouds gathered like mountains, and before he got down from the pulpit, I saw the rain falling on the beard of the Prophet . It rained that day, the next day, the third day, the fourth day till the next Friday. The same bedouin or another man stood up and said, "O Allāh’s Messenger! The houses have collapsed, our possessions and livestock have been drowned; please invoke Allāh for us (to stop the rain).” So, the Prophet raised both his hands and said, "O Allah! Round about us and not on us". So, in whatever direction he pointed with his hands, the clouds dispersed and cleared away, and Al-Madīnā’s (sky) became clear as a hole in between the clouds. The valley of Qanāt remained flooded and went on flowing for one month, none came from outside but talked about the abundant rain.
(36) CHAPTER. One should keep quiet and listen while the Imâm is delivering the Khutba (religious talk) on Friday.

And if a person says to his companion: “Be quiet and listen;” even then he is doing something wrong (which will reduce his reward). Narrated Salmân: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whenever the Imâm is delivering the Khutba (religious talk), it is essential for the audience to keep quiet and listen.”

934. Narrated Abû Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When the Imâm is delivering the Khutba (religious talk), and you ask your companion to keep quiet and listen, then no doubt you have done a Laghû (an evil act).”

(37) CHAPTER. An hour (opportune – lucky time) on Friday.

935. Narrated Abû Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ talked about Friday and said, “There is an hour (opportune – lucky time) on Friday and if a Muslim gets it while offering Salah (prayer) and asks something from Allah, then Allah will definitely meet his demand.” And he (the Prophet ﷺ) pointed out the shortness of that time with his hands.

(38) CHAPTER. If some people leave the Imâm during the Salât-ul-Jumu’ah (Jumu’ah prayer), then the Ṣalāt (prayer) of the remaining people and the Imām is permissible.

936. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: While we were praying [attending the Jumu‘ah (Khutba and prayer)] with the Prophet ﷺ, some camels loaded with food, arrived (from Sham). The people diverted their attention towards the camels (and left the mosque), and only twelve persons remained with the Prophet ﷺ. So this Verse was revealed:

“And when they see some merchandise or some amusement [beating of Tambur (drums) etc.] they disperse headlong to it, and leave you (Muḥammad ﷺ) standing…” (V.62:11)

(39) CHAPTER. To offer As-Ṣalāt (the prayer) before and after the Jumu‘ah prayer.

937. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to offer two Rak‘ā before the Zuhr prayer and two Rak‘ā after it. He also used to offer two Rak‘ā after the Maghrib prayer in his house, and two Rak‘ā after the ’Ishā’ prayer. He never offered prayers after the Ṣalāt-ul-Jumu‘ah (Jumu‘ah prayer) till he departed (from the mosque), and then he would offer two Rak‘ā at home.

(40) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷻ:

"Then when the (Jumu‘ah) Ṣalāt (prayer) is ended, you may disperse through the land, and seek of the Bounty of Allāh…” (V.62:10)

938. Narrated Sahl bin Sa‘d رضي الله عنه: There was a woman amongst us who had a farm and she used to sow Silq (a kind of vegetable) on the edges of streams in her farm. On Fridays she used to pull out the Silq from its roots and put the roots in a utensil. Then she would put a handful of powdered barley over it and cook it. The roots of the Silq were a substitute for meat. After finishing the Salāt-ul-Jumu'ah (Jumu'ah prayer) we used to greet her and she would give us that food which we would eat with our hands, and because of that meal, we used to look forward to Friday.

939. Narrated Sahl: As above with the addition: We never had an afternoon nap nor meals except after offering the Jumu'ah (prayer).

(41) CHAPTER. The afternoon nap after the Jumu'ah (prayer).

940. Narrated Anas: We used to offer the Jumu'ah (prayer) early and then take the afternoon nap.

941. Narrated Sahl: We used to offer the Jumu'ah (prayer) with the Prophet ﷺ and then take the afternoon nap.
(1) CHAPTER. The \textit{Salāt-ul-Khauf} (Fear prayer).

And the Statement of Allāh Ta'ālā:

"And when you (Muslims) travel in the land, there is no sin on you if you shorten \textit{As-Salāt} (prayer) if you fear that the disbelievers may put you in trial (attack you etc.), verily the disbelievers are ever unto you open enemies. When you (O Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ) are among them, and lead them in \textit{As-Salāt} (the prayer), let one party of them stand up (in \textit{Salāt}) with you taking their arms with them; when they finish their prostrations, let them take their position in the rear, and let the other party come up which has not yet offered \textit{Salāt} and let them offer \textit{Salāt} with you taking all precautions, and bearing arms. Those who disbelieve wish, if you were negligent of your arms and your baggage, to attack you in a single rush, but there is no sin on you if you put away your arms because of the inconvenience of rain or because you are ill, but take (every) precaution for yourselves. Verily! Allāh has prepared a humiliating torment for the disbelievers. (V.4:101-102)"

942. Narrated Shu'āib: I asked Az-Zuhri, “Did the Prophet ﷺ ever offer the \textit{Salāt-ul-Khauf} (Fear prayer)?” Az-Zuhri said, “I was told by Salīm that ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهم had said, ‘I took part in a holy battle with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in Najd. We faced the enemy and arranged ourselves in rows. Then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ stood up to lead the \textit{Salāt} (prayer) and one party stood to offer \textit{Salāt} (prayer) with him while the other faced the enemy. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and the former party bowed and performed two prostrations. Then that party left (after completing their 2nd Rak'a individually with Taslim, while the Prophet kept on standing). Then they took the place of those who had not offered Salat (prayer). [The second (latter) party] joined Allah's Messenger who prayed one Rak'a (i.e. his 2nd Rak'a with the latter party) and performed two prostrations and finished his Salat (prayer) with Taslim. Then everyone of them [of the 2nd (latter) party] bowed once and performed two prostrations individually (i.e. completed their 2nd Rak'a and finished their Salat (prayer) with Taslim)."

(2) CHAPTER. The Salat-ul-Khaf (Fear prayers) (can be offered) while standing or riding.

943.Narrated Nafi': Ibn 'Umar said something similar to Mujahid's saying: Whenever (Muslims and non-Muslims) stand face to face in battle, the Muslims can offer Salat (prayer) while standing. Ibn 'Umar added, "The Prophet said, 'If the number of the enemy is greater than the Muslims, they can offer Salat while standing or riding (individually)'." [See Fath Al-Bari].

(3) CHAPTER. To guard one another during the Salat-ul-Khaf (fear prayer).

944. Narrated Ibn 'Abbás: "Whenever the Prophet led the Salat-ul-Khaf (Fear prayer), (some of) the people stood behind him. He said Takbir (Allahu Akbar) and those behind him also said the same. He bowed and they bowed. Then he prostrated and they also prostrated. Then he stood for the second Rak'a and those who had offered the first Rak'a (completed their 2nd Rak'a..."
with Taslim) went to guard their brothers (the second party). The second party joined him and performed bowing and prostrations with him (in his 2nd Rak’a and then got up to finish their 2nd Rak’a after the Prophet had finished his 2nd Rak’a with Taslim) so all the people were in Salat (prayer) but they were guarding one another during the Salat (prayer).

(4) CHAPTER. As-Salát (the prayer) at the time of besieging a fort and at the time of meeting the enemy.

Al-Auzá’i said, “If there are signs of victory and it is impossible to offer the Salat (prayer) then everyone should offer his Salat (prayer) with signs. If he cannot do even that then he can delay the Salat (prayer) till the battle is over or till they feel secure, then they can offer two Rak’at prayers. But if they are unable to complete the Salat (prayer) then they can perform one bowing and two prostrations (one Rak’a), and if they are unable to do even this, then saying Allahu-Akbar is not sufficient for them, and so they should postpone the Salat (prayer) till they feel secure.” Mak-hül agrees to it (i.e. this verdict). And Anas bin Mālik said, “I reached at dawn during the siege of Tustar and the fighting was at its peak. The Muslims were not able to offer the Fajr prayer and we did not offered Salat (prayer) till a part of the day had passed and then we offered the Salat with Abú Mūsä and we were granted victory by Allāh.” Anas further said, “It would not make me happy even if I got the whole world and whatever is in it instead of that Salat (prayer) (i.e. the one they missed because of fighting).”

945. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهم: On the day of the Khandaq, ‘Umar رضي الله عنهم came, cursing the disbelievers of Quraish and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I have not offered the ‘Asr prayer and the sun was about to set.” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “By Allâh! I too, have not offered the Šalât (prayer) yet.” The Prophet ﷺ then went to Buṭhân, performed ablution and performed the ‘Asr prayer after the sun had set and then offered the Maghrib prayer after it.” [Please see H. No. 596 and 598].

(5) CHAPTER. The chaser and the chased can offer Šalât (prayer) while riding, and by signs.

Al-Walid said: I told Al-Auzã’i about the Šalât (prayer) of Shurâhbil bin Aš-Šamt and his companions on the backs of animals. On that he said, “That was the case with us if we feared that the time of Šalât would be over.”

Al-Walid (disagreed with Al-Auzã’i) deriving his verdict from the statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “None should offer the ‘Asr prayer but at Banã Quraïṣa.”

946. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: When the Prophet ﷺ returned from the battle of Al-Ahzâb (The Confederates), he said to us, “None should offer the ‘Asr prayer but at Banã Quraïṣa.” The ‘Asr prayer became due for some of them on the way. Some of them decided not to offer the Šalât but at Banã Quraïṣa while others decided to offer the Šalât on the spot and said that the intention of the Prophet ﷺ was not what the former party had understood. And when that was told to the Prophet ﷺ he did not blame anyone of them.
(6) CHAPTER. Takbîr (Allâh is the Most Great) and offering the Fajr prayer early when it is still dark and offering As-Salât (the prayers) while attacking the enemy and in battles.

947. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ offered the Fajr prayer when it was still dark, then he rode and said, Allâhu Akbar! Khaibar is ruined. When we approach near a nation, the most evil will be the morning of those who had been warned.” The people came out into the streets saying, “Muhammâd and his army.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ vanquished them by force and their warriors were killed; the children and women were taken as captives. Safiyya was taken by Dihya Al-Kalbi and later she belonged to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ who married her and her Mahr was her manumission.
13 – THE BOOK OF THE TWO ‘EID (FESTIVALS)

(1) CHAPTER. The two ‘Eid and sprucing oneself up on them.

948. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: ‘Umar bought a silk cloak from the market, took it to Allah’s Messenger and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Take it and adorn yourself with it during the ‘Eid and when the delegations visit you.” Allah’s Messenger replied, “This dress is for those who have no share (in the Hereafter)”. After a long period Allah’s Messenger sent a cloak of silk brocade to ‘Umar. ‘Umar came to Allah’s Messenger with the cloak and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You said that this dress was for those who had no share (in the Hereafter); yet you have sent me this cloak.” Allah’s Messenger said to him, “Sell it and fulfil your needs by it.”

(2) CHAPTER. A display of spears and shields on ‘Eid Festival day.

949. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allah’s Messenger came to my house while two girls were singing beside me the songs of Bu’ath (a story about the war between the two tribes of the Ansār, the Khazraj and the 'Aushi, before Islam). The Prophet lay down and turned his face to the other side. Then Abū Bakr came and spoke to me harshly saying, “Musical instruments of Satan near the Prophet?” Allāh’s Messenger turned his face towards him and said, “Leave them.” When Abū Bakr became inattentive, I signalled to those girls to go out and they left.

950. It was the day of 'Eid, and the black people were playing with shields and spears; so, either I requested the Prophet, or he asked me whether I would like to see the display. I replied in the affirmative. Then the Prophet made me stand behind him and my cheek was touching his cheek and he was saying, “Carry on! O Bani Arfida,” till I got tired. The Prophet asked me, “Are you satisfied (Is that sufficient for you)?” I replied in the affirmative and he told me to leave.

(3) CHAPTER. The legal way of the celebrations on the two 'Eid festivals for the Islamic World (Muslims).

951. Narrated Al-Barā’ī: I heard the Prophet delivering a Khutba (religious talk) saying, “The first thing to be done on this day of ours (first day of 'Eid-al-Adhā) is to offer Salāt (prayer); and after returning [from Salāt (prayer)] we slaughter our sacrifices (in the Name of Allāh) and whoever does so, he acted according to our Sunna (legal ways).
952. Narrated 'Aishah: Abū Bakr came to my house while two small Ansārī girls were singing beside me the stories of the Ansār concerning the Day of Bu'āth and they were not (professional) singers. Abū Bakr said protestingly, "Musical instruments of Satan in the house of Allah's Messenger!" It happened on the 'Eid day and Allah's Messenger said, "0 Abū Bakr! There is an 'Eid (festival) for every nation and this is our 'Eid (festival)."

953. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah's Messenger never proceeded [for the Salāt (prayer)] on the Day of 'Eid-al-Fiṭr unless he had eaten some dates. Anas also narrated: The Prophet used to eat odd number of dates.

954. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, "Whoever slaughtered (his sacrifice) before the Salāt (Eid prayer) should slaughter again." A man stood up and said, "This is the day on which one has desire for meat,” and he mentioned something about his neighbours. It seemed that the Prophet believed him. Then the same man added, “I have a young she-goat which is dearer to me than the meat of two sheep.” The Prophet permitted him to slaughter it as a sacrifice. I do not know whether that permission was valid only for him or for others as well.

955. Narrated Al-Bara’ bin ‘Azib: The Prophet delivered the Khutba (religious talk) after offering As-Salāt (the prayer) on the day of Nahr and said, “Whoever offers the Salāt (prayer) like us and slaughters like us then his Nusuk (sacrifice) will be accepted by Allāh. And whoever slaughters his sacrifice before the Salāt (‘Eid prayer) then he has no Nusuk (not done the sacrifice)”. Abū Burda bin Niyār, the uncle of Al-Bara said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have slaughtered my sheep before the Salāt (‘Eid prayer) and I thought today as a day of eating and drinking (not alcoholic drinks), and I liked that my sheep should be the first to be slaughtered in my house. So, I slaughtered my sheep and took my food before coming for the Salāt (prayer).” The Prophet said, “The sheep which you have slaughtered is just mutton (not a Nusuk).” He (Abū Burda) said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have a young she-goat which is dearer to me than two sheep. Will that be sufficient as a Nusuk on my behalf?” The Prophet said, “Yes, it will be sufficient for you but it will not be sufficient (as a Nusuk) for anyone else after you.”

(6) CHAPTER. To proceed to a Musallā (praying place) without a pulpit.
956. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri: The Prophet ﷺ used to proceed to the Musallā (praying place) on the days of ‘Eid al-Fīr and ‘Eid-al-Adhā; the first thing to begin with was the Salāt (prayer), and after that he would stand in front of the people and the people would keep sitting in their rows. Then he would preach them, advise them and give them orders. And after that if he wished to send an army for an expedition, he would do so; or if he wanted to give an order he would do so, and then depart. The people followed this legal way till I went out with Marwān, the governor of Al-Madīna, for the Salāt (prayer) of ‘Eid al-Adhā or ‘Eid al-Fīr. When we reached the Musallā, there was a pulpit made by Kathīr bin A-Salt. Marwān wanted to get up on that pulpit before Ās-Salāt. I caught hold of his clothes but he pulled them and ascended the pulpit and delivered the Khutba (religious talk) before the Salāt (prayer). I said to him, “By Allah, you have changed (the Prophet’s legal way).” He replied, “O Abu Sa‘īd! Gone is that which you know.” I said, “By Allah! What I know is better than what I do not know.” Marwān said, “People do not sit to listen to our Khutba after Ās-Salāt (prayer), so I delivered the Khutba before Ās-Salāt (prayer).”

(7) CHAPTER. Walking and riding for the ‘Eid prayer. The ‘Eid prayer is offered before delivering the Khutba (religious talk) and there is no Adhān or Iqāma for it.

957. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to offer
As-Salāt (the prayer) of ‘Eid-al-Adhā and ‘Eid-al-Fitr and then deliver the Khutba (religious talk) after As-Salāt.

959. Narrated ‘Atā’ that during the early days of Ibn A-Zubair, Ibn ‘Abbas had sent a message to him telling him that the Adhān for the ‘Eid prayer was never pronounced (in the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ) and the Khutba (religious talk) used to be delivered after As-Salāt (the prayer).

960. Narrated ‘Atā’: Ibn ‘Abbas and Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنه said, “There was no Adhān for As-Salāt (prayer) of ‘Eid-al-Fitr and ‘Eid-al-Adha.”

961. Narrated ‘Atā’: I heard Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh saying, “The Prophet ﷺ stood up and started with As-Salāt (the prayer of ‘Eid), and after it, he delivered the Khutba (religious talk). When the Prophet of Allāh ﷺ finished [the Khutba (religious talk)], he went to the women and preached them, while he was leaning on Bilāl’s hand, Bilāl was spreading his garment and the ladies were putting alms in it.” I said to ‘Atā’, “Do you think it incumbent upon an Imām to go to the women and preach them after finishing the Salât and Khutba?” Atā‘ said, “No doubt it is incumbent on Imām to do so, and why should they not do so?”

(8) CHAPTER. The Khutba (religious talk) (should be delivered) after the ‘Eid prayer.

962. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: I offered the ‘Eid prayer with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, Abū Bakr, ‘Umar and ‘Uthmān and all of them offered Salât (prayer) before delivering the Khutba (religious talk).

963. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, Abū Bakr and ‘Umar used to offer the Salât-al-‘Eidain (the two ‘Eid prayers) before delivering the Khutba (religious talk).

964. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ offered a two Rak‘ā Salât (prayer) on the day of ‘Eid-al-Fitr and he did not offer any Salât before or after it. Then he went towards women along with Bilāl and ordered them to give alms and so they started giving their ear-rings and necklaces (in charity).

965. Narrated Al-Barā’ bin ‘Āzib: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The first thing we do on this day of ours is to to offer Ṣalāt [then deliver the Khutba (religious talk)] and then return to slaughter the sacrifice. So, anyone who does so, he acted according to our Sunna (legal way), and whoever slaughtered the sacrifice before ʿAṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer), it was just meat which he presented to his family and would not be considered as Nusuk.” A person from the Ansār named Abū Burda bin Niyār said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I slaughtered the Nusuk (before ʿAṣ-Ṣalāt) but I have a young she-goat which is better than an older sheep.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Sacrifice it in lieu of the first, but it will be not sufficient (as a sacrifice) for anybody else after you.”

(9) CHAPTER. It is disliked to carry arms on ‘Eid and in the Haram (sanctuary)

And Al-Ḥasan said: (In the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ) It was forbidden to carry arms on the day of ‘Eid except if there was fear from the enemy.

966. Narrated Saʿīd bin Jubair: I was with Ibn ʿUmar when a spearhead pierced the sole of his foot and his foot stuck to the paddle of the saddle and I got down and pulled his foot out, and that happened in Minā. Al-Ḥajjāj got the news and came to enquire about his health and said, “Alas! If we could only know the man who wounded you!” Ibn ʿUmar said, “You are the one who wounded me.” Al-Ḥajjāj asked, “How is that?” Ibn ʿUmar said, “You have allowed the arms to be carried on a day on which nobody used to carry them and you allowed arms to be carried in the Haram (sanctuary) while it was forbidden to carry... arms in the Haram (sanctuary).”

967. Narrated Sa’id bin ‘Amr bin Sa’id bin Al-‘Aṣi: Al-Hajjaj went to Ibn ‘Umar while I was present there. Al-Hajjaj asked Ibn ‘Umar, “How are you?” Ibn ‘Umar replied, “I am all right,” Al-Hajjaj asked, “Who wounded you?” Ibn ‘Umar replied, “The person who allowed arms to be carried on the day on which it was forbidden to carry them (he meant Al-Hajjaj).”

968. Narrated Al-Barâ: The Prophet ﴿ṣ安宁﴾ delivered the Khutba (religious talk) on the day of Nahr (‘Eid-al-Adha) and said, “The first thing we do on this day of ours is to offer the prayer [then deliver the Khutba (religious talk)] and then return and slaughter (our sacrifices). So anyone who does so, he acted according to our Sunna (legal ways); and who: who; slaughtered before As-Salât (the prayer), then it was just meat that he offered to his family and would not be considered as a sacrifice in any way.” My uncle Abu Burda bin Niyyar got up and said, “O, Allah’s Messenger! I slaughtered the sacrifice before the Salât (prayer) but I have a young she-goat which is better than an older sheep.” The Prophet ﴿ṣ安宁﴾ said, “Slaughter it in lieu of the first and such a goat will not be

(10) CHAPTER. To offer the ‘Eid prayer early.

‘Abdullâh bin Busr said: We used to finish the ‘Eid prayer (in the lifetime of the Prophet ﴿ṣ安宁﴾) at the time of Tashih (Duhã or Ishrãq prayer) i.e. after sunrise.

969. Narrated Al-Barâ: The Prophet ﴿ṣ安宁﴾ delivered the Khutba (religious talk) on the day of Nahr (‘Eid-al-Adha) and said, “The first thing we do on this day of ours is to offer the prayer [then deliver the Khutba (religious talk)] and then return and slaughter (our sacrifices). So anyone who does so, he acted according to our Sunna (legal ways); and who: who; slaughtered before As-Salât (the prayer), then it was just meat that he offered to his family and would not be considered as a sacrifice in any way.” My uncle Abu Burda bin Niyyar got up and said, “O, Allah’s Messenger! I slaughtered the sacrifice before the Salât (prayer) but I have a young she-goat which is better than an older sheep.” The Prophet ﴿ṣ安宁﴾ said, “Slaughter it in lieu of the first and such a goat will not be considered as a sacrifice for anybody else after you.”

(11) CHAPTER. Superiority of (doing good) deeds on the days of Tashriq (11th, 12th, 13th of Dhuл-Hijjah).

Ibn ‘Abbас said, “Remember Allāh during the well-known days; i.e., the first ten days of Dhuл-Hijjah, and also the fixed number of appointed days; i.e. the days of Tashriq.” Ibn ‘Umar and Abū Hurairah used to go out to the market saying Takbīr during the first ten days of Dhuл-Hijjah and the people would say Takbīr after their Takbīrs. Muhammad bin ‘Ali used to say Takbīr after Nawāfil.

696. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ said, “No good deeds done on other days are superior to those done on these (first ten days of Dhuл-Hijjah).” Then some Companions of the Prophet ﷺ said, “Not even Jihad?” He replied, “Not even Jihad, except that of a man who does it by putting himself and his property in danger (for Allāh’s sake i.e., with his life and property), and does not return with any of those things (i.e., is martyred).”

(12) CHAPTER. To say Takbīr on the days of Minā and while proceeding to ‘Arafāt.

‘Umar during his stay at Minā, used to say Takbīr in his tent (with such a loud voice) that the people in the mosque would hear it and they too would start saying Takبīr and the people in the market too would do the same and then the whole Minā would quiver with Takbīr. During those days Ibn ‘Umar used to say Takbīr at Minā and after the (compulsory) Ṣalāt (prayers) and also while in bed in his tent, while sitting, and while walking. He used to do so during all those days. Maimúna used to say Takbír on the day of Nahr. The women used to say Takbír behind Ábán bin 'Uthmán and 'Umar bin 'Abdul Azíz, along with the men in the mosque during the nights of Tasbih.

970. Narrated Muḥammad bin Abí Bakr Al-Thaqafí: While we were going from Miná to 'Arafát, I asked Anas bin Málík about Talbiya, “How did you use to say Talbiya in the company of the Prophet?” Anas said: “People used to say Talbiya and their saying was not objected to, and they used to say Takbír and that was not objected to either.”

971. Narrated Umm 'Atiyya: We used to be ordered to come out on the Day of 'Eid and even bring out the virgin girls and menstruating women from their houses so that they might stand behind the men and say Takbír along with them and invoke Alláh along with them and hope for the blessings of that day and for purification from sins.

(13) CHAPTER. Aš-Ṣalāt (the prayers) on the day of 'Eid using Ḥarba” (a small spear) (as a Sutra).

972. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: On the day of ('Eid-al-)Fitr and ('Eid-al-)Adhã a spear used to be planted in front of the Prophet [as a Sutra for the Ṣalát (prayer)] and then he would offer Ṣalát (prayer).
13 - THE BOOK OF THE TWO ‘EID (FESTIVALS)

(14) CHAPTER. To put the ‘Anaza (spear-headed stick) or Ḥarba in front of the Imām on ‘Eid day.

973. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar : The Prophet used to proceed to the Musalla and an ‘Anaza used to be carried before him and planted in the Musalla in front of him (as a Sutra) and he would offer Ṣalāt (prayer) facing it.

(15) CHAPTER. The coming out of ladies and menstruating women to the Musalla.

974. Narrated Muhammad: Umm ‘Atiyya said, “Our Prophet ordered us to come out (on ‘Eid day) with the mature girls and the virgins staying in seclusion.” Hafsa narrated the above-mentioned Hadith and added, “The mature girls or virgins staying in seclusion, but the menstruating women had to keep away from the Musalla.”

(16) CHAPTER. The attendance of boys at Musalla.

975. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: I (in my boyhood) went out with the Prophet on the day of ‘Eid-al-Fitr or ‘Eid-al-Adha. The Prophet offered Ṣalāt (prayers) and then delivered the Khuṭba (religious talk) and then went towards the women, preached and advised them and ordered them to give alms.

(17) CHAPTER. The Imam faces the people while delivering the Khutba (religious talk) of ‘Eid.

Abū Sa‘īd said, “The Prophet ≈≈ stood facing the people.”

976. Narrated Al-Bara‘: The Prophet ≈≈ went towards Al-Baqi’ (the graveyard at Al-Madīnah) on the day of (‘Eid-al-Adhā) and offered a two Rak’a Salāt (prayer) (of ‘Eid-al-Adhā) and then faced us and said, “On this day of ours, our first act of worship is to offer the Salāt (prayer) [then to deliver the Khutba (religious talk)] and then return and slaughter the sacrifices, and whoever does this, concords with our Sunna (legal way); and whoever slaughtered his sacrifice before that [i.e. before the Salāt (prayer)] then that was a thing which he prepared earlier for his family and it would not be considered as a Nusuk (sacrifice)”. A man stood up and said, “O, Allah’s Messenger! I slaughtered [the animal before the Salāt (prayer)] but I have a young she-goat which is better than an older sheep.” The Prophet ≈≈ said to him, “Slaughter it. But a similar sacrifice will not be sufficient for anybody else after you.”

(18) CHAPTER. The mark of the Muṣallā.

977. Narrated ‘Abdur Raḥmān bin ‘Ābis: Ibn ‘Abbās was asked whether he had joined the Prophet ≈≈ in the ‘Eid prayer. He said, “Yes. And I could not have joined him had I not been young. (The Prophet ≈≈ said:)} came out) till he reached the mark which was near the house of Kathîr bin Aṣ-Ṣalt, offered the Ṣalāt (prayer), delivered the Khutba (religious talk) and then went towards the women. Bilâl was accompanying him. He preached them, advised them, and ordered them to give alms. I saw the women putting their ornaments with their outstretched hands into Bilâl's garment. Then the Prophet along with Bilâl returned home.

(19) CHAPTER. The preaching to the women by the Imâm on the 'Eid day.

978. Narrated Ibn Juraij: 'Atâ' told me that he had heard Jâbir bin 'Abdullâh saying, “The Prophet stood up to offer the Ṣalāt (prayer) of 'Eid-al-Fîr. He first offered the Ṣalāt (prayer) and then delivered the Khutba (religious talk). After finishing it he got down (from the pulpit) and went towards the women and advised them while he was leaning on Bilâl's hand. Bilâl was spreading out his garment while the women were putting their alms.” I asked 'Atâ' whether it was the Zakât of the day of Fîr. He said, “No, it was just alms given at that time. Some lady put her finger ring and the others would do the same.” I said, (to 'Atâ'), “Do you think that it is incumbent upon the Imâm to give advice to the women (on 'Eid day)?” He said, “No doubt, it is incumbent upon the Imâm to do so and why should they not do so?”

979. Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs, “I attended with the Prophet, Abu Bakr, 'Umar and 'Uthman the 'Eid-āl-Fitr prayers. They used to offer the Salāt (prayer) before the Khutba and then deliver the Khutba afterwards. Once the Prophet came out (for the ‘Eid prayer) as if I were just observing him waving to the people to sit down. He, then accompanied by Bilal, came crossing the rows till he reached the women. He recited the following Verse: “O Prophet! When believing women come to you to give the Bai’ah (pledge) to you... (to the end of the Verse) (V.60:12).” After finishing the recitation he said, “O ladies! Are you fulfilling your covenant?” None except one woman said, “Yes.” Hasan did not know who was that woman. The Prophet said, “Then give alms.” Bilal spread his garment and said, “Keep on giving alms. Let my father and mother sacrifice their lives for you (ladies).” So the ladies kept on putting their Fatkh (big rings) and other kinds of rings in Bilal’s garment.” ‘Abdur-Razzaq said, “Fatkh is a big ring which was used to be worn in the (Pre-Islamic) Period of Ignorance.

(20) CHAPTER. If a woman has no veil to use for ‘Eid.

980. Narrated Ayyub: Hafla bint Sirin said, “On ‘Eids we used to forbid our girls to go out for Salāt-ul-‘Eid (‘Eid prayer). A lady came and stayed at the palace of Bani Khalaf and I went to her. She said, “The husband of my sister took part in twelve holy battles along with the Prophet and my sister was with her husband in six of them. My sister said that they used to nurse the sick and treat the wounded. Once she asked: O Allah’s Messenger! If a woman has no veil, is there any harm if she does not come out (on ‘Eid day)? The Prophet said, ‘Her companion should let her share her veil with her, and the women should participate in the good deeds and in the religious gatherings of the believers.'"

Hafsa added, "When Umm ‘Aṭiyya came, I went to her and asked her, ‘Did you hear anything about such and such a thing?’ Umm ‘Aṭiyya said, ‘Yes, let my father be sacrificed for the Prophet. (And whenever she mentioned the name of the Prophet she always used to say: Let my father be sacrificed for him). He said, ‘Virgin mature girls staying often screened (or said, ‘Mature girls and virgins staying often screened – Ayyūb is not sure as to which was the word used) and menstruating women should come out (on the ‘Eid day). But the menstruating women should keep away from the Musallā. And all the women should participate in the good deeds and in the religious gatherings of the believers.’” Hafsa said, “On that I said to Umm ‘Aiyya, ‘Also those who are menstruating?’” Umm ‘Aṭiyya replied, “Yes. Do they not present themselves at ‘Arafāt and elsewhere?”.

(21) CHAPTER. Menstruating women should keep away from the Musallā.

981. Narrated Umm ‘Aṭiyya

We were ordered to go out (for ‘Eid) and also to take along with us the menstruating women, mature girls and virgins staying in seclusion. (Ibn ‘Aun said, “Or mature virgins staying in seclusion”). The menstruating women could present themselves at the religious gathering and invocation of Muslims but should keep away from their Musallā.
(22) CHAPTER. An-Nahr\(^{(1)}\) and Adh-Dhabh\(^{(2)}\) (to slaughter animals) (as offerings) at the Musallã (praying place) on the day of Nahr.

982. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar\(\血液循环\) to Nahr or Dhabh (slaughter sacrifices) at the Musallã (on ‘Eid-al-Adhã).

(23) CHAPTER. The talk of the Imãm and if the Imãm is asked about something while he is delivering the Khutba (religious talk).

983. Narrated Al-Barã’ bin ‘Azib\(\血液循环\) delivered the Khutba (religious talk) after the Salât (‘Eid prayer) and said, “Whoever offered Salât (prayer) like us and slaughtered the sacrifice like we did, then he acted according to our Nusuk (followed the right way). And whoever slaughtered the sacrifice before the Salât (prayer), then that was just mutton (i.e. not done his sacrifice).” Abû Burda bin Niyãr stood up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! By Allah, I slaughtered my sacrifice before I came out for As-Salât (‘Eid prayer) and thought that today was the day of eating and drinking (non-alcoholic drinks) and so I made haste (in slaughtering) and ate and also fed my family and neighbours.” Allah’s Messenger\(\血液循环\) said, “That was just mutton (not a sacrifice).”

(1) An-Nahr: Literally means slaughtering of the camels only, and it is done by cutting the carotid arteries at the root of camel’s neck.

(2) Adh-Dhabh: Means slaughtering of animals other than camels, e.g., sheep, cow, goat etc., and is done by cutting the carotid and jugular blood vessels at the upper part of the neck and not at its root.
Then Abū Burda said: “I have a young she-goat and no doubt, it is better than two sheep. Will that be sufficient as a sacrifice for me?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Yes. But it will not be sufficient for anyone else (as a sacrifice) after you.”

984. Narrated Anas bin Malik ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ offered the Salāt (prayer) on the day of Nahr and then delivered the Khutba (religious talk) and ordered that whoever had slaughtered his sacrifice before the Salāt (prayer) should repeat it (i.e., should slaughter another sacrifice). Then a person from the Anṣār stood up and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Because of my neighbours (he described them as being very needy or poor) I slaughtered (the sacrifice) before the Salāt (prayer). I have a young she-goat which, in my opinion, is better than two sheep.” The Prophet ﷺ gave him the permission for slaughtering it as a sacrifice.

985. Narrated Jundab b. Zayd: On the day of Nahr the Prophet ﷺ offered the Salāt (prayer) and delivered the Khutba (religious talk) and then slaughtered the sacrifice and said, “Anybody who slaughtered (his sacrifice) before the Salāt (prayer) should slaughter another animal in lieu of it, and the one who has not yet slaughtered should slaughter the sacrifice mentioning Allāh’s Name on it.”

(24) CHAPTER. Whoever returned (after offering the ‘Eid prayer) on the day of Eid through a way different from that by which he went.

986. Narrated Jābir (bin ‘Abdullāh) ﷺ: On the day of ‘Eid the Prophet ﷺ used to return (after offering the ‘Eid prayer) through a way different from that by which he went.
13 - THE BOOK OF THE TWO ‘EID (FESTIVALS)

(25) CHAPTER. Whoever missed the Salah-al-‘Eid (‘Eid prayer) should offer two Rak‘a prayer.

And similarly the women and those who are at home and in the villages should do so, as is confirmed by the statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “O Muslims, this is our ‘Eid.” At Aż-Zāviya, Anas bin Mālik ordered his slave Ibn Abī Ghaniyā to collect his (Anas’s) family and offspring. Anas led a Salah (prayer) similar to that offered by the people of any town and recited Takbir similar to theirs. ‘Ikrima said, “The villagers should gather on the day of ‘Eid and offer two Rak‘a as the Imam does.” ‘Aṭā’ said, “Whoever misses the Salah-al-‘Eid (‘Eid prayer) should offer two Rak‘a prayer.”

987. Narrated ‘Urwa on the authority of ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: On the days of Minā, (11th, 12th, and 13th of Dhul-Hijjah) Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه came to her while two young girls were beating the tambourine and the Prophet ﷺ was lying covered with his clothes. Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه scolded them and the Prophet ﷺ uncovered his face and said to Abū Bakr, “Leave them, for these days are the days of ‘Eid and the days of Minā.”

988. ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها further said, “Once, the Prophet ﷺ was screening me and I was watching the display of Ethiopians in the mosque and ('Umar) scolded them. The Prophet ﷺ said, 'Leave them. O Banî Arfida! (Carry on), you are safe (protected').”

(26) CHAPTER. The offering of Salât (prayer) before or after the 'Eid prayer.

Ibn 'Abbas disliked to offer Salât (prayer) before 'Eid prayer.

989. Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs: The Prophet ﷺ went out and offered a two Rakâ Salât (prayer) (i.e., 'Eid prayer) on the day of Fitr and did not offer any other Salât (prayer) before or after it and at that time Bilâl was accompanying him.
(1) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the Witr prayer.(1)

990. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Once a man asked Allâh’s Messenger about the Salât-ul-Lail (night prayer). Allâh’s Messenger replied, “The Salât-ul-Lail (night Tahajjud prayer) is offered as two Rak’â followed by two Rak’â (and so on) and if anyone is afraid of the approaching dawn Fajr prayer he should offer one Rak’a and this will be a Witr for all the Rak’â which he has offered before.”

[See the Book of Salât-ut-Tahajjud, No.19]

991. Nâfi’ told that ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar used to say Taslim between (the first) two Rak’â and (the third) odd one in the Witr prayer, and he used to attend to some of his needs.

992. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: Once I passed the night in the house of Maimûnâ (his aunt). I lay on the cushion transversally in its breadth-wise direction while Allâh’s Messenger and his wife lay in its length-wise direction. The Prophet slept till midnight or nearly so and woke up rubbing his face and recited ten Verses from Surah Al-‘Imrân. Allâh’s Messenger went towards a leather-skin and performed Wudû (ablution) in the most perfect way and then stood for the Salât (prayer). I did the same and stood beside him (on his left side). The Prophet put his right hand on my head, twisted my ear (pulled me, and made me to stand by his right side), and then offered two Rak’â followed by two Rak’â.

(1) (Chap.1): Witr prayer: A prayer of an odd number of Rak’â offered after ‘Ishâ prayer or after the Tahajjud (night) prayer, and it is to be offered before the Fajr prayer.
Rak'a five times and then ended his Salāt with Witr. He laid down till the Mu'adh-dhin (call-maker) came then he stood up and offered two Rak'a (Sunna of Fajr prayer) and then went out and offered the Fajr prayer. (See Ḥadīth No. 183, Vol. I).

993. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Night prayer is offered as two Rak'a followed by two Rak'a and so on, and if you want to finish it, offer only one Rak'at which will be Witr for all the previous Rak'a.” Al-Qāsim said, “Since we attained the age of puberty we have seen some people offering a three Rak'a prayer as Witr and all that is permissible. I hope there will be no harm in it.”

994. Narrated ‘Āishah ﻫ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to offer eleven Rak'a at night and that was his night prayer and each of his prostrations lasted for a period enough for one of you to recite fifty Verses before Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ raised his head. He also used to offer two Rak'a (Sunna) prayer before the (compulsory) Ṣalāt-ul-Fajr (Fajr prayer) and then lie down on his right side till the Mu'adh-dhin (call-maker) came to him for the Salāt (prayer).
(2) CHAPTER. The timing of the Șalát-ul-Witr (Witr prayer).

Abū Hurairah said, “The Prophet ﷺ told me to offer Witr prayer before sleeping.”

995. Narrated Anas bin Sirīn: I asked Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: “What is your opinion about the two Rak’a before the Fajr prayer, as to prolonging the recitation in them?” He said, “The Prophet ﷺ used to offer at night two Rak’a followed by two and so on, and end the Șalát (prayer) by one Rak’a Witr. He used to offer two Rak’a before the Fajr prayer immediately after the Adhâhn.” (Hammâd, the subnarrator said, “That meant (that he offered Șalât) quickly.”

996. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ offered Witr prayer at different nights at various hours extending (from the ‘Ishâ’ prayer up to the last hour of the night.

(3) CHAPTER. The Prophet ﷺ used to wake his family up for the Witr prayer.

997. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ used to offer his night prayer while I was sleeping across in his bed. Whenever he intended to offer the Witr prayer, he used to wake me up and I would offer the Witr prayer too.

(4) CHAPTER. One should make Witr as the last Șalât (prayer) (at night).
998. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar) رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Make Witr as your last Salāt (prayer) at night.”

999. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Yāsār: I was going to Makkah in the company of ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنه and when I apprehended the approaching dawn, I dismounted and offered the Witr prayer and then joined him. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar said, “Where have you been?” I replied, “I apprehended the approaching dawn so I dismounted and offered Witr prayer.” ‘Abdullāh said, “Isn’t there in the Messenger ﷺ of Allāh a good example for you to follow?” I replied, “Yes, by Allāh.” He said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to offer Salāt of Witr on the back of the camel (while on a journey).”

1000. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ used to offer Salāt (Nawāfīl prayers) on his Rāhila (mount) facing its direction by signals, but not the compulsory Salāt (prayer). He also used to offer the Witr prayer on his Rāhila (mount).
7) CHAPTER. To recite Qunūt (invocation) before and after bowing.

1001. Narrated Muḥammad bin Sirīn: Anas was asked, “Did the Prophet recite Qunūt in the Fajr prayer?” Anas replied in the affirmative. He was further asked, “Did he recite Qunūt before bowing?” Anas replied, “He recited Qunūt after bowing for some time (for one month).”

1002. Narrated ‘Aṣım: I asked Anas bin Mālik about the Qunūt. Anas replied, “Definitely it was (recited)”. I asked, “Before bowing or after it?” Anas replied, “Before bowing.” I added, “So-and-so has told me that you had informed him that it had been after bowing.” Anas said, “He told an untruth (i.e. “was mistaken”, according to the Hijāzī dialect).” Allāh’s Messenger recited Qunūt after bowing for a period of one month. Anas added, “The Prophet sent about seventy men (who knew the Qurʾān by heart) towards the Mushrikin (of Najd) who were less than they in number and there was a peace treaty between them and Allāh’s Messenger (but the Mushrikin broke the treaty and killed the seventy men). So Allāh’s Messenger recited Qunūt for a period of one month invoking Allāh to punish them.”

(1) Mushrikin: Polytheists, pagans, idolaters and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muḥammad ( ﷺ).
1003. Narrated Anas bin Malik رضي الله عنه:
The Prophet ﷺ recited Qunût for one month (in the Fajr prayer) invoking Allah to punish the tribes of Ri`l and Dhakwãn.

1004. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: The Qunût used to be recited in Maghrib and the Fajr prayers.
(1) CHAPTER. Al-Istisqa’ and the going out of the Prophet to offer Istisqa’ prayer. (1)

1005. Narrated ‘Abbād bin Tamīm’s uncle: The Prophet went out to offer the Istisqa’ prayer and turned (and put on) his cloak inside out.

(2) CHAPTER. Invocation of the Prophet: “O Allāh! Send (drought-famine) years on them (pagans of Makkah) like the (drought-famine) years of (Prophet) Yūsuf (Joseph).”

1006. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Whenever the Prophet lifted his head from the bowing in the last Rak’a he used to say:

“O Allāh! Be hard on the tribes of Muḍār and send (famine) years on them like the (famine) years of (Prophet) Yūsuf (Joseph).”

The Prophet further said, “Allāh forgave the tribes of Ghifār and saved the

(1) (Chap.1) Istisqa’ prayer: is a two Rak’a prayer similar to that of ‘Eid prayer with seven Takbirāt in the first Rak’a and five Takbirāt in the second Rak’a excluding the Takbir of the opening of the prayer and the Takbir of the Qiyām (standing) for the second Rak’a.
tribe of Aslam.”

Abū Az-Zīnād (a subnarrator) said, “The Qunūt used to be recited by the Prophet in the Fajr prayer.”

1007. Narrated Masrūq: We were with ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd) and he said, “When the Prophet saw the refusal of the people to accept Islam he said, “O Allāh! Send (on them) seven (famine years) like the seven (years of famine) of (Prophet) Yusuf (Joseph).” So, drought overtook them for one year and destroyed every kind of life to such an extent that the people started eating hides, carcasses and rotten dead animals. Whenever one of them looked towards the sky, he would (imagine himself to) see smoke because of hunger. So, Abū Sufyān went to the Prophet and said, “O Muhammad! You order people to obey Allāh and to keep good relations with kith and kin. No doubt the people of your tribe are dying, so please invoke Allāh for them.” So Allāh revealed:

“Then wait you for the Day when the sky will bring forth a visible smoke ... up to... Verily you will revert (to disbelief). On the Day when We shall seize you with the greatest seizure (punishment)....” (V.44:10-16)

“Al-Batša (i.e. grasp) happened in the battle of Badr and no doubt Ad-Dukhān (smoke), Al-Batša, Al-Lizām, and the Verse of Sūrah Ar-Rūm have all passed...
CHAPTER. Request of the people to the Imam to offer the Istisqa’ prayer and invoke Allah for rain during drought.

1008.Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Dīnār: My father said, “I heard Ibn ‘Umar reciting the poetic verses of Abū Ṭālib:

And a white (person — i.e. the Prophet) who is requested to invoke Allah for rain and who takes care of the orphans and is the guardian of widows.”

1009. Sālim’s father (Ibn ‘Umar) said, “The following poetic verse occurred to my mind while I was looking at the face of the Prophet while he was invoking Allah for rain. He did not get down till the rain water flowed profusely from every roof-gutter:

‘And a white (person — i.e., the Prophet) who is requested to invoke Allah for rain and who takes care of the orphans and is the guardian of widows…”

And these were the words of Abū Ṭālib.”

1010. Narrated Anas: Whenever drought threatened them, ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb used to ask Al-‘Abbās bin ‘Abdul Muṭṭalib to invoke Allah for rain. He used to say, “O Allah! We used to ask our Prophet to invoke You for rain, and You would bless us with rain, and now we ask his uncle to invoke You for rain. O Allah! Bless us with rain.”(1) And so it would rain.

(1) (H.1010) [It is of great importance to notice that it is permissible for one to request a living religious person to invoke Allah on his behalf; but if you ask Allah through a dead or an absent (person etc.) then it is not allowed. But it is absolutely forbidden to ask or request the dead for anything, it is regarded as Shirk]. See glossary for the word Shirk (polytheism).]
(4) CHAPTER. Turning one’s cloak inside out while offering the Istisqa’ prayer.

1011. Narrated ‘AbdullAh bin Zaid رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ offered the Istisqa’ prayer and turned his cloak inside out.

1012. Narrated ‘AbdullAh bin Zaid رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ went towards the Munšallah and invoked Allāh for rain. He faced the Qiblah and wore his cloak inside out, and offered two Rak’a prayers.

(5) CHAPTER. The taking of revenge by Allāh ﷻ over His creatures by drought if they perform or do or commit His forbidden illegal things.

(6) CHAPTER. Istisqa’ (i.e. to offer a two Rak’a Salāt (prayer) and then invoke Allāh for rain) in the main mosque (of the town).
Narrated Sharîk bin ‘Abdullâh bin Abi Namir: I heard Anas bin Mâlik saying, “On a Friday, a person entered the main mosque through the gate facing the pulpit while Allâh’s Messenger was delivering the Khutba (religious talk). The man stood in front of Allâh’s Messenger and said, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! The livestock are dying and the roads are cut off; so please invoke Allâh for rain.’” Anas added, “Allâh’s Messenger raised both his hands and said, ‘O Allâh! Bless us with rain! O Allâh! Bless us with rain! O Allâh! Bless us with rain!’” Anas further said, “By Allâh! We could not see the sun for a week. Next Friday a person entered through the same gate and at that time Allâh’s Messenger was delivering the Friday’s Khutba. The man stood in front of him and said, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! The livestock are dying and the roads are cut off; please invoke Allâh to withhold rain.’” Anas added, “Allâh’s Messenger raised both his hands and said, ‘O Allâh! Round about us and not on us. O Allâh! On the plateaus, on the mountains, on the hills, in the valleys and on the places where trees grow.’ So the rain stopped and we came out walking in the sun.” Sharîk asked Anas whether it was the same person who had asked for the rain (the last Friday). Anas replied that he did not know.
(7) CHAPTER. To invoke Allāh for rain in the Khuṭba (religious talk) of Friday facing a direction other than the Qiblah.

1014. Narrated Šarāf b. Mālik: Anas b. Malik said, “A person entered the mosque on a Friday through the gate facing the Dārī-Qadā’ and Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was standing, delivering the Khuṭba (religious talk). The man stood in front of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Livestock are dying and the roads are cut off; please invoke Allāh for rain.’ So, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ raised both his hands and said, ‘O Allāh! Bless us with rain. O Allāh! Bless us with rain. O Allāh! Bless us with rain!’ Anas added, “By Allāh, there were no clouds in the sky and there was no house or building between us and the mountain of Sila’. Then a big cloud, like a shield, appeared from behind it (i.e. Sila’ mountain) and when it came in the middle of the sky, it spread and then it started raining. By Allāh! We could not see the sun for a week. The next Friday, a person entered through the same gate and Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was delivering the Friday Khuṭba and the man stood in front of him and said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! The livestock are dying and the roads are cut off; please invoke Allāh to withhold rain.’” Anas added, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ raised both his hands and said, ‘O Allāh! Round about us and not on us. O Allāh!’ On the plateaus, on the mountains, on the hills, in the valleys and on the places where trees grow.” Šarāf asked Anas whether it was the same person who had asked for rain previous Friday. Anas replied that he did not know.

(8) CHAPTER. Istisqā’ (to invoke Allāh for the rain) on the pulpit.

1015. Narrated Qatada: Anas said, “While Allāh’s Messenger was delivering the Friday Khuṭba (religious talk) a man came and said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Drought (no rain); please invoke Allāh to bless us with rain.’ So, he invoked Allāh for it, and it rained so much that we could hardly reach our homes and it continued raining till the next Friday.” Anas further said, “Then the same or some other person stood up and said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh to withhold the rain.’ On that, Allāh’s Messenger said, ‘O Allāh! Round about us and not on us.’” Anas added, “I saw the clouds dispersing right and left and it continued to rain but not over Al-Madīna.”

(9) CHAPTER. Whoever thought it sufficient to invoke Allāh for rain in the Salāt-ul-Jumu’a (Jumu‘ah prayer).

1016. Narrated Anas: A man came to the Prophet and said, “Livestock are destroyed and the roads are cut off.” So, Allāh’s Messenger invoked Allāh for rain and it rained from that Friday till the next Friday. The same person came again and said, “Houses have collapsed, roads are cut off, and the livestock are destroyed. Please invoke Allâh to withhold the rain.” Allâh’s Messenger Ṣallallâhu âdînhi stood up and said, “O Allâh! (Let it rain) on the plateaus, on the hills, in the valleys and over the places where trees grow”. So the clouds cleared away from Al-Madîna just as the taking off a garment from one’s body.

(10) CHAPTER. Invocation (for stoppage of rain) if the roads are cut off because of excessive rain.

1017. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik Zardîr: A man came to Allâh’s Messenger Ṣallallâhu âdînhi and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Livestock are destroyed and the roads are cut off. So please invoke Allâh (for rain).” So, Allâh’s Messenger Ṣallallâhu âdînhi invoked Allâh saying: “O Allâh! (Let it rain) on the tops of mountains, on the plateaus, in the valleys and over the places where trees grow.” So, the clouds cleared away from Al-Madîna just as the taking off a garment from one’s body.

(11) CHAPTER. The saying that “The Prophet Ṣallallâhu âdînhi did not turn his cloak inside out during the invocation for rain on Friday.”
1018. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
A man complained to the Prophet (ﷺ) about the destruction of livestock and property and the hunger of the offspring. So, he invoked (Allah) for rain. The narrator (Anas) did not mention that the Prophet (ﷺ) had worn his cloak inside out or faced the Qiblah.

(12) CHAPTER. If the people request the Imam to invoke Allah for rain, the Imam should not refuse the request.

1019. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
A man came to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) and said, "O Allah's Messenger! Livestock are destroyed and the roads are cut off; so please invoke Allah (for rain)." So, Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) invoked Allah for rain and it rained from that Friday till the next Friday. Then a man came to the Prophet (ﷺ) and said, "O Allah's Messenger! The houses have collapsed, roads are cut off and the livestock are destroyed." So, Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said, "O Allah! (Let it rain) on the tops of the mountains, on the plateaus, in the valleys and over the places where trees grow." So, the clouds cleared away from Al-Madina just as the taking off a garment from one's body.

(13) CHAPTER. If Al-Mushrikin [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ)] intercede the Muslims to invoke Allah for rain during drought.
1020.Narrated Masruq: One day I went to Ibn Mas'ud who said, “When Quraish delayed in embracing Islaam, the Prophet invoked Allah to curse them, so they were afflicted with a drought (famine) year because of which many of them died and they ate the carcasses and bones. Abû Sufyân came to the Prophet and said, ‘O Muhammad! You came to order people to keep good relation with kith and kin and your nation is being destroyed, so invoke Allah. The Prophet recited the Holy Verses of Sûrah Ad-Dukhân:

‘Then wait you for the Day when the sky will bring forth a visible smoke’ (V.44:10).

When the famine was taken off, the people renegaded once again as disbelievers. The Statement of Allah (in Sûrah Ad-Dukhân) refers to that:

‘On the Day when We shall seize you with the greatest seizure.’ (V.44:16)

And that was what happened on the day of the battle of Badr.” Asbãt added on the authority of Manûr, “Allah’s Messenger invoked Allah for rain for them and it rained heavily for seven days. The people complained of the excessive rain. The Prophet said, ‘O Allah! (Let it rain) around us and not on us.’ So, the clouds dispersed from over his head and it rained over the surroundings (i.e. away from their city).”

1021. Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger was delivering the Khutba (religious talk) on a Friday when the people stood up, shouted and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! There is no rain (drought), the trees have dried and the livestock are destroyed; please invoke Allah for rain.” So Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said twice, “O Allah! Bless us with rain.” By Allah, there was no trace of cloud in the sky and suddenly the sky became overcast with clouds and it started raining. The Prophet ﷺ came down the pulpit and offered the prayer. When he came back from the prayer (to his house) it was raining and it rained continuously till the next Friday. When the Prophet ﷺ started delivering the Friday Khutba, the people started shouting and said to him, “The houses have collapsed and the roads are cut off; so please invoke Allah to withhold the rain.” So, the Prophet ﷺ smiled and said, “O Allah! Round about us and not on us.” The sky became clear over Al-Madina; but it kept on raining over the outskirts (of Al-Madina) and not a single drop of rain fell over Al-Madina. I looked towards the sky which was as bright and clear as a crown.

(14) CHAPTER. To say, “Around us and not on us,” when it rains excessively.

(15) CHAPTER. To invoke Allah for rain while standing.

1022. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Yazīd Al Ansārī that he went out with Al-Barā’ bin ‘Azīb, and Zaid bin Arqam Ḥakīm and invoked for rain. He (‘Abdullāh bin Yazīd) stood up but not on a pulpit and invoked Allah for rain and then offered two Rak’a prayers with loud recitation without pronouncing Adhān or Iqāma. Abū Ishāq said that ‘Abdullāh bin Yazīd had seen the Prophet ﷺ (doing the same).
15 - THE BOOK OF AL-ISTISQĀ’

1023. Narrated ‘Abbād bin Tamīm that his uncle (who was one of the Companions of the Prophet) had told him, “The Prophet went out with the people to invoke Allāh for rain for them. He stood up and invoked Allāh for rain, then faced the Qiblah and turned his cloak (inside out) and it rained.”

(16) CHAPTER. To recite aloud while offering the prayer of Istisqā.’

1024. Narrated ‘Abbād bin Tamīm that his uncle said, “The Prophet went out to invoke Allāh for rain. He faced the Qiblah invoking Allāh. He turned his cloak (inside out) and then offered a two Rak‘a prayer with loud recitation.”

(17) CHAPTER. How the Prophet turned his back towards the people [while offering the Salāt (prayer) for rain].

1025. Narrated ‘Abbād bin Tamīm that his uncle said, “I saw the Prophet on the day when he went out to offer the Istisqā’ prayer. He turned his back towards the people and faced the Qiblah and invoked Allāh for rain. Then he turned his cloak inside out and led us a two Rak‘a prayer with loud recitation.”
15—THE BOOK OF AL-ISTISQĀ’

(18) CHAPTER. The Šalāt-ul-Istisqa’ (Istisqa’ prayer) consists of two Rakʿū.

1026. Narrated ‘Abbād bin Tamīm ḍ that his uncle said, “The Prophet ṣ went invoked Allāh for rain and offered a two Rak’a Šalāt (prayer) and he turned his cloak inside out.”

(19) CHAPTER. To offer the Istisqa’ prayer at the Muṣallā.

1027. Narrated ‘Abdād bin Tamīm ḍ that his uncle said, “The Prophet ṣ went towards the Muṣallā to offer the Istisqa’ prayer, he faced the Qiblah and offered a two Rak’a Šalāt (prayer) and turned his cloak inside out.” Narrated Abū Bakr ḍ, “The Prophet ṣ put the right side of his cloak on his left side.”

(20) CHAPTER. Facing the Qiblah while offering the Istisqa’ prayer.

1028. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Zaid Al-Anṣārī ḍ: The Prophet ṣ went towards the Muṣallā to offer the Istisqa’ prayer and when he invoked Allāh or intended to invoke Allāh he faced the Qiblah and turned his cloak inside out.
(21) CHAPTER. While offering the Istisqā’ prayer, the people should raise their hands (for invocation) along with the Imām.

1029. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: A bedouin came to Allāh’s Messenger on a Friday and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! The livestock, the offspring, and the people have perished.” So, Allāh’s Messenger raised both his hands invoking Allāh (for rain) and the people too raised their hands with Allāh’s Messenger invoking Allāh (for rain). We had not left the mosque when it started raining. It rained till the next Friday when the same man came to Allāh’s Messenger and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! The travellers are compelled to postpone their journeys (because of excessive rain) and the roads are overflooded.”

1030. The narrator Anas added that the Prophet raised his hands (during the invocation) to such an extent that the whiteness of his armpits was visible.

(22) CHAPTER. The raising of both hands by the Imām during Istisqā’ while invoking Allāh for rain.

1031. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet never raised his hands for any invocation except for that of Istisqā’; and he used to raise them so much that the whiteness of his armpits became visible. (Note: It may be that Anas did not see the Prophet raising his hands, but it is narrated that the Prophet used to raise his hands for invocations other than Istisqa'. See Hadith No. 1751, 1752, Vol. 2, and also see Hadith No. 4323 Vol. 5, Hadith No. 6383, Vol. 8).

(23) CHAPTER. What should be said (or what to say) if it rains.

1032. Narrated ‘Āishah: Whenever Allah’s Messenger saw the rain, he used to say, “O Allah! Let it be a fruitful rain.”

(24) CHAPTER. One who stood in the rain till the water started trickling down his beard.

1033. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: In the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger the people were afflicted with a drought (famine) year. While the Prophet was delivering the Khutba (religious talk) on the pulpit on a Friday, a bedouin stood up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The livestock are dying and the families (offspring) are hungry; please invoke Allah to bless us with rain.” Allah’s Messenger raised both his hands towards the sky and at that time there was not... a trace of cloud in the sky. Then the clouds started gathering like mountains. Before he got down from the pulpit, I saw rain-water trickling down his beard. It rained that day, the next day, the third day, the fourth day and till the next Friday, when the same bedouin or some other person stood up (during the Friday Khutba) and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The houses have collapsed and the livestock are drowned. Please invoke Allah for us.” So, Allah’s Messenger raised both his hands and said, “O Allah! Around us and not on us.” Whichever side the Prophet directed his hand, the clouds dispersed from there till a hole (in the clouds) was formed over Al-Madina. The valley of Qanát remained flowing (with water) for one month and none came from outside who didn’t talk about the abundant rain.

(25) CHAPTER. If the wind blows (what should one do or say?)

1034. Narrated Anas: Whenever a strong wind blew, anxiety appeared on the face of the Prophet (fearing that, that wind might be a sign of Allah’s Wrath).
(26) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ. "I was granted victory with As-Saba [Easterly wind (which frightened my enemies)]."

1035. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, "I was granted victory with As-Saba and the nation of 'Ād was destroyed by Ad-Dabūr (westerly wind)."

(27) CHAPTER. What is said about earthquakes and (other) signs (of the approach of the Day of Judgement).

1036. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, "The Hour (Last Day) will not be established until (religious) knowledge will be taken away (by the death of religious learned men), earthquakes will be very frequent, time will pass quickly, Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions) will appear, murders will increase and money will overflow amongst you." (See Hadith No. 80, 81 and 85 Vol I).

1037. Narrated Ibn 'Umar ﷺ: (The Prophet ﷺ) said, "O Allāh! Bless our Sham and our Yemen." People said, "Our Najd as well." The Prophet ﷺ again said, "O Allāh! Bless our Sham and Yemen." They said again, "Our Najd as well." On that the Prophet ﷺ said, "There will appear earthquakes and Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions), and from there [Najd (East)] will come out the side of the head of Satan." (See H. No. 7094, Vol. 9).
(28) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ:

"And instead (of thanking Allāh) for the provision He gives you, you deny (Him by disbelief)." (V.56:82)

Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ said that it means that you should be thankful to Allāh (but instead of being grateful you are ungrateful to Allāh).

1038. Narrated Zaid bin Khalid Al-Juhani ﷺ:

Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ led the morning Ṣalāt in Al-Hudaybiya and it had rained the previous night. When the Prophet ﷺ had finished the Ṣalāt (prayer) he faced the people and said, “Do you know what your Lord has said?” They replied, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” (The Prophet ﷺ said), “Allāh said, ‘In this morning some of Ibādī (My slaves or worshippers) remained as true believers and some became disbelievers; he who said that it had rained with the Blessing and Mercy of Allāh is the one who believes in Me and does not believe in the star, but he who said it had rained because of such and such (star) is a disbeliever in Me and is a believer in the star.’”

(29) CHAPTER. Except Allāh ﷺ nobody knows when it will rain.

And Abū Hurairah narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said, “There are five things which nobody knows except Allāh.”
1039. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger said, “Keys of Al-Ghaib are five which nobody knows but Allah... nobody knows what will happen tomorrow; nobody knows what is in the womb; nobody knows what he will gain tomorrow; nobody knows at what place he will die; and nobody knows when it will rain.”

(1) (H.1039) Al-Ghaib: (literally means a thing not seen but) this word includes vast meanings: Belief in Allah, angels, Holy Books, Allah’s Messengers, Day of Resurrection and Al-Qadar (Divine Preordainments), it also includes what Allah and His Messenger informed about the knowledge of the matters of the past, present and future things. e.g. news about the creation of the heavens, and earth, botanical and zoological life, the news about the nations of the past, and about Paradise and Hell etc.
16 - THE BOOK OF THE ECLIPSES

(1) CHAPTER. As-Salãt (the prayer) during a solar eclipse.

1040. Narrated Abû Bakra: We were with Allah's Messenger when the sun eclipsed. Allah's Messenger stood up dragging his cloak till he entered the mosque. He led us in a two-Rak'a prayer till the sun (eclipse) had cleared. Then the Prophet said, “The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of someone's death. So whenever you see these eclipses offer Salât and invoke (Allah) till the eclipse has cleared.”

1041. Narrated Abû Mas'ûd: The Prophet said, “The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of the death of someone from the people but they are two signs amongst the signs of Allah. When you see them stand up and offer the Salât (prayer).”

1042. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet said, “The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of the death or life (i.e. birth) of someone but they are two signs amongst the signs of Allah. When you see them offer the Salât (prayer).”
1043. Narrated Al-Mughira bin Shu'ba: The sun eclipsed in the lifetime of Allah's Messenger on the day when (his son) Ibrahim died. So, the people said that the sun had eclipsed because of the death of Ibrahim. Allah's Messenger said, "The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of the death or life (i.e. birth) of someone. When you see the eclipse, offer Salah (prayer) and invoke Allah."

(2) CHAPTER. To give Sadaqa (things or money given in charity) during the eclipse.

1044. Narrated 'Aishah: In the lifetime of Allah's Messenger, the sun eclipsed, so he led the people in Salah (prayer), and stood up and performed a long Qiyam, then bowed for a long while. He stood up again and performed a long Qiyam, but this time the period of standing was shorter than the first. He bowed again for a long time but shorter than the first one, then he prostrated and prolonged the prostration (twice). He did the same in the second Rak'a as he did in the first and then finished the Salah (prayer); by then the sun (eclipse) had cleared. Then he delivered a Khutba (religious talk) and after praising and glorifying Allah he said, "The sun and the moon are two signs amongst the signs of Allāh; they do not eclipse because of the death or the life (i.e. birth) of anyone. So, when you see the eclipse, remember Allāh and say Takbīr, offer Ṣalāt and give Ṣadaqa.” The Prophet then said, “O followers of Muḥammad! By Allāh! There is none who has more Ghaira than Allāh, so He has forbidden that His slaves, male or female commit illegal sexual intercourse. O followers of Muḥammad! By Allāh! If you knew that which I know you would laugh little and weep much.

(3) CHAPTER. Making a loud announcement of Ṣaḥūdat (the prayer) in congregation for eclipse.

1045.Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr : “When the sun eclipsed in the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger, a loud announcement was made (saying): Ṣaḥūdat Jāmi’a (prayer to be offered in congregation).”

(1) (H.1044) Ghaira: A feeling of fury and anger when one’s honour and prestige is injured or challenged, self respect, honour, jealousy as regards woman etc.
1046. Narrated 'Aishah: In the lifetime of the Prophet the sun eclipsed and he went to the mosque and the people aligned in rows behind him. He said the Takbīr (starting the Salāt (prayer)) and prolonged the recitation and then said Takbīr and performed a prolonged bowing; then he (lifted his head and) said, “Sami’ Allahu liman ḥamīda (Allah heard him who sent his praises to Him)”. He then did not prostrate but stood up and recited a prolonged recitation which was shorter than the first recitation. He, again, said Takbīr and then bowed a prolonged bowing but shorter than the first one and then said, “Sami’ Allahu liman ḥamīda, Rabbañā walakal-hamd (Allah heard him who sent his praises to Him). Our Sustainer! All the praises are for You)” and then prostrated (twice) and did the same in the second Rak‘a; thus he completed four bowings and four prostrations. The sun (eclipse) had cleared before he finished the Salāt. (After the Salāt) he stood up, glorified and praised Allah as He deserved and then said, “The sun and the moon are two signs from amongst the signs of Allah. They do not eclipse because of the death or the life (i.e. birth) of someone. When you see them make haste for the Salāt.”

Narrated Az-Zuhri: I said to ‘Urwa, “When the sun eclipsed at Al-Madīna your brother (‘Abdullāh bin A-ubair) offered only a two Rak‘at Salāt (prayer) like that of the morning (Fajr prayer).” ‘Urwa replied, “Yes, because he missed the legal way of its offering.”
CHAPTER 5. Should one say: The sun \textit{Kasafat} or \textit{Khasafat}? (Two verbs used to mean “eclipse”, the first is often used for the sun and the second for the moon). Allah says: “And the moon \textit{Khasafat} (eclipsed).” (V.75:8)

1047.Narrated 'Aishah (the wife of the Prophet ﷺ): On the day when the sun \textit{Khasafat} (eclipsed) Allah’s Messenger ﷺ prayed; he stood up and said \textit{Takbīr} and recited a prolonged recitation, then he performed a prolonged bowing, then he raised his head and said, “\textit{Sami’ Allahu liman hamida},” and then remained standing and recited a prolonged recitation which was shorter than the first. Then he performed a prolonged bowing which was shorter than the first. Then he prostrated and prolonged the prostration and he did the same in the second \textit{Rak’a} as in the first and then finished the \textit{Salāt} (prayer) with \textit{Taslim}. By that time the sun (eclipse) had cleared. He addressed the people and said, as regards solar and lunar eclipses, “The sun and the moon are two signs from amongst the signs of Allah; they do not eclipse (\textit{Yaksifan}) because of the death or the life (i.e. birth) of someone. So when you see them make haste for the \textit{Salāt} (prayer).”
1048. Narrated Abū Bakr: Allah’s Messenger said: “The sun and the moon are two signs amongst the signs of Allah and they do not eclipse because of the death of someone but Allah frightens His slaves or devotees with them.”

1049. Narrated ‘Amra bint ‘Abd-Rahmān: A Jewess came to ask ‘Āishah about something. She said to her, “May Allah give you refuge from the punishment in the grave.” So ‘Āishah asked Allah’s Messenger ☪, “Would the people be punished in their graves?” Allah’s Messenger ☪ said seeking refuge with Allah from the punishment in the grave (and thus replied in the affirmative).

1050. Then one day, Allah’s Messenger ☪ rode to go to some place but the sun eclipsed. He returned in the forenoon and passed through the rear of the dwellings (of his wives) and stood for the (eclipse) Salāt (prayer), and the people stood behind him. He stood up for a long period and then performed a prolonged bowing. Then he stood straight for a long period which was shorter than that of the first standing, again he performed a prolonged bowing which was shorter than the first bowing. Then he raised his head and prostrated (twice). Then he stood up (for the second Rak‘a) for a long while but the standing was shorter than that of the first Rak‘a. Then he performed a prolonged bowing which was shorter than the first one.

Then he stood up for a long period but shorter than the first. Then he performed a prolonged bowing but shorter than the first. Then he raised his head and prostrated twice and finished the Salāt and then delivered the Khutba (religious talk) and] said as much as Allah wished. And then he ordered the people to seek refuge with Allah from the punishment in the grave. [See Hadith No. 1055, 1056].

(8) CHAPTER. To prolong the prostrations in the eclipse Salāt (prayer).

1051. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr ☪: When the sun eclipsed in the lifetime of Allah's Messenger and an announcement of As-Salatu Jami'a [that As-Salat (the prayer) was to be held in congregation]. The Prophet performed two bowings in one Rak'a. Then he stood up and performed two bowings in one Rak'a. Then he sat down and finished the Salat (prayer); and by then the (eclipse) had cleared. 'Aishah said, "I had never performed such a long prostration."

(9) CHAPTER. To offer the eclipse Salat (prayer) in congregation.

Ibn 'Abbas: I offered the eclipse prayer with the people (in congregation) by the side of the Zamzam well. 'Ali bin 'Abdullah bin 'Abbas also offered that Salat in congregation and Ibn 'Umar also offered it (in the same way).

1052. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin 'Abbas: The sun eclipsed in the lifetime of the Prophet. Allah's Messenger offered the eclipse Salat (prayer) and stood for a long period equal to the period in which one could recite Sûrat Al-Baqarah. Then he bowed for a long time and then stood up for a long period which was shorter than that of the first standing, then bowed again for a long time but for a shorter period than the first; then he prostrated twice and then stood up for a long period which was shorter than that of the first standing; then he bowed for a long time which was shorter than the previous one, and then he raised his head and stood up for a long period which was shorter than the first standing, then he bowed for a long time which was shorter than the first bowing, and then prostrated (twice) and finished the Salât. By then, the sun (eclipse) had cleared. The Prophet ﷺ then said, “The sun and the moon are two signs from amongst the signs of Allah. They eclipse neither because of the death of somebody nor because of his life (i.e. birth). So when you see them, remember Allah.” The people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We saw you taking something from your place and then we saw you retreating.” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “I saw Paradise and stretched my hands towards a bunch (of its fruits) and had I taken it, you would have eaten from it as long as the world remains. I also saw the Hell-fire and I had never seen such a horrible sight. I saw that most of its inhabitants were women.” The people asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! Why is it so?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Because of their ungratefulness.”

It was asked whether they are ungrateful to Allah. The Prophet ﷺ said, “They are ungrateful to their companions of life (husbands) and ungrateful to good favours done to them. If you have done good favours to one of them throughout the life and if she sees anything (undesirable) from you, she will say, ‘I have never seen any good from you’."

(10) CHAPTER. The offering of the Eclipse Salât (prayer) by women along with men.

1053. Narrated Fāṭima bint Al-Mundhir: Asma’ bint Abi Bakr said, “I came to ‘Aishah the wife of the Prophet ﷺ during the solar eclipse. The people were standing and offering the Salât (prayer) and she was also offering Salât (prayer). I asked her, ‘What has happened to the people?’ She pointed out with her hand towards the sky and said, ‘Subḥān Allāh’. I said, ‘Is there a sign?' She requested in the affirmative."

Asmâ’ further said, "I too then stood up for the Salât (prayer) till I felt dizziness and then I poured water on my head. When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ had finished his Salât (prayer), he thanked and praised Allâh and said, ‘I have seen, at this place of mine what I have never, I have seen even Paradise and Hell. No doubt, it has been revealed to me that you will be put to trial in the graves like or nearly like the trial of (Al-Masîh) Ad-Dajîl. (I do not know which one of the two Asmâ’ said.) (The angels) will come to everyone of you and will ask: What do you know about this man (i.e. Muḥâammad ﷺ)? The believer or a firm believer (I do not know which word Asmâ’ said) will reply: He is Muḥâammad, Allâh’s Messenger, who came to us with clear evidences and guidance, so we accepted his teachings, believed and followed him. The angels will then say to him: Sleep peacefully as we knew surely that you were a firm believer. The hypocrite or doubtful person (I do not know which word Asmâ’ said) will say: I do not know. I heard the people saying something so I said it (the same).’" (See H. No. 1338).

(11) CHAPTER. Whoever loved manumission (of slaves) during the solar eclipses.

1054. Narrated Asmâ’ (bint Abî Bakr) ﷺ: No doubt the Prophet ﷺ ordered people to manumit slaves during the solar eclipse.
1055. Narrated `Amra bint `Abdur-Rahmân: A Jewess came to `A`ishah to ask her about something and then she said, “May Allâh give you refuge from the punishment in the grave.” So `A`ishah asked Allâh’s Messenger , “Would the people be punished in their graves?” Allâh’s Messenger said, “I seek refuge with Allâh from the punishment in the grave (indicating an affirmative reply).”

1056. Then one day Allâh’s Messenger rode (to leave for some place) but the sun eclipsed. He returned in the forenoon and passed through the rear of the dwellings (of his wives) and stood up and started offering the (eclipse) Salât (prayer) and the people stood behind him. He stood for a long period and then performed a long bowing and then stood straight for a long period which was shorter than that of the first standing, then he performed a prolonged bowing which was shorter than the first bowing, then he raised his head and prostrated for a long time (twice) and then stood up (for the second Rak`â) for a long while, but the standing was shorter than the standing of the first Rak`â. Then he performed a prolonged bowing, which was shorter than that of the first one.

He then stood up for a long time but shorter than the first, then again performed a long bowing which was shorter than the first and then prostrated (twice) for a shorter while than that of the first prostration. Then he finished the Salât and [delivered the Khutba (religious talk) and] said what Allâh wished him to say; and ordered the people to seek refuge with Allâh from the punishment in the grave.

(13) CHAPTER. The solar eclipse does not occur because of someone’s death or life.

And this has been narrated by Abû Bakra, Al-Mughîra, Abû Mûsâ, Ibn ‘Abbâs and Ibn ‘Umar.

1057. Narrated Abû Mas‘ûd: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of someone’s death or life (i.e., birth) but they are two signs amongst the signs of Allâh, so offer Salât (prayers) whenever you see them.”

1058. Narrated ‘Âishah: In the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ the sun eclipsed and the Prophet ﷺ stood up to offer the Salât (prayer) with the people and recited a long recitation, then he performed a prolonged bowing; and then lifted his head and recited a prolonged recitation which was shorter than the first. Then he performed a prolonged bowing which was shorter than the first and then lifted his head up and performed two prostrations. He then stood up for the second Rak’a and offered it like the first. Then (after finishing the Salât) he stood up and said, “The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of someone’s life (i.e., birth) or death but they are two signs amongst the signs of Allâh which He shows to His worshippers. So whenever you see them, make haste for the Șalât (prayer)."

(14) CHAPTER. To remember Allâh during the eclipse.

This is narrated by Ibn ‘Abbâs.

1059. Narrated Abû Mûsâ: The sun eclipsed and the Prophet got up, being afraid that it might be the Hour (i.e., Day of Judgement). He went to the mosque and offered the Șalât (prayer) with a long Qiyâm (standing), bowing and prostration that I had ever seen him doing. Then (after the Șalât) he said, “These signs which Allâh sends do not occur because of the life (i.e., birth) or death of somebody, but Allâh frightens ‘Ibâdhû (His slaves or His worshippers) with them. So when you see anything thereof, proceed to remember Allâh, invoke Him and ask for His forgiveness.”

(15) CHAPTER. Invocation during the eclipse.

And this is narrated by Abû Mûsâ and ‘Aishah from the Prophet .

1060. Narrated Al-Mughîrâ bin Shu’ba: On the day of Ibrâhîm’s death, the sun eclipsed and the people said that the eclipse was due to the death of Ibrâhîm (the son of the Prophet ). Allâh’s Messenger said, “The sun and the moon are two signs amongst the signs of Allâh. They do not eclipse because of someone’s death or life (i.e., birth). So when you see them, invoke Allah and offer Salāt (prayer) till the eclipse has cleared.”

(16) CHAPTER. The saying of Imām Ammā ba’du (then after), during the Khuṭba (religious talk) of the eclipse.

1061. And this was narrated by Asmā’ who said, “Allah’s Messenger ṣṣ finished the eclipse prayer and by then the sun (eclipse) had cleared. Then he delivered the Khuṭba (religious talk) and praised Allah as He deserved and then said Ammā ba’du.”

(17) CHAPTER. The prayer of the lunar eclipse:

1062. Narrated Abū Bakr: In the lifetime of Prophet ṣṣ the sun eclipsed so he offered a two Rak’a Salāt (prayer).

1063. Narrated Abū Bakr: In the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger ṣṣ the sun eclipsed and he went out dragging his clothes till he reached the mosque. The people gathered around him and he led them [in Salāt (prayers)] and offered two Rak’a. When the sun (eclipse) cleared, he said, “The sun and the moon are two signs amongst the signs of Allah; they do not eclipse because of the death of someone, and so when an eclipse occurs, offer Salāt and invoke Allah till the eclipse has cleared.” It happened that a son of the Prophet  called Ibrahim died on that day and the people were talking about that (saying that the eclipse was caused by his death).

(18) CHAPTER. The first Rak'ā of the eclipse prayer is longer (than the second).

1064. Narrated 'Aishah : The Prophet  led us [in Salat (prayer) and performed four bowings in two Rak'ā during the solar eclipse and the first Rak'ā was longer (than the second).

(19) CHAPTER. To recite (the Qur'an) aloud in the eclipse Salāt (prayer).

1065. Narrated 'Aishah : The Prophet  recited (the Qur'an) aloud during the eclipse prayer and when he finished from his recitation he said Takbīr and bowed. When he stood straight from bowing he said "Sami' Allahu liman ĥamidah, Rabbanâ wa lakal-ĥamâd." Then again he started reciting. In the eclipse Salāt (prayer) there are four bowings and four prostrations in two Rak'ā.

1066. Narrated 'Urwa : 'Aishah said, "In the lifetime of Allah's Messenger  it was

(1) CHAPTER. What is said about the prostrations during the recitation of the Qur’an and its legal way.

1067. Narrated ‘Abdullah (bin Mas’ûd): The Prophet recited Sûrat An-Najm (No.53) at Makkah and prostrated while reciting it and those who were with him did the same except an old man who took a handful of small stones or earth and lifted it to his forehead and said, “This is sufficient for me.” Later on, I saw him killed as a disbeliever.

(2) CHAPTER. To prostrate during the recitation of Sûrat Tanzil – As-Sajda (No.32).

1068. Narrated Abû Hurairah: On Fridays the Prophet used to recite Alif Lâm Mim Tanzil-As-Sajda (in the first Rak’a) and Hal âlâ ‘alâl-Insâni i.e., Sûrat-Ad-Dahr (No.76) (in the second Rak’a), in the Salât-ul-Fajr (Fajr prayer).

(3) CHAPTER. To prostrate while reciting Sûrat Sad (No.38).

1069. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The prostration of Sad is not a compulsory one but I saw the Prophet prostrating while reciting it.

(4) CHAPTER. The prostration in An-Najm.

Ibn ‘Abbās narrates this from the Prophet.

Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd): The Prophet recited Sūrat-An-Najm (No.53) and prostrated while reciting it and all the people prostrated and a man amongst the people took a handful of stones or earth and raised it to his face and said, “This is sufficient for me.” Later on I saw him killed as a disbeliever.

(5) CHAPTER. The prostration of Muslims along with Al-Mushrīkun; and a Mushrik is Najasun (impure) and does not perform ablution.

Ibn ‘Umar used to prostrate without ablution.

(1) (Ch.5) Al-Mushrīkun: (Polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muhammad).

(2) (Ch.5) Their impurity is spiritual and physical: Spiritual, because they don’t believe in Allāh’s Oneness and in His Prophet Muḥammad; and physical, because they lack personal hygiene (filthy as regards urine, stools, and blood etc.). And the word Najas is used only for those persons who have spiritual impurity e.g., Al-Mushrīkūn. (See V.9:28 – The Qur’ān).
1071. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet prostrated while reciting An-Najm (No.53) and with him prostrated the Muslims, the Mushrikūn, the jinn, and the mankind.

1072. Narrated ‘Ata’ bin Yaśār: I asked Zaid bin Thābit about prostration on which he said that he had recited (Sūrah) An-Najm (No.53) before the Prophet, yet he (the Prophet) did not perform a prostration.

1073. Narrated Zaid bin Thābit: I recited (Sūrah) An-Najm (No.53) before the Prophet, yet he did not perform a prostration.

(6) CHAPTER. Whoever recited the Verses of prostration and did not prostrate.

Shaqqat and he prostrated during its recitation. I asked Abu Hurairah, “Didn’t I saw you prostrating?” Abu Hurairah said, “Had I not seen the Prophet prostrating, I would not have prostrated.”

(8) CHAPTER. Whoever prostrated with the prostration of the reciter (of the Qur’an).

And Ibn Mas’ûd asked Tamim bin Hadhâlam, while he was a boy, to recite Surah and said to him, “Prostrate as you are our Imam.”

1075. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Whenever the Prophet recited a Surah, in which there is a prostration, he would prostrate and we would do the same and some of us (because of overcrowding) would not find a place for prostration.

(9) CHAPTER. The overcrowding of the people when the Imam recites As-Sajda.

1076. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet used to recite (Surat) As-Sajda while we were with him, he would prostrate and we also would prostrate with him and some of us would not find a place for our foreheads to prostrate on, due to overcrowding.
(10) CHAPTER. Whoever thinks that Allah has not made prostration of recitation (i.e., during the recitation of the Qur'an) compulsory.

And 'Imrân bin Hussain was asked if a man heard As-Sajda but was not sitting to listen to it (would the prostration be compulsory for him?) He said, “In my opinion prostration is not compulsory for him even if he were sitting to listen to it.”

And Salmân (who once heard Sûrat As-Sajda but did not prostrate) said, “I did not come with the intention of listening to it”, and ‘Uthmân said, “The prostration is compulsory for the person who listens to it.”

And Az-Zuhri said, “Do not perform the prostration of recitation without ablution, and when you are a non-traveller, face the Qiblah while performing the prostration of recitation and if you are riding perform it in whatever direction you are facing.” And Aṣ-Ṣâ‘ib bin Yazîd did not perform the prostrations of recitation while a story-teller or a preacher was reciting the Verses of prostration.

1077. Narrated Râbi‘a: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb recited Sûrat An-Nahl (16) on a Friday on the pulpit and when he reached the Verse of Sajda, he got down from the pulpit and prostrated and the people also prostrated. The next Friday ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb recited the same Sûrah and when he reached the Verse of Sajda he said, “O people! When we recite the Verses of Sajda [during the Khutba (religious talk)] whoever prostrates does the right thing, yet there is no sin on the one who does not prostrate.” And ‘Umar did not prostrate (that day). Ibn ‘Umar added, “Allâh has not made the prostration of recitation compulsory but if we wish we can perform it.”
(11) CHAPTER. Whoever recited the Verse of Sajda during the Salât (prayer) and prostrated (while praying).

1078.Narrated Abû Râfi': I offered the 'Ishâ' prayer behind Abû Hurairah and he recited Idhâs-Samâ'un-Shaqqat (No.84), and prostrated. I said, "What is this?" Abû Hurairah said, "I prostrated behind Abûl-Qâsim and I will do the same till I meet him."

(12) CHAPTER. Whoever does not find a place for prostration (with the Imâm) because of overcrowding.

1079. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Whenever the Prophet recited the Sûrah in which there was a prostration he would prostrate and then, we, too, would prostrate and some of us used not to find a place for prostration.
18 – THE BOOK OF ABRIDGED OR SHORTENED PRAYERS (AT-TAQŠIR)

(1) CHAPTER. What is said about the shortened prayers and for what period of stay one should offer shortened prayers.

1080. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet ﷺ once travelled and stayed for nineteen days and offered shortened prayers. So when we travelled (and stayed) for nineteen days, we used to shorten the prayer but if we travelled (and stayed) for a longer period we used to offer the full prayer.

1081. Narrated Yahyā bin Ishāq: I heard Anas bin 'Abbās saying, “We travelled with the Prophet ﷺ from Al-Madīna to Makkah and he used to offer two Rak‘ā, two Rak‘ā (shortened prayers) till we returned to Al-Madīna.” I said, “Did you stay for some days in Makkah?” He replied, “We stayed in Makkah for ten days.”

(2) CHAPTER. As-Ṣalāt (the prayers) at Mina (during Hajj).

1082. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar): I offered the Salāt with the Prophet ﷺ, Abū Bakr and ‘Umar at Minā and it used to be two Rak‘ā (shortened Salāt). ‘Uthmān bin ‘Affān in the early days of his caliphate did the same, but later on he started offering the full Salāt (prayers).
1083. Narrated Ḥāritha bin Wahab: The Prophet led us in the ʿṢalāt (prayers) at Minā (during the Ḥajj) and it was two Rakʿā (shortened prayer), while we were in a better security than before. (See H.No. 1656).

1084. Narrated ʿAbdur Raḥmān bin Yazid: At Minā ʿUthmān Ibn ʿAffān led us in the ʿṢalāt (prayer) and offered four Rakʿā (the full prayer). ʿAbdullāh bin Masʿūd was informed about it. He said sadly, “Truly, to Allah we belong and truly, to Him we shall return.” And added, “I offered two Rakʿā (shortened prayers) with Allāh’s Messenger at Minā and similarly with Abū Bakr and with ʿUmar (during their caliphates).” He further said, “May I be lucky enough to have two of the four Rakʿā accepted (by Allah).”

(3) CHAPTER. How long did the Prophet stay during his Ḥajj?

1085. Narrated Ibn ʿAbbās: The Prophet and his Companions reached Makkah in the morning of the 4th Dhul-Hijjah reciting Tahāya [Laḥbaik Allāhumma Laḥbaik]. (O Allāh! We are obedient to Your Orders, we respond to Your Call)], intending to perform Ḥajj. The Prophet ordered his Companions to assume the Ḥiḥrām.
(for 'Umra instead of Hajj, except those who had Hadî (sacrifice) with them. (And the Prophet ﷺ stayed for ten days during the Hajj — see H. No. 1081).

(4) CHAPTER. What is the length of the journey that makes it permissible for one to offer a shortened Salât (prayer)?

The Prophet ﷺ called a journey of one day and one night as travelling. Ibn 'Umar, Ibn 'Abbâs رضي الله عنهما used to shorten the Salât and stop fasting in a journey of four Burud, i.e. sixteen Farsakh (distance of 3 miles equals one Farsakh).

1086. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A woman should not travel for more than three days except with a Mahram [i.e. a male (with whom she cannot marry at all, e.g., her brother, father, grandfather, etc.) or her own husband.]”

1087. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A woman should not travel for more than three days except with a Mahram.”

1088. Narrated Abu Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “It is not permissible for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to travel for one day and night except with a Mahram.”

(5) CHAPTER. When a traveller leaves his original place, he can shorten his Salât (prayers).

Once ‘Ali (bin Abî Ṭâlib) left (Kûfâ) and started shortening the Salât (prayers) although the houses (of Kûfâ) were in sight. On his return he was told, “This is Kûfâ.” (So that he would no longer shorten the Salât). He said, “No, [I will go on shortening the Salât (prayers)] till we enter Kûfâ.”

1089. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik رضي الله عنه : I offered four Rak‘a of Zuhr prayer with the Prophet ﷺ at Al-Madîna and two Rak‘a at Dhul-Hulaifa. (i.e. shortened the ‘Âsr prayers).

1090. Narrated ‘Aishah زينب الله عليها, “When the Salât (prayer) were first enjoined they were two Rak‘at each. Later the Sala (prayer) in a journey was kept as it was but the Salât (prayers) for non-travellers were made full (completed).” Az-Zuhri said, “I asked ‘Urwa what made ‘Aishah زينب الله عليها offer the full Salât (in journey).” He replied,
(6) CHAPTER. To offer three Rak‘ā of Maghrib prayer during a journey.

1091. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنه, “I saw Allah’s Messenger ﷺ delaying the Maghrib prayer till he offered it along with the ‘Ishā’ prayer whenever he was in a hurry during a journey.” Sālim narrated, “Ibn ‘Umar used to do the same whenever he was in a hurry during a journey.”

1092. And Sālim also said, “Ibn ‘Umar used to offer the Maghrib and ‘Ishā’ prayers together in Al-Muzdalifa.” Sālim further said, “Ibn ‘Umar (once) delayed the Maghrib prayer because at that time he heard the news of the death of his wife Šafiyya bint Abī ‘Ubaid. I said to him, ‘As-Salāt (the prayer) is due.’ He said, ‘Go on.’ Again I said, ‘As-Salāt (is due).’ He said, ‘Go on,’ till we covered two or three miles. Then he got down, offered Salāt and said, ‘I saw the Prophet ﷺ offering Salāt in this way, whenever he was in a hurry during the journey.’” ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar) added, “Whenever the Prophet ﷺ was in a hurry, he used to delay the Maghrib prayers and then offer three Rak‘ā (of the Maghrib) and perform Taslim, and after waiting for a short while, Iqāma used to be pronounced for the 'Īshā’ prayer when he would offer two Rak‘āt and perform Taslīm. He would never offer any optional Ṣalāt till the middle of the night (when he used to offer the Tahajjud).”

(7) CHAPTER. To offer the optional non-obligatory Ṣalāt (Nawāfil) on the back of animals (Rāhila) in whatever direction the animal goes.

1093. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Āmir that his father said: I saw the Prophet  offering the Ṣalāt (prayer) on his mount (Rāhila) in whatever direction it took.

1094. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet  used to offer the Nawāfil (optional — non obligatory prayers) while riding, facing a direction other than that of the Qiblah.

1095. Narrated Nāfi’: Ibn ‘Umar: (while on a journey) used to offer the Nawāfil and the Witr prayers on his Rāhila (mount). He said that the Prophet  used to do so.

(8) CHAPTER. To offer the Ṣalāt by signs (while riding) on an animal (Rāhila).

1096. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Dīnār: On travelling, ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar used to offer the (optional — non-obligatory) Ṣalāt (prayer) on his mount (Rāhila) by signs whatever direction it took. ‘Abdullāh said that the Prophet ṣṣ used to do so.

(9) CHAPTER. To get down in order to offer the prescribed (compulsory) Ṣalāt (prayer).

1097.Narrated ‘Amīr bin Rābi‘a ʿAlla Cup e: I saw the Prophet ṣṣ on his Rāhila (mount) offering Nawāfil prayers by nodding his head, whatever direction he faced, but Allāh’s Messenger ṣṣ never did the same in offering the prescribed (compulsory) Ṣalāt (prayer).

1098. Narrated Sālim: At night, ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar used to offer the Ṣalāt (prayer) on the back of his animal during a journey and never cared about the direction he faced. Ibn ‘Umar said, “Allāh’s Messenger ṣṣ used to offer the optional Ṣalāt (prayer) on the back of his Rāhila facing any direction and also used to offer the Wir on it but never offered the prescribed (compulsory) Ṣalāt (prayer) on it.”

1099. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh ʿAlla Cup e: The Prophet ṣṣ used to offer (the Nawāfil) prayers on his mount facing east, and whenever he wanted to offer the compulsory \(\text{\textit{Salāt}}\) (prayer), he used to dismount and face the \(\text{Qiblah}\).

(10) CHAPTER. To offer the \textit{Nawāfil} (optional — non-obligatory) while riding a donkey.

1100. Narrated Anas bin Sirīn: We went to receive Anas bin Malik when he returned from \(\text{Shām}\) and met him at a place called ‘Ain-at-Tamr. I saw him offering \(\text{\textit{Salāt}}\) (prayer) riding a donkey, with his face to this direction, i.e., to the left of the \(\text{Qiblah}\). I said to him, “I have seen you offering the \(\text{\textit{Salāt}}\) (prayer) in a direction other than that of the \(\text{Qiblah}\).” He replied, “If I had not seen Allāh’s Messenger \(\text{\textit{ṣallallāh-u-ta Briggs}}\) doing it, I would not have done it.”

1101. Narrated Ḥafṣ bin Ḵāsim: Ibn ‘Umar \(\text{\textit{ṣallallāh-u-ta Briggs}}\) went on a journey and said, “I accompanied the Prophet \(\text{\textit{ṣallallāh-u-ta Briggs}}\) and he did not offer the \textit{Nawāfil} (optional — non-obligatory) during the journey, and 1102. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I accompanied Allah’s Messenger and he never offered more than two Rak’ā prayer during a journey. Abū Bakr, ‘Umar and ‘Uthmān used to do the same.

1103. Narrated Ibn Abī Lailā: Only Umm Hānî told us that she had seen the Prophet offering the Duhā (forenoon prayers). She said, “On the day of the conquest of Makkah, the Prophet took a bath in my house and offered eight Rak’ā. I never saw him offering such a light Salāt (prayer), but he performed perfect prostration and bowing.”

1104. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Āmir that his father had told him that he had seen the Prophet offering Nawāfil (non-obligatory) prayers at night on the back of his Râhîla (mount) on a journey, facing whatever 1105. Narrated Sālim bin ‘Abdullāh: Ibn ‘Umar said, “Allāh’s Messenger used to offer the Nawāfil (non-obligatory) prayers on the back of his Rāhila (mount) by signs, facing any direction.” Ibn ‘Umar used to do the same.

(13) CHAPTER. To offer the Maghrib and ‘Ishā’ prayers together on a journey.

1106. Narrated Sālim’s father: The Prophet used to offer the Maghrib and ‘Ishā’ (prayers) together whenever he was in a hurry on a journey.

1107. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allāh’s Messenger used to offer the Zuhur and ‘Asr (prayers) together on journeys, and also used to offer the Maghrib and ‘Ishā’ together.

1108. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet used to offer the Maghrib and the ‘Ishā’ Salāt (prayers) together on journeys.
(14) CHAPTER. Should the Adhân or Iqâma be pronounced when the Maghrib and 'Ishâ' prayers are offered together?

1109.Narrated Az-Zuhri: Sâlim informed me that ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar said, “I saw Allâh’s Messenger delaying the Maghrib prayer till he offered it along with the 'Ishâ’ prayer whenever he was in a hurry during a journey.” Sâlim said, “‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar used to do the same whenever he was in a hurry during a journey. After making the call for Iqâma for the Maghrib prayer he used to offer three Rak’a and then perform Taslim. After waiting for a short while, he would pronounce the Iqâma for the 'Ishâ’ prayer and offer two Rak’a and perform Taslim. He never offered any optional prayers in between the two Salât (prayers) or after the Salât (prayers) till he got up in the middle of the night (for Tahajjud).”

1110.Narrated Anas: Allâh’s Messenger used to offer these two Salât (prayers) together on journeys i.e., the Maghrib and the 'Ishâ’ (prayers).
(15) CHAPTER. To delay the Salāt-uz-Zuhr prayers till the 'Asr prayers if one has set off before noon.

Ibn 'Abbās narrated this on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

1111. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Whenever the Prophet ﷺ started a journey before noon, he used to delay the Zuhr prayers till the time of 'Asr and then offer them together; and if the sun declined (at noon) he used to offer the Zuhr prayer and then ride (for a journey).

(16) CHAPTER. Whenever a person travels after midday, he should offer the Zuhr prayers and then ride for a journey.

1112. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Whenever the Prophet ﷺ started on a journey before noon, he used to delay the Zuhr prayers till the time for the 'Asr prayer and then he would dismount and offer them together; and whenever the sun declined before he started on a journey he used to offer the Zuhr prayers and then ride (for journey).

(17) CHAPTER. To offer Ṣalāt (prayer) while sitting.

1113. Narrated 'Aīshah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ offered Ṣalāt (prayer) in his house while sitting during his illness and the people offered Ṣalāt behind him standing and he pointed to them to sit down.

When he had finished the Ṣalāt, he said, "The Ḥāʾim is to be followed and so when he bows you should bow; and when he lifts his head you should also do the same."[1] [The provision of this Hadith was abrogated by the last action of the Prophet ﷺ. See H. No.687].

1114. Narrated Anas bin Malik ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ fell down from a horse and his right side was either injured or scratched, so we went to inquire about his health. The time for the Salât (prayers) became due and he offered the Salât while sitting and we offered Salât while standing. He said, “The Imam is to be followed; so if he says Takbîr, you should also say Takbîr, and if he bows you should also bow; and when he lifts his head you should also do the same and if he says: Samî’ Allahu liman ḥamîda (Allah heard those who sent praises to Him) you should say: Rabbanâ walakâ-l-hamd (O our Lord! All the praises are for You.”) (See Hadîth No. 687 and 689, Vol.1).

1115. Narrated ‘Imrân bin Ḥusayn ﷺ: who was suffering from piles: I asked Allah’s Messenger ﷺ about the offering of Salât (prayers) of a man while sitting. He said, “If he offers Salât while standing it is better and he who offers Salât while sitting gets half the reward of that who offers Salât standing; and whoever offer Salât while lying gets half the reward of that who offers Salât while sitting.”

18 - THE BOOK OF ABRIDGED PRAYERS (AT-TAQŠİR)

(18) CHAPTER. To offer Salāt (prayers) by signs while sitting.

1116.Narrated 'Abdullãh bin Buraida: ‘Imrãn bin Ḥusain was suffering from piles. Once Abû Ma'mar narrated that 'Imrãn bin Ḥusain said, “I asked the Prophet about the Salāt (prayers) of a person while sitting. He said, ‘It is better for one to offer Salāt (prayer) standing; and whoever offers Salāt (prayer) sitting gets half the reward of that who offers Salāt (prayer) while standing; and whoever offers Salāt (prayer) while lying gets half the reward of that who offers Salāt (prayer) while sitting.’”

(19) CHAPTER. Whoever cannot offer Salāt (prayer) while sitting, can offer Salāt while lying on his side.

‘Aṭá’ said, “If one is unable to turn towards the Qiblah then he can offer the Salāt (prayer) in whatever direction his face may be.”

1117. Narrated 'Imrãn bin Ḥusain: I had piles, so I asked the Prophet about the Salāt (prayers). He said, “Offer Salāt (prayer) standing and if you cannot do that, offer Salāt (prayer) sitting, and if you cannot do even that, then offer Salāt (prayer) lying on your side.”
(20) CHAPTER. Whoever starts his \(\text{Ṣalāt}\) (prayer) sitting (because of ailment) and then during the \(\text{Ṣalāt}\) (prayer) feels better, can finish the rest while standing.

Al-Hasan said, “If the sick person wishes he can offer two \(\text{Rakā}^{\prime}\) while standing and two \(\text{Rakā}^{\prime}\) while sitting.”

1118. Narrated 'Āishah, the Mother of the faithful believers: I never saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ offering the night \(\text{Ṣalāt}\) (prayer) while sitting except in his old age and then he used to recite while sitting and whenever he wanted to bow he would stand up and recite thirty or forty Verses (while standing) and then bow.

1119. Narrated 'Āishah, Mother of the faithful believers: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ (in his last days) used to offer (the night) \(\text{Ṣalāt}\) (prayer) sitting. He would recite while sitting, and when thirty or forty Verses remained from the recitation, he would stand up and recite them while standing and then he would bow and prostrate. He used to do the same in the second \(\text{Rakā}^{\prime}\). After finishing the \(\text{Ṣalāt}\) (prayer) he used to look at me and if I was awake he would talk to me and if I was asleep, he would lie down.
19 - THE BOOK OF SALĀT-UT-TAHĀJUD (NIGHT PRAYER)

(1) CHAPTER. The Tahajjud prayer at night [Tahajjud means optional Salah (prayer) to be offered from the middle to the last part of the night but before the compulsory morning Salah (prayer)].

And the Statement of Allah "And in some parts of the night (also) offer the Salah (prayer) with it (i.e., recite the Qur'an in the prayer), as an additional prayer (Tahajjud optional prayer — Nawāfīl) for you... (O Muḥammad ﷺ)" (V.17:79).

1120. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Whenever the Prophet ﷺ got up at night to offer the Tahajjud prayer, he used to say:

[O Allāh! All the praises are for You; You are the Sustainer and Protector of the heavens and the earth, and whatever is in them. All the praises are for You; You have the possession of the heavens and the earth and whatever is in them. All the praises are for You; You are the Light of the heavens and the earth; You are the King of the heavens and the earth and whatever is in... them, and all the praises are for You; You are the Truth and Your Promise is the truth, and the Meeting with You is the truth, Your Words are the truth, and Paradise is the truth, and Hell is the truth and all the Prophets (peace be upon them) are the truth. And Muhammad is the truth, and the Hour (Day of Resurrection) is the truth. O Allah! I surrender to You, I believe in You and depend on You, and repent to You, and with Your Help I argue (with my opponents, the disbelievers) and I take You as a Judge (to judge between us). Please forgive me my past and future sins; and whatever I concealed and whatever I revealed; and You are the One Who make (some people) forward and (some) backward. There is none who has the right to be worshipped but You or there is no other than You who has the right to be worshipped) Sufyān said that ‘Abdu l Karīm Abū Umaiyya added to the above, ‘Walā huwa wa la quwwata illā billah’ (There is neither might nor power except with Allah).

(2) CHAPTER. The superiority of Tahajjud prayer (i.e. the night prayer).

1121. Narrated Sālim’s father: In the lifetime of the Prophet ṣaw whosoever saw a dream would narrate it to Allāh’s Messenger ṣaw. I had a wish of seeing a dream to narrate it to Allah’s Messenger ṣaw. I was a grown up boy and used to sleep in the mosque in the lifetime of the Prophet ṣaw. I saw in the dream that two angels caught hold of me and took me to the fire which was built all round like a built well and had two poles in it and the people in it were known to me. I started saying, “I seek refuge with Allāh from the fire.” Then I met another angel who told me not to be afraid.
1122. I narrated the dream to Hafṣa who told it to Allāh’s Messenger. The Prophet said, “Abdullāh is a good man. I wish he offered night prayer (Tahajjud).”

After that ‘Abdullāh (i.e., Sālim’s father) used to sleep but a little at night.

(3) CHAPTER. To perform a long prostration in the Tahajjud (night prayer).

1123. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allāh’s Messenger used to offer eleven Rak‘ā and that was his Salāt (i.e., night prayer). He used to prolong the prostration to such an extent that one could recite fifty verses (of the Qur’ān) before he would lift his head. He used to offer two Rak‘ā (Sunna) before the Salāt-ul-Fajr (early morning prayer) and then used to lie down on his right side till the call-maker came and informed him about the Salāt (prayer).

(4) CHAPTER. Leaving the night prayer by a patient.

1124. Narrated Jundab: The Prophet ‏النَّبِيُّ ﷺ became sick and did not get up (for Tahajjud prayer) for a night or two.

1125. Narrated Jundab bin ‘Abdullāh ‏النَّبِيُّ ﷺ: Jibrīl (Gabriel) did not come to the Prophet ‏النَّبِيُّ ﷺ (for some time) and so one of the Quraysh women said, “His Satan has deserted him.” So came the Divine Revelation:

“By the forenoon (after sunrise). By the night when it darkens (and stands still). Your Lord (O Muhammad ﷺ) has neither forsaken you nor hates you.” (V.93:1-3)

(5) CHAPTER. The Prophet’s ‏النَّبِيُّ ﷺ exhorting (the people) to Tahajjud and Nawāfil without making them compulsory.

The Prophet ‏النَّبِيُّ ﷺ went to ‘All and Fātima ‏النَّبِيَّةُ ﷺ at night and knocked their door to exhort them to perform Salah (i.e. night prayers).

1126. Narrated Umm Salama ‏النساءُ ﷺ: One night the Prophet ‏النَّبِيُّ ﷺ got up and said, "Subhān Allāh!"[1] How many Al-Fīṭān (trials and afflictions) has been sent down tonight and how many treasures have been sent down (disclosed). Go and wake the sleeping lady occupants of these dwellings up [for Salah (prayers)], perhaps a well-dressed in this world may be naked in the Hereafter.”

---

1127. Narrated ‘Ali bin Abi Ṭalib that one night Allâh’s Messenger came to him and Fâṭimah, the daughter of the Prophet and said: “Don’t you (both) offer the Tahâjjud prayers (at night)?” I said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Our souls are in the Hands of Allâh and if He wants us to get up He will make us get up.” When I said that, he left us without saying anything and I heard that he was hitting his thigh and saying, “...But, man is ever more quarrelsome than anything.” (V.18:54)

1128. Narrated ‘Âishah: Allâh’s Messenger used to give up a good deed, although he loved to do it, for fear that people might act on it and it might be made compulsory for them. The Prophet never offered the Dhu`ah prayer, but I offer it.

1129. Narrated ‘Âishah, the Mother of the faithful believers: One night Allâh’s Messenger offered the Salât (prayer) in the mosque and the people followed him. The next night he also offered the Salât (prayer) and a great number of people followed him. On the third or the fourth night more and more people gathered, but Allâh’s Messenger... did not come out to them. In the morning he said, “I saw what you were doing and nothing stopped me from coming out to you, but the fear that it (i.e. the Salāt) might be enjoined on you.” And that happened in the month of Ramaḍān.

(6) CHAPTER. Standing of the Prophet ﷺ [for the Salāt (prayer)] at night.

‘Āishah  Dön  narrated that the Prophet ﷺ used to offer Salāt (prayer) till his feet used to be swollen (oedematous).

1130. Narrated Al-Mughira: The Prophet ﷺ used to stand [in the Salāt (prayer)] or offer Salāt (prayer) till both his feet or legs swelled. He was asked [why he offered such an unbearable Salāt (prayer)] and he said, “Should I not be a thankful slave.”

(7) CHAPTER. Sleeping in the last hours of the night.

1131. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr bin Al-‘Āsh: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ told me, “The most beloved Salāt (prayer) to Allah is that of Dā‘ūd (David) and the most beloved Saum (fasts) to Allah are those of Dā‘ūd. He used to sleep for half of the night and then offer Salāt (prayer) for one third of the night and again sleep for its sixth part and used to observe Saum (fasts) to alternate days.”
1132. Narrated Masruq: I asked 'Aishah, رضي الله عنها which was the most beloved deed to the Prophet ﷺ. She said, “A deed done continuously.” I further asked, “When did he used to get up [in the night for the Salât (prayer)].” She said, “He used to get up on hearing the crowing of a cock.”

Narrated Al-Ash’ath ﷺ: He (the Prophet ﷺ) used to get up for the Salât (prayer) on hearing the crowing of a cock.

1133. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها: In my house he (Prophet ﷺ) never passed the last hours of the night but sleeping.

(8) CHAPTER. Whoever took the Suhûr (the meal taken before dawn in the month of Ramaḍân) and did not sleep before offering Fajr prayers.

1134. Narrated Qatada: Anas bin Mâlik رضي الله عنه said, “The Prophet ﷺ and Zaid bin Thabit took their Suḥūr together. When they finished it, the Prophet \( \ge \) stood for the Salāt (i.e., the Fajr prayer) and offered it.” We asked Anas, “What was the interval between their finishing the Suḥūr and the starting of the Salāt?” Anas replied, “It was equal to the time taken by a person in reciting fifty Verses of the Qur’ān.”

(9) CHAPTER. To prolong the standing posture in the Tahajjud prayer.

1135. Narrated Abū Wā’il: ‘Abdullāh b. ‘Abbās: “One night I offered the Tahajjud prayer with the Prophet \( \ge \) and he kept on standing till an ill-thought came to me.” We said, “What was the ill-thought?” He said, “It was to sit down and leave the Prophet (standing).”

1136. Narrated Hudhaifa: Whenever the Prophet \( \ge \) got up for Tahajjud prayer he used to clean his mouth (and teeth) with Siwāk.

(10) CHAPTER. How was the Ṣalāt (Tahajjud prayer) of the Prophet \( \ge \) and how many Rak‘ā , he used to offer at night?
1137. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar: A man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! How is the Salāt (prayers) of the night?” He said, “Two Rak‘a followed by two Rak‘a and so on, and when you apprehend the approaching dawn, offer one Rak‘a as Witr.”

1138. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Salāt (prayer) of the Prophet used to be of thirteen Rak‘a, i.e., of the night (Tahajjud) prayer.

1139. Narrated Masrūq: I asked ‘Aisyah about the night (Tahajjud) Salāt (prayer) of Allah’s Messenger and she said, “It was seven, nine or eleven Rak‘a besides the two Rak‘a of the Fajr prayer (i.e. Sunna).”

1140. Narrated ‘Aisyah: The Prophet used to offer thirteen Rak‘a of the night (Tahajjud) prayer and that included the Witr and two Rak‘a (Sunna) of the Fajr prayer.
(11) CHAPTER. The waking up of the Prophet \( \text{سید } \) from his sleep for the night prayer and what (how much) was cancelled from the night prayer.

And the Statement of Allah 3L: "O you wrapped in garments (i.e. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ)! Stand (to pray) all night, except a little. Half of it, or a little less than that, or a little more; and recite the Qur'an (aloud) in a slow (pleasant tone and) style. Verily, We shall send down to you a weighty Word (i.e. obligations, laws). Verily, the rising by night (for Tahajjud prayer) is very hard and most potent and good for governing (oneself), and most suitable for (understanding) the Word (of Allah). Verily, there is for you by day prolonged occupation with ordinary duties.” (V.73:1-7)

And Allah’s Statement: “...He knows that you are unable to pray the whole night, so He has turned to you (in mercy). So, recite you of the Qur'an as much as may be easy for you. He knows that there will be some among you sick, others travelling through the land, seeking of Allah’s Bounty, yet others fighting in Allah’s Cause. So recite as much of the Qur'an as may be easy for you, and perform As-Ṣalāt (IQāmat-as-ṣalāt) and give Zakāt, and lend to Allah, a goodly loan, and whatever good you send before you for yourselves, (i.e. Nawafil — non-obligatory acts of worship: prayers, charity, fasting, Hajj and 'Umra, etc.), you will certainly find it with Allah, better and greater in reward…” (V.73:20)

1141. Narrated Anas bin Malik Z:

Sometimes Allah’s Messenger ﷺ would not observe Saum (fast) (for so many days) that we thought that he would not observe Saum (fast) that month and he sometimes used to observe Saum (fast) (for so many days) that... we thought he would not leave observing Saum (fast) throughout that month and [as regards his Salát (prayers) and sleep at night], if you wanted to see him offering Salát (prayer) at night, you could see him offering Salát (prayer) and if you wanted to see him sleeping, you could see him sleeping.

(12) CHAPTER. Satan's tying of knots at the back of the head if one does not offer the night prayer.

1142. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "During your sleep, Satan knots three knots at the back of the head of each one of you. On every knot he reads and exhales the following words, 'The night is long for you, so stay asleep.' When that person wakes up and remembers Allah, one knot is undone; and when he performs ablution, the second knot is undone, and when he offers Salát (prayer) the third knot is undone and one gets up energetic in a good mode and with a good heart in the morning; otherwise he gets up in a bad mode, lazy (and with not a good heart)."

1143. Narrated Samura bin Jundab: The Prophet ﷺ said in his narration of a dream that he saw, "He whose head was being crushed with a stone was one who learnt the Qur'ān but never acted on it, and slept ignoring the prescribed compulsory Salát (prayers)."
(13) CHAPTER. If one sleeps and does not offer the Salāt (prayer), Satan urinates in his ears.

1144. Narrated ‘Abdullāh ibn ‘Umar: A man was mentioned before the Prophet ﷺ and he was told that he kept on sleeping till morning and did not get up for As-Ṣalāt (i.e., Fajr prayer). The Prophet ﷺ said, “Satan urinated in his ears.”

(14) CHAPTER. Offering Salāt (prayer) and invoking Allāh in the last hours of the night.

And Allāh says: “They used to sleep but little by night, [invoking their Lord (Allah) and praying with fear and hope]. And in the hours before dawn, they were (found) asking (Allah) for forgiveness.”

(V.51:17,18)

1145. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Our Lord, the Blessed, the Superior, comes down every night on the nearest heaven to us during the last third of the night and He says, “(Is there anyone) who invokes Me, (demands anything from Me) so that I may respond to his invocation? (Is there anyone) who asks Me so that I may grant him his request? (Is there anyone) who seeks My Forgiveness, so that I may forgive him?”
(15) CHAPTER. Sleeping in the first part of the night and getting up in its last part.

Salmān asked Abī Ad-Dardā’ to sleep, and when it was the last part of the night, he told him to get up. (When this news reached the Prophet ﷺ), he said, “Salmān said the truth.”

1146. Narrated Al-Aswad: I asked ‘Āishah about the Ṣalāt (prayer) of the Prophet ﷺ at night. She replied, “He used to sleep during the first part of night, and get up in its last part to offer Ṣalāt (prayer), and then return to his bed. When the Mu‘adh-dhin (the call-maker) pronounced the Adhān, he would get up. If he was in need of a bath he would take it; otherwise he would perform ablution and then go out [for the Ṣalāt (prayer)].”

(16) CHAPTER. The Ṣalāt (prayer) of the Prophet ﷺ at night in Ramaḍān and (in) other months.

1147. Narrated Abū Salma bin ‘Abdur Rahmān: I asked ‘Āishah about the Ṣalāt (prayer) of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ during the month of Ramaḍān.” She said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ never exceeded eleven Rak’ā in Ramaḍān or in other months; he used to offer four Rak’ā — do not ask me about their beauty and length, then four Rak’ā, do not ask me about their beauty and length, and then three Rak’ā.” ‘Āishah further said, “I said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Do you sleep before offering the Witr prayers?’ He replied, ‘O ‘Āishah! My eyes sleep but my heart remains awake!’”
1148. Narrated 'Aishah: I did not see the Prophet reciting (the Qur'an) in the night Salāt (prayers) while sitting except when he became old; when he used to recite while sitting, and when thirty or forty Verses remained from the Sūrah, he would stand up and recite them and then bow.

(17) CHAPTER. The superiority of remaining with ablution during the day and night and the superiority of offering As-Ṣalāt (the prayers) after ablution during the day and night.

1149. Narrated Abū Hurairah: At the time of the ʿṢalāt-ul-Fajr (Fajr prayers) the Prophet asked Bilāl, “Tell me of the best deed you did after embracing Islām, for I heard your footsteps in front of me in Paradise.” Bilāl replied, “I did not do anything worth mentioning except that whenever I performed ablution during the day or night, I offered ʿṢalāt (prayer) after that ablution as much as was written for me.”
(18) CHAPTER. It is disliked to exaggerate extremely in matters of worship.

1150. Narrated Anas bin Mákí: Once the Prophet entered (the mosque) and saw a rope hanging in between its two pillars. He said, “What is this rope?” The people said, “This rope is for Zainab who, when she feels tired, holds it [to keep standing in the Saláh (prayer)].” The Prophet said, “Don’t use it. Remove the rope. You should offer Saláh (prayer) as long as you feel active, and when you get tired, sit down.”

1151. Narrated ‘Áishah: A woman from the tribe of Bání Asad was sitting with me and Allah’s Messenger came to my house and said, “Who is this?” I said, “(She is) So-and-so. She does not sleep at night because she is engaged in Saláh (prayer).” The Prophet said disapprovingly: “Do (good) deeds which are within your capacity as Allah never gets tired of giving rewards till you get tired of doing good deeds.”

(19) CHAPTER. It is disliked for a person to leave offering the night Saláh after he has been used to (offering) it.

1152. Narrated ‘Abdulláh bin ‘Amr bin...
Al-‘As: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said to me, “O ‘Abdullâh! Do not be like so-and-so who used to offer Salât (prayer) at night and then stopped the night Salât (prayer).”

(20) CHAPTER.

1153. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Amr رضي الله عنهما: Once Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said to me, “I have been informed that you offer Salât (prayer) all the night and observe Saum (fast) during the day.” I said, “(Yes) I do so.” He said, “If you do so, your eye-sight will become weak and you will become weak. No doubt, your body has a right on you, and your family has a right on you, so observe Saum (for some days) and do not observe it (for some days), offer Salât (for some time) and then sleep.”
(21) CHAPTER. The superiority of one who wakes up at night and offers the Salât with a loud voice.

1154. Narrated ‘Ubâda bin As-Sâmit: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever gets up at night and says:

‘Lâ ilâha illallâhu Wahdahû lâ sha’rika lahû. Lahul-mulku, wa lahul-hamdu wa Huwa ’alâ kulli shai’in Qadîr. Allhamdu lillahi, wa subhânanlähî, wa lâ ilâha illallâhu, wallâhu akbar, wa lâ hawla wa lâ quwwata illallâh.”

(No one has the right to be worshipped but Allâh. He is the Only One Who has no partners. His is the kingdom and all the praises are for Him. He is Omnipotent. All the praises are for Allâh. All the glories are for Allâh. And none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh, and Allâh is the Most Great and there is neither might nor power except with Allâh).

And then says: ‘Allâhumma, ighfir li’ (O Allâh! Forgive me).

Or invokes (Allâh), he will be responded to and if he performs ablution [and offer Salât (prayer)], his Salât will be accepted.”

1155. Abû Hurâirah narrated in one of his narrations that once Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Your brother, i.e., ‘Abdullâh bin Rawâha, does not say obscene (referring to his poetic verses): Amongst us is Allâh’s Messenger, who recites His Book when it dawns.

He showed us the guidance, after we were blind. We believe that whatever he says is true.

And he spends his nights in such a way as his sides do not touch his bed. While the Mushrikûn were deeply asleep.”
1156. Narrated Nâfi': Ibn ‘Umar

I dreamt that a piece of silk cloth was in my hand and it flew with me to whichever part of Paradise I wanted. I also saw as if two persons (i.e., angels) came to me and wanted to take me to Fire. Then an angel met us and told me not to be afraid. He then told them to leave me.

1157. Hafsa narrated one of my dreams to the Prophet ﷺ who said, ‘Abdullâh is a good man. Would that he offer the night prayer (Ṣalât-ut-Tahajjud)!”

1158. So, after that day ‘Abdullâh (bin ‘Umar) started offering the night prayers. The Companions of the Prophet ﷺ used to tell their dreams that [Laila-tul-Qadr (the Night of Power)] was on the 27th of the month of Ramadân. The Prophet ﷺ said, “I see that your dreams agree on the last ten nights of Ramadân and so whoever is in search of it should seek it in the last ten nights of Ramadân.”
(22) CHAPTER. Regularity of offering two Rak'ā (Sunna) of the Fajr.

1159. Narrated 'Aishah : Allah’s Messenger offered the Ishā prayer (and then got up at the Tahajjud time) and offered eight Rak'ā and then offered two Rak'ā while sitting. He then offered two Rak'ā in between the Adhān and Iqāma (of the Fajr prayer) and he never missed them.

(23) CHAPTER. To lie down on the right side after offering two Rak'ā (Sunna) of the Fajr prayer.

1160. Narrated 'Aishah : The Prophet used to lie down on his right side, after offering two Rak'ā (Sunna) of the Fajr prayer.

(24) CHAPTER. Whoever talks after offering two Rak'ā (Sunna) (of the Fajr prayer) and does not lie down.

1161. Narrated 'Aishah : After offering the Sunna of the Fajr prayer, the Prophet used to talk to me, if I happen to be awake; otherwise he would lie down till the Iqāma was proclaimed (for the Fajr prayer).
(25) CHAPTER. What is said about the Nawâfîl being offered as two Rak‘â followed by two and so on.

And this has been narrated by ‘Ammâr, Abû Dhar, Anas, Jâbir bin Zaid, ‘Ikrima, and A‘z-Zuhri, رضي الله عنهم.

Yahyâ bin Sa‘îd Al-Ansârî said, “I saw the religious learned men of our town (Al-Madîna) offering two Rak‘â of Nawâfîl and finishing them with Taslîm during the day”.

1162. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ used to teach us the way of doing Istikhâra in all matters as he taught us the Sûrahs of the Qur‘ân. (Istikhâra means to ask Allâh to guide one to the right sort of action concerning any job or deed), He said, “If anyone of you decides to do any job, he should offer a two Rak‘â Salât (prayer) other than the compulsory ones and say (after the Salât):

‘Allâhumma inni astakhiruka bi-‘ilmika, wa astaqdiruka bi-qudratika, wa as ‘aluka mm hadhal-amra shar-run li wa ma ‘așhi wa ‘aqibati amri (or fjili amri wa‘ajilîhi), faqdurhu li wa yas-sirhu li, Thumma bârik li fihi, wa in kunta ta‘lamu anna hadhal-amra shar-run li wa ma ‘așhi wa‘aqibati amri (or fjili amri wa‘ajilîhi), faṣrifhu annî was-rînî ‘anhu waqduru li al-khâira haithu kâna, Thumma ardini bihi.’

(O Allâh, I consult You as You are All-Knowing, and appeal to You to give me power as You are Omnipotent, and ask You... for Your Great Favour, for You have power, but I don’t, and You have knowledge, but I don’t have, and You know all hidden matters. O Allâh, if You know that this matter is good for me in my religion, my livelihood, and for my life in the Hereafter (or said: For my present, and future life), then do it for me; and if You know that this matter is evil (not good) for me in my religion, my livelihood, and for my life in the Hereafter (or said: For my present and future life), then keep it away from me and take me away from it, and choose what is good for me wherever it is, and please me with it.)

The Prophet ﷺ added that then the person should name (mention) his need (matter).

1163. Narrated Abû Qatâda bin Rab’î Al-Anšârî ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If anyone of you enters a mosque, he should not sit until he has offered a two Rak’â prayer (Tahayyat-ul-Masjid).”

1164. Narrated Anas bin Malik ﷺ:
Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ led us and offered a two Rak’â prayer and then went away.

1165. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar ﷺ:
I offered with Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ two Rak’â before the compulsory Zuhr prayer and two Rak'ā after the Zuhr prayer, two Rak'ā after Jumu‘ah, Maghrib and ‘Ishā’ prayers.

1166. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهم: While delivering a Khutba (religious talk), Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “If anyone of you comes (for Jumu‘ah prayer) while the Imam is delivering the Khutba or has come out for it, he should offer a two Rak'ā prayer (Tahayyat-ul-Masjid).

1167. Narrated Mujāhid: Somebody came to the house of Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهم and told him that Allah's Messenger ﷺ had entered the Ka'bah. Ibn ‘Umar said, “I went in front of the Ka'bah and found that Allah's Messenger ﷺ had come out of the Ka'bah and I saw Bilal standing by the side of the gate of the Ka'bah. I said, ‘O Bilal! Has Allah's Messenger ﷺ offered Salāt (prayer inside the Ka'bah)?’ Bilal replied in the affirmative. I said, ‘Where (did he offer Salāt)?’ He replied, ‘(He offered Salāt) between these two pillars and then he came out and offered a two Rak'ā prayer in front of the Ka’bah.’"

Abū ‘Abdullāh said: Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنهم said, “The Prophet ﷺ advised me to offer two Rak'ā Duhā prayer (prayer to be offered after sunrise and before midday.)”

‘Ibtān (bin Mālik) said, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and Abū Bakr رضي الله عنهم advised me on this.”
came to me after sunrise and we aligned behind the Prophet ﷺ and offered two Rak‘a (prayer)."

(26) CHAPTER. To talk after offering two Rak‘a (Sunna of the Fajr prayer).

1168. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: After offering the two Rak‘a (Sunna) the Prophet ﷺ used to talk to me, if I happen to be awake; otherwise he would lie down.

(27) CHAPTER. To offer two Rak‘at (Sunna) before the Fajr prayer Fajr prayer and whoever called them Nawāfil.

1169. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ was never more regular and strict in offering any Nawāfil than the two Rak‘at (Sunna) of the Salāt-ul-Fajr prayer.

(28) CHAPTER. What is recited in the two Rak‘a (Sunna) of the Fajr prayer.

1170. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to offer thirteen Rak‘at in the night prayer and on hearing the Adhān for the Fajr prayer, he used to offer two light Rak‘a.
1171. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet used to offer the two Rak‘a (Sunna) before the Fajr prayer and make them so light that I would wonder whether he offered them (two Rak‘a) with Umm-ul-Kitāb (Sūrat Al-Fātiha) only?

1172. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I offered with the Prophet two Rak‘a before the Zuhr and two Rak‘a after the Zuhr prayer; two Rak‘a after Maghrib, ‘Ishā’ and the Jumu‘ah prayer. Those of the Maghrib and ‘Ishā’ were offered in his house.

1173. (Ibn Umar added:) My sister Ḥafṣa told me that the Prophet used to offer two light Rak'a prayer (Sunna) after dawn (before the Iqāma of the Fajr prayer) and it was the time when I never went to the Prophet ﷺ. (See H. No. 618).

(30) CHAPTER. Whoever did not offer the Salāt (prayer) after the prescribed compulsory (congregational) Salāt.

(31) CHAPTER. To offer the Salāt-ut-Duḥā (forenoon prayer) in journey.

1176. Narrated ‘Abdur Raḥmān bin Ābi Lailā: Only Umm Hānī narrated to me that she had seen the Prophetﷺ offering the Ḍuḥā prayer. She said, “On the day of the conquest of Makkah, the Prophetﷺ entered my house, took a bath and offered eight Rak‘ā (of Ḍuḥā prayer). I had never seen the Prophetﷺ offering such a light Ṣalāt (prayer) but he performed bowings and prostrations perfectly.

(32) CHAPTER. Whoever did not offer the Ḍuḥā prayer and thought it permissible (to offer it).

1177. Narrated ‘Aishah: I never saw the Prophetﷺ offering the Ḍuḥā prayer, but I always offer it.

(33) CHAPTER. To offer the Ṣalāt-ud-Ḍuḥā when one is not travelling.

‘Ibān bin Mālik narrated that on the authority of the Prophetﷺ.

1178. Narrated Abū Hurairah: My Khalil (friend etc.) (the Prophetﷺ) advised me to observe three things and I shall not leave them till I die: (1) To observe Saum (fast) three days every (lunar) month, (2) to offer the Ḍuḥā prayer; (3) and to offer ʿĪtār before sleeping. (See The Book of Fasting, H. No. 1981).
1179. Narrated Anas bin Sirin: I heard Anas bin Malik al-Ansari saying, “An Ansari man, who was very fat, said to the Prophet, ‘I am unable to present myself for the Salat (prayer) with you.’ He prepared a meal for the Prophet and invited him to his house. He washed one side of a mat with water and the Prophet offered a two Rak’a (prayer) on it.”

So-and-so, the son of so-and-so, the son of Al-Jarud asked Anas, “Did the Prophet use to offer the Duhã prayer?” Anas replied, “I never saw him offering (the Duhã prayer) except on that day.”

1180. Narrated Ibn Umar: I memorized ten Rak’a (Nawafil) from the Prophet, two Rak’a before the Zuhr prayer and two after it; two Rak’a after Magrib prayer in his house, and two Rak’a after ‘Ishâ’ prayer in his house, and two Rak’a before the Fajr prayer and at that time nobody would enter the house of the Prophet.

1181. [Ibn Umar added:] Hafsa told me that the Prophet used to offer two Rak’a (Sunna of Fajr) after the call-maker had pronounced the Adhân and the dawn has come up. (See H. No. 1173).
1182. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet never missed four Rak‘a before the Zuhr prayer and two Rak‘a before the Fajr prayer.

(35) CHAPTER. The (optional) Salāt (prayer) before the (compulsory) Maghrib prayers.

1183. Narrated ‘Abdullāh Al-Muzani: The Prophet said, “Perform (an optional) Salāt (prayer) before the (compulsory) Maghrib prayers.” He repeated it thrice and the third time, he said, “Whoever wants to offer it, can do so,” lest the people should take it as a Sunna.

(36) CHAPTER. To offer Nawāfil in congregation.

This is narrated by Anas and ‘Aishah.
1185. Narrated Maḥmūd bin Ar-Rabī’ Al-Anṣārī, that he remembered Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and he also remembered a mouthful of water which he had thrown on his face, after taking it from a well that was in their house.

1186. Maḥmūd added that he had heard ‘Ībān bin Mālik who was present with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in the battle of Badr saying, “I used to lead my people at Bani Sālim in the Salāt (prayer) and there was a valley between me and those people. Whenever it rained it used to be difficult for me to cross it to go to their mosque. So I went to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, ‘I have weak eye-sight and the valley between me and my people floods during the rainy season and it becomes difficult for me to cross it; I wish you would come to my house and offer Salāt at a place so that I could take that place as (a Musalla place for offering Salāt).’ Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘I will do so.’ So Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه came to my house the (next) morning after the sun had risen high. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ asked my permission to let him in and I admitted him. He did not sit before saying, ‘Where do you want us to offer the Salāt (prayer) in your house?’ I pointed to the place where I wanted him to offer Salāt (prayer). So, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ stood up for the Salāt (prayer) and started the Salāt (prayer) with Takbīr وَإِبْرَاهِيمُ وَأَبُو يَعْقُوبُ أَبِي إِبْرَاهِيمِ and we aligned in rows behind him; and he offered two Rakā (prayer), and finished them with Tasliḥ وَإِبْرَاهِيمُ and we also performed Tasliḥ with him. I detained him for a meal called Khāzir which I had prepared for him. (Khāzir is a special meal prepared for one who offers Salāt in the Musalla place.) type of dish prepared from barley flour and meat soup). When the neighbours got the news that Allah's Messenger was in my house, they gathered till there were a great number of men in the house. One of them said, 'What is wrong with Malik, for I do not see him?' One of them replied, "He is a hypocrite and does not love Allah and His Messenger." On that Allah's Messenger said, 'Don't say this. Haven't you seen that he said La ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah) for Allah's Sake only.' The man replied, 'Allah and His Messenger know better; but by Allah, we never saw him but helping and talking with the hypocrites.' Allah's Messenger replied, 'No doubt, whoever says La ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah), seeking the pleasures of Allah, then Allah will save him from Hell-fire.'

Mahmud added, "I told the above narration to some people, one of whom was Abū Ayyūb, the Companion of Allah's Messenger in the battle in which he (Abū Ayyūb) died and Yazid bin Mu‘awiyya was their leader in Roman Territory. Abū Ayyūb denounced the narration and said, 'I doubt that Allah's Messenger ever said what you have said.' I felt that too much, and I vowed to Allah that if I remained alive in that holy battle, I would (go to Al-Madīna and) ask ‘Ithān bin Mālik who was by then an old blind man was leading his people in the Salāt (prayer). When he finished the Salāt (prayer), I greeted him and introduced myself to him and then asked him about that narration. He told that narration again in the same manner as he had narrated it the first time.” [See Hadith No.425. Vol.I]

(37) CHAPTER. To offer the Nawāfīl prayers at home.

1187. Narrated Ibn 'Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “Offer some of your Salāt (prayers) in your houses and do not make them graves.”
20 – THE BOOK OF THE SUPERIORITY OF OFFERING

Aṣ-ṢALĀT IN THE MOSQUE OF MAKKA AND AL-MADĪNA

(1) CHAPTER. The superiority of offering Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) in the Mosque of Makkah (Al-Masjid-al-Ḥarām), and Al-Madīna (i.e. the Mosque of the Prophet ﷺ).

1188. Narrated Qaza’a: I heard Abu Sa’id ṬabarQA saying four words. He said, “I heard the Prophet ﷺ (saying — see Hadith No. 1197).” He participated in twelve holy battles with the Prophet ﷺ.

1189. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not set out on a journey except for three mosques i.e. Al-Masjid-al-Ḥarām (at Makkah), Masjid Ar-Rasūl ﷺ (the Mosque of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ at Al-Madīna), and Masjid Al-Aqṣā (Mosque of Jerusalem).”

1190. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “One Salāt (prayer) in my mosque is better than one thousand Salāt (prayer) in any other mosque except Al-Masjid-al-Ḥarām.”
20 - THE BOOK OF THE SUPERIORITY OF OFFERING

(2) CHAPTER. The Masjid Qubā’ (the Mosque of Qubā’).

1191. Narrated Nāfi’: Ibn ‘Umar never offered the Duḥā prayers except on two occasions:

1. Whenever he reached Makkah; and he always used to reach Makkah in the forenoon. He would perform Tawāf round the Ka‘bah and then offer two Rak‘ā at the rear of Maqām (Ibrāhīm).

2. Whenever he visited Qubā’, for he always used to visit it every Saturday. When he entered the mosque, he disliked to leave it without offering a Salāt (prayer).

Ibn ‘Umar narrated that Allāh’s Messenger used to visit the mosque of Qubā’ (sometime) walking and (sometime) riding. Ibn ‘Umar said, “I do only what my companions used to do and I don’t forbid anybody to offer Salāt (prayer) at any time during the day or night except that one should not intend to offer Salāt (prayer) at sunrise or sunset.”

1192. And he (i.e. Ibn ‘Umar) used to say, “I do only what my companions used to do and I don’t forbid anybody to offer Salāt (prayer) at any time during the day or night except that one should not intend to offer Salāt (prayer) at sunrise or sunset.”

(3) CHAPTER. Whoever visited the mosque of Qubā’ every Saturday.

1193. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Dīnār: Ibn ‘Umar said, “The Prophet used to go to the mosque of Qubā’ every Saturday; (sometimes) walking and (sometimes) riding.” ‘Abdullāh (Ibn ‘Umar) used to do the same.
(4) CHAPTER. To go to the Mosque of Qubā', walking or riding.

1194. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet used to go to the Mosque of Qubā’ (sometimes) walking and sometimes riding. Added Nāfi’ (in another narration), “He then would offer two Rak‘at (prayer) (in the Mosque of Qubā’).”

(5) CHAPTER. The superiority of the place between the pulpit and the grave (of the Prophet ﷺ).

1195. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Zaid Al-Māzini: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Between my house and my pulpit there is a garden from amongst the gardens of Paradise.”

1196. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Between my house and my pulpit there is a garden from amongst the gardens of Paradise, and my pulpit is over my Haud, (i.e. Al-Kauthār).” (See Ḥadith No.6588, Vol.8).
(6) CHAPTER. The mosque of Bait-ul-Maqdis (Jerusalem).

1197. Narrated Qaza'a (freed slave of) Ziyād: I heard Abū Sa'īd Al-Khudrī narrating four things from the Prophet ﷺ and I appreciated them very much. He said conveying the words of the Prophet ﷺ:

“(1) No woman should travel on a journey of two days except with her husband or a Dhū-Mahram.

(2) No fasting is permissible on two days: (of) ‘Eid-al-Fīṭr and ‘Eid-al-Adḥa.

(3) No Salāt (prayer) after two Salāt, i.e., after the Fajr prayer till the sun rises and after the ‘Asr prayer till the sun sets.

(4) Not to travel (for visiting) except to three mosques, i.e. at Al-Masjid Al-Ḥarām, the mosque of Aqṣā (at Jerusalem) and my mosque (at Al-Madīna).
21 - THE BOOK OF DEALING WITH ACTIONS IN AS-SALAT (THE PRAYER) (which are irrelevant to the Salat).

(1) CHAPTER. To take the help of the hands while offering Salât (prayer) on condition that the movement should be in line with the rules of the Salât (prayer).

Ibn ‘Abbâs  said, “A person can take the help of any portion of his body,” and Abû Ishaq took off and then put on his cap during the Salât (prayer). And ‘Alî  used to place his right palm over the left wrist except when he wanted to scratch his skin or arrange his clothes (he would lift it then).

1198. Narrated Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn ‘Abbâs: ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Abbâs  said that he stayed overnight in the house of Mâimûna, the Mother of the faithful-believers  who was his aunt. He said, “I was lying on the cushion transversally in its breadthwise direction, and Allâh’s Messenger  along with his wife lying in its lengthwise direction. Allâh’s Messenger  slept till midnight or slightly before or after it. Then Allâh’s Messenger  woke up, sat, and removed the traces of sleep by rubbing his hands over his face. Then he recited the last ten Verses of Sûrat Al-‘Imran (Sûrah No.3). Then he went towards a hanging leather water-container and performed a perfect ablution and then stood up for Salât (prayer).” ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Abbâs  added, “I got up and did the same as Allâh’s Messenger  had done and then went and stood by his (left) side. Allâh’s Messenger  then put his right hand over my head and caught my right ear and twisted it (pulled me, and made me stand by his right side). He offered two Rak‘a (prayer), then two Rak‘a (prayer), then two Rak‘a, then two Rak‘a (prayer), then two Rak‘a (prayer), then two Rak‘a (prayer) and then offered one Rak‘a Witr prayer. Then he lay down till the Mu‘adh-dhin came and then he offered two light Rak‘a (Sunna of the Fajr prayer) and went out and offered the early morning Salat (Fajr prayer)."

(2) CHAPTER. What speech is prohibited during the As-Salat (the prayer).

1199. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: We used to greet the Prophet ﷺ while he was offering As-Salat (the prayer) and he used to answer our greetings. When we returned from An-Najāshī (the ruler of Ethiopia), we greeted him, but he did not answer us [during the Salat (prayer)] and [after finishing the Salat (prayer)] he said, “In Salat (prayer) one is occupied (with a more serious matter).”
1200. Narrated Zaid bin Arqam \(\text{زَيْدُ بْنُ أَرْقَامِ}\): In the lifetime of the Prophet \(\text{صَلَّى أَلِيۡلَهَ عَلَيْهِمْ}\) we used to speak while offering \(\text{آَسُلَّمُ} \) (the prayer), and one of us would tell his needs to his companion, till the Verse, “Guard strictly the (five obligatory) \(\text{آَسُلَّمُ} \) (the prayers)...” (V.2:238) was revealed. After that we were ordered to remain silent while offering \(\text{سِلَّتُ} \) (prayer).

1201. Narrated Sahil bin Sa’d \(\text{سَحْيُ بْنُ سَعَد} \): The Prophet \(\text{صَلَّى أَلِيۡلَهَ عَلَيْهِمْ} \) went out to affect a reconciliation between the tribes of Banî ‘Amr bin ‘Aūf and the time for the \(\text{سِلَّتُ} \) (prayer) became due; Bilâl went to Abû Bakr \(\text{رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ} \) and said, “The Prophet \(\text{صَلَّى أَلِيۡلَهَ عَلَيْهِمْ} \) is detained. Will you lead the people in the \(\text{سِلَّتُ} \) (prayer)?” Abû Bakr replied, “Yes, if you wish.” So, Bilâl pronounced the \(\text{إِلَهَيْنَِّي حَلَّمٌ} \) and Abû Bakr led the \(\text{سِلَّتُ} \) (prayer). In the meantime the Prophet \(\text{صَلَّى أَلِيۡلَهَ عَلَيْهِمْ} \) came crossing the rows [of the people offering \(\text{سِلَّتُ} \) (prayer)] till he stood in the first row and the people started clapping. Abû Bakr \(\text{رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ} \) never looked hither and thither during the \(\text{سِلَّتُ} \) (prayer), but when the people clapped too much, he looked back and saw the Prophet \(\text{صَلَّى أَلِيۡلَهَ عَلَيْهِمْ} \) in the (first) row. The Prophet \(\text{صَلَّى أَلِيۡلَهَ عَلَيْهِمْ} \) waved him to remain at his place, but Abû Bakr raised both his hands and said: \(\text{ذَا سُلَّمَيْنَ} \) (i.e. all the praises be to Allâh) and then retreated and the Prophet \(\text{صَلَّى أَلِيۡلَهَ عَلَيْهِمْ} \) went forward and led the \(\text{سِلَّتُ} \) (prayer). (See \(\text{حَدِيثُ} \) No. 1203 & 1204).
(4) CHAPTER. Whoever named some people or greeted somebody during As-Salāt (the prayers) because of ignorance.

1202. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd رضي الله عنه: We used to say the greeting, name and greet each other in As-Salāt (the prayer). Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ heard it and said:

[All the compliments are for Allāh and all the Salawāt (prayers etc.) and all the good things (are for Allāh). Peace be on you, O Prophet, and Allāh’s Mercy and Blessings (be on you). And peace be on us and on the good (pious) slaves – worshippers of Allāh. I testify that none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh; and I also testify that Muḥammad is His slave and His Messenger].

So, when you have said this, then you have surely sent the greetings to every good (pious) slave – worshipper of Allāh, whether he be in the heavens or on the earth.”

(5) CHAPTER. Clapping [during the Salāt (prayer)] is permissible only for women.

1203. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The saying Subḥān Allāh is for men and clapping is for women.” [If something happens in the Salāt (prayer), the men can invite the attention of the Imām by saying Subḥān Allāh, and women, by clapping their hands].

(1) (H.1203) Subḥān Allāh: See glossary.

1204. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The saying Subhān Allāh is for men and clapping is for women.”

(6) CHAPTER. Whoever came back or went forward during the Salāt (prayer) because of some urgent need.

This has been narrated by Sahl bin Sa’d on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

1205. Narrated Anas bin Malik: While Abū Bakr was leading the people in the Fajr prayer on a Monday, the Prophet ﷺ surprised them suddenly having lifted the curtain of ‘Aishah’s house, and looked at them while they were standing in rows and smiled. Abū Bakr tried to retreat back thinking that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ wanted to come out for the Salāt (prayer). The attention of the Muslims was diverted from the Salāt (prayer) because they were delighted to see the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ waved his hand to them to complete their Salāt (prayer), then he went back into the room and let down the curtain. The Prophet ﷺ expired on that very day.

(7) CHAPTER. If a mother calls her son while he is offering As-Salāt (the prayer).

1206. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A woman called her son while he was in his hermitage and said, ‘O Juraij!’ He said, ‘O Allah, my mother (is calling me) and (I am offering) my Salat (prayer) (what shall I do)?’ She again said, ‘O Juraij!’ He said again, ‘O Allah! My mother (is calling me) and (I am offering) my Salat (prayer) (what shall I do)?’ She again said, ‘O Juraij!’ He again said, ‘O Allah! My mother (is calling me) and (I am offering) my Salat (prayer) (what shall I do)?’ She said, ‘O Allah! Don’t let Juraij die till he sees the faces of prostitutes.’ A shepherdess used to come by his hermitage for grazing her sheep and she gave birth to a child. She was asked whose child that was, and she replied that it was from Juraij and that he had come out from his hermitage. Juraij said, ‘Where is that woman who claims that her child is from me?’ (When she was brought to him along with the child), Juraij asked the child, ‘O Babus(1), who is your father?’ The child replied, ‘The shepherd.’” (See Hadith No. 2482, Vol.3).

(8) CHAPTER. The levelling of small stones during As-Salat (the prayer) (in front of the forehead).

1207. Narrated Mu’aiqib: The Prophet, talking about a man levelling the earth on prostrating, and said, “If you have to do so, then do it once.”

(9) CHAPTER. Spreading the clothes over the site of prostration while in As-Salat (the prayer).

1208. Narrated Anas bin Malik:

We used to offer Ṣalāt (prayer) with the Prophet ﷺ in scorching heat, and if someone of us could not put his face on the earth (because of the heat) then he would spread his clothes and prostrate over them.

(10) CHAPTER. What kind of actions are permissible during As-Ṣalāt.

1209. Narrated ʿĀishah ♂: I used to stretch my legs towards the Qiblah of the Prophet ﷺ while he was offering Ṣalāt (prayer); whenever he prostrated he touched me, and I would withdraw my legs, and whenever he stood up, I would restretch my legs.

1210. Narrated Abū Hurairah Z- ♂: The Prophet ﷺ once offered the Ṣalāt (prayer) and said, “Satan came in front of me and tried to interrupt my Ṣalāt (prayer), but Allāh gave me an upper hand on him and I choked him. No doubt, I thought of tying him to one of the pillars of the mosque till you get up in the morning and see him. Then I remembered the statement of Prophet Sulaiman (Solomon) ﷺ, ‘My Lord! Forgive me, and bestow upon me a kingdom such as shall not belong to any other after me... (V.38:35).’ Then Allāh made him (Satan) return with his head down (humiliated).”
(11) CHAPTER. If an animal runs away while one is in As-Salât (the prayer).

Qatada said, “If a thief takes away the clothes of a person in Salât (prayer) then he can leave the Salât (prayer) and follow the thief.”

1211. Narrated Al-Azraq bin Qais: We were at Al-Ahwáz fighting the Al-Harûrîya (tribe). While I was at the bank of a river a man was offering Salât (prayer) and the reins of his animal were in his hands and the animal was struggling and he was following the animal. (Shu'ba, a subnarrator, said that the man was Abû Barza Al-Aslamî). A man from the Khawârij said, “O Allah! Be harsh to this Sheikh.” And when the Sheikh (Abû Barza) finished his Salât (prayer), he said, “I heard your remark. No doubt, I participated with Allah’s Messenger in six or seven or eight Ghazawât (holy battles) and saw his leniency, and no doubt, I would rather retain my animal than let it return to its stable, as it would cause me much trouble.”

1212. Narrated ‘Aishah: Once the sun eclipsed and Allah’s Messenger stood up for the Salât (prayer) and recited a very long Sûrah and then bowed for a long while and then raised his head and started reciting another Sûrah. Then he prostrated (twice) and did the same in the second Rak’â.
and then said, “These (lunar and solar eclipses) are two signs from amongst the signs of Allāh; and if you see them, offer Ṣalāt till the eclipse has cleared. No doubt, while standing at this place I saw everything promised to me by Allāh and I saw (Paradise) and I wanted to pluck a bunch (of grapes) therefrom, at the time when you saw me stepping forward. No doubt, I saw Hell (with its different parts) destroying each other when you saw me retreating and in it I saw ‘Amr bin Luḥā who started the tradition of ʿAṣ-Ṣāwaib (she-camels let loose for free pastures in the name of idols, and other false deities).”

(12) CHAPTER. What is said about blowing and spitting while in ʿAṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer).

And ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr narrated that the Prophet ﷺ during the eclipse Ṣalāt (prayer), blew during his prostration.

1213. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ saw some sputum on the wall facing the Qiblah of the mosque and became furious with the people of the mosque and said, “During the Ṣalāt (prayer), Allāh is in front of everyone of you and so he should not spit (or said, ‘He should not expectorate’).” Then he got down and scratched the sputum with his hand. Ibn ‘Umar said (after narrating), “If anyone of you has to spit during the Ṣalāt (prayer), he should spit to his left.”
1214. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, “Whenever anyone of you is in Salah (prayer), he is speaking in private to his Lord (Allah) and so, he should neither spit in front of him nor on his right side but to his left side under his left foot.”

(13) CHAPTER. If a man claps during the Salah (prayer) because of ignorance, then his Salah will not be invalid (rejected).

(This has been narrated by Sahl bin Sa'd on the authority of the Prophet).

(14) CHAPTER. If a person in Salah is asked to step forward, or is requested to wait and he waits, there will be no harm therein.

1215. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: The people used to offer the Salah with the Prophet with their waist-sheets tied round their necks because of the shortness of the sheets and the women were ordered not to lift their heads till the men had sat straight.

(15) CHAPTER. One should not return greetings during the Salah.

1216. Narrated ‘Abdullah: I used to greet the Prophet while he was in As-Salah (the prayer) and he would return my greeting, but when we returned (from Ethiopia) I greeted the Prophet (while he was offering \textit{Salāt}) but he did not return the greeting, and (after finishing the \textit{Salāt}) he said, “In \textit{Aš-Šalāt} one is occupied (with a more serious matter).” (See H. No. 1199).

1217. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: Allah’s Messenger sent me for some job and when I had finished it, I returned and came to the Prophet and greeted him but he did not return my greeting. So, I felt so sorry that only Allah knows it and I said to myself, ‘Perhaps Allah’s Messenger is angry because I did not come quickly,’ then again I greeted him but he did not reply. I felt even more sorry than I did the first time. Again I greeted him and he returned the greeting and said, “The thing which prevented me from returning the greeting was that I was offering \textit{Salāt} (prayer).” And at that time he was on his \textit{Rāhīla} (mount) and his face was not towards the \textit{Qiblah}.

(16) CHAPTER. To raise the hands in \textit{Salāt} (prayer) because of some necessity which one encounters during the \textit{Salāt} (prayer).

1218. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: The news about the differences amongst the people of Banī ‘Amr bin ‘Amr at Qubā’ reached Allah’s Messenger and so he went to them along with some of his Companions to effect a reconciliation. Allah’s Messenger was delayed there and the time for the \textit{Salāt} (prayer) became due. Bilāl came to Abū Bakr said, “O Abū Bakr! Allah’s Messenger is detained (there) and the time for the Salāt (prayer) is due. Will you lead the people in Salāt (prayer)?” Abū Bakr replied, “Yes, if you wish.” So Bilāl pronounced the Iqāma and Abū Bakr went forward and said Takbīr for the people. In the meantime, Allah’s Messenger came passing through the rows till he stood in the (first) row and the people started clapping. Abū Bakr would never look hither and thither during the Salāt (prayer) but when the people clapped much, he looked back and (saw) Allah’s Messenger. The Prophet beckoned him to carry on. Abū Bakr raised both his hands, praised and thanked Allah and retreated till he stood in the (first) row. Allah’s Messenger went forward and led the people in the Salāt (prayer). When he had completed the Salāt (prayer), he faced the people and said, “O people! Why did you start clapping when something happened to you in the Salāt (prayer)? Clapping is for women. Whenever one is confronted with something unusual in the Salāt (prayer) one should say, ‘Subhān Allah’.” Then the Prophet looked towards Abū Bakr and asked, “What prevented you from leading the Salāt (prayer) when I beckoned you to carry on?” Abū Bakr replied, “It does not befit the son of Abī Qulṭāfa to lead the Salāt (prayer) in the presence of Allah’s Messenger.” (See H. No. 684 and 1234).
(17) CHAPTER. Keeping the hands on the hips during As-Salāt (the prayers).

1219. Narrated Abū Hurairah: It is forbidden to keep the hands on the hips during As-Salāt (the prayer). (This is narrated by Abū Hurairah on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ).

1220. Narrated Abū Hurairah: It is forbidden to offer Salāt (prayer) with the hands over one’s hips.

(18) CHAPTER. Thinking of something during As-Salāt (the prayer).

‘Umar said, “I think of organizing my troops while I am in Salāt (prayer).”

1221. Narrated ‘Uqba bin Al-Ḥarith: I offered the ‘Aṣr prayer with the Prophet ﷺ and after finishing the Salāt (prayer) with Taslim he got up quickly and went to some of his wives and then came out. He noticed the signs of astonishment on the faces of the people caused by his speed. He then said, “I remembered while I was in my Salāt (prayer) that a piece of gold was lying in my house and I disliked that it should remain with us throughout the night, and so I have ordered it to be distributed.”
1222. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “When the Adhān for the Salāt (prayer) is pronounced, then Satan takes to his heels passing wind so that he may not hear the Adhān and when the Mu’adh-dhīn finishes (the Adhān); he comes back; and when the Iqāma is pronounced he again takes to his heels. And when it is finished, he again comes back and continues reminding the person offering Salāt (prayer) of things that he used not to remember when not in Salāt (prayer), till he forgets how many Rak‘ā he has offered.”

Abū Salama bin ’Abdur-Rahmān said, “If anyone of you encounters such a thing (forgetting the number of Rak‘ā he has offered), he should perform two prostrations (of Sahw i.e. forgetfulness) while sitting.” Abū Salama narrates this on the authority of Abu Hurairah.

1223. Narrated Abū Hurairah: People say that I narrate too many narrations of the Prophet; once I met a man (during the lifetime of the Prophet) and asked him, “Which Sūrah did Allah’s Messenger recite yesterday in the Ishā (prayer)?” He said, “I do not know.” I said, “Did you not attend the Salāt (prayer)?” He said, “Yes, (I did).” I said, “I know. He recited such and such Sūrah.”
“Sahw”: Forgetting (here it means forgetting how many Rak’a a person has prayed, in which case he should perform two prostrations of Sahw).

1) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the Sahw. If someone gets up (for the third Rak’a without sitting) after the second Rak’a of a compulsory Salât (prayer).

1224. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Buhaina: Allâh’s Messenger  once led us in a Salât (prayer) and offered two Rak’a and got up (for the third Rak’a) without sitting (after the second Rak’a). The people also got up with him, and when he was about to finish his Salât (prayer), we waited for him to finish the Salât (prayer) with Tâlsim but he said Takbîr before Taslim and performed two prostrations (of Sahw while sitting and then finished the Salât (prayer) with Taslim.

1225. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Buhaina: Allâh’s Messenger  got up after the second Rak’a of the Zuhr prayer without sitting in between (the second and the third Rak’a). When he finished the Salât (prayer) he performed two prostrations (of Sahw) and then finished the Salât (prayer) with Taslim.

2) CHAPTER. If one offers five Rak’a (instead of four).

1226. Narrated ‘Abdullâh:
Once Allah's Messenger ﷺ offered five Rak'ā in the Zuhr prayer, and somebody asked him whether there was some increase in As-Ṣalāt (the prayer). Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "What is that?" He said, "You have offered five Rak'ā." So, Allah's Messenger ﷺ performed two prostrations (of Sahw) after Taslim.

1227. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ led us in the 'Asr prayer or the Zuhr prayer and finished it with Taslim. Dhul-Yadain said to him, "O Allah's Messenger! Has the Salāt (prayer) been reduced?" The Prophet ﷺ asked his Companions, "Has he spoken the truth?" They replied in the affirmative. So, Allah's Messenger ﷺ offered two more Rak'ā and then performed two prostrations (of Sahw).

Sa'd said, "I saw that 'Urwa bin Az-Zubair had offered two Rak'ā in the Maghrib prayer and finished it with Taslim. He then talked (and when he was informed about it) he completed the rest of his Salāt (prayer) and performed two prostrations (of Sahw), and said, 'The Prophet ﷺ offered Salāt (prayer) like this.'"

(3) CHAPTER. If one finishes his Salāt (prayer) with Taslim after offering two or three Rak'ā (by mistake), then he should perform two prostrations (of Sahw) like ordinary prostrations of the Salāt (prayer), or longer.

(4) CHAPTER. Whoever did not recite Taṣḥah-hud (At-Taḥiyāt) after the two prostrations of Sahw.

And Anas and Al-Ḥasan did not recite it. And Qatāda said that Taṣḥah-hud should not be recited (after the prostrations of Sahw).
1228. Narrated Abu Hurairah:

Once Allah’s Messenger offered two Rak’a and finished his Salat (prayer). So Dhul-Yadain asked him, “Has the Salat (prayer) been reduced or have you forgotten?” Allah’s Messenger said, “Has Dhul-Yadain spoken the truth?” The people replied in the affirmative. Then Allah’s Messenger stood up and offered the remaining two Rak’a and performed Taslim, and then said Takbir and performed two prostrations like his usual prostrations, or a bit longer, and then raised (his head) up [and finished his Salat (prayer) with Taslim].

Narrated Salama bin ‘Alqama: I asked Muhammad (bin Sirin) whether Tasghah-hud should be recited after the two prostrations of Sahw. He replied, “It is not (mentioned) in Abu Hurairah’s narration.”

1229. Narrated Abu Hurairah:

The Prophet offered one of the evening Salat (prayer) (the subnarrator Muhammad said, “I think that it was most probably the ‘Asr prayer”) and he finished it after offering two Rak’a only. He then stood near a piece of wood in front of the mosque and put his hand over it. Abu Bakr and ‘Umar were amongst those who were present, but they dared not talk to him about that (because of excessive respect for him), and those who were in a hurry went out. They said, “Has the Salat (prayer) been reduced?” A man who was called Dhul-Yadain by the Prophet (to the Prophet ), “Has the Salāt (prayer) been reduced or have you forgotten?” He said, “Neither have I forgotten, nor has the Salāt (prayer) been reduced.” He said, “Certainly you have forgotten.” So, the Prophet offered two more Rakʿā and performed Taslim, and then said Tābkīr and performed a prostration (of Sahw), like his ordinary prostration or a bit longer, and then raised his head and said Tābkīr and then put his head down and performed a (second) prostration (of Sahw) like his ordinary prostration or a bit longer, and then raised his head up and said Tābkīr (and then Taslim).

1230. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin Buhaina Al-Asdi, the ally of Bani ʿAbdul-Muttalib: Allāh’s Messenger stood up for the Zuhr prayer and he should have sat (after the second Rakʿa but he stood up for the third Rakʿa without sitting for Tashah-hud) and when he finished the Salāt (prayer) he performed two prostrations (of Sahw) and said Tābkīr on each prostration while sitting, before ending (the Salāt) with Taslim; and the people too performed the two prostrations with him for that sitting which he forgot.

(6) CHAPTER. When a person forgets whether he has offered three or four Rakʿā (then he should) perform two prostrations while sitting in his last Rakʿa.

1231. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “When the call for Salāt (prayer) is made, Satan takes to his heels passing wind so that he may not hear the Adhān. And when the call is finished he comes back, and when the Iqāma is pronounced, Satan again takes to his heels; and when the Iqâma is finished he comes back again and tries to interfere with the person and his thoughts and say, 'Remember this and that (which he has not thought of before the Salât)', till the person offering Salât (prayer) forgets how much (Rak'â) he has offered. If anyone of you does not remember whether he has offered three or four Rak'â then he should perform two prostrations (of Sahw) while sitting.

(7) CHAPTER. Sahw (i.e. forgetfulness) in compulsory Salât (prayers) and Nawâfil.

Ibn 'Abbâs رضي الله عنهما performed two prostrations (of Sahw) after the Witr prayer.

(8) CHAPTER. If a person speaks to a person offering Salât (prayer), and the latter beckons with his hand and listens.

1232. Narrated Abû Hurairah رضي الله عنه قال: "When anyone of you stands for the Salât (prayer), Satan comes and puts him in doubts till he forgets how many Rak'â he has offered. So, if this happens to anyone of you, he should perform two prostrations (of Sahw) while sitting.

1233. Narrated Kuraib: I was sent to 'Aishah by Ibn 'Abbâs, Al-Miswar bin Makhrama and ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Azhar رضي الله عنهم said: "When anyone of you stands for the Salât (prayer), Satan comes and puts him in doubts till he forgets how many Rak'â he has offered. So, if this happens to anyone of you, he should perform two prostrations (of Sahw) while sitting."
They told me to greet her on their behalf and to ask her about the offering of the two Rak'a after the 'Asr and to say to her, “We were informed that you offer those two Rak'a and we were told that the Prophet had forbidden offering them.” Ibn 'Abbas said, “I along with ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab used to beat the people whenever they offered them.”

Kuraib further said: I went to ‘Aishah and conveyed her that message. ‘Aishah said, “Go and ask Umm Salama about them.” So I returned and informed them about her statement. They then told me to go to Umm Salama with the same question with which they had sent me to ‘Aishah. Umm Salama replied, “I heard the Prophet forbidding them. Later I saw him offering them immediately after he had offered the ‘Asr. He then entered my house at a time when some of the Anṣārī women from the tribe of Bani Ḥarām were sitting with me, so I sent my slave-girl to him having said to her, ‘Stand beside him and tell him that Umm Salama says to you: ‘O Allah’s Messenger! I have heard you forbidding the offering of these (two Rak’a after the ‘Asr prayer) but I have seen you offering them. If he waves his hand then wait for him.’ The slave-girl did that. The Prophet beckoned her with his hand and she waited for him. When he had finished the Salāt (prayer) he said, ‘O daughter of Abi Umaiyya! You have asked me about the two Rak’a after the ‘Asr prayer. The people of the tribe of ‘Abdul-Qais came to me and made me busy and I could not offer the two Rak’at after the Zuhr prayer. These (two Rak’a that I have just offered) are for those (missed) ones.’”
(9) CHAPTER. Beckoning during the Ṣalāt (prayer) [by a person in Ṣalāt].

Narrated Kuraib: “Umm Salama said as above on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

1234. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d As-Sa’idi: The news about the differences amongst the people of Bani ‘Amr bin ‘Auf reached Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and, so, he went to them along with some of his Companions to effect a reconciliation between them. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was delayed there, and the time for the Ṣalāt (prayer) became due. Bilāl went to Abū Bakr ﷺ and said to him, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ has been delayed (there) and the time of Ṣalāt (prayer) is due. So, will you lead the people in Ṣalāt (prayer)?” Abū Bakr said, “Yes, if you wish.” Bilāl pronounced the Iqāma and Abū Bakr ﷺ went forward and said Takbīr for the people. In the meantime Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came passing through the rows (of the people offering Ṣalāt) and stood in the (first) row and the people started clapping. Abū Bakr ﷺ would never look hither and thither during his Ṣalāt (prayer) but when the people clapped much, he looked back and (saw) Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ beckoned him to carry on. Abū Bakr ﷺ raised both his hands, praised and thanked Allāh, and retreated till he stood in the (first) row. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ went forward and led the people in the Ṣalāt (prayer). When he completed the Ṣalāt (prayer) he faced the people and said, “O people! Why did you start clapping when something unusual happened to you in the Ṣalāt (prayer)? Clapping is only for women. So whenever one is confronted with something unusual in the Ṣalāt (prayer) one should say, 'Ṣubhān-Allāh', for there is none who will not turn round on hearing him saying Subhān-Allāh. (Then turning towards Abū Bakr, he said) 0 Abū Bakr! What prevented you from leading the people in the Ṣalāt (prayer) when I beckoned you to do so?” Abū Bakr replied, “How dare the son of Abū Quṭāfa lead the Ṣalāt (prayer) in front of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ?” (See H. No. 684 and 1218).

1235. Narrated Asmā’: I went to ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها and she was offering Ṣalāt (prayer) while standing and the people, too, were standing (offering Ṣalāt). So I said, “What is the matter with the people?” She beckoned with her head towards the sky. I said, “(Is there) a sign?” She nodded intending to say, “Yes.”

1236. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ during his illness offered Ṣalāt (prayer) in his house sitting, whereas some people followed him standing, but the Prophet ﷺ beckoned them to sit down. On completion of the Ṣalāt (prayer) he said, “The Imām is to be followed. So, bow when he bows, and raise your head, when he raises his head.” (See Hadith No. 689, Vol. I for taking the verdict).
(1) CHAPTER. What is said about funerals, and those whose last words were: Lā ilāha ILLALLĀH (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh).

Wahab bin Munabbih was asked, “Isn’t the saying: ‘Lā ilāha illāh Allāh’ (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh), the key of Paradise?” He replied in the affirmative, and said, “There is no key without teeth, and if you have the key which has teeth, it will open it for you, and if it is without teeth, then it will not open it for you.”

1237. Narrated Abū Dhar: Allāh’s Messenger ḥ said, “Someone came to me from my Lord (Allah) and gave me the good tidings that whosoever of my followers dies worshipping none (in any way) along with Allāh, he will enter Paradise.” I asked, “Even if he committed illegal sexual intercourse (adultery) and theft?” He replied, “Even if he committed illegal sexual intercourse (adultery) and theft.”

1238. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: Allāh’s Messenger ḥ said, “Whosoever dies worshipping others along with Allāh will definitely enter the Fire.” I said, “Whosoever dies worshipping none along with Allāh will definitely enter Paradise.”
(2) CHAPTER. The order of following the funeral procession.

1239. Narrated Al-Barāʾ bin ‘Āzib ḥ: Allāh’s Messenger ḥ ordered us to do seven things and forbade us from doing other seven things. He ordered us:
(1) to follow the funeral procession,
(2) to visit the sick,
(3) to accept invitations,
(4) to help the oppressed,
(5) to return the greetings and
(6) to reply to the sneezer: [saying “Yarhamu-ka-Allāh (may Allah be Merciful to you),” provided the sneezer says, “Al-hamdu-lillah (all the praises are for Allah)”].

He forbade us to use silver utensils (and dishes) and to wear golden rings, silk (clothes), Dibāj (pure silk cloth), Qussī and Istabraq (two kinds of silk cloths).

1240. Narrated Abū Hurairah ḥ: I heard Allāh’s Messenger ḥ saying, “The rights of a Muslim on a Muslim are five:
(1) To return the greetings,
(2) to visit the sick,
(3) to follow the funeral processions,
(4) to accept invitation and
(5) to reply the sneezer. (See Hadīth No.1239).
(3) CHAPTER. Visiting the deceased person after he has been put in his shroud.

1241, 1242. Narrated ‘Āishah: Abū Bakr came riding his horse from his dwelling place in A-Sunl. He got down from it, entered the mosque and did not speak with anybody till he came to me and went directly to the Prophet, who was covered with a blanket with markings on it. Abū Bakr uncovered his face. He knelt down and kissed him and then started weeping and said, “Let my father and my mother be sacrificed for you, O Allah’s Prophet! Allah will not combine two deaths on you. You have died the death which was written for you.”

Narrated Abū Salama: Ibn ‘Abbās said, “Abū Bakr came out and ‘Umar was addressing the people, and Abū Bakr told him to sit down but ‘Umar refused. Abū Bakr again told him to sit down but ‘Umar again refused. Then Abū Bakr recited the Tashah-hud (i.e. none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh and Muhammad is Allāh’s Messenger) and the people attended to Abū Bakr and left ‘Umar. Abū Bakr said, “Ammā ba’du, whoever amongst you worshipped Muhammad, then Muhammad is dead, but whoever worshipped Allāh, Allāh is Alive and will never die. Allāh said: Muhammad is no more than a Messenger and indeed (many) Messengers have passed away before him. If he dies or is killed, will you then turn back on your heels (as disbelievers)?… (up to) are grateful.”” (V.3:144) (The narrator added, “By Allāh, it was as if the people never knew that Allāh had revealed this Verse before till Abū Bakr recited it and then whoever heard it, started reciting it.”)

1243. Narrated Kharija bint Zaid bint Thabit: Umm Al-`Ala’, an Ansari woman who gave the Bai’ah (pledge) to the Prophet ﷺ said to me, “The emigrants were distributed amongst us by drawing lots and we got in our share ‘Uthman bin Maz’un. We made him stay with us in our house. Then he suffered from a disease which proved fatal. When he died and was given a bath and was shrouded in his clothes, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ came, I said, ‘May Allah be Merciful to you, 0 Abu As-Sa’ib! I testify that Allah has honoured you’. The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘How do you know that Allah has honoured him?’ I replied, ‘0 Allah’s Messenger! Let my father be sacrificed for you! On whom else shall Allah bestow His Honour?’ The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘No doubt, death came to him. By Allah, I too wish him good, but by Allah, I do not know what Allah will do with me though I am Allah’s Messenger’. She said, “By Allah, I will never attest the piety of anyone after that.”
1244. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: When my father was martyred, I lifted the sheet from his face and wept and the people forbade me to do so but the Prophet did not forbid me. Then my aunt Fāṭima began weeping and the Prophet said, “It is all the same whether you weep or not. The angels were shading him continuously with their wings till you shifted him (from the field).”

(4) CHAPTER. A man who informs the relatives of the deceased person (of his death) by himself.

1245. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger informed (the people) about the death of An-Najāshi on the very day he died. He went towards the Musalla [place for offering Salāt (prayer)] and the people stood behind him in rows. He said four Takbir\(^{(1)}\) (i.e., offered the funeral Salāt).

\(^{(1)}\) (H.1245) See the footnote of chapter 64 and Hadith No. 1333.
1246. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, “Zaid took over the flag and was martyred. Then it was taken by Ja'far who was martyred as well. Then 'Abdullāh bin Rawāha took the flag but he too was martyred — and at that time the eyes of Allāh’s Messenger were overflowing with tears. Then Khālid bin Al-Walid took the flag without being nominated as a chief (beforehand) and was blessed with victory.”

1247. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: A person died and Allāh’s Messenger used to visit him. He died at night and (the people) buried him at night. In the morning they informed the Prophet about his death. He said, “What prevented you from informing me?” They replied, “It was night and it was a dark night and so we disliked to trouble you.” The Prophet went to his grave and offered the (funeral) prayer.

(5) CHAPTER. What is said regarding conveying the news of the funeral (procession).

Narrated Abū Hurairah: Once the Prophet said (regarding a deceased person), “Why did you not inform me (about her or his death)?”

Who is called Abu Razāf: [mention of a deceased person], and Allāh’s Messenger said: [mention of a deceased person].

Who is called Abu Mu’ayyad, Abu Isḥāq al-Shī’bāni, and Allāh’s Messenger said: [mention of a deceased person].

Who is called Abu Shams and Allāh’s Messenger said: [mention of a deceased person].
(6) CHAPTER. The superiority of the person whose child dies and he faces the event with patience hoping for Allâh’s reward.

And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:
...Give glad tidings to Aṣ-Ṣâbirûn (the patient). (V.2 :155)

1248. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A Muslim whose three children die before the age of puberty will be granted Paradise by Allâh due to His Mercy for them.”

1249. Narrated Abû Sa’îd: The women requested the Prophet ﷺ, “Please fix a day for us (to preach).” So the Prophet ﷺ preached them and said, “A woman whose three children died would be screened from the (Hell) Fire by them,” Hearing that, a woman asked, “If two died?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Even two would screen her from the (Hell) Fire.”

1250. And Abû Hurairah added, “Those children should be below the age of puberty.”

1251. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “No Muslim whose three children died will go to the (Hell) Fire except for Allâh’s Oath (i.e. everyone has to pass over the bridge on the Hell-fire).”
And Abū Abdullāh said: There is not one of you but will pass over it (Hell) . . .” (V.19:71)

(7) CHAPTER. The saying of a man to a woman at the grave, “Be patient.”

1252. Narrated Anas bin Malik Z: The Prophetpassed by a woman who was sitting and weeping beside a grave and said to her, “Fear Allāh and be patient.”

(8) CHAPTER. The bath of a dead (Muslim) and his ablation with water and Sidr (lote-tree leaves).

And Ibn ‘Umar applied Ḥanūf (a kind of scent) to the dead body of the son of Sa‘īd bin Zaid and carried it and then offered the funeral prayers, but he did not perform ablution. Ibn ‘Abbās said, “A Muslim never becomes Najās (impure) whether dead or alive.” And Sa‘d said, “If he had been impure then I would not have touched him.” And the Prophet said, “A faithful believer never becomes Najās (impure).”

1253. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyya Al-Ansāriya: Allāh’s Messenger came to us when his daughter died and said, “Wash her, three, or five times or more, if you see it necessary, with water and Sidr (lote-tree leaves) and then apply camphor, or some camphor at the end; and when you finish, notify me.” So when we finished it, we informed him and he gave us his waist-sheet and told us to shroud the dead body in it.
(9) CHAPTER. It is desirable to wash (the dead body) for an odd number of times.

1254. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyya: Allah’s Messenger came to us and we were giving a bath to his (dead) daughter and said, “Wash her three, five or more times with water and Sidr (Nabiq - lote-tree leaves) and sprinkle camphor on her at the end; and when you finish, notify me.” So when we finished, we informed him and he gave us his waist-sheet and told us to shroud her in it.

Ayyub said that Ḥafṣa narrated to him a narration similar to that of Muhammad in which it was said that the bath was to be given for an odd number of times, and the numbers 3, 5 or 7 were mentioned. It was also said that they were to start with the right side and with the parts which were washed in ablution, and that Umm ‘Atiyya also mentioned, “We combed her hair and divided them in three braids.”

(10) CHAPTER. To start from the right side while giving a bath to a dead body.

1255. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyya: Allah’s Messenger, concerning his (dead) daughter’s bath, said, “Start with the right side, and the parts which are washed in ablution.”

(11) CHAPTER. (To start with) the parts of the dead body which are washed in ablution.

1256. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyya

When we washed the deceased daughter of the Prophet, he said to us, while we were washing her, “Start the bath from the right side and from the parts which are washed in ablution.”

(12) CHAPTER. Can a woman be shrouded in the waist-sheet of a man?

1257. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyya

The daughter of the Prophet expired, and he said to us, “Wash her three, or five times, or more if you see it necessary, and when you finish, notify me.” So, (when we finished) we informed him and he unfastened his waist-sheet and told us to shroud her in it.

(13) CHAPTER. To sprinkle camphor on the dead body as the last thing (before shrouding).

1258. Narrated Muhammad: Umm ‘Atiyya

One of the daughters of the Prophet died and he came out and said, ‘Wash her three, or five times or more, if you think it necessary, with water and Sidr (Nabiq — lot tree leaves), and last of all sprinkle camphor (or some camphor over her before shrouding) and when you finish, inform me.’’ Umm ‘Atiyaa added, ‘‘When we finished we informed him and he gave us his waist-sheet and said, ‘Shroud her in it.’’

1259. Umm ‘Atiyaa (in another narration) added, ‘‘The Prophet said, ‘Wash her three, five or seven times or more, if you think it necessary.’’’ Hafsaa said that Umm ‘Atiyaa had also said, ‘‘We entwined her head-hair into three braids.’’

(14) CHAPTER. To undo the hair of a (dead) female.

And Ibn Sirin said, ‘‘There is no harm in undoing the hair of a (dead) female.’’

1260. Narrated Hafsaa bint Sirin: Umm ‘Atiyaa said that they had entwined the head-hair of the daughter of Allâh’s Messenger in three braids. They first undid her hair, washed and then entwined it in three braids.’’

(15) CHAPTER. How to shroud a dead body.

And Al-Hasan said, ‘‘The fifth piece of cloth is for tying the thighs and hips and it should be outside the shroud."

1261. Narrated Ibn Sirin: Umm 'Atiyya [an Anšārī woman who gave the Bai'ah (pledge) to the Prophet ﷺ] came to Baṣrah to visit her son, but she could not find him. She narrated to us, "The Prophet ﷺ came to us while we were giving bath to his (dead) daughter, he said, 'Wash her three times, five times or more, if you think it necessary, with water and ʾSiḏr (Nabīq — lote-tree leaves), and last of all put camphor, and when you finish, notify me.'" Umm 'Atiyya added, "After finishing, we informed him and he gave us his waist-sheet and told us to shroud her in it and did not say more than that."

(16) CHAPTER. To entwine the head-hair of a (dead) woman in three braids.

1262. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyya: We entwined the head-hair of the dead daughter of the Prophet ﷺ into three braids.

Waki’ said that Ṣufyān said, "One braid was entwined in front and the other two were entwined on the sides of the head."
(17) CHAPTER. To make the hair of a (dead) woman fall at her back.

1263. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyah: One of the daughters of the Prophet expired and he came to us and said, “Wash her with (water and) Sidr (Nabiq — lote-tree leaves) for odd number of times, i.e., three, five or more, if you think it necessary, and in the last, put camphor or (some camphor on her), and when you finish, notify me.” So when we finished we informed him. He gave his waist-sheet to us (to shroud her). We entwined the head-hair (of the deceased girl) in three braids and made them fall at her back.

(18) CHAPTER. White cloth for the shroud.

1264. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allah’s Messenger was shrouded in three Yemenite white Sahuliyah (pieces of cloth) of cotton, and in them there was neither a shirt nor a turban.”

(19) CHAPTER. Shrouding in two pieces of cloth.

1265. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: While a man was riding (his mount) at ‘Arafat, he fell down from it (his mount) and broke his neck or his neck was crushed by it (and died). The Prophet said, “Wash him with water and Sidr (Nabiq — lote-tree... leaves), and shroud him in two pieces of cloth, and neither perfume him, nor cover his head, for he will be resurrected on the Day of Resurrection saying, 'Labbaik,' (i.e. like a pilgrim)."

(20) CHAPTER. The perfuming of a dead body with Hanūt (a kind of perfume).

1266. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: While a man was at 'Arafat (for Hajj) with Allah's Messenger, he fell down from his mount and broke his neck or his neck was crushed by it (and he died). So Allah's Messenger said, "Wash him with water and Sīdr (Nabīq — lote-tree leaves) and shroud him in two pieces of cloth and neither perfume him, nor cover his head, for Allah will resurrect him on the Day of Resurrection and he will be saying Labbaik.'"

(21) CHAPTER. How to shroud a Muhrim (one assuming the Ihram state for Hajj or 'Umra).

1267. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās: A man was killed by his camel while we were with the Prophet and he was a Muhrim. So the Prophet said, "Wash him with water and Sīdr, and shroud him in two pieces of cloth; and neither perfume him nor cover his head, for Allah will resurrect him on the Day of Resurrection and he will be saying Labbaik."
1268. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs : A man fell from his mount (and died) while he was with the Prophet at ‘Arafat. The Prophet said, "Wash him with water and Sidr and shroud him in two pieces of cloth and neither perfume him nor cover his head, for he will be resurrected on the Day of Resurrection saying Labbaik."

1269. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar : When ‘Abdulläh bin Ubaï (the chief of hypocrites) died, his son came to the Prophet and said, "O Allah’s Messenger! Please give me your shirt to shroud him in it, offer his funeral prayer and ask for Allah’s forgiveness for him." So, Allah’s Messenger gave his shirt to him and said, "Inform me when the funeral is ready so that I may offer the funeral prayer." So, he informed him and when the Prophet intended to offer the funeral prayer, ‘Umar took hold of his hand and said, "Has Allah not forbidden you to offer the funeral prayer for the hypocrites?" The Prophet said, "I have been given the choice, for Allah says: ‘Whether you (O Muhammad) ask forgiveness for them (hypocrites) or ask not for forgiveness for them — (and even) if you ask seventy times for their forgiveness — Allah will not forgive them…” (V.9:80) So the Prophet ﷺ offered the funeral prayer and on that the revelation came: “And never (O Muhammad ﷺ) pray (funeral prayer) for any of them (i.e. hypocrites) who dies…” (V.9:84).

1270. Narrated Jābir ibn ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet ﷺ came to (the grave of) ‘Abdullāh bin Ubai after his body was buried. The body was brought out and then the Prophet ﷺ put his saliva over the body and clothed it in his shirt.

1271. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet ﷺ was shrouded in three pieces of cloth which were made of Suhūl (a type of cotton), and neither a shirt nor a turban were used.

1272. Narrated ‘Āishah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was shrouded in three pieces of cloth and neither a shirt nor a turban were used.

(23) CHAPTER. To shroud (a dead) body without using a shirt.

(24) CHAPTER. Using no turban in shrouding.

1273. Narrated ‘Āishah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ
Allāh’s Messenger was shrouded in three pieces of cloth which were made of white Suhāl and neither a shirt nor a turban were used.

(25) CHAPTER. To shroud one with (the price of) all of one’s property.

And this is said by ‘Aṭā, ‘Az-Zuhri, and ‘Amr bin Dīnār and Qatāda. ‘Amr bin Dīnār added, “Also Hanūt is to be taken from his property.” And Ibrāhīm said, “Start with the shroud first then pay his debts, then follow his will.” And Sufyān said, “The payment for the grave (digging etc.), and for washing the body is also included in the shroud expenses.”

1274. Narrated Sa’d that his father said, “Once the meal of ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Auf was brought in front of him, and he said, ‘Mus’ab bin ‘Umar was martyred and he was better than I, and he had nothing except his Burda (a black square narrow dress) to be shrouded in. Hamza or another person was martyred and he was also better than I and he had nothing to be shrouded in except his Burda. No doubt, I fear that the rewards of my deeds might have been given early in this world.” Then he started weeping.

(26) CHAPTER. If there is nothing except one piece of cloth (for shrouding).

1275. Narrated Ibrāhīm: Once a meal was brought to ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin...
"Aūf رضي الله عنه and he was fasting. He said, "Mus'ab bin 'Umair was martyred and he was better than I and was shrouded in his Burda and when his head was covered with it, his legs became bare, and when his legs were covered his head got uncovered. Hamza was martyred and was better than I. Now the worldly wealths have been bestowed upon us (or said a similar thing). No doubt, I fear that the rewards of my deeds might have been given earlier in this world." Then he started weeping and left his food.

(27) CHAPTER. If sufficient cloth for the shroud is not available but only that much which covers the head or the feet, then the head is to be covered.

1276. Narrated Khabbãb رضي الله عنه: We emigrated with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in Allah's Cause, and so our reward was then surely incumbent on Allah. Some of us died and they did not take anything from their rewards in this world, and amongst them was Mu'ab bin 'Umair; and the others were those who got their rewards. Mu'ab bin 'Umair was martyred on the day of the battle of Uhud and we found nothing to shroud him in except his Burda. And when we covered his head his feet became bare and vice versa. So the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ordered us to cover his head only and to put Ḥdhhkhir (a kind of shrub) over his feet.
(28) CHAPTER. (If) somebody prepared his shroud (before his death) (in the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ and the Prophet ﷺ did not object to that).

1277. Narrated Sahil: A woman brought a woven Burda (sheet) having frilled border to the Prophet ﷺ. Then Sahil asked them whether they knew what is Burda, they said that Burda is a cloak and Sahil confirmed their reply. Then the woman said, “I have woven it with my own hands and I have brought it so that you may wear it.” The Prophet ﷺ accepted it, and at that time he was in need of it. So he ﷺ came out wearing it as his waist-sheet. A man praised it and said, “Will you give it to me? How nice it is!” The other people said, “You have not done the right thing as the Prophet ﷺ is in need of it and you have asked for it when you know that he never turns down anybody’s request.” The man replied, “By Allah, I have not asked for it to wear it but to make it my shroud.” Later he was shrouded in it.

(29) CHAPTER. (Is it permissible for) women to accompany the funeral procession?

1278. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyya: We were forbidden to accompany funeral processions but not strictly.
(30) CHAPTER. The mourning of a woman for a dead person other than her husband.

1279. Narrated Muhammad bin Sirin: One of the sons of Umm ‘Atiya died, and when it was the third day, she asked for a yellow perfume and put it over her body, and said, “We were forbidden to mourn for more than three days except for our husbands.”

1280. Narrated Zainab bint Abi Salama: When the news of the death of Abū Sufyān reached from Sham, Umm Ḥabiba on the third day, asked for a yellow perfume and scented her cheeks and forearms and said, “No doubt, I would not have been in need of this, had I not heard the Prophet saying: ‘It is not legal for a woman who believes in Allāh and the Last Day to mourn for any dead person except her husband, for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days.’”

1281. Narrated Zainab bint Abi Salama: I went to Umm Ḥabiba, the wife of Prophet, who said, “I heard the Prophet saying, ‘It is not legal for a woman who believes in Allāh and the Last Day to mourn for any dead person for more than three days" except for her husband, (for whom she should mourn) for four months and ten days.'"

1282. Later I went to Zainab bint Jahsh when her brother died; she asked for some scent, and after using it she said, "I am not in need of scent, but I heard Allâh's Messenger saying, 'It is not legal for a woman who believes in Allâh and the Last Day to mourn for more than three days for any dead person except her husband, (for whom she should mourn) for four months and ten days.'"

(31) CHAPTER. Visiting the graves.

1283. Narrated Anas bin Mãlik: The Prophet passed by a woman who was weeping beside a grave. He told her to fear Allâh and be patient. She said to him, "Go away, for you have not been afflicted with a calamity like mine." And she did not recognize him. Then she was informed that he was the Prophet . So she went to the house of the Prophet and there she did not find any guard. Then she said to him, "I did not recognize you." He said, "Verily, the patience is at the first stroke of a calamity."

(32) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet: "The deceased is punished because of the weeping (with wailing) of some of his relatives, if wailing was the custom of that dead person.”

This is in agreement with the Statement of Allah Ta'ala: “…Ward off yourself and your families against a Fire (Hell) whose fuel is men and stones…” (V.66:6). And the Prophet ṣa said, “All of you are guardians and responsible for your wards.” If that (wailing) was not his custom, as ‘Aishah ṫ (quoting the Qur’an) said: “And no bearer of burdens shall bear the burden of another.” (V.6:164) “And if one heavily laden calls another to (bear) his load, nothing of it will be lifted…” (V.35:18).

And what is said regarding the permission of weeping without wailing, and the Prophet ṣa said, “Not a person is murdered unjustly but the first son of Adam (who did this crime first of all) will have a share of the crime of his murdering because he was the first to start the tradition of murdering.”

1284. Narrated Usama bin Zaid ṫ: The daughter of the Prophet ṣa sent (a messenger) to the Prophet ṣa requesting him to come as her child was dying (or was gasping), but the Prophet ṣa returned the messenger and told him to convey his greeting to her and say: “Whatever Allah takes is for Him and whatever He gives, is for Him, and everything with Him has a limited fixed term (in this world) and so she should be patient and hope for Allah’s Reward.” She again sent for him, swearing that he should come. The Prophet ṣa got up, and so did Sa‘d bin ‘Ubadah, Mu‘adh bin Jabal, Uba‘ bin Ka‘b, Zaid bin Thabit ṫ, and some other men. The child was brought to Allah’s Messenger ṣa while his breath was disturbed in his chest (the sub-narrator thinks that Usama added:) as if it was a leather water-skin. On that the eyes of the Prophet ṣa started shedding tears. Sa‘d said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! What is this?” He replied, “It is mercy which Allāh has lodged in the hearts of His slaves, and Allāh is merciful only to those of His slaves who are merciful (to others).”

1285. Narrated Anas bin Mālik

We were (in the funeral procession) of one of the daughters of the Prophet ﷺ and he was sitting by the side of the grave. I saw his eyes shedding tears. He said, “Is there anyone among you who did not have sexual relation with his wife last night?” Abū Tālīa replied in the affirmative. And so the Prophet ﷺ told him to get down in the grave. And so he got down in her grave.

1286. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Ubaydullāh bin Abī Mulaika

One of the daughters of ‘Uthmān’s was dead, and we went to attend her funeral procession. Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنه and Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما were also present. I sat in between them. A man came and sat beside me. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنه said to ‘Amr bin ‘Uthmān, ‘Will you not prohibit crying as Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ has said, ‘The dead person is tortured by the crying of his relatives.’?”
1287. Ibn ‘Abbâs said, “‘Umar used to say so.” Then he added narrating, “I accompanied ‘Umar on a journey from Makkah till we reached Al-Baida’. There, he saw some travellers in the shade of a Samura (a kind of forest tree). He said (to me), ‘Go and see who those travellers are.’ So I went and saw that one of them was Šuhaib. I informed ‘Umar about that, who then asked me to call him. So I went back to Šuhaib and said to him, ‘Depart and proceed to the chief of the faithful believers.’ Later, when ‘Umar was stabbed, Šuhaib came weeping and saying, ‘O my brother, O my friend!’ On this ‘Umar said to him: ‘O Suhaib! Are you weeping for me while the Prophet said, ‘The deceased is punished because of the weeping (with loud wailing) of some of his relatives?’”

1288. Ibn ‘Abbâs added, “When ‘Umar died I told that to Āishah and she said, ‘May Allâh be Merciful to ‘Umar. By Allâh, Allâh’s Messenger did not say that a believer is punished by the weeping (crying aloud) of his relatives. But he said, ‘Allâh increases the punishment of a disbeliever because of the weeping (crying aloud) of his relatives.’” Āishah further added, “The Qur’ân is sufficient for you (to clear up this point) as Allâh has stated: ‘...No bearer of burdens shall bear the burden of another...’” (V.6:164). Ibn ‘Abbâs then said, “Only Allâh makes to whom He wills laugh and makes (to whom He wills) weep.” Ibn ‘Umar said, ‘I did not say anything after that.

1289. Narrated ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Once, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ passed by (the grave of) a Jewess whose relatives were weeping over her. He said, ‘They are weeping (crying aloud) over her and she is being tortured in her grave’.

1290. Narrated Abū Burda that his father said: When ‘Umar was stabbed, Suhaib started crying: “O my brother!” ‘Umar said, ‘Don’t you know that the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘The deceased is tortured for the weeping (with wailing) of the living’?”

(33) CHAPTER. What (sort of) wailing over a deceased is disliked.

‘Umar said, “Let them weep for Abū Sulaimān (Khālid bin Al-Wālid) provided that they do not throw dust on their heads or cry loudly.”

things to me is not like ascribing false things to anyone else. Whosoever tells a lie against me intentionally then surely let him occupy his seat in Hell-fire.” Al-Mughira added: I heard the Prophet saying, “The deceased who is wailed over is tortured for that wailing.”

1292. Narrated ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “The deceased is tortured in his grave for the wailing done over him.”

Narrated Shu’ba: The deceased is tortured for the wailing of the living ones over him.

(34) CHAPTER.

1293. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: On the day of the battle of Uhud, my father was brought and he had been mutilated and was placed in front of Allāh’s Messenger, and a sheet was over him. I went (forward) intending to uncover my father but my people forbade me; again I wanted to uncover him but my people forbade me. Allāh’s Messenger gave his order and he was shifted away. At that time he (ﷺ) heard the voice of a crying woman and asked, “Who is that?” They said, “It is the daughter or the sister of ‘Amr.” He said, “Why does she weep? (or said: “Don’t weep”), for the angels had been shading him with their wings till he (i.e. the body of the martyr) was shifted away."

(35) CHAPTER. He who tears off his clothes (when afflicted with a calamity) is not from us.

1294. Narrated 'Abdulläh رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, "He who slaps (his) cheeks, tears (his) clothes and calls to (or follows) the ways and traditions of the Days of Ignorance is not one of us." (See H. No. 1297).

(36) CHAPTER. The sorrow of the Prophet ﷺ for Sa'd bin Khania.

1295. Narrated Sa'd bin Abi Waqqäs رضي الله عنه: In the year of the last Hajj of the Prophet ﷺ, I became seriously ill and the Prophet ﷺ visited me enquiring about my health. I told him, "I am reduced to this state because of illness and I am wealthy and have no inheritors except a daughter. Should I give two-third of my property in charity?" He said, "No." I asked, "Half?" He said, "No." then he added, "One-third, and even one third is much. You'd better leave your inheritors wealthy rather than leaving them poor, begging others. You will get a reward for whatever you spend for Allâh’s sake, even for what you put in your wife’s mouth." I said, "O Allâh’s Messenger! Will I be left alone after my companions have gone?" He said, "If you are left behind, whatever good deeds you will do will up-grade you and raise you high. And perhaps you will have a long life, so that some people will be benefitted by you while others will be harmed by you. O Allah! Complete the emigration of my Companions and do not turn them renegades.” But, Allah’s Messenger felt sorry for poor Sa’d bin Khāula as he died in Makkah.” (But Sa’d bin Abi Waqqās lived long after the Prophet).

(37) CHAPTER. Shaving the head on the falling of a calamity is forbidden.

1296.Narrated Abū Burda bin Mūsā: Abū Mūsā got seriously ill, fainted and could not reply to his wife while he was lying with his head in her lap. When he came to his senses, he said, “I am innocent of those, of whom Allah’s Messenger was innocent. Allah’s Messenger is innocent of a woman who cries aloud (or slaps her face) who shaves her head and who tears off her clothes (on the falling of a calamity).”

(38) CHAPTER. He who slaps his cheeks is not from us.

1297. Narrated 'Abdullāh: The Prophet said, “He who slaps (his) cheeks, tears (his) clothes and calls to (or follows) the tradition of the Days of Ignorance is not from us.”

(39) CHAPTER. Prohibition of wailing and following the traditions of the Days of Ignorance when afflicted with a calamity.

1298. Narrated ‘Abdullãh: The Prophet said, “He who slaps cheeks, tears (his) clothes and calls to or follows the traditions of the Days of Ignorance is not from us.”

(40) CHAPTER. Whoever sat down and looked sad when afflicted with a calamity.

1299. Narrated ‘Aishah: When the Prophet got the news of the death of (Zaid) Ibn Haritha, Ja’far and Ibn Rawaba, he sat down and looked sad and I was looking at him through the chink of the door. A man came and told him about the crying of the women of Ja’far. The Prophet ordered him to forbid them. The man went and came back saying that he had told them but they did not listen to him. The Prophet said, “Forbid them.” So, again he went and came back for the third time and said, “O Allãh’s Messenger! By Allãh, they did not listen to us at all.” (‘Aishah added): Allãh’s Messenger ordered him to go and put dust in their mouths. I said (to that man), “May Allãh stick your nose in the dust (i.e. humiliate you)! You could neither (persuade the women to) fulfill the order of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ nor did you relieve Allah’s Messenger ﷺ from (his) distress.”

1300. Narrated Anas ﷺ: "When Al-Qurra’ [the reciters of the Qur’an (by heart)] were martyred, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ recited Qunut for one month, and I never saw him (i.e. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ) so sad as he was on that day.

(41) CHAPTER. Whoever shows no signs of grief and sorrow on the falling of a calamity.

And Muḥammad bin Ka‘b Al-Qurazi said, "Impatience means a bad saying or a bad thought," and Prophet Ya‘qūb (Jacob) عليه السلام said, “I only complain of my grief and sorrow to Allah…” (V.12:86)

1301. Narrated Anas bin Mālik ﷺ: One of the sons of Abū Ṭalḥa (became sick and) died and Abū Ṭalḥa at that time was not at home. When his wife saw that he was dead, she prepared him (washed and shrouded him) and placed him somewhere in the house. When Abū Ṭalḥa came, he asked, “How is the boy?” She said, “The child is quiet and I hope he is in peace.” Abū Ṭalḥa thought that she had spoken the truth. Abū Ṭalḥa passed the night and in the morning took a bath and when he intended to go out, she told him that his son had died. Abū Ṭalḥa offered the (morning) Ṣalāt (prayer) with the Prophet and informed the Prophet of what had happened to them. Allāh’s Messenger said, “May Allāh bless you both concerning your night.” (That is, may Allāh bless you with good offspring).

Suyyān said, “A man from the Anṣār said, ‘They (i.e., Abū Ṭalḥa and his wife) had nine sons and all of them became reciters of the Qur’ān (by heart).’”

(42) CHAPTER. Patience is to be observed at the first stroke of a calamity.

‘Umar said, “How good the two equals are and how good the reward is for those who when afflicted with calamity, say: Innā lil-lāhi wa inna ilaihi raji‘ūn (...Truly! To Allāh we belong and truly, to Him we shall return). They are those on whom are the Salawāt (i.e. who are blessed and will be forgiven) from their Lord and (they are those who) receive His Mercy, and it is they who are the guided-ones.” (V.2:156,157). And the Statement of Allāh تعالى: “And seek help in patience and As-Salāt (the prayer) and truly, it is extremely heavy and hard except for the Al-Khashi‘ūn, [i.e. true believers in Allāh – those who obey Allāh with full submission, fear much from His Punishment and believe in His promise (Paradise) and in His Warning (Hell)] (V.2:45).
1302. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, “The real patience is at the first stroke of a calamity.”

1303. Narrated Anas bin Malik: We went with Allah’s Messenger to the blacksmith Abu Saif, and he was the husband of the wet-nurse of Ibrahîm (the son of the Prophet). Allah’s Messenger took Ibrahîm and kissed him and smelled him. Later we entered Abu Saif’s house and at that time Ibrahîm was in his last breaths, and the eyes of Allah’s Messenger started shedding tears. ‘Abdur Raḥmân bin ‘Aufer said, “O Allah’s Messenger, even you are weeping!” He said, “O Ibn ‘Auf, this is mercy.” Then he wept more and said, “The eyes are shedding tears and the heart is grieved, and we will not say except what pleases our Lord (Allah), O Ibrahîm! Indeed we are grieved by your separation.”
(44) CHAPTER. To weep near a patient.

1304. Narrated ‘Abdulläh bin ‘Umar: Sa’d bin Ubâda became sick and the Prophet along with ‘Abd Rhûmân bin ‘Aûf, Sa’d bin Abi Waqqâs and ‘Abdulläh bin Mas’ûd visited him to enquire about his health. When he came to him, he found him surrounded by his household and he asked, “Has he died?” They said, “No, O Allah’s Messenger.” The Prophet wept and when the people saw the weeping of Allah’s Messenger they all wept. He said, “Will you listen? Allah does not punish or bestows His Mercy for shedding tears, nor for the grief of the heart, but He punishes because of this,” and he pointed to his tongue and added, “The deceased is punished for the wailing of his relatives over him.” ‘Umar used to beat with a stick and throw stones and put dust over the faces (of those who used to wail over the dead).

(45) CHAPTER. The forbiddance of wailing and crying aloud; and scolding those who practise them.

1305. Narrated ‘Aishah: When the news of the martyrdom of Zaid bin Hârîthah, Ja’far and ‘Abdulläh bin Rawâha came, the Prophet sat down looking sad, and I was looking through the chink of the door. A man came and said, ‘O Allah’s...
Messenger! The women of Ja'far," and then he mentioned their crying. The Prophet ﷺ ordered him to stop them from crying. The man went and came back and said, “I tried to stop them but they disobeyed”. The Prophet ﷺ ordered him for the second time to forbid them. He went again and came back and said, “They did not listen to me (or “us”, the sub-narrator Muhammad bin Haushab is in doubt as to which is right).” ‘Aishah added: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Put dust in their mouths.” I said (to that man), “May Allāh stick your nose in the dust (i.e., humiliate you). By Allāh, you could neither (stop the women from crying) fulfil the order, nor did you relieve Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ from (his) distress.”

1306. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyya: At the time of giving the Bai'ah (pledge) to the Prophet ﷺ one of the conditions was that we would not wail, but it was not fulfilled except by five women, and they were, Umm Sulaim, Umm Al-'Alā’ – the daughter of Abī Sabra, the wife of Mu'ādh, and two other women; or the daughter of Abī Sabra and the wife of Mu'ādh and another woman.

(46) CHAPTER. Standing for the funeral procession.

1307. Narrated ‘Āmir bin Rab’ā:

"مغشوشًا رضي الله عنها قُلْتُ: لَمْ أَجَا فَقُلْتُ "رَبِّ رَبِّيًّا مَنْ حَارَّةً وَخَفْقَيْ وَعَنْبِي الله

The Prophet said, “Whenever you see a funeral procession, stand up till the procession goes ahead of you.” Al-Ḥumaidi added, “Till the coffin leaves you behind or is put down.”

(47) CHAPTER. When should one sit after standing for the funeral procession?

1308. Narrated ‘Amir bin Rabi‘a: The Prophet said, “If anyone of you see a funeral procession and he is not going along with it, then he should stand and remain standing till he gets behind it, or it leaves him behind, or the coffin is put down before it goes ahead of him.”

1309. Narrated Sa‘īd Al-Maqburi that his father said, “While we were accompanying a funeral procession, Abū Hurairah caught hold of the hand of Marwān and they sat down before the coffin was put down. Then Abū Sa‘īd came and took hold of Marwān’s hand and said, ‘Get up. By Allāh, no doubt this (i.e., Abū Hurairah) knows that the Prophet forbade us to do that.’ Abū Hurairah said, ‘He (Abū Sa‘īd) has spoken the truth.’

(48) CHAPTER. Whoever accompanies a funeral procession should not sit till the... coffin is put down from the shoulders of men, and if someone sits before this, then he is to be ordered to stand up.

1310. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet ﷺ said, “When you see a funeral procession, you should stand up, and whoever accompanies it should not sit till the coffin is put down.”

1311. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: A funeral procession passed in front of us and the Prophet ﷺ stood up and we too stood up. We said, “O Allah’s Messenger! This is the funeral procession of a Jew.” He said, “Whenever you see a funeral procession, you should stand up.”

1312. Narrated ‘Abdur Rāh mãn bin Abî Lailā: Sahl bin Hunaif and Qais bin Sa‘d were sitting in the city of Al-Qadisiya. A funeral procession passed in front of them and they stood up. They were told that that funeral procession was of one of the inhabitants of the land, i.e., of a disbeliever, under the protection of Muslims. They said, “A funeral procession passed in front of the Prophet ﷺ and he stood up. When he was told that it was the coffin of a Jew, he said, “Is it not a human being?” [See the footnote of H. No.1311].

(49) CHAPTER. Standing for the funeral procession of a Jew.

(1) (H.1311) This order was cancelled by last action according to the Hadîth narrated by ‘Ali in Sahîh Muslim. See Fath Al-Bâri.
1313. As above.

1314. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When the funeral is ready and the men carry it on their shoulders, if the deceased was righteous it will say, ‘Present me (hurriedly)’, and if he was not righteous, it will say, ‘Woe to it (me)! Where are they taking it (me)?’ Its voice is heard by everything except mankind, and if he heard it he would fall unconscious.”

(50) CHAPTER. Men, and not women, are to carry the coffin.

1315. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Hurry up with the dead body for if it was righteous, you are forwarding it to a good thing and if it was otherwise (not righteous), then you are putting off an evil thing down your necks.”

(52) CHAPTER. The saying of the deceased while he is being carried on the bier, “Take me quickly.”

1316. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet said, “When a funeral is ready and the men carry it (the deceased) on their shoulders, if it was pious then it will say, ‘Present me quickly (or take me ahead)’, and if it was not pious, then it will say, ‘Woe to it (me), where are they taking it (me)?’ And its voice is audible to everything except a human being and if he heard it he would fall unconscious.”

(53) CHAPTER. Whoever aligned in two or three rows behind the Imām for a funeral Salāt (prayer).

1317. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: Allāh’s Messenger offered the funeral prayer for An-Najāshi and I was in the second or third row.
(54) CHAPTER. The rows for funeral prayer.

1318. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet informed his Companions about the death of An-Najāshi and then he went ahead (to lead the funeral prayer) and the people lined up behind him in rows and he said four Tākbīr.

1319. Narrated Ash-Shaibānī: Ash-Sha'bī said, “I was informed by a man who saw the Prophet coming to a grave that was separate from the other graves. He aligned the people in rows and said four Tākbīr.” I said, “O Abū ‘Amr! Who narrated (that) to you?” He said, “Ibn ‘Abbās.”

1320. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet said, “Today a pious man from Ethiopia (i.e. An-Najāshi) has expired, come on to offer the funeral prayer.” (Jābir said): We lined up in rows and the Prophet offered the funeral prayer for him, and we were in rows. Jābir added, “I was in the second row.”

(55) CHAPTER. The lining up of boys in rows with men in the funeral prayer.

1321. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allāh’s Messenger passed by a grave of a deceased who had been buried at night. He asked, “When was this (deceased) buried?” The people said, “Yesterday.” He said, “Why did you not inform me?” They said, “We buried him when it was dark and so we disliked to wake you up.” He (ﷺ) stood up and we lined up behind him. (Ibn ‘Abbās said): I was one of them, and the Prophet ﷺ offered the funeral prayer.

(56) CHAPTER. The legal way of offering the funeral prayer.

And the Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever offered the funeral prayer,” and also said, “Offer the funeral prayer for your friend.” And also said, “Offer the funeral prayer for An-Najāshi.” He called it a Salāt (prayer) although there is neither bowing, prostration, nor loud recitation in it, and there are Takbir and Taslim. Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنه never offered the (funeral) Salāt (prayer) without ablution, nor at sunrise or at sunset and used to raise both his hands (at the time of saying Takbir). Al-Ḥasan (Al-Baṣrī) said, “I noticed the people (i.e. the Prophet’s Companions) regarding as the most deserving man to lead the funeral alat (prayer) the one whom they were satisfied with to lead them in compulsory alat (prayer). If a person has Ijathuh on the ‘Eid Day (during the ‘Eid prayer), or during the funeral prayer, he should look for water (to do ablution) and should not perform Tayammum. If anyone happens to pass by a funeral and the people are offering the (funeral) prayer, then it is advisable for him to join them by saying Takbir. Ibn Al-Musaiyab said, “(In funeral prayers) there are four Takbir, whether the Salāt (prayer) is offered at night or by day, in journey or at home.” Anas said, “One Takbir for starting the Salât (prayer),” and quoting Qur‘án he said, “And never (O Muḥammad ﷺ) pray (funeral prayer) anyone of them (hypocrites) who dies, (V.9:84)....” And in the funeral prayer there are rows and Imām.

1322. Narrated Ash-Shaibānī: Ash-Sha’bī said, “Somebody who passed along with your Prophet ﷺ by a grave that was separate from the other graves informed me (saying), “The Prophet ﷺ led us (in the funeral prayer) and we aligned behind him.” We said, “O Abū ‘Amr! who told you this narration?” He replied, “Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما.”

(57) CHAPTER. Superiority of accompanying funeral processions;

And Zaid bin Thābit رضي الله عنه said, “If you have offered (the funeral prayer) then you have paid what was due on you.” Humaid bin Hilāl said, “We do not think that it is necessary to take the permission of the relatives of the deceased to return from the funeral procession. But whoever returns after the funeral prayer will have a reward equal to one Qurāf (it is a great reward).”

1323. Narrated Nāfi’: Ibn ‘Umar was told that Abū Ḥurairah رضي الله عنه said, “Whoever accompanies the funeral procession will have a reward equal to one Qurāf.” Ibn ‘Umar said, “Abū Ḥurairah talks of an enormous reward.”

1324. ‘Aishah (رضي الله عنيها) attested Abū Hurairah’s narration and said, “I heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying like that.” Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنه said, “Indeed we have lost numerous Qurāf.”
1325. Narrated Abū Hurairah that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever attends the funeral procession till he offers the funeral prayer for it, will get a reward equal to one Qirāt, and whoever accompanies it till burial, will get a reward equal to two Qirāt.” It was asked, “What are two Qirāt?” He replied, “Like two huge mountains.”

1326. Narrated ‘Āmir: Ibn ‘Abbās that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ (who was at that time a boy) said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came to a grave and the people said, ‘He or she was buried yesterday.’” Ibn ‘Abbās added, “We aligned behind the Prophet ﷺ and he offered the funeral prayer for the deceased.”
(60) CHAPTER. To offer the funeral Salât (prayer) at a Muṣallâ and in the mosque.

1327. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger informed about the news of the death of An-Najâshi (King of Ethiopia) on the day he expired. He said, “Ask Allâh’s forgiveness for your brother.”

1328. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet made them align in rows at the Muṣallâ and said four Takbîr (offered the funeral prayer for him).

1329. Narrated ʿAbdullâh bin ʿUmar: The Jews brought to the Prophet a man and a woman from amongst them who have committed illegal sexual intercourse (adultery). He ordered both of them to be stoned (to death), near the place of offering the funeral prayer beside the mosque.”

(61) CHAPTER. What is disliked of establishing places for worship (mosques) over the graves.
When Al-Hasan bin Al-Hasan bin ‘Ali expired, his wife pitched a tent on his grave and it remained there for one year and then was demolished. They heard a voice saying, “Have they found what they lost?” A second voice replied, “No, they returned in despair.”

1330. Narrated ‘Urwa: ‘Aishah said, “The Prophet ﷺ in his fatal illness said, ‘Allah cursed the Jews and the Christians because they took the graves of their Prophets as places for worship (mosques).’” ’Aishah added, “Had it not been for that the grave of the Prophet ﷺ would have been made prominent, but I am afraid it might be taken (as a) place for worship (mosque).”

(62) CHAPTER. The offering of the funeral Salah of a woman who died during the delivery (of a child).

1331. Narrated Samura bin Jundab: I offered the funeral Salah (prayer) behind the Prophet ﷺ for a woman who had died during childbirth and he stood up by the middle of the coffin.

(63) CHAPTER. Where should the Imam stand while leading the funeral prayer of a female or a male?

1332. Narrated Samura bin Jundab: For a male, Imam should stand by the head of the deceased’s coffin, and for a female Imam should stand by the middle of the coffin.

(1) (Ch.63)
I offered the funeral prayer behind the Prophet for a woman who had died during childbirth, and he stood up by the middle of the coffin.

(64) CHAPTER. There are four Takbir\(^{(1)}\) in the funeral prayers.

Humaid said: “Anas led a funeral prayer and said three Takbir and then performed Taslim. When he was told about it he faced the Qiblah and said the fourth Takbir and performed Taslim (again).”

1333. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger informed about the news of the death of An-Najashi on the day he died. He went out with us to the Musalla and we aligned in rows and he said four Takbir\(^{(1)}\) for An-Najashi’s funeral prayer.

1334. Narrated Jabir: The Prophet offered the funeral prayer for Ashama An-Najashi and said four Takbir\(^{(1)}\).

(1) (H.No.1333 and Chap.64).

- a) After the first Takbir one should recite Surat Al-Fatiha (سورة الفاتحة).
- b) After the second Takbir one should recite Salat upon the Prophet. See H. No.3370.
- c) After the third Takbir one should invoke Allah for the dead.
- d) After the fourth Takbir one should invoke Allah for himself and other Muslims.
23 – THE BOOK OF FUNERALS [AL-JANA’IZ]

(65) CHAPTER. The recitation of Sūrat-al-Fāṭiha in the funeral Salāt.

Al-Hasan said, “Recite Al-Fāṭiha in the funeral Salāt for a child and then say:
‘Allāhumma ij-‘alhu lanā salafān faraṭan wa salafān wa ajran. (O Allāh! Make him, as the one who prepares the way for us and as a source of reward for us.)

1335. Narrated Ṭaḥa bin ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Aṭif: I offered the funeral prayer behind Ibn ‘Abbās, (and he) recited Al-Fāṭiha and said, “You should know that it (i.e. recitation of Al-Fāṭiha) in the funeral prayer is the Sunna (legal way of Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ).”

(66) CHAPTER. To offer the (funeral) Salāt (prayer) on the grave after the burial of the deceased.

1336. Narrated Sulaimān Ash-Shaibānī: I heard Ash-Sha‘bī saying, “I was told by a man, who along with the Prophet ﷺ, had passed by a grave that was separate from the other graves; that he (the Prophet ﷺ) led them in the (funeral) Salāt (prayer) and they offered Salāt (funeral prayer) behind him.” I said, “O Abū ‘Amr! Who narrated that to you?” He replied, “Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ.”
1337. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A black person, a male or a female who used to clean the mosque, died. The Prophet did not know about his death. One day the Prophet remembered him and said, “What happened to that person?” The people replied, “O Allah’s Messenger! He died.” He said, “Why did you not inform me?” They said, “His story was so-and-so (i.e., regarded him as insignificant).” He said, “Show me his grave.” He then went to his grave and offered the funeral prayer for him.

1338. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, “When a human being is laid in his grave and his companions return and he even hears their footsteps, two angels come to him and make him sit up and ask him: ‘What did you use to say about this man, Muhammad?’ He will say: ‘I testify that he is Allah’s slave and His Messenger.’ Then it will be said to him, ‘Look at your place in the Hell-Fire. Allah has changed for you a place in Paradise instead of it.”’ The Prophet further said, “The dead person will see both his places. But a disbeliever or a hypocrite will say to the angels, ‘I do not know, but I used to say what the people used to say!’ It will be said to him, ‘Neither did you know nor did you take the guidance (by following the Qur’an).’ Then he will be hit... with an iron hammer between his two ears, and he will cry, and that cry will be heard by whatever is near to him except human beings and jinn.”

(68) CHAPTER. Whoever desired to be buried in the Sacred Land or something like it.

1339. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The angel of death was sent to Mūsa (Moses) and when he came to him, Mūsa slapped him and spoiled one of his eyes. The angel went back to his Lord (Allah), and said, “You sent me to a slave who does not want to die.” Allah restored his eye and said, “Go back and tell him (i.e. Mūsa) to place his hand over the back of an ox, for he will be allowed to live for the number of years equal to the number of hairs coming under his hand.” (So the angel came to him and told him the same). Then Mūsa asked, “O my Lord! What will be then?” He said, “Death will be then.” He said, “(Let it be) now.” He asked Allah that He bring him near the Sacred Land at a distance of a stone’s throw. Allah’s Messenger said, “Were I there, I would show you the grave of Mūsa by the way near the red sand-hill.”

(69) CHAPTER. Burial at night and Abū Bakr was buried at night.
1340. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet offered the funeral prayer of a man one night after he was buried, he and his Companions stood up (for the Salāt — prayer). He had asked them about him before standing, saying, “Who is this?” They said, “He is so-and-so and was buried last night.” So, all of them offered the funeral prayer for him.

(70) CHAPTER. Building a mosque (a place of worship) at a grave.

1341. Narrated ‘Āishah : When the Prophet became ill, some of his wives talked about a church which they had seen in Ethiopia and it was called Māriya. Umm Salma and Umm ʿAbīyā had been to Ethiopia, and both of them narrated its (the church’s) beauty and the pictures it contained. The Prophet raised his head and said, “Those are the people who, whenever a pious man dies amongst them, make a mosque (a place of worship) at his grave and then they make those pictures in it. Those are the worst creatures in front of Allah.”

(71) CHAPTER. Who may get down in the grave of a woman.

1342. Narrated Anas : We were in the funeral procession of the daughter of Allāh’s Messenger, and Allāh’s Messenger was sitting near the grave and I saw his eyes full of tears. He said, “Is there anyone amongst you who did not had sexual relation with his wife last night?” Abū Talḥa replied in the affirmative. And so, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ told him to get down in her grave and he got down in her grave and buried her.

(72) CHAPTER. The funeral Ṣalāt (prayer) of a martyr.

1343. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ collected every two martyrs of Uḥud in one piece of cloth, then he would ask, “Which of them had (knew) more of the Qur’ān?” And if one of them was pointed out for him (as having more knowledge of it), he would put that one first in the grave and say: “I will be a witness on these on the Day of Resurrection.” He ordered them to be buried with their blood on their bodies and they were neither washed nor was funeral prayer offered for them.

1344. Narrated ‘Uqba bin ‘Amr رضي الله عنه: One day the Prophet ﷺ went out and offered the funeral prayer for the martyrs of Uḥud, he then went up the pulpit and said, “I will pave the way for you as your predecessor and will be a witness over you.
By Allah! I am looking at my Haud (Tank Al-Kauthar) just now and I have been given the keys of all the treasures of the earth (or the keys of the earth). By Allah! I am not afraid that you will worship others along with Allah after me (my death), but I am afraid that you will fight with one another (for worldly things).” (See H. No. 6590)

(73) CHAPTER. The burial of two or three men in one grave.

(74) CHAPTER. Whoever thinks that no bath is required for the martyrs.

1346. Narrated Jâbir: The Prophet  said, “Bury them (i.e. martyrs) with their blood.” (That was) on the day of the battle of Uhûd. He did not give them Ghusl (bath — by washing of the whole body).

(75) CHAPTER. Who should be put first in the Lahd (a side extension of a grave) and it is called Lahd because it is to the side. If it is a straight one (i.e. has no side extension), it is called Darih.

1347. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ shrouded every two men from amongst the martyrs of Uhud in one piece of cloth, and then he would ask, “Which of them had (knew) more of the Qur’ān?” And if one of them was pointed out for him (as having more knowledge of it), he would put that one first in the grave and say, “I will be a witness on these (on the Day of Resurrection).” Then he ordered them to be buried with blood on their bodies. Neither he offered their funeral prayer nor he gave them Ghusl (bath).

1348. Jābir added: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to ask about the martyrs of Uhud as to which of them knew more of the Qur’ān. And when one of them was pointed out as having more of it, he would put him first in the grave and then his companion. (Jābir added): My father and my uncle were shrouded in one sheet.
(76) CHAPTER. The placing of Idkhîr (a kind of shrub with a fragrant smell) and grass in the grave.

1349. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allâh has made Makkah a sanctuary (sacred place) and it was a sanctuary before me and will be so after me. It was made legal for me (to fight in it) for a few hours of the day. None is allowed to uproot its thorny shrubs, or to cut its trees, or to chase its game, or to pick up its fallen things except a person who announces it publicly.” On that Al-‘Abbâs ﷺ said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “Except Al-Idkhîr for our goldsmiths and for our graves.” And so the Prophet ﷺ added, “Except Al-Idkhîr.”

And Abû Hurairah ﷺ narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Except Al-Idkhîr for our graves and houses.” And Ibn ‘Abbâs ﷺ said, “For their goldsmiths and houses.”

(77) CHAPTER. Can the dead body be taken out of its grave and Lahd for some reason?

1350. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ came to ‘Abdullâh bin Ubaî (a hypocrite) after his death, and he has been laid in his pit (grave). He ordered (that he be taken out of the grave), and he was taken out. Then he placed him on his knees and threw some of his saliva on him and clothed him in his (the Prophet's) own shirt. Allâh knows better (why he did so). 'Abdullâh bin Ubâï had given his shirt to Al-'Abbâs to wear. Abu Harûn said, "Allâh's Messenger at that time had two shirts, and the son of 'Abdullâh bin Ubâï said to him, 'O Allâh's Messenger! Clothe my father in your shirt which has been in contact with your skin.'" Sufyân added, "Thus people think that the Prophet clothed 'Abdullâh bin Ubâï in his shirt in lieu of what he ('Abdullâh) had done (for Al-'Abbâs, the Prophet's uncle)."

1351. Narrated Jâbir: When the time of the battle of Uhud approached, my father called me at night and said, "I think that I will be the first amongst the Companions of the Prophet to be martyred. I do not leave anyone after me dearer to me than you, except Allâh's Messenger and I owe some debt and you should repay it and treat your sisters favourably (nicely and politely)." So in the morning he was the first to be martyred and was buried along with another (martyr). I did not like to leave him with the other (martyr), so I took his body out of the grave after six months of his burial and he was in the same condition as he was on the day of burial, except a slight change near his ear.

1352. Narrated Jâbir: A man was buried along with my father and I did not like it till I took him (i.e. my father) out and buried him in a separate grave.

(78) CHAPTER. The Lahd and the (straight) cut in the grave (see Chapter 74).

1353. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullãh: The Prophet put every two martyrs of Uklud (in one grave) and then he would ask, “Which of them had (knew) more of the Qur'an?” And if one of them was pointed out for him (as having more knowledge), he would put him first in the Lahd and say, “I will be a witness on these on the Day of Resurrection.” Then he ordered them to be buried with their blood on their bodies and he did not have them washed.

(79) CHAPTER. If a boy becomes a Muslim and then dies, should a funeral prayer be offered for him? Should Islãm be explained to a boy (below the age of puberty)?

And Al-Hasan, Shurãih, Ibrahim and Qãtãda said, “If one of the parents of the boy becomes a Muslim, then the boy will be with the Muslim parent.” And Ibn ‘Abbãs was with his mother who was amongst the weak and the poor people, and was not with his father who was on the religion of his nation. And said, “Islãm is always superior and never inferior.”

with the Prophet ﷺ with a group of people to Ibn Saiyyad till they saw him playing with the boys near the hillocks of Bani Mughala. Ibn Saiyyad, at that time was nearing his puberty and did not notice (us) until the Prophet ﷺ stroked him with his hand and said to him, “Do you testify that I am Allâh’s Messenger?” Ibn Saiyyad looked at him and said, “I testify that you are the Messenger of illiterates.” Then Ibn Saiyyad asked the Prophet ﷺ, “Do you testify that you are Allâh’s Messenger?” The Prophet ﷺ refuted it and said, “I believe in Allâh and His Messenger.” Then he said (to Ibn Saiyyad), (1) “What do you think?” Ibn Saiyyad answered, “True people and liars visit me.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “You have been confused as to this matter.”

Then the Prophet ﷺ said to him, “I have kept something (in my mind) for you, (can you tell me that?)” Ibn Saiyyad said, “It is Ad-Dujh (the smoke).” (2) The Prophet ﷺ said, “Let you be in ignominy. You cannot cross your limits.” On that ‘Umar b. Sa’id b. b. Khâlid said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Allow me to chop his head off.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “If he is he (i.e. Ad-Dajjâl), then you cannot over-power him, and if he is not, then there is no use of murdering him.” (See H. No. 3055).

1355. Ibn ‘Umar b. Sa’id b. b. Khâlid added: Later on Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ once again went along with Ubaî bin Ka’b to the date-palm

(1) (H.1354) Ibn Saiyyad: was a soothsayer. (See the footnote of Hadîth No.3055, Vol.4.)
(2) (H.1354) i.e., Verse No.10 of the Sûrah-Ad-Dukhân, 44:10. (The Qur’ân).
trees (garden) where Ibn Šaiyyād was staying. The Prophet wanted to hear something from Ibn Šaiyyād before Ibn Šaiyyād could see him, and the Prophet saw him lying, covered with a sheet and from where his murmurs were heard. Ibn Šaiyyād's mother saw Allāh's Messenger while he was hiding himself behind the trunks of the date-palm trees. She addressed Ibn Šaiyyād, "O Saf! (and that was the name of Ibn Šaiyyād) Here is Muḥammad." And with that Ibn Šaiyyād got up.

The Prophet said, "Had this woman left him (had she not disturbed him), then Ibn Šaiyyād would have revealed the reality of his case."

1356. Narrated Anas: A young Jewish boy used to serve the Prophet and he became sick. So, the Prophet went to visit him. He sat near his head and asked him to embrace Islām. The boy looked at his father, who was sitting there; the latter told him to obey Abul-Qāsim, and the boy embraced Islām. The Prophet came out saying: "All the praises and thanks be to Allah Who saved the boy from the Hell-fire."

1357. Narrated Ibn ʿAbbās: My mother and I were among the weak and oppressed. I from among the children, and my mother from among the women.
1358. Narrated Ibn Shihãb: The funeral prayer should be offered for every child, even if he were the son of a prostitute, as he was born with a true faith of Islam (i.e., to worship none but Allâh Alone). If his parents are Muslims, particularly the father, even if his mother were a non-Muslim, and if he after the delivery cries (even once) before his death (i.e., born alive) then the funeral prayer must be offered. And if the child does not cry after his delivery (i.e., born dead) then his funeral prayer should not be offered, and he will be considered as a miscarriage.

Abû Hurairah narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Every child is born with a true faith (i.e. to worship none but Allâh Alone), but his parents convert him to Judaism or to Christianity or to Magianism, as an animal gives birth to a perfect baby animal. Do you find it mutilated?” Then Abû Hurairah ﷺ recited the holy Verses: ‘...Allâh’s Fitrah (i.e., Allâh’s Islamic Monotheism), with which He has created mankind...’” (V.30:30).

1359. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Every child is born on Fitrah [true faith of Islamic Monotheism (i.e. to worship none but Allâh Alone)] but his parents convert him to Judaism, Christianity or Magianism, as an animal gives birth to a perfect baby animal. Do you find it mutilated?” Then Abû Hurairah ﷺ recited the holy Verses: “Allah’s Fitrah (i.e. Allâh’s Islamic Monotheism) with which He has created...”
mankind. No change let there be in Khalq-illāh (i.e. the Religion of Allāh - Islamic Monotheism), that is the Straight Religion (Islām)....” (V.30:30)

(80) CHAPTER. If Al-Muṣārık(1) says, “Lā ilāha illallāh” (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) at the time of his death.

1360. Narrated Al-Musaiyab: When the time of the death of Ābū Ṭālib approached, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ went to him and found Ābū Jahl bin Hishām and ‘Abdullāh bin Ābū Umaiyya bin Al-Mughira by his side. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to Ābū Ṭālib, “O uncle! Say: ‘Lā ilāha illallāh’ (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh), a sentence with which I shall be a witness (i.e., argue) for you before Allāh.” Ābū Jahl and ‘Abdullāh bin Ābū Umaiyya said, “O Ābū Ṭālib! Are you going to denounce the religion of ‘Abdul Muttalib?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ kept on inviting Ābū Ṭālib to say it (i.e.: Lā ilāha illallāh) while they (Ābū Jahl and ‘Abdullāh) kept on repeating their statement till Ābū Ṭālib said as his last statement, that he was on the religion of ‘Abdul Muttalib and refused to say: Lā ilāha illallāh. Then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “I will keep on asking Allāh’s Forgiveness for you unless I am forbidden (by Allāh) to do so.” So Allāh revealed (the Verse) concerning him [i.e., “It is not (proper) for the Prophet ﷺ and those who believe, to ask Allāh’s Forgiveness for the Muṣārık(2) even though they be of kin, after it has become clear to them that they are dwellers of the Fire’] (V.9:113).

(1) (Ch.79) Al-Muṣārık (Al-Muṣārık): Polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ.

(81) CHAPTER. Placing a leaf of a date-palm over the grave.

And Buraida Al-Aslamî asked that two leaves of a date-palm be put on his grave. Ibn ‘Umar saw a tent made of hair (of goats) over the grave of ‘Abdur Raḥmān and said, “O Boy! Remove it from the grave for his deeds will shade him.”

And Khārîja bin Zaid said, “(I remember) when we were young during the caliphate of ‘Uthmān we used to jump over the graves and used to consider as the best jumper the one who would jump over the grave of Uthmān bin Maż‘ūn.”

Uthmān bin Ḥakîm said, “Khārîja caught hold of my hand and made me sit over a grave and informed me that his uncle Yazîd bin Thâbit said, ‘Sitting over a grave is disliked for one with the purpose of doing Hadath over it.’” And Nâfî’ said, “Ibn ‘Umar used to sit over the graves.” [See Fath Al-Bâri].

1361. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet  once passed by two graves, and those two persons (in the graves) were being tortured. He said, “They are being tortured not for a great thing (to avoid). One of them never saved himself from being soiled with his urine, while the other was going about with calumnies (to make enmity between friends).” He then took a green branch of a date-palm tree, split it into two pieces and fixed one on each grave. The people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Why have you done so?" He replied, "I hope that their punishment may be lessened till they (the leaf) become dry." (1) (See H.No. 216 and its footnote).

(82) CHAPTER. Preacher delivering a lecture at a grave and the sitting of his companions around him.

1362. Narrated ‘Ali: We were accompanying a funeral procession in Baqi’-il-Gharqad. The Prophet came to us and sat and we sat around him. He had a small stick in his hand, then he bent his head and started scraping the ground with the stick. He then said, "There is none among you, nor any person created, but has a place either in Paradise or in Hell assigned for him and it is also determined for him whether he will be among the blessed or wretched." A man said, "O Allah’s Messenger! Should we not depend on what has been written for us and leave the deeds, as whoever amongst us is blessed will do the deeds of a blessed person, and whoever amongst us is wretched, will do the deeds of a wretched person?” The Prophet said, “The good deeds are made easy for the blessed, and bad deeds are made easy for the wretched.” Then he recited the Verses:

“As for him who gives (in charity) and keeps his duty to Allâh and fears Him. And believes in Al-Husna [(the best) i.e., either Lâ ilâha illâllâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh) or a reward from Allâh i.e., Allâh will compensate him for what he will spend in Allâh’s Way or bless him with Paradise]. [V.92: 5-7]

(83) CHAPTER. What is said about committing suicide.

1363. Narrated Thâbit bin Ad-Dahhâk: The Prophet said, “Whoever intentionally swears falsely by a religion other than Islam, then he is what he has said, (e.g., if he says, ‘If such thing is not true then I am a Jew,’ he is really a Jew if he is a liar). And whoever commits suicide with a piece of iron will be punished with the same piece of iron in the Hell-fire.”

1364. Narrated Jundab: The Prophet said, “A man was inflicted with wounds and he committed suicide, and so Allâh said: My slave has caused death on himself hurriedly, so I forbid Paradise for him.”
1365. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “He who commits suicide by throttling shall keep on throttling himself in the Hell-fire (forever), and he who commits suicide by stabbing himself shall keep on stabbing himself in the Hell-fire.”

(84) CHAPTER. It is disliked to offer the funeral prayer for the hypocrites, and to ask Allāh’s Forgiveness for the Muslīmūn (polytheists, pagans, etc.).

This is narrated by Ibn ‘Umar on the authority of the Prophet.

1366. Narrated ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb: When ‘Abdullāh bin Ubaib bin Salūl died, Allāh’s Messenger was requested to offer his funeral prayer. When Allāh’s Messenger stood up to offer the prayer, I got up quickly and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Are you going to offer prayer for Ibn Ubaib and he said so-and-so on such and such occasions?” And started mentioning all that he had said. Allāh’s Messenger smiled and said, “O ‘Umar! Leave me.” When I talked too much he said, “I have been given the choice and I have chosen (to offer the prayer). Had I known that he would be forgiven by asking for Allāh’s Forgiveness for more than seventy times, surely I would have done so.” (‘Umar added): Allāh’s Messenger offered his funeral prayer and returned and after a short while the two Verses of Sūrat Barā‘ (At-Tauba) were revealed: “And never (O Muḥammad) pray (funeral prayer) for any of them (hypocrites) who dies... (to the end of the Verse) while they were Fasiqun (rebellious...) V.9:84. (‘Umar added), “Later I was astonished at my daring before Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ on that day. And Allâh and His Messenger know better.”

(85) CHAPTER. The praising of a deceased by the people.

1367. Narrated Anas bin Malik ﷺ:
A funeral procession passed and the people praised the deceased. The Prophet ﷺ said, “It has been affirmed to him.” Then another funeral procession passed and the people spoke badly of the deceased. The Prophet ﷺ said, “It has been affirmed to him”. ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab asks (Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ), “What has been affirmed?” He replied, “You have praised this one, so Paradise has been affirmed to him; and you have dispraised (spoken badly of) the other, so Fire (Hell) has been affirmed to him. You people are Allâh’s witnesses on earth.”

1368. Narrated Abu Al-Aswad: I came to Al-Madina when an epidemic disease had broken out. While I was sitting with ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab رضي الله عنه a funeral procession passed by and the people praised the deceased. ‘Umar said, “It has been affirmed to him.” And another funeral procession passed by and the people praised the deceased. ‘Umar said, “It has been affirmed to him.’” A third (funeral procession) passed by and the people disparaged (spoke badly) of the deceased. He said, “It has been affirmed to him.” I (Abū Al-Aswad) asked, “O chief of the believers! What has been affirmed?” He replied, “I said the same as the Prophet ﷺ had said, that is: if four persons testify the piety of a Muslim, Allâh will grant him Paradise.’ We asked, ‘If three persons testify his piety?’ He (the Prophet ﷺ) replied, ‘Even three.’ Then we asked, ‘If two?’ He replied, ‘Even two.’ We did not ask him regarding one witness.”

(86) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the punishment in the grave.

And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

“...If you could but see, when the Zalimûn (polytheists and wrongdoers etc.) are in the agonies of death, while the angels are stretching forth their hands (saying): Deliver your souls! This day you shall be recompensed with the torment of degradation…” (V.6:93).

And also the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

“...We shall punish them twice, and thereafter, they shall be brought back to a great (horrible) torment.” (V.9:101).

And also the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

“...While an evil torment encompassed Fir‘aun’s (Pharoah) people. The Fire; they are exposed to it morning and afternoon, and on the Day when the Hour will be established (it will be said to the angels): Cause Fir‘aun’s (Pharoah) people to enter the severest torment!” (V.40:45,46)
1369. Narrated Al-Bara’ bin ‘Azib: The Prophet said, “When a faithful believer is made to sit in his grave, then (the angels) come to him and he testifies that La ilâha illallâh, wa anna Muhammed-ar-Rasîl Allah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah and Muhammad is Allah’s Messenger).” And that corresponds to Allah’s Statement: “Allah will keep firm those who believe, with the word that stands firm...” (V.14:27).

Narrated Shu’ba (same as above) and added, “Allâh will keep firm those who believe... (14:27) was revealed concerning the punishment in the grave.”

1370. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet looked at the dead people of the well (the well in which there were the bodies of those Mushrikin killed during the battle of Badr) and said, “Have you found true what your Lord promised you?” Somebody said to him, “You are addressing dead people.” He replied, “You do not hear better than they but they cannot reply.”

1371. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet said, “They (the Quraish Mushrikin killed during the battle of Badr) now realise that what I used to tell them was the truth.” And Allâh said, “Verily! You cannot make the dead to hear (i.e. benefit them, and similarly the...” (1) (H. 1370, 1371) Al-Mushrikin: Polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (saw).
1372. Narrated `Aishah: A Jewess came to me and mentioned the punishment in the grave and said, “May Allâh protect you from the punishment in the grave.” `Aishah then asked Allâh’s Messenger about the punishment in the grave. He said, “Yes, (there is) punishment in the grave.” ‘Aishah then added, “After that I never saw Allâh’s Messenger but seeking refuge with Allâh from the punishment in the grave in every Salât (prayer) he offered.”

1373. Narrated Asma’ bint AbU Bakr: Allâh’s Messenger once stood up delivering a Khutba (religious talk) and mentioned the Fitnah (trial and affliction) in the grave which people will face in their grave. When he mentioned that, the Muslims started crying loudly.

1374. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: Allâh’s Messenger said, “When (Allâh’s) slave is put in his grave and his companions return and he even hears their footsteps, two angels come to him and make him sit and ask, ‘What did you use to say about this man...’” (V.27:80).
(i.e. Muhammad ﷺ)? Then as regards a faithful believer, he will say, 'I testify that he is Allâh's slave and His Messenger.' Then they will say to him, 'Look at your place in the Fire (Hell); Allâh has changed for you a place in Paradise instead of it.' So, he will see both his places.” (Qatâda said, “We were informed that his grave would be made spacious.”) Then Qatâda went back to the narration of Anas who said: “Whereas a hypocrite or a disbeliever will be asked, 'What did you use to say about this man. He will reply, 'I do not know; but I used to say what the people used to say.' So, they will say to him, 'Neither did you know nor did you take the guidance (by following the Qur’ân).’ Then he will be hit with iron hammers and he will make such a cry as everything near to him will hear, except jinn and human beings.” (See Hadîth No. 1338).

(87) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allâh from the punishment in the grave.

1375. Narrated Abû Ayyûb: Once the Prophet ﷺ went out after sunset and heard a (dreadful) voice, and said, “The Jews are being punished in their graves.”
1376. Narrated Mūsā bin ‘Uqba: The daughter of Khaīl bin Sa‘īd bin Al-‘Āṣ said that she had heard the Prophet seeking refuge with Allāh from the punishment in the grave.

1377. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger used to invoke (Allāh):

“Allāhumma in-ni a‘ūdhu bika min ‘adḥābil-qabr, wa min ‘adhābin-nār, wa min fitnātīl-mahyā wal-mamāt, wa min fitnātīl-Masīh Ad-Dajjāl. (O Allāh! I seek refuge with you from the punishment in the grave, and from the punishment in the Hell-fire, and from the Fitnah of life and death, and the Fitnah (trial and the affliction) of Al-Masīh Ad-Dajjāl.)”

(88) CHAPTER. Punishment in the grave because of back-biting and soiling one’s clothes with one’s urine.

1378. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet once passed by two graves and said, “They (the deceased persons in those graves) are being tortured not for a great thing to avoid.” And then added, “Yes, (they are being punished for a big sin) for one of them used to go about with calumnies; while the other never saved himself from being soiled with his urine.” (Ibn ‘Abbās added): Then he took a green branch of (a date-palm) and split it into two pieces and fixed one piece on each grave and said, “May their punishment be abated till these (two pieces) get dry”. (See Hadīth No.1361 and its footnote).
23 – THE BOOK OF FUNERALS [AL-JAN’ÁIZ]

(89) CHAPTER. The deceased is shown his actual place (in Paradise or in Hell) both in the morning and in the afternoon.

1379. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When anyone of you dies, he is shown his place both in the morning and in the afternoon. If he is one of the people of Paradise; he is shown his place in it, and if he is from the people of the Hell-fire; he is shown his place therein. Then it is said to him, ‘This is your place till Allāh resurrects you on the Day of Resurrection.’”

(90) CHAPTER. The speech of the deceased after it is lifted upon the bier.

1380. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When the funeral is ready (for its burial) and the people lift it on their shoulders, then if the deceased is a righteous person he says, ‘Take me ahead (or present me, quickly), and if he is not a righteous one he says, ‘Woe to it (me)! Where are you taking it (me)?’ And his voice is audible to everything except human beings; and if they heard it they would fall down unconscious.”
(91) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the dead children of Muslims.

And Abū Hurairah narrated that the Prophet said “He whose three children died before the age of puberty, they will shield him from the Hell-fire, or will make him enter Paradise.”

1381. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah’s Messenger said, “Any Muslim whose three children died before the age of puberty will be granted Paradise by Allah because of His Mercy to them.”

1382. Narrated Al-Barā’ bin ‘Abbās: When ‘Ibrāhīm (the son of Prophet ) expired, Allah’s Messenger said, “There is a wet-nurse for him in Paradise.”

(92) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the (dead) children of Al-Mushrikūn.

1383. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allah’s Messenger was asked about the children of Al-Mushrikūn. The Prophet replied, “Since Allah created them, He knows what sort of deeds they would have done.”
1384. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet was asked about the offspring of Al-Musīrīkūn; so he said, “Allāh knows what sort of deeds they would have done.”

1385. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Every child is born on Al-Fitrāh [with a true faith of Islamic Monotheism (i.e. to worship none but Allāh Alone)] and his parents convert him to Judaism or Christianity or Magianism, as an animal gives birth to a perfect baby animal. Do you find it mutilated?” (See H. No. 1358)

1386. Narrated Samura bin Jundab: Whenever the Prophet finished the Fajr prayer, he would face us and ask, “Who amongst you had a dream last night?” So, if anyone had a dream he would narrate it. The Prophet would say: “Mā shā’Allāh” (an Arabic maxim meaning literally, ‘What Allāh wished,’ and it indicates a good omen.) One day, he asked us whether anyone of us had a dream. We replied in the negative. The Prophet ᵃsaid, “But I had seen (a dream) last night that two men came to me, caught hold of my hands, and took me to the Sacred Land. There, I saw a person sitting and another standing with an iron hook in his hand; pushing it inside the mouth of the former till it reached the jaw-bone, and then tore off one side of his cheek, and then did the same with the other side; in the meantime the first side of his cheek became normal again and then he repeated the same operation again. I said, ‘What is this?’ They told me to proceed on, and we went on till we came to a man lying in a prone position, and another man standing at his head carrying a stone or a piece of rock, and crushing the head of the lying man with that stone. Whenever he struck him, the stone rolled away. The man went to pick it up and by the time he returned to him, the crushed head returned to its normal state and the man came back and struck him again (and so on). I said, ‘Who (what) is this?’ They told me to proceed on; so we proceeded on and passed by a hole like Tannūr (a kind of baking oven); with a narrow top and wide bottom, and the fire was kindling underneath that oven. Whenever the fire-flame went up, the people were lifted up to such an extent that they were about to get out of it, and whenever the fire abated, the people went down into it, and there were naked men and women in it. I said, ‘Who (what) is this?’ They told me to proceed on. So, we proceeded on till we reached a river of blood and there was a man in it, and another man (was standing at its bank) with stones in front of him, the latter confronted the former who was in the river. Whenever the man in the river wanted to come out, the other one threw a stone in his mouth and caused him to retreat to his original position; and so whenever he wanted to come out the other would throw a stone in his mouth,' and he would retreat to his original position. I asked, 'What is this?' They told me to proceed on, and we did so till we reached a well-flourished green garden having a huge tree and near its base was sitting an old man with some children. (I saw) another man near the tree with fire in front of him and he was kindling it up. Then they (i.e., my two companions) made me climb up the tree and made me enter a Dār (abode, dwelling place, house, etc.), better than which I had never seen. In it were some old men and young men, women and children. Then they took me out of this house and made me climb up the tree and made me enter another Dār that was better and superior (to the first) containing old and young people. I said to them (i.e., my two companions), 'You have made me go around all the night. Tell me all about that I have seen.' They said, 'Yes. As for the one whose cheek you saw being torn away, he was a liar and he used to tell lies, and the people would report those lies on his authority till they spread all over the world. So, he will be punished like that till the Day of Resurrection. The one whose head you saw being crushed is the one whom Allah had given the knowledge of the Qur’an (i.e., knowing it by heart), but he used to sleep at night (i.e., he did not recite it then) and did not use to act upon it (i.e., upon its orders etc.) by day; and so this punishment will go on till the Day of Resurrection. And those whom you saw in the hole (like oven) were adulterers (those men and women who commit illegal sexual intercourse). And those whom you saw in the river of blood were those dealing in Riba (usury). And the old man who was sitting at the base of the tree was Ibrāhīm (Abraham) عليه السلام. And so whenever he wanted to come out the other would throw a stone in his mouth,' and he would retreat to his original position. I asked, 'What is this?' They told me to proceed on, and we did so till we reached a well-flourished green garden having a huge tree and near its base was sitting an old man with some children. And those whom you saw in the hole (like oven) were adulterers (those men and women who commit illegal sexual intercourse). And those whom you saw in the river of blood were those dealing in Riba (usury). And the old man who was sitting at the base of the tree was Ibrāhīm (Abraham) عليه السلام.

the little children around him were the offspring of the people. And the one who was kindling the fire was Malik, the gatekeeper of the Hell-fire. And the first Dār in which you entered was the house of the common believers, and the second Dār was of the martyrs. I am Jibrīl (Gabriel) and this is Mikāēl (Michael). Raise your head.' I raised my head and saw a thing like a cloud over me. They said, 'That is your place.' I said, 'Let me enter my place.' They said, 'You still have some life which you have not yet completed, and when you complete (that remaining portion of your life) you will then enter your place.'” (See H.No. 7047).

(94) CHAPTER. Dying on Monday.

1387. Narrated Hishām's father: ‘Aishah said, "I went to Ābū Bakr (during his fatal illness) and he asked me, 'In how many garments was the Prophet shrouded?' She replied, 'In three Sahūlyya pieces of white cloth of cotton, and there was neither a shirt nor a turban among them.' Ābū Bakr further asked her, 'On which day did the Prophet die?' She replied, 'He died on Monday.' He asked, 'What (day) is today?' She replied, 'Today is Monday.' He added, 'I hope I shall die sometime between this morning and tonight.' Then he looked at a garment that he was wearing during his illness and it had some stains of saffron. Then he said, 'Wash this garment of mine and add two more garments and shroud me in them.' I said, 'This is worn out.' He said, 'A living person has more right to wear new clothes than a dead one; the shroud is only for the body's pus.' He did not die till it was the night of Tuesday and was buried before the morning."
1388.Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: A man said to the Prophet ﷺ, “My mother died suddenly and I thought that if she had lived she would have given alms. So, if I give alms now on her behalf, will she get the reward?” The Prophet ﷺ replied in the affirmative.

1389. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ during his sickness was asking repeatedly, “Where am I today? Where will I be tomorrow?” And he was waiting for the day of my turn (impatiently). Then, when my turn came, Allah took his soul away (in my lap) between my chest and arms and he was buried in my house.
1390.Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in his fatal illness said, “Allāh cursed the Jews and the Christians, for they built places of worship at the graves of their Prophets.” And if that had not been the case, then the Prophet’s grave would have been made prominent before the people. So, (the Prophet ﷺ) was afraid, or the people were afraid that his grave might be taken as a place for worship.

Narrated Abū Bakr bin ‘Ayyash رضي الله عنه: Sufyān At-Tammar told me that he had seen the grave of the Prophet ﷺ, elevated and convex.

Narrated ‘Urwa: When the wall (around the graves of the Prophet ﷺ, Abū Bakr and Umar رضي الله علیهما) collapsed during the caliphate of Al-Walid bin ‘Abdul Malik; the people started repairing it, and a foot appeared to them. The people got scared and thought that it was the foot of the Prophet ﷺ. No one could be found who could tell them about it till I (‘Urwa) said to them, “By Allāh, this is not the foot of the Prophet ﷺ, but it is the foot of ‘Umar رضي الله عنه.”

and his two Companions) but bury me with my companions (wives of the Prophet) in Al-Baqi' as I would not like to be looked upon as better than I really am (by being buried near the Prophet).

1392. Narrated 'Amr bin Maimūn Al-Audī: I saw 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb (when he was stabbed) saying, "O 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar! Go to the mother of the believers 'Aīshah and say, 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb sends his greetings to you,' and request her to allow me to be buried with my companions." (So Ibn 'Umar conveyed the message to 'Āishah). She said, "I had the idea of having this place for myself but today I prefer him (Umar) to myself (and allow him to be buried there)." When 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar returned, 'Umar asked him, "What (news) do you have?" He replied, "O chief of the believers! She has allowed you (to be buried there)." On that 'Umar said, "Nothing was more important to me than to be buried in that (sacred) place. So, when I expire, carry me there and pay my greetings to her ('Āishah) and say, 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb asks permission; and if she gives permission, then bury me (there) and if she does not, then take me to the grave-yard of the Muslims. I do not think any person has more right for the caliphate than those with whom Allah's Messenger was always pleased till his death. And whoever is chosen by the people after me will be the caliph, and you people must listen to him and obey him." Then he mentioned the name of 'Uthmān, 'Āli, Ṭalḥa, Az-Zubair, 'Abdur-Rahmān bin 'Auf and Sa'd bin Abī Waqqās. By this time a young man from Ansār came and said, "O chief of the believers! Be happy with Allah's glad tidings. The grade which you have in Islām is known to you, then you became the caliph and you ruled with justice; and then you have been awarded martyrdom after all this.” ‘Umar replied, “O son of my brother! Would that all that privileges will counterbalance (my short comings), so that I neither lose nor gain anything. I recommend my successor to be good to the early emigrants and realize their rights and to protect their honour. And, I also recommend him to be good to the Ansār who before them, had homes (in Al-Madīna) and had adopted the Faith. He should accept the good of the righteous among them and should excuse their wrongdoers. I recommend him to abide by the rules and regulations concerning the Qhimmis (protected non-Muslims) of Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ, to fulfil their contracts completely, and fight for them and not to tax (overburden) them beyond their capabilities.”

(97) CHAPTER. What is forbidden as regards: Abusing the dead.

1393.Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ said, “The Prophet ﷺ said, “Don’t abuse the dead, because they have reached the destination of what they forwarded.”
1394. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Abū Lahab, may Allāh curse him, once said to the Prophet ﷺ, “Perish you all the day.”

Then the Divine Revelation came: “Perish the two hands of Abī Lahab!” (V.111:1).
(1) CHAPTER. The obligation of Zakat(1).

And the Statement of Allâh (the Uniter): "And perform As-Salât (Iqamat-as-Salât) and give Zakat." (V.2:43) Ibn ‘Abbâs said: Abû Sufyân narrated to me the Hadîth about the Prophet ﷺ (the conversation which happened between him (Abû Sufyân) and Heraclius) and quoted from it: "He (the Prophet ﷺ) ordered us to offer As-Salât (the prayers) to pay the Zakât, to keep good relations with kith and kin, and to be chaste." (See H.No. 7, Vol.1).

1395. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: the Prophet ﷺ sent Mu‘âdh to Yemen and said, "Invite the people to testify that Lâ ilâha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah) and I am Allah’s Messenger (Islamic Monotheism), and if they obey you to do so, then inform them that Allâh has enjoined on them five Salât (prayer) in every day and night (in twenty-four hours), and if they obey you to do so, then inform them that Allâh has made it obligatory for them to pay the Sadaqa(2).

(1) Zakât: A certain fixed proportion of the wealth and of every kind of the property liable to Zakât of a Muslim to be paid yearly for the benefit of the poor in the Muslim community. The payment of Zakât is obligatory, as it is one of the five pillars of Islam. Zakât is the major economic means for establishing social justice and leading the Muslim society to prosperity and security. Zakât is meant for eight types of people, as mentioned in the Noble Qur’an: As-Sadaqa (here it means Zakât) are only for the (1) Fuqârâ (poor), (2) and Al-Masâkin (poor), (3) and those employed to collect (the funds), (4) and for to attract the hearts of those who have been inclined (towards Islam); (5) and to free the captives; (6) and for those in debt; (7) and for Allâh’s Cause (i.e. for Mujâhidûn - those fighting in a holy battle), (8) and for the way-farer (a traveller who is cut off from everything); a duty imposed by Allâh. And Allâh is All-Knower, All-Wise. (V.9:60).

(2) (11.1395) Sadaqa : Whatever is given in charity is called in Arabic, Sadaqa. Zakât is one specific kind of Sadaqa which is to be collected, according to certain rules and regulations, from the rich Muslims and distributed among the poor ones. The Ahadîth (Zakât) from their properties, and it is to be taken from the wealthy among them and given to the poor among them.” [See Hadîth No.1496].

1396. Narrated Abû Ayyûb: A man said to the Prophet, “Inform me of such a deed as will make me enter Paradise.” The people said, “What is the matter with him? What is the matter with him?” The Prophet said, “He has something to ask.” (What he needs greatly)”. The Prophet said, “(In order to enter Paradise) you should worship Allah (Alone, and none else) and do not ascribe any partners to Him, perform Iqâmat-as-Salât (prayer), pay the Zakât and keep good relations with your kith and kin.” (See Hadîth No. 5983 Vol. 8).

1397. Narrated Abû Hurairah: A bedouin came to the Prophet and said, “Inform me of such a deed as will make me of this part= =of the book give the details concerning this religious duty, which is regarded as one of the five major pillars of the Islamic Faith. Wherever Šadaqa occurs with the meaning of Zakât, the ‘Zakât’ has been used; otherwise, “giving in charity” is used to stand for the general meaning of Šadaqa.

(1) (H.1396) Iqâmat-as-Salât : See glossary.
enter Paradise, if I do it." The Prophet ﷺ said, "(In order to enter Paradise) you should worship Allah (Alone and none else) and do not ascribe any partners to Him, perform Iqāmat-as-Salāt, pay the compulsory Zakāt, and observe Saum (fast) in the month of Ramadan." The bedouin said, "By Him, in Whose Hands my soul (life) is, I will not do more than this." When he (the bedouin) left, the Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever likes to see a man of Paradise, then he may look at this man."

1398. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās : A delegation of the tribe of ‘Abdul Qais came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, "O Allah’s Messenger! We are from the tribe of Rabī’a, and the infidels of the tribe of Mudar stands between us and you; so we cannot come to you except during the Sacred Months. Please order us to do something (religious deeds) which we may take it from you (carry out); and also invite to it our people whom we have left behind." The Prophet ﷺ said, "I order you to do four things and forbid you four others: (I order you) to have faith in Allah, and confess that La ilaha illallah [and the Prophet ﷺ gestured with his hand like this (i.e., one knot)] and to perform Iqāmat-as-Salāt and to pay the compulsory Zakāt, and to pay one-fifth of the booty in Allah’s Cause. And I forbid you to use Dubbā’, Hantam, Naqīr and

When Allah's Messenger ﷺ died and Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه became the caliph, some Arabs renegaded (reverted to disbelief) (Abū Bakr decided to fight against them), ‘Umar رضي الله عنه said to Abū Bakr, “How can you fight with these people although Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘I have been ordered (by Allah) to fight the people till they say: ‘La ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah), and whoever said it, then he will save his life and property except on trespassing (Islamic) law (rights and conditions for which he will be punished justly), and his accounts will be with Allah.’” (See H.No. 25).

1400. In continuation of the narration of Abū Hurairah (No. 1399) Abū Bakr said, “By Allah! I will fight those who differentiate between As-Salāt (the prayer) and the Zakāt; as Zakāt is the compulsory right to be taken from the property (according to Allah’s Orders). By Allah! If they refuse to pay me even a she-kid which they used to pay at the time of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, I will fight with them for withholding it”. Then ‘Umar said, “By Allah, it was nothing, but Allah opened Abū Bakr’s chest towards the decision (to fight) and I came to know that his decision was right.”
(2) CHAPTER. To give Bai’ah (pledge) for paying Zakãt.

And Allâh’s Statement: ‘But if they repent, and perform As-Šalãt (Iqãmat-as-Šalãt) and give Zakãt, then they are your brethren in religion…” (V.9:11)

1401. Narrated Jarir bin ‘Abdullãh: I gave the Bai’ah (pledge) to the Prophet (1) Iqãmat-as-Salãt [offering As-Salãt (prayer)], (2) giving Zakãt and (3) to be sincere and true to every Muslim [i.e., to order them for Al-Ma’ruf (i.e., Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam orders one to do) and forbid them from Al-Munkar (i.e., disbelief, polytheism and all that Islam has forbidden), to help them, to be kind and merciful to them etc.]. [See Hadith No. 57, vol. I, along with its chapter 42].

(3) CHAPTER. The sin of a person who does not pay Zakãt.

And the Statement of Allâh (2) باب الشيَّة على إيتاء الزكاة، (3) باب الفئة على إيتاء الزكاة، (2) باب الفئة على إيتاء الزكاة،

"...And those who hoard up gold and silver (Al-Kanz – money, gold and silver, the Zakãt of which has not been paid) and spend them not in the Way of Allâh, announce unto them a painful torment. On the Day when that (Al-Kanz) will be heated in the fire of Hell and with it will be branded their foreheads and their flanks, and their backs (and it will be said to them): 'This is the treasure which you hoarded for yourselves. Now taste of what you used to hoard.' (V.9:34-35)

1402. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet (3) امتلكت الله عُنُوَّة، said, ‘(On the Day of Resurrection) camels will come to their owners in the best state of health they have ever had (in the world), and if he had not paid their Zakãt (in the world) then they would tread him with their feet; and similarly, sheep will come to their owners in the best state of health they have ever had in the world, and if he had not paid their Zakāt, then they would tread him with their hooves and would butt him with their horns.” The Prophet said, “One of their rights is that they should be milked while water is kept in front of them.” The Prophet added, “I do not want anyone of you to come to me on the Day of Resurrection, carrying over his neck a sheep that will be bleating. Such a person will (then) say, ‘O Muhammad! (please intercede for me.)’ I will say to him, ‘I can't help you, for I conveyed Allāh’s Message to you.’ Similarly, I do not want anyone of you to come to me carrying over his neck a camel that will be grunting. Such a person (then) will say, ‘O Muḥammad! (please intercede for me.)’ I will say to him, ‘I can’t help you for I conveyed Allāh’s Message to you.’”

1403. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Whoever is made wealthy by Allāh and does not pay the Zakāt of his wealth, then on the Day of Resurrection his wealth will be made like a bald-headed poisonous male snake with two black spots over the eyes (or two poisonous glands in its mouth). The snake will encircle his neck and bite his cheeks and say, ‘I am your wealth, I am your treasure.’” Then the Prophet recited the holy Verses: “Let not those who covetously withhold...” (to the end of the Verse). (V.3:180).

(4) CHAPTER. A property from which the Zakat is paid is not a Al-Kanz (hoarded-money).

According to the statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “There is no Zakat on property mounting to less than five Uqiya (of silver)” — (one Uqiya equals 128 grams.)

1404. Narrated Khalid bin Aslam: We went out with ‘Abdulläh bin ‘Umar ﷺ and a bedouin said (to ‘Abdulläh), “Tell me about Allah’s Saying: “And those who hoard up gold and silver (Al-Kanz - money, gold, silver etc., the Zakat of which has not been paid) and spend it not in the Way of Allah (V.9:34).” Ibn ‘Umar said, “Whoever hoarded them and did not pay the Zakat thereof, then woe to him. But these holy Verses were revealed before the Verses of Zakat. So when the Verses of Zakat were revealed Allah made Zakat a purifier of the property.”

1405. Narrated Abu Sa‘id: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No Zakat is due on property mounting to less than five Uqiya (of silver), and no Zakat is due on less than five camels, and there is no Zakat on less than five Wasq.” (A Wasq equals 60 Ša‘) & (1 Ša‘ = 3 kgs approx.) [See Nisab in the Glossary]

(1) (H.1405) See Nisab: in the glossary.
1406. Narrated Zaid bin Wahab: “I passed by a place called Ar-Rabadha and by chance I met Abü Dhar رضي الله عنه and asked him, “What has brought you to this place?” He said, “I was in Sham and differed with Mu‘awiya on the meaning of (the following Verses of the Qur‘an): ‘And those who hoard up gold and silver (Al-Kanz – money, the Zakât of which is not paid) and spend it not in the Way of Allah.’ (V.9:34). Mu‘awiya said, “This Verse is revealed regarding the people of the Scriptures.” I said, “It was revealed regarding us and also the people of the Scriptures.” So we had a quarrel and Mu‘awiya sent a complaint against me to ‘Uthmân رضي الله عنه. ‘Uthmân wrote to me to come to Al-Madîna, and I came to Al-Madîna. Many people came to me as if they had not seen me before. So, I told this to ‘Uthmân who said to me, “You may depart and live nearby if you wish.” That was the reason for my being here for even if an Ethiopian had been nominated as my ruler, I would have obeyed him.

1407. Narrated Al-Ahnaf bin Qais: While I was sitting with some people from Quraish, a man with very rough hair, clothes, and appearance came and stood in front of us, greeted us and said, “Inform those who hoard wealth, that a stone will be heated in the Hell-fire and will be put on the nipples of their breasts till it comes out from the bones of their shoulders, and then put on the bones of their shoulders till it comes through the nipples of their breasts, the stone will be moving and hitting.” After saying that, that person retreated and sat by the side of the pillar, I followed him and sat beside him, and I did not know who he was. I said to him, “I think the people disliked what you had said.” He said, “These people do not understand anything.”

1408. Abū Dhar added: “My friend told me.” I asked, “Who is your friend?” He said, “The Prophet ﷺ said (to me), ‘O Abū Dhar! Do you see the mountain of Uhud?’ And on that (Abū Dhar) started looking towards the sun to judge how much remained of the day, as I thought that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ wanted to send me to do something for him and I said, ‘Yes!’ He said, ‘I do not love to have gold equal to the mountain of Uḥud unless I spend it all (in Allah’s Cause) except three Dinārs. These people do not understand and collect worldly wealth. No, by Allah, neither I ask them for worldly benefits nor am I in need of their religious verdicts and advices till I meet Allah, the Honourable, the Majestic.’”

(5) CHAPTER. To spend money in the right way.

1409. Narrated Ibn Masʿūd رضي الله عنه: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “There is no envy (or not to wish to be the like of) except in two: a person whom Allah has given wealth and he spends it in the right way, and a person whom Allah has given wisdom (i.e. religious knowledge of the Qur'ān and Sunna – legal way of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ) and he gives his decisions accordingly and teaches it to the others.”

(6) CHAPTER. Giving alms for showing off.

And the Statement of Allah ﷻ says: “O you who believe! Do not render in vain your Sadaqa (charity) by reminders of your generosity or by injury . up to.. And Allah does not guide the disbelieving people.” (V.2:264).

(7) CHAPTER. No charity is accepted from what is grabbed from the war booty in an illegal way.

And charity is accepted only from honestly-earned money, as Allah’s Statement:

"Kind words and forgiving of faults are better than Sadaqa (charity) followed by injury . up to . (He is) Most Forbearing.” (V.2:263)

(8) CHAPTER. As-Sadaqa (Charity must be from money earned honestly).

As Allah’s Statement asserts: “Allah will destroy Riba (usury) and will give increase for Sadaqāt (deeds of charity, alms, etc.). And Allah likes not the disbelievers, sinners. Truly those who believe and do deeds of righteousness, and perform As-Ṣalāt (Iqāmat-as-Ṣalāt), and give Zakāt, they will have their reward with their Lord. On them shall be no fear, nor shall they grieve.” (V.2: 276, 277)

1410. Narrated Abū Hurairah

Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If one gives in charity what equals one date-fruit from the honestly earned money – and Allah accepts only the honestly earned money – Allah takes it in His Right (Hand) and then enlarges its reward for that person (who has given it), as anyone of you brings up his baby horse, so much so that it becomes as big as a mountain.”

(9) CHAPTER. To practise charity (as early as possible) before such time comes when nobody would accept it.

1411. Narrated Haritha bin Wahab

I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “O people! Give in charity as a time will come upon you when a person will wander about with his object of charity and will not find anybody to accept it, and one (who will be requested to take it) will say, ‘If you had brought it yesterday, I would have taken it, but today I am not in need of it.’
1412. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The Hour (the Day of Judgement) will not be established till your wealth increases so much so that one will be worried, for no one will accept his Zakat and the person to whom he will give it, will reply, ‘I am not in need of it.’”

1413. Narrated ‘Adi bin Hatim: While I was sitting with Allah’s Messenger, two persons came to him; one of them complained about his poverty and the other complained about the prevalence of robberies. Allah’s Messenger said, “As regards stealing and robberies, there will shortly come a time when a caravan will go to Makkah (from Al-Madina) without any guard. And regarding poverty, The Hour (the Day of Judgement) will not be established till one of you wanders about with his object of charity and will not find anybody to accept it. And (no doubt) each one of you will stand in front of Allah and there will be neither a screen nor an interpreter between him and Allah, and Allah will ask him, ‘Did not I give you wealth?’ He will reply in the affirmative. Allah will further ask, ‘Didn’t I send a Messenger to you?’ And again that person will reply in the affirmative. Then he will look to his right and he will see nothing but Hell-fire, and then he will look to his left and will see nothing but Hell-fire. So, let each one of you save himself from the Hell-fire even by giving half of a date-fruit (in charity). And if you do not find a half date-fruit, then (you can do it through saying) a good pleasant word (to your Muslim brother).” (See Hadith No.3595, Vol.4).

1414. Narrated Abū Mūsā ra: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A time will come upon the people when a person will wander about with gold as Zakāt and will not find anybody to accept it, and one man will be seen followed by forty women to be their guardian because of scarcity of men and great number of women.”

(10) CHAPTER. “Protect yourself from Hell-fire even with a half date, or with a little object of charity.”

And Allâh’s Statement:
“And the likeness of those who spend their wealth up to all kinds of fruits for him therein.” (V.2:265, 266).

1415. Narrated Abû Mas‘ūd ra: When the Verses of charity were revealed, we used to work as porters. A man came and distributed objects of charity in a great amount. And they (the people) said, “He is showing off.” And another man came and gave a Sā‘ (a small measure of food grains); they said, “Allâh is not in need of this small amount of charity.” And then the Divine Revelation came: “Those who defame such of the believers who give in charity (in Allâh’s Cause) voluntarily, and such who could not find to give in charity (in Allâh’s Cause) except what is available to them..." (V.9:79).

1416. Narrated Abû Mas‘ûd Al-Ansâri: Whenever Allâh’s Messenger ordered us to give in charity, we used to go to the market and work as porters and get a Mudd (a special measure of grain) and then give it in charity. (Those were the days of poverty) and today some of us have one hundred thousand.

1417. Narrated ‘Adî bin Hätim: I heard the Prophet saying: “Save yourself from Hell-fire even by giving half a date-fruit in charity.”

1418. Narrated ‘Aishah: A lady along with her two daughters came to me asking (for some alms), but she found nothing with me except one date-fruit which I gave to her and she divided it between her two daughters, and did not eat anything herself, and then she got up and went away. Then the Prophet came and I informed him about this story. He said, “Whoever is put to trial by these daughters and he treats them generously (with benevolence) then these daughters will act as a shield for him from Hell-fire.” (See Hadith No.5995, Vol.8).

(11) CHAPTER. What kind of As-Sadaqa (charity etc.) is superior? The superiority of charity practised by a niggardly healthy person, as is said in the Statement of Allâh تعالى:

“And spend (in charity) that of which We have provided you, before death comes to one of you…” (V.63:10) And Allâh’s Statement: “O you who believe! Spend of that with which We have provided for you, before the Day comes when there will be no bargaining…” (V.2:254)

1419. Narrated Abû Hurairah: A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and asked, “O Allâh’s Messenger! What kind of As-adaqa (charity etc.) is the most superior in reward?” He replied, “The charity which you practise while you are healthy, niggardly and afraid of poverty and wish to become wealthy. Do not delay it to the time of approaching death and then say, ‘Give so much to such and such, and so much to such and such.’ And it has already belonged to such and such (his heirs).”

CHAPTER

1420. Narrated ‘Aishah: Some of the wives of the Prophet asked him, “Who amongst us will be the first to follow you (i.e., die after you)?” He said, “Whoever has the longest hand.” So, they started measuring their hands with a stick and then said, ‘Give so much to such and such, and so much to such and such.’ And it has already belonged to such and such (his heirs).’”
Sauda’s hand turned out to be the longest. (When Zainab bint Jahsh died first of all in the caliphate of ‘Umar), we came to know that the long hand was a symbol of practising charity, so, she was the first to follow the Prophet and she used to love to practise charity. (Sauda died later in the caliphate of Mu‘awiya).

(12) CHAPTER. To give in charity openly.

And the Statement of Allah:

“Those who spend their wealth (in Allah’s Cause) by night and day, in secret and in public ... up to ... on them shall be no fear, nor shall they grieve.” (V.2:274).

(13) CHAPTER. To give in charity secretly

Narrated Abū Hurairah that the Prophet said, “A person who gives in charity so secretly that his left hand does not know what his right hand has given (then he will be under the shade of Allah on the Day of Resurrection).” [See Hadith No. 1423].

And the Statement of Allah:

“If you disclose your Ṣadaqāt (alms-giving) it is well, but if you conceal them, and give them to the poor, that is better for you ...” (V.2:271)

(14) CHAPTER. If one gives an object of charity to a wealthy person unknowingly (one’s act of charity is accepted by Allah).

1421. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “A man said that he would give something in charity. He went out with his object of charity and unknowingly gave it to a thief. Next morning, the people said that he had given his object of charity to a thief. (On hearing that) he said, ‘O Allah! All the praises and thanks are for You. I will give alms again.”
And so, he again went out with his alms and (unknowingly) gave it to an adulteress. Next morning, the people said that he had given his alms to an adulteress last night. The man said, ‘O Allah! All the praises and thanks are for You. (I gave my alms) to an adulteress. I will give alms again.’ So, he went out with his alms again and (unknowingly) gave it to a rich person. (The people) next morning said that he had given his alms to a wealthy person. He said, ‘O Allah! All the praises and thanks are for You. (I had given alms) to a thief, to an adulteress and to a wealthy man.’ Then someone came and said to him, “The alms which you gave to the thief, might make him abstain from stealing, and that given to the adulteress might make her abstain from illegal sexual intercourse (adultery), and that given to the wealthy man might make him take a lesson from it and spend his wealth which Allah has given him, in Allah’s Cause.’”

(15) CHAPTER. If a person gives something in charity to his own son unknowingly.

1422. Narrated Ma’n bin Yazid Z:
My grandfather, my father and I gave the Bai’ah (pledge) to Allah’s Messenger. The Prophet got me engaged and then got me married. One day I went to the Prophet with a complaint. My father Yazid had given some gold coins for charity and kept them with a man in the mosque (to give them to the poor) but I went and took them and then brought them to him (my father). My father said, “By Allah! I did not intend to give them to you.” I took (the case) to Allah’s Messenger. On that Allah’s Messenger said, “O Yazid! You will be rewarded for what you intended. O Ma’n! Whatever you have taken is yours.”

16 (CHAPTER. To give objects of charity with the right hand.

1423. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Seven people will be shaded by Allah under His Shade on the Day (of Resurrection) when there will be no shade except His. They are:

1. a just ruler;
2. a young man who has been brought up in the worship of Allah, (i.e. worships Allah (Alone) sincerely from his childhood),
3. a man whose heart is attached to the mosques [who offers the five compulsory congregational Salāt (prayers) in the mosques].
4. two persons who love each other only for Allah’s sake and they meet and part in Allah’s Cause only;
5. a man who refuses the call of a charming woman of noble birth for an illegal sexual intercourse with her and says: I am afraid of Allah;
6. a person who practises charity so secretly that his left hand does not know what his right hand has given (i.e. nobody knows how much he has given in charity).
7. a person who remembers Allah in seclusion and his eyes become flooded with tears.”

1424. Narrated Ḥāritha bin Wahab Al-Khuţāţ: I heard the Prophet saying, “(O people!) Give in charity (for Allah’s Cause), because a time will come when a person will carry his object of charity from place to place (and he will not find any person to take it); and any person whom he shall request to take it, will reply, ‘If you had brought it yesterday I would have taken it, Rәsūlullāh ﷺ ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者 ﷺ ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者 (16) ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者 ﷺ ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者 ﷺ ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者 ﷺ ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者 ﷺ ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者 ﷺ ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者 ﷺ ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者 ﷺ ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者 ﷺ ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者 ﷺ ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者 ﷺ ﻗﻠَّا: «全能者
(17) CHAPTER. Whoever ordered his servant to give something in charity and did not give it himself.

Narrated Abū Mūsa that the Prophet ﷺ said, "He is one of the charitable persons."(1)

425. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When a woman gives in charity some of the foodstuff (which she has in her house) without spoiling it, she will receive the reward for what she has spent, and her husband will receive the reward because of his earning, and the storekeeper will also have a reward similar to it. The reward of one will not decrease the reward of the others.”

(18) CHAPTER. The wealthy only are required to give in charity.

Whoever gives in charity and he himself or his family are in need or in debt, the payment of debts has precedence over giving in charity or setting a slave free, or giving presents to others, for in this case his act of charity is not acceptable and that person has no right to waste the people’s property. And the Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh will destroy the person who takes other’s wealth with the intention of wasting it.” But if one is known for his patience and prefers others to himself while he himself is in need, as Abū Bakr did when he gave all his property in charity, it is permissible. Similarly, the Ansâr gave preference to the emigrants over themselves. And the Prophet  had forbidden the wasting of wealth, so, a person has no right to waste other’s wealth, by spending it in charity.

And Ka‘b (bin Mâlik)  said, “I said to Allâh’s Messenger , ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! As a part of my repentance I would like to give up all my property in the Cause of Allâh and His Messenger .’ He said, ‘You would better keep some of your property.’ On that I said, ‘I will keep my share that is in Khaibar.’”

1426. Narrated Abû Hurairah  : The Prophet  said, “The best charity is that which is practised by a wealthy person. And start giving first to your dependents.”

1427. Narrated Hakîm bin Hizâm  : The Prophet  said, “The upper hand is better than the lower hand (i.e., he who gives in charity is better than him who takes it). One should start giving first to his dependents. And the best object of charity is that which is given by a wealthy person (from the money which is left after his expenses). And whoever abstains from asking others for some financial help, Allâh will give him and save him from asking others; and whosoever is satisfied with what Allâh has given him, Allâh will make him self-sufficient.”
1428.Narrated Abū Hurairah like this.

1429. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allah's Messenger while on the pulpit mentioned about As-Sadaqa (charity), and to abstain from asking others for some financial help, and begging others, and said: “The upper hand is better than the lower hand. The upper hand is that of the giver and the lower (hand) is that of the beggar.”

(19) CHAPTER. The one who follows up his charitable gifts with reminders of generosity; as is referred to in Allah’s Statement:

“Those who spend their wealth in the Cause of Allah, and do not follow up their gifts with reminders of their generosity or with injury…” (V.2:262)

(20) CHAPTER. Whoever loves to give something in charity on the very day (on which he receives his earnings).

1430. Narrated 'Uqba bin Al-Hārith: Once the Prophet offered the 'Asr prayers and then hurriedly went to his house and returned immediately. I (or somebody else) asked him (as to what was the matter) and he said, “I left at home a piece of gold which was from the charity, and I disliked to let it remain a night in my house, so I got it distributed.”
24 - THE BOOK OF ZAKÁT

(21) CHAPTER. To exhort one to give in charity and to intercede for the same purpose.

1431. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet went out for Salãt-ul-‘Eid on the ‘Eid day and offered a two Rak’at prayer; and he neither offered any Salãt (prayer) before it nor after it. Then he went towards the women along with Bilãl. He preached them and ordered them to give in charity. And some (amongst the women) started giving their forearm bangles and ear-rings.

1432. Narrated Abû Musa: "Whenever a beggar came to Allah’s Messenger, or he was asked for something, he would intercede (and say to his Companions), “Help and recommend him and you will receive the reward for it; and Allah will bring about what He will through His Prophet’s tongue.”

1433. Narrated Asmã: The Prophet said to me, “Do not withhold your money, (for if you did so) Allah would..."

(1) (H.1432) The Prophet urged his Companions to intercede with him on behalf of their Muslim brethren who were in need of something or had some difficulties. He meant that he was ready to listen to their intercessions for good people, and that they would be rewarded for their intercession. Anyhow, the Prophet prohibited intercession for those who were sentenced to one of the punishments that were ordained by Allah and could not be changed in any circumstances.
withhold His Blessings from you.”

Narrated ‘Abda the Prophet’s wife: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not withhold your money by counting and hoarding it, being afraid that it (money) may be exhausted (by spending in Allāh’s Cause) lest Allāh should withhold His Blessings from you.” [See Fath Al-Bārī].

(22) CHAPTER. To give in charity as much as you can afford.

1434. Narrated ‘Āsma bint Abū Bakr: She said that she came to the Prophet ﷺ (for some problem) and he said, “Do not shut your money bag; otherwise Allāh too will withhold His Blessings from you. Spend (in Allāh’s Cause) as much as you can afford.”

(23) CHAPTER. As-Sadaqa (charity) expiates sins.

1435. Narrated ‘Āsma bint Abū Bakr: ‘Umar ﷺ said, “‘Umar said, ‘Who amongst you remembers the statement of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ about the Al-Fitnah (trial and affliction)?’ I said, ‘I know it exactly as the Prophet ﷺ said.’ ‘Umar said, ‘No doubt, you are bold. How did he say it?’ I said, ‘A man’s Al-Fitnah caused by his wife, children and neighbours is expiated by (his) Šalāt (prayer), charity, and enjoining Al-Ma’rūf (Islamic Monotheism and all that Islamic ordains).’ (The subnarrator Sulaiman added that he said, ‘The Salat (prayer), charity, enjoining Al-Ma’ruf and forbidding Al-Munkar (disbelief, polytheism, and all that Islam has forbidden).’ ‘Umar said, ‘I did not mean that, but I ask about that Al-Fitnah which will spread like the waves of the sea.’ I said, ‘O chief of the believers! You need not be afraid of it as there is a closed door between you and it.’ He asked, ‘Will the door be broken or opened?’ I replied, ‘No, it will be broken.’ He said, ‘Then, if it is broken, it will never be closed again?’ I replied, ‘Yes.’’ We were afraid to ask him about that door, so we asked Masruq to inquire, and he asked Hudhaifa regarding it. Hudhaifa said, “The door was ‘Umar We further asked Hudhaifa whether ‘Umar knew what that door meant. Hudhaifa replied in the affirmative and added, “He knew it as one knows that there will be a night before the tomorrow morning.”

(24) CHAPTER. Whoever gave things in charity while he was a Mushrik(1) and then embraced Islam.

1436. Narrated Ḥakīm bin Ḥīzām: I said to Allah’s Messenger: “Before embracing Islam, I used to do good deeds like giving in charity, manumission of slaves, and the keeping of good relations with kith and kin. Shall I be rewarded for those deeds?” The Prophet replied, “You became Muslim with all those good deeds (without losing their reward).”

(1) (Ch.24) Mushrikūn: See glossary.
(25) CHAPTER. The servant gets a reward for giving charity when ordered by the owner of the property, as long as the servant has no intention of spoiling it (his master's property).

1437. Narrated ’Aishah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “When a woman gives in charity from her husband's meals with no intention of spoiling it (the property of her husband), she will get a reward for it and her husband too will get a reward for what he earned, and the trustee (store-keeper) will have the reward likewise.”

1438. Narrated Abu Musa: The Prophet ﷺ said, “An honest Muslim trustee (store-keeper) who carries out the orders of his master, and pays fully what he has been ordered to give with a good heart and pays to that person to whom he was ordered to pay, is regarded as one of the two charitable persons.”

(26) CHAPTER. The reward of the lady who gives in charity, or provides somebody with food from her husband's house for Allah's sake without spoiling her husband's property.

1439. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If a woman gives in charity from her husband's house…” (See H. No.1440).
1440. The Prophet ﷺ further said, “If a lady gives meals (in charity) from her husband’s house without spoiling her husband’s property, she will get a reward and her husband will also get a reward likewise. The husband will get a reward because of his earnings and the woman because of her spending.”

1441. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “When a woman gives in charity from her house meals in Allah’s Cause without spoiling her husband’s property, she will get a reward for it; and her husband will also get the reward for his earnings and the trustee (store-keeper) will get a reward likewise.”

(27) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah تعالى:

“As for him who gives (in charity) and keeps his duty to Allah and fears Him, and believes in Al-Husna [The Best (i.e., La ilaha illallah or a reward from Allah (i.e. Allah will compensate him for what he will spend in Allah’s Cause or bless him with Paradise)]. We will make smooth for him the path of ease (goodness). But he who is a greedy, miser and thinks himself self-sufficient, and believes Al-Husna, We will make smooth for him the path for evil.’ (V.92 :5-10)

And the saying of the angels: “O Allah, compensate a person who spends in Your Cause for what he has spent.”
1442. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Every day two angels come down (from the heaven) and one of them says, ‘O Allah! Compensate every person who spends in Your Cause,’ and the other (angel) says, ‘O Allah! Destroy every miser.’”

(28) CHAPTER. The examples of an alms-giver and a miser.

1443. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The example of a miser and an alms-giver is like the example of two persons wearing two iron cloaks.” (In another narration Abu Hurairah narrates:) Allah’s Messenger said, “The example of an alms-giver and a miser is like the example of two persons wearing two iron cloaks from their breasts to their collar bones; and when the alms-giver gives in charity, the cloak becomes capacious till it covers his whole body to such an extent that it hides his fingertips and covers his footprints. And when the miser wants to spend, it (the iron cloak) sticks and (its) every ring gets stuck to its place, he tries to widen it, but it does not become wide.”

(H.1443) His sins will be forgiven.
1444. See 1443.

(29) CHAPTER. Giving in charity from the earnings and trade, as is referred to in the Statement of Allâh:

“O you who believe! Spend of the good things which you have (legally) earned... (up to)... and Worthy of all praise.” (V.2:267)

(30) CHAPTER. Every Muslim has to give in charity; and whoever does not find anything to give, should do all that is good [i.e. enjoin Al-Ma‘rûf (Islâmic Monotheism, and all that Islâm has ordained)].

1445. Narrated Abû Musa: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Every Muslim has to give in charity.” The people asked, “O Allâh’s Prophet! If someone has nothing to give, what will he do?” He said, “He should work with his hands and benefit himself and also give in charity (from what he earns).” The people further asked, “If he cannot do even that?” He ﷺ replied, “He should help the needy who appeal for help.” Then the people asked, “If he cannot do that?” He replied, “Then he should perform all that is good [i.e. enjoin Al-Ma‘rûf (Islâmic Monotheism, and all that Islâm has ordained)] and keep away from all that is evil (i.e. disbelief, polytheism, and all that Islâm has forbidden) and this will be regarded as charitable deeds.”
(31) CHAPTER. How much is Zakât, and how much may be given in charity? And whoever gave a sheep in charity.

1446.Narrated Umm 'Atiyah: A sheep was sent to Nusaiba Al-Ansâriya (as charity) and she gave some of it to 'Aishah. The Prophet asked 'Aishah for something to eat. 'Aishah replied that there was nothing except what Nusaiba had sent of that sheep. The Prophet said to her, "Bring it as it has reached its place."(1)

(32) CHAPTER. The Zakât of silver.

1447. Narrated Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri: Allah's Messenger said, "There is no Zakât on less than five camels, and also there is no Zakât on less than five Awâq (of silver). (5 Awâq = 22 Fransa Riyals of Yemen or 200 Dirhams i.e., approx. 640 Grams.) And there is no Zakât on less than five Awâq (i.e., 673.5 Kilograms of dates or fruits or food grain.) (1 Wasq = 60 Sa') [For gold, 20 Mit'qal i.e., approx. 94 grams, i.e., equal to 12 Guinea English. No Zakât for less than 12 Guinea (English) of gold or for silver less than 22 Fransa Riyals of Yemen, i.e., 200 Dirhams, i.e., approx. 640 grams of silver. (This is called Nişab) (2).]

(1) (H.1446) For further details see Hadîth No.1494 and 1495.

(2) (H.1447) Five Awâq (i.e., approx. 675 Kilograms of dates or fruits or food grain. [1 Wasq 60 Sa' 135 Kilograms.]}

(3) (H.1447) Nişab: Minimum amount of property liable to payment of the Zakât. e.g. Nişab of Gold is twenty (20) Mit'qal, i.e., approx. 94 grams; Nişab of silver is two hundred (200) Dirhams, i.e., approx. 640 grams; Nişab of food-grains and fruit is 5 Awâq, i.e., 673.5 Kilograms. Nişab of camels is 5 camels; Nişab of cows is 5 cows; and Nişab of sheep is 40 sheep, etc.
(33) CHAPTER. Zakāt may be paid in kind (and not in cash).

Tāwús said: Mu‘adh said to the people of Yemen, “Bring me small, or used garments in charity in place of barley and millet as it will be easy for you and useful for the Companions of the Prophet in Al-Madina.” The Prophet said, “Khālid has kept his shield and arms for Allāh’s Cause.” And the Prophet said to the ladies, “Give in charity, even from your ornaments.” The Prophet did not differentiate between the Zakāt and other kinds of Šadaqa in this respect. And so the women donated their ear-rings and necklaces. And the Prophet did not specify that what might be paid in kind should be silver or gold.

1448. Narrated Anas: Abū Bakr wrote to me what Allah had instructed His Messenger to do regarding the one who had to pay one Bint Ma’īthad (i.e. one-year-old she-camel) as Zakāt, and he did not have it but had got Bint Labūn (two-year-old she-camel). (He wrote that) it could be accepted from him as Zakāt, and the collector of Zakāt would return him 20 Dirhams or two sheep; and if the Zakāt prayer had not a Bint Ma’īthad, but he had Ibn Labūn (a two-year-old he-camel) then it could be accepted as his Zakāt, but he would not be paid anything.

(1) (H.1448) One Dirham equals about 3\(\frac{1}{5}\) grams of silver.
1449. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: I am a witness that Allāh’s Messenger offered the ‘Eid prayer before delivering the Khutba (religious talk), and then he thought that the women would not be able to hear him (because of the distance), so he went to them along with Bilāl who was spreading his garment. The Prophet advised and ordered them to give in charity. So the women started giving their ornaments (in charity). (The subnarrator Ayyūb pointed towards his ears and neck meaning that they gave ornaments from those places such as ear-rings and necklaces.)

(34) CHAPTER. The individual property of different people should neither be gathered together nor the joint property should be divided, in assessing the Zakāt.

Narrated Sālim: ‘Abd Ummār said: The Prophet stated a similar narration.

1450. Narrated Anas: Abū Bakr wrote to me what was made compulsory by Allāh’s Messenger and that was (regarding the payments of Zakāt, and there was mentioned in it): Neither the property of different people should be gathered together nor the joint property should be split for fear of (paying more, or receiving less) Zakāt.(1)

(1) (H.1450) e.g. If somebody owns forty to one hundred and twenty sheep, he should pay only one sheep. But if there are three persons having forty sheep each, they are not permitted to gather their sheep together intending to pay one sheep only whereas each has to pay one sheep. Similarly, one person having forty sheep is not permitted to divide his sheep intending not to pay the Zakāt. This Ḥadīth may also mean that the Zakāt collector should not do the same with the intention of collecting more Zakāt. He should not divide the property of one person or gather the property of different persons when collecting Zakāt.
(35) CHAPTER. If a property is equally owned by two partners, its Zakāt is to be paid as a whole, and each partner is to pay the same amount.

Ṭawūs and ‘Ātā’ say that if two partners know their shares separately, their property will not be collected together. And Sufyān says that Zakāt will not be due till one partner has forty sheep and the other partner also has the same number of sheep.

1451. Narrated Anas: Abū Bakr wrote to me what Allah’s Messenger has made compulsory (regarding Zakāt) and there was mentioned in it: If a property is equally owned by two partners, they should pay the combined Zakāt and it will be considered that both of them have paid their Zakāt equally.

(36) CHAPTER. The Zakāt of camels.

And this was narrated by Abū Bakr, Abū Dhar and Abū Hurairah on the authority of the Prophet.

1452. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: A bedouin asked Allah’s Messenger about the emigration. The Prophet said, “May Allah have mercy on you! The matter of emigration is very hard. Have you got camels? Do you pay their Zakāt?” The bedouin said, “Yes, I have camels and I pay their Zakāt.” The Prophet said, “Work beyond the seas and Allah will not decrease (waste the reward of) any of your good deeds.” (See Hadīth No. 3923, Vol.5).
24 – THE BOOK OF ZAKÁT

(37) CHAPTER. Whoever has to pay a Bint Makhād (one-year-old she-camel) as Zakát and has not got it.

1453. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: Abū Bakr ﷺ wrote to me about the Zakát which Allāh had ordered His Messenger ﷺ to observe: Whoever had to pay Jadh’a (Jadh’a means a four-year-old she-camel) as Zakát from his herd of camels and he had not got one, and he had Hiqqa (three-year-old she-camel), that Hiqqa should be accepted from him along with two sheep if they were available or twenty Dirhams and whoever had to pay Hiqqa as Zakát and he had no Hiqqa but had a Jadh’a, the Jadh’a should be accepted from him, and the Zakát collector should pay back (or return) to him twenty Dirhams or two sheep; and whoever had to pay Hiqqa as Zakát and he had not got one, but had a Bint Labūn (two-year-old she-camel), it should be accepted from him along with two sheep or twenty Dirhams; and whoever had to pay Bint Labūn and had a Hiqqa, that Hiqqa should be accepted from him and the Zakát collector should pay back (or return) to him twenty Dirhams or two sheep; and whoever had to pay Bint Labūn and he had not got one but had a Bint Makhād (one-year-old she-camel), that Bint Makhād should be accepted from him along with twenty Dirhams or two sheep.
1454. Narrated Anas: When Abū Bakr sent me to collect the Zakāt from Bahrain, he wrote to me the following:

(In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful).

These are the orders for Zakāt which Allāh’s Messenger had made obligatory for every Muslim, and which Allāh had ordered His Messenger to observe: Whoever amongst the Muslims is asked to pay Zakāt accordingly, he should pay it (to the Zakāt collector) and whoever is asked more than that (what is specified in this script) he should not pay it. For twenty-four (24) camels or less, sheep are to be paid as Zakāt; for every five (5) camels one (1) sheep is to be paid, and if there are between twenty-five (25) to thirty-five (35) camels, one (1) Bint Ma’ād (one-year-old she-camel) is to be paid; and if they are between thirty-six (36) to forty-five (45) camels, one (1) Bint Labūn (two-years-old she-camel) is to be paid; and if they are between forty-six (46) to sixty (60) (camels), one (1) Hiqqa (three-years-old she-camel) is to be paid; and if the number is between sixty-one (61) to seventy-five (75) (camels), one (1) Jadilha (four-years-old she-camel) is to be paid; and if the number is between seventy-six (76) to ninety (90) (camels), two (2) Bint Labūn are to be paid; and if they are from ninety-one (91) to one hundred and twenty (120) (camels), two (2) Hiqqas are to be paid; and if they are over one hundred and twenty (120) (camels), for every forty (40) [over one hundred and twenty (120)] one (1) Bint Labūn is to be paid, and for every fifty (50) camels [over one hundred and twenty (120)], one (1) Hiqqa is to be paid; and whoever has got only four (4) camels, has to pay nothing as Zakāt, but if... the owner of these four (4) camels, wants to give something, he can.

If the number of camels increases to five (5), the owner has to pay one (1) sheep as Zakat. As regards the Zakat for the (flock) of sheep; if they are between forty (40) and one hundred and twenty (120) (sheep), one (1) sheep is to be in Zakat; and if they are between one hundred and twenty (120) to two hundred (200) (sheep), two (2) sheep are to be paid; and if they are between two hundred (200) to three hundred (300) (sheep), three (3) sheep are to be paid; and for over three hundred (300) sheep, for every extra one hundred (100) sheep, one (1) sheep is to be paid as Zakat.

[No Zakat for sheep less the forty (40)]

And if somebody has got less than forty (40) sheep, no Zakat is required, but if he wants to give, he can. For silver: the Zakat is one-fortieth of the lot (i.e. 2.5%), and if its value is less than two hundred (200) Dirhams [i.e. approx. six hundred and forty (640) Grams] there is no Zakat but if the owner wants to pay he can.

(39) CHAPTER. Neither an old, nor a defective animal, nor a male-goat may be taken as Zakat except if the Zakat collector wishes (to take it).

1455. Narrated Anas: Abū Bakr wrote to me what Allah had ordered His Messenger (about Zakat) which goes: Neither an old nor a defective animal, nor a male-goat may be taken as Zakat except if the Zakat collector wishes (to take it)(1).

(1) (H.1455) The Arabic word which means ‘Zakat-collector’ when slightly modified may mean ‘the Zakat payer’. In this case the Hadith will mean: The male-goat may not be taken as Zakat if the owner does not want to give it up. If we regard the ‘Zakat-collector’ as the proper word then the meaning is: The Zakat-collector is not to take an old or defective animal or a male-goat unless he finds no better alternative.
(40) CHAPTER. To accept a she-kid as Zakāt.

1456. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Abū Bakr said, “By Allah! If they (pay me the Zakāt and) withhold even a she-kid which they used to pay during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger, I will fight with them for it.”

1457. ‘Umar said, “It was nothing but Allah Who opened Abū Bakr’s chest towards the decision to fight, and I came to know that his decision was right.”

(41) CHAPTER. “Do not take the best from the property of the people as Zakāt.”

1458. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When Allah’s Messenger sent Mu‘ādh to Yemen, he said (to him), “You are going to a nation (from) the people of theScripture (Divine Book – Jews, Christians etc.) First of all invite them to worship Allah (Alone – Islamic Monotheism i.e. to testify Lā ilāha illallāh Muhammad Ar-Rasūl Allāh – none has the right to be worshipped but Allah, and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah) and when they (testify) Allah, then inform them that Allah has enjoined on them, five Salāt (prayers) in every day and night (24 hours); and if they start offering these Salāt, inform them that Allāh has enjoined on them, the Zakāt. And it is to be taken from the rich amongst them and given to the poor amongst them; and if they obey you in that, take Zakāt from them but avoid (don’t take) the best property of the people as Zakāt.”

(42) CHAPTER. There is no Zakāt for less than five camels.

1459. Narrated Abū Sa’īd (Al-Khudri) رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﴿said, “No Zakāt is imposed on less than five Awsuq of dates; no Zakāt is imposed on less than five Awāq of silver, and no Zakāt is imposed on less than five camels.” [See Niṣāb footnote No. 3, Ḥadīth No. 1447].

(43) CHAPTER. The Zakāt of cows.⁽¹⁾

Abū Ḥumaid told that the Prophet ﴿said, “I do not want a person to come to Allāh with a mooing cow (on the Day of Resurrection).”

⁽¹⁾ (Ch. 42) For every thirty cows there is (to be paid as Zakāt) one Tabiyā (one-year-old cow) and no Zakāt for less than thirty cows. For every forty cows there is (to be paid as Zakāt) one Mussinā’ (two-years-old cow).
1460. Narrated Abū Dhar: Once I went to him (the Prophet) and he said, “By Allāh in Whose Hands my life is (or probably said, ‘By Allāh, except Whom none has the right to be worshipped), whoever had camels or cows or sheep and did not pay their Zakāt, those animals will be brought on the Day of Resurrection far bigger and fatter than before; and they will tread him under their hooves, and will butt him with their horns, and (those animals will come in circle). When the last does its turn, the first will start again, and this punishment will go on till Allāh has finished the Judgement amongst the people.”

1461. Narrated Ishāq bin ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Ṭalḥa: I heard Anas bin Mālik saying, “Abū Ṭalḥa had more property of date-palm trees (gardens) than any other amongst the Ansār in Al-Madīna, and the most beloved of them to him was Bairuḥa’s garden, and it was in front of the mosque of the Prophet. Allāh’s Messenger used to go there and used to drink its nice water.” Anas added, “When these Verses were revealed:

‘By no means shall you attain Al-Birr (piety, righteousness — here it means Allāh’s reward i.e., Paradise) unless you... spend (in Allāh’s Cause) of that which you love…” (V.3:92)

Abū Talha said to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ: ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Allāh, the Blessed, the Superior says: By no means shall you attain Al-Birr unless you spend (in Allāh’s Cause) of that which you love. And no doubt, Bairuḥa’ garden is the most beloved of all my property to me. So, I want to give it in charity in Allāh’s Cause. I expect its reward from Allāh. O Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ! Spend it where Allāh makes you think it feasible.’ On that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Bravo! It is useful property. I have heard what you have said (O Abū Talha), and I think it would be proper if you gave it to your kith and kin.’ Abū Talha said, I will do so, O Allāh’s Messenger.’ Then Abū Talha distributed that garden amongst his relatives and his cousins."

1462. Narrated Abū Sa’īd Al-Khudri: ‘Once on the day of Eid-ul-Fitr or Eid-ul-Adha, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ went out to the Musallā (praying place). After finishing the Salāt (prayer), he delivered the Khutba (religious talk) and ordered the people to give alms. He said, “O people! Give alms.” Then he went towards the women and said, “O women! Give alms, for I have seen that the majority of the dwellers of Hell-fire were you (women).” The women asked, “O Allāh’s Messenger! What is the reason for it?” He replied, “O women! You curse frequently, and are ungrateful to your husbands. I have not seen anyone more deficient in intelligence and religion than you. O women, some of you can lead a cautious wise man astray.” Then he left. And when he reached his house, Zainab, the wife of Ibn Mas‘ūd, came and asked permission to enter. It was said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! It is Zainab.” He asked, “Which Zainab?” The reply was that she was the wife of Ibn Mas‘ūd. He said, “Yes, allow her to enter.” And she was admitted. Then she said, “O Prophet of Allâh! Today, you ordered people to give alms and I had an ornament and intended to give it as alms, but Ibn Mas‘ūd said that he and his children deserved it more than anybody else.” The Prophet replied, “Ibn Mas‘ūd had spoken the truth. Your husband and your children had more right to it than anybody else.”

(45) CHAPTER. No Zakât is imposed on the horse of a Muslim.

1463. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger said, “There is no Zakât either on a horse or a slave belonging to a Muslim.”
(46) CHAPTER. No Zakāt is imposed on the slave belonging to a Muslim.

1464. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “There is no Zakāt either on a slave or on a horse belonging to a Muslim.”

(47) CHAPTER. Giving in charity to orphans.

1465. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri: Once the Prophet sat on a pulpit and we sat around him. Then he said, “The things I am afraid of most for your sake (concerning what will befall you after me) is the pleasures and splendours of the world and its beauties which will be disclosed to you.” Somebody said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Can the good bring forth evil?” The Prophet remained silent for a while. It was said to that person, “What is wrong with you? You are talking to the Prophet while he is not talking to you.” Then we noticed that he was being inspired Divinely. Then the Prophet wiped off his sweat and said, “Where is the questioner?” It seemed as if the Prophet liked his question. Then he said, “Good never brings forth evil. Indeed it is like what grows on the banks of a water-stream which either kills or makes the animals sick, except if an animal eats its fill the Khadir (a kind of vegetable) and then faces the sun, and then passes out dung and urine, and grazes again. No doubt this wealth is sweet and green. Blessed is the wealth of a Muslim from which he gives to the poor, the orphans and to needy travellers (Or the Prophet said something similar to it). No doubt, whoever takes it illegally will be like the one who eats but is never satisfied, and his wealth will be a witness against him on the Day of Resurrection."

(48) CHAPTER. The giving of Zakat to one’s husband and to orphans under one’s protection.

And this was narrated by Abū Sa’īd on the authority of the Prophet .

1466. Narrated ‘Amr bin Al-Hārith: Zainab, the wife of ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd) said, “I was in the mosque and saw the Prophet saying, ‘O women! Give alms even from your ornaments.’” Zainab used to provide for ‘Abdullāh and those orphans who were under her protection. So she said to ‘Abdullāh, “Will you ask Allah’s Messenger whether it will be sufficient for me to spend part of the Zakat on you and the orphans who are under my protection?” He said:, “You yourself ask Allah’s Messenger (about it)” (Zainab added): So, I went to the Prophet and I saw there an Ansārī woman who was standing at the door (of the Prophet) with a similar problem as mine. Bilāl passed by us and we asked him, ‘Ask the Prophet whether it is permissible for me to spend in charity on my husband and the orphans under my protection.' And we requested Bilāl not to inform the Prophet regarding our problem. So Bilāl went inside and asked the Prophet regarding our problem. The Prophet asked, "Who are those two?" Bilāl replied that she was Zainab. The Prophet asked, "Which Zainab?" Bilāl said, "The wife of ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd)."

The Prophet said, "Yes, it is sufficient for her and she will receive a double reward for that: One for helping relatives, and the other for giving As-Sadaqa (charity etc.)."

1467. Narrated Zainab, the daughter of Umm Salama: My mother said, "O Allah's Messenger! Shall I receive a reward if I spend for the sustenance of Abu Salama’s offspring, and in fact they are also my sons?" The Prophet replied, "Spend on them and you will get a reward for what you spend on them."

(49) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

"(Zakāt should be spent)... to free the captives; and for those in debt; and for Allāh’s Cause..." (V.9:60)

It is said that Ibn ‘Abbās had said (the above Verses mean) that one may spend (Zakāt) for manumission (of slaves) and also (for helping the poor) to perform..."
And Al-Hasan said, “It is permissible to manumit one’s father with one’s Zakat, and also to give from it to Mujahidin (Muslims fighting in holy battles) and to those who have not performed Hajj.” Then he recited this holy Verse: As-Sadaqat (Zakat) are only for the poor…” (V.9:60)

[8 types of people – (see footnote 1 of Chap.1. The Book of Zakat, before H. No.1395)] Al-Hasan went on, “And if you give Zakat to any of them, you will receive its reward.” And the Prophet said, “No doubt, Khalid has kept his armour for Allah’s Cause.” And Abū Lās said, “The Prophet made us ride on camels given as Zakat, for the purpose of performing Hajj.”

1468. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ordered (a person) to collect Zakat, and that person returned and told him that Ibn Jamil, Khalid bin Al-Walid, and ‘Abbās bin ‘Abdul Muţţalib had refused to give Zakat.” The Prophet said, “What made Ibn Jamil refuse to give Zakat; though he was a poor man, and was made wealthy by Allah and His Messenger? But you are unfair in asking Zakat from Khalid as he is keeping his armour for Allah’s Cause (for Jihād) (1). As for ‘Abbās bin ‘Abdul Muţţalib, he is the uncle of Allah’s Messenger and Zakat is compulsory on him and he should pay it and a similar amount along with it (i.e. double).”

(1) (H. 1468) From this narration religious scholars consider it permissible to buy weapons (artillery, missiles, tanks, planes etc.) for Jihād from the Zakat. (See Fāţh Al-Bāţī).
(50) CHAPTER. To abstain from begging.

1469. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: Some Anṣārī persons asked for something from Allāh’s Messenger and he gave them. They again asked him for something and he again gave them. And then again they asked him and he gave them again till all that was with him finished. And then he said, “If I had anything, I would not keep it away from you. (Remember) whoever abstains from asking others, Allāh will make him contented, and whoever tries to make himself self-sufficient, Allāh will make him self-sufficient. And whoever remains patient, Allāh will make him patient. Nobody can be given a blessing better and greater than patience.”

1470. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “By Him in Whose Hand my life is, it is better for anyone of you to take a rope and cut the wood (from the forest) and carry it over his back and sell it (as a means of earning his living), rather than to ask a person for something and that person may or may not give him.”

1471. Narrated Az-Zubair bin Al-‘Awwām: The Prophet said,

(1) (H.1469) The Arabic word Sabar which means patience conveys also the meaning of perseverance, constancy and endurance.
The Book of Zakat

“It is better for anyone of you to take a rope (and cut) and bring a bundle of wood (from the forest) over his back and sell it; and Allāh will save his face (from the Hell-fire) because of that, rather than to ask the people who may or may not give him.”

1472. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair and Sa‘īd bin Al-Musaiyyab: Ḥākim bin Hizām said, “(Once) I asked Allāh’s Messenger (for something) and he gave it to me. Again I asked and he gave (it to me). Again I asked and he gave (it to me). And then he said, “O Ḥākim! This property is like a sweet fresh fruit; whoever takes it without greediness, he is blessed in it, and whoever takes it with greediness, he is not blessed in it. And he is like a person who eats but is never satisfied; and the upper (giving) hand is better than the lower (receiving) hand.” Ḥākim added, “I said to Allāh’s Messenger, ‘By Him (Allāh) Who sent you with the Truth, I shall never ask or take anything from anybody after you, till I leave this world.’” Then Abū Bakr (during his caliphate) called Ḥākim to give him his share from the war booty (like the other Companions of the Prophet), but he refused to accept anything. Then ‘Umar (during his caliphate) called him to give him his share, but he refused (to take). On that ‘Umar said, “O Muslims! I would like you to witness that I offered Ḥākim his share from this booty and he refused to take it.” So Ḥākim never took anything from anybody after the Prophet till he died.
(51) CHAPTER. The one whom Allâh gives something without his asking for it, or without avarice for it. (And Allâh's Statement): “And those in whose wealth there is a recognised right, for the beggar who asks, and for the unlucky who has lost his property and wealth (and his means of living has been straitened).” (V.70:24-25).

1473. Narrated ‘Umar (bin Al-Khaṭṭāb)

Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to give me something but I would say to him, “Would you give it to a poorer and more needy one than me?” The Prophet ﷺ said to me, “Take it, if you are given something from this property, without asking for it or having greed for it, take it; and if not given, do not run for it.”

(52) CHAPTER. Whoever asks the people (for something) so as to increase his wealth.

1474. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar

The Prophet ﷺ said, “A man keeps on asking others for something till he comes on the Day of Resurrection having no flesh on his face.”
1475. The Prophet ﷺ added, “On the Day of Resurrection, the sun will come near (to the people) to such an extent that the sweat will reach up to the middle of the ears, so, when all the people are in that state, they will ask Adam for help, and then Moses, and then Muhammad ﷺ.” The subnarrator added “Muhammad ﷺ will intercede with Allâh to judge amongst the people. Then he will proceed on till he will hold the ring of the door (of Paradise); and then Allâh will exalt him to Maqâm Maḥmûd (i.e. the Honour of intercession on the Day of Resurrection). And all the people of the gathering will thank him ﷺ.

(53) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

...They do not beg of people at all...

(V.2:273) And who may be considered to have enough substance to make him contended and to abstain from begging?”

And the statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “The person who does not find enough substance to make him contended.”

And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ: “(Charity) is for Fûqara (the poor), who in Allâh’s Cause are restricted (from travel), and cannot move about in the land (for trade or work)... (up to)... Surely Allâh knows it well.” (V.2:273)

1476. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ:

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Al-Miskîn (the poor) is... not the one who asks a morsel or two (of meals) from the others, but Al-Miskin is the one who has nothing and is ashamed to beg from others."

1477. Narrated Ash-Sha’bi: The clerk of Al-Mughira bin Shu‘ba narrated, “Mu‘awiyya wrote to Al-Mughira bin Shu‘ba: Write to me something which you have heard from the Prophet ﷺ. So Al-Mughira wrote, ‘I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying: Allāh has hated for you three things:

1. Qil and Qal (sinful and useless talk like backbiting etc. or that you talk too much or talk about others.)

2. Wasting of wealth (by extravagance with lack of wisdom and thinking etc.).

3. And asking too many questions (in disputed religious matters etc.) or asking others for something (except in great need).

(See Hadith No. 2408, Vol. 3)

1478. Narrated Sa‘d (bin Abī Waqqās) ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ distributed something amongst a group of people while I was sitting amongst them, but he left a man whom I considered the best of the lot. So, I went up to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and asked him secretly, “Why have you left that person? By Allāh! I consider him a believer.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Or merely a Muslim.” I remained quiet for a while but could not help repeating my question because of what I knew about him. I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Why have you left that person? By Allāh! I consider him a believer.” The Prophetﷺ said, “Or merely a Muslim.” I remained quiet for a while but could not help repeating my question because of what I knew about him. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Why have you left that person? By Allah! I consider him a believer.” The Prophetﷺ said, “Or merely a Muslim.” Then Allah’s Messengerﷺ said, “(O Sa’d!) I give to a person while another is dearer to me, for fear that he may be thrown in the Hell-fire on his face (by reneging from Islām).”

1479. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, Al-Maskīn (the poor) is not the one who goes round the people and asks them for a mouthful or two (of meals) or a date or two, but Al-Maskīn (the poor) is that who has not enough (money) to satisfy his needs and whose condition is not known to others, that others may give him something in charity, and who does not beg of people.” (See H. No. 1476).

1480. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “No doubt, it is better for a person to take a rope and proceed in the morning to the mountains and cut the wood and then sell it, and eat from this income and give alms from it than to ask others for something.”

(54) CHAPTER. (The lawfulness of) estimating the amount of the date-fruits while they are still on the palms for the sake of taking the Zakāt.

1481. Narrated Abū Ḥumaid As-Sa‘īdī: We took part in the Ghazwa (holy battle) of Tabūk in the company of the Prophet, and when we arrived at the Wādī Al-Qurā, there was a woman in her garden. The Prophet asked his Companions to estimate the amount of the fruits in the garden, and Allāh’s Messenger estimated it at ten Awsuq (One Wasq = 60 1/2 1/2 and 1 1/2 = 3 kg. approximately). The Prophet said to that lady, “Check what your garden will yield.” When we reached Tabūk, the Prophet said, “There will be a strong wind tonight and so no one should stand and whoever has camel, should fasten it.” So, we fastened our camels. A strong wind blew at night and a man stood up and he was blown away to a mountain called Taiy. The king of ’Aila sent a white mule and a sheet for wearing to the Prophet as a present, and wrote to the Prophet that his people would stay in their place (and will pay Jizya taxation.)

When the Prophet reached Wādi Al-Qurã he asked that woman how much her garden had yielded. She said, “Ten Awsuq,” and that was what Allah’s Messenger had estimated. Then the Prophet said, “I want to reach Al-Madina quickly, and whoever among you wants to accompany me should hurry up.”

The subnarrator Ibn Bakkar said something which meant: When the Prophet saw Al-Madina he said, “This is Ṭaba.” And when he saw the mountain of Uhud, he said, “This mountain loves us and we love it. Shall I tell you of the best amongst the families of the Ansâr?” We replied in the affirmative. He said, “The family of Bani An-Najjãr and then the family of Bani Abdul-Ashhal, and then the family of Bani Sa’ida or Bani Al-Harith bin Al-Khazraj. (The above-mentioned are the best) but there is goodness in all the families of Ansâr.”

1482. And Sulaiman bin Bilal said, then the family of Bani Al-Harith and then the family of Bani Sa’ida.

Narrated Ibn Abbas: The Prophet said, “This is Uhud mountain, it loves us and we love it.”

(1) (H.1481) Jîzîa is a head tax imposed by Islam on the people of Scriptures and other people who have a revealed Book when they are under Muslim rule.
CHAPTER. ‘Uṣhr (i.e., one-tenth of the yield be levied as Zakāt) is to be imposed on the yield of the land which is either irrigated by rain or the running water channel.

‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-Azīz did not consider ‘Uṣhr compulsory on honey.

1483. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin Umar): The Prophet said, “On a land irrigated by rain water or by natural water channels, or if the land is wet due to a nearby water channel, ‘Uṣhr (i.e. one-tenth) is compulsory (as Zakāt); and on the land irrigated by the well, half of an ‘Uṣhr (i.e. one-twentieth) is compulsory (as Zakāt on the yield of the land).”

(56) CHAPTER. There is no Zakāt on less than five Awsuq [i.e., approx. 675 kilograms]
24— THE BOOK OF ZAKÀT

(1484) Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet said, “There is no Zakàt on less than five Awsuq (i.e. approx. 675 kg of dates, fruits, or food-grains, etc.), or on less than five camels, or on less than five Awaq of silver (i.e., 200 Dirhams, i.e., approx. 640 grams of silver [or less than 20 Mithqals of gold, i.e., approx. 94 grams of gold].

(57) CHAPTER. Zakàt of dates should be taken during their plucking season. Can a child touch the dates collected as Zakàt?

(1485) Narrated Abū Hurairah: Dates used to be brought to Allâh’s Messenger immediately after being plucked. Different persons would bring their dates till a big heap was collected (in front of the Prophet). Once Al-Hasan and Al-Husain were playing with these dates. One of them took a date and put it in his mouth. Allâh’s Messenger looked at him and took it out from his mouth and said, “Don’t you know that Muhammad’s offspring do not eat what is given in charity?”
(58) CHAPTER. Whoever sold his fruits, his date-palm trees, his land or his crops and the 'Uşhr or Zakāt was due on them, and gave Zakāt from some other property, or sold his fruits when Zakāt was due.

And the statement of the Prophet ﷺ: "Don't sell the fruits till they are ripe (free from blight)." So, the Prophet ﷺ did not stop anyone from selling the fruits after they are ripe (free from blight), and he did not differentiate between those on whom the Zakāt was due and those on whom it was not due (in this respect.).

1486. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet ﷺ had forbidden the sale of dates till they were good (ripe), and when it was asked what is meant by that; the Prophet said, "Till there is no danger of blight."

1487. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh: The Prophet ﷺ had forbidden the sale of fruits till they were ripe (free from blight).

1488. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allāh's Messenger ﷺ forbade the selling of fruits until they were ripe. The Prophet ﷺ added, “It means that they become red.”

(59) CHAPTER. Can one buy the thing which he has given in charity? There is no harm in buying what was given as Zakāt by someone else, for the Prophet forbade the alms-giver (particularly) to buy what he himself had given in charity, but he did not forbid others to buy it.

1489. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb gave a horse in charity in Allāh’s Cause, and later he saw it being sold in the market and intended to purchase it. Then he went to the Prophet and asked his permission. The Prophet said, “Do not take back what you have given in charity.” (The subnarrator added,) “For this reason, Ibn ‘Umar never purchased the things which he had given in charity, and in case he had purchased something (unknowingly) he would give it in charity again.

1490. Narrated ‘Umar: Once I gave a horse in Allāh’s Cause (in charity) but that person did not take care of it. I intended to buy it, as I thought he would sell it at a low price. So, I asked the Prophet about it. He said, “Neither buy, nor take back your alms which you have given, even if it is given to you (or the seller were willing to sell it) for one Dirham; for he who takes back his alms is like the one who swallows his own vomit.”
(60) CHAPTER. What is said regarding what is given to the Prophet ﷺ and his offspring in charity.

1491. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Al-Ḥasan bin ‘Ali took a date from the dates given in charity and put it in his mouth. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Expel it from your mouth. Don’t you know that we do not eat a thing which is given in charity?”

(61) CHAPTER. Aṣ-Ṣadaqā (alms) for the freed slave-girls of the wives of the Prophet ﷺ (do they accept things given in charity)?

1492. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ saw a dead sheep which had been given in charity to a freed slave-girl of Maimūna, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Why don’t you get the benefit of its hide?” They said, “It is dead.” He replied, “Only to eat (its meat) is illegal.”

1493. Narrated Al-Aswād: ‘Aishah intended to buy Barīra (a slave-girl) in order to manumit her, and her masters intended to put the condition that her Al-walâ would be for them. ‘Aishah mentioned that to the Prophet who said to her, “Buy her, as the Walâ is for the manumitter.”

Once some meat was presented to the Prophet and ‘Aishah said to him, “This (meat) was given in charity to Barira.” He said, “It is an object of charity for Barira but a gift for us.”

(62) CHAPTER. When alms is transferred.
(It will be legal for the Prophet’s folk to accept it as a gift.)

1494. Narrated Umm ‘Ayya Al-Anṣāriya: The Prophet went to ‘Aishah, and asked her whether she had something (to eat). She replied that she had nothing except the mutton (piece) which Nusaiba (Umm ‘Ayya) had sent to us (Barira) in charity.” The Prophet said, “It has reached its place (and now it is not a thing of charity but a gift for us).”

1495. Narrated Anas: Some meat was presented to the Prophet and it had been given to Barira (the freed slave-girl of Aishah) in charity. He said, “This meat is a thing of charity for Barira but it is a gift for us.”
Zakat should be taken from the rich (Muslims) and given to the poor (Muslims) wherever they are.

1496. Narrated Abū Ma'bad, the slave of Ibn ‘Abbas: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said to Mu‘adh when he sent him to Yemen, “You will go to the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians). So, when you reach there, invite them to testify that Lā ilāha illā līlāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah), and that Muhammad is Allah’s Messenger (Islamic Monotheism). And if they obey you in that, tell them that Allah has enjoined on them five Salāt (prayer) in each day and night (24 hours). And if they obey you in that, tell them that Allah has made it obligatory on them to pay the Sadaqa (Zakāt) which will be taken from the rich among them and given to the poor among them. If they obey you in that, then avoid taking the best of their possessions, and be afraid of the curse of an oppressed person because there is no screen between his invocation and Allah.” (See H. No. 1395).

The invoking and supplicating Allah of the Imam for the one who gives in charity. And the Statement of Allah ﷺ: “Take Sadaqa (alms) from their wealth in order to purify them and sanctify them with it, and invoke Allah for them. Verily, your invocations are a source of security for them…” (V.9:103)
1497. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abū Aūfā: Whenever a person brought his alms to the Prophet, the Prophet would say, “O Allāh! Send Your Blessings upon so-and-so.” My father went to the Prophet with his alms and the Prophet said, “O Allāh! Send Your Blessings upon the offspring of Abū Aūfā.”

(65) CHAPTER. (Is Zakāt imposed on) what is taken out of the sea (or not)?

And Ibn ‘Abbās said, “Ambergris (a special kind of perfume), is not Ṛikāz(1), but a thing which is thrown out by the sea.” And Al-Ḥasan said, “Khumūs (i.e. one-fifth) is imposed on Ambergris and pearls.” The Prophet fixed Khumūs(2) on Ṛikāz but not on the things taken out of the water.

1498. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “A man from Bānū Isrā’il asked someone from Bānū Isrā’il to give him a loan of one thousand Dinar, and the latter gave it to him. The debtor went on a voyage but (when the time for the payment of the debt became due) he did not find a boat, so he took a piece of wood and bored it and put 1000 Dinar in it and threw it into the sea. The creditor went out and took the piece of wood to his family to be used as fire-wood.”

(See Ḥadīth No. 2291, Vol. 3)

And the Prophet mentioned the narration (and said), “When he sawed the wood, he found his money.”

---

1) (Ch. 65) Ṛikāz: Burried treasure or wealth.
2) (Ch. 65) 1/5th of the Ṛikāz is to be paid to the Muslim treasury.
(66) CHAPTER. There is Khumus on Rikāz.

And Mālik and Ibn Idrīs said, “Rikāz is the buried treasures in the Pre-Islāmic Period and Khumus is compulsory on it whether the treasure is small or large, but the mines are not considered as Rikāz.” No doubt, the Prophet ﷺ had said, “There is no Zakāt on minerals. And Khumus is compulsory on Rikāz.” ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul ‘Azīz took five portions out of every two-hundred from minerals. And Al-Ḥasan said, “Khumus is compulsory on Rikāz found in the land owned by non-Muslims, but if found in the Muslim territory there is only Zakāt on it. If one finds a Luqata (fallen property) in the territory of the enemy, he must announce it publicly. And if it belongs to the enemy, then Khumus is compulsory on it. Some people considered minerals as Rikāz similar to the buried treasures of pre-Islāmic period.

1499. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There is no compensation for one killed or wounded by an animal or by falling in a well, or because of working in mines; but Khumus is compulsory on Rikāz (i.e. buried treasure or wealth). [(Khumas) i.e. 1/5th of Rikāz wealth is to be paid to the Muslim treasury]
(67) Chapter. The Statement of Allah

...And those employed to collect (the funds)...

(68) Chapter. The use of the camels given as Zakat and their milk for travellers.

1500. Narrated Abū Ḥumaid As-Sā‘īdi: Allah’s Messenger appointed a man called Ibn Al-Lutabiyya, from the tribe of Al-Asd to collect Zakat from Banī Sulaim. When he returned, (after collecting the Zakat) the Prophet checked the account with him.

1501. Narrated Anas: Some people from ‘Urayna tribe came to Al-Madina and its climate did not suit them. So Allah’s Messenger allowed them to go to the herd of camels (given as Zakat); and they drank their milk and urine (as medicine), but they killed the shepherd and drove away all the camels. So, Allah’s Messenger sent (men) in their pursuit to catch them, and they were brought, and he had their hands and feet cut, and their eyes were branded with heated pieces of iron and they were left in the Ḥarra (a stony place at Al-Madina) biting the stones. (See Ḥadīth No. 233, Vol. 1)

(67) باب قول الله تعالى:

(68) باب استعمال إيل الصدقة وألبانها لأبناء الشبيل
(69) CHAPTER. Branding the camels given in As-Ṣadaqa (Zakât) by the Imam with his own hands.

1502. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: I took ‘Abdullāh bin Abû Talha to Allah’s Messenger to perform Taḥnik for him. (Taḥnik was a custom among the Muslims that whenever a child was born they used to take it to the Prophet who would chew a piece of date and put a part of its juice in the child’s mouth). I saw the Prophet, and he had an instrument for branding in his hands and was branding the camels of Zakât.

(70) CHAPTER. Obligation of Ṣadaqat-ul-Fitr. [It is also called Zakât-ul-Fitr, and is obligatory. It should be paid by the Muslims at the end of the month of Ramadān (Fasting) before the prayer of ‘Eid-ul-Fitr].

And Abû Al-‘Āliya, ‘Aṭā and Ibn Sîrin considered Ṣadaqat-ul-Fitr as obligatory.

1503. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger made it the payment of one Ṣā’ of dates or one Ṣā’ of barley as Zakât-ul-Fitr on every Muslim slave or free, male or female, young or old; and he ordered that it be paid before the people went out to offer ‘Eid. (One Ṣā’ = 3 kilograms approx.)
(71) CHAPTER. Sadaqat-ul-Fīṭr is compulsory on the free or the slave Muslims.

1504. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger made it obligatory on all the slave or free Muslims, male or female, to pay one ۶a‘ of dates or barley as Zakāt-ul-Fīṭr.

(72) CHAPTER. Sadaqat-ul-Fīṭr is one ۶a‘ of barley. (1 ۶a‘ = 3 kilograms approx.)

1505. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: We used to give one ۶a‘ of barley as Sadaqat-ul-Fīṭr (per head).

(73) CHAPTER. Sadaqat-ul-Fīṭr is one ۶a‘ of meal (per head).

1506. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: We used to give one ۶a‘ of meal, or one ۶a‘ of barley or one ۶a‘ of dates, or one ۶a‘ of lqīt (dried yoghurt or cottage cheese), or one ۶a‘ of raisins (dried grapes) (per head) as Zakāt-ul-Fīṭr.
24— THE BOOK OF ZAKĀT

(74) CHAPTER. Ṣadaqat-ul-Fīr is one Ṣā‘ of dates (per head).

1507. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ ordered (Muslims) to give one Ṣā‘ of dates or one Ṣā‘ of barley as Zakāt-ul-Fīr. The people regarded two Mudd of wheat as equal to that.

(75) CHAPTER. Ṣadaqat-ul-Fīr is (one Ṣā‘ of raisins (dried grapes) (per head).

1508. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنه: In the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ we used to give one Ṣā‘ of meal or one Ṣā‘ of dates, or one Ṣā‘ of barley, or one Ṣā‘ of raisins (dried grapes) (per head) as Ṣadaqat-ul-Fīr. And when Mu‘āwiya became the caliph and the wheat was (available in abundance) he said, “I think (observe) that one Mudd (of wheat) equals two Mudd (of any of the above-mentioned things).

(76) CHAPTER. Ṣadaqat-ul-Fīr is to be given before the ‘Eid prayers.

1509. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ ordered the people to pay Zakāt-ul-Fīr before going to the ‘Eid prayers.
1510. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنه: In the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, we used to give one semblies of meal (per head) as Ṣadaqat-ul-Fītr (to the poor). Our food used to be either of barley, raisins (dried grapes), Iqt (dried yoghurt or cottage cheese) or dates.

(77) CHAPTER. Ṣadaqat-ul-Fīr (is compulsory) on a slave as well as on a free Muslim.

And Āz-Zuhrī says that it is also compulsory on the slaves for sale; both the prescribed Zakāt on wealth as well as Ṣadaqat-ul-Fīr are to be paid.

1511. Narrated Nāfi’: Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنه said, “The Prophet ﷺ made obligatory on every male or female, free man or slave, the payment of one semblies of dates or barley as Ṣadaqat-ul-Fītr (or said Ṣadaqat-ur-Ramadān).” The people then substituted one-half semblies of wheat for that. Ibn ‘Umar used to give dates (as Ṣadaqat-ul-Fīr).

Nāfi’ added: Once there was scarcity of dates in Al-Madinah and Ibn ‘Umar gave barley (instead). And Ibn ‘Umar used to give Ṣadaqat-ul-Fīr for every young and old person. He even used to give on behalf of my children.

Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنه used to give Ṣadaqat-ul-Fīr to those who had been officially appointed for its collection. People used to give Ṣadaqat-ul-Fīr (even) a day or two before the 'Eid.

(78) CHAPTER. Sadaqat-ul-Fitr is obligatory on the young and the old.

1512. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allah's Messenger (saw) has made the payment of Sadaqat-ul-Fitr obligatory, (and it was), either one Sā of barley or one Sā of dates (per head) (and it was enjoined) on young and old people, and on free men as well as on slaves.
25 – THE BOOK OF HAJJ
(PILGRIMAGE TO MAKKAH)

(1) CHAPTER. It is obligatory to perform Hajj (once in a life time) and its superiority, and the Statement of Allah Almighty: 'Hajj (pilgrimage to Makkah) to the House (Ka'bah) is a duty that mankind owes to Allah, those who can afford the expenses (for conveyance, provision and residence etc.). And whoever disbelieves [i.e., denies Hajj, (pilgrimage to Makkah) then he is a disbeliever in Allah]. Then Allah stands not in need of any of the ‘Alamîn (mankind, jinn and all that exists) (V.3:97)

1513. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Abbas : Al-Fadl (his brother) was riding behind Allah's Messenger and a woman from the tribe of Khath'am came and Al-Fadl started looking at her and she started looking at him. The Prophet turned Al-Fadl's face to the other side. The woman said, "O Allah's Messenger! The obligation of Hajj enjoined by Allah on His devotees has become due on my father and he is old and weak, and he cannot sit firm on the mount; may I perform Hajj on his behalf?" The Prophet replied, "Yes, you may." That happened during the Hajj Al-Widâ' (of the Prophet).

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah Almighty: And proclaim to mankind the Hajj (pilgrimage). They will come to you on foot and on every lean camel, they will come from every deep and distant (wide) mountain highway (to perform Hajj). That they may witness things that are of benefit to them...
(V.22:27-28)
And the meaning of the word Fijaj is a wide way (ravine).

1514. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: I saw that Allah's Messenger used to ride on his Rahila (mount) at Dhul-Hulaifa and used to start saying Labbaik when the Rahila stood up straight.

1515. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh that Allah's Messenger started saying, Labbaik from Dhul-Uulaifa when his Rahila (mount) stood up straight carrying him.

(3) CHAPTER. To go for Hajj on a packsaddle (of a camel).

1516. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet sent my brother, 'Abdur Rahmān with me to Tan'īm for the Umra, and he made me ride on the packsaddle (of a camel). 'Umar said, "Be ready to travel for Hajj as it (Hajj) is one of the two kinds of Jihād.”

(1) (H.1516) Jihād literally means struggle and perseverance. Holy fighting against the enemies of Islam is also called Jihād. Hajj here is regarded as a kind of Jihād since one endures many difficulties and has to control one's desires and spend money on performing Hajj.
1517. Narrated Thumâma bin ‘Abdullâh bin Anas: Anas performed the Ḥajj on a packsaddle (of a camel) and he was not a miser. Anas said, “Allâh’s Messenger performed Ḥajj on a packsaddle (of a camel) and the same Râhîla (mount) was carrying his baggage too.”

1518. Narrated Al-Qâsim bin Muḥammad: ‘Aishah said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! You performed Umra but I did not.” He said, “O ‘Abdur-Rahmân! Go along with your sister and let her perform Umra from Tan‘îm.” ‘Abdur-Rahmân made her ride over the packsaddle of a she-camel and she performed Umra.

(4) CHAPTER. The superiority of Al-Ḥajj-ul-Mabrûr (most probably means the Ḥajj which is performed with the intention of seeking Allâh’s Pleasures only and is in accordance with the Prophet’s legal ways; without committing sins and is acceptable to Allâh).

1519. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet was asked, “Which is the best deed?” He said, “To believe in Allâh and His Messenger (Muhammad).” He was then asked, “Which is the next (in goodness)?” He said, “To participate in Jihâd in Allâh’s Cause.” He was again asked, “Which is the next?” He said, “To perform Ḥajj-Mabrûr.”
1520. Narrated 'Aishah, the Mother of the faithful believers: I said, "O Allah's Messenger! We consider Jihad as the best deed. Should we not participate in Jihad?" The Prophet ﷺ said, "The best Jihad (for women) is Hajj-Mabrûr."

1521. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever performs Hajj for Allah's sake only and does not have sexual relations with his wife, and does not do evil or sins; then he will return (after Hajj, free from all sins) as if he was born anew."

(5) CHAPTER. The demarcation of Mawaqit for Hajj.

(Mawaqit are places at which one should assume the state of Ihram(1) for the purpose of Hajj or 'Umra.)

1522. Narrated Zaid bin Jubair: I went to visit 'Abdullãh bin 'Umar at his house which contained many tents made of (Ch.5) Ihram: A state in which one is prohibited to practise certain deeds that are lawful at other times. The ceremonies of 'Umra and Hajj are performed during such state. When one assumes this state, the first thing one should do is to express mentally and orally one's intention to assume this state for the purpose of performing Hajj or 'Umra. Then Talbiya is recited, two sheets of unstiched clothes are the only clothes one wears; (1) Izār: worn below one's waist and the other (2) Rīḍā': worn round upper part of the body.*

* Talbiya: See Hadîth No.1549.
cotton cloth and these were encircled with Surādīk (part of the tent). I asked him from where should one assume Ḥirom for ‘Umra. He said, “Allāh’s Messenger Ḥasan had fixed as Miqāt (singular of Mawaqit) Qarn for the people of Najjd, Dhul-Ḥulaifa for the people of Al-Madīna, and Al-Juḥfa for the people of Sham.”

(6) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh Ṣallallāhu ‘Alaihi wa Sallam:

“And take provision (with you) for the journey, but the best provision is Ṭaqwā (piety, righteousness)…” (V.2:197)

1523. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The people of Yemen used to come for Hajj and used not to bring enough provisions with them and used to say that they depend on Allāh. On their arrival in Al-Madīna they used to beg the people, and so Allāh revealed, “...And take a provision (with you) for the journey, but the best provision is Ṭaqwā (piety, righteousness)…” (V.2:197).

(7) CHAPTER. Miqāt of Hajj and ‘Umra for the people of Makkah.

1524. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allāh’s Messenger Ḥasan made Dhul-Ḥulaifa as the Miqāt for the people of Al-Madīna; Al-Juḥfa for the people of Sham; Qarn-al-

Manâzil for the people of Najd; and Yalamlam for the people of Yemen; and these Mawaqit are for the people at those very places, and besides them for those who come through those places with the intention of performing Hajj and ‘Umra. Whoever is living within these boundaries can assume Ihram from the place he starts, and the people of Makkah can assume Ihram (for Hajj only) from Makkah.

(8) CHAPTER. The Miqāt for the people of Al-Madina (is Dhul-Hulaifa) and they should not assume Ihram before Dhul-Hulaifa.

1525. Narrated Nâfi’: ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar said, “Allâh’s Messenger said, ‘The people of Al-Madina should assume Ihram from Dhul-Hulaifa, the people of Sham from Al-Juðfa; and the people of Najd from Qarn.’” And ‘Abdullâh added, “I was informed that Allâh’s Messenger had said, ‘The people of Yemen should assume Ihram from Yalamlam.’”

(9) CHAPTER. The Miqât for the people of Sham.

1526. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: Allâh’s Messenger had fixed Dhul-Hulaifa as the Miqat for the people of Al-Madina; Al-Juðfa for the people of Sham; and Qarn-al-Manâzil for the people of Najd; and Yalamlam for the people of Yemen. So,

(1) (H. 1524) Ihram: See the footnote of chapter 5, before Hadith No. 1522.
these (above-mentioned) are the Mawāqīṭ for all those living at those places; and besides them for those who come through those places with the intention of performing Hajj and 'Umra. Whoever lives within these places should assume Ḥırām from his dwelling place, and similarly the people of Makkah can assume Ḥırām (for Hajj only) from Makkah.

(10) CHAPTER. The Miqāṭ for the people of Najd.

1527. Narrated Sālim’s father, “The Prophet ﷺ had fixed the Mawāqīṭ as follows: (Hadith No. 1528)

1528. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar) رضي الله عنهم: I heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying “The Miqāṭ for the people of Al-Madina is Dhul-Ḥulaifa; for the people of Sham is Mahr’ā; (i.e. Al-Juhfah); and for the people of Najd is Qarn.” Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهم added, “They claim, but I did not hear personally, that the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘The Miqāṭ for the people of Yemen is Yalamlam.’”

(11) CHAPTER. The Miqāṭ for those people who are living within the Mawāqīṭ.

1529. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهم: The Prophet ﷺ fixed Dhul-Ḥulaifa as the Miqāṭ for the people of Al-Madina, Al-
Juḥfa, for the people of Sham, Yalamlam for the people of Yemen, and Qarn for the people of Najd. And these Mawaqīt are for those living at those very places, and besides them; for those who come through those places with the intention of performing Ḥajj and ‘Umra; and whoever is living inside these places can assume Ihrām from his own dwelling place, and the people of Makkah can assume Ihrām (for Ḥajj only) from Makkah.

(12) CHAPTER. The Miqāt for the people of Yemen.

1530. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet ﷺ fixed Dhul-Hulaifa as the Miqāt for the people of Al-Madīna, Al-Juḥfa for the people of Sham, Qarn-al-Manāzīl for the people of Najd, and Yalamlam for the people of Yemen. And these Mawaqīt are for those living at those very places, and besides them, for all those who come through them with the intention of performing Ḥajj and ‘Umra; and whoever is living within these Mawaqīt should assume Ihrām from where he starts, and the people of Makkah can assume Ihrām (for Ḥajj only) from Makkah.

(13) CHAPTER. The Miqāt for the people of ‘Irāq is Dhat-‘Irq.

1531. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: When these two towns (Baṣrah and Kūfah) were conquered, the people went to ‘Umar and said, “O chief of the faithful believers! The Prophet ﷺ fixed Qarn as the Miqāt for the people of Najd, it is beyond our way and it is difficult for us to pass through it.” ‘Umar said, “Take as your Miqāt a place situated... opposite to Qarn on your usual way. So, he fixed Dhat-'Irq (as their Miqat)."

(14) CHAPTER.

1532. Narrated Nafi': 'Abdullah bin 'Umar said, "Allah's Messenger made his camel sit (i.e. he dismounted) at Al-Bathâ in Dhul-Hulaifa and offered the Salat (prayer)." 'Abdullah bin 'Umar used to do the same.

(15) CHAPTER. The going of the Prophet (for Hajj) via Ash-Shajara way.

1533. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allah's Messenger used to go (for Hajj) via Ash-Shajara way and return via Mu'arras way. And no doubt, whenever Allah's Messenger went to Makkah, he used to offer the Salat (prayer) in the mosque of Ash-Shajara; and on his return journey, he used to offer the Salat at Dhul-Hulaifa in the middle of the valley, and pass the night there till morning.

(16) CHAPTER. The saying of the Prophet: "Al-'Aqiq is a blessed valley."
25—THE BOOK OF HAJJ

Saying, “Tonight a messenger came to me from my Lord and asked me to offer Salât (prayer) in this blessed valley; and to assume Ihram for Hajj and ‘Umra together.”

1535. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar): “The Prophet while resting in the bottom of the valley at Mu‘arras (a place where a traveller rests in the last part of night) in Dhul-Hulaifa, said that he had been addressed in a dream, ‘Verily you are in a blessed valley.’” Sālīm made us to dismount from our camels at the place where ‘Abdullāh used to dismount, aiming at the place where Allāh’s Messenger had rested and it was below the mosque situated in the middle of the valley in between them (the residence) and the road.

(17) CHAPTER. To wash the perfume thrice off the clothes (of Ihram).

1536. Narrated Sa‘fāwān bin Ya‘la: Ya‘la said to ‘Umar, “Show me the Prophet when he is being inspired Divinely.” While the Prophet was at Ji‘rāna (in the company of some of his Companions) a person came and asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! What is your verdict regarding that person who assumes Iḥrām for ‘Uмrā and is scented with perfume?” The Prophet kept quiet for a while and he was Divinely inspired (then). ‘Umar beckoned Ya’lā. So he came, and Allah’s Messenger was shaded with a sheet. Ya’lā put his head in and saw that the face of Allah’s Messenger was red and he was snoring. When that state of the Prophet was over, he asked, “Where is the person who asked about ‘Umra?” Then that person was brought and the Prophet said, “Wash the perfume off your body thrice and take off the cloak and do the same in ‘Umra as you do in Ḥajj.”

(18) CHAPTER. The use of perfume while assuming Iḥrām. What to wear when one intends to assume Iḥrām. May one comb and put oil on one’s hair?

And Ibn ‘Abbās stated, “A Muḥrīm may smell sweet basil, and he may look at the mirror and can be treated with ordinary edible oil and butter.” And ‘Aṭā’ said, “A Muḥrīm may wear a ring and the Hīmān (a belt with a purse to keep one’s money).” And Ibn ‘Umar performed the Tawāf while he was Muḥrīm, with a piece of cloth tied round his belly. And ‘Aisha found no harm in wearing Tubbān (short trousers) by those who fixed her Howdah.

1537. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Jubair: Ibn ‘Umar used to oil his hair. I told that to Ibrāhīm who said, “What do you think about this statement.”

1538. Narrated Aswad: ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ said: As if I were just now observing the glitter of the scent in the parting of the hair of the Prophet ﷺ while he was Muhārim?

1539. Narrated ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: I used to scent Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ when he wanted to assume Ihram and also on finishing Ihram before the Tawāf round the Ka‘bah (Tawāf-al-Ifāda).

(19) CHAPTER. Whosoever recited Talbiya(1) and assumed Ihram with head-hair matted (with resin or the like).

1540. Narrated Sālim’s father: “I heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ reciting Talbiya and assuming Ihram with his head-hair matted together.

---

(1) (Ch.18) Talbiya: See Hadith No.1549.
(20) CHAPTER. To recite Talbiya and assume Ḥīram at the mosque of Dhul-Ḥulaifa (by the inhabitants of Al-Madīna who want to perform Ḥajj or 'Umra).

1541. Narrated Ṣalīm bin ʿAbdullāh: I heard my father saying, "Never did Allāh’s Messenger ᴧ recite Talbiya and assume Ḥīram except at the Mosque, that is, at the mosque of Dhul-Ḥulaifa.

(21) CHAPTER. What kind of clothes a Muḥrīm should not wear.

1542. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin ʿUmar: A man asked, "O Allāh’s Messenger! What kind of clothes should a Muḥrīm wear?" Allāh’s Messenger ᴧ replied, "He should not wear a shirt, a turban, trousers, a headcloak or leather socks, except if he can find no slippers, he then may wear leather socks after cutting off what might cover the ankles. And he should not wear clothes which are scented with saffron or Wars (kinds of perfumes)."

(22) CHAPTER. Riding alone or with somebody else during Ḥajj.

(23) CHAPTER. What kind of clothes a Muhrim should wear, both for Rida (upper half body-cover) and Izār (lower half body-cover).

And ‘Āishah ṣa. wore clothes dyed with yellow colour while she was Muhrima and she said that a Muhrima should neither Talah-thām (i.e. to cover one’s face up to the eyes) nor should cover it completely; and she should not wear such clothes as are scented with Wars ṣa. or saffron. And Jābir ṣa. said, “I do not regard the dye-stuff taken from safflower as a kind of scent.” ‘Āishah considered that there was no harm for a woman to wear ornaments or black or rose (pink) coloured clothes or leather socks while in a state of Ihrām. And Ibrāhim ṣa. did not see any harm in changing one’s clothes (of Ihrām).

1545. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās ṣa. The Prophet ṣa. with his Companions departed from Al-Madīnah after combing and oiling his hair and putting on two sheets of Ihrām – Rida
He did not forbid anyone to wear any kind of sheets except the ones coloured with saffron because they may leave scent on the skin.

And so in the morning, the Prophet  mounted his Rähîla (mount) while in Dhul-Ḥulaifa and proceeded till they reached Al-Baidâ’, where he and his Companions recited Talbiya, and then he did the ceremony of Taqîlî (which means to put the coloured rope garland around the neck) of his Badana (camel for sacrifice). And that was on the 25th of Dhul-Qa’dâ. When he reached Makkah on the 4th of Dhul-Hijjah, performed the Tawâf round the Ka’bah and the Sâ’y (going) between As-Ṣâfã and Al-Marwa(1). And as he had garlanded his Badana, he did not finish his Ihrām. He proceeded towards the highest places of Makkah near Al-Ḥujûn and he was assuming the Ihrām for Ḥajj and did not go near the Ka’bah after he performed Tawâf (round it) till he returned from ‘Arafa. Then he ordered his Companions to perform the Tawâf round the Ka’bah and then the Sâ’y of As-Ṣâfâ and Al-Marwa, and to cut short the hair of their heads and to finish their Ihrām. And that was only for those people who did not have Badana (camels etc., for sacrifice) and had not garlanded them. Those who had their wives with them were permitted to contact them (can have sexual relations), and similarly can use perfume and wear (ordinary) clothes. [Then they assumed their Ihrām for Ḥajj (and that was Ḥajj-at-Tamuttu) on the 8th of Dhul-Ḥijjah and performed their Ḥajj].

(1) (H.1545) Tawâf between As-Ṣâfâ and Al-Marwa is also called Sâ’y which means literally “walking” or “going.” Here it means the seven times of going hurriedly between the two mountains in Makkah called As-Ṣâfâ and Al-Marwa (as it is one of the ceremonies of Ḥajj and ‘Umra).
(24) CHAPTER. Passing the night at Dhul-Hulaifa till dawn.

This was narrated by Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنّه on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

1546. Narrated Anas bin Mālik ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ offered four Rak‘ā in Al-Madina and then two Rak‘ā at Dhul-Hulaifa and then passed the night at Dhul-Hulaifa till it was morning and then he mounted his Rāḥila (mount) and it stood up, he started to recite Talbiya.

1547. Narrated Abū Qilāba: Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنّه said, “The Prophet ﷺ offered four Rak‘ā of the Zuhr prayer in Al-Madina and two Rak‘ā of ‘Asr prayers at Dhul-Hulaifa.” I think that the Prophet ﷺ passed the night there till morning.

(25) CHAPTER. Talbiya is to be recited aloud.

1548. Narrated Anas ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ offered four Rak‘ā of the Zuhr prayer in Al-Madina and two Rak‘ā of the ‘Asr prayer in Dhul-Hulaifa and I heard them (the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ) reciting Talbiya together loudly to the extent of shouting.
(26) CHAPTER. The Talbiya.

1549. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar : The Talbiya of Allãh’s Messenger was:

‘Labbaik Allãhummã labbaik, labbaika ë slãrika Laka labbaik, innal-hamda wanni’ mata Laka wal-mulk, ë slãrika Laka’

(I respond to Your Call O Allãh, I respond to Your Call, and I am obedient to Your Orders, You have no partner, I respond to Your Call. All the praises, thanks and blessings are for You. All the sovereignty is for You. And You have no partners with You.)

1550. Narrated ‘Aishah : I know how the Prophet used to say (Talbiya) and it was:

‘Labbaik Allãhummã labbaik, labbaika ë slãrika Laka labbaik, innal-hamda wanni’ mata Laka wal-mulk, ë slãrika Laka’.
[See Hadith No.1549].

(27) CHAPTER. The praising and the glorification of Allãh and the saying of Takbir before reciting Talbiya, while mounting one’s travelling animal.

1551. Narrated Anas bin Målik : Allãh’s Messenger offered four Rak‘ã of Zuhr prayers at Al-Madina and we were in his company, and two Rak‘ã of the ‘Asr prayers at Dhul-Hulaifa and then passed the night there till it was dawn; then he rode, and reached Al-Baidã’, he praised and glorified Allah and said Takbir (i.e., Alhamdu-lillah, Subhãn-Allah and Allahu-Akbar). Then, he and the people along with him recited Talbiya with the intention of performing Hajj and ‘Umra. When we reached (Makkah) he ordered us to finish the Ihram (after performing the ‘Umra) [only those who had no Hady (animal for sacrifice) with them] till the day of Tarwiya (8th Dhul-Hijjah) when they assumed Ihram for Hajj (Haji-at-Tamuttu’). The Prophet sacrificed many camels (slaughtering them by Nahr way)(1) with his own hands while (the camels were) standing. [While in Al-Madina, Allãh’s Messenger also sacrificed with his own hands two horned rams black and white in colour in the Name of Allãh (by Dhabh(2) way).”

(28) CHAPTER. Reciting Talbiya when one has mounted his Rãhila (mount) and it stood up straight (ready to set out).

1552. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet recited Talbiya when he had mounted his Rãhila (mount) and it stood up straight (ready to set out).

(29) CHAPTER. Reciting Talbiya while facing the Qiblah.

1553. Narrated Nãfî’, ‘Whenever Ibn ‘Umar finished his morning Salãt (prayer) at Dhul-Hulaifa he would get his Rãhila (mount) prepared. Then, he would ride on it, and after it had stood up straight (ready to set out), he would face Al-

Qiblah (the Ka'bah at Makkah) while sitting (on his mount) and recite Talbiya. When he had reached the boundaries of the Haram (or Makkah), he would stop the recitation of Talbiya till he reached Dhi-Tuwā (near Makkah) where he would pass the night till it was dawn. After offering the morning Salāt, he would take a bath. He claimed that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had done the same.

1554. Narrated Nāfi': Whenever Ibn ‘Umar Ḥ. said that he had seen the Prophet ﷺ doing the same.

(30) CHAPTER. Reciting Talbiya on entering a valley.

1555. Narrated Mujāhid: I was in the company of Ibn ‘Abbās Ḥ. and the people talked about Ad-Dajjāl and said, “Ad-Dajjāl will come with the word Kāfir (disbeliever) written in between his eyes.” On that Ibn ‘Abbās Ḥ. said, “I have not heard this from the Prophet ﷺ, but I heard him saying, ‘As if I saw Mūsā (Moses) just now entering the valley reciting Talbiya.’”

(1) (H. 1554) Talbiya: See H. No. 1549.
(31) CHAPTER. How should a menstruating woman and a woman in a puerperal state assume Ihram?

And Allâh’s Statement: “And that which has been slaughtered as a sacrifice for others than Allâh.” (V.5:3)

1556. Narrated ‘Aishah (رضي الله عنها): We set out with the Prophet ﷺ in his last Hajj and we assumed Ihram for ‘Umra. The Prophet ﷺ then said, “Whoever has got the Hady with him should assume Ihram for Hajj along with ‘Umra and should not finish the Ihram till he finishes both.” I was menstruating when I reached Makkah, I neither did Tawaf round the Ka’bah nor [Sa’ (going)] between As-Safâ and Al-Marwa. I complained about that to the Prophet ﷺ on which he replied, “Undo and comb your head hair, and assume Ihram for Hajj (only) and leave the ‘Umra.” So, I did so. When we had performed the Hajj, the Prophet ﷺ sent me with my brother ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Abû Bakr to Tan’im. So, I performed the ‘Umra. The Prophet ﷺ said to me, “This ‘Umra is in lieu of your missed one.” Those who had assumed Ihram for ‘Umra (Hajj-at-Tamattu’) performed Tawaf round the Ka’bah and (Sa’ y (going)) between As-Safâ and Al-Marwa and then finished their Ihram. After returning from Minâ, they performed another Tawaf (Sa’ y (going)) between As-Safâ and Al-Marwa). Those who had assumed Ihram for Hajj and ‘Umra together (Hajj-al-Qiran) performed only one Tawaf (Sa’ y between As-Safâ and Al-Marwa).
(32) CHAPTER. Whoever assumed Ihrām with the same intention as that of the Prophet (for Hajj or Umra) in the lifetime of the Prophet (without being objected by the Prophet).

Ibn ‘Umar narrated this on the authority of the Prophet.

1557. Narrated ‘Atā: Jābir said, “The Prophet ordered 'Ali to keep on assuming his Ihrām.” The narrator then informed about the narration of Surāqa.

1558. Narrated Anas bin Malik: ‘Ali came to the Prophet from Yemen (to Makkah). The Prophet asked ‘Ali, “With what intention have you assumed Ihrām?” ‘Ali replied, “I have assumed Ihrām with the same intention as that of the Prophet. The Prophet said, “If I had not the Hady with me I would have finished the Ihrām.”

Muḥammad bin Bakr added that Ibn Juraij said: The Prophet said to ‘Ali, “With what intention have you assumed the Ihrām, O ‘Ali?” He replied, “With the same (intention) as that of the Prophet.” The Prophet said, “Have a Hady and keep your Ihrām as it is.”

1559. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet sent me to some people in Yemen... and when I returned, I found him at Al-Baṭḥā. He asked me, "With what intention have you assumed Ihrām (i.e. for Hajj or for 'Umra or for both)." I replied, "I have assumed Ihrām with an intention like that of the Prophet ﷺ." He asked, "Have you a Hady with you?" I replied in the negative. He ordered me to perform Tawāf round the Ka'bah and [Sa'y (going)] between As-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa and then to finish my Ihram. I did so and went to a woman from my tribe who combed my hair or washed my head. Then, when 'Umar became caliph he said, "If we follow Allāh's Book, it orders us to remain in the state of Ihram till we finish from Hajj as Allāh says: 'Perform properly the Hajj and 'Umra for Allāh.' (V.2:196). And if we follow As-Sunna of the Prophet ﷺ who did not finish his Ihram till he sacrificed his Ha'dy (Hajj-al-Qirān)."

(33) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ: “The Hajj (pilgrimage) is (in) the well-known (lunar year) months ... (upto) ... Hajj ...” (V.2:197). And also His Statement: “They ask you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) about the new moons. Say: These are signs to mark fixed periods of time for mankind and for the Hajj.” (V.2:189).

And Ibn 'Umar رضي الله عنهما said, “The months of Hajj are Shawwāl, Dhul-Qa'da and the first ten days of Dhul-Hijjah. And Ibn 'Abbās رضي الله عنهما said, “It is in accordance with the As-Sunna (legal ways)

(1) (H.1559) To not to finish the Ihram, either perform Hajj-al-Qirān (if you have a Hady) or perform Hajj alone without the 'Umra and that is the opinion of Umar رضي الله عنه.
of the Prophet ﷺ that no one should assume Ihram for Hajj except in the months of Hajj.”
And ‘Uthmân disliked to assume Ihram from Khurâsân or Kirmân.

1560. Narrated Al-Qâsim bin Muhammad: ‘Aishah said, “We set out with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ in the months of Hajj, and (in) the nights of Hajj, and at the time and places of Hajj and in a state of Hajj. We dismounted at Sarif (a village ten miles from Makkah). The Prophet ﷺ then addressed his Companions and said, ‘Anyone who has not got the Hadîy and likes to do ‘Umra instead of Hajj may do so (i.e.
Hajj-at-Tamattu’) and anyone who has got the Hadîy should not finish the Ihram after performing ‘Umra) (i.e. Hajj-al-Qiran).
‘Aishah added, “The Companions of the Prophet ﷺ obeyed the above (order) and some of them (i.e., who did not have Hadîy) finished their Ihram after ‘Umra.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and some of his Companions were resourceful and had the Hajj with them, they could not perform ‘Umra (alone) (but had to perform both Hajj and ‘Umra with one Ihram).

‘Aishah added, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ came to me and saw me weeping and said, ‘What makes you weep, O Hantah?’ I replied, ‘I have heard your conversation with your Companions and I cannot perform the ‘Umra.’ He asked, ‘What is wrong with you?’ I replied, ‘I do not offer the Salât (prayer) (i.e., I have got my menses).’
He said, ‘It will not harm you, for you are one of the daughters of Adam, and Allah has written for you (this state) as He has written it for them. Keep on with your intentions for Hajj and Allah may reward you for that.’” ‘Aishah further added, “Then we proceeded for Hajj till we reached Minâ and I became clean from my menses. Then, I went out from Minā and performed ʿTawāf round the Kaʿbah." ʿĀishah added, "I went along with the Prophet  in his final departure (from ʿHajj) till he dismounted at Al-Muḥāṣṣab (a valley outside Makkah) and we, too, dismounted with him." He called 'Abdūr-Rahmān bin Abī Bakr and said to him, 'Take your sister outside the sanctuary of Makkah and let her assume ʿIḥrām for ʿUmra, and when you had finished ʿUmra, return to this place and I will wait for you both till you both return to me.'" ʿĀishah added, "So we went out of the sanctuary of Makkah and after finishing from the ʿUmra and the ʿTawāf, we returned to the Prophet  at dawn. He said, 'Have you performed the ʿUmra?' We replied in the affirmative. So, he announced the departure amongst his Companions and the people set out for the journey, and the Prophet  too left for Al-Madīnah."

(34) CHAPTER. What is said regarding ʿHajj-at-Tamattuʿ, ʿHajj-al-Qīrān, and ʿHajj-al-Ifrād.\(^{(1)}\)

And whoever has not brought the Ḥady with him, he should finish the Ḥārām of ʿḤajj, and make it as ʿUmra, (and then assume another Ḥārām for ʿḤajj from Makkah, etc.).

1561. Narrated Al-Aswād: ʿĀishah ʿrūṣiyya al-ḥaqqah ʿannā said, "We went out with the Prophet  (from Al-Madīnah) with the intention of performing ʿḤajj only, and when we reached Makkah we performed ʿTawāf round the

(1) (Ch.34) There are three various ways of performing ʿḤajj - as follows:

a) ʿHajj-at-Tamattuʿ: It means that you have no Ḥady with you and you assume Ḥārām only for ʿUmra first and after ʿUmra you finish your Ḥārām and assume another Ḥārām for performing ʿḤajj, from Makkah, but you have to slaughter a Ḥady (an animal for sacrifice).

b) ʿHajj-al-Qīrān: It means that one should have a Ḥady with him and should perform ʿUmra and then ʿḤajj with the same state of Ḥārām.

c) ʿHajj-al-Ifrād: It means that one assumes Ḥārām with the intention of performing ʿḤajj only and does not perform ʿUmra, and this is specially for the inhabitants of Makkah.
Ka'bah(1) and then the Prophet ﷺ ordered those who had not driven the Hady along with them to finish their Iḥrām. So, the people who had not driven the Hady along with them finished their Iḥrām. The Prophet’s wives, too, had not driven the Hady with them, so, they too, finished their Iḥrām”. ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها added, “I got my menses and could not perform Tawāf round the Ka’bah.” So when it was the night of Ḥāsba (i.e., when we stopped at Al-Muḥāṣṣab), I said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Everyone is returning after performing Hajj and ‘Umra but I am returning after performing Hajj only.’ He said, ‘Didn’t you perform Tawāf round the Ka’bah the night we reached Makkah?’ I replied in the negative. He said, ‘Go with your brother to Ta‘īm and assume the Iḥrām for ‘Umra, (and after performing it) come back (to such and such a place). On that Ṣafiyah said, ‘I feel that I will detain you all.’ The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘O ‘Aqrā Ḥalqā! 2 Didn’t you perform Tawāf of the Ka’bah on the day of sacrifice? (i.e. Tawāf-al-Ifāda) Ṣafiyah replied in the affirmative. He said, (to Ṣafiyah). ‘There is no harm for you to proceed on with us.’ ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها added, “(After returning from ‘Umra), the Prophet ﷺ met me while he was ascending (from Makkah) and I was descending to it, or I was ascending and he was descending.”

1562. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: We set out with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ (to Makkah) in the year of the Prophet’s last Hajj. Some of us had assumed Iḥrām for ‘Umra only, some for both Hajj and ‘Umra, and others for Hajj only. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ

---

(1) (H.1561) ‘Aishah did not perform that Tawāf. Here she means by “we” her companions.

(2) (H.1561) ‘Aqrā Ḥalqā is just an exclamatory expression, the literal meaning of which is not meant here. It expresses disapproval.
assumed Ḥārām for Ḥajj. So, whoever had assumed Ḥārām for Ḥajj or for both Ḥajj and ‘Umra did not finish the Ḥārām till the day of sacrifice. (See Ahadith Nos. 1560, 1565, and 1568).

1563. Narrated Marwān bin Al-Ḥakam: I saw ‘Uthmān and ‘Alī. ‘Uthman used to forbid people to perform Ḥajj-al-Tamttu’ and Ḥajj-al-Qiran (Ḥajj and ‘Umra together), and when ‘Alī saw (this act of ‘Uthmān), he assumed Ḥārām for Ḥajj and ‘Umra together saying, “Labbaik for ‘Umra and Ḥajj together,” and said, “I will not leave Aṣ-Ṣunna of the Prophet ﷺ on the saying of somebody.”

1564. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The people (of the Pre-İslamic Period of Ignorance) used to think that to perform ‘Umra during the months of Ḥajj was one of the major sins on earth. And they also used to consider the month of Ṣafar as a forbidden (i.e. sacred) month and they used to say, “When the wounds of the camel’s back heal up (after they return from Ḥajj) and the signs of those wounds vanish and the month of Ṣafar passes away then (at that time) ‘Umra is permissible for the one who wishes to perform it.” In the morning of the 4th of Dhul-Hijjah, the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions reached Makkah, assuming Ihram for Hajj, and he ordered his Companions to make their intentions of the Ihram for 'Umra only (instead of Hajj), so they considered his order as something great and were puzzled, and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What kind (of finishing) of Ihram is allowed?” The Prophet replied, “Finish the Ihram completely like a non-Muhrim (you are allowed everything).”

1565. Narrated Abū Mūsā ‘Abd Allāh ibn ‘Abd Allāh ibn ‘Umayr: I came to the Prophet (from Yemen and was assuming Ihram for Hajj) and he ordered me to finish the Ihram (after performing the ‘Umra).

1566. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar (from Yemen and was assuming Ihram for Hajj) and he ordered me to finish the Ihram (after performing the ‘Umra).”

1567. Narrated Shu‘bā Abū Jamra Naṣr b. ‘Imrān Ad-Dub‘a‘ī said, “I intended to perform Hajj-at-Tamattu’ and the people advised me not to do so. I asked Ibn ‘Abbās regarding it and he ordered me to perform Hajj-at-Tamattu’. Later I saw in a dream someone saying to me, ‘Hajj-Mabrūr’ (Hajj performed in accordance with the Prophet’s Sunna without committing sins, and accepted by Allâh) and an accepted 'Umra.' So I told that dream to Ibn 'Abbas. He said, 'This is As-Sunna of Abul-Qâsim.' Then he said to me, 'Stay with me and I shall give you a portion of my property.'" I (Shu'ba) asked, "Why (did he invite you)?" He (Abu Jamra) said, "Because of the dream which I had seen."

1568. Narrated Abû Shihâb: I left for Makkah for Hajj-at-Tamattu' assuming Ihram for 'Umra. I reached Makkah three days before the day of Tarwiya (8th Dhul-Hijjah). Some people of Makkah said to me, "Your Hajj will be like the Hajj performed by the people of Makkah (i.e., you will lose the superiority of assuming Ihram from the Miqât)." So I went to 'Atâ' asking him his view about it. He said, "Jâbir bin 'Abdullâh narrated tome, 'I performed Hajj with Allah's Messenger on the day when he drove camels with him. The people had assumed Ihram for Hajj-al-Ifrâd. The Prophet ordered them to finish their Ihram after Tawaf round the Ka'bah, and [Sa'y (going)] between As-Safa and Al-Marwa and to cut short their hair and then to stay there (in Makkah) as non-Mahrims till the day of Tarwiya (i.e. 8th of Dhul-Hijjah) when they should assume Ihram for Hajj and they were ordered to make the Ihram with which they had come, for 'Umra only. They asked, 'How can we make it 'Umra (Tamattu) as we have intended to perform Hajj?' The Prophet said, 'Do what I have ordered you. Had I not brought the Hady with me, I would have done the same, but I cannot finish my Ihram till the Hady reaches its destination (i.e., is slaughtered'.) So, they did (what he ordered them to do)."
1569. Narrated Sa’id bin Al-Musaiyab: ‘Ali and ‘Uthmān differed regarding Ḥajj-at-Tamattu’ while they were at ‘Usfān (a familiar place near Makkah). ‘Ali said, “I see you want to forbid the people to do a thing that the Prophet did?” When ‘Ali saw that, he assumed Ihram for both Ḥajj and ‘Umra.

(35) CHAPTER. The Taḥliya for Ḥajj and the mention of the intention of performing Ḥajj along with Taḥliya.

1570. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdul-lāah: We came with Allāh’s Messenger (to Makkah) and we were saying: Labbaika Allāhumma labbaik for Ḥajj. Allāh’s Messenger ordered us to perform ‘Umra with that Ihram (instead of Ḥajj).

(36) CHAPTER. Ḥajj-at-Tamattu’ during the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger

1571. Narrated ‘Imrān: We performed Ḥajj-at-Tamattu’ in the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger and then the Qur’ān was revealed (regarding Ḥajj-at-Tamattu’) and somebody said what he wished (regarding Ḥajj-at-Tamattu’) according to his own opinion(1).

(37) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

(1) (H.1571) The person meant here was ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb (Fath Al-Bārī).
“This is for him whose family is not present at the Al-Masjid-al-Haram (i.e. non-resident of Makkah).” (V.2:196).

1572. Ibn ‘Abbas L4i. ‘W-...’ said that he had been asked regarding Hajj-at-Tamattu’ on which he said, “The Muhãjirîn (emigrants) and the Ansâr and the wives of the Prophet and we did the same. When we reached Makkah, Allãh’s Messenger said, “Give up your intention of doing the Hajj (at this moment) and perform ‘Umra, except the one who has garlanded the Hady.”

So, we performed Tawãf round the Ka’bah and [Sa’y (going)] between Aûs-Safã and Al-Marwa, slept with our wives and wore ordinary (stitched) clothes. The Prophet added, “Whoever has garlanded his Hady is not allowed to finish the Ihram till the Hady has reached its destination (has been sacrificed)”. Then on the night of Tarwiya (8th Dhul-Hijjah, in the afternoon) he ordered us to assume Ihram for Hajj and when we have performed all the ceremonies of Hajj, we came and performed Tawãf round the Ka’bah and (Sa’y) between Aûs-Safã and Al-Marwa, and then our Hajj was complete, and we had to sacrifice a Haûy according to the Statement of Allãh:

“... He must slaughter a Hady such as he can afford, but if he cannot afford it, he should observe Saum (fasts) three days during the Hajj and seven days after his return (to his home)...” (V.2:196)

And the sacrifice of a sheep is sufficient. So, the Prophet and his Companions joined the two religious deeds, (i.e. Hajj and ‘Umra) in one year, for Allãh revealed (the permissibility) of such practice in His Book and in the Sunna (legal ways) of His Prophet and rendered it permissible for all the people except those living in Makkah. Allãh says: ‘This is for him whose family is not present at the Al-Masjid-al-Haram (i.e. non-resident of Makkah).’” (V.2:196) present at the Al-Masjid-al-Ḥarām, (i.e. non-resident of Makkah)." The months of Ḥajj which Allāh mentioned in His Book are: Shawwāl, Dhul-Qa'da and Dhul-Hijjah. Whoever performed Ḥajj-at-Tamattu' in those months, then slaughtering or fasting is compulsory for him.

(38) CHAPTER. Taking a bath on entering Makkah.

1573. Narrated Nāfi': On reaching the sanctuary of Makkah, Ibn ‘Umar ῥ ﺹ used to stop reciting Talbiya and then he would pass the night at Dhi-Tuwā(1) and then offer the Fajr prayers and take a bath. He used to say that the Prophet ﷺ used to do the same.

(39) CHAPTER. To enter Makkah by day or by night.

The Prophet ﷺ passed the night at Dhi-Tuwā(1) till it was dawn and then entered Makkah in the morning, and Ibn ‘Umar ῥ ﺹ used to do the same.

1574. Narrated Nāfi’ Ibn ‘Umar ῥ ﺹ said, “The Prophet ﷺ passed the night at Dhi-Tuwā till it was dawn and then he entered Makkah.” Ibn ‘Umar ῥ ﺹ used to do the same.

(1) (H.1573) Dhi-Tuwā is the name of one of the valleys (district) of Makkah where there is a well-known well in it (district). In the lifetime of the Messenger ﷺ, Makkah was a small city and this district was outside its precincts. Now-a-days Makkah is a larger city and the district is within its boundary.
1575. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger used to enter Makkah from the Thaniya-til-‘Ulia and used to leave Makkah from the Thaniya-tis-Sufla:\(^1\)

1576. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger entered Makkah from Kada’ from the (high) Thaniya-til-‘Ulia which is at Al-Batha’ and used to leave Makkah from the Thaniya-tis-Sufla.

---

\(^1\) (H.1575) Any obstacle or highway (between two hills) on a mountain is called Thaniya.
1577. Narrated ‘Aishah: When the Prophet came to Makkah he entered from its higher side and left from its lower side.

1578. Narrated ‘Aishah: In the year of the conquest of Makkah, the Prophet entered Makkah from Kadã and left Makkah from Kudan, from the higher part of Makkah.

1579. Narrated ‘Aisha: In the year of the conquest of Makkah, the Prophet entered Makkah from Kadã at the higher place of Makkah. (Hishâm, a subnarrator said, “‘Urwa used to enter (Makkah) from both Kadã which was nearer to his dwelling place.”)

1580. Narrated Hishâm: ‘Urwa said, “The Prophet entered Makkah in the year of the conquest of Makkah from the side of Kadã which is at the higher part to Makkah.” ‘Urwa often entered from Kadã which was nearer of the two to his dwelling place.
1581. Narrated Hishâm’s father: In the year of the conquest of Makkah, the Prophet entered Makkah from the side of Kada’. ‘Urwa used to enter through both places, and he often entered through Kada’ which was nearer of the two to his dwelling place.

(42) CHAPTER. The superiority of Makkah and its buildings, and the statement of Allah "And (remember) when We made the House (the Ka'bah at Makkah) a place of resort for mankind, and a place of safety. And take you (people) the Maqâm (place) of Ibrâhîm (Abraham) [or the stone on which Abraham (Hebrew: אברם) stood while he was building the Ka'bah] as a place of prayer (for some of your prayer, e.g. two Rak'â of Tawâf of Ka'bah) and We commanded Abraham and Ismâ'il (Ishmael) that they should purify My House (the Ka'bah) for those who are circumambulating it, or staying (I’tikâf), or bowing down or prostrating themselves (there, in prayer). And (remember) when Ibrâhîm said: ‘My Lord! Make this city (Makkah) a place of security, and provide its people with fruits, such of them as believe in Allah and the Last Day.’ He (Allah) answered: ‘As for him who disbelieves, I shall leave him in contentment for a while, then I shall compel him to the torment of Fire, and worst indeed is that destination.’ And (remember) when Ibrâhîm and (his son) Ismâ’il were raising the foundations of the House (the Ka'bah) (saying), ‘Our Lord! Accept (this service) from us. Verily! You are the All-Hearer, the All-Knower. Our Lord, make us submissive unto You and of our offspring a nation submissive to You, and show us our Manasik" (1) (all the ceremonies of pilgrimage – Hajj and 'Umra etc.). And accept our repentance. Truly! You are the One Who accepts repentance, the Most Merciful." (V.2:125-128)

1582. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: When the Ka'bah was built, the Prophet and Al-'Abbās went to bring stones (for its construction). Al-'Abbās said to the Prophet, “Take off your waist sheet and put it on your neck.” (When the Prophet took it off) he fell on the ground with his eyes open towards the sky and said, “Give me my waist sheet.” And he covered himself with it.

1583. Narrated ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet, that Allah’s Messenger said to her, “Do you know that when your people (Quraish) rebuilt the Ka'bah, they reduced it from its original foundation laid by Ibrāhīm (Abraham)?” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Why don’t you rebuild it on its original foundation laid by Ibrahim?” He replied, “Were it not for the fact that your people are close to the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance (i.e., they have recently become Muslims), I would have done so.” The subnarrator, ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar) stated: ‘Āishah must have heard this from Allah’s Messenger, for in my opinion Allah’s Messenger had not placed his hand over the two corners of the Ka'bah opposite Al-Hijr only because the Ka'bah was not rebuilt on its original foundations laid by Ibrāhīm.

1584. Narrated 'Āishah: I asked the Prophet whether the round wall (near Ka'bah) was part of the Ka'bah. The Prophet replied in the affirmative. I further said, "What is wrong with them, why have they not included it in the building of the Ka'bah?" He said, "Don't you see that your people (Quraish) ran short of money (so they could not include it inside the building of Ka'bah)?" I asked, "What about its gate? Why is it so high?" He replied, "Your people did this so as to admit into it whomever they liked and prevent whomever they liked. Were your people not close to the Period of Ignorance (i.e., they have recently embraced Islam) and were I not afraid that they would dislike it, surely I would have included the (area of the) wall inside the building of the Ka'bah, and I would have lowered its gate to the level of the ground."

1585. Narrated 'Āishah: Allah's Messenger said to me, "Were your people not close to the Period of Ignorance, I would have demolished the Ka'bah and would have rebuilt it on its original foundations laid by Ibrāhīm (Abraham) (for Quraish had reduced its building), and I would have built a back door (too)."
1586. Narrated ‘Urwa: ‘Aishah Ṭabariyyah said to her, “O Aishah! Were your people not close to the Period of Ignorance, I would have had the Ka’bah demolished and would have included in it the portion which had been left, and would have made it at a level with the ground and would have made two doors for it; one towards the east and the other towards the west, and then by doing this it would have been built on the foundations laid by (the Prophet) Ibrāhim (Abraham).” That was what urged Ibn-Az-Zubair when he demolished and rebuilt the Ka’bah and included in it a portion of Al-Hijr (the unroofed portion of Ka’bah which is at present in the form of a compound towards the north-west of the Ka’bah). I saw the original foundations laid by Ibrāhim which were of stones resembling the humps of camels.” So Jarir asked Yazid, “Where was the place of those stones?” Yazid said, “I will just now show it to you.” So Jarir accompanied Yazid and entered Al-Hijr, and Yazid pointed to a place and said, “Here it is.” Jarir said, “It appeared to me about six cubits from Al-Hijr or so.”

(43) CHAPTER. The superiority of the Haram (of Makkah).

And the Statement of Allāh (swt) is: “[O Prophet! Say to them:] I (Muhammad s) have been commanded only to worship the Lord of this city (Makkah), Who sanctified it and to Whom belongs everything. And I am commanded to be from among the Muslims (those who submit to Allāh in
And the Statement of Allāh:

"...Have We not established for them a secure sanctuary (Makkah), to which are brought fruits of all kinds – a provision from Ourselves, but most of them know not."

(V.28:57)

1587. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: On the day of the conquest of Makkah, Allāh’s Messenger said, “Allāh has made this town a sanctuary. Its thorny bushes should not be cut, its game should not be chased, and its Luqṭa (fallen things) should not be picked up except by one who would announce it publicly.”

(44) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the inheritance, sale and purchase of the houses of Makkah. All the people have an equal right for Al-Masjid-al-Harām especially by virtue of the Statement of Allāh:

“Verily! Those who disbelieved and hinder (men) from the Path of Allāh, and from Al-Masjid-al-Harām (at Makkah) which We have made (open) to (all) men, the dweller in it and the visitor from the country are equal there [as regards its sanctity and pilgrimage Ḥajj and ’Umra]. And whoever inclines to evil action in it, and do wrong (i.e. practise polytheism and leave Islāmic Monotheism), him We shall cause to taste from a painful torment.” (V.22:25).

Talib had inherited the property of Abu Talib. Ja'far and Ali did not inherit anything as they were Muslims while Aqil and Talib were disbelievers. Umar bin Al-Khattab used to say, "A believer cannot inherit (anything from a) disbeliever." Ibn Shihab, (a sub-narrator) said, "They (Umar and others) derived the above verdict from Allah Statement:

‘Verily, those who believed, and emigrated and strove hard and fought with their property and their lives in the Cause of Allah, as well as those who gave (them) asylum and help – these are (all) allies to one another’." (V.8:72)

(45) CHAPTER. The residence of the Prophet в in Makkah.

1589. Narrated Abu Hurairah: When Allah's Messenger в intended to enter Makkah he said, "Our destination tomorrow, if Allah will, shall be Khayf Banu Kinana where (the Mushrikün) had taken the oath of Kufr." (Against the Prophet в i.e., to be loyal to heathenism by boycotting Banu Hashim, the Prophet's folk). (See Hadith No. 3882 Vol. 5).

1590. Narrated Abu Hurairah: On the day of Nahr at Mina, the Prophet в said, "Tomorrow we shall stay at Khaif Bani Kināna where the Mushrikūn had taken the oath of Kufr (i.e. to be loyal to heathenism)."
He meant (by that place) Al-Muḥāṣṣabah where the Quraish tribe and Bani Kināna concluded a contract against Banī Hāshim and Banī 'Abdul-Muṭṭalib or Banī Al-Muṭṭalib that they would not intermarry with them or deal with them in business until they handed over the Prophet ﷺ to them.

(46) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh:
"And (remember) when Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said: 'O my Lord! Make this city (Makkah) one of peace and security, and keep me and my sons away from worshipping idols. O my Lord! They have indeed led astray many among mankind. But whoso follows me, he verily is of me. And whoso disobeys me – still You are indeed Oft Forgiving, Most Merciful. O our Lord! I have made some of my offspring to dwell in an uncultivable valley by Your Sacred House (the Ka'bah at Makkah); in order, O our Lord, that they may perform As-Salāt (Iqāmat-as-Salāt). So fill some hearts among men with love towards them..."' (V.14 :35-37)
(47) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

"Allâh has made the Ka'bah, the Sacred House, an asylum of security and benefits [e.g., Hajj and 'Umra (pilgrimage)] for mankind, and also the Sacred Month, and the animals of offerings, and the garlanded (people or animals, marked with garlands on their necks made from the outer parts of the stems of Makkah trees for their security) that you may know that Allâh has knowledge of all that is in the heavens and all that is in the earth, and that Allâh is the All-Knower of each and every thing." (V.5:97)

1591. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, "Qhus-Suwaiqatain (literally: One with two thin legs) from Ethiopia will demolish the Ka'bah."

1592. Narrated 'Aishah: The people used to observe Saum (fast) on 'Ashūra' (the tenth day of the month of Muḥarram) before the fasting of Ramadān was made obligatory. And on that day, the Ka'bah used to be covered with a cover. When Allâh made the fasting of the month of Ramadān compulsory, Allâh's Messenger said, "Whoever wishes to observe Saum (fast) (on the day of 'Ashūra') may do so; and whoever wishes to leave it can do so."
1593. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The people will continue performing the Hajj and ‘Umra to the Ka'bah even after the coming out of Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj (Gog and Magog).”

The subnarrator Shu’ba added, “The Hour (Day of Judgement) will not be established till the Hajj (to the Ka'bah) is abandoned.

(48) CHAPTER. The covering of the Ka'bah.

1594. Narrated Abū Wā'il: (One day) I sat along with Shaiba on the chair inside the Ka'bah. He (Shaiba) said, “No doubt ‘Umar رضي الله عنه sat at this place and said, ‘I intended not to leave any yellow (i.e. gold) or white (i.e. silver) (inside the Ka'bah) undistributed.’ I said (to ‘Umar), ‘But your two companions (i.e. the Prophet ﷺ and Abū Bakr) did not do so.’ ‘Umar said, ‘They are the two persons whom I always follow.’”
(49) CHAPTER. The demolishing of the Ka'bah.

‘Aishah said that the Prophet said, "An army will attack the Ka'bah and that army will sink down in the earth."

1595. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: The Prophet said, "As if I am looking at him, a black person with thin legs plucking out the stones of the Ka'bah one after another."

1596. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "Qhus-Suwaqatain (the thin-legged man) from Ethiopia will demolish the Ka'bah."

(50) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the Black Stone.

1597. Narrated ‘Abis bin Rabī‘a: ‘Umar came near the Black Stone and kissed it and said, "No doubt, I know that you are a stone and can neither harm (anyone) nor benefit anyone. Had I not seen Allah's Messenger kissing you, I would not have kissed you."
(51) CHAPTER. Closing the door of the Ka'bah and (the permissibility) of offering Salāt (prayer) at any place in it.

1598. Narrated Sālim that his father said, “Allāh’s Messenger, Usāma bin Zaid, Bilāl, and ‘Uthman bin Ṭalhā entered the Ka'bah and then closed its door. When they opened the door I was the first person to enter (the Ka'bah). I met Bilāl and asked him, “Did Allāh’s Messenger offer a Salāt (prayer) inside (the Ka'bah)?” Bilāl replied in the affirmative and said, “(The Prophet offered Salāt) in between the two right pillars.”

(52) CHAPTER. Offering Aş-Salāt (the prayers) inside the Ka'bah.

1599. Narrated Nāfī': Whenever Ibn 'Umar entered the Ka'bah he used to walk straight, keeping the door at his back on entering; and used to proceed on till about three cubits from the wall in front of him, and then he would offer prayers there aiming at the place where Allāh’s Messenger offered prayers according to the information of Bilāl.

And there is no harm for any person to offer Salāt (prayer) at any place inside the Ka'bah.

(53) CHAPTER. Whoever did not enter the Ka'bah, and Ibn 'Umar used to perform Hajj frequently without entering the Ka'bah.

1600. Narrated Ismã'il bin Abû Khãlid: ‘Abdullãh bin AbU Aufa: "Allah’s Messenger \(\text{id} \) performed the Umra. He performed Tawaf of the Ka'bah and offered two Rak'a behind the Maqâm [Ibrâhiim (Abraham’s) place] and was accompanied by those who were screening him from the people." Somebody asked ‘Abdullãh, "Did Allah’s Messenger \(\text{id} \) enter the Ka'bah?" ‘Abdullãh replied in the negative.(1)

(54) CHAPTER. Saying Takbir (Allâh is the Most Great) inside the Ka'bah.

1601. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: When Allah’s Messenger \(\text{id} \) came to Makkah, he refused to enter the Ka'bah with idols in it. He ordered (idols to be taken out). So they were taken out. The people took out the pictures of Ibrâhiim (Abraham) and Isma’il (Ishmael) holding Azlâm in their hands. Allah’s Messenger \(\text{id} \) said, "May Allah Curse these people. By Allah, both Ibrâhiim and Isma’il never did the game of chance with Azlâm.” Then he entered the Ka'bah and said Takbir at its corners but did not offer the Salât (prayer) in it.

(1) (H. 1600) This means that the Prophet \(\text{id} \) did not enter the Ka'bah when he performed that particular Umra perhaps because it contained idols or because he was afraid of being prevented by the pagans from entering it.
(55) CHAPTER. How (the legality of) the Ramal(1) started.

1602. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs ﷺ: When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and his Companions came to Makkah, the Mushrikin circulated the news that a group of people were coming to them and they had been weakened by the fever of Yathrib (Al-Madina). So the Prophet ﷺ ordered his Companions to do Ramal in the first three rounds of Tawaf of the Ka’bah, and to walk between the two corners (the Yemenite corner and the Black Stone). The Prophet ﷺ did not order them to do Ramal in all the rounds of Tawaf out of pity for them.

(56) CHAPTER. The touching (and kissing) of the Black Stone on reaching Makkah during the first round of Tawaf of the Ka’bah, and doing Ramal in the first three rounds (of Tawaf).

1603. Narrated Sālim that his father said: I saw Allah’s Messenger ﷺ arriving at Makkah; he kissed the Black Stone corner first while doing Tawaf and did Ramal in the first three rounds of the seven rounds (of Tawaf).

(57) CHAPTER. Doing Ramal in performing Tawaf during Hajj and ‘Umra.

(1) (Ch.55) Ramal: See the glossary.
1604. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: The Prophet  did Ramal in (first) three rounds (of Tawãf), and walked in the remaining four, in Ḥajj and ‘Umra.

1605. Narrated Zaid bin Aslam that his father said, “‘Umar bin Al-Khãtãb addressed the corner (Black Stone) saying, ‘By Allãh! I know that you are a stone and can neither benefit nor harm. Had I not seen the Prophet touching (and kissing) you, I would never have touched (and kissed) you.’ Then he kissed it and said, ‘There is no reason for us to do Ramal (in Tawãf) except that we wanted to show off before the Mushrikûn, and now Allãh has destroyed them.’ ‘Umar added, ‘(Nevertheless) the Prophet  did that and we do not want to leave it (i.e. Ramal).’”

1606. Narrated Nãfi‘: Ibn ‘Umar said, “I have never missed the touching of these two corners of Ka‘bah (the Black Stone and the Yemenite Corner) both in the presence and the absence of crowds, since I saw the Prophet  touching them.” (The subnarrator asked Nãfi‘:) “Did Ibn ‘Umar use to walk between the two corners?” Nãfi‘ replied, “He used to walk in order that it might be easy for him to touch it (the corner).”
(58) CHAPTER. Touching the Corner (Black Stone) with a bent-headed stick.

1607. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās رضي الله عنهما:
The Prophet ﷺ performed Tawf of the Ka'bah riding a camel in his last Hajj and touched the (Black Stone) Corner with a bent-headed stick.

(59) CHAPTER. Whoever did not touch except the two Yemenite Corners of the Ka'bah.

1608. Abū Ash-Sha'tha said, "Who keeps away from some portion of the Ka'bah?"
Mu'āwiya used to touch the four corners of the Ka'bah, Ibn 'Abbās رضي الله عنها said to him, "These two corners (the ones facing the Hijr) are not to be touched." Mu'āwiya said, "Nothing is untouchable in the Ka'bah." And Ibn Az-Zubair used to touch all the corners of the Ka'bah.

1609. Narrated Sālim bin 'Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما that his father said, "I have not seen the Prophet ﷺ touching except the two Yemenite Corners (i.e. the ones facing Yemen)."
(60) CHAPTER. To kiss the Black Stone.

1610. Narrated Zaid bin Aslam that his father said, “I saw ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab kissing the Black Stone and he then said (to it), ‘Had I not seen Allah’s Messenger kissing you (stone), I would not have kissed you.’”

1611. Narrated Aq-Zubair bin ‘Arabi: A man asked Ibn ‘Umar about the touching of the Black Stone. Ibn ‘Umar said, “I saw Allâh’s Messenger touching and kissing it.” The questioner said, “But if there were a throng (much rush) round the Ka‘bah and the people overpowered me, (what would I do?)” He replied angrily, “Stay in Yemen (as that man was from Yemen). I saw Allâh’s Messenger touching and kissing it.”

(61) CHAPTER. Whoever pointed towards the Corner (Black Stone) on coming in front of it (while performing Tawâf).

1612. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet performed Tawâf of the Ka‘bah while riding a camel, and whenever he came in front of the Corner, he pointed towards it.
(62) CHAPTER. To say Takbîr (Allâh is the Most Great) on coming in front of the Corner (having the Black Stone).

1613. Narrated Ibn `Abbâs: The Prophet رضي الله عنهما performed Tawâf of the Ka'bah riding a camel, and every time he came in front of the Corner (having the Black Stone), he pointed towards it with something he had with him and said Takbîr.

(63) CHAPTER. Whoever performed Tawâf of the Ka'bah on reaching Makkah before going to his house then offered two Rak'a and then went towards As-Ṣafâ.

1614, 1615. Narrated `Urwa: `Āishah رضي الله عنها said, "The first thing the Prophet رضي الله عنه did on reaching Makkah was the ablution and then he performed Tawâf of the Ka'bah and that was not 'Umra (alone), (but *Hajj-al-Qirân")." `Urwa added: Later Abû Bakr and 'Umar رضي الله عنهما did the same in their Hajj. And I performed the Hajj with my father Az-Zubair رضي الله عنه, and the first thing he did was Tawâf of the Ka'bah. Later I saw the Al-Muhājirîn (Emigrants) and the Anṣâr doing the same. My mother (Asmâ') told me that she, her sister ('Āishah), Az-Zubair and such and such persons assumed Ihram for 'Umra, and after they passed their hands over the Black Stone Corner (of the Ka'bah) they finished the Ihram (i.e., after doing Tawâf of the Ka'bah and Sa'y between As-Ṣafâ and Al-Marwâ).
1616. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar: When Allah’s Messenger performed Tawāf of the Ka’bah for Hajj or ‘Umra, he used to do Ramal during the first three rounds, and in the last four rounds he used to walk; then after the Tawāf he offered two Rak‘ā prayer and then performed Saytawaf between Aš-Šafā and Al-Marwa.

1617. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: When the Prophet performed the Tawāf of the Ka’bah, he did Ramal during the first three rounds and in the last four rounds he used to walk and while doing Sa’y - Tawaf between Aš-Šafā and Al-Marwa, he used to run in the midst of the rain water passage.

(64) CHAPTER. The Tawaf of women and men.

1618. Ibn Juraij said, ‘‘Aţâ’ informed us that when Ibn Hishām forbade women to perform Tawaf with men he said to him, ‘How do you forbid them while the wives of the Prophet used to perform Tawaf with the men?’ I said, ‘Was this before decreeing the use of the veil or after it?’ ‘Aţâ’ took an oath and said, ‘I saw it after the order of veil.’ I said, ‘How did they mix with the men?’
‘Atä’ said, 'The women never mixed with the men, and 'Aishah used to perform Tawaf separately and never mixed with the men. (Once it happened that 'Aishah was performing the Tawaf and a woman said to her, 'O Mother of believers! Let us touch the Black Stone.' 'Aishah said to her, 'Go yourself,' and she herself refused to do so.

The wives of the Prophet used to come out at night, in disguise and used to perform Tawaf with the men. But whenever they intended to enter the Ka'bah, they would stay outside till the men had gone out. I and 'Ubaid bin 'Umair used to visit 'Aishah while she was residing at Jauf Thabir." I asked, "What was her veil?" ‘Atä’ said, "She was wearing an old Turkish veil, and that was the only thing (veil) which was a screen between us and her. I saw a pink cover on her."

1619. Narrated Umm Salama: I informed Allah’s Messenger about my sickness. So he said, "Perform the Tawaf while riding behind the people." I did so, and at that time the Prophet was offering Salât (prayer) beside the Ka'bah and reciting Sûrat 'Al-Furqân.

(1) (Ch. 1618) Men and women used to perform Tawaf at the same time without mixing with each other.
(65) CHAPTER. The permissibility of talking during the Tawaf of the Ka'bah.

1620. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: While the Prophet was performing Tawaf of the Ka'bah, he passed by a person who had tied his hands to another person with a rope or string or something like that. The Prophet cut it with his own hands and said, “Lead him by the hand.”

(66) CHAPTER. Whoever saw a string or something like that during the Tawaf and disliked it and cut it.

1621. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: The Prophet saw a man performing Tawaf of the Ka'bah tied with a string or something else. So the Prophet cut that string.

(67) CHAPTER. It is neither permissible for a naked person to perform Tawaf of the Ka'bah nor for a Mushrik [polytheist, pagan, idolater, and disbeliever in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ)] to perform Hajj.

1622. Narrated Abū Hurairah: In the year prior to the last Hajj of the Prophet when Allah's Messenger made Abū Bakr the leader of the pilgrims, the latter (Abū Bakr) sent me in the company of a group of people to make a public announcement (proclaiming): “No Mushrik: [polytheist, pagan, idolater, and disbeliever in the Oneness of Allâh and in His Messenger Muhammad (S.A.W.)] is allowed to perform Hajj after this year, and no naked person is allowed to perform Tawâf of the Ka’bah.” (See Hadîth No.369, Vol.1)

(68) CHAPTER. If one stops during the Tawâf (should he start from the beginning?).

‘Aþã’ said, “If a person is performing the Tawâf and the call for the Salât (prayer) is made and the Salât starts or he is pushed from his place; after finishing the Salât he should return and start from where he had stopped.” The same is narrated by Ibn ‘Umar and ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Abû Bakr رضي الله عنهم.

(69) CHAPTER. The Prophet ﷺ offered a two Rak‘ã prayer after his seven rounds (of Tawâf of the Ka’bah).

Narrated Nâfi’: Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهم used to offer a two Rak‘ã prayer after every seven rounds. And Ismã’il bin Umaiyya said, “I told Az-Zuhri that ‘Aþã’ said, ‘The compulsory Salât (prayer) dispenses with the two Rak‘ã prayer of Tawâf.’ Az-Zuhri said, ‘It is better to follow legal way (of the Prophet ﷺ). The Prophet ﷺ never performed seven rounds of Tawâf but offered a two Rak‘ã prayer (after them).’”

1623. Narrated ‘Amr: We asked Ibn ‘Umar: “Is it permissible for a man to have sexual relations with his wife during the ‘Umra before performing Su’y – Tawâf between As-Safâ and Al-Marwa?” He said, “Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ arrived (in Makkah) and circumambulated the Ka’bah seven times, then offered two Rak‘ã (prayer) behind Maqām-Ibrāhīm (the place of Abraham), then performed Sa'y - Tawāf between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa." Ibn 'Umar added, "Indeed, in the Messenger of Allah (Muhammad ﷺ) you have a good example to follow." (V.33:21)

1624. And I asked Jābīr bin 'Abdullāh رضي الله عنه (the same question), and he replied, "You should not go near your wives (have sexual relations) till you have finished Sa'y - Tawāf between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa."

(70) CHAPTER. Whoever did not go near the Ka'bah and did not perform Tawāf of the Ka'bah after the first Tawāf performed on entering Makkah till he proceeded to 'Arafāt and returned.

1625. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ arrived at Makkah and performed Tawāf of the Ka'bah and Sa'y between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa, but he did not go near the Ka'bah after his Tawāf till he returned from 'Arafāt.

(71) CHAPTER. Whoever offered two Rak'ā prayer of Tawāf outside the mosque.

'Umar offered the prayer outside the Haram (the Sacred Mosque).

1626. Narrated Umm Salama رضي الله عنها, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: I informed Allah's Messenger ﷺ (about my illness). Through other subnarrators, Umm Salama رضي الله عنها narrated that when Allah's Messenger was at Makkah and decided to depart (from Makkah) while she had not yet done Tawaf of the Ka'bah (and after listening to her), the Prophet said, “When the morning Salat (prayer) is established, perform the Tawaf on your camel while the people are in Salat.” So she did the same and did not offer the two Rak'a of Tawaf until she came out of the Mosque.

(72) CHAPTER. Whoever offered the two Rak'a (prayer) of Tawaf behind Maqam-Ibrahim (place of Abraham).

1627. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet reached Makkah, (did the Tawaf) circumambulated the Ka'bah seven times and then offered a two Rak'a prayer behind Maqam-Ibrahim. Then he went towards As-Safâ. Allâh تعالى said, “Indeed, in the Messenger of Allâh (Muhammad) you have a good example to follow.” (V.33:21)

(73) CHAPTER. To perform Tawaf (of the Ka'bah) after the morning and 'Asr prayer.

Ibn ‘Umar used to offer the two Rak'a prayer of Tawaf before sunrise. and ‘Umar performed the ََُُّ (of the Ka’bah) after the morning prayer and then rode till he reached Dhi-Tuwã (one of the districts of Makkah) and then offered the two Rak’a (of Tawaf).

1628. Narrated ‘Aishah: Some people performed ََُّ (of the Ka’bah) after the morning ََّ (prayer) and then sat to listen to a preacher till sunrise, and then they stood up for the ََّ (prayer). Then ‘Aishah added, “Those people kept on sitting till it was the time in which the ََّ (prayer) is disliked and after that (when the sun had risen) they stood up for the ََّ (prayer).”

1629. Narrated ‘Abdullah: I heard the Prophet forbidding the offering of ََّ (prayer) at the time of sunrise and sunset.

1630. Narrated ‘Abida bin Ḥumaid: ‘Abdul ‘Azîz bin Rufai said, “I saw ‘Abdullah bin Az-Zubair performing ََُّ of the Ka’bah after the Fajr prayer then offering the two Rak’a ََّ (prayer).”

1631. ‘Abdul ‘Azîz added, “I saw ‘Abdullâh bin Az-Zubair offering a two Rakʽā Salāt after the ‘Asr prayer.” He informed me that ‘Aishah bint Abī Bakr told him that the Prophet used to offer those two Rakʽā prayer whenever he entered her house.”

(74) CHAPTER. A sick person may perform Tawāf (of the Ka'bah) while riding.

1632. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: Allāh’s Messenger performed Tawāf (of the Ka'bah) riding a camel (at that time the Prophet had foot injury). Whenever he came to the Corner (having the Black Stone) he would point out towards it with a thing in his hand and say “Allāhu-Akbar.”

1633. Narrated Umm Salama: I informed Allāh’s Messenger about my sickness. He said, “Perform Tawāf (of the Ka'bah) while riding behind the people.” So, I performed the Tawāf while Allāh’s Messenger was offering the Salāt (prayer) beside the Ka'bah and was reciting Sūrat Al-Taubah.

(75) CHAPTER. Providing the pilgrims with water to drink.

asked the permission of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ to let him stay in Makkah during the nights of Minā (i.e., when one is required to stay in Minā) in order to provide the pilgrims with water to drink, so the Prophet ﷺ permitted him.

So, he drank from that water and then went to the Zamzam (well) and there the people were offering water to the others and working at it (drawing water from the well). The Prophet ﷺ then said to them, “Carry on! You are doing a good deed.” Then he said, “Were I not afraid that other people would compete with you (in drawing water from the Zamzam well), I would certainly take the rope and put it over this (i.e., his shoulder) (to draw water)”. On saying that the Prophet ﷺ pointed to his shoulder.

(76) CHAPTER. What is said about Zamzam (water).

1636. Narrated Anas bin Malik that Abu Dhar رضي الله عنه said: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The roof of my house was made open while I was at Makkah (on the night of Mi'raj) and Jibrīl (Gabriel) ﷺ descended. He opened up my chest and washed it with the water of Zamzam. Then he brought a golden tray full of Wisdom and Belief and poured it in my chest and then closed it. Then he took hold of my hand and ascended to the nearest heaven. Jibril told the gatekeeper of the nearest heaven to open the gate. The gatekeeper asked, “Who is it?” Jibril replied, “I am Jibril.” (See Hadith No. 349, Vol. 1)

1637. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs رضي الله عنهما: I gave Zamzam (water) to Allah’s Messenger سALLAH'S MESSENGER ﷺ and he drank it while standing. ‘Aśim (a subnarrator) said that ‘Ikrima took the oath that on that day the Prophet سALLAH'S MESSENGER ﷺ had not been standing but riding a camel.

(77) CHAPTER. The Ṭawaf of a Al-Qārin (one who performs Ḥajj-al-Qiran).

1638. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: We set out with Allah’s Messenger سALLAH'S MESSENGER ﷺ in the year of his last Ḥajj and we intended (the Ḥīrām) for ‘Umra. Then the Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever has a Ḥady with him should assume Ḥīrām for both Ḥajj and ‘Umra, and should not finish it till he performs both of them (Ḥajj and ‘Umra).” When we reached Makkah, I got my menses. When we had performed our Ḥajj, the Prophet ﷺ sent me with ‘Abdur-Rahmān to Tan‘im and I performed the ‘Umra. The Prophet ﷺ said, “This is in lieu of your missed ‘Umra.” Those who had assumed Ḥīrām for ‘Umra performed Ṭawāf [Sa’y (going) between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwā] and then finished their Ḥīrām. And then they performed another
1640. Narrated Nafi': Ibn 'Umar intended to perform Hajj in the year when Al-Hajjaaj attacked Ibn Az-Zubair. Somebody said to Ibn 'Umar, "There is a danger of an impending battle between them." Ibn 'Umar said, "Verily, in Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) you have a good example to follow." "(And if it happened as you say) then I would do the same as Allah's Messenger ﷺ had done. I make you witness that I have decided to perform ‘Umra.’ Then he set out and when he reached Al-Baidã’, he said, “The ceremonies of both Hajj and ‘Umra are one and the same. I make you witness that I have made Hajj compulsory for me along with ‘Umra.’ He drove (to Makkah) a Hady which he had bought from (a place called) Qudaid and did not do more than that. He did not slaughter the Hady or finish his Ihram, or shave or cut short his hair till the day of slaughtering the sacrifices (10th Dhul-Hijjah). Then he slaughtered his Hady and shaved his head and considered the first Tawaf – Sa’ay (of As-Šafã and Al-Marwa) as sufficient for Hajj and ‘Umra. Ibn ‘Umar said, “Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ did the same.”

(78) CHAPTER. Tawaf with ablation.

1641. Narrated Muhammad bin ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Naufal Al-Qurashi: I asked ‘Urwa bin Az-Šubair (regarding the Hajj of the Prophet ﷺ). ‘Urwa replied, “Aishah ﷺ informed me that when the Prophet ﷺ reached Makkah, the first thing he started with was the ablution, then he performed Tawaf of the Ka’bah, and his intention was not ‘Umra alone (but Hajj and ‘Umra together). Later Abu Bakr performed the Hajj and the first thing he started with was Tawaf of the Ka’bah and it was not ‘Umra alone (but Hajj and ‘Umra together) and then ‘Umar did the same. Then ‘Uthmân performed the Hajj and the first time he started with was Tawaf of the Ka’bah and it was not ‘Umra alone. And then Mu‘awiya and ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar did the same. Then I performed Hajj with my father Az-Šubair bin Al-Awwâm and the first thing he started with was ُتَوَافَ of the Ka'bah and it was not 'Umra alone (but ُهَـَي and 'Umra together). Then I saw Al-Muhājiirin (emigrants) and the Anṣār doing the same and it was not 'Umra alone. And the last person I saw doing the same was Ibn 'Umar, and he did not do another 'Umra after finishing the first. Now here is Ibn 'Umar present amongst the people! They neither ask him nor anyone of the previous ones. And all these people, on entering Makkah, would not start with anything unless they had performed ُتَوَافَ of the Ka'bah, and would not finish their Ihram. And no doubt, I saw my mother and my aunt, on entering Makkah doing nothing before performing ُتَوَافَ of the Ka'bah, and they would not finish their Ihram.”

1642. “And my mother informed me that she, her sister, Az-Zubair and such and such persons had assumed Ihram for 'Umra and after passing their hands over the Corner (the Black Stone) (i.e. finishing their 'Umra) they finished their Ihram.”

(79) CHAPTER. The ُتَوَافَ (Sā’y) between ُعَـَيْفَ and Al-Marwa is compulsory and is one of the Symbols of Allah.

1643. Narrated ‘Urwa: I asked ‘Aishah ُرَضي الله عنها: “How do you interpret the Statement of Allah ُتَبَارَى اعْلَيْهِ نَعْمَاهُ: ‘Verily! ُعَـَيْفَ and Al-Marwa (two mountains in Makkah) are of the Symbols of Allah. So it is not a sin on him who performs ُهَـَي or 'Umra (pilgrimage) of the House (the Ka'bah at Makkah) to perform the going (ُتَوَافَ) between them (ُعَـَيْفَ and Al-Marwa).’
(V.2:158). By Allâh! (It is evident from this revelation) there is no harm if one does not perform Tawâf between Aš-Šafâ and Al-Marwa.” ‘Aishah said, “O, my nephew! Your interpretation is not true. Had this interpretation of yours been correct, the Statement of Allâh should have been: It is not a sin on him if he does not perform Tawâf – Sa’y (going) between them.” But in fact, this Divine Revelation was revealed concerning the Anşâr who used to assume Iḥrâm for worshipping an idol called Manât which they used to worship at a place called Al-Mushallal before they embraced Islâm, and whoever assumed Iḥrâm (for the idol), would consider it not right to perform Tawâf – Sa’y (going) between Aš-Šafâ and Al-Marwa. When they embraced Islâm, they asked Allâh’s Messenger ἂ regarding it, saying, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! We used to refrain from Tawâf – Sa’y (going) between Aš-Šafâ and Al-Marwa.’ So Allâh revealed: ‘Verily! Aš-Šafâ and Al-Marwa (two mountains in Makkah) are of the Symbols of Allâh.’ ‘Aishah ḗ added, “Surely, Allâh’s Messenger ἂ set Aš-Sunna (legal way) of Tawâf – Sa’y (going) between Aš-Šafâ and Al-Marwa, so nobody is allowed to omit the Tawâf – Sa’y (going) between them.” Later on I (‘Urwa) told Abû Bakr bin Abdur-Rahmân (of ‘Aishah’s narration) and he said, “I have not heard of such information, but I heard learned men saying that all the people, (except those whom ‘Aishah mentioned and who used to assume Iḥrâm for the sake of Manât) used to perform Tawâf between Aš-Šafâ and Al-Marwa. When Allâh’s Messenger ἂ referred to the Tawâf of the Ka’hâd and did not mention Aš-Šafâ and Al-Marwa in the Qur’ân, the people asked, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! We used to perform Tawâf – Sa’y (going) between Aš-Safā and Al-Marwa and Allāh has revealed (the Verses concerning) ʿTawāf of the Kaʿbah and has not mentioned ʿAṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa. Is there any sin if we perform ʿTawāf - ʿṢay (going) between ʿAṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa? So Allāh revealed: ‘Verily! ʿAṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa (two mountains at Makkah) are of the Symbols of Allāh.’ Abū Bakr said, “It seems that this Verse was revealed concerning the two groups, those who used to refrain from ʿTawāf - ʿṢay (going) between ʿAṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance and those who used to perform the ʿTawāf - ʿṢay (going) them, and after embracing Islām they refrained from the ʿTawāf between them as Allāh had enjoined ʿTawāf of the Kaʿbah and did not mention ʿTawāf of As-Safa and Al-Marwa) till later Allāh did mention it after mentioning the ʿTawāf of the Kaʿbah.”

(80) CHAPTER. What is said about ʿṢay between ʿAṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa.

And Ibn ʿUmar said that ʿṢay (is to be observed) from the house of Bani ʿAbbād to the lane of Bani Abū Ḥussain.

1644. Narrated Nāfiʾ: Ibn ʿUmar said, “When Allāh’s Messenger ʿṣ performed the first ʿTawāf, he did ʿRamāl in the first three rounds and then walked in the remaining four rounds (of ʿTawāf of the Kaʿbah), whereas in performing ʿTawāf - ʿṢay (going) between ʿAṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa he used to run in the midst of the rain-water passage.” I asked Nāfiʾ, “Did ʿAbdullāh (bin ʿUmar) use to pass by on reaching the Yemenite Corner?” He replied, “No, unless people were crowded at the Corner; otherwise he would not leave it without touching it.”
1645. Narrated ‘Amr bin Dīnār: We asked Ibn ‘Umar whether a man who, while performing ‘Umra, had performed Tawāf of the Ka’bah; and had not yet performed Tawāf – [Sā’y (going)] between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa, could have sexual relation with his wife. Ibn ‘Umar replied, “The Prophet reached Makkah and performed the seven rounds (of Tawāf) of the Ka’bah and then offered a two Rak‘a prayer behind Maqām-Ibrahim and then performed the Tawāf [Sā’y (going)] between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa.” He added, “Verily! In Allāh’s Messenger you have a good example (to follow).”

1646. We asked Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh (the same question) and he said, “He (that man) should not come near (his wife) till he has completed Tawāf – [Sā’y (going)] between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa.”

1647. Narrated ‘Amr bin Dīnār: I heard Ibn ‘Umar saying, “The Prophet arrived at Makkah and performed Tawāf – [Sā’y (going)] of the Ka’bah and then offered a two Rak‘a prayer and then performed Tawāf – [Sā’y (going)] between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa.” Ibn ‘Umar then recited (the Verse): “Indeed! in the Messenger of Allāh you have a good example to follow…” (V.33:21)

1648. Narrated ‘Āṣim: I asked Anas bin Mālik, “Did you use to dislike to perform Tawaf – [Sa‘y (going)] between Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwa?’ He said, ‘Yes, as it was of the ceremonies of the days of the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance, till Allāh revealed: ‘Verily! Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwa (two mountains in Makkah) are of the Symbols of Allāh. So it is not a sin on him who performs Hajj or ‘Umra (pilgrimage) of the House (the Ka‘bah at Makkah) to perform the going (Tawaf) between them (Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwa)…’” (V.2:158)

1649. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: Allāh’s Messenger performed Sa‘y of the Ka‘bah and the Sa‘y of Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwa so as to show his strength to the Al-Mushrikūn.

(81) CHAPTER. A menstruating woman can perform all the ceremonies of Hajj except Tawaf of the Ka‘bah. (What is said) regarding the performance of Tawaf – [Sa‘y (going)] between Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwa without ablation?

1650. Narrated ‘Āishah: I was menstruating when I reached Makkah. So, I neither performed Tawaf of the Ka‘bah, nor the Tawaf – [Sa‘y (going)] between Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwa. Then I informed Allāh’s Messenger about it. He replied, ‘Perform all the ceremonies of Hajj like the other pilgrims, but do not perform Tawaf of the Ka'bah till you get clean (from your menses)."

1651. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullâh: The Prophet and his Companions assumed Ḥirâm for Hajj and none except the Prophet and Talha had the Hady (sacrifice) with them. Ali arrived from Yemen and had a Hady with him. Ali said, "I have assumed Ḥirâm with the same (intention) as that of the Prophet." The Prophet ordered his Companions to perform the ‘Umra with the Ḥirâm which they had assumed, and after finishing Tawaf (of Ka'bah), and [Sā'y (going)]. Aṣ-Ṣafâ and Al-Marwa) to cut short their head-hair, and to finish their Ḥirâm except those who had Hady with them. They (the people) said, "How can we proceed to Mina (for Hajj) after having sexual relations with our wives?"

When that news reached the Prophet he said, "If I had formerly known what I came to know lately, I would not have brought the Hady with me. Had there been no Hady with me, I would have finished the state of Ḥirâm." 'Aishah got her menses, so she performed all the ceremonies of Hajj except Tawaf of the Ka'bah, and when she got clean (from her menses), she performed Tawaf of the Ka'bah. She said, "O Allah's Messenger! (All of you) are returning with the Hajj and ‘Umra, but I am returning with Hajj only." So the Prophet ordered 'Abdur-Rahmân bin Abu Bakr to accompany her to Tan'im and thus she performed the ‘Umra after the Hajj.
1652. Narrated Ḥafṣa bintṭ Mūsā: (On the days of 'Eid) we used to forbid our virgins to go out (for 'Eid prayers). A lady came and stayed at the palace of Bani Khalaf. She mentioned that her sister was married to one of the Companions of Allāh’s Messenger who participated in twelve Ghazawat(1) along with Allāh’s Messenger and her sister was with him in six of them. She said, “We used to apply dressing to the wounded and look after the sick.” She (her sister) asked Allāh’s Messenger, “Is there any harm for a woman to stay at home if she doesn’t have a veil?” He said, “She should cover herself with the veil of her companion and she should take part in the good deeds and in the religious gatherings of the believers.” When Umm Āṭiyā came, I asked her, “Did you hear anything about that?” Umm Āṭiyā said, “Bi ābī,” and she never mentioned the name of Allāh’s Messenger without saying “Bi ābī” (i.e., ‘Let my father be sacrificed for you’). We asked her, “Have you heard Allāh’s Messenger saying so-and-so (about women)?” She replied in the affirmative and said, “Let my father be sacrificed for him. He told us that unmarried mature virgins who stay often screened, or unmarried young virgins and mature girls who stay often screened should come out and take part in the good deeds and in the religious gatherings of the believers. But the menstruating women should keep away from the Musallā (a place for offering Ṣalāt — prayers).” I asked her, “The menstruating women?” She replied, “Don’t they present themselves at ‘Arafāt and at such and such places?”

(82) CHAPTER. Assuming Ihram from Al-Baṭṭā' and other places by those living in Makkah and by the pilgrims on departing for Mina.

And 'Aṭā’ was asked whether one residing in Makkah can say Talbiya for Hajj. He said, “Ibn ‘Umar used to recite Talbiya on the day of Tarwiya (8th of Dhul-Hijjah) only after offering the Zuhr prayer and after mounting over his Rahila (mount).

Narrated ‘Abdul Mālik from ‘Aṭā’ from Jābir: We arrived at Makkah along with the Prophet and then finished our Ihram, till it was the day of Tarwiya (8th day of Dhul-Hijjah) when we departed from Makkah and recited Talbiya (assumed Ihram) for Hajj. Jābir said, “We assumed Ihram from Al-Baṭṭā’.”

‘Ubaid bin Juraij said to Ibn ‘Umar: “I see that while you are in Makkah, you do not assume Ihram till the day of Taiwiya, whereas the others assume Ihram after seeing the moon (1st day of Dhul-Hijjah).” Ibn ‘Umar replied, “I never saw the Prophet starting the Talbiya till his mount was ready for the journey.”

(83) CHAPTER. Where to offer the Zuhr prayer on the day of Tarwiya (8th day of Dhul-Hijjah).

1653. Narrated ‘Abdul ‘Azīz bin Rufai: I asked Anas bin Malik, “Tell me what you remember from Allah’s Messenger regarding these questions: Where did he offer the Zuhr and ‘Asr prayer on the day of Tarwiya (8th of Dhul-Hajjah)?” He replied, “(He offered these prayers) at Mina.” I asked, “Where did he offer the ‘Asr prayer on the day of Nafr (i.e., departure from Mina on the 12th or 13th of Dhul-Hijjah)?” He replied, “At Al-Abtaba,” and then added, “You should do as your chiefs do.”
1654. Narrated ‘Abdul ‘Aziz: I went out to Mina on the day of Tarwīya and met Anas on a donkey. I asked him, “Where did the Prophet offer the Zuhr prayer on this day?” Anas replied, “See where your chiefs offer prayer so you too offer prayer where they offer prayer.”

1656. Narrated Hāritha bin Wahab Al-Khuza‘ī: The Prophet led and offered with us two Rak‘a [shortened Salāt (prayer) during Hajj] at Mina although our number was more than ever and we were in better security than ever.

1657. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd): I offered with the Prophet two Rak‘a [shortened Salāt (prayer) during Ḥajj] (at Minā), and similarly with Abū Bakr and with ‘Umar and then you differed in opinions. Wish that I would be lucky enough to have two of the four Rak‘a accepted (by Allāh).

(85) CHAPTER. Fasting on the Day of Ḍa‘af (at ‘Arafāt).

1658. Narrated Umm Al-Fadl: The people doubted whether the Prophet was observing the fast on the Day of Ḍa‘af, so I sent something for him to drink and he drank it.

(86) CHAPTER. The recitation of Talbiya and Takbīr while proceeding from Mina to ‘Arafāt.

1659. Narrated Muḥammad bin Abū Bakr Ath-Thaqafi: I asked Anas bin Mālik while we were proceeding from Minā to ‘Arafāt, “What do you use to do on this day when you were with Allāh’s Messenger?” Anas said, “Some of us used to recite Talbiya and nobody objected to that, and others used to recite Takbīr and nobody objected to that.”
(87) CHAPTER. To proceed at noon on the Day of ’Arafa (9th of Dhul-Hijjah) (from the mosque of Namira towards ’Arafat).

1660. Narrated Sālim: ‘Abdul Mālik wrote to Al-Ḥajjāj that he should not differ from Ibn ‘Umar during Ḥajj. On the Day of ‘Arafa, when the sun declined at midday, Ibn ‘Umar came along with me and shouted near Al-Ijājaj’s cotton (cloth) tent. Al-Ḥijjāj came out, wrapping himself with a waist-sheet dyed with safflower, and said, “O Abū Abdur-Rahmān! What is the matter?” He said, “If you want to follow the Sunna then proceed (to ’Arafat).” Al-Ḥajjāj asked, “At this very hour?” Ibn ‘Umar said, “Yes.” He replied, “Please wait for me till I pour some water over my head (i.e., take a bath) and come out.” Then Ibn ‘Umar dismounted and waited till Al-Ḥajjāj came out.

So, he (Al-Ḥajjāj) walked in between me and my father (Ibn ‘Umar). I said to him, “If you want to follow the Sunna then deliver a brief Khutba (religious talk) and hurry up for the stay at ’Arafat.” He started looking at ‘Abdullāh (Ibn ‘Umar) (inquiringly), and when ‘Abdullāh noticed that, he said that I had told the truth.

(88) CHAPTER. Staying on one’s riding animal at ’Arafat.

1661. Narrated Umm Al-Faḍīl bint Al-Ḥārith: On the Day of ‘Arafa, some people who were with me, differed about the fasting of the Prophet ﷺ; some said that he was observing Saum (fasting) while others said that he was not observing...
25 - THE BOOK OF HAJJ

616. Ibn Shihab said: Sālim said, “In the year when Al-Haajjāj bin Yūsuf attacked Ibn Az-Zubair, the former asked ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar) what to do during the stay on the Day of ‘Arafa (9th of Dhul-Hijjah). I said to him, ‘If you want to follow the Sunna (the legal way of the Prophet ﷺ) you should offer the Salāt just after midday on the Day of ‘Arafa.’ ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar said, ‘He (Sālim) has spoken the truth.’” They (the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ) used to offer the Zuhr and the ‘Asr prayer together according to the Sunna, I asked Sālim, “Did Allah’s Messenger ﷺ do that?” Sālim said, “And in doing that do you (people) follow anything else except his (ﷺ) Sunna?”

617. Aḥmad b. Ḫadīth said: “In the year when Al-Haajjāj bin Yūsuf attacked Ibn Az-Zubair, the former asked ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar) what to do during the stay on the Day of ‘Arafa (9th of Dhul-Hijjah). I said to him, ‘If you want to follow the Sunna (the legal way of the Prophet ﷺ) you should offer the Salāt just after midday on the Day of ‘Arafa.’ ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar said, ‘He (Sālim) has spoken the truth.’” They (the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ) used to offer the Zuhr and the ‘Asr prayer together according to the Sunna, I asked Sālim, “Did Allah’s Messenger ﷺ do that?” Sālim said, “And in doing that do you (people) follow anything else except his (ﷺ) Sunna?”

618. Narrated Sālim bin ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar); ‘Abdul-Malik bin Marwān wrote to Al-Haajjāj that he should follow ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar in all the ceremonies of Hajj. So, when it was the Day of ‘Arafa (9th of Dhul-Hijjah) they (the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ) used to offer the Zuhr and the ‘Asr prayer together according to the Sunna, I asked Sālim, “Did Allah’s Messenger ﷺ do that?” Sālim said, “And in doing that do you (people) follow anything else except his (ﷺ) Sunna?” Dhul-Hijjah, and after the sun has declined from the middle of the sky, I and Ibn ‘Umar came and he shouted near the cotton (cloth) tent of Al-Ḥajjāj, “Where is he?” Al-Ḥajjāj came out. Ibn ‘Umar said, “Let us proceed (to ‘Arafāt).” Al-Ḥajjāj asked, “Just now?” Ibn ‘Umar replied, “Yes.” Al-Ḥajjāj said, “Wait for me till I pour water on me (i.e., take a bath).” So, Ibn ‘Umar dismounted (and waited) till Al-Ḥajjāj came out. He was walking between me and my father. I informed Al-Ḥajjāj, “If you want to follow the Sunna (the legal way) of the Prophet (ﷺ) today, then you should shorten the Khutba (religious talk) and then hurry up for the stay (at ‘Arafāt).” Ibn ‘Umar said, “He (Sāлим) has spoken the truth.”

CHAPTER. To hurry up for the stay (at ‘Arafāt).

(91) CHAPTER. The staying at ‘Arafāt.

1664. Narrated Muḥammad bin Jubair bin Muṭ‘im: My father said, “(Before Islām) I was looking for my camel...” The same narration is told by a different sub-narrator. Jubair bin Muṭ‘im said, “My camel was lost and I went out in search of it on the Day of ‘Arafa, and I saw the Prophet ἃ standing in ‘Arafāt. I said to myself: By Allah he is from the Hums (literally: strictly religious, Quraish were called so, as they used to say, ‘We are the people of Allāh, we shall not go out of the sanctuary’). What has brought him here?”
1665. Narrated 'Urwa: During the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance, the people used to perform Tawaf of the Ka'bah naked except the Hums; and the Hums were Quraish and their offspring. The Hums used to give clothes to the men who would perform the Tawaf wearing them; and women (of the Hums) used to give clothes to the women who would perform the Tawaf wearing them. Those to whom the Hums did not give clothes would perform Tawaf round the Ka'bah naked.

Most of the people used to go away (disperse) directly from 'Arafat but they (Hums) used to depart after staying at Al-Muzdalifa.

'Urwa added, "My father narrated that 'Aishah had said, 'The following Verses were revealed about the Hums: 'Then depart from the place whence all the people depart..." (V.2:199)

'Urwa added, "They (the Hums) used to stay at Al-Muzdalifa and used to depart from there (to Mina) and so they were ordered to proceed to 'Arafat (by Allah's Order)."

1666. Narrated 'Urwa: Usama was asked in my presence, "How was the speed of (the camel of) Allah's Messenger while departing from 'Arafat during the Hajjat-ul-Wada?" Usama replied, "The Prophet proceeded on with a modest pace, and when there was enough space he would (make his camel) go very fast."

(92) CHAPTER. One's speed while one is departing from 'Arafat.

(1) (H.1665) Hums: See glossary.
(93) CHAPTER. To dismount between ‘Arafat and Jam‘ (i.e., Al-Muzdalifa) (because of a necessity).

1667. Narrated Usâma bin Zaid رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ after departing from ‘Arafat, he went towards the mountain path, and there he answered the call of nature and then performed ablution. I asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! Will you offer the Salât (prayer) here?” He replied, “(The place of) As-Salât (prayer) is ahead of you (i.e., at Al-Muzdalifa).”

1668. Narrated Nâfi‘: ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما used to offer the Maghrib and ‘Ishâ’ prayer together at Jam‘ (Al-Muzdalifa). But he used to pass by that mountain path where Allah’s Messenger ﷺ went, and he would enter it and answer the call of nature and perform ablution, and would not offer any Salât (prayer) till he had offered Salât (prayer) at Jam‘ (i.e., Muzdalifa).

1669. Narrated Usâma bin Zaid رضي الله عنهما: I rode behind Allah’s Messenger ﷺ from ‘Arafat and when Allah’s Messenger ﷺ reached the mountain path on the left side which is before Al-Muzdalifa, he made his camel kneel and then urinated, and then I poured water for his ablution. He performed light ablution and then I said to him: “(Is it the time for) Salāt (prayer), O Allāh’s Messenger!” He replied, “The (place of) Salāt (prayer) is ahead of you (i.e., at Al-Muzdalifa).” So Allāh’s Messenger rode till he reached Al-Muzdalifa and then he offered the Salāt (prayer) (there). Then in the morning (10th Dhul-Hijjah) Al-Fadl (bin ‘Abbās) rode behind Allāh’s Messenger.

1670. Kuraib, (a subnarrator) said that ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās narrated from Al-Fadl, “Allāh’s Messenger kept on reciting Talbīya (during the journey) till he reached the Jamra (Jamrat-al-‘Aqaba).”

(94) CHAPTER. The order of the Prophet that people should be calm and patient on proceeding (from ‘Arafāt) and the waving of his lash towards them.

(95) CHAPTER. The offering of two Ṣalāt (prayer) together at Al-Muzdalifa.

1672. Narrated Usāma b. Zaid: Allah's Messenger proceeded from ‘Arafa and dismounted at the mountain path and then unrode and performed a light ablution. I said to him, "(Shall we offer) the ʿAs-Salāt (the prayer)?" He replied, "The Ṣalāt is ahead of you (i.e., at Al-Muzdalifa)." When he came to Al-Muzdalifa, he performed a perfect ablution. Then ʿIqāma for the Ṣalāt (prayer) was pronounced and he offered the Maghrib prayer, and then every person made his camel kneel at his place; and then ʿIqāma for the Ṣalāt (prayer) was pronounced and he offered the (ʿIshā) prayer and he did not offer any Ṣalāt (prayer) in between them (i.e., Maghrib and ʿIshā) prayer.

(96) CHAPTER. Whoever combined (offered together) the two prayer (Maghrib and ʿIshā prayer) at one time and did not offer any optional prayers.

1673. Narrated Ibn ʿUmar: The Prophet offered the Maghrib and ʿIshā prayer together at Jamʿ (i.e., Al-Muzdalifa) with a separate ʿIqāma for each of them and did not offer any optional prayer in between them or after each of them.

1674. Narrated Abū Ayyūb Al-Anṣārī: Allah's Messenger offered the Maghrib and 'Ishâ' prayers together at Al-Muzdalifâ.

(97) CHAPTER. Whoever pronounced (one) Adhân (for both) and Iqâma for each of them (the Maghrib and the 'Ishâ' prayer).

1675 Narrated 'Abdur-Rahmân bin Yazid: 'Abdullâh performed the Hajj and we reached Al-Muzdalifâ at or about the time of the 'Ishâ' prayer. He ordered a man to pronounce the Adhân and Iqâma and then he offered the Maghrib prayer and offered two Rak'â prayer after it. Then he asked for his supper and took it, and then, I think, he ordered a man to pronounce the Adhân and Iqâma (for the 'Ishâ' prayer). (Amr, a subnarrator said: The intervening statement ‘I think’, was said by the subnarrator Zuhair) (i.e., not by ‘Abdur-Rahmân). Then 'Abdullâh offered two Rak'â of 'Ishâ' prayer. When the day dawned, 'Abdullâh said, “The Prophet never offered any Salât (prayer) at this hour except this Salât at this time and at this place and on this day.” 'Abdullâh added, “These two Salât are shifted from their actual times – the Maghrib prayer (is offered) when the people reached Al-Muzdalifâ and the Fajr prayer at the early dawn.” 'Abdullâh added, “I saw the Prophet doing that.”
(98) CHAPTER. Whosoever sent the weak amongst his family (women and children) early (from Al-Muzdalifa to Mina) at night after the moon had set. They stayed at Al-Muzdalifa and invoked Allah there and proceeded from there when the moon had set.

1676. Narrated Sâlim: ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar [رضي الله عنهما] used to send the weak among his family early to Mina. So they used to depart from Al-Maš‘ar Al-Harâm (that is Al-Muzdalifa) at night (when the moon had set) and invoke Allah [رضي الله عنهما] as much as they could, and then they would return (to Mina) before the Imâm had started from Al-Muzdalifa to Mina. So some of them would reach Mina at the time of the Fajr prayer and some of them would come later. When they reached Mina they would throw pebbles on the Jamra (Jamrat-al-‘Aqaba). Ibn ‘Umar [رضي الله عنهما] used to say, “Allah’s Messenger [رسول الله] gave the permission to them (weak people) to do so.”

1677. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs [رضي الله عنهما]: Allah’s Messenger [رسول الله] had sent me from Jam‘ (i.e. Al-Muzdalifa) at night.

1678. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs [رضي الله عنهما]: I was among those whom the Prophet [رسول الله] sent on the night of Al-Muzdalifa early, being among the weak members of his family.
1679. Narrated ‘Abdullãh, the slave of Asmã’ Allah’s Messenger ﷺ: During the night of Jam’, Asmã’ got down at Al-Muzdalifa and stood up for (offering) the Salât (prayer) and offered the Salât (prayer) for some time and then asked, “O my son! Has the moon set?” I replied in the negative and she again offered Salât for another period and then asked, “Has the moon set?” I replied, “Yes.” So she said that we should set out (for Mina), and we departed and went on till she threw pebbles at the Jamra (Jamrat-al-‘Aqaba) and then she returned to her dwelling place and offered the morning prayer. I asked her, “O Hanta I think we have come (to Minã) early in the night.” She replied, “O my son! Allah’s Messenger ﷺ gave permission to the women to do so.”

1680. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ: Sauda asked the permission of the Prophet ﷺ to leave (early) at the night of Jam’, and she was a fat and very slow woman. The Prophet ﷺ gave her permission.

1681. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ: We got down at Al-Muzdalifa and Sauda asked the permission of the Prophet ﷺ to leave (early) before the rush of the people. She was a slow woman and he gave her permission, so she departed (from Al-Muzdalifa) before the rush of the people. We kept on staying at Al-Muzdalifa till dawn, and set out with the Prophet ﷺ but (I suffered so much that) I wished I had taken the permission of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ as Sauda had done, and that would have been dearer to me than any other happiness.

(99) CHAPTER. At what time is the Fajr prayer to be offered at Jam‘?

1682. Narrated ‘Abdulläh bin ‘Abdulläh: I never saw the Prophet offering any Salât (prayer) not at its stated time except two; he offered the Maghrib and the ‘Ishâ’ prayer together and he offered the Fajr prayer before its usual time (at Muzdalifa on the day of Nahr).

1683. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Yazid: I went out with ‘Abdulläh to Makkah and when we reached Jam‘ (from ‘Arafât) he offered the two Salât (prayer) (the Maghrib and the ‘Ishâ’ prayer) together, making the Adhân and Iqâma separately for each Salât. He took his supper in between the two Salât. He offered the Fajr prayer as soon as the day dawned.

Some people said, “The day had dawned (at the time of the Salât),” and others said, “The day had not dawned.” ‘Abdulläh then said, “Allâh’s Messenger said, ‘These two Salât (prayers) have been shifted from their stated times at this place only (at Al-Muzdalifa); first: The Maghrib and the ‘Ishâ’. The people may not arrive at Al-Muzdalifa till the time of the ‘Ishâ’ prayer has become due. The second Salât is the morning prayer which is offered at this hour.’”

Then ‘Abdulläh stayed there till it became a bit brighter. He then said, “If chief of the believers hastened onwards to Mina just now, then he had indeed followed the Sunna (legal way of the Prophet ﷺ).” I do not know which preceded the other, his (‘Abdullāh’s) statement or the departure of ‘Uthmān ṣ. “‘Abdullāh kept on reciting Talbiya till he threw pebbles at the Jamrat-al-‘Aqaba on the day of Ṯahr (that is the 10th of Dhul-Ḥijjah).

(100) CHAPTER. When to depart from Jam‘ (i.e., Al-Muzdalifā).

1684. Narrated ‘Amr bin Mā’in: I saw ‘Umar ṣ offering the morning prayer at Jam‘; then he got up and said, “The Mushrikūn did not use to depart (from Jam‘) till the sun had risen, and they used to say, ‘Let the sun shine on Thabīr (a mountain).’ But the Prophet ﷺ did contrary to them and departed from Jam‘ before sunrise.”

(101) CHAPTER. The recitation of Talbiya and Takbir in the morning of the day of Ṯahr till the Rāmī of Jamarat-al-‘Aqaba and riding behind somebody else on a riding animal.

1685. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet ﷺ made Al-Faḍl ride behind him, and Al-Faḍl informed that he (the Prophet ﷺ) kept on reciting Talbiya till he did the Rāmī of the Jamra (Jamrat-al-‘Aqaba).
1686, 1687. Narrated 'Ubadullah bin 'Abdullah: 'Ibn Abbâs said, "Usâma bin Zaid rode behind the Prophet from 'Arafat to Al-Muzdalifa; and then from Al-Muzdalifa to Mina, Al-Fâdî rode behind him." He added, "Both of them (Usâma and Al-Fâdî) said, 'The Prophet was constantly reciting Talbiya till he did Rainy of the Jamrât-al-'Aqâba.'"

(102) CHAPTER. "...And whosoever performs the 'Umra in the months of Hajj before (performing) the Hajj (i.e., Hajj-al-Qirân and Hajj-at-Tamattu') he must slaughter an animal (Hady) such as he can afford it... till... present at the Al-Masjid-al-Harâm (at Makkah)...." (V.2:196)

1688. Narrated Abû Jamra: I asked Ibn 'Abbâs about Hajj-at-Tamattu'. He ordered me to perform it. I asked him about the Hady (sacrifice). He said, "You have to slaughter a camel, a cow or a sheep, or you may share the Hady with the others." It seemed that some people disliked it (Hajj-at-Tamattu'). I slept and dreamt as if a person was announcing: "Hajj Marâbûr and accepted Mut'ah (Hajj-at-Tamattu')" I went to Ibn 'Abbâs and narrated it to him. He said, "Allahu Akbar (Allah is the Most Great). (That was) the As-Šumna (legal way) of Abul-Qâsim (i.e., Prophet)."

Narrated Shu'ba that the call in the dream was, "An accepted 'Umra and Hajj-Marâbûr."
(103) CHAPTER. The riding over the Budn (camels, cows, oxen for sacrifice). Allah’s Statement refers to this:

“And the Budn (cows, oxen, or camels driven for to be offered as sacrifices by the pilgrims at the sanctuary of Makkah), We have made for you as among the Symbols of Allah, wherein you have much good. So mention the Name of Allah over them when they are drawn up in lines (for sacrifice). Then, when they are down on their sides (after slaughter) ... up to... And give glad tidings (O Muhammad ﷺ) to Muhsinun (doers of good).” (V.22:36-37)

1689. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saw a man driving his Badana (sacrificial camel). He said, “Ride on it.” The man said, “It is a Badana.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Ride on it.” He (the man) said, “It is a Badana.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Ride on it.” And on the second or the third time he (the Prophet ﷺ) added, “Woe to you.”

1690. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ saw a man driving a Badana. He said, “Ride on it.” The man replied, “It is a ...
Badana.” The Prophet said (again), “Ride on it.” He (the man) said, “It is a Badana.” The Prophet said thrice, “Ride on it.”

(104) CHAPTER. Whoever drove the Budn (sacrificial camels or cows) along with him.

1691. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: During the last Hajj (Hajjat-ul-Wadā’i) of Allah’s Messenger he performed ‘Umra and Hajj together and offered Hady (sacrificial animal) which he drove along with him from Dhul-Hulaifa. Allah’s Messenger started by assuming Ihram for ‘Umra and then for Hajj. And the people, too, performed the ‘Umra and Hajj together along with the Prophet. Some of them brought the Hady and drove it along with them, while the others did not. So, when the Prophet arrived at Makkah, he said to the people, “Whoever among you has driven the Hady, should not finish his Ihram till he completes his Hajj. And whoever among you has not (driven) the Hady with him, should perform Tawaf of the Ka’bah and the [Sa’y (going) between) Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa, then cut short his head-hair and finish his Ihram, and should later assume Ihram for Hajj; but he must offer a Hady (sacrifice); and if anyone cannot afford a Hady, he should fast for three days during the Hajj and seven days when he returns home (i.e., Hajj-at-Tamattu’). The Prophet performed Tawaf of the Ka’bah on his arrival (at Makkah); he touched the (Black Stone) Corner first of all and then did Ramal (fast walking with moving of the shoulders) during the first three rounds, round the Ka'bah, and during the last four rounds he walked (normally). After finishing Tawaf of the Ka'bah, he offered a two Rak'a prayer at Maqam Ibrāhim, and after finishing the Salāt (prayer) he went to Aş-Safā and Al-Marwa and performed seven goings of Tawaf — Sā'y between them and did not do any deed forbidden because of Ihrām, till he finished all the ceremonies of his Hajj and sacrificed his Hady on the Day of Nahr (10th day of Dhul-Ḥijjah). He then hastened onwards (to Makkah) and performed Tawaf-al-Ifada of the Ka'bah and then everything that was forbidden because of Ihram became permissible. Those who took and drove the Hady with them did the same as Allāh's Messenger did (Hajj-al-Qiran).

1692. Narrated Urwa: “Āishah informed me about the Hajj and ‘Umra (together) of the Prophet and so did the people who were with him (during that Hajj and ‘Umra) a narration similar to the narration of Ibn Umar (Hadith No. 1691).

(105) CHAPTER. Buying the Hady on the way.

1693. Narrated Nāfi’: ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Abdullāh) bin ‘Umar said to his father, “Stay here, for I am afraid that it (affliction between Ibn Zubair and Al-Hajjāj) might prevent you from reaching the Ka'bah.” Ibn ‘Umar said, “(In this case) I would do the same as Allāh's Messenger did, and Allāh has said, ‘Indeed, in the Messenger of Allāh, you have a good example (to follow).’ So, I make you people witness that I have made ‘Umra compulsory for me.” So he assumed Ḥirām.
for ‘Umra. Then he went out and when he reached Al-Baidã’, he assumed Ihram for Hajj and ‘Umra (together) and said, “The conditions (requisites) of Hajj and ‘Umra are the same.” He, then bought a Hady from Qudaid. Then he arrived (at Makkah) and performed Tawaf – [Sry (going)] between Aş-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa once for both Hajj and ‘Umra and did not finish the Iḥrām till he had finished both Hajj and ‘Umra (Hajj-al-Qirân).

(106) CHAPTER. Marking and garlanding (the Hady) at Dhul-Ḥulaifa and then assuming Ihram.

Nafi’ said, ‘Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما took the Hady (from Al-Madina) at the time of Hudaibiya, he garlanded and marked it at Dhul-Ḥulaifa, and stab the right side of its hump with a blade, and then he made it kneel with its face towards the Qiblah (Ka’bah at Makkah).

1694, 1695. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama and Marwan رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ set out from Al-Madina with over one thousand of his Companions (at the time of the Treaty of Hudaibiya) and when they reached Dhul-Hulaifa, the Prophet ﷺ garlanded his Hady and marked it and assumed Iḥrām for ‘Umra.

1696. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: I twisted with my own hands the garlands for the Budn (camels for sacrifice) of the Prophet ﷺ who garlanded and marked them, and then made them proceed to Makkah; yet no permissible thing was regarded as illegal for him then.

(107) CHAPTER. To twist (and make) the garlands for the Budn (Hady camels for sacrifice) and cows.

1697. Narrated Ḥafṣa بُنتِ الْحَجَّاجِ: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What is wrong with the people, they have finished their Ihram but you have not?” He said, “I matted my hair and I have garlanded my Hady, so I will not finish my Ihram till I have finished my Hajj.”

1698. Narrated ‘Aisha بُنتُ الْحَجَّاجِ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to send the Hady from Al-Madina; and I used to twist the garlands for his Hady and he did not keep away from any of those things which a Muhrim keeps away from.

(108) CHAPTER. The marking of the Budn (camels for sacrifice).

Al-Miswar ﷺ said, “The Prophet ﷺ garlanded Al-Hady (animals meant for sacrifice) and marked them and assumed Ihram for 'Umra.'

1699. Narrated 'Aishah: I twisted the garlands for the Hady (animals meant for sacrifice) of the Prophet and then he marked and garlanded them (or I garlanded them) and then made them proceed to the Ka'bah (at Makkah) but he remained in Al-Madina and no permissible thing was regarded as illegal for him then.

(109) CHAPTER. Whoever puts the garlands round the necks of the Hady (animals meant for sacrifice) with one's own hands.

1700. Narrated 'Abdulläh bin Abû Bakr bin 'Amr bin Ĥazm that 'Amra bint 'Abdur-Rahmân had told him, "Ziäd bin Abû Sufyân wrote to 'Aishah that 'Abdulläh bin 'Abbâs had stated, 'Whoever sends his Hady (to the Ka'bah), all the things which are illegal for a (pilgrim) become illegal for that person till he slaughters it (i.e., till the 10th of Dhul-Ḥijjah).'" 'Amra added, "'Aishah said, 'It is not like what Ibn 'Abbas had said. I twisted the garlands of the Hady of Allah's Messenger with my own hands, then Allah's Messenger put them round their neck with his own hands, then send them (to Makkah) with my father. Yet nothing permitted by Allah was considered illegal for Allah's Messenger till the Hady were slaughtered.'"
(110) CHAPTER. The garlanding of sheep.

1701.Narrated 'Aishah: Once the Prophet sent sheep as Hady.

1702. Narrated 'Aishah: I used to make the garlands for (the Hady of) the Prophet and he would garland the sheep (with them) and would stay with his family as a non-Muhrim.

1703. Narrated 'Aishah: I used to twist the garlands for the sheep of the Prophet and he would send them (to the Ka'bah), and stay as a non-Muhrim.

1704. Narrated 'Aishah: I twisted (the garlands) for the Hady of the Prophet before he assumed Iḥrām.

(111) CHAPTER. The garlands made from coloured wool.

1705. Narrated the Mother of the believers (‘Āishah bint Abī Bakr): I twisted the garlands of the Hadī from the coloured wool which was with me.

(112) CHAPTER. Garlanding (the Hadī) with a shoe.

1706. Narrated ‘Ikrima: Abū Hurairah said, “The Prophet saw a man driving a Badana (sacrificial camel). The Prophet said (to him), ‘Ride on it.’ He replied, ‘It is a Badana.’ The Prophet again said, ‘Ride on it!’ Abū Hurairah added, “Then I saw that man riding it, showing obedience to the Prophet, and a shoe was (hanging) from its neck.”

Narrated Abū Hurairah on the authority of the Prophet: (as above).

(113) CHAPTER. The covering (sheet) of the Budn (camels for sacrifice).

Ibn ‘Umar used to tear off only the part of the sheet covering the camels hump. At the time of slaughtering the sacrifice he would remove the sheet, lest it should get spoiled with blood, and later on he would give it (the sheet) in charity.

Messenger ordered me to give in charity the skin and the coverings of the Budn which I had slaughtered.
CHAPTER 114. The purchase of the Hady on the way and garlanding it.

1708. Narrated Nāfi': Ibn `Umar Ṭāhir al-Hadīṣi said: Some people said to him, "It is very likely that there will be a fight among the people, and we are afraid that they might prevent you (from performing Hajj)." He replied, "Verily, in Allah's Messenger there is a good example for you (to follow). In this case I would do the same as he had done. I make you witness that I have intended to perform 'Umra."

When he reached Al-Baidā', he said, "The conditions for both Hajj and 'Umra are the same. I make you witness that I have intended to perform Hajj along with 'Umra." After that he took a garlanded Hady (to Makkah) which he bought (on the way). When he reached (Makkah), he performed Ṭawaf of the Ka'bah and (Sa'y) of Aṣ-Ṣafā (and Al-Marwa) and did not do more than that. He did not make legal for himself the things which were illegal for a Muhrim till it was the Day of Nahr (sacrifice), when he had his head shaved and slaughtered (the sacrifice) and considered sufficient his first Ṭawaf - [Sa'y (going) (between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa)], as a (Sa'y) for his Hajj and 'Umra both. He then said, "The Prophet used to do like that."
(115) CHAPTER. To slaughter cows (as sacrifices) on behalf of one’s wives without being ordered by them.

1709. Narrated ‘Amra bint ‘Abdur-Rahmān: I heard ‘A‘ishah saying, “Five days before the end of Dhul-Qa‘da we set out from Al-Madīnah in the company of Allāh’s Messenger with the intention of performing Hajj only. When we approached Makkah, Allāh’s Messenger ordered those who had no Hady with them to finish their Ḥārum after performing Tawāf of the Ka‘bah and [Sāy (going) between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwān].”

‘A‘ishah added, “On the Day of Nahr beef was brought to us. I asked, ‘What is this?’ It was said, ‘Allāh’s Messenger has slaughtered (cows as sacrifices) on behalf of his wives.’”

(116) CHAPTER. To slaughter (sacrifices) at the Manhār (slaughtering place) of the Prophet at Minā.

1710. Narrated Nafi‘: ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar) used to slaughter (his sacrifice) at the Manhār. (‘Ubaidullāh, a sub-narrator said, “The Manhār of Allāh’s Messenger.”)

1711. Narrated Nafi‘: Ibn ‘Umar used to send his Hady from Jam‘ (to Mina) in the last third of the night with the pilgrims amongst whom there were free men and slaves, till it was made to enter into the
THE BOOK OF HAJJ

(117) CHAPTER. Nahr(1) (Slaughtering one’s Hady) with one’s own hands.

1712. Narrated Sahl bin Bakkār the narration of Anas (abridged), saying, “The Prophet ﷺ performed Nahr (slaughtered) with his own hands seven Budn (camels) while standing. While at Madina on the day of Eid-al-Adha he (the Prophet ﷺ) slaughtered (sacrificed) two horned rams, black and white in colour.

(118) CHAPTER. Slaughtering the camels after tying their one leg.

1713. Narrated Ziyād bin Jubair: I saw Ibn ‘Umar passing by a man who had made his Badana sit to slaughter it. Ibn ‘Umar said, “Slaughter it while it is standing with one of its leg tied up as is the Sunna (legal way) of Muhammad ﷺ.”

(119) CHAPTER. To slaughter the Budn (camels for sacrifice) while they are standing.

Ibn ‘Umar said, “(That was) the Sunna (legal way) of Muhammad ﷺ.” Ibn ‘Abbās said, “Sawāf means the camels standing in rows or in lines (for sacrifice)."

1714. Narrated Anas: The Prophet offered four Rak'a of Zuhr prayers at Al-Madina; and two Rak'a of 'Asr prayer at Dhul-Hulaifa and spent the night there and when (the day) dawned. he mounted his Rähila (mount) and started saying ‘Lā ilâha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah)’ and ‘Glorified be Allah.’” When he reached Al-Baidæ’, he recited Talbiya for both Hajj and 'Umra. And when he arrived at Makkah, he ordered them (his Companions) to finish their Ihrãm. The Prophet slaughtered seven Budn (camels) with his own hands while the camels were standing. Once the Prophet sacrificed two horned rams (black and white in colour) at Al-Madina, on the Day of ‘Eid-al-Adha.

1715. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet offered four Rak’a of Zuhr prayers at Al-Madina and two Rak’a of ‘Asr prayer at Dhul-Hulaifa.

Narrated Ayyúb: “A man said: Anas said, ‘Then he (the Prophet) passed the night there till dawn and then he offered the Fajr prayer, and mounted his Rähila (mount) and when it arrived at Al-Baidæ’ he assumed Ihrãm for both ‘Umra and Hajj.”

(120) CHAPTER. The butcher should not be given anything of the Hady.

1716(A). Narrated ‘Ali: The Prophet sent me to supervise the (slaughtering of) Budn (Hady) and ordered me to distribute their meat; and then he ordered me to distribute their covering sheets and skins.

1716(B). 'Alī رضي الله عنه added, "The Prophet ﷺ ordered me to supervise the slaughtering (of the Budn) and not to give anything of it to the butcher (as wages for slaughtering)."

(121) CHAPTER. The skins of Al-Hady are to be given in charity.

1717. Narrated 'Ali رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ ordered me to supervise the (slaughtering) of Budn (Hady camel) and to distribute their meat, skins and covering sheets in charity and not to give anything (of it) to the butcher as wages for slaughtering etc.

(122) CHAPTER. The covering sheets of Budn are to be given in charity.

1718. Narrated 'Ali رضي الله عنه: The Prophet the offered one hundred Budn as Hady and ordered me to distribute their meat (in charity) and I did so. Then he ordered me to distribute their covering sheets in charity and I did so. Then he ordered me to distribute their skins in charity and I did so.

(123) CHAPTER. “And (remember) when We showed Ibrãhim (Abraham) the site of the (Sacred) House, (Ka'bah at Makkah), (saying): ‘Associate not anything (in worship) with Me [Là ʾilāh ìllà ʾl-làh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah) – Islamic Monotheism] and sanctify My House for those who circumambulate it, and those who stand up for prayer and those who bow (submit themselves with humility and obedience to Allah), and make prostration (in prayer).’

“And proclaim to mankind the Hajj (pilgrimage). They will come to you on foot... up to... then that is better for him with his Lord.” (V.22:26-30)

(124) CHAPTER. What is to be eaten of Budn (by the one who offers them) and what is to be distributed in charity.

Ibn ‘Umar the said: “The animals slaughtered as a penalty for hunting (illegally) and the animal offered because of a vow should not be eaten by the person who has offered them, but he can eat from other kinds of offerings (as Hady). And ‘Aṭā’ said, “It is permissible to eat and let others eat the meat of the (Hady) animals sacrificed for Hajj-at-Tammattu.”” for more than three days. Later, the Prophet gave us permission by saying: ‘Eat and take (meat) with you. So, we ate (some) and took (some) with us.’” I asked ‘Atâ’, “Did Jâbir say (that they went on eating the meat) till they reached Al-Madina?” ‘Atâ’ replied, “No.”

1720. Narrated ‘Amra: I heard ‘Aishah saying, “We set out (from Al-Madina) along with Allâh’s Messenger five days before the end of Dhu‘l-Qa‘da with the intention of performing Hajj only. When we approached Makkah, Allâh’s Messenger ordered those who had no Hady along with them to finish the Ihram after performing Tawâf of the Ka‘bah, [and Sa‘y (going) between As-Safâ and Al-Marwa]. ‘Aishah added, “Beef was brought to us on the Day of Nahr and I said, ‘What is this?’ Somebody said, ‘The Prophet has slaughtered (cows) on behalf of his wives.’”

(125) CHAPTER. Slaughtering before having one’s head shaved.

1721.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet was asked about a person who had his head shaved before slaughtering (his Hady) (or other similar ceremonies of Hajj). He replied, “There is no harm, 1722. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: A man said to the Prophet, “I performed the Tawāf-al-Ifāda before the Ramy (throwing pebbles at the Jamra).” The Prophet replied, “There is no harm.” The man said, “I had my head shaved before slaughtering (the Hady).” The Prophet replied, “There is no harm.” He said, “I have slaughtered the Hady before the Ramy.” The Prophet replied, “There is no harm.”

1723. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: A man asked the Prophet (saying), “I have done the Ramy in the evening.” The Prophet replied, “There is no harm in it.”

Another man asked, “I had my head shaved before slaughtering (the Hady).” The Prophet replied, "There is no harm in it."

1724. Narrated ābū Mūsā: I came to Allāh's Messenger when he was at Al-Batha'. He asked me, "Have you intended to perform the Ḥajj?" I replied in the affirmative. He asked, "With what intention have you assumed Ihram?" I replied, "I have assumed Ihram with the same intention as that of the Prophet."

The Prophet said, "You have done well! Go and perform Tawaf round the Ka'bah and [Sa'y (going)] Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwā." Then I went to one of the women of Bani Qais and she took out lice from my head. Later, I assumed another Ihram for Ḥajj. So, I used to give this verdict to the people till the caliphate of 'Umar. When I told him about it, he said, "If we take (follow) Allāh's Book, then it orders you to remain in the state of Ihram till you finish from Ḥajj(1), and if we follow the Sunna of Allāh's Messenger then he did not finish his Ihram till the Hady had reached its destination (had been slaughtered). (i.e., Ḥajj-al-Qirān). (See Hadith No.1559)

(126) CHAPTER. Whoever matted his head-hair on assuming Ihram and had his head-hair shaved on finishing the Ihram.

1725. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Ṭāḥa said, "O Allāh's Messenger! What is wrong with the people? They finished their Ihram after performing Ḥumra, but you have not finished it after your 'Umra?' He replied, “I have matted my head-hair and have garlanded my Hady. So, I cannot finish my Ihram till I slaughter (my Had).”

(127) CHAPTER. To shave the head and (or) to have the head-hair cut short on finishing the Ihram.

1727. Narrated 'Abdulläh bin 'Umar: Allah's Messenger said, “O Allah! Be Merciful to those who have got their heads shaved.” The people said, “O Allah! Be Merciful to those who have got their heads shaved.” The Prophet said, “O Allah! Be Merciful to those who have got their heads shaved.” The people said, “O Allah! Be Merciful to those who have got their heads shaved.” The Prophet said, “And to those who have got their head-hair cut short.” The people requested the Prophet (saying): “Also those who have got their head-hair cut short?” The Prophet said, “O Allah!
Forgive those who have their heads shaved.” The people requested the Prophet (saying): “Also (invoke Allāh for) those who have got their head-hair cut short?” The Prophet (invoked) Allāh for those who have got their heads shaved and at the third time said, “— also (forgive) those who have got their head-hair cut short.”

1729. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophets and some of his Companions got their heads shaved and some others got their head-hair cut short.

1730. Narrated Mu‘āwiya: I cut short the head-hair of Allāh’s Messenger with a long blade of an arrow-head.

(128) CHAPTER. To get the head-hair cut short after performing ‘Umra of Ḥajj-at-Tamattu’.

1731. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When the Prophet came to Makkah, he ordered his Companions to perform Tawāf round the Ka’bah and [Sa‘y (going)] between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa, to finish their Ihram and get their head-hair shaved or cut short.
(129) CHAPTER. The visit [(of the Ka'bah)] to perform Tawaf-al-Ifada] on the Day of Nahr.

Narrated Ibn Az-Zubair from 'Aishah and Ibn 'Abbâs. The Prophet  delayed the visit till night. Ibn 'Abbâs narrated that the Prophet  used to visit the House (Ka'bah) during the days of Mina.

1732. Narrated Näfi' that Ibn 'Umar  performed only one Tawaf. He would take an afternoon nap and then return to Mina. That was on the day of Nahr (slaughtering).

1733. Narrated 'Aishah that 'Abbâs  performed Hajj with the Prophet  and performed Tawaf-al-Ifada on the Day of Nahr (slaughtering). Safiyya got her menses and the Prophet  desired from her what a husband desires from his wife. I said to him, “O Allâh’s Messenger! She is having her menses.” He said, “Is she going to detain us?” We informed him that she had performed Tawaf-al-Ifada on the Day of Nahr. He said, “(Then) depart.”
(130) CHAPTER. If one did the Ramy of the Jamra after Maghrib (evening) or has his head shaved before slaughtering the Hady because of forgetfulness or ignorance.

1734. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ was asked about the slaughtering, shaving (of the head), and the doing of Ramy before or after their due times. He said, “There is no harm in that.”

1735. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ was asked (as regards the ceremonies of Hajj) at Minâ on the Day of Nahr and he replied that there was no harm. Then a man said to him, “I got my head shaved before slaughtering.” He replied, “Slaughter (now) and there is no harm in it.” (Another) man said, “I did the Ramy (of the Jamâr) after midday.” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “There is no harm in it.”

(131) CHAPTER. To give religious verdicts near the Jamra while riding an animal.

1736. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Amr رضي الله عنه: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ stopped (for a while near the Jamâr at Minâ) during his last Hajj and the people started asking him questions. A man said, “Ignorantly I got my head shaved before slaughtering.” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Slaughter (now) and there is no harm in it.” Another man said, “Unknowingly I slaughtered the Hady before doing the Ramy.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do Ramy now and there is no harm in it.” So, on that day, when the Prophet ﷺ was asked about anything (about the ceremonies of Hajj) done before or after (its stated time) his reply was, “Do it (now) and there is no harm.”

1737. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr bin Al-'Āṣī: I witnessed the Prophet ﷺ when he was delivering the Khutba (religious talk) on the day of Nahr. A man stood up and said, “I thought that such and such was to be done before such and such. I got my hair shaved before slaughtering.” (Another said), “I slaughtered the Hady before doing the Ramy.” So, the people asked about many similar things. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do it (now) and there is no harm in all these cases.” Whenever the Prophet ﷺ was asked about anything on that day, he replied, “Do it (now) and there is no harm in it.”

1738. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr bin Al-'Āṣī: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ stopped (near the Jimār at Mina) while on his she-camel (the subnarrator then narrated the Hadith as above, i.e. Hadith No.1737).

(132) CHAPTER. Al-Khutba (religious talk) during the Days of Minā.
1739. Narrated 'Ikrima: Ibn 'Abbas said: “Allah's Messenger \(\text{رسُوْمُ اللهُ ﷺ} \) delivered a \(\text{Khuṭba} \) (religious talk) on the day of \(\text{Nahr} \), and said, ‘O people! (Tell me) what is the day today?’ The people replied, ‘It is the forbidden (sacred) day.’ He asked again, ‘What town is this?’ They replied, ‘It is the forbidden (sacred) town (Makkah).’ He asked, ‘Which month is this?’ They replied, ‘It is the forbidden (sacred) month.’ He said, ‘No doubt! Your blood, your properties, and your honour are sacred to one another like the sanctity of this day of yours, in this town (Makkah) of yours, in this month of yours.’ The Prophet \(\text{رسُوْمُ اللهُ ﷺ} \) repeated his statement again and again. After that he raised his head and said, ‘O Allah! Haven’t I conveyed (Your Message) to them? Haven’t I conveyed Your Message to them?’” Ibn 'Abbâs added, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, the following was his will (Prophet's will) to his followers: ‘It is incumbent upon those who are present to convey this information to those who are absent. Beware don’t renegate (as) disbelievers (turn into infidels) after me, by striking the necks (cutting the throats) of one another (i.e., by killing one another).’”

1740. Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs: I heard the Prophet \(\text{رسُوْمُ اللهُ ﷺ} \) delivering a \(\text{Khuṭba} \) (religious talk) at 'Arafat.
(religious talk) on the day of Nahr. He said, “Do you know what is the day today?” We said, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” He remained silent till we thought that he might give that day another name. He said, “Isn’t it the day of Nahr?” We said, “Yes! It is.” He further asked, “Which month is this?” We said, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” He remained silent till we thought that he might give it another name. He then said, “Isn’t it the month of Dhul-Hijjah?” We replied: “Yes! It is.” He further asked, “What town is this?” We replied, “Allāh and His Messenger know it better.” He remained silent till we thought that he might give it another name. He then said, “Isn’t it the forbidden (sacred) town (of Makkah)?” We said, “Yes! It is.” He said, “No doubt, your blood and your properties are sacred to one another like the sanctity of this day of yours, in this month of yours, in this town of yours, till the day you meet your Lord (Allāh). No doubt! Haven’t I conveyed Allāh’s Message to you? They said, “Yes (you have).” He said, “O Allāh! Be witness. So it is incumbent upon those who are present to convey it (this information) to those who are absent because the informed one might comprehend it (what I have said) better than the present audience who will convey it to him. Beware! Do not renegate (as) disbelievers after me by striking the necks (cutting the throats) of one another (i.e., by killing one another).”

1742. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: At Mina, the Prophet ﷺ said, “Do you know what is the day today?” The people replied,
"Allah and His Messenger know it better." He said, "It is the forbidden (sacred) day. And do you know what town is this?" They replied, "Allah and His Messenger know it better." He said, "This is the forbidden (sacred) town (Makkah). And do you know which month is this?" The people replied, "Allah and His Messenger know it better." He said, "This is the forbidden (sacred) month." The Prophet added, "No doubt, Allah made your blood, your properties, and your honour sacred to one another like the sanctity of this day of yours in this month of yours in this town of yours."

Narrated Ibn 'Umar: On the day of Nahr (10th of Dhul-Hijjah), the Prophet stood in between the Jamrat during his Hajj which he performed (as in the previous Hadith) and said, "This is the greatest day (i.e., 10th of Dhul-Hijjah)." The Prophet started saying repeatedly, "O Allah! Be Witness (I have conveyed Your Message)." He then bade the people farewell. The people said, "This is *Hajjat-ul-Wadâ")."

(133) CHAPTER. May those who provide the pilgrims with water stay at Makkah during the nights of Mina?

1744. Narrated Ibn 'Umar that the Prophet allowed (as above).

1745. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Al-'Abbás asked permission from the Prophet to stay at Makkah during the nights of Mina in order to provide water to the people, so the Prophet allowed him.

(134) CHAPTER. To do the Ramy of the Jimār.

Jābir said, "The Prophet did the Ramy on the day of Nahr (10th of Dhu-l-Hijjah) before noon (this is only for Jamrat-al-'Aqaba), and then (on the 11th and the 12th of Dhu-l-Hijjah) he did the Ramy after the decline of the sun (after Zuhr).

1746. Narrated Wabra: I asked Ibn 'Umar, "When should I do the Ramy of the Jimār?" He replied, "When your leader does that." I asked him again the same question. He replied, "We used to wait till the sun declined and then we would do the Ramy (i.e., on the 11th and 12th of Dhu-l-Hijjah)."

(135) CHAPTER. To do the Ramy of Jimār from the middle of the valley.
1747. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Yazid: ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd) did the Ramy from the middle of the valley. So, I said, “O, Abū ‘Abdur-Raḥmān! Some people do the Ramy (of the Jamra) from above it (i.e., from the top of the valley).” He said, “By Him except Whom none has the right to be worshipped, this is the place from where the one - on whom Sūrat Al-Baqarah was revealed (i.e. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ) - did the Ramy.”

(136) CHAPTER. The Ramy of the Jimār with seven small stones.

And this has been narrated by Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنه from the Prophet ﷺ.

1748. Narrated ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Yazid: When ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd) رضي الله عنه reached the big Jamra (i.e. Jamrat-ul-‘Aqaba) he kept the Ka‘bah on the left side and Mina on his right side and threw seven pebbles (at the Jamra) and said, “The one on whom Sūrat Al-Baqarah was revealed (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) had done the Ramy similarly.”

(137) CHAPTER. Keeping the House (Ka‘bah) on the left on doing Ramy of the Jamrat-ul-‘Aqaba.

1749. Narrated ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Yazid: I performed Hajj with Ibn Mas‘ūd رضي الله عنه and saw him doing Ramy of the big Jamra (Jamrat-ul-'Aqaba) with seven small pebbles, keeping the Ka'bah on his left side and Mina on his right. He then said, “This is the place where the one on whom Sūrat Al-Baqarah was revealed (i.e. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ) stood.”

(138) CHAPTER. To say ‘Allāhu Akbar (Allāh is the Most Great)’ on throwing every pebble.

This was stated by Ibn ‘Umar that the Prophet ﷺ said so.”

1750. Narrated Al-A‘mash: I heard Al-Hajjāj saying on the pulpit, “The Sūrah in which Al-Baqarah (the cow) is mentioned and the Sūrah in which the family of ‘Imrān is mentioned and the Sūrah in which the women (An-Nisā‘) is mentioned.” I mentioned this to Ibrahim, and he said, “‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Yazid told me, ‘I was with (Abdullah) Ibn Mas‘ūd when he did the Ramy of the Jamrat-ul-‘Aqaba. He went down the middle of the valley, and when he came near the tree (which was near the Jamra) he stood opposite to it and threw seven small pebbles and said: Allāhu Akbar on throwing every pebble.’ Then he said, ‘By Him, except Whom none has the right to be worshipped, here (at this place) stood the one on whom Sūrat Al-Baqarah was revealed (i.e., Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ).’”

(139) CHAPTER. Not standing (for invocation) after doing Ramy of the Jamrat-ul-‘Aqaba.
Ibn ‘Umar, narrated this on the authority of the Prophet:

(140) CHAPTER. After doing Ramy of the (other) two Jamrāt (Dunya and Wustā) one should go and stand on level ground, (and invoke Allah), facing the Qiblah (Ka‘bah at Makkah).

1751. Narrated Sālim: Ibn ‘Umar used to do Ramy of the Jamrat-ud-Dunya (the Jamra near to the Khaif mosque) with seven small stones and used to recite Takbir on throwing every pebble. He then would go ahead till he reached the level ground; where he would stand facing the Qiblah for a long time and invoke (Allāh) while raising his hands. Then he would do Ramy of the Jamrat-ul-Wusta (middle Jamra) and then he would go to the left towards the middle ground, where he would stand facing the Qiblah. He would remain standing there for a long period and invoke (Allāh) while raising his hands. Then he would do Ramy of the Jamrat-ul-‘Aqaba from the middle of the valley, but he would not stay by it, and then he would leave and say, “I saw the Prophet doing like this.”

1752. Narrated Sālim bin ‘Abdullāh: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar used to do Ramy of the Jamrat-ud-Dunya with seven small pebbles and used to recite Takbir on throwing each stone. He, then, would proceed further till he reached the level ground, where he would stay for a long time, facing the Qiblah to invoke (Allāh) while... raising his hands. Then he would do Ramy of the Jamrat-ul-Wustā similarly and would go to the left towards the level ground, where he would stand for a long time facing the Qiblah to invoke (Allāh) while raising his hands.
Then he would do Ramy of the Jamrat-al-‘Aqaba from the middle of the valley, but he would not stay by it. Ibn ‘Umar used to say,
“I saw Allāh’s Messenger doing like that.”

(142) CHAPTER. Invoking (Allāh) near the two Jamrāt.

1753. Narrated Az-Zuhri: Whenever Allāh’s Messenger stoned the Jamra near Mina mosque, he would do Ramy of it with seven small pebbles and say Takbīr on throwing each pebble. Then he would go ahead and stand facing the Qiblah with his hands raised, and invoke (Allāh) and he used to stand for a long period. Then he would come to the second Jamra (Al-Wustā) and stone it with seven small stones, reciting Takbīr on throwing each stone. Then he would descend to the left near the valley and stand facing the Qiblah with raised hands to invoke (Allāh). Then he would come to the Jamra near the ‘Aqaba (Jamrat-ul-‘Aqaba) and do Ramy of it with seven small pebbles, reciting Takbīr on throwing each stone. He then would leave and not stay by it.

Narrated Az-Zuhri: I heard Salīm bin
‘Abdullāh saying the same that his father said so on the authority of the Prophet. And Ibn ‘Umar used to do the same.
(143) CHAPTER. To perfume oneself after doing Ramy of the Ji,mar and to have one's head shaved before Tawaf-al-Ifada.

1754. Narrated 'Abdur-Rahmân bin Al-Qâsim: I heard my father who was the best man of his age, saying, “I heard 'Aishah saying, 'I perfumed Allah's Messenger with my own hands before finishing his Ihram while yet he has not performed Tawaf-al-Ifada.' She spread her hands (while saying so.)”

(144) CHAPTER. Tawaf-al-Wada.

1755. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: The people were ordered to perform the Tawaf of the Ka'bah (Tawaf-al-Wada') as the last thing before leaving (Makkah), except the menstruating women who were exempted.

1756. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: The Prophet offered the Zuhr, 'Asr, Maghrib and the İshâ' Salât (prayers) and slept for a while at a place called Al-Muhaşṣab and then rode to the Ka'bah and performed Tawaf round it (Tawaf-al-Wada').
(145) CHAPTER. If a woman gets her menses after Tawaf-al-Ifada (would it be obligatory for her to perform Tawaf-al-Wada)?

1757. Narrated ‘Āishah: Safiyya bint Ḥuyai, the wife of the Prophet, got her menses, and Allah’s Messenger was informed of that. He said, “Would she delay us?” The people said, “She has already performed Tawaf-al-Ifada.” He said, “Then she will not (delay us).”

1758, 1759. Narrated ‘Ikrima: The people of Al-Madina asked Ibn ‘Abbās about a woman who got her menses after performing Tawaf-al-Ifada. He said, “She could depart (from Makkah).” They said, “We will not act on your verdict and ignore the verdict of Zaid.” Ibn ‘Abbās said, “When you reach Al-Madina, inquire about it.” So, when they reached Al-Madina they asked (about that). One of those they asked was Umm Sulaim. She told them the narration of Safiyya (Hadith No.1757).

1760. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: A menstruating woman was allowed to leave Makkah if she had done Tawaf-al-Ifada.
1761. Tawüs (a subnarrator) said that his father said, “I heard Ibn ‘Umar saying that she should not depart. Then later I heard him saying that the Prophet had allowed them (menstruating women) to depart.”

1762. Narrated ‘Aishah: We set out with the Prophet with the intention of performing Hajj only. The Prophet reached Makkah and performed Tawaf [of the Ka’bah and Sayy (going) between As-Saf and Al-Marwa] and did not finish the Ihram, because he had the Hady with him. His Companions and his wives performed Tawaf [of the Ka’bah and Sayy (going) between As-Saf and Al-Marwa], and those who had no Hady with them finished their Ihram. I got the menses and performed all the ceremonies of Hajj. So, when it was the night of Ḥaṣba (night of departure), I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! All your Companions are returning with Hajj and ‘Umra except me.” He asked me, “Didn’t you perform Tawaf of the Ka’bah (‘Umra) when you reached Makkah?” I said, “No.” He said, “Go to Tan‘im with your brother ‘Abdur-Rahmân, and assume Ihram for ‘Umra and I will wait for you at such and such a place.” So, I went with ‘Abdur-Rahmân to Tan‘im and assumed Ihram for ‘Umra. Then Şafiyya bint Ḥuyai got menses. The Prophet said, “‘Aqrā Ḥalqâ!” You will detain us! Didn’t you perform Tawaf (Al-Ifāda) on the day of Nahr (slaughtering)’?” She said, “Yes, I did.” He said, “Then there is no harm, depart.” So I met the Prophet when he was ascending

(1) (H.1762) “‘Aqrā Ḥalqâ”: See the glossary.
the heights towards Makkah and I was descending, or vice-versa.

(146) CHAPTER. Whoever offered the ‘Asr prayer at Abtah on the day of departure from Minā (Day of Nafr).

1763. Narrated ‘Abdul-Azīz bin Rufai: I asked Anas bin Mālik, “Tell me something you have observed about the Prophet concerning where he offered the Zuhr prayer on the day of Tarwiya (8th Dhul-Hijjah).” Anas replied, “He offerd it at Mina.” I said, “Where did he offer the ‘Asr prayer on the day of Nafr (day of departure from Minā)?” He replied, “At Al-Abtah,” and added, “You should do as your rulers (or leaders) do.”

1764. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet offered the Zuhr, ‘Asr, Maghrib and ‘Ishā, Ṣalāt (prayers) and slept for a while at a place called Al-Muḥāṣṣab and then he rode towards the Ka‘bah and performed Ṭawāf (al-Wadā’).
(147) CHAPTER. Al-Muḥāṣṣab. (This is situated between Makkah and Minā and is also called Al-ʿAbtaḥ or Ḥaṣba or Khāʾif Banī Kāīnānā).

1765. Narrated ‘Aishah: It was a place where the Prophet used to camp so that it might be easier for him to depart.

1766. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: It was a place where the Prophet camped (during his Hajj).

(148) CHAPTER. To camp at Dhi-Ṭuwā before entering Makkah and to camp at Al-Bathā which is at Dhul-Ḥulaifa on returning from Makkah (to Al-Madīna).

1767. Narrated Nāfiʿ: Ibn ‘Umar never made his she-camel kneel down except near the gate of the Masjid (Al-Masjid-al-Haram), and then he would enter (it) and go to the Black (Stone) Corner and start from there the circumambulation of the Kaʿbah seven times; hastening in the first three rounds (Ramal) and walking in the last four.

On finishing, he would offer two Rakʿā prayer (of Tawāf) and set out to perform Tawāf (i.e. [Sāy (going)]) between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa before returning to his dwelling. place. On returning (to Al-Madina) from Hijj or ‘Umra, he used to make his camel kneel down at Al-Bathä which is at Dhul-Hulaifa, the place where the Prophet used to make his camel kneel down.

1768. Narrated Khãlid bin Al-Hãrith: ‘Ubaidullãh was asked about Al-Muhaßab. ‘Ubaidullãh narrated: Nãfi' said, “Allãh’s Messenger, ‘Umar and Ibn ‘Umar camped there.” Nãfi' added, “Ibn ‘Umar used to offer the Zuhr and ‘Asr prayer at it (i.e. Al-Muhaßab).” I think he mentioned the Maghrib prayer also. I said, “I don’t doubt about ‘Isha’ (i.e., he used to offer it there also), and he used to sleep there for a while. He used to say, ‘The Prophet used to do the same.’”

1769. Narrated Nãfi': Whenever Ibn ‘Umar approached (Makkah), he used to pass the night at Dhi-Tuwa till dawn, and then he would enter Makkah. On his return from Makkah, he used to pass by Dhi-Tuwa and pass the night there till dawn, and he used to say that the Prophet used to do the same.

1770. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: Dhul-Majãz and ‘Ukãz were the markets of... the people during the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance. When the people embraced Islam, they disliked to do bargaining there till the following Verses were revealed:

“There is no sin on you if you seek of the Bounty of your Lord (during Hajj by trading, etc.)…” (V.2:198)

(151) CHAPTER. To depart from Al-Muḥaṣṣab in the last part of night.

1771. Narrated ‘Āishah  رضي الله عنها: Ṣafiyya got her menses on the night of Nafr (departure from Hajj), and she said, “I see that I will detain you.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Aqra Ḥalqā! Did she perform the Tawaf (Al-Ifāda) on the Day of Nahr (slaughtering)?” Somebody replied in the affirmative. He said, “Then depart.”

1772. Narrated ‘Āishah  رضي الله عنها: “We set out with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ (from Al-Madīna) with the intention of performing Hajj only. When we reached Makkah, he ordered us to finish the Iḥrām. When it was the night of Nafr (departure), Ṣafiyya bint Ḥuyai got her menses. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Halqat Aqra! I think that she will detain you,” and asked (her), “Did you perform the Tawaf (Al-Ifāda) on the day of Nahr (slaughtering)?” She replied, “Yes.” He said, “Then depart.” I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I have not (done the ‘Umra).” He replied, “Perform ‘Umra from Tan’īm.”
My brother went with me and we came across the Prophet in the last part of the night. He said, "Wait at such and such a place."

(1) CHAPTER. The obligation of performing ‘Umrah and its superiority.

Ibn ‘Umar said, “Hajj and ‘Umrah are obligatory for everybody.” And Ibn ‘Abbas said, “‘Umrah is mentioned in conjunction with Hajj in the Book of Allah: ‘And perform properly (i.e., all the ceremonies according to the ways of Prophet Muhammad) Hajj and ‘Umra for Allah.’” (V.2:196)

1773. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “(The performance of) ‘Umra is an expiation for the sins committed between it and the previous one. And the reward of Al-Hajj Al-Mabrûr (the one accepted by Allah) is nothing but Paradise.”

(2) CHAPTER. The performance of ‘Umra before Hajj.

Narrated ‘Ikrima bin Khâlid: “I asked Ibn ‘Umar the same (as above).”
(3) CHAPTER. How many times did the Prophet \( \text{ﷺ} \) perform \'Umra?

1775. Narrated Mujähid: 'Urwa bin Az-Zubair and I entered the mosque and saw 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar, sitting near the dwelling place of 'Àishah and some people were offering the \( \text{ṣalāt-ud-\text{Dūhā}} \) (Duha prayer). We asked him about their \( \text{ṣālāt} \) and he replied that it was a heresy. He ('Urwa) then asked him how many times the Prophet \( \text{ﷺ} \) had performed \'Umra. He replied, “Four times; one of them was in the month of Rajab.” We disliked to contradict him.

1776. Then we heard 'Àishah, the Mother of faithful believers cleaning her teeth with Siwak in the dwelling place. 'Urwa said, “O Mother! O Mother of the believers! Don’t you hear what Abû 'Abdur Râhîmân is saying?” She said, “What does he say?” 'Urwa said, “He says that Allâh’s Messenger \( \text{ﷺ} \) performed \'Umra four times and one of them was in the month of Rajab.” 'Àishah said, “May Allâh be Merciful to Abû 'Abdur Râhîmân! The Prophet \( \text{ﷺ} \) did not perform any \'Umra except that he was with him, and he never performed any \'Umra in Rajab.”

1777. Narrated 'Urwa bin Az-Zubair: I asked 'Àishah, whether the...

Prophet ﷺ had performed ‘Umra in Rajab). She replied, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ never performed any ‘Umra in Rajab.”

1778. Narrated Qatada: I asked Anas رضي الله عنه: How many times the Prophet ﷺ had performed ‘Umra. He replied, “Four times:
1. ‘Umra of Ḥudaibiya in Dhil-Qa‘da when the Mushrikin hindered him; 2. ‘Umra in the following year in Dhil-Qa‘da after the peace treaty with them (the Mushrikin); 3. ‘Umra from Al-Jīrāna where he distributed the war booty.” I think he meant the booty (of the battle) of Ḥunain. 4. ‘Umra along with his Hajj (Ḥajjat-ul-Wada) I asked, “How many times did he perform Hajj?” He (Anas) replied, “Once.”

1779. Narrated Qatada: I asked Anas رضي الله عنه (about the Prophet’s ‘Umra) and he replied, “The Prophet ﷺ performed ‘Umra when the Mushrikin made him return, and ‘Umra of Al-Ḥudaibiya (the next year), and another ‘Umra in Dhil-Qa‘da, and another ‘Umra in combination with his Hajj.”

1780. Narrated Hammām: (Qatada said: Anas said): The Prophet ﷺ performed four ‘Umra (three) in Dhil-Qa‘da except the (one) ‘Umra which he performed with his Hajj: His ‘Umra from Al-Ḥudaibiya, and the one of the following year, and the one from Al-Jīrāna where he distributed the booty (of the battle) of Ḥunain, and another ‘Umra along with his Hajj.

(4) CHAPTER. ‘Umra in (the month of) Ramaḍān.

1782. Narrated ‘Atā’: I heard Ibn ‘Abbās saying, “Allāh’s Messenger asked an Anṣārī woman (Ibn ‘Abbās named her but ‘Atā forgot her name), ‘What prevented you from performing Ḥajj with us?’ She replied, ‘We have a camel and the father of so-and-so and his son (i.e., her husband and her son) rode it and left one camel for us to use for irrigation.’ He ﷺ said (to her), ‘Perform ‘Umra when Ramaḍān comes, for ‘Umra in Ramaḍān is equal to Ḥajj (in reward),’ or said something similar.”
(5) CHAPTER. The performance of ‘Umra on the night of Hasba (the night of departure from Mina) after finishing Hajj and on other nights.

1783. Narrated ‘Aishah : We set out along with Allah’s Messenger shortly before the appearance of the new moon (crescent) of the month of Dhil-Hijjah and he said to us, “Whoever wants to assume Ihram for Hajj may do so; and whoever wants to assume Ihram for ‘Umra may do so. Hadn’t I brought the Hady (animal for sacrifice) (with me), I would have assumed Ihrãm for ‘Umra.” (‘Aishah added:) So some of us assumed Ihrãm for ‘Umra while the others for Hajj. I was amongst those who assumed Ihrãm for ‘Umra. The day of ‘Arafat approached and I was still menstruating. I complained to the Prophet about that) and he said, “Abandon your ‘Umra, undo and comb your hair, and assume Ihram for Hajj.” When it was the night of Hasba, he sent ‘Abdur Rahmân with me to At-Tan’îm and I assumed Ihrãm for ‘Umra (and performed it) in lieu of my missed ‘Umra.

(6) CHAPTER. ‘Umra from At-Tan’îm.

1784. Narrated ‘Amr bin Aus : ‘Abdur Rahmân bin ‘Abu Bakr told me that the Prophet had ordered him to let ‘Aishah ride behind him and to make her perform ‘Umra from At-Tan’îm.
1785. Narrated Jābīr bin ‘Abbūlāh: The Prophet and his Companions assumed Ḣirām for Ḥaqq and none except the Prophet and Jāhīl Al-Baqi’ and Thālīha had the Ḥady with them. ‘Alī had come from Yemen and had the Ḥady with him. He (‘Alī) said, “I have assumed Ḣirām with an intention like that of Allah’s Messenger. The Prophet ordered his Companions to intend the Ḣirām with which they had come for ‘Umra, i.e., to perform the Ṭawaf of the Ka’bah and Sa’d (going) between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwā, to get their hair cut short and then to finish their Ḣirām with the exception of those who had the Ḥady with them. They asked, “Shall we go to Mina and the private organs of some of us are dribbling (if we finish Ḣirām and have sexual relations with our wives)?” The Prophet heard that and said, “Had I known formerly what I know now, I would not have brought the Ḥady. If I did not have the Ḥady with me I would have finished my Ḣirām.” Āishah got her menses and performed all the ceremonies (of Ḥaqq) except the Ṭawaf. So when she became clean from her menses, and she had performed the Ṭawaf of the Ka’bah, she said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You (people) are returning with Ḥaqq and ‘Umra and I am returning only with Ḥaqq!” So, he ordered ‘Abdur Rabbīn bin ‘Abū Bakr to go with her to At-Tan’īm. Thus she performed ‘Umra after the Ḥaqq in the month of Dhīl-Hijjah. Sūrāqā bin Malik bin Ju’sham met the Prophet at Al-Aqāba (Jamrat-ul-Aqāba) while the latter was stoning it and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Is this permissible only for you?” The Prophet replied, “No, it is for ever (i.e., it is permissible for all Muslims to perform ‘Umra before Ḥaqq.”(1)

(1) (H.1785) This may also mean that the performance of ‘Umra during the months of Ḥaqq was permissible, contrary to what the pagans of the Pre-Islamic Period believed. (Fath Al-巴)
(7) CHAPTER. The performance of 'Umra after performing Hajj without having a Hady.

1786. Narrated 'Aishah: We set out with Allah's Messenger shortly before the appearance of the new moon of D hil-Hijjah and he said, "Whoever wants to assume Ihram for 'Umra may do so, and whoever wants to assume Ihram for Hajj may do so. Had not I brought the Hady with me, I would have assumed Ihram for 'Umra." Some of the people assumed Ihram for 'Umra while others for Hajj. I was amongst those who had assumed Ihram for 'Umra. I got my menses before entering Makkah, and was menstruating till the day of 'Arafat. I complained to Allah's Messenger about it, he said, "Abandon your 'Umra, undo and comb your hair, and assume Ihram for Hajj." So, I did that accordingly. When it was the night of Hasba (day of departure from Mina), the Prophet sent 'Abdur Rahman with me to At-Tan'im.

The subnarrator adds: He ('Abdur-Rahman) let her ride behind him.

And she assumed Ihram for 'Umra in lieu of the abandoned one. 'Aishah completed her Hajj and 'Umra, and no Hady, Sadaqa (charity), or fasting was obligatory for her.

(8) CHAPTER. The reward of 'Umra is according to the hardship which one encounters in performing it.

1787. Narrated Al-Aswad that 'Aishah said, "O Allah's Messenger! The people are returning after performing the two Nusuk (i.e., Hajj and ‘Umra) but I am returning with one only?" He said, "Wait till you become clean from your menses and then go to At-Tan‘im, assume Ihram (and after performing ‘Umra) join us at such and such a place. But it (i.e., the reward of ‘Umra) is according to your expenses or the hardship (which you encounter while performing it)."

(9) CHAPTER. If a person performing ‘Umra departs after performing the Tawaf of ‘Umra, will that Tawaf substitute for Tawaf-al-Wada’ as well?

1788. Narrated ‘Aishah : We set out assuming the Ihram for Hajj in the months of Hajj towards the sacred precincts of Haff. We dismounted at Sarif and the Prophet said to his Companions, "Whoever has not got the Hady with him and likes to make it as ‘Umra, he should do it, but he who has got the Hady with him should not do it." The Prophet and some of his wealthy Companions had the Hady with them, so they did not finish Ihram after performing the ‘Umra. The Prophet came to me while I was weeping. He asked me the reason for it. I replied, "I have heard of what you have said to your Companions and I cannot do the ‘Umra." He asked me, "What is the matter with you?" I replied, "I am not offering prayers." He said, "There is no harm in it as you are one of the daughters of Adam and the same is written for you as for others. So, you should perform Hajj and I hope that Allah will enable you to perform the 'Umra as well." So, I carried on till we departed from Minâ and halted at Al-Muḥâṣṣab. The Prophet ﷺ called 'Abdur-Rahmân and said, "Go out of the sanctuary with your sister and let her assume Ihrâm for 'Umra, and after both of you have finished the Tawâf I will be waiting for you at this place." We came back at mid-night and the Prophet ﷺ asked us, "Have you finished?" I replied in the affirmative. He announced the departure and the people set out for the journey and some of them had performed the Tawâf of the Ka'bah before the morning prayer, and after that the Prophet ﷺ set out for Al-Madîna.

(1) (H.1788) This expression is an indirect way to say: "I have got menses and thus I cannot perform my prayers. Consequently, I cannot perform the ceremonies of ‘Umra."

(10) CHAPTER. A person should perform (the same ceremonies) in 'Umra, as he performs in Hajj.

1789. Narrated Sâfâwân bin Ya'lâ bin Umaiyya that his father said, "A man came to the Prophet ﷺ while he was at Ji'râna. The man was wearing a cloak which had traces of Khâliq of Sufra (a kind of perfume). The man asked (the Prophet ﷺ), 'What do you order me to perform in my 'Umra?' So, Allah inspired the Prophet ﷺ Divinely and he was screened by a piece of cloth. I wished to see the Prophet ﷺ being Divinely inspired. 'Umar ﷺ said to me, 'Come! Will you be pleased to look at the Prophet ﷺ while Allah is inspiring him?' I replied in the affirmative. 'Umar lifted one corner of the cloth and I looked at the Prophet ﷺ who was snoring. When that state was over, the Prophet ﷺ asked, 'Where is the questioner who asked about 'Umra? Put off your cloak and wash away the traces of Khâliq from your body and clean the Sufra (yellow colour) and perform in your ‘Umra what you perform in your Hajj [i.e., the Tawaf round the Ka’bah and the Sāy (going) between As-Safā and Al-Marwa].”

1790. Narrated ‘Urwa: While I was a youngster, I asked ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, “What about the meaning of the Statement of Allah ﷻ: ‘Verily! A-Safā and Al-Marwa (two mountains in Makkah), are of the Symbols of Allah. So it is not a sin on him who performs Hajj or ‘Umra of the House (Ka’bah at Makkah) to perform the Tawaf [Sāy (going)] between them?’ (V.2:158) I understand (from that) that there is no sin if somebody does not perform the Tawaf between them.” ‘Aishah replied, “No, for if it were as you are saying, then the recitation would have been like this: ‘It is not sinful not to perform Tawaf between them.’ This Verse was revealed in connection with the Ansār who used to assume the Ihram for the idol Manāt which was put beside a place called Qudaid and those people thought it not right to perform the Tawaf of Aš-Safā and Al-Marwa. When Islam came, they asked Allah’s Messenger ﷺ about that, and Allah revealed:

‘Verily! Aš-Safā and Al-Marwa (two mountains in Makkah) are of the Symbols of Allah.’

So, it is not a sin on him who performs Hajj or ‘Umra (pilgrimage of the House Ka’bah at Makkah) to perform Tawaf [Sāy (going)] between them.”’ (V.2:158)

Sufyān and Abū Mu’āwiyah added:
Hishām added (from ‘Aishah): “The Hajj or ‘Umra of the person who does not perform the Tawaf between Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwa is incomplete before Allah.”

(11) CHAPTER. When should a person performing ‘Umra finish his Ihram?

Jābir said, “The Prophet ordered his Companions to perform ‘Umra (with the Ihram they had intended for Hajj) and to perform the Tawaf (of Ka’bah, Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwa), and then cut short their hair and finish the Ihram.”

1791. Narrated Ismā’il: ‘Abdullāh bin Abu Aufa said: “Allah’s Messenger performed ‘Umra and we too performed ‘Umra along with him. When he entered Makkah he performed the Tawaf (of Ka’bah) and we too performed it along with him, and then he came to the Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwa (i.e., performed the Sā’y) and we also came to them along with him. We were shielding him from the people of Makkah lest they may hit him with an arrow.”

A friend of his asked him (i.e., ‘Abdullāh bin Aufa), “Did the Prophet enter the Ka’bah (during that ‘Umra)?” He replied in the negative.

1792. Then he said, “What did he (the Prophet) say about Khadijā?” He (‘Abdullāh bin Aufa) said, “(He said) ‘Give Khadijā the good tidings that she will have a palace made of Qasab1 in Paradise and there will be neither noise nor any toil (fatigue trouble etc.) in it.’”

1793. Narrated ‘Amr bin Dinār: We asked Ibn ‘Umar whether a man who had performed the Tawaf of the Ka’bah but had not performed the Tawaf [Sā’y (going)] between Aş-Şafā and Al-

Marwa yet, was permitted to have sexual relation with his wife. He replied, “The Prophet arrived (at Makkah) and circumambulated the Ka‘bah seven times and then offered two-Rak‘a prayer behind Maqām Ibrāhīm and then performed the Ṭawāf (going) between As-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa seven times. And verily, in Allah’s Messenger you have a good example to follow”.

1794. And we asked Jabir bin ‘Abdullāh (the same question) and he replied: “He should not go near her till he has finished the Ṭawāf (going) between As-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa.”

1795. Narrated Abū Mūsā Al-Ash‘ārī: I came to the Prophet at Al-Batḥah while his camel was kneeling down and he asked me, “Have you intended to perform the Hajj?” I replied in the affirmative. He asked me, “With what intention have you assumed Ihram?” I replied, “I have assumed Ihram with the same intention as that of the Prophet.” He said, “You have done well. Perform the Ṭawāf of the Ka‘bah and (the Sā‘y) between As-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa and then finish the Ihram.” So, I performed the Ṭawāf around the Ka‘bah and (the Sā‘y) between As-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa and then went to a woman of the tribe of Qais who cleaned my head from lice. Later I assumed the Ihram for Hajj. I used to give the verdict of doing the same till the caliphate of ‘Umar who said, “If you follow Allah’s Book (the Qur‘ān) then it orders you to remain in the state of Ihram till you finish from Hajj”, if you follow the Prophet then he did not... finish his Iḥrām till the Ḥady (sacrifice) had reached its place of slaughtering (Ḥajj-al-Qīrān)."

1796. Narrated Al-Aswād: ‘Abdullāh the slave of Asmā’ bint Abū Bakr, told me that he used to hear Asmā’, whenever she passed by Al-Hajūn, saying, “May Allāh bless His Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ. Once we dismounted here with him, and at that time we were travelling with light luggage; we had a few riding animals and a little food ration. I, my sister ‘Aīshah, Aṣ-Ṣa‘bān and such and such persons performed ‘Ummrā, and when we had passed our hands over the Ka‘bah (i.e., performed Tawāf round the Ka‘bah and between As-Safā and Al-Marwa) we finished our Iḥrām. Later on we assumed Iḥrām for Ḥajj the same evening.”

(12) CHAPTER. What should one say on returning from Ḥajj, ‘Ummrā and Gḥazwā.

1797. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: Whenever Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ returned from a Gḥazwā, Ḥajj or ‘Ummrā, he used to say Takbīr (Allāhu-Akbar) thrice at every elevation of the ground and then would say, Lā ilāha illā Allāh, la šartika lahu, la hul-mulk, wa la hul-hamdu, wa Huwa ʾālā kulli shay’in Qādir. Ayibūn, tāʾibūn, ʿabidūn, sajdūn, ṭalibīn, ṭalībīn. Ṣadaqal-lahu, wa ‘dhu, wa nasara ‘abdahu, wahazamal-aḥzāba Waḥdahū [None has the right to be worshipped but Allāh; He is One and has no partner. All the kingdom is for Him, and all the praises are for Him, and He is Omnipotent. We are returning with repentance, worshipping, prostrating, and praising our Lord. He has kept up His Promise and made His slave victorious, and He Alone defeated all the confederates (of disbelievers).”

(13) CHAPTER. Reception of the returning pilgrims; and the riding of three persons on one animal.

1798. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: When the Prophet arrived at Makkah, some boys of the tribe of Banī ‘Abd Muttalib went to receive him, and the Prophet made one of them ride in front of him and the other behind him.

(14) CHAPTER. Arriving in the morning.

1799. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Whenever Allah’s Messenger left for Makkah, he used to offer Salāt (prayer) in the mosque of Aṣḥā-Shajarah, and when he returned (to Al-Madīna), he used to offer Salāt in the middle of the valley of Dhul-Hulafā and used to pass the night there till morning.

(15) CHAPTER. Returning (home) at Al-‘Asji (after midday till sunset).

1800. Narrated Anas: The Prophet never returned to his family from a journey at night. He used to return either in the morning or in the afternoon.
(16) CHAPTER. Not to go to one's family on arrival at one's town, at night. [See Fath Al-Bäri]

1801. Narrated Jābir: The Prophet forbade going to one's family at night (on arrival from a journey).

(17) CHAPTER. Whoever made his she-camel proceed faster on reaching his town (destination).

1802. Narrated Humaid: Anas said, “Whenever Allah’s Messenger returned from a journey, he, on seeing the high places of Al-Madīna, would make his she-camel proceed faster; and if it were another animal, even then he used to make it proceed faster.”

Narraeted Humaid that the Prophet used to make it proceed faster out of his love for Al-Madīna.

Narraeted Anas as above, but mentioned “the walls of Al-Madīna” instead of “the high places of Al-Madīna.” Al-Ḥarīth bin ‘Umair agrees with Anas.

(18) CHAPTER. The Saying of Allāh: “...So enter houses through their proper doors...” (V.2:189)

1803. Narrated Abū Ishaq: I heard Al-Barā’ saying, “The above Verse was revealed regarding us, for the Ansār on returning from Ḥajj never entered their houses through the proper doors but from behind. One of the Ansār came and entered through the door and he was taunted for it. Therefore, the following was revealed:

“...It is not Al-Bīr (piety, righteousness) that you enter the houses from the back, but Al-Birr (is the quality of one) who fears Allāh. So, enter houses through their proper doors...” (V.2:189)

(19) CHAPTER. Travelling is a kind of torture.

1804. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Travelling is a kind of torture as it prevents one from eating, drinking and sleeping (properly). So, when one’s needs are fulfilled, one should return quickly to one’s family.”

(20) CHAPTER. What may a traveller do if he has to proceed fast to arrive home early?

1805. Narrated Zaid bin Aslam that his father said: “I was with Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ on the way to Makkah, and he got the news that Safiyya bint Abū ‘Ubaid was seriously ill. So, he hastened his pace, and when the twilight disappeared, he dismounted and offered the Maghrib and ‘Ishā’ prayer together. Then he said, “I saw that whenever the Prophet ﷺ had to hasten when travelling, he would delay the Maghrib prayer and join them together (i.e., offer the Maghrib and the ‘Ishā’ prayer together).”
And the Statement of Allah:
“...But if you are prevented (from completing them), sacrifice a Hady (animal i.e., a sheep or a cow or a camel etc.) such as you can afford, and do not shave your heads until the Hady reaches the place of sacrifice...” (V.2:196)

(1) CHAPTER. If one, intending to perform ‘Umra, is prevented from performing it.

1806. Narrated Nāfi’: When ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar set out for Makkah intending to perform ‘Umra, at the time of Al-Fītnah (trial or affliction), he said, “If I should be prevented from reaching the Ka’bah, then I would do the same as Allah’s Messenger did, so I assume the Ihram for ‘Umra as Allah’s Messenger assumed the Ihram for ‘Umra in the year of Ḥudaibiyah.”

1807. Narrated Nāfi’ that ‘Ubaidullāh bin ‘Abdullāh and Salīm bin ‘Abdullāh informed him that they told Ibn ‘Umar, at the time of Ibn Az-Zubair was attacked by the army saying, “There is no harm for you if you did not perform Hajj this year. We are afraid that you may be prevented from reaching the Ka’bah.” Ibn ‘Umar said, “We set out with Allah’s Messenger and the Quraish disbelievers prevented us from reaching the Ka’bah, and so the Prophet slaughtered his Hady and got his head shaved.”

(1) (Ch. 27) Al-Muhsar is a Muhrim who intends to perform Hajj or ‘Umra but is prevented from performing it because of some obstacle.
(2) (H. 1806) The fighting between Al-Ḥajjāj and Ibn Az-Zubair.
'Umar added, “I make you witness that I have made ‘Umra obligatory for me. And if Allâh will, I will go and then if the way to Ka'bah is clear, I will perform the Tawaf, but if I am prevented from going to the Ka'bah then I will do the same as the Prophet did while I was in his company.” Ibn ‘Umar then assumed Ihrãm for ‘Umra from Dhul-Hulaifa and proceeded for a while and said, “The conditions of ‘Umra and Hajj are similar and I make you witnesses that I have made ‘Umra and Hajj obligatory for myself.” So, he did not finish the Ihrãm till the day of Nahr (slaughtering) came, and he slaughtered his Hady. He used to say, “I will not finish the Ihrãm till I perform the Ta waf, one Tawaf on the day of entering Makkah (i.e., one Sâ’ of Aṣ-Ṣafâ and Al-Marwa for both ‘Umra and Hajj).”

1808. Narrated Nãfi' : Some of the sons of ‘Abdullãh told him (i.e., ‘Abdullãh) if he had stayed (and not performed Hajj that year).

1809. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: Allâh’s Messenger was prevented from performing (‘Umra). Therefore, he shaved his head and had sexual relations with his wives and slaughtered his Hady and performed ‘Umra in the following year.

(2) CHAPTER. One who is prevented from performing the Hajj.

1810. Narrated Sâlim: ('Abdullãh) bin ‘Umar used to say, “Is not (the following of) the Sunna (legal ways) of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ sufficient for you? If anyone of you is prevented from performing Hajj, he should perform the Tawaf of the Ka’bah and [Sâ'y (going)] between As-Safâ and Al-Marwa and then finish the Ihrãm and everything will become legal for him which was illegal for him (during the state of Ihrãm); and he can perform Hajj in a following year and he should slaughter a Hady or observe Saum (fasting) in case he cannot afford the Hady.”

(3) CHAPTER. The slaughtering (of Hady) before shaving the head (in case) one is prevented from performing (Hajj or ‘Umra).

1811. Narrated Al-Miswar: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ slaughtered (the Hady) before he had his head shaved and then he ordered his companions to do the same.

1812. Narrated Nãfi’ that ‘Abdullãh and Salim said to ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar (رضي ﷺ عنهما): “(You should not go for Hajj this year).” ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar replied, “We set out with the Prophet ﷺ (to Makkah for performing ‘Umra) and the infidels of Quraish prevented us from reaching the Ka’bah. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ slaughtered his Budn (camels for sacrifice) and got his head shaved.”
(4) CHAPTER. Whoever said that the Muḥṣar is not supposed to perform ‘Umra or Hajj in lieu of the prevented one.

Ibn ‘Abbas رضي الله عنهما said, “The performing of Hajj is only obligatory in lieu of that Hajj which is abandoned because of personal pleasure (having sexual intercourse with his wife), and not for that which is abandoned because some genuine excuse or a similar thing (e.g., disease or lack of money), then he should finish his Ihram and there is no need for him to make up for it. And if he has a Hady with him and is prevented from performing Hajj, and he is unable to send it to its place of slaughtering, then he should slaughter it. But if he can send it, then he should not finish his Ihram till the Hady has reached its place (i.e., has been slaughtered).” Malik and others said, “He should slaughter his Hady and have his head shaved wherever he is and does not have to make up for it, because the Prophet ﷺ and his companions slaughtered the sacrifice and had their heads shaved in Al-Hudaybiya and finished their Ihram before performing the Tawaf and before the Hady reached the Ka’bah. It is not mentioned that the Prophet ﷺ ordered anybody to make up for any of the missed ceremonies or to repeat anything. And Al-Hudaybiya is outside the boundaries of the sanctuary of Makkah.”

thought about it and said, “The conditions for both Hajj and ‘Umra are similar.” He then turned towards his companions and said, “The conditions of both Hajj and ‘Umra are similar and I make you witness that I have made the performance of Hajj obligatory for myself along with ‘Umra.” He then performed one Tawaf [Sā‘y (going) between As-Safā and Al-Marwa] for both of them (i.e., Hajj and ‘Umra) and considered that to be sufficient for him and offered a Hady.

(5) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah "...And whosoever of you is ill or has an ailment in his scalp, (necessitating shaving), he must pay a Fidya (ransom), of either observing Saum (fasts) (three days), or giving Sadaqa (charity - feeding six poor persons), or offer sacrifice (one sheep)...

(V.2:196)

He has the option. As for fasting, it should be for three days.

1814. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Abū Lailā: Ka‘b bin ‘Ujrah said that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said to him (Ka‘b), “Perhaps your lice have troubled you?” Ka‘b replied, “Yes! O Allah’s Messenger.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Have your head shaved and then either fast three days, or feed six poor persons or slaughter one sheep as a sacrifice.”

(6) CHAPTER. The Saying of Allah "... Or giving Sadaqa..." (V.2:196)
Here Ṣadaqa is in the form of feeding six poor persons.

1815. Narrated Ka‘b bin ‘Ujra: Allah’s Messenger stood beside me at Al-Hudaibiyah and the lice were falling from my head in great number. He asked me, “Have your lice troubled you?” I replied in the affirmative. He ordered me to get my head shaved. Ka‘b added, “This Verse: ‘...And whosoever of you is ill, or has ailment in his scalp...’ (V.2:196) was revealed regarding me.” The Prophet then ordered me either to observe Saum (fast) for three days, or to feed six poor persons with one Faraq (three Sa) (of dates), or to slaughter a sheep, (as sacrifice) whatever was available.”

(7) CHAPTER. The Fidya (compensation for a missed or wrongly practised religious ceremony) in the form of feeding (six persons) each with one-half a ʿSa‘ (of food).

1816. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Ma‘qal: I sat with Ka‘b bin ‘Ujra and asked him about the Fidya. He replied, “This revelation was revealed concerning my case especially, but it is also for you in general. I was brought before Allah’s Messenger and the lice were falling in great numbers on my face. The Prophet said, “I have never thought that your ailment (or struggle) has reached to such an extent as I see. Can you afford a sheep?” I replied in the negative. He then said, “Observe Saum (fasts) for three days, or feed six poor persons each with one-half a ʿSa‘ of food (1 ʿSa‘ = 3 kilograms approx.) [and get your head shaved]”.
(8) CHAPTER. The Nusuk (offering) is one sheep.

1817. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Abû Lailâ reporting the speech of Ka‘b bin ‘Ujra رضي الله عنه: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saw him (i.e., Ka‘b) while the lice were falling on his face. He asked (him), “Have your lice troubled you?” He replied in the affirmative. So, he ﷺ ordered him to get his head shaved while he was at Al-‫حِدِّيْبَيْة. At that time they were not permitted to finish their Ihram, and were still hoping to enter Makkah. So, Allâh revealed the Verses of Al-Fidya. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered him to feed six poor persons with one Faraq of food or to slaughter one sheep (as a sacrifice) or to observe Saum (fast) for three days.

1818. Narrated Ka‘b bin ‘Ujra رضي الله عنه: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saw him (i.e., Ka‘b) while the lice were falling on his face.

(1) (H.1817) Ka‘b was permitted to finish his Ihram because of ailment in his head and had to pay Fidya, although later on, all his Companions finished Ihram because they were prevented from reaching the Ka‘bah.
(9) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“...Then he should not have sexual relations (with his wife) ...” (V.2:197)

1819. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ṭ: Allāh’s Messenger Ṭ said, “Whoever performs Ḥaǧj to this House (Ka’bah) and does not approach his wife for sexual relations nor commits sins (while performing Ḥaǧj), he will come out as sinless as a newborn child (just delivered by his mother).”

(10) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

...nor commit sin nor dispute unjustly during Ḥaǧj...” (V.2:197)

1820. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ṭ: The Prophet Ṭ said, “Whoever performs Ḥaǧj to this House (Ka’bah) and does not approach his wife for sexual relations nor commit sins (while performing Ḥaǧj), he will come out as sinless as a newborn child (just delivered by his mother).”
(1) CHAPTER. The penalty for hunting (by a Muhrim) and similar things. And the Statement of Allah

"...Kill not game while you are in the state of Ihram for Hajj or Umra (pilgrimage), and whosoever of you kills it intentionally, the penalty is an offering, brought to the Ka'bah, of an eatable animal (i.e., sheep, goat, cow, etc.) brought to the Ka'bah, equivalent to the one he killed... to the end of the Verse... And fear Allah to Whom you shall be gathered back." (V.5:95-96)

(2) CHAPTER. If a non-Muhrim hunts (an animal) and gives it as a present to a Muhrim, (it is permissible for) the latter to eat it.

Ibn 'Abbâs and Anas considered that there was no harm for a Muhrim to slaughter animals which were not game, like camels, sheep, cows, hens, or horses.

1821. Narrated 'Abdullâh bin Abû Qatâda: My father set out (for Makkah) in the year of Al- Hudâibiya, and his companions assumed Ihram, but he did not. At that time the Prophet was informed that an enemy wanted to attack him, so the Prophet proceeded onwards. While my father was among his companions, some of them laughed among themselves. (My father said), "I looked up and saw an onager(1). I attacked, stabbed and caught it.

(1) (H.1821) They were laughing because they saw an onager and could not hunt it=
I then sought my companions’ help, but they refused to help me. (Later) we all ate its meat. We were afraid that we might be left behind (separated) from the Prophet. So, I went in search of the Prophet and made my horse run at a galloping speed at times and let it go slow at an ordinary speed at other times till I met a man from the tribe of Banî Ghifâr at midnight. I asked him, “Where did you leave the Prophet?” He replied, “I left him at Ta’hun and he had the intention of having the midday rest at As-Suqyâ. I followed the traces and joined the Prophet and said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Your people (Companions) send you their compliments, and (ask for) Allah’s Blessings upon you. They are afraid lest they may be left behind; so please wait for them.’ I added, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! I hunted an onager and some of its meat is with me. The Prophet told the people to eat it, though all of them were in the state of Iḥrām.’

(3) CHAPTER. If the Muḥrīmūn saw game and then laughed and a non-Muḥrīm understood (why they laughed) (then their laughing is not to be considered as an intentional sign to draw the non-Muḥrīm’s attention. Therefore they are allowed to eat the game).

1822. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Abû Qatâda that his father said, “We proceeded with the Prophet in the year of Al-Ḥudaibiyâ and his companions assumed Iḥrām but I did not. =because they were in a state of Iḥrām; neither were they allowed to draw the attention of Abû Qatâda who was not a Muḥrīm then.

(1) (H.1821) Perhaps Abû Qatâda hurried to reach the Prophet so that he might ask him whether it was legal for the Muḥrīmūns to eat from that game, since some of his companions had refused to eat.
We were informed that some enemies were at Ghaiqa and so we went on towards them. My companions saw an onager and some of them started laughing among themselves. I looked and saw it. I chased it on my horse and stabbed and caught it. I wanted some help from my companions but they refused. (I slaughtered it all alone). We all ate from it (i.e., its meat). Then I followed Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ lest we should be left behind. At times I urged my horse to run at a galloping speed and at other times at an ordinary slow speed. On the way I met a man from the tribe of Bâni Ghifâr at midnight. I asked him where he had left Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. The man replied that he had left the Prophet ﷺ at a place called Ta’hun and he had the intention of having the midday rest at As-Suqâ. So, I followed Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ till I reached him and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I have been sent by my companions who send you their greetings and compliments and ask for Allâh’s Mercy and Blessings upon you. They were afraid lest the enemy might intervene between you and them; so please wait for them.” So he did. Then I said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! We have hunted an onager and have some of it (i.e., its meat) left over.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ told his companions to eat the meat, although all of them were in a state of Ihram.

\[4\] \textit{CHAFFER. A Muhrîm should not help a non-Muhrîm in the hunting of a game.}
company of the Prophet at a place called Al-Qâha and some of us had assumed Ihram while the others had not. I noticed that some of my companions were watching something, so I looked up and saw an onager. (I rode my horse and took the spear and whip) but my horse fell down (and I asked them to pick it up for me) but they said, “We will not help you by any means as we are in a state of Ihram.” So, I picked up the whip myself and attacked the onager from behind a hillock and slaughtered it and brought it to my companions. Some of them said, “Eat it.” While some others said, “Do not eat it.” So, I went to the Prophet who was ahead of us and asked him about it. He replied, “Eat it, as it is Halâl (i.e., it is legal to eat it).”

(5) CHAPTER. A Muhrim should not point at a game with the intention that a non-Muhrim may hunt it.

1824. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Abü Qatâda that his father had told him that Allâh’s Messenger set out for Hajj and so did his Companions. He sent a batch of his Companions by another route and Abü Qatâda was one of them. The Prophet said to them, “Proceed along the sea-shore till we meet all together.” So, they took the route of the sea-shore, and when they started all of them assumed Ihram except Abü Qatâda. While they were proceeding on, his companions saw a group of onagers. Abü Qatada chased the onagers and attacked and wounded a she-onager. They got down and ate some of its meat and said to each other: “How do we eat the meat of the game while we are in a state of Ihrām?” So, we (they) carried the rest of the she-onager’s meat, and when they met Allah’s Messenger, they asked saying, “O Allah's Messenger! We assumed Ihrām with the exception of Abu Qatada and we saw (a group) of onagers. Abu Qatada attacked them and wounded a she-onager from them. Then we got down and ate from its meat. Later, we said, (to each other), ‘How do we eat the meat of the game and we are in a state of Ifrām?’ So, we carried the rest of its meat.” The Prophet asked, “Did anyone of you order Abu Qatada to attack it or point at it?” They replied in the negative. He said, “Then eat what is left of its meat.”

(6) CHAPTER. If any person gave a living onager as a present to a Muḥrīm then he should not accept it.

1825. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās on the authority of Aṣ-Ṣa‘b bin Ḥathāma Al-Lāithi that the latter presented an onager to Allah’s Messenger while he was at Al-Abwā’ or at Waddān, and he refused to accept it. On noticing the signs of some unpleasant feeling of disappointment on his (Aṣ-Ṣa‘b’s) face, the Prophet said to him, “I have only returned it because I am Muḥrīm.”
(7) CHAPTER. (What kind of) animals can be killed by a Muhrim.

1826. Narrated `Abdullah bin `Umar \(\text{رضي الله عنهما}\): Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, “It is not sinful on a Muhrim to kill five kinds of animals.” (A crow, a kite, a scorpion, a mouse and a rabid dog).

1827. One of the wives of the Prophet ﷺ narrated: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A Muhrim can kill (five kinds of animals)”

1828. Narrated Hafsa ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It is not sinful (on a non-Muhrim or a Muhrim) to kill five kinds of animals, namely: a crow, a kite, a mouse, a scorpion and a rabid dog.”

1829. Narrated `Aishah ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Five kinds of animals are harmful and could be killed in the Haram.”

(sanctuary). These are: a crow, a kite, a scorpion, a mouse and a rabid dog."

1830. Narrated `Abdullâh

While we were in the company of the Prophet ﷺ in a cave at Mina, when Sûrat Al-Mursalât was revealed and he recited it and I heard it (directly) from his mouth as soon as he recited it, then suddenly a snake sprang at us and the Prophet ﷺ said (ordered us): “Kill it.” We ran to kill it but it escaped quickly. The Prophet ﷺ said, “It has escaped your evil and you too have escaped its evil.”

1831. Narrated `Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ called a house-lizard, a bad animal, but I did not hear him ordering that it should be killed.” [See H.3306].
(8) CHAPTER. It is not permissible to cut the trees\(^1\) of the Haram (the sanctuary of Makkah).

Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Its (the Haram’s) thorny bushes are not allowed to be cut off.”

1832. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Abū Sa‘īd Al-Maqqūrī: Abū Shurail Al-‘Adawī said that he had said to ‘Amr bin Sa‘īd when he was sending the troops to Makkah (to fight ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair), “O Chief! Allow me to tell you what Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said on the day following the conquest of Makkah. My ears heard that and my heart understood it thoroughly and I saw with my own eyes the Prophet ﷺ when he, after glorifying and praising Allāh, said, ‘Allāh, not the people, made Makkah a sanctuary, so anybody who has belief in Allāh and the Last Day should neither shed blood in it, nor should he cut down its trees. If anybody tells (argues) that fighting in it is permissible on the basis that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ did fight in Makkah, say to him: Allāh allowed His Messenger ﷺ and did not allow you.’ The Prophet ﷺ added: ‘[Allāh allowed me only for a few hours on that day (of the conquest) and today its sanctity is valid as it was before. So, those who are present should inform those who are absent (concerning this fact).’” Abū Shurail was asked, “What did ‘Amr reply?” He said, (‘Amr said) “O Abū Shurail! I know better than you in this respect, Makkah does not give protection to a sinner, a murderer or a thief.”

\(\text{(1) (Ch.8) Trees: Naturally grown only, neither planted nor sowed by you.}\)
(9) CHAPTER. The game in the Haram (Sanctuary) should not be chased or disturbed.

1833. Narrated Ibn 'Abbás: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh has made Makkah a sanctuary, so it was a sanctuary before me and will continue to be a sanctuary after me. It was made legal for me (i.e., I was allowed to fight in it) for a few hours of a day. It is not allowed to uproot its shrubs or to cut its trees, or to chase (or disturb) its game, or to pick up its Luqāa (fallen things) except by a person who would announce that (what he has found) publicly.” Al-'Abbās said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Except Al-Iḥāṣir (a kind of grass) (for it is used) by our goldsmiths and for our graves.” The Prophet ﷺ then said, “Except Al-Iḥāṣir.” ‘Ikrima said, “Do you know what ‘chasing or disturbing’ the game means? It means driving it out of the shade to occupy its place.”

(10) CHAPTER. Fighting is prohibited in Makkah.

Narrated Abū Shūrah that the Prophet ﷺ said, “It is forbidden to shed blood in Makkah.”

1834. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: On the day of the conquest of Makkah, the Prophet ﷺ said, “There is no more emigration (from Makkah) but Jihad and intentions(2), and whenever you are called for Jihad, you should go immediately. No doubt, Allāh has made this place (Makkah) a sanctuary since the creation of the heavens and the earth, and will remain a sanctuary till the Day of Resurrection as Allah has ordained its sanctity. Fighting was not permissible in it for anyone before me, and even for me it was allowed only for a portion of a day. So, it is a sanctuary with Allah's sanctity till the Day of Resurrection. Its thorns should not be uprooted and its game should not be chased; and its Luqata (fallen things) should not be picked up except by one who would announce that publicly, and its vegetation (grass etc.) should not be cut."

(1) (H.1833) ‘Atā’ and Mujāhid disagree with ‘Ikrima for they think that it is permissible to dismiss the game, unless that brings about its death.

Al-‘Abbās said, "O Allah's Messenger! Except Al-I’dh1hir (for it is used by their blacksmiths, and for their domestic purposes)." So, the Prophet said, "Except Al-I’dh1hir."
was cupped at the middle of his head at Lahye-Jamal.

(12) CHAPTER. The marrying of a Muhrim.

1837. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet  married Maimūna while he was in the state of Ihram, (only the ceremonies of marriage were held).

(13) CHAPTER. What is forbidden for a Muhrim (male or female) as regards perfumes.

‘Āishah  said, “A woman in the state of Ihram should not wear clothes perfumed with Wars or saffron.”

1838. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: A person stood up and asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! What clothes may be worn in the state of Ihram?” The Prophet  replied, “Do not wear a shirt or trousers, or any headgear (e.g., a turban), or a hooded cloak; but if somebody has no shoes he can wear leather stockings, provided they are cut short off the ankles, and also, do not wear anything perfumed with Wars or saffron, and the Muhrima (a woman in the state of Ihram) should not cover her face, and should not wear gloves.”
1839.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: A man was crushed to death by his she-camel and was brought to Allah’s Messenger who said, “Give him a bath and shroud him, but do not cover his head, and do not bring any perfume near to him, as he will be resurrected reciting Talbiya.”

(14) CHAPTER. The taking of a bath by a Muhrim.

And Ibn ‘Abbas said that a Muhrim could enter a bathroom for a bath, and Ibn ‘Umar and ‘Aishah did not think that there was any harm in scratching the body.

1840. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin Hunain: ‘Abdullah bin Al-‘Abbás and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama differed at Al-Abwâ‘; Ibn ‘Abbás said that a Muhrim could wash his head; while Al-Miswar maintained that he should not do so. ‘Abdullah bin ‘Abbás sent me to Abū Ayyūb Al-Anṣārī and I found him bathing between the two wooden posts (of the well) and was screened with a sheet of cloth. I greeted him and he asked who I was. I replied, “I am ‘Abdullāh bin Ḥunain, and I have been sent to you by Ibn ‘Abbās to ask you how Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to wash his head while in the state of Ḥijrah.” Abū Ayyūb Al-Anṣārī caught hold of the sheet of cloth and lowered it till his head appeared before me, and then told somebody to pour water on his head. He poured water on his head, and he (Abū Ayyūb) rubbed his head with his hands by bringing them from back to front and from front to back and said, “I saw the Prophet ﷺ doing like this.”

(15) CHAPTER. Wearing of Khuff (leather stockings) by a Muhrim if slippers are not available (but one has to cut short the Khuff below the ankles).

1841. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما: I heard the Prophet ﷺ delivering a Khutba (religious talk) at ‘Arafāt saying, “If a Muhrim does not find slippers, he could wear Khuff (but he has to cut short the Khuff below the ankles), and if he does not find an Izār (a waist-sheet for wrapping the lower-half of the body) he could wear trousers.”
1842. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: Allah’s Messenger was asked: What sort of clothes a Muhrim should wear? He replied, “He should not wear a shirt, turbans, trousers, a hooded cloak, or a dress perfumed with saffron or Wars; and if slippers are not available he can wear Khuff but he should cut them so that they reach below the ankles.

(16) CHAPTER. If an Izār is not available, one (i.e., a Muhrim) can wear trousers.

1843. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet delivered a Khutba (religious talk) at ‘Arafāt and said, “Whoever does not get an Izār can wear trousers, and whoever cannot get a pair of shoes (slippers) can wear Khuff.”

(17) CHAPTER. Carrying of arms by a Muhrim.

According to ‘Ikrima one can carry arms if he fears the enemy, but the Fidya (compulsory penalty) has to be paid. No religious scholar agrees with him on necessitating the Fidya.

1844. Narrated Al-Barā‘: The Prophet assumed Ihram for ‘Umra in the month of Dhul-Qa'da but the (Mushrikûn) people of Makkah refused to admit him into Makkah till he agreed on the condition that he would not bring into Makkah any arms but sheathed.

(18) CHAPTER. Entering the Ḥaram and Makkah without assuming Ḥıram.

And Ibn 'Umar entered (without Ḥıram); but the Prophet ordered those intending to perform Ḥajj or 'Umra to assume Ḥıram, but he did not mention the wood-cutters and the like (i.e., those who frequent the sanctuary of Makkah).

1845. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: The Prophet fixed Dhul-Hulaifa as the Miqât (the place for assuming Ḥıram) for the people of Al-Madina, and Qarn-al-Manâzil for the people of Najd, and Yalámâm for the people of Yemen. These Mawaqqît are for those people and also for those who come through these Mawaqqît (from places other than the abovementioned) with the intention of (performing) Ḥajj and 'Umra. And those living inside these Mawaqqît can assume Ḥıram from the place where they start; even the people of Makkah can assume Ḥıram (for Ḥajj only) from Makkah.

1846. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah's Messenger entered Makkah in the year of its conquest wearing an Arabian helmet on his head(1), and when the Prophet took it off, a person came and said, “Ibn Kháṭal is holding the covering of the Ka'bah

---

(1) (H.1846) A Muhrîm is not allowed to cover his head. The fact that the Prophet's head was covered while entering Makkah indicates that he had entered Makkah as a non-Muhrîm.
(taking refuge in the Ka'bah).” The Prophet said, “Kill him.”

(19) CHAPTER. If somebody ignorantly assumed Ḥiyrām while wearing a shirt (will Fidya be compulsory?).

‘Aṭā’ said, “There is no penalty on a Mujrim who perfumes himself or wears stitched clothes out of ignorance or forgetfulness.”

1847. Narrated Ya’lā: While I was with Allah’s Messenger there came to him a man wearing a cloak having a trace of yellowish perfume or a similar thing on it. ‘Umar used to say to me, “Would you like to see the Prophet at the time when he is being inspired Divinely?” So, it happened that he was inspired (then) and when the Revelation was over the Prophet said (to that man), “Do in your Ḥumra the same as you do in your Hajj.”

1848. A man bit the hand of another man but in that process the latter broke one incisor tooth of the former, and the Prophet forgave the latter.

(20) CHAPTER. A Muḥrīm died at ‘Arafāt and the Prophet did not order anybody to finish the remaining ceremonies of Hajj on his behalf.

1849. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When the Prophet

(1) (H.1846) Allah’s Messenger, on conquering Makkah, forgave all the people of Makkah except some persons who had committed nasty crimes against Islam and Muslims.

(2) (H.1848) This piece of narration is a part of Hadīth No. 6892, Vol. 9.
While a man was standing with the Prophet ﷺ at ‘Arafat, he fell from his Rahila (mount) and his neck was crushed by it. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Wash the deceased with water and Sidr and shroud him in two pieces of cloth, and neither perfume him nor cover his head, for Allâh will resurrect him on the Day of Resurrection and he will be reciting Talbiya.”

(21) CHAPTER. The legal way of (burying) a dead Muhrim.

1851. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs ابن عامر: A man was in the company of the Prophet ﷺ and his she-camel crushed his neck while he was in a state of Ihram and he died. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Wash him with water and Sidr and shroud him in his two garments; neither perfume him nor cover his head, for he will be resurrected on the Day of Resurrection reciting Talbiya.”
(22) CHAPTER. To perform Hajj on behalf of a dead person and to fulfil his vows. A man can perform Hajj on behalf of a woman.

1852. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: A woman from the tribe of Juhaina came to the Prophet and said, “My mother had vowed to perform Hajj but she died before performing it. May I perform Hajj on my mother’s behalf?” The Prophet replied, “Perform Hajj on her behalf. Had there been a debt on your mother, would you have paid it or not? So, pay Allāh’s debt as He has more right to be paid.”

(23) CHAPTER. Performing Hajj for a person who cannot sit firmly on the mount.

1853. Narrated Fadl bin ‘Abbas: A woman...

1854. Narrated Fadl bin ‘Abbas: A woman from the tribe of Khath'am came in the year (of Hajjat-ul-Wada’ of the Prophet) and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! My father has come under Allāh’s obligation of performing Hajj but he is a very old man and cannot sit properly on his Rahila (mount). Will the obligation be fulfilled if I... perform Hajj on his behalf?” The Prophet replied in the affirmative.

(24) CHAPTER. Performing Hajj by a woman on behalf of a man.

1855. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbas: Al-Fadl was riding behind the Prophet and a woman from the tribe of Khath'am came up. Al-Fadl started looking at her and she looked at him. The Prophet turned Al-Fadl’s face to the other side. She said, “My father has come under Allāh’s obligation of performing Hajj but he is a very old man and cannot sit properly on his Rahila (mount). Shall I perform Hajj on his behalf? The Prophet replied in the affirmative. That happened during Hajjat-ul-Wadā of the Prophet.

(25) CHAPTER. The Hajj of boys (children etc.)

1856. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet sent me (to Mina) with the luggage from Jam (i.e., Al-Muzdalifa) at night.
1857. Narrated 'Abdullah bin ‘Abbās: I came riding on my she-ass and had (just) then attained the age of puberty. Allāh’s Messenger was offering Ṣalāt at Mina. I passed in front of a part of the first row and then dismounted from it, and the animal started grazing. I aligned with the people behind Allāh’s Messenger. (The subnarrator added that happened in Mina during the Prophet’s Ḥajjat-ul-Wadā’.)

1858. Narrated As-Sā‘ib bin Yazīd: (while in the company of my parents) I was made to perform Ḥajj with Allāh’s Messenger and I was a seven-year-old boy then. (Fāth-Al-Bārī, Vol. 4, Page 442)

1859. Narrated Al-Ju‘aid bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān: I heard ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul ‘Azīz telling about As-Sā‘ib bin Yazid that he had performed Ḥajj (while carried) with the belongings of the Prophet.

(26) CHAPTER. Ḥajj of women.

1860. Narrated Ibrahim’s grand-father that ‘Umar in his last Ḥajj allowed the wives of the Prophet to perform Ḥajj; and he sent with them ʿUthmān bin ‘Affān and ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Aīf as escorts.

1861. Narrated ‘Āishah (Mother of the faithful believers): I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Shouldn’t we participate in Holy battles and Jihad along with you?” He replied, “The best and the most superior Jihad (for women) is Hajj – Hajj Mabrūr, – which is accepted by Allāh.” ‘Āishah added: Ever since I heard that from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ I have determined not to miss Hajj.

1862. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A woman should not travel except with a Dhū-Mahram (her husband or a man with whom that woman cannot marry at all according to the Islamic Jurisprudence), and no man may visit a woman except in the presence of a Mahram.” A man got up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I intend to go (for Jihad) with such and such an army and my wife wants to perform Hajj.” The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “Go along with her (to Hajj).”

1863. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When the Prophet ﷺ returned after performing his Hajj, he asked Umm Sinān Al-Anṣāriyah, “What forbid you from performing Hajj?” She replied, “Father of so-and-so (i.e., her husband) had two camels and he performed Hajj on one of them, and the second is used for the irrigation of our land.” The Prophet ﷺ said (to her), “Perform ‘Umra in the month of Ramadan, (as it) is equivalent to Hajj or performing Hajj with me (in reward).”

[See H.1782]

1864. Narrated Qaza’a, the slave of Ziyād: Abū Sa’īd who participated in twelve Ghazwāt with the Prophet ﷺ said, “I heard four things from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ (or I narrate them from the Prophet ﷺ) which won my admiration and appreciation. They are:

1. “No lady should travel without her husband or without a Dhū-Mahram for a two days’ journey.
2. No observance of Saum (fasting) is permissible on two days of ‘Eid-al-Fitr, and ‘Eid-al-Adhā.
3. No Salāt (prayer) (may be offered) after two Salāt: after the ‘Aṣr prayer till the sunset and after the morning Salāt (prayer) till the sun rises.
4. Not to travel (for visiting) except for three mosques: Masjid-al-Harām (in Makkah), my Mosque (at Al-Madina), and Masjid-al-Aqṣā (in Jerusalem).”
(27) CHAPTER. Whoever vowed to go on foot to the Ka'bah.

1865. Narrated Anas: The Prophet saw an old man walking, supported by his two sons, and asked about him. The people informed him that he had vowed to go on foot (to the Ka'bah). He said, "Allâh is not in need of this old man's torturing himself;" and ordered him to ride.

1866. Narrated 'Uqba bin 'Amir: My sister vowed to go on foot to the Ka'bah, and she asked me to take the verdict of the Prophet about it. So, I did and the Prophet said, "She should walk and also should ride."
29 - THE BOOK ABOUT THE VIRTUES OF AL-MADİNA

(1) CHAPTER. Haram (sanctuary) of Al-Madina.

1867. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, Al-Madina is a sanctuary from that place to that. Its trees should not be cut and no heresy should be innovated nor any sin should be committed in it, and whoever innovates in it an heresy or commits sins (bad deeds), then he will incur the curse of Allah, the angels, and all the people.”

[See Vol. 9, Hadith No. 7306]

1868. Narrated Anas: The Prophet came to Al-Madina and ordered a mosque to be built and said, “O Bani Najjar! Suggest to me the price (of your land).” They said, “We do not want its price except from Allah” (i.e., they wished for a reward from Allah for giving up their land free). So, the Prophet ordered the graves of the Mushrikun to be dug out and the land to be levelled, and the date-palm trees to be cut down. The cut date-palms were fixed in the direction of the Qiblah of the mosque.

1869. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “I have made Al-Madina a sanctuary between its two (Harra) mountains.” The Prophet went to the tribe of Bani Haritha and said (to them), “I see that you have gone out of the sanctuary,” but looking around, he added, “No, you are inside the sanctuary.”
1870. Narrated ‘Ali: We have nothing except the Book of Allah (the Qur’an) and this written paper from the Prophet wherein it written: “Al-Madina is a sanctuary from the ‘Aer mountain to such and such a place, and whoever innovates in it an heresy or commits a sin, or gives shelter to such an innovator or sinner in it, will incur the curse of Allah, the angels, and all the people, none of his compulsory or optional good deeds of worship will be accepted. And the asylum (of protection) granted by any Muslim is to be secured (respected) by all the other Muslims; and whoever betrays a Muslim in this respect incurs the curse of Allah, the angels, and all the people, and none of his compulsory or optional good deeds of worship will be accepted, and whoever (freed slave) takes as masters other than his manumitters without their permission incurs the curse of Allah, the angels, and all the people, and none of his compulsory or optional good deeds of worship will be accepted.”

(2) CHAPTER. Superiority of Al-Madina. And that it expells (evil, vicious) persons.

1871. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “I was ordered to migrate to a town which will swallow (conquer) other towns and is called Yathrib and that is Al-Madina, and it turns out (bad) persons as a furnace removes the impurities of iron.
29 - THE BOOK ABOUT THE VIRTUES OF AL-MADİNA

(3) CHAPTER. Al-Madîna is also called Tāba.

1872. Narrated Abū Humaid: We came with the Prophet from Tabûk, and when we reached near Al-Madîna, the Prophet said, “This is Tāba.”

(4) CHAPTER. The two mountains of Al-Madîna.

1873. Narrated Abû Hurairah: If I saw deers grazing in Al-Madîna, I would not chase them, for Allâh’s Messenger said, “(Al-Madîna is a sanctuary) between its two mountains.”

(5) CHAPTER. (What about) the one who avoids (runs away) from living in Al-Madîna?

1874. Narrated Abû Hurairah: I heard Allâh’s Messenger saying, “The people will leave Al-Madîna in spite of the best state it will have, and none except the wild birds and the beasts of prey will live in it, and the last persons who will die will be two shepherds from the tribe of Muzaina, who will be driving their sheep towards Al-Madina, but will find nobody in it, and when they will reach the valley of Thaniyat-al-Wadâ', they will fall down on their faces, dead.

1875. Narrated Sufyân bin Abû Zuhair: I heard Allah's Messenger saying, "Yemen will be conquered and some people will migrate (from Al-Madina) and will urge their families, and those who will obey them to migrate (to Yemen), although Al-Madina will be better for them; if they but knew. Sham will also be conquered and some people will migrate (from Al-Madina) and will urge their families and those who will obey them to migrate (to Sham), although Al-Madina will be better for them; if they but knew. Iraq will be conquered and some people will migrate (from Al-Madina) and will urge their families and those who will obey them to migrate (to Iraq), although Al-Madina will be better for them; if they but knew."

1876. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "Verily, Belief returns and goes back to Al-Madina as a snake returns and goes back to its hole (when in danger)."

(7) CHAPTER. Sin of that person who betrays and harms the people of Al-Madina.

1877. Narrated Sa'd: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “None plots against the people of Al-Madina but that he will be dissolved (destroyed) like the salt is dissolved in water.”

(8) CHAPTER. The high buildings of Al-Madina.

1878. Narrated Usâma: Once the Prophet ﷺ stood at the top of a castle amongst the castles (or the high buildings) of Al-Madina and said, “Do you see what I see? (No doubt) I see the places or spots of Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions) among your houses (and these Fitan will be) as numerous as the spots where rain-drops fall.”

(9) CHAPTER. Ad-Dajjâl will not be able to enter Al-Madina.

1879. Narrated Abû Bakra: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The terror caused by Al-Masih Ad-Dajjãl will not enter Al-Madina and at that time Al-Madina will have seven gates and there will be two angels at each gate (guarding Al-Madina).”

1880. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There are angels guarding the entrances (or roads) of Al-Madina, neither plague nor Ad-Dajjal can enter it.”

1881. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ﷺ said, “There will be no town in which Ad-Dajjal will not enter except Makkah and Al-Madina, and there will be no entrance (road) (of both Makkah and Al-Madina) but the angels will be standing in rows guarding it against him, and then Al-Madina will shake with its inhabitants thrice (i.e., three earth-quakes will take place) and Allah will expel all the disbelievers and the hypocrites from it.”

1882. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudri: Allah's Messenger ﷺ told us a long narrative about Ad-Dajjal, and among the many things he mentioned, was his saying, “Ad-Dajjal will come and it will be forbidden... for him to pass through the entrances of Al-Madina. He will land in some of the salty barren areas (outside) Al-Madina; on that day the best man or one of the best men will come up to him and say, 'I testify that you are the same Ad-Dajjal whose description was given to us by Allâh's Messenger ﷺ.' Ad-Dajjal will say to the people, 'If I kill this man and bring him back to life again, will you doubt my claim?' They will say, 'No.' Then Ad-Dajjal will kill that man and bring him back to life. That man will say, 'Now I know your reality better than before.' Ad-Dajjal will say, 'I want to kill him (again) but I cannot.'"

(10) CHAPTER. Al-Madina expels Al-Khabath (all the evil and bad persons, etc.).

1883. Narrated Jâbir: A bedouin came to the Prophet ﷺ and gave the Bai'a (pledge) for embracing Islâm. The next day he came with fever and said (to the Prophet ﷺ), "Please cancel my pledge (of emigrating to Al-Madina)." The Prophet ﷺ refused (that request) three times and said, "Al-Madina is like a furnace, it expels out its Khabath" (the impurities - evil and bad persons etc.) and selects the good ones and makes them perfect."

1884. Narrated Zaid bin Thâbit: When the Prophet ﷺ went out for (the battle of) Uḥud, some of his companions (hypocrites) returned (home). A party of the believers remarked that they would kill those (hypocrites) who had returned, but another party said that they would not kill them. So, this Divine Revelation was revealed:

"Then what is the matter with you that you are divided into two parties about the hypocrites..." (V.4:88)

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Al-Madina expels (the bad) persons from it, as fire expels the impurities of iron.”

CHAPTER.

1886. Narrated Anas ﷺ: Whenever the Prophet ﷺ returned from a journey and sighted the walls of Al-Madina, he would make his mount go fast, and if he was on an animal (i.e., a horse), he would make it gallop because of his love for Al-Madina.

(11) CHAPTER. The dislike of the Prophet ﷺ that Al-Madina should be vacated.

1887. Narrated Anas ﷺ: (The people of) Bani Salama intended to shift near the mosque (of the Prophet) but Allāh’s Messenger disliked to see Al-Madina vacated and said, “O the people of Bani Salama! Don’t you think that you will be rewarded for your footsteps which you take towards the mosque?” So, they stayed at their old places.

(12) CHAPTER.

1888. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “There is a garden from the gardens of Paradise between my house and my pulpit, and my pulpit is on my Haud [Tank (Al-Kauthar)].”

1889. Narrated ‘Aishah: When Allāh’s Messenger reached Al-Madina, Abū Bakr and Bilāl became ill. When Abū Bakr’s fever got worse, he would recite (this poetic verse):

“Everybody is staying alive with his people, yet death is nearer to him than his shoe laces.”

And Bilāl, when his fever deserted him, would recite:

“Would that I could stay overnight in a valley wherein I would be surrounded by Ḥdākhīr and Ḥalāl (kinds of good-smelling grass).

Would that one day I could drink the water of the Majinna, and would that (the two mountains) Shāmā and Ṭafeel would appear to me!”
The Prophet said, “O Allah! Curse Shaiba bin Rab’i’a and ‘Utba bin Rab’i’a and Umaiyya bin Khalaf as they turned us out of our land to the land of epidemics.” Allah’s Messenger then said, “O Allah! Make us love Al-Madina as we love Makkah or even more than that. O Allah! Give blessings in our Sā’ and our Mudd (measures symbolising food) and make the climate of Al-Madina suitable for us, and divert its fever towards Al-Juḥfa.”

‘Aishah added: When we reached Al-Madina, it was the most unhealthy of Allah’s lands, and the valley of Buthãn (the valley of Al-Madina) used to flow with impure, coloured water.

1890. Narrated Zaid bin Aslam that his father said, “Umar said, ‘O Allah! Grant me martyrdom in Your Cause, and let my death be in the city of Your Messenger.’”
30 – THE BOOK OF AS-SAUM (1)

(1) CHAPTER. Fasting is obligatory in (the month of) Ramadān.

And the Statement of Allāh (1):

“O, you who believe! Observing As-Saum (the fasting) is prescribed for you as it was prescribed for those before you, that you may become Al-Muttaqūn” (2). [V.2:183].

1891. Narrated Tāhā bin ‘Ubayd-Ullāh: A bedouin with unkempt hair came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Inform me what Allāh has made compulsory for me as regards Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer).” He replied: “You have to perform the five compulsory Ṣalāt (Iqamāt-Aṣ-Ṣalāt) in a day and night (24 hours), unless you want to offer Nawāfīl.”

The bedouin further asked, “Inform me what Allāh has made compulsory for me as regards fasting.” He replied, “You have to observe Saum (fast) during the whole month of Ramadān, unless you want to fast more as Nawāfīl.”

The bedouin further asked, “Tell me how much Zakāt Allāh has enjoined on me.” Thus, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ informed him about all the laws (i.e., fundamentals) of Islām. The bedouin then said, “By Him Who has honoured you, I will neither perform any Nawāfīl nor will I decrease what Allāh has enjoined on me.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If he is saying the truth, he will succeed (or said, he will be granted Paradise).”

---

(1) (Bk 30) The fasting, i.e., to not to eat or drink or have sexual relation etc. from before the Aḍhān of the Fajr (early morning) prayer till the sunset.

(2) (Ch.1) Al-Muttaqūn means pious and righteous persons who fear Allāh much (abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which He has forbidden) and love Allāh much (perform all kinds of good deeds which He has ordained).
1892. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet observed the Saum (fast) on the 10th of Muharram ('Ashura'), and ordered (Muslims) to observe Saum (fast) on that day, but when the fasting of the month of Ramadân was prescribed, the fasting of the 'Ashura' was abandoned. 'Abdullâh did not use to observe fast on that day unless it coincided with his routine fasting by chance.

1893. Narrated 'Âishah: (The tribe of) Qurais used to observe Saum (fast) on the day of 'Ashura' in the Pre-Islamic Period, and then Allah's Messenger ordered (Muslims) to observe Saum (fast) on it till the fasting in the month of Ramadân was prescribed; wherupon the Prophet said, “He who wants to fast (on 'Ashura') may fast, and he who does not want to observe Saum (fast) may not fast.”

(2) CHAPTER. The superiority of Aṣ-Ṣaum (the fasting).

1894. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Saum (fasting) is a shield (or a screen or a shelter from the Hell-fire). So, the person observing Saum (fast) should avoid sexual relation with his wife and should not behave foolishly and impudently, and if somebody fights with him or abuses him, he should say to him twice, 'I am observing Saum (fast).’” The Prophet added, “By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, the smell coming out from the mouth of a person observing Saum (fast) is better with Allāh than the smell of musk. (Allāh says about the fasting person), 'He has left his food, drink and sexual desires for My sake. The Saum (tast) is for Me. So I will reward (the fasting person) for it and the reward of good deeds is multiplied ten times.'

CHAPTER.

As-Saum (the fasting) is an expiation (for sins).

1895. Narrated Abū Wā'il from Hudhaifa: 'Umar asked the people, "Who remembers the narration of the Prophet about the Al-Fitnah (trial or affliction)?" Hudhaifa said, "I heard the Prophet saying, 'The Al-Fitnah of a person in his property, family and neighbours is expiated by his Salāt (prayer), Saum (fasting), and giving in charity.' 'Umar said, "I do not ask about that, but I ask about the Al-Fitnah which will spread like the waves of the sea." Hudhaifa replied, "There is a closed gate in front of it." 'Umar asked, "Will that gate be opened or broken?" He replied, "It will be broken." 'Umar said, "Then the gate will not be closed again till the Day of Resurrection." We said to Masrūq, "Would you ask Hudhaifa whether 'Umar knew what that gate symbolized?" He asked him and he replied "He ('Umar) knew it as one knows that there will be night before tomorrow morning."

(4) CHAPTER. Ar-Raiyān (one of the gates of Paradise) is for people observing Saum (fast) people.

1896. Narrated Sahīh: The

(1) (H.1894) Although all practices of worshipping are for Allāh, here Allāh singles out Saum (fasting), because Saum (fast) cannot be practised for the sake of showing off as nobody can know whether one is observing Saum (fast) or not, except Allāh. Therefore, Saum (fasting) is a pure performance that cannot be blemished with hypocrisy. (Fath Al-Bārī)
Prophet ﷺ said, “There is a gate in Paradise called Ar-Raiyān, and those who observe Ṣaum (fasts) will enter through it on the Day of Resurrection and none except them will enter through it. It will be said, ‘Where are those who used to observe Ṣaum (fast)?’ They will get up, and none except them will enter through it. After their entry the gate will be closed and nobody will enter through it.”

1897. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ḥ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever gives two kinds (of things or property) in charity for Allah’s Cause, will be called from the gates of Paradise and will be addressed, ‘O slaves of Allah! Here is prosperity.’ So, whoever was amongst the people who used to offer their Ṣalāt (prayers), will be called from the gate of the Ṣalāt; and whoever was amongst the people who used to participate in Jihād, will be called from the gate of Jihād; and whoever was amongst those who used to observe fasts, will be called from the gate of Ar-Raiyān; whoever was amongst those who used to give As-Ṣadaqa (charity), will be called from the gate of As-Ṣadaqa.” Abū Bakr ṭ said, “Let my parents be sacrificed for you, O Allah’s Messenger! No distress or need will befall him who will be called from those gates. Will there be any one who will be called from all these gates?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Yes, and I hope you will be one of them.”
(5) CHAPTER. Should it be said “Ramadân” or “the month of Ramadân?” And whoever thinks that both are permissible.

And the Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever observe Ṣaum [fasts] in Ramadân.” And also said, “Do not observe Ṣaum before Ramadân.”

1898. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When the month of Ramadân begins, the gates of Paradise are opened.”

1899. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When the month of Ramadân starts, the gates of the heaven are opened and the gates of Hell are closed and the devils are chained.”

1900. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “When you see the crescent (of the month of Ramadân), start observing Ṣaum [fast] and when you see the crescent (of the month of Shawwâl), stop observing Ṣaum; and if the sky is overcast (and you can’t see it) then regard the crescent (month) of Ramadân (as of 30 days).”

(1) (Ch.5) Do not observe fast one or two days before Ramadân immediately, fearing to miss the right beginning of the month. (See Ḥadîth 1914).
(6) CHAPTER. Whoever observed fast in Ramadān out of sincere faith (that it is an enjoined duty), and hoping for a reward from Allāh and with honest intention (i.e., only for Allāh’s sake).

And ‘Āishah narrated from the Prophet, “The people will be resurrected (and judged) according to their intentions.”

1901.Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Whoever established Salāt (prayer) on the night of Qadr with sincere faith and hoping for a reward from Allāh, then all his previous sins will be forgiven; and whoever observes Saum (fasts) in the month of Ramadān with sincere faith and hoping for a reward from Allāh, then all his previous sins will be forgiven.”

(7) CHAPTER. The Prophet used to be most generous in the month of Ramadān.

1902. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet was the most generous amongst the people, and he used to be more so in the month of Ramadān when Jibrīl (Gabriel) visited him, and Jibrīl used to meet him on every night of Ramadān till the end of the month. The Prophet used to recite the Noble Qur’ān to Jibrīl, and when Jibrīl met him, he used to be more generous than the fair wind [sent by Allāh with glad tidings (rain) in readiness and haste to do charitable deeds].

(8) CHAPTER. Whoever does not give up lying speech (false statements i.e., telling lies) and acting on those while observing Saum (fast).

1903. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever does not give up lying speech (false statements) and acting on those lies and evil actions etc., Allāh is not in need of his leaving his food and drink [i.e., Allāh will not accept his Saum (fasting)].”

[See Fath Al-Bārī]

(9) CHAPTER. Should one say, “I am observing Saum (fast)” on being abused?

1904. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allāh said, ‘All the deeds of Adam’s sons (people) are for them, except Saum (fasting) which is for Me, and I will give the reward for it.’ Observing Saum (fast) is a shield or protection (from the Hell-fire and from committing sins). If one of you is observing Saum (fast), he should avoid sexual relation with his wife and quarrelling, and if somebody should fight or quarrel with him, he should say, ‘I am observing Saum (fast).’ By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, the smell coming out from the mouth of a fasting person is better before Allāh than the smell of musk. There are two pleasures for the person observing Saum, one at the time of Iftãr (breaking his fast), and the other at the time when he will meet his Lord; then he will be pleased because of his Saum (fasting)."

(10) CHAPTER. As-Saum (the fasting) (is recommended) for those who fear committing illegal sexual acts, i.e., those who are unmarried.

1905. Narrated 'Alqãma: While I was walking with 'Abdullãh bin 'Umar, he said, "We were in the company of the Prophet and he said, 'He who can afford to marry should marry, because it will help him to lower his gaze (from looking at forbidden things and other women), and save his private parts (from committing illegal sexual acts etc.), and he who cannot afford to marry is advised to observe Saum (fasting), as Saum (fasting) will restrain his sexual power."

(11) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet : "Start observing Saum (fasts) on seeing the crescent-moon of Ramadân, and stop observing Saum on seeing the crescent-moon (of Shawwãl)."

And 'Ammãr said, "Whoever observes Saum (fasting) on a doubtful day(1) is disobeying Abül-Qasim (i.e., the Prophet )."

1906. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin 'Umar: Allah's Messenger mentioned Ramadân and said, "Do not observe fasting unless you see the crescent-moon (of Ramadân), and do not give up fasting till

(1) (Ch.11) The doubtful day is the day that is not certainly the first of Ramadân, but perhaps the last of Sha'bãn, the preceding month.
you see the crescent-moon of (Shawwâl), but if the sky is overcast and you can't see the moon, then act on estimation (i.e., count Sha'bân as 30 days and Ramaḍān also as 30 days)."

1907. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger said, “The month (can be) 29 nights (i.e., days), and do not fast till you see the crescent-moon, and if the sky is overcast, then complete Sha’bân as thirty days.”

1908. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “The month is like this and this,” (at the same time he showed the fingers of both his hands thrice) and left out one thumb on the third time.

1909. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet, or said Abûl-Qâsim said, “Start observing Saum (fasts) on seeing the crescent-moon (of Ramaḍān), and give up observing Saum (fast) on seeing the crescent-moon (of Shawwâl), and if the sky is overcast (and you cannot see it), complete thirty days of Sha’bân.”

1910. Narrated Umm Salama: The Prophet vowed to keep aloof from his wives for a period of one month, and after the completion of 29 days he went either in the morning or in the afternoon to his wives. Someone said to him “You vowed that you would not go to your wives for one month.”
He replied, “The month is of 29 days.”

1911. Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger vowed to keep aloof from his wives for one month, and he had dislocation of his leg. So, he stayed in a Mashräba for 29 nights and then came down. Some people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You vowed to stay aloof for one month,” He replied, “The month is of 29 days.”
[See H. 378]

(12) CHAPTER. The two months of ‘Eid do not decrease.

Narrated Abū ‘Abdullāh, “Ishāq said that if Ramaḍān is of 29 days, even then it is complete (in its superiority); Muḥammad said, “It will not happen that there will be any decrease in their number and superiority.”

1912. Narrated Abū Bakr: The Prophet said, “The two months of ‘Eid (i.e., Ramaḍān and Dhul-Hijjah), do not decrease (in superiority).”

(1) (H.1912) There are many interpretations of this Hadith, but the most common one is this: The good deeds done in these two months are rewarded fully whether these months are of 29 or 30 days. There is no harm if Muslims unknowingly start observing Saum (fast) on a wrong day, or stay at ‘Arafāt during Hajj on a day other than the prescribed one, on condition that the crescent should be watched carefully. For example, if two persons witness that they have seen the crescent and the people observe Saum (fasts) or stay at ‘Arafāt accordingly, and later the two witnesses turn to be liars, the acts of worshipping performed by the Muslims will not be rejected by Allāh. (Fath-Al-Bā‘r).
(13) CHAPTER. The Statement of the Prophet

“We neither write nor know accounts.”

1913. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “We are an illiterate nation; we neither write, nor know accounts. The month is like this and this, i.e., sometimes of 29 days and sometimes of 30 days.”

(14) CHAPTER. Not to observe Šaum (fast) for a day or two ahead of Ramaãn.

1914. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “None of you should observe Šaum (fast) for a day or two ahead of Ramaãn unless he has the habit of observing Šaum (Nawāfīl) (and if his fasting coincides with that day) then he can observe Šaum (fast) on that day.”

(15) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“...It is made lawful for you to have sexual...”
relations with your wives on the night of the
As-Saum (the fasts). They are Libās [i.e., body cover or screen or Sakan (سكن) (i.e., ‘you enjoy the pleasure of living with her’ — as in the Verse 7:189) — Tafsir Al-Tabari], for you, and you are the same for them. Allāh knows that you used to deceive yourselves, so He turned to you (accepted your repentance) and forgave you. So, now have sexual relations with them and seek that which Allāh has ordained for you (offspring)....” (V.2:187)

1915. Narrated Al-Barā’ī: It was the custom among the companions of Muḥammad ﷺ that if any of them was observing As-Saum (fast) and the food was presented [for Iftār — breaking his Saum (fast)], but he slept before eating, he would not eat that night and the following day till sunset.

Qais bin Ẓīmra Al-Anṣāri was observing Saum (fast) and came to his wife at the time of Iftār and asked her whether she had anything to eat. She replied, “No, but I would go and bring something for you.” He used to do hard work during the day, so he was overwhelmed by sleep and slept. When his wife came and saw him, she said, “Disappointment for you.” When it was midday on the following day, he fainted and the Prophet ﷺ was informed about the whole matter; upon which the following Verses were revealed: “It is made lawful for you to have sexual relations with your wives on the night of As-Saum (the fasts)....”

So they were rejoiced greatly by it. And then Allāh also revealed:

“...And eat and drink until the white thread (light) of dawn appears to you distinct from the black thread (darkness of night)...” (V.2:187)
(16) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh:

“...And eat and drink until the white thread (light) of dawn appears to you distinct from the black thread (darkness of night), then complete your Saum (fast) till the nightfall...” (V.2:187)

Narrated Al-Barâ’ Râzî’î: The Prophet ﷺ said as above.

1916. Narrated ‘Adî bin Ḥâtim: When the following Verses were revealed:

“Until the white thread appears to you distinct from the black thread, I took two (hair) strings, one black and the other white, and kept them under my pillow and went on looking at them throughout the night but could not make anything out of it. So, the next morning I went to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and told him the whole story. He explained to me, “That Verse means the darkness of night and the whiteness of dawn.”

1917. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: When the following Verses were revealed: “...Eat and drink until the white thread appears to you, distinct from the black thread...” and ‘of dawn’ was not revealed, some people who intended to observe Saum (fast), tied black and white threads to their legs and went on eating till they differentiated between the two. Allâh then revealed the words, ‘of dawn’, and it became clear that, that meant night and day.
(17) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: The Adhān of Bilāl should not stop you from taking Sahūr (late-night meals).

1918, 1919. Narrated ‘Aishah بنت أبي بكر الصديق ﷺ: Bilāl used to pronounce the Adhān at night, so Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Carry on taking your meals (eat and drink) till Ibn Umm Maktūm pronounces the Adhān, for he does not pronounce it till it is dawn.”

(18) CHAPTER. Taking the Sahūr (late night meals taken before dawn) hurriedly (shortly before dawn). (1)

1920. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d ﷺ: I used to take my Sahūr (late night meals taken before dawn) meals with my family and then hurry up for presenting myself for the Fajr prayer with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.

(1) (Ch.18) They used to take the meal of Sahūr (late night meals taken before dawn) so late at night that they hurried in eating so that they might offer the Fajr prayer with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.
(19) CHAPTER. What is the interval between the (end of) Sahūr and the Ṣalāt-ul-Fajr (early morning prayer)?

1921. Narrated Anas bin Thābit: Zaid bin Thābit Ṣalāt-ul-Fajr, said, “We took the Sahūr (late night meal) with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Then he stood for As-Salāt (the prayer).” I asked, “What was the interval between the Sahūr and the Adhān?” He replied, “The interval was sufficient to recite fifty Verses of the Qur’ān.”

(20) CHAPTER. The Sahūr (late night meal) is a blessing but it is not compulsory.

For the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his companions kept observing fasting continuously for more than one day and (of course) no Sahūr (late night meal) was taken (during that prolonged fast).

1922. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم observed fasting for days continuously; the people also did the same but it was difficult for them. So, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade them (to observe fast continuously for more than one day). They said, “But you observe fast without break (no food was taken in the evening or in the morning).” The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, “I am not like you, for I am provided with food and drink (by Allāh).”

1923. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Take Sahūr (late night meal) as there is a blessing in it.”
(21) CHAPTER. If the intention of observing Saum (fast) was made in the daytime...

Umm Ad-Darda’ said: Abū Ad-Darda’ used to ask, “Do you have food?” If we answered in the negative, he would say, “Then I am observing Saum (fasting) today.” Abū Ṭalḥā, Abū Hurairah, Ibn ‘Abbās and Ḥudhaifa did the same.

1924. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa’: Once the Prophet ﷺ ordered a person on the day of Ḥāshūra (the tenth of Muharram) to announce, “Whoever has eaten, should not eat any more, but observe Saum (fast), and who has not eaten should not eat, but complete his Saum (fast) (till the end of the day).”

(22) CHAPTER. If a person observing Saum (fast) gets up in the morning in the state of Janāba [will his Saum (fast) be valid?]

1925, 1926. Narrated ‘Aishah and Umm Salama: At times, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to get up in the morning in the state of Janāba after having sexual relations with his wives. He would then take a bath and observe Saum (fast). Marwān said to Abdur Rahmān, “I swear by Allāh that you tell Abū Hurairah that [the Prophet ﷺ used to be Junub (in state of Janaba) till the dawn, would then take a bath and observe Saum (fast)].”
(23) CHAPTER. To embrace while one is observing Saum (fast).

'Aishah رضي الله عنها said: "A person observing Saum (fast) is forbidden to have sexual intercourse."

1927. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ used to kiss and embrace (his wives) while he was observing Saum (fast), and he had more power to control his desires than any of you.

Jabir bin Zaid said, "If a man gets a sexual discharge as a result of casting a look (at his wife) should complete his Saum (fast)."

(24) CHAPTER. What is said regarding kissing by a fasting person.

1928. Narrated Hishãm's father: 'Aishah - رضي الله عنها said, "Allah's Messenger ﷺ used to kiss some of his wives while he was observing Saum (fast)," and then she smiled.

1929. Narrated Zainab, daughter of Umm Salama that her mother said: While I was (lying) with Allah's Messenger ﷺ underneath a woollen sheet, I got the menstruation, and then slipped away and put on the clothes (which I used to wear) in menses. He asked, "What is the matter? Did you get your menses?" I replied in the affirmative and then entered underneath that woollen sheet. I and Allah's Messenger ﷺ used to take a bath from one waterpot and he used to kiss me while he was observing Saum (fast).
(25) CHAPTER. Taking a bath by a person observing Saum (fast).

Ibn ‘Umar soaked a garment in water and then put it over himself while he was observing Saum (fasting). Ash-Sha’bî entered a bathroom while he was observing Saum. Ibn ‘Abbâs said, “There is no harm in tasting the food of the pots or other meals. Al-Mas’ûd said, “There is no harm for the person observing Saum (fast) to rinse his mouth with water and to cool his body.” Ibn Mas’ûd said, “At the night of your fasting day, you had better oil and comb your hair.” Anas said, “I had a tub in which I used to sit while observing Saum (fast).” It is mentioned that the Prophet cleaned his teeth with a Siwâk while observing Saum (fast), and Ibn ‘Umar used to clean his teeth with Siwâk in the early and the late hours of the day without swallowing the resultant saliva [while observing Saum (fast)]. ‘Atâ’ said, “The swallowing of saliva does not break the Saum (fast).” Ibn Sirîn said, “There is no harm in cleaning the teeth with a green fresh Siwâk.” He was told that it had taste. Ibn Sirîn replied, “Water also has taste; yet you people rinse your mouth with it.” Anas, Al-Hasan and Ibrâhîm did not see any harm in smearing one’s eyes with kohl while observing Saum (fast).

1930. Narrated ‘Âishah: (At times) in Ramadan the Prophet used to be in a state of Janâba not because of a wet dream, then he would take a bath and continue his Saum (fast).
1931. Narrated Abû Bakr bin ‘Abdur-Rahmân: My father and I went to ‘Aishah and she said, “I testify that Allah’s Messenger at times used to get up in the morning in a state of Janabah from sexual intercourse, not from a wet dream and then he would observe Saum (fast) that day.”

1932. Then he went to Umm Salama and she also narrated a similar thing.

(26) CHAPTER. If a person observing Saum (fast) ate or drank forgetfully (should he observe Saum another day in lieu of that day)?

‘Aţā’ said, “There is no harm if water goes in the throat and one is unable to bring it out while putting it in the nose and then blowing it out.”

Al-‘Hasan said, “If a fly enters one’s throat (while one is observing Saum), there is no harm in it.” Al-‘Hasan and Mujâhid said, “If one has sexual intercourse forgetfully (with one’s wife) then no penalty will be imposed on him.”

1933. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “If somebody eats or drinks forgetfully then he should complete his Saum (fast), for what he has eaten or drank, has been given to him by Allâh.”
(27) CHAPTER. Dry or green Siwák for the person observing Ṣaum (fast).

Narrated 'Amir bin Rabî'a: I saw the Prophet ﷺ cleaning his teeth with Siwák while he was observing Ṣaum (fast) so many times as I can not count.

Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “But for my fear that it would be hard for my followers, I would have ordered them to clean their teeth with Siwák on every performance of ablution.” The same is narrated by Jâbir and Zaid bin Khâlid from the Prophet ﷺ who did not differentiate between a fasting and a non-fasting person in this respect (using Siwák).

‘Aishah said, “The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘It (i.e., Siwák) is a purification for the mouth and it is a way of seeking Allah’s Pleasures.’” Aṭâ’ and Qatâda said, “There is no harm in swallowing the resultant saliva.”

1934. Narrated Ḥumrân: I saw ‘Uthmân performing ablution; he washed his hands thrice rinsed his mouth and then washed his nose, by putting water in it and then blowing it out, and washed his face thrice, and then washed his right forearm up to the elbow thrice, and then the left forearm up to the elbow thrice, then smeared his head with water, washed his right foot thrice, and then his left foot thrice and said, “I saw Allah’s Messenger ﷺ performing ablution similar to my present ablution, and then he said, ‘Whoever performs ablution like my present ablution and then offers two Rakû in which he does not think of worldly things, all his previous sins will be forgiven.’”
(28) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “Whoever performs ablution should put water in his nose and then blow it out.” The Prophet ﷺ did not differentiate between the fasting and non-fasting person (in this respect).

Al-Hasan said, “There is no harm for a person observing Saum (fast) (in this respect).

Al-Hasan said, “There is no harm for a person observing Saum (fast) to use snuff if it does not reach the throat, or to smear his eyes with kohl.”

‘Atā’ said, “If a person observing Saum (fast), after rinsing his mouth with water, throws it out, then there is no harm, unless he swallows his saliva and what is left in his mouth. (1) And he should not chew gum, for if he swallows his saliva, I do not say that it will break his Saum (fast), but it is prohibited, and if, during the putting of water in the nose and then blowing it out, some water enters the throat and he is unable to bring it back, there is no harm in that.”

(29) CHAPTER. Whoever has a sexual intercourse with his wife in Ramadān, (intentionally, he has to pay expiation).

Narrated Abū Hurairah on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ, “Whoever did not observe Saum (fast) for one day of Ramadān without genuine excuse or a disease, then even if he observed Saum (fast) for a complete year, it would not compensate for that day.” The same is narrated by Ibn Mas‘ūd.

Sa‘īd bin Al-Musaiyab, Ash-Sha‘bī, Ibn
Jubair, Ibrahim, Qatada and Hammad said, "He should observe Saum (fast) one day in lieu of that missed day."

1935. Narrated 'Aishah: A man came to the Prophet and said that he had been burnt. The Prophet asked him what is the matter. He replied, "I had sexual intercourse with my wife in Ramadhan while I was observing Saum (fast)." Then a basket full of dates was brought to the Prophet and he asked, "Where is the burnt man?" He replied, "I am present." The Prophet told him to give that basket full of dates in charity (as expiation).

(30) CHAPTER. If somebody had a sexual intercourse with his wife in Ramadhan and has got nothing, then if he is given something in charity, he should give the expiation of that sinful act.

1936. Narrated Abu Hurairah: While we were sitting with the Prophet a man came and said, "O Allah's Messenger! I have been ruined." Allah's Messenger asked what was the matter with him. He replied, "I had sexual intercourse with my wife while I was observing Saum (fast)." Allah's Messenger asked him, "Can you afford to manumit a slave?" He replied in the negative. Allah's Messenger asked him, "Can you observe Saum (fast) for two successive months?" He replied in the negative. The Prophet asked him, "Can you afford to feed sixty poor persons?" He replied in the negative. The Prophet ﷺ kept silent and while we were in that state, a big basket full of dates was brought to the Prophet ﷺ. He asked, “Where is the questioner?” He replied, “I (am here).” The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “Take this (basket of dates) and give it in charity.” The man said, “Should I give it to a person poorer than I? By Allah; there is no family between its (i.e., Al-Madina’s) two mountains who are poorer than I.” The Prophet ﷺ smiled till his premolar teeth became visible and then said, “Feed your family with it.”

(31) CHAPTER. Can a person who has had sexual intercourse (with his wife) in Ramadân feed his family from things given as expiation of his sin if they are needy?

1937. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “I had sexual intercourse with my wife in Ramadân [while observing Saum (fasting)].” The Prophet ﷺ asked him, “Can you afford to manumit a slave?” He replied in the negative. The Prophet ﷺ asked him, “Can you observe Saum (fast) for two successive months?” He replied in the negative. He asked him, “Can you afford to feed sixty poor persons?” He replied in the negative. (Abû Hurairah added): Then a basket full of dates was brought to the Prophet ﷺ and he said (to that man), “Feed (poor people) with this on your behalf (by way of expiation).” He said, “(Should I feed it) to poorer people than we? There is no poorer house than ours between its (Al-Madina’s) mountains.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Then feed your family with it.”

(32) CHAPTER. Cupping (letting out blood medically) and vomiting of a person observing Saum (fast).

Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: “If a person observing Saum (fast) vomits, that does not break his Saum (fast), for while he vomits he expels something and does not swallow anything.”

It is mentioned from Abū Hurairah that vomiting breaks the Saum (fast), but the former narration is more authentic. Ibn ‘Abbās and ‘Ikrima said, “Observing Saum (fast) means to stop taking food in, not taking it out.” And Ibn ‘Umar ابْنُ عَمْرُ أَبْنُ عُمَرَةَ أنَّ الْمَسْكِيَّةَ وَالْمَدْرَسَةَ مَا كَانَ يُخْرِجُهُ وَلَا يَنْسَجُهُ. And Ibn ‘Umar أَبْنُ عَمْرُ أَبْنُ عُمَرَةَ أنَّ الْمَسْكِيَّةَ وَالْمَدْرَسَةَ مَا كَانَ يُخْرِجُهُ وَلَا يَنْسَجُهُ. used to be cupped while he was observing Saum (fast) but later on he abandoned it and began to be cupped at night. Abū Mūsā was cupped at night. It is narrated that Sa’d, Zaid bin Arqam and Umm Šalama were cupped while observing Saum (fast). Bukār said: Umm ʿAlqama، said: “We used to be cupped [during observing Saum (fast)] in ‘Aishah’s presence and she did not object. Al-Ḥasan and others narrate on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ, “The cupping and the cupped persons break Saum (fast) on practising this operation while Saum (fast).” ‘Aishah told me (Al-Bukhārī) that ‘Abdul-A’lā narrated from Yūnus from Al-Ḥasan as above. Somebody asked him, “Was that statement reported from the Prophet ﷺ?” He replied, “Yes,” and then added, “Allāh knows better.”

1938. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet was cupped while he was in the state of Ihram, and also while he was observing a Ṣaum (fast).

1939. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet was cupped while he was observing Ṣaum (fast).

1940. Narrated Thābit Al-Bunānī: Anas bin Mālik was asked whether they disliked the cupping for a person observing Ṣaum (fast). He replied in the negative and said, “Only if it causes weakness.”

Narrated Shu’bah: In the lifetime of the Prophet

(33) CHAPTER. To observe Ṣaum (fast) or not to observe Ṣaum during journeys.

1941. Narrated Ibn Abī Aūfa: We were in the company of Allāh’s Messenger on a journey. He said to a

(1) (H.1938) Hadith No.1938 contradicts the Hadith of Al-Ḥasan. Apparently the Muslim jurists have given various interpretations to discard this contradiction: Ash-Shāfi‘i says, “Both Ahadith are correct, but the one narrated by Ibn ‘Abbās is stronger as regards its series of narrators; yet it is better to avoid cupping while observing Ṣaum (fast). But the verdict is to be taken from the Hadith of Ibn ‘Abbās. I have the knowledge that the Prophet’s Companions and their followers and all Muslim scholars think that cupping does not break one’s Ṣaum.”

Ibn Hazm thinks that Al-Ḥasan’s Hadith is invalidated by another authentic Hadith narrated by Abū Sa‘īd which goes: “The Prophet permitted cupping for person observing Ṣaum (fast)” (Fath Al-Bārī).
man, “Get down and mix Sawiṭṭq1 (powdered roasted barley or wheat grain) with water for me.” The man said, “The sun (has not set yet),2 O Allāh’s Messenger” The Prophet ﷺ again said to him, “Get down and mix Sawiṭṭq with water for me.” The man again said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! The sun”! The Prophet ﷺ said to him (for the third time), “Get down and mix Sawiṭṭq with water for me.” The man dismounted and mixed Sawiṭṭq with water for him. The Prophet ﷺ drank it and then beckoned with his hand (towards the east) and said, “When you see the night falling from this side, then a person observing Saʿum (fast) should break his Saʿum (fast).”

1943. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Hamza bin ‘Amr Al-Aslāmī asked the Prophet ﷺ, “Should I observe Saʿum (fast) while travelling?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “You may observe Saʿum (fast) if you wish, and you may not observe Saʿum (fast) if you wish.”

(1) (H.1941) Sawiṭṭq: See Glossary.
(2) (H.1941) His saying: “The sun (has not set yet)” indicates that the Prophet ﷺ was observing Saʿum (fast) and the man meant that the time of Ifār (breaking the Saʿum) was not due.
(34) CHAPTER. If a person observed Saum (fast) some days of Ramadān and then went on a journey (is it permissible for him to break his Saum).

1944. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allah’s Messenger set out for Makkah in Ramadān and he observed Saum (fast), and when he reached Al-Kadid, he broke his Saum (fast) and the people (with him) broke their Saum (fast) too.

(‘Abdullāh said, “Al-Kadid is a land covered with water between ‘Usfān and Qudaid.”)

(35) CHAPTER.

1945. Narrated Abū Ad-Darda’: We set out with Allah’s Messenger on one of his journeys on a very hot day, and it was so hot that one had to put his hand over his head because of the severity of heat. None of us was observing Saum (fast) except the Prophet and Ibn Rawāḥa.

(36) CHAPTER. The saying of the Prophet to the person observing Saum (fast) who was being shaded on a very hot day, “It is not from Al-Bīr (righteousness) to observe Aš-Šaum (the fast) on a journey.”
1946. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh i
Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was on a journey and saw a crowd of people, and a man was being shaded (by them). He asked, “What is the matter?” They said, “He (the man) is observing Saum (fast).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “It is not from Al-Birr (righteousness) to observe As-Saum (the fast) on a journey.”(1)

(37) CHAPTER. The Companions of the Prophet ﷺ did not criticize each other for observing Saum (fast) or not observing Saum (fast) (on journeys).

1947. Narrated Anas bin Mālik:
We used to travel with the Prophet ﷺ and neither did the persons observing Saum (fast) criticize those who were not observing Saum (fast), nor did those who were not observing Saum (fast) criticize the ones who were observing Saum (fast).

(38) CHAPTER. Whoever broke his Saum (fast) on a journey (publicly) so that people might see him.

1948. Narrated Tāwūs: Ibn ‘Abbās  set out from Al-Madīna to Makkah and he observed Saum (fast) till he reached ‘Uṣfān, where he asked for water and raised his hand to let the people see him, and then

---

(1) (H.1946) The Ahadith of this chapter show that it is permissible for one to observe Saum (fast) or break his Saum while travelling. But it is recommended for a healthy, strong person to observe Saum, whereas a weak or sick person is recommended not to observe Saum (fast). The saying of the Prophet ﷺ, “It is not from Al-Birr (righteousness) to observe Saum (fast) on a journey,” is applicable to a particular case, i.e., when one is so weak or sick that observing Saum (fast) would harm him. In such case one has to break his Saum (fast), for Allāh does not like His devotees to harm themselves needlessly.
broke the Šaum (fast), and did not observe Śaum (fast) after that till he reached Makkah, and that happened in Ramaḍān.

Ibn ‘Abbās used to say, “Allāh’s Messenger (sometimes) observed Šaum (fast) and (sometimes) did not observe Šaum (fast) during the journeys, so whoever wished not to observe Šaum (fast), could do so.”

(39) CHAPTER. (The Statement of Allāh): “And as for those who can fast with difficulty (e.g. the aged etc.) they have (a choice either to fast or) to feed a Miskīn (poor person) (for every day)” (V. 2:184)

Ibn ‘Umar and Salama bin Al-Akwa’ said that the provision of the above Verse was abrogated by the following Verse:

“The month of Ramaḍān in which was revealed the Qur’ān... (up to)... for having guided you, so that you may be grateful to Him.” (V. 2:185).

Narrated Ibn Abī Lailā: The companions of Prophet Muḥammad (n.b.) said that when observing Šaum (fast) in Ramaḍān was prescribed (for the first time), they could not endure it. So, whoever fed a poor person every day (of Ramaḍān) did not observe Šaum (fast) [although he had the power to observe Šaum (fast)], and was permitted to do so. Then this order was cancelled by the Verse: “...And that you observe Šaum (fast)

(1) (Ch.39) The Verse is interpreted in two ways. It may mean: Those who are able to observe Šaum (fast) but do not wish to fast, should give Fidya. The scholars who interpret the verse in this way say that the provision of this verse was abrogated by another verse where all Muslims were ordered to observe Šaum (fast). Other scholars interpret the Verse as meaning: Those who are able to observe fast only with great difficulty like very old people or a woman who has to nurse her newly born child, etc., are permitted not to observe fast and give the Fidya in recompensation. Ibn ‘Umar gives the first verdict but Ibn ‘Abbās thinks that the second is the right one. (Fath Al-Bāri).
is better for you.” (V.2:184), so they were ordered to observe Šaum (fast).

1949. Narrated Nafī': Ibn 'Umar recited the Verse: “They had a choice either to observe Šaum (fast) or to feed a poor person for every day, and said that the order of this Verse was cancelled.

(40) CHAPTER. When to make up for the missed days of fasting of Ramaḍān.

Ibn 'Abbas رضي الله عنه said, “There is no harm to observe fasting intermittently, as the Statement of Allâh تعالى shows: “… The same number [of days which one did not observe Šaum (fasts) must be made up] from other days…”

Sa'id bin Al-Musaiyab said: “The ten days of Šaum (fasting) (as Nawâfîl of Dhul-Hijjah) should not be observed till the fasting in lieu of the missed days of Ramaḍān were completed.”

Ibrâhîm said: “If somebody did not observe Šaum (fast) in lieu of the missed days of Ramaḍān till the next Ramaḍān came, then he should observe Šaum (fast) the present Ramaḍān and then the missed days of the previous Ramaḍān.” Ibrâhîm did not think that that person should feed the poor (as Fidya).

Narrated Abû Hurairah indirectly on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ and Ibn 'Abbâs that he should feed the poor. But Allâh does not mention the feeding of the poor but only says: “… The same number [of days which one did not observe Šaum (fasts) must be made up] from other days…”

1950. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها: Sometimes I missed some days of Ramaḍān, but could not observe zept (fast) in lieu of them except in the month of Ṣa’bān.” Yāḥyā, (a subnarrator) said, “She used to be busy serving the Prophet ﷺ.”

(41) CHAPTER. The menstruating women should leave the ẓaum (fast) and As-Salāt (the prayer).

Abū Az-Zinād said, “Very often the Ṣunna (legal ways) and the truth go against the opinions, and for the Muslims there is no way out except to follow the truth and the Ṣunna (legal ways) of the Prophet ﷺ, and an example of that is that a menstruating woman should observe ẓaum (fast) in lieu of her missed ẓaum, but she is not to offer the ẓalāt (prayer) in lieu of her missed ẓalāt.”

1951. Narrated Abū Sa’īd Ḥaḍīth: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Isn’t it true that a woman does not offer ẓalāt (prayer) and does not observe ẓaum (fast) on menstruating? And that is the defect (a loss) in her religion.”

(42) CHAPTER. Whoever died and he ought to have observed ẓaum (fast) (the missed days of Ramaḍān, can somebody else observe ẓaum instead of him?)

Al-Ḥasan said, “If thirty men observe ẓaum (fast) one day on his behalf then it will be sufficient.”

1952. Narrated ʿĀishah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever died and he ought to have observed ẓaum (fast)
(the missed days of Ramdaan) then his guardians must observe Saum (fast) on his behalf.

1950. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: A man came to the Prophet and said, "O Allah's Messenger! My mother died and she ought to have observed Saum (fast) one month (for her missed Ramdaan). Shall I observe Saum on her behalf?" The Prophet replied in the affirmative and said, "Allah's debts have more right to be paid."

Sulaiman said: Al-Hakam and Salama said: We were all there when Muslim narrated this Hadith. They said: We heard Mujahid saying this on Ibn 'Abbâs' authority, and the authority of Abî Khalid that: Al-A'mash told Abî Khalid on the authority of Al-Hakam and Muslim Al-Batin and Salama bin Kuhail who heard Sa'id bin Jubair, Aţa and Mujahid that Ibn 'Abbâs said.

In another narration a woman is reported to have said, "My sister died and Yahya and Abu Mu'awiya on the authority of Al-A'mash who said on the authority of Sa'id who said he heard Ibn 'Abbâs saying, "A woman said to the Prophet, 'My mother died..."' and Ubaidullâh bin 'Amr on the authority of Zaid bin Abî Unaisa who was told by Al-Hakam who was in turn told by Sa'id who reported Ibn 'Abbâs said, "A woman said to the Prophet, 'My mother died and she had vowed to observe Saum (fast) but she didn't observe Saum (fast).” In another narration Ibn ‘Abbās is reported to have said, “A woman said to the Prophet ﷺ, ‘My mother died while she ought to have observed Saum (fast) for fifteen days.’ ”

(43) CHAPTER. When should the person observing Saum (fast) break his Saum (fast)?

And Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī broke his Saum (fast) as soon as the sun’s disc set (disappeared).

1954. Narrated ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When night falls from this side and the day vanishes from this side and the sun sets, then the person observing Saum (fast) should break his Saum (fast)”.

1955. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Aufā رضي الله عنهما: We were in the company of the Prophet ﷺ on a journey and he was observing Saum (fast), and when the sun set, he addressed somebody, “O so-and-so, get up and mix Sawīq with water for us.” He replied, “O Allah’s Messenger! (Will you wait) till it is evening?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Get down and mix Sawīq with water for us.”
He replied, "O Allah’s Messenger! (If you wait) till it is evening." The Prophet ﷺ said again, "Get down and mix Sawiq with water for us." He replied, "It is still daytime."(1) The Prophet ﷺ said again, "Get down and mix Sawiq with water for us." He got down and mixed Sawiq for them. The Prophet ﷺ drank it and then said, "When you see night falling from this side, the fasting person should break his Saum (fast)."

(44) CHAPTER. Iftâr [to break the Saum (fast)] with the available water or anything else.

1956. Narrated 'Abdullah bin Abi Aufa: We were travelling with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and he was observing Saum (fast), and when the sun set, he said to (someone), "Get down and mix Sawiq with water for us." He replied, "O Allah’s Messenger! (Will you wait) till it is evening?" The Prophet ﷺ again said, "Get down and mix Sawiq with water for us." He replied, "O Allah’s Messenger! It is still daytime." The Prophet ﷺ said again, "Get down and mix Sawiq with water for us." So, he got down and carried out that order. The Prophet then said, "When you see night falling from this side, the person observing Saum (fast) should break his Saum (fast)" and he beckoned with his finger towards the east.

(45) CHAPTER. To hasten the Iftâr [breaking of the fast].

1957. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: Allah’s
Messenger ﷺ said, “The people will remain on the right path as long as they hasten the Iftar [breaking of the Saum (fast)].”

1958. Narrated Ibn Abi Aūfa: I was with the Prophet ﷺ on a journey, and he observed the Saum (fast) till evening. The Prophet ﷺ said to a man, “Get down and mix Sawiq with water for me.” He replied, “Will you wait till it is evening?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Get down and mix Sawiq with water for me; when you see night falling from this side, the person observing Saum (fast) should Iftar [break his Saum (fast)].”

1959. Narrated Abū Usama: Hishām bin ‘Urwa said on the authority of Faṭiima: Asmā bint Abī Bakr ﷺ said, “We broke our fast (Iftar) during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ on a cloudy day and then the sun appeared.” Hishām was asked, “Were they ordered to observe fasting in lieu of that day?” He replied, “It had to be made up for.” Ma’mar said, “I heard Hishām saying, “I don’t know whether they observed fasting in lieu of that day or not.”

[See Faṭḥ Al-Bārī]

(46) CHAPTER. If somebody Aftara [breaks the Saum (fast)], thinking that the sun has set and then sees the sun still visible. [Should he make up for that Saum?]

(47) CHAPTER. Saum (fasting) of boys (children etc.)

And ‘Umar ﷺ said to a drunk in the month of Ramaḍān, “Woe to you!
(Even) our boys (children etc.) are observing _Saum_ (fast) (and you are drunk!)” And then he gave him the legal punishment.

1960. Narrated Ar-Rubai' bint Mu'awwidh: The Prophet ﷺ sent a messenger to the village of the _Anãr_ in the morning of the day of ‘_Ašhūra_’ (10th of _Muharram_) to announce: “Whoever has eaten something should not eat but complete the _Saum_ (fast), and whoever is observing the _Saum_ (fast) should complete it.” She further said, “Since then we used to observe _Saum_ (fast) on that day regularly and also make our boys (children etc.) to observe fasting. We used to make toys of wool for the boys (children etc.) and if anyone of them cried for food, he was given those toys till it was the time of the _Iftãr_ [breaking of the _Saum_ (fast)]”.

48) CHAPTER. _Al-With!_ [i.e., to observe _Saum_ (fast) continuously without eating or drinking anything by day or night, may be for a day or two or more].

And whoever says that there is no _Saum_ (fast) at night according to the Statement of Allah ﷻ—“Then complete your fast till the nightfall...” (V.2:187). And the Prophet ﷺ forbade it (i.e., _Al-Wisal_) with mercy to them (Muslims) and to keep them healthy. And what is hated as regards excessive practices of worshiping.

1961. Narrated Anas Zr’,
The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not practise _Al-Wisal_ [fasting continuously without breaking one’s _Saum_ (fast) in the evening or eating before the following dawn].” The people said to the Prophet ﷺ, “But you practise _Al-Wisal_?”
The Prophet ﷺ replied, “I am not like any of you, for I am given food and drink (by Allah) during the night.”
1962. Narrated `Abdullãh bin `Umar: Allah’s Messenger forbade Al-Wisal. The people said (to him), “But you practise it?” He said, “I am not like you, for I am given food and drink (by Allah)."

1963. Narrated Abû Sa’îd: that he had heard the Prophet saying, “Do not Saum (fast) continuously (i.e., do not practise Al-Wisal), and if you intend to lengthen your Saum (fasting period), then carry it on only till the Sahar (before the following dawn).” The people said to him, “But you practise (Al-Wisal), O Allah’s Messenger!” He replied, “I am not similar to you, for during night I have One Who makes me eat and drink.”

1964. Narrated `Aishah: Allah’s Messenger forbade Al-Wisal with mercy to them. They said to him, “But you practise Al-Wisal?” He said, “I am not similar to you, for my Lord gives me food and drink.”

Abdullãh said that Uthman did not mention: “Mercy to them (towards the companions)."

(49) CHAPTER. The punishment for the person who practises Al-Wisal very often.
This is narrated by Anas on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

1965. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ forbade Al-Wîsâl in observing As-Saum (the fasts). So, one of the Muslims said to him, “But you practise Al-Wîsâl, O Allâh’s Messenger!” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Who amongst you is similar to me? I am given food and drink during night by my Lord.” So, when the people refused to stop Al-Wîsâl (fasting continuously), the Prophet ﷺ observed Saum (the fast) day and night continuously along with them for a day and then another day and then they saw the crescent-moon (of the month of Shawwâl). The Prophet ﷺ said to them (angrily), “If it (the crescent) had not appeared, I would have made you observe Saum for a longer period.” That was as a punishment for them when they refused to stop (practising Al-Wîsâl).

[See Fath Al-Bârî]

1966. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said twice, “(O you people) Be cautious! Do not practise Al-Wîsâl.” The people said to him, “But you practise Al-Wîsâl?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “My Lord gives me food and drink during night. Do that much of deeds which are within your ability.”

(50) CHAPTER. To observe Saum (fast) continuously day and night (Al-Wîsâl) till the time of Sahar (last part of night).

1967. Narrated Abû Sa'îd Al-Khudri ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not observe Saum (fast) continuously day and night (i.e., do not practise Al-Wiṣāl) and if anyone of you intends to Šaum (fast) continuously day and night, he should continue till the Sahar (before the following dawn).” They said, “But you practise Al-Wiṣāl, O Allâh’s Messenger!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I am not similar to you; during night I have One Who makes me eat and drink.”

(51) CHAPTER. If someone forces his Muslim brother to break his (Nawâfil) fast, by giving him an oath, the person observing Šaum (fast) has not to observe Šaum (fast) in lieu of it if the giving up of the Šaum was better for him.

1968. Narrated Abû Juḥaifa: The Prophet ﷺ made a bond of brotherhood between Salmân and Abû Ad-Dardâ.’ Salmân paid a visit to Abû Ad-Dardâ’ and found Umm Ad-Dardâ’ dressed in shabby clothes and asked her why she was in that state. She replied, “Your brother Abû Ad-Dardâ’ is not interested in (the luxuries of) this world.” In the meantime Abû Ad-Dardâ’ came and prepared a meal for Salmân. Salmân requested Abû Ad-Dardâ’ to eat (with him), but Abû Ad-Dardâ’ said, “I am observing Šaum (fast).” Salmân said, “I am not going to eat unless you eat.” So, Abû Ad-Dardâ’ ate (with Salmân). When it was night and (a part of the night passed), Abû Ad-Dardâ’ got up (to offer the night prayer), but Salmân told him to sleep and Abû Ad-Dardâ’ slept. After sometime Abû Ad-Dardâ’ again got up but Salmân told him to sleep. When it was the last hours of the night, Salmân told Abû Ad-Dardâ’, “Your Lord has a right on you, your ownself has a right on you, and your family has a right on you; so you should give the rights of all those who has a right on you.' Abū Ad-Dardā' came to the Prophet and narrated the whole story. The Prophet said, "Salmān has spoken the truth."

(52) CHAPTER. Šaum (fasting) in the month of Sha'bān.

1969. Narrated 'Aishah: Allah's Messenger used to observe Šaum (fast) till one would say that he would never stop observing Šaum (fast), and he would abandon Šaum (fast) till one would say that he would never observe Šaum (fast). I never saw Allah's Messenger observing Šaum (fast) for a whole month except the month of Ramadān, and did not see him fasting in any month more than in the month of Sha'bān.

1970. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet never observed Šaum (fast) in any month more than in the month of Sha'bān. He used to say, "Do those deeds which you can do easily, as Allah will not get tired (of giving rewards) till you get bored and tired (of performing religious deeds)." The most beloved Šalāt (prayer) to the Prophet was the one that was done regularly (throughout the life) even if it were little. And whenever the Prophet offered a Šalāt (prayer) he used to offer it regularly.

(53) CHAPTER. What is said about the fasting and non-fasting (periods) of the Prophet.
1971. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet never observed Saum (fast) a full month except the month of Ramadān, and he used to observe Saum (fast) till one could say, “By Allāh, he will never stop observing Saum (fast),” and he would abandon observing Saum (fast) till one would say, “By Allāh, he will never observe Saum (fast).”

1972. Narrated Anas: Allāh’s Messenger used to leave observing Saum (fast) in a certain month till we thought that he would not observe Saum (fast) in that month, and he used to fast in another month till we thought he would not stop observing Saum (fast) at all in that month. And if one wanted to see him offering Salāt (prayer) at night, one could see him (in that condition), and if one wanted to see him sleeping at night, one could see him (in that condition) too.

1973. Narrated Ḥumaid: I asked Anas about the Saum (fasting) of the Prophet. He said, “Whenever I liked to see the Prophet observing Saum (fast) in any month, I could see that, and whenever I liked to see him not observing Saum (fast), I could see that too, and if I liked to see him offering Salāt (prayer) in any night, I could see that, and if I liked to see him sleeping, I could see that, too.” Anas further said, “I never touched silk or velvet softer than the hand of Allāh’s Messenger, and never smelled musk or perfume more pleasant than the smell of Allāh’s Messenger.”
1974. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr bin Al-'Āṣ: "Once Allah's Messenger ﷺ came to me," and then he narrated the whole narration, i.e., your guest has a right on you, and your wife has a right on you. I then asked about the Šaum (fasting) of Dāwūd (David) ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ replied, "Half of the year," [i.e., he used to observe Šaum (fast) on every alternate day].

1975. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr bin Al-'Āṣ: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said to me, "O 'Abdullāh! Have I not been informed that you observe Šaum (fast) during the day and offer Šalāt (prayer) all the night." 'Abdullāh replied, "Yes, O Allah's Messenger!" The Prophet ﷺ said, "Don't do that; observe Šaum (fast) for few days and then give it up for few days, offer Šalāt (prayer) and also sleep at night, as your body has a right on you, and your wife has a right on you, and your guest has a right on you. And it is sufficient for you to observe Šaum (fast) three days in a month, as the reward of a good deed is multiplied ten times, so it will be like fasting throughout the year." I insisted (on fasting) and so I was given a hard instruction. I said, "O Allah's Messenger! I have strength.” The Prophet said, “Observe Saum (fast) like the fasting of the Prophet Dāwūd (David) and do not observe fast more than that.” I asked “How was the fasting of the Prophet of Allāh, David?” He said, “Half of the year,” (i.e., he used to observe fast on every alternate day).

Afterwards when ‘Abdullāh became old, he used to say, “It would have been better for me if I had accepted the permission of the Prophet [i.e., to observe Saum (fast) only three days a month].”

(56) CHAPTER. Observing Saum (fasting) daily throughout the life.

1976. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr: Allāh’s Messenger was informed that I had taken an oath to fast daily and to offer Šalāt (prayers) (every night) all the night throughout my life. (So Allāh’s Messenger came to me and asked whether it was correct). I replied, “Let my parents be sacrificed for you! I said so.” The Prophet said, “You will not be able to do that. So, fast for few days and give it up for few days, offer Šalāt (prayer) and sleep. Observe Saum (fast) three days a month as the reward of good deeds is multiplied ten times and that will be equal to one year of fasting.” The Prophet said to me, “Observe Saum (fast) one day and give up fasting for two days.” I replied, “I can do better than that.” The Prophet said: “Then observe Saum (fast) a day and give it up for a day and that is the Saum (fast) of Prophet Dāwūd (David), and that is... the best Saum (fast).” I said, “I have the strength to do better (more) than that.” The Prophet said, “There is no better (fasting) than that.”

(57) CHAPTER. The right of the family (wife) in observing Aş-Saum (the fast).

This is narrated by Abū Juḥaifa from the Prophet.

1977. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr: The news of my observing Saum (fasting) daily and offering Salāt (prayer) every night throughout the night reached the Prophet. So he sent for me, or I met him, and he said, “I have been informed that you observe Saum (fast) every day and offer Salāt (prayer) every night (all the night). Observe Saum (fast) (for some days) and give it up (for some days), offer Salāt (prayer) and sleep for your eyes have a right on you, and your body and your family (your wife) have a right on you.” I replied, “I have more strength than that (for fasting).” The Prophet said, “Then observe Saum (fast) like the Saum (fast) of (the Prophet) Dāwūd (David) on alternate days, and he used not to flee on meeting the enemy.” I said, “From where can I get that chance, O Allah’s Prophet?” [‘Aṭā said, “I do not know how the expression of ‘observe Saum (fast) daily throughout the life’ occurred.”] So, the Prophet said, twice, “Whoever observe Saum (fast) daily throughout his life is just as the one who does not observe Saum (fast) at all.”
(58) CHAPTER. Saum (fasting) on alternate days.

1978. Narrated Mujãhid from ‘Abdulläh bin ‘Amr: The Prophet ﷺ said (to ‘Abdulläh), “Observe Saum (fast) three days a month.” ‘Abdulläh said, (to the Prophet ﷺ), “I am able to observe Saum (fast) more than that.” They kept on arguing on this matter till the Prophet ﷺ said, “Observe Saum (fast) on alternate days, and recite the whole Qur’ân once a month.” ‘Abdulläh said, “I can recite more (in a month),” and the argument went on till the Prophet ﷺ said, “Recite the whole Qur’ân once in three days.” (i.e., you must not recite the whole Qur’ân in less than three days).

(59) CHAPTER. The Saum (fasting) of Dâwûd (David) عليه السلام.

1979. Narrated ‘Abdulläh bin ‘Amr bin Al-‘As: The Prophet ﷺ said to me, “You observe Saum (fast) daily all the year and offer Salâh (prayer) (every night) all the night?” I replied in the affirmative. The Prophet ﷺ said, “If you keep on doing this, your eyes will become weak and your body will get tired. He who observes Saum (fast) all the year is as he who did not observe Saum (fast) at all. Observing Saum (fast) of three days (a month) will be equal to observing Saum (fast) of the whole year.” I replied, “I have the strength for more than this.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Then observe Saum (fast) like the fasting of Dâwûd (David) عليه السلام who used to observe Saum (fast) on alternate days and would never flee from the battle field on meeting the enemy.”
1980. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Amr رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was informed about my Ṣaum (fasts), and he came to me and I spread for him a leather cushion stuffed with palm fibre, but he sat on the ground and the cushion remained between me and him, and then he said, “Isn’t it sufficient for you to observe Ṣaum (fast) three days a month?” I replied, “O Allah’s Messenger! [I can observe Ṣaum (fast) more].” He said, “Five?” I replied, “O Allah’s Messenger! [I can observe Ṣaum (fast) more].” He said, “Seven?” I replied, “O Allah’s Messenger! [I can observe Ṣaum (fast) more].” He said, “Nine (days per month)?” I replied, “O Allah’s Messenger! [I can observe Ṣaum (fast) more]” He said, “Eleven (days per month)?” And then the Prophet ﷺ said, “There is no Ṣaum (fast) superior to that of the Prophet Dawûd (David) عليه السلام; it was for half of the year. So, observe Ṣaum (fast) on alternate days.”

(60) CHAPTER. To observe Ṣaum (fast) the three days (preceding) the full moon night, i.e., 13th, 14th and the 15th of the lunar months.

1981. Narrated Abû Hurairah رضي الله عنه: My friend (the Prophet ﷺ) advised me to observe three things:

1. to observe Ṣaum (fast) three days every (lunar) month;
2. to perform a two Rak’â Du’ha prayer and...
(3) to perform the Witr prayer before sleeping.
[See H.1178].

(61) CHAPTER. Whoever visited some people and did not break his (optional) Saum (fast) with them.

1982. Narrated Anas Ṭabari: The Prophet ﷺ paid a visit to Umm Sulaim and she placed before him dates and ghee. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Replace the ghee and dates in their respective containers for I am observing Saum (fast).” Then he stood somewhere in her house and offered an optional Salāt (prayer) and then he invoked Allāh to bless Umm Sulaim and her family. Then Umm Sulaim said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I have a special request (today).” He said, “What is it?” She replied, “(Please invoke for) your servant Anas.” So, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ did not leave anything good in this world or in the Hereafter which he did not invoke (Allāh to bestow) on me and said, “O Allāh! Give him (i.e., Anas) property and children and bless him.” Thus I am one of the richest among the Anṣār and my daughter Umaina told me that when Al-Hajjaj came to Basrah, more than 120 of my offspring had been buried.

(62) CHAPTER. Fasting the last days of the month.

1983. Narrated ‘Imrān bin Ḥusain Ṭabari: ... that the Prophet ﷺ asked him (‘Imrân), or asked a man and ‘Imrân was listening, “O Abû so-and so! Have you observed Saum (fasts) in the last days of this month?” (The narrator thought that he said, “the month of Ramadân”). The man replied, “No. O Allah’s Messenger!” The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “When you finish your Saum (fasts) (of Ramadân) observe Saum (fasts) for two days (in Shawwâl).”

Through another series of narrators ‘Imrân said, “The Prophet ﷺ said, “[Have you observed Saum (fasts)] in the last days of Sha’bân?””

(63) CHAPTER. Observing Saum (fast) on Friday. If someone gets up in the morning of Friday and is observing the Saum (fasts) he should break it [if he did not observe Saum the day before or does not intend to observe Saum (fasts) after it].

1984. Narrated Muhammad bin ‘Abbad: I asked Jâbir, “Did the Prophet ﷺ forbid observing Saum (fasts) on Fridays?” He replied, “Yes.” [Through other narrators it is added, “If he intends to observe Saum (fasts) only that day.”]

(1) (H.1983) The man whom the Prophet ﷺ asked seemed to have had the habit of observing Saum (fast) on the last days of every month, but he did not carry on this habit in the month of Sha’bân, for Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had forbidden the Saum (fast) of the day preceding Ramadân immediately. In this narration the Prophet ﷺ orders the man to make up for the days of Sha’bân which he missed by observing Saum (fast) on some days in Shawwâl, and that indicates that one should keep his habits of worshpping, and there is no harm if one observes Saum (fast) the last days of Sha’bân if it is his habit to Saum the last days of every month. (Fath Al-Bârî)
1985. Narrated Abu Hurairah: I heard the Prophet saying, “None of you should observe Saum (fast) on Friday unless he observes Saum (fast) a day before or after it.”

1986. Narrated Juwairiya bint Al-Harith: The Prophet visited her on a Friday and she was observing Saum (fast). He asked her, “Did you observe Saum (fast) yesterday?” She said, “No.” He said, “Then break your Saum (fast).”

Through another series of narrators, Abu Ayyub is reported to have said, “He ordered her and she broke her Saum (fast).”

(64) CHAPTER. Can one select some special days [for observing Saum (fast)]?

1987. Narrated `Alqama: I asked `Aishah: “Did Allâh’s Messenger use to do extra deeds of worship on some certain days?” She replied, “No, but his deeds were regular and constant. “Who amongst you can endure what Allâh’s Messenger used to endure?”

[See Vol. 8. Hadith No. 6461, 6462, and 6466.]
1988. Narrated Umm Al-Fadl bint Al-Harith: “While the people were with me on the day of ‘Arafah they differed as to whether the Prophet was observing Saum (fast) or not; some said that he was observing Saum (fast) while others said that he was not observing Saum (fast). So, I sent to him a bowl full of milk while he was riding over his camel and he drank it.”

1989. Narrated Maimuna: The people doubted whether the Prophet was observing Saum (fast) on the day of ‘Arafah or not, so I sent milk while he was standing at ‘Arafat, he drank it and the people were looking at him.
1990. Narrated Abū ‘Ubaid, the slave of Ibn Azhar: I witnessed the ‘Eid with ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb who said, “Allāh’s Messenger has forbidden people to observe șaum (fast) on the day on which you break fasting (the șaum of Ramaḍān) and the day on which you eat the meat of your sacrifices (i.e., the first day of ‘Eid-ul-_FM and ‘Eid-ul-ADHA).

1991. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: The Prophet forbade the șaum (fasting) of ‘Eid-ul-FM and ‘Eid-ul-ADHA (two feast days) and also the wearing of șaMMā (a single garment covering the whole body), and sitting with one’s legs drawn up while being wrapped in one garment.

1992. Abū Sa‘īd added: He also forbade the șalât (prayer) after the Fajr (early morning) and the ‘Asr (afternoon) șalât (prayers).

(67) CHAPTER. Observing șaum (fast) on the day of Nahr (i.e., first day of ‘Eid-ul-ADHA).

1993. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Two șaum (fasts) and two kinds of sale are forbidden: observing șaum (fast) on the day of ‘Eid-ul-FM and ‘Eid-ul-ADHA and the kinds of sale called Mulāmasa and Munābadha. (These two kinds of sale used to be practised...} in the days of Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance; Mulâmasa means when you touch something displayed for sale you have to buy it; Munâbaḍḍa means when the seller throws something to you, you have to buy it.)

1994. Narrated Ziyâd bin Jubair: A man went to Ibn ‘Umar and said, “A man vowed to observe Šaum (fast) one day (the subnarrator thinks that he said that the day was Monday), and that day happened to be ‘Eid day.” Ibn ‘Umar said, “Allâh orders vows to be fulfilled and the Prophet forbade Šaum on this day (i.e., ‘Eid).”

1995. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudrî (who fought in twelve Ghazawât in the company of the Prophet). I heard four things from the Prophet and they won my admiration. He said:

1. “No lady should travel on a journey of two days except with her husband or a Dhi-Mahram;
2. “No Šaum (fasting) is permissible on the two days of ‘Eid-ul-Fîr and ‘Eid-ul-Adhâ;
3. “No Salât (prayer) (may be offered) after the morning (compulsory) Salât (prayer) until the sun rises; and no Salât (prayer) after the ‘Asr prayer till the sun sets;
4. “One should travel only for visiting three Masâijd (mosques): Masjid-al-Harâm (Makkah), Masjid-al-Aqsa (Jerusalem), and this (my) mosque (at Al-Madîna).”
(68) CHAPTER. Observing \textit{Saum} (fast) on \textit{Tashriq} days (11th, 12th and 13th of Dhul-Hijjah).

1996. Narrated Yahyā: Hishām said, “My father said that ‘Aishah used to observe \textit{Saum} (fast) on the days of Mina.” His (i.e., Hishām’s) father also used to observe \textit{Saum} on those days.

1997, 1998. Narrated ‘Aishah and Ibn ‘Umar: Nobody was allowed to observe \textit{Saum} (fast) on the days of \textit{Tashriq} except those who could not afford the \textit{Hady} (animals for sacrifice).

1999. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Observing \textit{Saum} (fast) for those who perform \textit{Hajj-at-Tamattu}’ (in lieu of the \textit{Hady} which they cannot afford) may be performed up to the day of ‘Arafah. And if one does not get a \textit{Hady} and has not observed \textit{Saum} (fast) (before the ‘Eid) then one should observe \textit{Saum} (fast) during the days of Mina (11th, 12th and 13th of Dhul-Hijjah).

(69) CHAPTER. Observing \textit{Saum} (fast) on the day of ‘\textit{Ashūra}’ (tenth of Muharram).

observe Šaum (fast) on the day of ‘Āshūra’.”

2001. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allah’s Messenger ordered (the Muslims) to observe Šaum (fast) on the day of ‘Āshūra’, and when fasting in the month of Ramadan was prescribed, it became optional for one to observe Šaum (fast) on that day (‘Āshūra’) or not.

2002. Narrated ‘Aishah: Quraysh used to observe Šaum (fast) on the day of ‘Āshūra’ in the Pre-Islamic Ignorance Period, and Allah’s Messenger too, used to observe Šaum (fast) on that day. When he came to Al-Madīna, he observed Šaum (fast) on that day and ordered others to observe Šaum (fast), too. Later when the fasting of the month of Ramadan was prescribed, he gave up fasting on the day of ‘Āshūra’ and became optional for one to observe Šaum (fast) on it or to leave its fasting.

2003. Narrated Humaid bin ‘Abdur-Raḥmān that he heard Mu‘āwiyah bin Abi Sufyān saying on the pulpit, “O the people of Al-Madīna! Where are your religious scholars? I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, ‘This is the day of ‘Āshūra’. Allah has not enjoined its Šaum (fast) on you but I am fasting it. You have the choice either to observe Šaum (fast) or not to observe Šaum (fast) (on this day).’”
2004. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ came to Al-Madina and saw the Jews observing fast on the day of ‘Āshūra’. He asked them about that. They replied, “This is a good day, the day on which Allāh rescued Bani Israel from their enemy. So, Mūsa (Moses) on this day.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “We have more claim over Mūsa than you.” So, the Prophet ﷺ observed Šaum (fast) on that day and ordered (the Muslims) to observe Šaum (fast) (on that day).

2005. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The day of ‘Āshūra’ was considered as ‘Eid day by the Jews. So the Prophet ﷺ ordered, “I recommend you (Muslims) to observe Šaum (fast) on this day.”

2006. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: I never saw the Prophet ﷺ seeking to observe Šaum (fast) on a day more (preferable to him) than this day, the day of ‘Āshūra’, or this month, i.e., the month of Ramaḍān.(1)

(1) (H.2006) This is only the opinion of Ibn ‘Abbās which might differ from what other people think, for in a narration reported by Qatāda from the Prophet ﷺ it is mentioned that Šaum (fasting) on the day of ‘Arafah expiates the sins of two years, while observing Šaum (fast) on the day of ‘Āshūra’ expiates the sins of only one year. This indicates that observing Šaum (fast) on the day of ‘Arafah is superior to that of ‘Āshūra’.
2007. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa': The Prophet ordered a man from the tribe of Banî Aslam to announce amongst the people that whoever had eaten should observe Saum (fast) the rest of the day, and whoever had not eaten should continue his Saum (fast), as that day was the day of 'Ashūra'.
CHAPTER. The superiority of praying (Nawâfiḍ) at night in Ramaḍān.

2008. Narrated ʿAbū Hurayrāh: I heard Allâh’s Messenger saying regarding Ramaḍān, “Whoever performed Salât (prayers) at night in it (the month of Ramaḍān) with sincere faith and hoping for a reward from Allâh, then all his past sins will be forgiven.”

2009. Narrated ʿAbū Hurayrāh: Allâh’s Messenger said, “Whoever performed Salât (prayers) at night in the month of Ramaḍān with sincere faith and hoping for a reward from Allâh, then all his past sins will be forgiven.” Ibn Shihâb (a subnarrator) said, “Allâh’s Messenger died and the people continued observing that (i.e., Nawâfiḍ offered individually, not in congregation), and it remained as it was, during the caliphate of ʿAbū Bakr and in the early days of ‘Umar’s caliphate.”

2010. Narrated Ibn Shihâb: Abdur Rahman bin ʿAbdul Qāri said, “I went out in the company of ʿUmar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb one night in Ramaḍān to the mosque and found the people performing Salât (prayers) in different groups. A man performing Salât (prayers) alone, or a man performing Salât (prayers) with a little group behind him. So, ‘Umar said, ‘In my opinion I would better collect these (people) under the leadership of one Qari (reciter) [i.e., let them perform Salât (prayers) in congregation!].’ So, he made up his mind and he congregated them behind Ubaib bin Ka‘b. Then on another night I went again in his company and the people were performing Salât (prayers) behind their reciter. On that, ‘Umar remarked, ‘What an excellent Bid‘a (i.e., innovation in religion) this is; but the Salât (prayers) which they do not perform, and sleep at its time is superior than the one they are performing now.’ He meant the Salât (prayers) in the last part of the night. (In those days) people used to perform Salât (prayers) in the early part of the night.”

2011. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to perform Salât (prayer) (at night) in Ramâdân.

2012. Narrated ‘Urwa that he was informed by ‘Aishah, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ went out in the middle of the night and performed Salât (prayer) in the mosque and some men performed Salât (prayer) behind him. In the morning, the people spoke about it and then a large number of them gathered and performed Salât (prayer) behind him (on the second night). In the next morning the people again talked about it and on the third night the mosque was full with a large number of people. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ came out and the people performed Salât (prayer) behind him. On the fourth night the mosque was overwhelmed with people and could not accommodate them, but the Prophet came out (only) for the morning ṣalāt (prayer). When the morning ṣalāt (prayer) was finished, he recited tāṣāḥ-hud and addressing the people said, “Ammā ba’du, your presence was not hidden from me but I was afraid lest the night ṣalāt (prayer) should be enjoined on you and you might not be able to carry it on.” So, Allāh’s Messenger died and the situation remained like that (i.e., people offered the night prayers individually).”

2013. Narrated Abū Salama bin ‘Abdur Raḥmān that he asked ‘Aishah, “How was the ṣalāt (prayer) of Allāh’s Messenger in Ramadān?” She replied, “He did not perform ṣalāt (prayer) more than eleven rak‘ā in Ramadān or in any other month. He used to perform four rak‘ā – let alone their beauty and length – and then he would perform four rak‘ā – let alone their beauty and length – and then he would perform three rak‘ā (wūr).” She added, “I asked, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Do you sleep before praying the wūr?’ he replied, ‘O ‘Aishah! My eyes sleep but my heart does not sleep.’”
(1) CHAPTER. The superiority of the night of Qadr.

And Allâh said; “Verily! We have sent it (this Qur’ân) down in the night of Al-Qadr (Decree). And what will make you know what the night of Qadr is……”

…… till the end of the Sûrah. (V.97:1,2)

2014. Narrated Abû Hurairah ZIP - The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever observed Saum (fast) in the month of Ramaḍân with sincere faith (i.e., belief) and hoping for a reward from Allâh, then all his past sins will be forgiven, and whoever stood for the Salât (prayers) in the night of Qadr with sincere faith and hoping for a reward from Allâh, then all his past sins will be forgiven.”

(2) CHAPTER. To look for the night of Qadr in the last seven nights (of Ramaḍân).

2015. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: Some men amongst the companions of the Prophet ﷺ were shown in their dreams that the night of Qadr was in the last seven nights of Ramaḍân. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It seems that all your dreams agree that (the night of Qadr) is in the last seven nights, and whoever wants to search for it (i.e., the night of Qadr) should search in the last seven (nights of Ramaḍân).”
2016. Narrated Ābū Salāma: I asked Ābū Sa’īd - (about the night of Qadr) and he said, “We practised I’tikāf (seclusion in the mosque) in the middle third of the month of Ramadān with the Prophet ﷺ. In the morning of the 20th of Ramadān, the Prophet ﷺ came and addressed us and said, ‘I was informed of (the date of the night of Qadr) but I was caused to forget it (or I forgot); so, search for it in the odd nights of the last ten nights of the month of Ramadān. (In the dream) I saw myself prostrating in mud and water (as a sign). So, whoever was in I’tikāf with me should return to it (for another 10 days period), and we returned. At that time there was no sign of clouds in the sky, but suddenly a cloud came and it rained till rain-water started leaking through the roof of the mosque which was made of date-palm leaf stalks. Then the Ṣalāt (prayer) was established and I saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ prostrating in mud and water and I saw the traces of mud on his forehead.”

(3) CHAPTER. To search for the night of Qadr in the odd nights of the last ten nights (of Ramadān).

This narration has come from ‘Ubdā (bin Aṣ-Ṣāmit) on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

2017. Narrated ‘Āishah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Search for the night of Qadr in the odd nights of the last ten nights of Ramadān.”
2018. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to practise I’tikāf (in the mosque) in the middle third of Ramadān, and after passing the twenty nights he used to go back to his house on the 21st, and the people who were in I’tikāf with him also used to go back to their houses. Once in Ramadān, in which he practised I’tikāf, he established the night Ṣalāt (prayers) at the night in which he used to return home, and then he addressed the people and ordered them whatever Allāh wished him to order and said, “I used to practise I’tikāf for these ten days (i.e., the middle 1/3rd) but now I intend to stay in I’tikāf for the last ten days (of the month); so whoever was in I’tikāf with me should stay at his place of seclusion. Verily, I have been shown (the date of) this night (of Qadr) but I have forgotten it. So, search for it in the odd nights of the last ten days (of this month). I also saw myself (in the dream) prostrating in mud and water.” On the night of the 21st (of Ramadān), the sky was overcast with clouds and it rained, and the rain-water started leaking through the roof of the mosque at the Musalla (praying place) of the Prophet ﷺ. I saw with my own eyes the Prophet ﷺ at the completion of the morning Ṣalāt leaving with his face covered with mud and water.

[See H.No.2027].

2020. Narrated ‘Āishah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to practise I’tikāf in the last ten nights of Ramaḍān and used to say, “Look for the night of Qadr in the last ten nights of the month of Ramaḍān.”

2021. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Look for the night of Qadr in the last ten nights of Ramaḍān; on the night when nine or seven or five nights remain out of the last ten nights of Ramaḍān [i.e., 21, 23, 25, (27, 29) respectively].”

2022. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The night of Qadr is in the last ten nights of the month (Ramaḍān), either in the first nine or in the last (remaining) seven nights (of Ramaḍān).” Ibn ‘Abbās added, “Search for it on the twenty-fourth (of Ramaḍān).”
(4) CHAPTER. The knowing (knowledge) of the night of Qadr was taken away because of the quarrelling of the people.

2023. Narrated ‘Ubâda bin As-Sâmît: The Prophet ﷺ came out to inform us about the night of Qadr but two Muslims were quarrelling with each other. So, the Prophet ﷺ said, “I came out to inform you about the night of Qadr but such and such persons were quarrelling, so the news about it had been taken away; yet that might be for your own good, so search for it on the 29th, 27th and 25th (nights of Ramaân).

(5) CHAPTER. The doing of good deeds in the last ten days of Ramaân.

2024. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: With the start of the last ten days of Ramaân, the Prophet ﷺ used to tighten his waist belt (i.e., work hard) and used to keep awake all the night and perform Salât (prayer) and also used to keep his family awake for the Salât (prayer).
33 - THE BOOK OF ITIKAF

[i.e., to confine oneself in a mosque for Salât (prayers) and invocations leaving the worldly activities for a limited number of days].

(1) CHAPTER. The Itikaf in the last ten days of Ramaḍān. And Itikaf may be practised in any mosque, as is evident in the Statement of Allāh (i.e., confining oneself in a mosque for Salât (prayers) and invocations leaving the worldly activities for a limited number of days) in the mosques. These are the limits (set) by Allāh; so approach them not. Thus does Allāh make clear His Ayāt (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, laws, legal and illegal things Allāh's set limits, orders), to mankind that they may become Al-Muttaqūn (the pious).”

(V.2:187)

2025. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهم: Allāh’s Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to practise Itikaf in the last ten days of the month of Ramaḍān.

2026. Narrated ʿĀishah رضي الله عنها the wife of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to practise Itikaf in the last ten days of Ramaḍān till he died and then his wives used to practise Itikaf after him.
2027. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: Allāh’s Messenger used to practise I’tikāf in the middle ten days of Ramaḍān; once he stayed in I’tikāf till the night of the twenty-first and it was the night in the morning of which he used to come out of his I’tikāf. The Prophet said, “Whoever was in I’tikāf with me should stay in I’tikāf for the last ten days, for I was informed (of the date) of the Night (of Qadr) but I have been caused to forget it. (In the dream) I saw myself prostrating in mud and water in the morning of that night. So, look for it in the last ten nights and in the odd ones of them.” It rained that night (i.e. the 21st of Ramaḍān) and the roof of the mosque dribbled as it was made of leaf stalks of date-palms. I saw with my own eyes the marks of mud and water on the forehead of the Prophet, i.e., in the morning of the twenty-first (of Ramaḍān).

(2) CHAPTER. A menstruating woman is permitted to comb the hair of a Mu’tālqf (i.e., a man in I’tikāf).

2028. Narrated ‘A‘īshah: The Prophet used to (put) bend his head (out) to me while he was in I’tikāf in the mosque during my monthly periods and I would comb and oil his hair.
2029. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to let his head in (the house) while he was in the mosque and I would comb and oil his hair. When in I’tikaf he used not to enter the house except for a need. (1)

2030. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet ﷺ used to embrace me during my menses.

2031. ‘Aishah added: He also used to put his head out of the mosque while he was in I’tikaf, and I would wash it during my menses.

2032. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: ‘Umar asked the Prophet ﷺ, “I vowed in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance to enter the house except for a need. (1) to stay in I'tikāf for one night in Al-Masjid-al-Ḥarām.” The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Fulfil your vow.”

(6) CHAPTER. Women’s I’tikāf. (A woman cannot practise I’tikāf except with the permission of her husband).

2033. Narrated `Amra: ‘Aishah said, “The Prophet used to practise I’tikāf in the last ten days of Ramadān and I used to pitch a tent for him, and after performing the morning Salāt (prayer), he used to enter the tent.” Ḥafṣa asked the permission of ‘Aishah to pitch a tent for her and she allowed her and she pitched her tent. When Zainab bint Jahsh saw it, she pitched another tent. In the morning the Prophet noticed the tents. He said, “What is this?” He was told of the whole situation. Then the Prophet ﷺ said, “Do you think that they intended to do Al-Birr (righteousness) by doing this?” He therefore abandoned the I’tikāf in that month and practised I’tikāf for ten days in the month of Shawwāl.”

(7) CHAPTER. The tents in the mosque.

2034. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet ﷺ intended to practise I’tikāf and when he reached the place where he intended to perform I’tikāf, he saw some tents, the tents of ‘Aishah, Ḥafṣa and Zainab. So, he said, “Do you consider that they intended to do Al-Birr (righteousness) by doing this?"
And then he went away and did not perform "I’tikaf (in Ramadan) but performed it in the month of Shawwāl for ten days.

(8) CHAPTER. Can a Mu’takif go to the gate of the mosque for a need?

2035. Narrated ‘Ali bin Al-Husain: "Ruḍūdi Allāh, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ told me that she went to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ to visit him in the mosque while he was in I’tikāf in the last ten days of Ramaḍān. She had a talk with him for a while, then she got up in order to return home. The Prophet ﷺ accompanied her. When they reached the gate of the mosque, opposite the door of Umm Salama, two Anṣārī men were passing by and they greeted Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. He said to them: “Do not run away!” And said, “She is (my wife) Saﬁyya bint Ḥuyai.” Both of them said, “Subḥān Allāh, (How dare we think of any evil) O Allāh’s Messenger.” And they felt it. The Prophet ﷺ said (to them), “Satan reaches everywhere in the human body as blood reaches in it (everywhere in one’s body). I was afraid lest Satan might insert an evil thought in your minds.”

[See H.2038].
2036. Narrated Abu Salama bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān: I asked Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī, “Did you hear Allāh’s Messenger talking about the night of Qadr?” He replied in the affirmative and said, “Once we were in I’tikāf with Allāh’s Messenger in the middle ten days of (Ramadān) and we came out of it in the morning of the twentieth, and Allāh’s Messenger delivered a Khutbah (religious talk) on the 20th (of Ramadān) and said, ‘I was informed (of the date) of the night of Qadr (in my dream) but had forgotten it. So, look for it in the odd nights of the last ten nights of the month of Ramadān. I saw myself prostrating in mud and water on that night (as a sign of the night of Qadr). So, whoever had been in I’tikāf with Allāh’s Messenger should return for it.’ The people returned to the mosque (for I’tikāf). There was no trace of clouds in the sky. But all of a sudden a cloud came and it rained. Then the Salāt (prayer) was established (they stood for the Salāt) and Allāh’s Messenger prostrated in mud and water and I saw mud over the forehead and the nose of the Prophet.”

2037. Narrated `Āishah: One of the wives of Allāh’s Messenger practised I’tikāf with him while she had bleeding in between her periods.
bleeding in between her periods and she would see red (of blood) or yellowish traces; and sometimes we put a tray beneath her when she offered the Salāt (prayer).

[See H.No.309].

(11) CHAPTER. The visit of the wife to her husband while he was in I'tikāf.

2038.Narrated ‘Alī bin Al-Ḥusain (on the authority of Ṣafīyya, the Prophet’s wife): The wives of the Prophet were with him in the mosque (while he was in I’tikāf) and then they departed and the Prophet said to Ṣafīyya bint Ḥuyai, “Don’t hurry up, for I shall accompany you,” (and her dwelling was in the house of Usāma). The Prophet went out and in the meantime two Anṣārī men met him and they looked at the Prophet and passed by. The Prophet said to them, “Come here. She is (my wife) Ṣafīyya bint Ḥuyai.” They replied, “Subḥān Allāh (how dare we think of evil) O Allāh’s Messenger! (We never expect anything bad from you).” The Prophet replied, “Satan circulates in the human being as blood circulates in the body, and I was afraid lest Satan might insert an evil thought in your minds.”
(12) CHAPTER. Is it permissible for the Mu'takif to defend himself (by speech or action)?

2039. Narrated 'Ali bin Al-Husain on the authority of Šafiiya: Šafiiya went to the Prophet while he was in 'Itikaf. When she returned, the Prophet accompanied her, walking. An Ansarī man saw him. When the Prophet noticed him, he called him and said, “Come here. She is Šafiiya. (Sufyãn a subnarrator perhaps said that the Prophet had said, “This is Šafiiya”). And Satan circulates in the body of Adam’s offspring as his blood circulates in it.”

A subnarrator asked Sufyãn, “Did Šafiiya visit him at night?” He said, “Certainly, at night.”

(13) CHAPTER. Whoever went out of his
'Itikaf in the morning.

2040. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd: We practised 'Itikaf with Allah’s Messenger in the middle ten days of Rama’dân. In the morning of the twentieth of Rama’dân we shifted our baggage, but Allah’s Messenger came to us and said, “Whoever was in 'Itikaf should return to his place of 'Itikaf, for I saw (i.e., was informed about the date of) this Night (of Qadr) and saw myself prostrating in mud and water.” When I returned to my place the sky was overcast with clouds and it rained. By Him Who sent Muḥammad ﷺ with the Truth, the sky was covered with clouds from the end of that day, and the mosque which was roofed with leafstalks of date-palm trees leaked with rain and I saw the trace of mud and water over the nose and also over the tip of the nose of the Prophet ﷺ.

(14) CHAPTER. I’tikāf in the month of Shawwāl.

2041. Narrated ‘Amra bint ‘Abdur-Rahmān on the authority of ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to practise I’tikāf every year in the month of Ramadān. And after offering the morning Ṣalāt (prayer), he used to enter the place of his I’tikāf. ‘Āishah asked his permission to let her practise I’tikāf and he allowed her, and so she pitched a tent in the mosque. When Ḥafṣa heard of that, she also pitched a tent (for herself), and when Zainab heard of that, she too pitched another tent. When, in the morning, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had finished the morning Ṣalāt (prayer), he saw four tents and asked, “What is this?” He was informed about it. He then said, “What made them do this? Is it Al-Birr (righteousness)? Remove the tents, for I do not want to see them.” So, the tents were removed. The Prophet ﷺ did not perform I’tikāf that year in the month of Ramadān, but did it in the last ten days of Shawwāl.
(15) CHAPTER. Whoever thinks that I’tikaf can be practised without fasting.

(16) CHAPTER. Whoever made a vow in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance to perform I’tikaf and then embraced Islam.

2043. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar that ‘Umar رضي الله عنه had vowed in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance to perform I’tikaf in Al-Masjid-al-Harām. (A sub-narrator thinks that ‘Umar vowed to perform I’tikaf for one night.) Allāh’s Messenger  said to ‘Umar, “Fulfil your vow.”

(17) CHAPTER. I’tikaf in the middle ten days of Ramaḍān.

2044. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: The Prophet  used to perform I’tikaf every year in the month of Ramaḍān for ten days, and when it was the year of his death, he stayed in I'tikaf for twenty days.

(18) CHAPTER. Whoever intended to practise I'tikaf and then changed his mind.

2045. Narrated 'Amra bint 'Abd-Rahmān on the authority of 'Āishah: Allāh's Messenger mentioned that he would practise I'tikaf in the last ten days of Ramaḍān. 'Āishah asked his permission to perform I'tikaf and he permitted her. Ḥafṣa asked 'Āishah to take his permission for her, and she did so. When Zainab bint Jahsh saw that, she ordered a tent to be pitched for her and it was pitched for her. Allāh's Messenger used to proceed to his tent after the Salāt (prayer). So, he saw the tents and asked, "What is this?" He was told that those were the tents of 'Āishah, Ḥafṣa and Zainab. Allāh's Messenger said, "Is it Al-Birr (righteousness) which they intended by doing so? I am not going to perform I'tikaf." So, he returned home. When the fasting month was over, he performed I'tikaf for ten days in the month of Shawwāl.

(19) CHAPTER. A Mu'takif can let his head in the house for washing.

2046. Narrated 'Urwa: 'Āishah during her menses used to comb and oil the hair of the Prophet ﷺ while he used to be in I'tikaf in the mosque. He would stretch out his head towards her while she was in her chamber.
And the Statement of Allah:

“... And Allâh has permitted trading and forbidden Ribâ (usury)....” (V.2:275)

And His Statement: “... save when it is a present trade which you carry out on the spot among yourselves...” (V.2:282)

(1) CHAPTER. What has come in the Statement of Allâh:

“Then when the (Jumu‘ah) Šalât is ended, you may disperse through the land, and seek of the Bounty of Allâh.... And Allâh is the Best of Providers.” (V.62:10,11)

And also His Statement: “Eat not up your property among yourselves unjustly except it be a trade amongst you, by mutual consent...” (V.4:29)

2047. Narrated Abû Hurairah:

You people say that Abû Hurairah tells many narrations from Allâh’s Messenger and you also wonder why the emigrants and Anşâr do not narrate from Allâh’s Messenger as Abû Hurairah does. My emigrant brothers were busy in the market, while I used to stick to Allâh’s Messenger content with what fills my stomach; so I used to be present when they were absent and I used to remember when they used to forget, and my Anşâr brothers used to be busy with their properties and I was one of the poor men of Suffa. I used to remember the narrations when they used to forget. No doubt, Allâh’s Messenger once said, “Whoever spreads his garment till I have finished my present speech and then gathers it to himself, will remember whatever I will say.” So, I spread my coloured garment which I was wearing till Allâh’s Messenger had finished his saying, and then I gathered it to my chest. So, I did not forget any of that narration.
When we came to Al-Madina as emigrants, Allah’s Messenger \(\text{ﷺ}\) established a bond of brotherhood between me and Sa’d bin Ar-Rabi’. Sa’d bin Ar-Rabi’ said to me, “I am the richest among the \(\text{Anṣār}\), so I will give you half of my wealth and you may look at my two wives and whichever of the two you may choose I will divorce her, and when she has completed the prescribed period (before marriage) you may marry her.” ‘Abdur-Rahmān replied, “I am not in need of all that. Is there any market-place where trade is practised?” He replied, “The market of Qainuqa’.” ‘Abdur-Rahmān went to that market the following day and brought some dried butter-milk (yoghurt) and butter, and then he continued going there regularly. Few days later, ‘Abdur-Rahmān came having traces of yellow (scent) on his body. Allah’s Messenger \(\text{ﷺ}\) asked him whether he had got married. He replied in the affirmative. The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ}\) said, “Whom have you married?” He replied, “A woman from the \(\text{Anṣār}\).” Then the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ}\) asked, “How much did you pay her?” He replied, “(I gave her) a gold piece equal in weight to a date stone (or a date stone of gold)!” The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ}\) said, “Give a \(\text{Walīma}\) (wedding banquet) even if with one sheep.”

2049. Narrated Anas: When ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Aûf came to Al-Madîna, the Prophet established a bond of brotherhood between him and Sa’d bin Ar-Rabî’ Al-Ânṣârî. Sa’d was a rich man, so he said to ‘Abdur-Rahmân, “I will give you half of my property and will make you to marry.” ‘Abdur-Rahmân said (to him), “May Allah bless you in your family and property. Show me the market.” So ‘Abdur-Rahmân did not return (from the market) till he gained some dried buttermilk (yoghurt) and butter (through trading). He brought that to his household. We stayed for sometime (or as long as Allah wished), and then ‘Abdur-Rahmân came, scented with yellowish perfume. The Prophet said (to him), “What is this?” He replied, “I got married to an Ânṣârî woman.” The Prophet asked, “What did you pay her?” He replied, “A gold stone or gold equal to the weight of a date stone.” The Prophet said to him, “Give a Wallîma (wedding banquet) even if with one sheep.”

2050. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: ‘Ukâz, Majanna and Dhuł-Majâz were market-places in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance. When Islâm came, Muslims felt that in trading there might be a sin. So, the Divine Revelation came:

“None shall carry (it) away, nor shall any man lay hold of it.”

[Al-Mu’âdhdhûn: 3–4]

There is no sin on you if you seek the Bounty of your Lord (during pilgrimage by
(2) CHAPTER. Legal and illegal things are clearly defined, and in between them are some doubtful (unclear) things.

2051. Narrated An-Nu’mân bin Bashîr رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said: “Both legal and illegal things are obvious, and in between them are (unclear) doubtful matters (things). So whoever forsakes those doubtful (unclear) things lest he may commit a sin, will definitely avoid what is clearly illegal; and whoever indulges in these (unclear) doubtful things bravely, is likely to commit what is clearly illegal. Sins are Allâh’s Hîma (i.e., private pasture) and whoever pastures (his sheep) near it, is likely to get in it at any moment.”(1)

(1) (H. 2051) Man, here is compared to a shepherd; his desires, to a flock of sheep; sins, to a private pasture of somebody else; doubtful matters to the region surrounding the pasture and indulgence in doubtful matters to pasture in that region. To pasture there will probably lead the sheep to enter the private pasture, and the shepherd would be punished for grazing his sheep near the private pasture which led to such an obvious transgression.
(3) CHAPTER. Explanation of doubtful (unclear) things.

Hassan bin Abu Sinaan said, "I found nothing easier than to be pious and Allah-fearing; (to achieve this aim) leave all doubtful (unclear) things and do what is completely clear of doubt."

2052. Narrated 'Abdullah bin Abū Mulaika: 'Uqba bin Al-Hārith said that a black woman came and claimed that she had suckled both of them (i.e., 'Uqba and his wife). So, he mentioned that to the Prophet who turned his face from him and smiled and said, "How (can you keep your wife), and it was said (that both of you were suckled by the same woman)?" His wife was the daughter of Abū Ihb Ab Tamimi.

2053. Narrated Aishah: 'Utba bin Abū Waqqās took a firm promise from his brother Sa'd bin Abū Waqqās to take the son of the slave-girl of Zam'a into his custody as he was his (i.e., 'Utba's) son. In the year of the Conquest (of Makkah) Sa'd bin Abū Waqqās took him, and said that he was his brother's son, and his brother took a promise from him to that effect. ‘Abd bin Zam’a got up and said, “He is my brother and the son of the slave-girl of my father and was born on my father’s bed.” Then they both went to the Prophet ﷺ. Sa’d said, “O Allah’s Messenger! He is the son of my brother and he has taken a promise from me that I will take him.” ‘Abd bin Zam’a said, “(He is) my brother and the son of my father’s slave-girl and was born on my father’s bed.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The boy is for you, O ‘Abd bin Zam’a.” Then the Prophet ﷺ said, “The boy is for the man on whose bed he was born and stones (despair, i.e., to be stoned to death), for the one who has done illegal sexual intercourse.” The Prophet ﷺ told his wife Sauda bint Zam’a to screen herself from that boy as he noticed a similarity between the boy and ‘Utba. So, the boy did not see her till he died.¹

2054. Narrated ‘Adi bin Hatim: I asked Allah’s Messenger ﷺ about Al-Mi‘rād (i.e., sharp-edged piece of wood or a piece of wood provided with a sharp piece of iron used for hunting). He replied, “If the game is hit by its sharp edge, eat it, and if it is hit by its broad side, do not eat it, for it has been beaten to death.” I asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! I release my hound by the Name of Allah and find with it at the game, another hound on which I have not mentioned the Name of Allah, and I do not know which one of them caught the game.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said (to him), “Don’t eat it as you have mentioned the Name of Allah on your hound and not on the other.”

(4) CHAPTER. What doubtful (unclear) things should be avoided?

2055. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ passed by a fallen date and said, “Were it not for my doubt that this might have been given in charity, I would have eaten it.” And narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I found a date-fruit fallen on my bed.”

(5) CHAPTER. Whoever does not consider dark suggestions by one’s ownself or similar things as doubtful (unclear) things.

2056. Narrated ʿAbbād bin Tamim that his uncle said, “The Prophet ﷺ was asked: If a person feels something during his Salāt (prayer); should one interrupt his Salāt (prayer)’?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “No! You should not give it up unless you hear a sound or smell something.” Narrated Ibn Abī Ḥafṣa: Az-Zuhri said, “There is no need of repeating ablution unless you detect a smell or hear a sound.”

2057. Narrated ʿAishah ﷺ: Some people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Meat is brought to us by some people and we are not sure whether the Name of Allāh has been mentioned on it or not (at the time of slaughtering the animals).” Allāh’s Messenger said (to them), “Mention the Name of Allāh and eat it.”

(6) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ: “And when they see some merchandise or some amusement [beating of Tambur (drum) etc.], they disperse headlong to it…” (V.62:11)

2058. Narrated Jābir: While we were offering the Salāt (prayer) with the Prophet ﷺ a caravan carrying food came from Sham. The people looked towards the caravan (and went to it) and only twelve persons remained with the Prophet ﷺ. So, the Divine Revelation came; “And when they see some merchandise or some amusement [beating of Tambur (drum) etc.], they disperse headlong to it…” (V.62:11)

(7) CHAPTER. The one who does not care from where he earns his money (i.e., whether through legal or illegal ways).

2059. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A time will come upon the people when one will not care how one gains one’s money, legally or illegally.”
(8) CHAPTER. Trade of cloth and other things.

And the Statement of Allah:

"Men whom neither trade nor sale (business) diverts them from the Remembrance of Allah (with heart and tongue)..." (V.24:37)

Qatada said, “The people used to do sale and trade; but whenever they were to perform any of Allah’s obligations, then trade and sale would not divert them from Allah’s worship, but they would rather fulfil that obligation (to Allah).”

2060, 2061. Narrated Abū Al-Minhal: I used to practise money exchange, and I asked Zaid bin ‘Arqam about it, and he narrated what the Prophet said (as follows): Abū Al-Minhal said, “I asked Al-Bara’ bin ‘Azib and Zaid bin ‘Arqam about practising money exchange. They replied, ‘We were traders in the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger and I asked Allah’s Messenger about money exchange. He replied, ‘If it is from hand to hand, there is no harm in it; but if there is Nasīʿa (delay in payment) then it is not permissible.’”

[See H.No. 2178, 2180, Ch. 79, 80].
(9) CHAPTER. Going out for trading.

And the Statement of Allâh . . . . . . . (V.62:10)

2062. Narrated ‘Ubaid bin ‘Umar: Abû Mûsâ asked ‘Umar to admit him but he was not admitted as ‘Umar was busy, so Abû Mûsâ went back. When ‘Umar finished his job he said, “Didn’t I hear the voice of ‘Abdullâh bin Qais? Let him come in.” ‘Umar was told that he had left. So, he sent for him and on his arrival, he (Abû Mûsâ) said, “We were ordered to do so (i.e., to leave if not admitted after asking permission thrice). ‘Umar told him, “Bring witness in proof of your statement.” Abû Mûsâ went to the Ansâr’s meeting places and asked them. They said, “None amongst us will give this witness except the youngest of us, Abû Sa’îd Al-Khudî. Abû Mûsâ then took Abû Sa’îd Al-Khudî (to ‘Umar) and ‘Umar said surprisingly, “Has this order of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ been hidden from me?” (Then he added), “I used to be busy trading in markets, i.e., going out for trading.”

(10) CHAPTER. Trading in sea.

And Matar said, “There is no harm in it, and whatever Allâh has mentioned about it in the Qur’ân, is but the truth.” Then he recited:

V.16:14

...And you see the ships ploughing through it, that you may seek (thus) of His Bounty (by transporting the goods from place to place)…”
2063. Abû Hurairah ٍ said, "Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ mentioned a person from Bani Isrâ’îl who travelled by sea and carried out his needs." Then he narrated the whole story.

[See Hadîth. No. 2291].

(11) CHAPTER.

“And when they see some merchandise or some amusement [beating of Tambûr (drum) etc.], they disperse headlong to it…”

(V.62:11)

And Allâh’s Statement:

“Men whom neither trade nor sale divert them from the Remembrance of Allâh…”

(V.24:37)

Qatâda said, “The people used to trade, but whenever they were to perform any of Allâh’s obligations, then neither trade nor sale would divert them from the Remembrance of Allâh, but they would rather fulfil that obligation.”

2064. Narrated Jâbir: A caravan arrived (at Al-Madîna) while we were offering the Jumu‘ah (prayer) with the Prophet ﷺ. The people left and went out for the caravan, with the exception of twelve persons. Then this Verse was revealed:

“And when they see some merchandise or some amusement [beating of Tambûr (drum) etc.], they disperse headlong to it, and leave you standing...” (V.62:11)

(12) CHAPTER. Allāh’s Statement: “...Spend of the good things which you have (legally) earned...” (V.2:267)

2065.Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If a woman gives in charity from her house meals without wasting (i.e., being extravagant), she will get the reward for her giving, and her husband will also get the reward for his earning and the storekeeper will also get a similar reward. The acquisition of the reward of none of them will reduce the reward of the others.”

2066.Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If a woman gives something (i.e., in charity) from her husband's earnings without his permission, she will get half his reward.”

(13) CHAPTER. Whoever liked to expand in his sustenance.

2067. Narrated Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه: I heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “Whoever desires an expansion in his sustenance and age, should keep good relations with his kith and kin.”
(14) CHAPTER. The Prophet purchased (foodgrains) on credit.

2068. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet purchased food grains from a Jew on credit and mortgaged his iron armour to him.

2069. Narrated Qatada: Anas went to the Prophet with barley bread having some dissolved fat on it. The Prophet had mortgaged his armour to a Jew in Al-Madina and took from him some barley for his family. Anas heard him saying, “The household of Muhammad did not possess even a single Sā’ of wheat or food grains for their evening meal, although he has nine wives (to look after)”.

[See Hadith No. 2508]
(15) CHAPTER. The earnings of a person and his manual labour.

2070. Narrated ‘Āishah: When Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddīq was chosen Caliph, he said, “My people know that my profession was not incapable of providing sustenance to my family. And as I will be busy serving the Muslim nation, my family will eat from the National Treasury of Muslims, and I will practise the profession of serving the Muslims.”

2071. Narrated ‘Āishah: The companions of Allah’s Messenger used to practise manual labour, so their sweat used to smell, and they were advised to take a bath.

2073. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messengerﷺ said, “The Prophet Dāwūd (David) ﷺ used not to eat except from the earnings of his manual labour.”

2074. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messengerﷺ said, “No doubt, it is better for anyone of you to cut a bundle of wood and carry it over his back rather than to ask somebody who may or may not give him.”

[See H.2374].

2075. Narrated Az-Zubair bin Al-‘Awwām: The Prophetﷺ said, “One would rather take a rope (and cut wood and carry it than to ask others).”

(16) CHAPTER. One should be lenient and generous in bargaining, and whoever demands his debts back should do so in a modest lenient manner.

2076. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh ﷺ: Allah’s Messengerﷺ said, “May Allah’s Mercy be on him who is lenient in his buying, selling, and in demanding back his money.”
(17) CHAPTER. Whoever gave time to a rich person to pay at his convenience.

2077. Narrated Hudhaifa: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Before your time the angels took the soul of a man and asked him, ‘Did you do any good deeds (in your life)?’ He replied, ‘I used to order my employees to grant time to the rich person to pay his debts at his convenience and excuse the one in hard circumstances’. So Allah said to the angels: ‘Excuse him.’”

Rabî’ said that (the dead man said), “I used to be easy to the rich and grant time to the one in hard circumstances.” Or, in another narration, “...grant time to the well-off and forgive the one in hard circumstances,” or, “...accept from the well-off and forgive the one in hard circumstances.”

(18) CHAPTER. Whoever waited for a person in hard circumstances to pay back his debt (i.e., when he is able to repay).

2078. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “There was a merchant who used to lend the people, and whenever his debtor was in straitened circumstances, he would say to his employees, ‘Forgive him... so that Allāh may forgive us.' So, Allāh forgave him.”

(19) CHAPTER. If both the seller and the buyer explain the good and bad points concerning the transaction and hide nothing and give sincere advice (then they are blessed in their bargain).

Al-‘Addā’ bin Khālid said, “The Prophet ﷺ got this statement written for me: ‘This is what Muḥammad, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ bought from ‘Addā’ bin Khālid as a Muslim sells to another Muslim and that it (i.e., the bought slave) is neither sick, nor bad-behaved nor stolen.’”

Qatādā said that Al-Ghā’ila means: adultery, theft or (the slave) who runs away.

It was said to ʿIbrahīm, “Some brokers name their stables and the stables of ʿUrāsān and Sigstan and say, ‘It (i.e., the animal) arrived from Khurāsān only yesterday (or) it came from Sigstan today.’” ʿIbrahīm hated that very much.

ʿUqba bin ʿAмир said, “It is illegal for one to sell a thing if one knows that it has a defect, unless one informs the buyer of that defect.”

2079. Narrated Ḥakīm bin Ḥizām رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The seller and the buyer have the right to keep or return goods as long as they have not parted, or till they part; and if both the parties spoke the truth and described the defects and qualities (of the goods), then they would be blessed in their transaction, and if they told lies or hid something, then the blessings of their transaction would be lost.”

(20) CHAPTER. Selling of mixed dates.

2080. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd: We used to be given mixed dates (from the booty) and used to sell (barter) two Sa’ (of those dates) for one Sa’ (of good dates). The Prophet said (to us), “No (bartering of) two Sa’, for one Sa’ nor two Dirhams for one Dirham is permissible”, [as that is a kind of Ribâ (usury)]. [See Hâdhât No.2201, 2202].

(21) CHAPTER. What is said about the meat seller and the butcher.

2081. Narrated Abû Mas‘ûd: An Anṣârî man, called Abû Shu‘aib, came and told his butcher slave, “Prepare meals sufficient for five persons, for I want to invite the Prophet along with four other persons as I saw signs of hunger on his face.” Abû Shu‘aib invited them and another person came along with them. The Prophet said (to Abû Shu‘aib), “This man followed us, so if you allow him, he will join us, and if you want him to return, he will go back.” Abû Shu‘aib said, “No, I have allowed him (i.e., he, too, is welcomed to the meal).”
(22) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the loss (of blessing) if one tells lies or hides the facts in a deal.

2082. Narrated Ḥākim b. Ḥizãm: The Prophet said, "The buyer and the seller have the option to cancel or to confirm the deal as long as they have not parted, or till they part, and if they spoke the truth and told each other the defects of the things, then blessings would be in their deal, and if they hid something and told lies, the blessing of the deal would be lost."

(23) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh (V.3:130)

2083. Narrated Abû Ḥurairah: The Prophet said; "Certainly a time will come when people will not bother to know from where they earned the money, by lawful means or the unlawful means."

[See H.2059].

(24) CHAPTER. (The sin of) one who eats Ribâ (usury), its witness and its writer.

And the Statement of Allâh (V.7:8):

"Those who eat Ribâ (usury) will not stand (on the Day of Resurrection) except like standing of a person beaten by Shaitan (Satan) leading him to insanity.

That is because they say: Trading is only like Ribâ (usury). Whereas Allâh has permitted trading and forbidden Ribâ

(1) (Chap.23) "Ribâ": See the glossary.
34 - THE BOOK OF SALES (BARGAINS)

(usuury). “So, whosoever receives an admonition from his Lord and stops eating Ribā (usuury) shall not be punished for the past; his case is for Allāh (to judge); but whoever returns [to Ribā (usuury)], such are the dwellers of the Fire—they will abide therein.” (V.2:275)

2084. Narrated 'Āishah رضي الله عنها: When the last Verses of Sūrat Al-Baqarah were revealed, the Prophet ﷺ recited them in the mosque and proclaimed the trade of alcohol i.e., liquors as illegal. (1)

2085. Narrated Samura bin Jundab رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “This night I dreamt that two men came and took me to a sacred land whence we proceeded on till we reached a river of blood, and in it (its middle) there was a man, and on its bank was standing another man with stones in his hands. The man in the middle of the river tried to come out, but the other threw a stone in his mouth and forced him to go back to his original place. So, whenever he tried to come out, the other man would throw a stone in his mouth and force him to go back to his former place. I asked, ‘Who is this?’ I was told, ‘The person in the river was a Ribā-eater.’”

(1) (H. 2084) Imam Al-Bukhari includes this Hadith here because the last Verses of Sūrat Al-Baqarah deal with the topic of Ribā, too.
(25) CHAPTER. (The sin of) the Ribā-giver.

As is referred to in the Statement of Allāh:

"O you who believe! Be afraid of Allāh and give up what remains (due to you) from Ribā (usury) (from now onwards), if you are (really) believers. And if you do not do it, then take a notice of war from Allāh and His Messenger but if you repent, you shall have your capital sums. Deal not unjustly (by asking more than your capital sums), and you shall not be dealt with unjustly (by receiving less than your capital sums). And if the debtor is in a hard time (has no money), then grant him time till it is easy for him to repay, but if you remit it by way of charity, that is better for you if you did but know. And be afraid of the Day when you shall be brought back to Allāh. Then every person shall be paid what he earned, and they shall not be dealt with unjustly." (V.2:278-281)

Ibn Abbās said, "This was the last Verse revealed to the Prophet ﷺ.

2086. Narrated ‘Aun bin Abū Juhaifa: My father bought a slave who practised the profession of cupping. (My father broke the slave’s instruments of cupping). I asked my father why he had done so. He replied, “The Prophet ﷺ forbade the acceptance of the price of a dog or blood, and also forbade the profession of tattooing, or getting tattooed and the eater of Ribā (usury) and also the one who gives it, and cursed the picture-makers.”

[See Hadith No. 2238]

(26) CHAPTER.: “Allāh will destroy Ribā (usury) and will give increase for Sadaqat (deeds of charity, alms). And Allāh likes not the disbelievers, sinners!” (V.2:276)

2087. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “The swearing (by the seller) may persuade the buyer to purchase the goods but that will be deprived of Allah’s Blessing.”(1)

(27) CHAPTER. What is disapproved of as regards giving oaths (swearing) while selling.

2088. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin AbU Afifa: A man displayed some goods in the market and swore by Allah that he had been offered so much for that, that which was not offered, and he said that, so as to cheat a Muslim. On that occasion the following Verse was revealed:

“Verily! Those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allah’s Covenant and their oaths…” (V.3:77)

(28) CHAPTER. What is said about the goldsmiths.

Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: The Prophet ð said, “Do not cut the shrubs of Makkah.” Al-‘Abbãs said, “Except Al-Iṣṣṣ̱ir (a kind of grass). It is used by their blacksmith and for their houses.” The Prophet ð said, “Except Al-Iṣṣ̱ir.”

2089. Narrated ‘Ali: I got an old she-camel as my share from the booty, and the Prophet ð had given me another

(1) (H. 2087) Hadîth No. 2087 confirms the fact that what you earn illegally, decreases ultimately, for it will be deprived of Allah’s Blessing and it will result in bringing about punishment in the Hereafter; while what you give in charity will be compensated for by the Blessing of Allah many times, and you will be rewarded for it in the Hereafter as well.
from Al-Khumus. And when I intended to marry Fāṭima bint ʿAbdullāh (daughter of the Prophet ﷺ), I arranged that a goldsmith from the tribe of Bani Qainuqa would accompany me in order to bring Idhkhār and then sell it to the goldsmiths and use its price for my marriage banquet.

2090. Narrated Ibn ʿAbbas: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allah made Makkah a sanctuary and it was neither permitted for anyone before, nor will it be permitted for anyone after me (to fight in it). And fighting in it was made legal for me for a few hours of a day only. None is allowed to uproot its thorny shrubs or to cut down its trees or to chase its game or to pick up its Luqātā (fallen things) except by a person who would announce it publicly.” ‘Abbās bin Ṭalha said, “Except Al-Idhkhār, for our goldsmiths and for the roofs of our houses.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Except Al-Idhkhār.” ‘Ikrima said, “Do you know what is meant by chasing its game? It is to drive it out of the shade and to sit in its place.” Khālid said, “(‘Abbās said: Al-Idhkhār) for our goldsmiths and our graves.”
(29) CHAPTER. The mentioning of blacksmiths.

2091. Narrated Khabbāb: I was a blacksmith in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance, and ‘Aas bin Wā’il owed me some money, so I went to him to demand it. He said (to me), “I will not pay you unless you disbelieve Muḥammad (ﷺ).” I said, “I will not disbelieve till Allāh kills you and then you get resurrected.” He said, “Leave me till I die and get resurrected, then I will be given wealth and children and I will pay you your debt.” On that occasion it was revealed to the Prophet ﷺ: “Have you seen him who disbelieved in Our Ayāt (this Qur’ān and Muḥammad ﷺ) and said: ‘I shall certainly be given wealth and children [(if I will be alive again)]? Has he known the unseen, or has he taken a covenant from the Most Gracious (Allāh)?” (V.19:77,78)

(30) CHAPTER. The mentioning of the tailor.

2092. Narrated Ishaq bin ‘Abdullāh bin Abū Ṭalhā: I heard Anas bin Mālik saying, “A tailor invited Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ to a meal which he had prepared.” Anas bin Mālik said, “I accompanied Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ to that meal. He served the Prophet ﷺ with bread and soup made with gourd and dried meat. I saw the Prophet ﷺ taking the pieces of gourd from the dish.” Anas added, “Since that day I have continued to like gourd.”
(31) CHAPTER. The weaver.

2093. Narrated Abû Ḥāzim: I heard Sahl bin Sa'd saying, "A woman brought a Burda (i.e., a square piece of cloth having frills). I asked, 'Do you know what a Burda is?' They replied in the affirmative and said, 'It is a cloth sheet with woven margins.'" Sahl went on, "She addressed the Prophet and said, 'I have woven it with my hands for you to wear.' The Prophet took it as he was in need of it, and came to us wearing it as a waist sheet. A man from those (who were present there) said, 'O Allâh's Messenger! Give it to me to wear.' The Prophet agreed to give it to him. The Prophet sat with the people for a while and then returned (home), wrapped that waist sheet and sent it to him. The people said to that man, 'You have not done well by asking him for it when you know that he never turns down anybody's request.' The man replied, 'By Allâh, I have not asked him for it except to use it as my shroud when I die.'" Sahl added; "Later it (i.e., that sheet) was his shroud."

(32) CHAPTER. The carpenter.

2094. Narrated Abû Ḥāzim: Some men came to Sahl bin Sa'd to ask him about the pulpit. He replied, "Allâh's Messenger sent for a woman (Sahl named her) (this message): 'Order your slave carpenter to make pieces of wood (i.e., a pulpit) for me so that I may sit on it while addressing the people.' So, she ordered him to make it from the tamarisk of the forest. He brought it to her and she sent it to Allah's Messenger. Allah's Messenger ordered it to be placed in the mosque. So, it was put and he sat on it.

2095. Narrated Jābir bin ʿAbdullāh: An Ansārī woman said to Allah's Messenger, "O Allah's Messenger! Shall I make something for you to sit on, as I have a slave who is a carpenter?" He replied, "If you wish." So, she got a pulpit made for him. When it was Friday, the Prophet sat on that pulpit. The date-palm stem, near which the Prophet used to deliver his Khuṭba (religious talks), cried so-much-so that it was about to burst. The Prophet came down from the pulpit to the stem and embraced it and it started groaning like a child being persuaded to stop crying and then it stopped crying. The Prophet said, "It has cried because of (missing) what it used to hear of the religious knowledge."

(See Vol. 4, Hadith No. 3583).

(33) CHAPTER. The purchase by the ruler of his necessities by himself.

Ibn ʿUmar said, "The Prophet bought a camel from ʿUmar." Ibn ʿUmar purchased (goods) by himself.
2096. Narrated 'Āishah رضي الله عنها: Allah's Messenger ﷺ bought food grains from a Jew on credit and mortgaged his armour to him.

2097. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: I was with the Prophet ﷺ in a Ghazwa (military expedition) and my camel was slow and exhausted. The Prophet ﷺ came up to me and said, “O Jābir.” I replied, “Yes?” He said, “What is the matter with you?” I replied, “My camel is slow and tired, so I am left behind.” So, he got down and poked the camel with his stick and then ordered me to ride. I rode the camel and it became so fast that I had to hold it from going ahead of Allāh's Messenger ﷺ. He then asked me, “Have you got married?” I replied in the affirmative. He asked, “A virgin or a... matron?” I replied, “I married a matron.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Why have you not married a virgin, so that you may play with her and she may play with you?” Jabir replied, “I have sisters (young in age) so I liked to marry a matron who could collect them all and comb their hair and look after them.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “You will reach (home), so when you have arrived (at home), I advise you to associate with your wife (that you may have an intelligent son).” Then he asked me, “Would you like to sell your camel?” I replied in the affirmative and the Prophet ﷺ purchased it for one Uqiyah of gold. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ reached (Al-Madîna) before me and I reached in the morning, and when I went to the mosque, I found him at the door of the mosque. He asked me, “Have you arrived just now?” I replied in the affirmative. He said, “Leave your camel and come into (the mosque) and offer a two Rak‘â (prayer).” I entered and offered the Salât (prayer). He told Bilāl to weigh and give me one Uqiyah of gold. So, Bilāl weighed for me fairly and I went away. The Prophet ﷺ sent for me and I thought that he would return to me my camel which I hated more than anything else. But the Prophet ﷺ said to me, “Take your camel as well as its price.”

(35) CHAPTER. The markets of the Pre-Islâmic Period of Ignorance where the people continued to trade after embracing Islâm.

2098. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: ‘Ukâz, Majanna and Dhul-Majâz were markets in the Pre-Islâmic Period of Ignorance. When the people embraced Islâm, they considered it a sin to trade there. So, the following Verse came:

“There is no sin on you if you seek the Bounty of your Lord (during pilgrimage by trading etc.)..." (V.2:198)

Ibn ‘Abbâs recited it like this.

(36) CHAPTER. Purchasing of camel suffering from skin disease or disease causing severe thirst.

2099. Narrated ‘Amr: Here (i.e., in Makkah) there was a man called Nawwâs and he had camels suffering from a disease causing excessive and unquenchable thirst. Ibn ‘Umar went to the partner of Nawwâs and bought those camels. The man returned to Nawwâs and told him that he had sold those camels. Nawwâs asked him, “To whom have you sold them?” He replied, “To such and such Sheikh.” Nawwâs said, “Woe to you; By Allah, that Sheikh was Ibn ‘Umar.” Nawwâs then went to Ibn ‘Umar and said to him, “My partner sold you camels suffering from a disease causing excessive thirst and he had not known you.” Ibn ‘Umar told him to take them back. When Nawwâs went to take them, Ibn ‘Umar said to him, “Leave it as I am happy with the decision of Allâh’s Messenger that there is no ‘Adwâ (i.e., no contagious disease is conveyed to others without Allâh’s Permission).”

(37) CHAPTER. Selling of arms during the period of Al-Fitnah (trial, affliction) and otherwise.
‘Imrān bin Ḥuṣain hated the selling (of arms) during Al-Fitnah (trial, affliction).

2100. Narrated Abū Qatāda رضي الله عنه: We set out with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in the year of (the battle of) Ḥunain, (the Prophet ﷺ gave me an armour). I sold that armour and bought a garden in the region of the tribe of Bani Salama and that was the first property I got after embracing Islām.

(38) CHAPTER. (What is said) about the perfume seller and the selling of musk.

2101. Narrated Abū Mūsā رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The example of a good companion (who sits with you) in comparison with a bad one, is like that of the owner of musk (perfume seller) and the owner of bellows (or furnace) (blacksmith); from the first you would either buy musk or enjoy its good smell, while the owner of bellows (blacksmith) would either burn your clothes or your house, or you get a bad nasty smell thereof.”

(39) CHAPTER. The mentioning of Al-Hajjām (i.e., the one who practises cupping).

2102. Narrated Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه: Abu Ta’ība cupped Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. So he (ﷺ) ordered that he be paid one سا of dates and ordered his masters to reduce his tax (as he was a slave and had to pay a tax to them).

2103. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas (may Allah be pleased with him):
Once the Prophet (ﷺ) got his blood out (medically) and paid that person who had done it. If it had been illegal, the Prophet (ﷺ) would not have paid him.

40) CHAPTER. The trade of cloth, the wearing of which is considered undesirable both for men and women.

2104. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar (may Allah be pleased with him):
Once the Prophet (ﷺ) sent to ‘Umar a silken two-piece garment, and when he saw ‘Umar wearing it, he said to him, “I have not sent it to you to wear. It is worn by him who has no share in the Hereafter, and I have sent it to you so that you could benefit by it (i.e., sell it).”

2105. Narrated ‘Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), Mother of the Believers:
I bought a cushion with pictures on it. When Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) saw it, he kept standing at the door and did not enter the house. I noticed the sign of disgust on his face, so I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I repent to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ). (Please let me know) what sin I have done.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “What about this cushion?” I replied, “I bought it for you to sit and recline on.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The painters (i.e., owners) of these pictures will be punished on the Day of Resurrection. It will be said to them, ‘Put life in what you have created (i.e., painted).’” The Prophet ﷺ added, “The angels do not enter a house in which there are pictures.”

(41) CHAPTER. The owner of a thing has to suggest a price.

2106. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Bani Najjār! Suggest a price for your garden.” Part of it was a ruin and it contained some date-palms.

(42) CHAPTER. For what period has one to confirm or cancel the bargain?

2107. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The buyer and the seller have the option to cancel or confirm the bargain before they separate from each other, or if the sale is optional.”(1)

(1) (H. 2107) If the bargain is concluded but the buyer and seller are still at the place where the bargain has taken place, they have the right to cancel or confirm the bargain. If=
Nāfī said, “Ibn ‘Umar used to separate quickly from the seller if he had bought a thing which he liked.”

2108. Narrated Ḥakīm bin Ḥizām: The Prophet said, “The buyer and the seller have the option of cancelling or confirming the deal unless they separate.”

(43) CHAPTER. If the time for the option is not fixed, will the deal be considered as legal?

2109. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger said, “The seller and the buyer have the option of cancelling or confirming the deal unless they separate, or one of them says to the other, ‘Choose (i.e., decide to cancel or confirm the bargain now).’ Perhaps he said, ‘Or if it is an optional sale.’”
CHAPTER. Both the buyer and the seller have the option to cancel or confirm the bargain, unless they separate.

2110. Narrated Ḥakīm bin Hizām: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The buyer and the seller have the option of cancelling or confirming the bargain unless they separate, and if they spoke the truth and made clear the defects of the goods, then they would be blessed in their bargain, and if they told lies and hid some facts, their bargain would be deprived of Allāh’s Blessings.”

2111. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Both the buyer and the seller have the option of cancelling or confirming a bargain unless they separate, or the sale is optional.” (See Hadīth No. 2107).

CHAPTER. If the buyer and the seller give each other the option of cancelling the bargain immediately after the bargain is made (while they are still together), the bargain is rendered final (even if they did not separate).
2112. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Both the buyer and the seller have the option of cancelling or confirming the bargain as long as they are still together; and unless they separate or one of them gives the other the option of keeping or returning the things and a decision is concluded then, in which case the bargain is considered as final. If they separate after the bargain and none of them has rejected it, then the bargain is rendered final.”

2113. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ said, “No deal is settled and finalized unless the buyer and the seller separate, except if the deal is optional (whereby the validity of the bargain depends on the stipulations agreed upon).”

2114. Narrated Hakim bin Hizam رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Both the buyer and the seller have the option of cancelling or confirming the bargain unless they separate.”

The subnarrator, Hammãm said, “I found this in my book: ‘Both the buyer and the seller have the option of either confirming or cancelling the bargain three times, and if they speak the truth and mention the defects, then their bargain will be blessed, and if they tell lies and conceal the defects, they might gain some financial gain but they will deprive their sale of (Allâh’s) Blessings.”
(47) CHAPTER. What is said if somebody buys a thing and gives it as a present to someone else at that very moment before separating from the seller, and the seller has had no objection to the buyer’s action; or if someone buys a slave and then manumits him?

Ṭawûs said that if somebody bought a thing with mutual agreement and then sold it, then that was his property and the profit would be for him.

2115. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: We were accompanying the Prophet on a journey and I was riding an unmanageable camel belonging to ‘Umar, and I could not bring it under my control. So, it used to go ahead of the party and ‘Umar would check it and force it to retreat, and again it went ahead and again ‘Umar forced it to retreat. The Prophet asked ‘Umar to sell that camel to him. ‘Umar replied, “It is for you O Allâh’s Messenger!” Allah’s Messenger told ‘Umar to sell that camel to him (not to give it as a gift). So, ‘Umar sold it to Allah’s Messenger. Then the Prophet said to ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar, “The camel is for you O ‘Abdullâh (as a present) and you could do with it whatever you like.”

2116. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: I bartered my property in Khaibar to ‘Uthmân (chief of the faithful believers) for his property in Al-Wâdi. When we

(1) (H.2116) Khaibar is six stages to the north-west of Al-Madîna.
(2) (H.2116) Al-Wâdi is a district near Al-Madîna.
finished the deal, I left immediately and got out of his house lest he should cancel the deal, for the tradition was that the buyer and the seller had the option of cancelling the bargain unless they separated. When our deal was completed, I came to know that I had been unfair to 'Uthmân, for by selling him my land I caused him to be in the land of Thâmûd, at a distance of three days' journey from Al-Madīna, while he made me nearer to Al-Madīna, at a distance of three days' journey from my former land.

(48) CHAPTER. What is disliked as regards cheating in business.

2117. Narrated ʿAbdullâh bin ʿUmar: A person came to the Prophet  and told him that he was always betrayed in purchasing. The Prophet  told him to say at the time of buying, “No cheating.” (i.e., he has the right to return it if found undesirable).

(49) CHAPTER. What is said about markets.

And narrated ʿAbdur-Râhmân bin ʿAûf: On our arrival in Al-Madîna, I asked whether there was a market of trading. Somebody said, “There is the market of Qainuqâa.”

Narrated Anas: ʿAbdur-Râhmân said, “Show me the market.” And ʿUmar said, “Trading in the market diverted my attention (from better things).”
2118.Narrated 'Aishah: "Allah's Messenger said, "An army will invade the Ka'bah and when the invaders reach Al-Baidā', all the ground will sink and swallow the whole army." I said, "O Allah's Messenger! How will they sink into the ground while amongst them will be their markets (the people who worked in business and not invaders)\(^{(1)}\) and the people not belonging to them?" The Prophet replied, "All of those people will sink but they will be resurrected and judged according to their intentions."

2119. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "The congregational Salāt (prayer) of anyone amongst you is more than twenty (five or twenty-seven) times in reward than his Salāt (prayer) in the market or in his house, for if he performs ablution perfectly and then goes to the mosque with the sole intention of performing the Salāt (prayer), and nothing urges him to proceed to the mosque except the Salāt (prayer), then, on every step which he takes towards the mosque, he will be raised one degree or one of his sins will be forgiven. The angels will keep on asking Allah's Forgiveness and Blessings for everyone of you so long as he keeps sitting at his praying place. The angels will say, 'O Allah, Bless him! O Allah, be Merciful to him!' As long as he does not do Hadath or a thing which gives trouble to the other.' " regarded in Salat (prayer) so long as one is waiting for the Salat (prayer).”

The Prophet further said, "One is...

2120. Narrated Anas bin Malik: While the Prophet was in the market, somebody called, “O Abul-Qasim.” The Prophet turned to him. The man said, “I have called to this (i.e., another man).” The Prophet said, “Name yourselves by my name but not by my Kunya (surname).” (In Arab world it is the custom to call the man as the father of his eldest son, e.g., Abul-Qasim.)

[See Vol. 4, Hadith No. 3537].

2121. Narrated Anas: A man at Al-Baqi called, “O Abul-Qasim!” The Prophet turned to him and the man said (to the Prophet), “I did not intend to call you.” The Prophet said, “Name yourselves by my name but not by my Kunya (surname).”

2122. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ad-Dausi: Once the Prophet went out during the day. Neither did he talk to me nor I to him till he reached the market of Bani Qainuqa’, and then he sat in the compound of Fāṭima’s house and asked about the small boy (his grandson Al-Ḥasan) but Fāṭima kept the boy in for a while. I thought she was either changing his clothes or giving the boy a bath. After a while the boy came out running and the Prophet embraced and kissed him and then said, “O Allah! Love him, and love whoever loves him.”

(1) (H. 2120) Kunya means calling a man: O father of so-and-so! Or calling a woman: O mother of so-and-so! And this is a custom of the ‘Arabs.
2123. Narrated Nāfi': Ibn ‘Umar said, “The people used to buy food from the caravans in the lifetime of the Prophet. The Prophet used to forbid them to sell it at the very place where they had purchased it (but they were to wait) till they carried it to the market where foodstuff was sold.

2124. Ibn ‘Umar said, “The Prophet also forbade the reselling of foodstuff by somebody who had bought it unless he had received it (all the measure which he has bought) in full measure.”

(50) CHAPTER. The dislike of raising voices in the market.

2125. Narrated ‘Aṭā’ bin Yasār: I met ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr bin Al-‘Āṣ and asked him, “Tell me about the description of Allah’s Messenger which is mentioned in the Torah.” He replied, “Yes. By Allah, he is described in the Torah with some of the qualities attributed to him in the Qur’ān as follows:

‘O Prophet! We have sent you as a witness (for Allah’s True Religion) and a giver of glad tidings (to the faithful believers), and a warner (to the disbelievers), and guardian of the illiterates. You are My slave and My Messenger. I have named you Al-Mutawakkil (who depends upon Allah). You are neither discourteous, harsh, nor a noise-maker in the markets, and you do not do evil to those who do evil to you, but you deal with them with forgiveness and kindness. Allah will not let him (the Prophet ﷺ) die till he makes straight the crooked people by making them say: La ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah) with which will be opened blind eyes, deaf ears, and enveloped hearts."

(51) CHAPTER. Weighing or measuring goods is to be done by the seller or the giver.

And the Statement of Allah ﷻ:

"And when they have to give by measure or weight to (other) men, give less than due." (V.83:3)

The Prophet ﷺ said, "When you receive what you buy by measure, let it be exact full measure."

Narrated 'Uthmãn ﷺ that the Prophet ﷺ told him, "If you are the seller, you have to measure, and if you are the buyer, then let the seller measure for you."

2126. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin 'Umar رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “He who buys foodstuff should not sell it till he takes all the measure which he has bought in full.”
2127. Narrated Jābir b. ‘Abdullāh b. ‘Amr b. Ḥarām: ‘Abdullāh died and was in debt to others. I asked the Prophet  to intercede with his creditors for some reduction in the debts. The Prophet  requested them (to reduce the debts), but they refused. The Prophet  said to me, ‘Go and put your dates (in heaps) according to their different kinds, the ‘Ajwa on one side, the cluster of Zaid on another side, etc., then call me.’ I did that and called the Prophet . He came and sat at the head or in the middle of the heaps and ordered me, ‘Measure (the dates) for the people (creditors).’ I measured for them till I paid all the debts. My dates remained as if nothing had been taken from them.

In other narrations, Jābir said: The Prophet  said, ‘He (i.e., ‘Abdullāh) continued measuring for them till he paid all the debts.’ The Prophet  said (to ‘Abdullāh), ‘Cut (clusters) for him (i.e., one of the creditors) and measure for him in full.’

(52) CHAPTER. What is considered preferable regarding measuring.

This has been narrated by 'Āishah on the authority of the Prophet.

2130. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allāh’s Messenger said, “O Allāh bestow Your Blessings on their measures, bless their Mudd and Šā‘.” The Prophet meant the people of Al-Madīna.

(54) CHAPTER. What is said about the selling of the foodstuff and its storage.

2131. Narrated Sālim that his father said, “I saw those who used to buy foodstuff without measuring or weighing in the lifetime of the Prophet.”
of the Prophet being punished if they sold it before carrying it to their own houses.”

2132. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs, “Allâh’s Messenger forbade the selling of foodstuff before its measuring and transferring into one’s possession.” I asked Ibn ‘Abbâs, “How is that?” Ibn ‘Abbâs replied, “It will be just like selling money for money, as the foodstuff has not been handed over to the first purchaser who is the present seller.”

2133. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar, “The Prophet said, ‘He who buys foodstuff should not sell it till he has received it.’”

2134. Narrated Az-Zuhri on the authority of Mâlik bin ‘Aûs that the latter said, “Who has change?” Tâlha said, “I (will have change) when our store-keeper comes from the forest.”

(usury), except if it is from hand to hand and equal in amount, and wheat grain for wheat grain is Ribā except if it is from hand to hand and equal in amount, and dates for dates is Ribā, except if it is from hand to hand and equal in amount; and barley for barley is Ribā, except if it is from hand to hand and equal in amount.”

[See Ribā Al-Fadl in the glossary].

(55) CHAPTER. The selling of foodstuff before receiving it, and the selling of a thing which you don’t have. (1)

2135. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet forbade the selling of foodstuff before receiving it. I consider that all types of sellings should be done in the same way.

2136. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “The buyer of foodstuff should not sell it before it has been measured for him.” Ismā‘īl narrated instead, “He should not sell it before receiving it.”

(1) (Ch. 55) If one buys foodstuff for one pound and sells it for two pounds before receiving it from the first seller, the transaction is illegal for it is usurious, for it is as if one bartered gold for gold, one pound for two pound. It is also the sale of something absent for something present which is also illegal. (Al-Qaṣṭalānī Vol. 4).
(56) CHAPTER. Whoever had the opinion that whoever bought foodstuff without measuring or weighing (blindly) should not sell it before bringing it into his house; and the punishment for whoever disobeys this order.

2137. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I saw the people buy foodstuff randomly (i.e., blindly without measuring it) in the lifetime of Allâh’s Messenger and they were punished (by beating), if they tried to sell it before carrying it to their own houses.

(57) CHAPTER. If somebody buys some goods or (an) animal and let it with the seller, or it dies before he takes it into his possession.

Ibn ‘Umar said, “If at the time of the transaction the sold animal is living and then it dies while still in the custody of the seller, then the buyer is the loser.”

2138. Narrated ‘Aishah: Rarely did the Prophet ﷺ fail to visit Abû Bakr’s house everyday, either in the morning or in the evening. When the permission for emigration to Al-Madîna was granted, all of a sudden the Prophet ﷺ came to us at noon and Abû Bakr was informed, who said, “Certainly the Prophet ﷺ has come for some urgent matter.” The Prophet ﷺ said to Abû Bakr, when the latter entered, “Let nobody stay in your home.” Abû Bakr said, “O Allah’s Messenger! There are only my two daughters (namely ‘Aishah and Asmâ) present.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I feel (am

(58) CHAPTER. A SELLER SHOULD NOT URGE SOMEBODY (IN CASE OF OPTIONAL SALE) TO CANCEL A BARGAIN THE LATTER HAS ALREADY AGREED UPON WITH ANOTHER SELLER SO AS TO SELL HIM HIS OWN GOODS; AND A BUYER SHOULD NOT URGE THE SELLER TO CANCEL A BARGAIN ALREADY AGREED UPON WITH ANOTHER BUYER SO AS TO BUY THE GOODS HIMSELF, UNLESS THEY ARE GIVEN PERMISSION IN BOTH CASES, OR THE BARGAINS ARE CANCELLED WITH THE WILLINGNESS OF BOTH THE SELLER AND THE BUYER.

2139. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar ﷺ: ALLAH’S MESSENGER ﷺ SAID, “DO NOT URGE SOMEBODY TO RETURN WHAT HE HAS ALREADY BOUGHT (I.E., IN OPTIONAL SALE) FROM ANOTHER SELLER SO AS TO SELL HIM YOUR OWN GOODS.”

2140. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: ALLAH’S MESSENGER ﷺ FORBODE THE SELLING OF THINGS BY A TOWN DWELLER ON BEHALF OF A DESERT DWELLER; AND SIMILARLY NAJSH(1) WAS

(1) (H. 2140) NAJSH MEANS TO OFFER A HIGH PRICE FOR SOMETHING WITHOUT HAVING THE INTENTION TO BUY IT BUT JUST TO CHEAT SOMEBODY ELSE WHO REALLY WANTS TO BUY IT. SUCH A PERSON MAY AGREE WITH THE SELLER TO OFFER HIGH PRICES BEFORE THE BUYERS TO CHEAT THEM, IN WHICH= forbidden. And one should not urge somebody to return the goods to the seller so as to sell him his own goods; nor should one demand the hand of a girl who has already been engaged to someone else; and a woman should not try to cause some other woman to be divorced in order to take her place.

(59) CHAPTER. Selling by auction.

‘Āṭâ’ said, “I saw the people seeing no harm in selling war booty by auction.”

2141. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: A man decided that a slave of his would be manumitted after his death and later on he was in need of money, so the Prophet took the slave and said, “Who will buy this slave from me?” Nu‘aym bin ‘Abdullāh bought him for such price and the Prophet gave him the slave.

(60) CHAPTER. An-Najš(1) and whoever said: “A bargain carried out in such a way (Najš) is not valid.”

Ibn Abī Aūf ā said, “One who practices Najš is a Riba-eating traitor.” And such a practice is a false trick which is forbidden, and the Prophet said, “Deception would —case both this man and the seller are sinful. The seller may falsely tell the buyer that he (i.e. the seller) has previously bought the goods at a certain price which is in reality higher than the actual price.

lead to the Fire (Hell) and whoever does a deed which we have not ordered (anyone) to do (or is not in accord with our religion of Islamic Monotheism) then that deed will not be accepted." [See Ḥadīth No.2697. Also see Fath Al-Bārī]

(61) CHAPTER. Al-Gharar (the sale of what is not present)(1) and Habal-il-Habala (i.e., the sale of what is in the womb of an animal).

2143. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger forbade: Habal-il-Habala which was a kind of sale practised in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance. One would pay the price of a she-camel which was not born yet, and would be born by the immediate offspring of an extant she-camel.

(62) CHAPTER. Al-Limās or Mulāmasa sale(2), i.e., by touching the thing only and not looking at it.

Anas said, “The Prophet forbade it (i.e., Al-Mulāmasa sale).

2144. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: Allah’s Messenger forbade the selling by Munābadha, (1) i.e., to sell one’s garment by casting it to the buyer not allowing him to examine or see it.

Similarly he forbade the selling by Mulāmās. Mulāmās is to buy a garment, for example, by merely touching it, not looking at it.

2145. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet forbade two kinds of dressing; (one of them) is to sit with one’s legs drawn up while wrapped in one garment. (The other) is to lift that garment on one’s shoulders. And also forbade two kinds of sale: Al-Limās and An-Nibadh.

(63) CHAPTER. Selling by Munābadha.

And Anas said, “The Prophet forbade such sale.”

2147. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: The Prophet forbade two kinds of dresses and

(1) (H. 2144) The sale by Munābadha is like gambling: Two persons may agree to barter one thing for another without seeing or checking either of them. One may say to another, “I barter my garment for your garment,” and the sale is achieved without either of them seeing the garment of the other. Or, one may say, “I give you what I have and you give me what you have,” and thus they buy from each other without knowing how much each has had.
two kinds of sale, i.e., Mulāmasa and Munābādha.

(64) CHAPTER. The seller is not allowed to keep camels, cows, sheep or any other animal unmilked for a long time (so as to get more price by cheating).

2148. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Don’t keep camels and sheep unmilked for a long time, for whoever buys such an animal has the option to milk it, and then either to keep it or return it to the owner along with one Sa’ of dates.”

Some narrated from Ibn Sirīn (that the Prophet had said), “One Sa’ of wheat, and he has the option for three days.”

And some narrated from Ibn Sirīn, “...a Sa’ of dates,” not mentioning the option for three days. But a Sa’ of dates is mentioned in most of the narrations.

2149. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd: Whoever buys a sheep which has not been milked for a long time, has the option of returning it along with one Ěa of dates; and the Prophet forbid going to meet the seller on the way (as he has no knowledge of the market price and he may sell his goods at a low price).

2150. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "Do not go forward to meet the caravan (to buy from it on the way before it reaches the town). And do not urge buyers to cancel their purchases to sell them (your own goods) yourselves, and do not practise Najšh. A town dweller should not sell the goods for the desert dweller. Do not leave sheep un milked for a long time when they are on sale, and whoever buys such an animal has the option of returning it, after milking it, along with a Ěa of dates or keeping it.”

(65) CHAPTER. The option of returning an animal, after milking it, along with a Ěa of dates (as the price of the milk), if it has been kept un milked for a long period by the seller (to deceive others).

2151. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Whoever buys a sheep which has been kept un milked for a long period, and milks it, can keep it if he is satisfied, and if he is not satisfied, he can return it, but he should pay one Ěa of dates for the milk.”
(66) CHAPTER. The selling of an adulterer slave.

And Shuraih said, “The buyer can return him to the owner if he wishes because of illegal sexual intercourse.”

2152. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If a slave-girl commits illegal sexual intercourse and it is proved beyond doubt, then her owner should lash her and should not blame her after the legal punishment. And then if she repeats the illegal sexual intercourse, he should lash her again and should not blame her after the legal punishment, and if she commits it a third time then he should sell her even for a hair rope.”

2153, 2154. Narrated Abū Hurairah and Zaid bin Khalid: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was asked about the slave-girl, if she was a virgin and committed illegal sexual intercourse. The Prophet ﷺ said, “If she committed sexual intercourse, lash her, and if she did it a second time, then lash her again, and if she repeated the third time, then sell her even for a hair rope.” Ibn Shihâb said, “I don’t know whether to sell her after the third or fourth offense.”

(67) CHAPTER. Dealing with women in selling and buying.

2155. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ came to me and I told... him about the slave-girl (Barira) Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Buy and manumit her, for the Walâ’(1) is for the one who manumits.” In the evening the Prophet ﷺ got up and glorified Allâh as He deserved and then said, “Why do some people impose conditions which are not present in Allâh’s book (laws)? Whoever imposes such a condition as is not in Allâh’s Laws, then that condition is invalid even if he imposes one hundred conditions, for Allâh’s Conditions are the Truth and the most reliable.”

2156. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: ‘Aishah wanted to buy Barira and he (the Prophet ﷺ) went out for the Salât (prayer). When he returned, she told him that they (her masters) refused to sell her except on the condition that her Walâ’ would go to them. The Prophet ﷺ replied, “The Walâ’ would go to him who manumits.” Hammâm asked Nâfi’ whether ‘âr (Barira’s) husband was a free man or a slave. He replied that he did not know.

(68) CHAPTER. Is it permissible for a person from the town to sell the goods of a desert dweller without taking commission? Should he help him or try to advise him?

The Prophet ﷺ said, “If somebody asked

(1) (H. 2155) Walâ’: See glossary.
the advice of someone else, then the latter should advise him.” Ātā allowed it (selling the goods of a desert dweller by a town dweller).

2157. Narrated Jarir: I gave the Bai'a (pledge) to Allāh’s Messenger for the following: (1) To testify that La ilāha illallāh wa anna Muḥammad-ar-Rasūl Allāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh, and Muḥammad is Allāh’s Messenger). (2) Ḥaqqah, (3) To pay the Zakāt, (4) To listen to and obey (Allāh’s and His Prophet’s Orders), (5) To be sincere and true to every Muslim and order them for Al-Ma’rūf (Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam orders one to do) and forbid them from Al-Munkar (disbelief and polytheism and all that Islam has forbidden) and to help them, and to be merciful and kind to them.

[See H.57 & its chapter].

2158. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Do not go to meet the caravans on the way (for buying their goods without letting them know the market price); a town dweller should not sell the goods of a desert dweller on behalf of the latter.” Ibn ‘Abbās was asked, “What does he mean by not selling the goods of a desert dweller by a town dweller?” He said, “He should not become his broker.”

(69) CHAPTER. Whoever hated that an urban person should sell the goods of a desert dweller and charge him for that.

(70) CHAPTER. A town dweller should not buy goods for a desert dweller and charge commission as a broker.

Ibn Sirîn and İbrâhîm disliked (working as a broker for a desert dweller) whether as a seller or a buyer. İbrâhîm said, “Arabs use the word ‘to buy’ in the meaning of ‘to sell’.”

2160. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “A buyer should not urge a seller to restore a purchase so as to buy it himself, and do not practise Najsh; and a town dweller should not sell goods of a desert dweller.”

2161. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: We were forbidden that a town dweller should sell goods of a desert dweller.

(71) CHAPTER. It is forbidden to meet the caravans on the way (to buy the goods away from the market).

And the one who buys them, his bargain is invalid as he is a sinner if he knows it, for it is a kind of deceit, and deceit is forbidden.

2162. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet forbade the meeting (of caravans) on the way and the selling of goods by an inhabitant of the town on behalf of a desert dweller.

2163. Narrated Tâwús: I asked Ibn ‘Abbâs, “What is the meaning of: ‘No town dweller should sell (or buy) on behalf of a desert dweller’?”

Ibn ‘Abbâs said, “It means he should not become his broker.”

2164. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger said, “You should not try to cancel the purchases of one another (to get a benefit thereof), and do not go ahead to meet the caravan (for buying the goods) (but wait) till it reaches the market.”

(72) CHAPTER. The limits to which one can go ahead to meet the caravan.

2165. Narrated ‘Abdullãh: We used to go ahead to meet the caravan and used to buy foodstuff from them. The حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْوَهَابُ حَدَّثَنَا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهُ الْعُمَّرِي عِنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ عَنْ أَبِي عُمَيْرَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ الَّذِي قَالَ: لَنْ تَبْعَدَ الْبَيَّنَةُ عَنَّ اللَّيْلِي وَأَن يَبْيَعَ حَاضِرًا.

2166. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: We used to go ahead to meet the caravan and used to buy foodstuff from them. The Prophet ﷺ forbade us to sell it till the foodstuff has reached the market.

2167. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Aziz:

Some people used to buy foodstuff at the head of the market and used to sell it on the spot. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ forbade them to sell it till they brought it to (their) places.

(73) CHAPTER. If somebody imposes conditions in selling which are forbidden (in) or are against the Islâmic Law.

2168. Narrated ‘Urwa: ‘Aishah said, “Barira came to me and said, ‘I have agreed with my masters to pay them nine Úqiya (of gold) (in instalments) one Úqiya per year; please help me.’ I said, ‘I am ready to pay the whole amount now provided your masters agree that your Walâ’ will be for me.’ So, Barira went to her masters and told them about that offer but they refused to accept it. She returned, and at that time, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was sitting (present). Barira said, ‘I told them of the offer but they did not accept it and insisted on having the Walâ’.’ The Prophet ﷺ heard that.” ‘Aishah narrated the whole story to the Prophet ﷺ. He said to her, “Buy her and stipulate that her Walâ’ would be yours as the Walâ’ is for the manumitter.” ‘Aishah did so. Then Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ stood up in front of the people, and after glorifying Allâh, he said, ‘Ammā Ba‘du (i.e., then after)! What about the people who impose conditions which are not in Allāh’s Book (laws)? Any condition that is not in Allāh’s Book (Laws) is invalid even if they were one hundred conditions, for Allāh’s Decisions are the right ones and His Conditions are the strong ones (firmer) and the Walā’ will be for the manumitter.”

2169. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar (رضي الله عنّه): ‘Āishah, (Mother of the Believers) wanted to buy a slave-girl and manumit her, but her masters said that they would sell her only on the condition that her Walā’ would be for them. ‘Āishah told Allāh’s Messenger of that. He said, “What they stipulate should not hinder you from buying her, as the Walā’ is for the manumitter.”

(74) CHAPTER. Selling of dates for dates.

2170. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar (رضي الله عنّه): The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, “The selling of wheat for wheat is Ribā (usury), except if it is from hand to hand and equal in amount. Similarly the selling of barley for barley is Ribā, except if it is from hand to hand and equal in amount and dates for dates is usury except if it is from hand to hand and equal in amount.” [See Ribā Al-Fadl in the glossary].
2171. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allah's Messenger ﷺ forbade Muzābana; and Muzābana is the selling of fresh dates for dried old dates by measure, and the selling of fresh grapes for dried grapes by measure.

2172. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet ﷺ forbade Muzābana; and Muzābana is the selling of fresh fruit (without measuring it) for something by measure on the basis that if that thing turns to be more than the fruit, the increase would be for the seller of the fruit, and if it turns to be less, that would be of his lot.

2173. Narrated Ibn 'Umar from Zaid bin Thābit: that the Prophet ﷺ allowed the selling of the fruits on the trees after estimation (when they are ripe).

2174. Narrated Ibn Shihāb that Malik bin 'Aūs said, “I was in need of change for one-hundred Dinār. Ṭalḥa bin 'Ubaidullāh called me and we discussed the matter, and he agreed to change (my Dinār). He took the gold pieces and turned and toppled them with his hands, and then said, “Wait till my storekeeper comes from the forest.” ‘Umar was listening to that and said, “By Allāh! You should not separate from Ṭalḥa till you get the money from him, for Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘The selling of gold for gold is Ribā (usury), except if the exchange is from hand to hand and equal in amount, and similarly, the selling of wheat for wheat is Ribā, unless it is from hand to hand and equal in amount, and the selling of barley for barley is usury unless it is from hand to hand and equal in amount, and dates for dates is usury unless it is from hand to hand and equal in amount.”

(77) CHAPTER. Selling of gold for gold.

2175. Narrated Abū Bakra: Allah’s Messenger said, “Don’t sell gold for gold unless equal in weight, nor silver for silver unless equal in weight, but you could sell gold for silver or silver for gold as you like.”

(78) CHAPTER. Selling of silver for silver.

2176. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd (concerning exchange) that he heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “Do not sell gold for gold unless equal in weight, and do not sell silver for silver unless equal in weight.”
2177.Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī:Allāh’s Messenger Ṣallallāhu 'Alayhi wa Sallam said, “Do not sell gold for gold unless equivalent in weight (and from hand to hand), and do not sell less amount for greater amount or vice versa; and do not sell silver for silver unless equivalent in weight (from hand to hand), and do not sell less amount for greater amount or vice versa, and do not sell gold or silver that is not present at the moment of exchange for gold or silver that is present.

(79) CHAPTER. Selling of Dinār for Dinār on credit.

2178, 2179. Narrated Abū Śāliḥ Azzaiyāt: I heard Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī saying, “The selling of a Dinar for a Dinar, and a Dirham for a Dirham (is permissible).” I said to him, “Ibn ‘Abbās does not say the same.” Abū Sa‘īd replied, “I asked Ibn ‘Abbās whether he had heard it from the Prophet Ṣallallāhu 'Alayhi wa Sallam or seen it in the Holy Book. Ibn ‘Abbās replied, ‘I do not claim that, and you know Allāh’s Messenger Ṣallallāhu 'Alayhi wa Sallam better than I, but Usāma informed me that the Prophet Ṣallallāhu 'Alayhi wa Sallam had said: There is no Ribā (usury) (in money exchange) except when it is not done from hand to hand (i.e., when there is delay in payment).’”
(80) CHAPTER. Selling of silver for gold on delayed payment.

2180, 2181. Narrated Abū Al-Minhāl: I asked Al-Bara’ bin ‘Āzib and Zaid bin Arqam about money exchanges. Each of them said, “He is better than I,” and both of them said, “Allah’s Messenger forbade the selling of silver for gold on credit.”

(81) CHAPTER. Selling of gold for silver from hand to hand (i.e., cash down).

2182. Narrated Abdur-Rahmān bin Abū Bakra that his father said, “The Prophet forbade the selling of gold for gold and silver for silver except if they are equivalent in weight (and from hand to hand), and allowed us to sell gold for silver and vice versa as we wished.”

(82) CHAPTER. The sale called Al-Muzābāna; which is the sale of dried dates for fresh ones (that are still on the trees), and dried grapes for fresh grapes and the sale called Al-‘Arāyā (i.e., the selling of ripe fresh date, still over the palms, by means of estimation, for dry dates)

Anas said, “The Prophet forbade the sales called Muzābana and Muḥāqala (i.e., to sell wheat in ears for pure wheat).

2183. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) said, “Do not sell fruits of dates until they become free from all the dangers (of being spoilt or blighted); and do not sell fresh dates for dry dates.”

2184. Sālim and ‘Abdullāh added that Zaid bin Thābit said, “Later on Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) permitted the selling of ripe fruits on trees for fresh dates or dried dates in Bai‘il-‘Ariya, and did not allow it for any other kind of sale.”

2186. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) forbade Muzābana and Muḥāqala; and Muzābana [i.e., the selling of fresh dates still on the trees for dried plucked dates (by measure)].

2188. Narrated Zaid bin Thabit: Allāh’s Messenger allowed the owner of ‘Arāyā(1) to sell the fruits on the trees by means of estimation.

(83) CHAPTER. The selling of dates still on trees for gold or silver.

2189. Narrated Jābir: The Prophet forbade the selling of fruits unless they get ripe, and none of them should be sold except for Dīnār or Dirham (i.e., money), except the ‘Arāyā trees (the dates of which could be sold for dates).

2190. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet allowed the sale of the dates of ‘Arāyā provided they were about five Awaṣiq (i.e., approx 675 kgs) (singular: Wasq which means sixty Ṣū') or less (in amount).

(1) (H. 2188) ‘Arāyā: The selling of fresh dates still over the palm-tree by means of estimation for dry plucked dates and it is an exception. Also see the glossary and H. 2192 and its chapter 84.
2191.Narrated Sahīl bin Ābu Ḥathma:Allāh's Messenger ﷺ forbade the selling of fruits (fresh dates) for dried dates, but allowed the sale of fruits on the ‘Aรวā by estimation and their new owners might eat their dates fresh. Sufyān (in another narration) said, “I told Yaḥyā (a subnarrator) when I was a mere boy, ‘Makkahns say that the Prophet ﷺ allowed them the sale of the fruits on ‘Aรวā by estimation.’ Yaḥyā asked, ‘How do the Makkahns know about it?’ I replied, ‘They narrated it (from the Prophet ﷺ) through Jābir.’ On that, Yaḥyā kept quiet.” Sufyān said, “I meant that Jābir belonged to Al-Madīna.” Sufyān was asked whether in Jābir’s narration there was any prohibition of selling fruits before their benefit is evident (i.e., no dangers of being spoilt or blighted). He replied that there was none.

(84) CHAPTER. The explanation of ‘Aรวā.

Mālik said, “‘Aรวā (plural ‘Aรวā) means that a person gives a date-palm (i.e., its product of dates) as a gift to another person, and then the giver is troubled by the latter’s coming to the giver’s private garden (to cut the dates), so the giver is allowed to purchase those date fruits with dried dates.”

Ibn Idrīs said, “The sale of the dates of an ‘Aรวā should be for measured dates delivered...”
from hand to hand and not to be done at random.” The saying of Sahl bin Ḥathma confirms this verdict, i.e., that the exchange of dates should not be at random but by measure of Awsīq. Ibn ‘Umar said, “Al-‘Arāyā meant to give one or two date palms to someone.”

Sufyān bin Ḥusain said, “Al-‘Arāyā were date-palms given as a gift to the poor who could not wait till the fruits were ripe, so they were allowed to sell them for dates as they wished.”

2192. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar from Zaid bin Thābit: Allāh’s Messenger allowed the sale of ‘Arāyā by estimating the dates on them for measured amounts of dried dates.

Mūsā bin ‘Uqba said, “Al-‘Arāyā were distinguished date-palms; one could come and buy them (i.e., their fruits).”

(85) CHAPTER. The sale of fruits before their benefit is evident (i.e., they are free from all the dangers of being spoilt or blighted).

2193. Zaid bin Thābit said, “In the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger, the people used to trade with fruits. When they cut their date-fruits and the purchasers came to receive their rights, the sellers would say, ‘My dates have got rotten; they are blighted with disease, they are afflicted with Qusīm (a disease which causes the fruit to fall before ripening).’ They would go on complaining of defects in their purchases. Allāh’s Messenger said, “Do not sell the fruits before their... benefit is evident (i.e., free from all the dangers of being spoiled or blighted), by way of advice for they quarrelled too much."

Khārijja bin Zaid bin Thābit said that Zaid bin Thābit used not to sell the fruits of his land till Pleiades(1) appeared and one could distinguish the yellow fruits from the red (ripe) ones.

2194. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger forbade the sale of fruits till their benefit is evident. He forbade both the seller and the buyer (of such a sale).

2195. Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger forbade the sale of date-fruits till they were ripe.

Abū ‘Abdullāh (Al-Bukhārī) said, “That means till they were red (can be eaten).”

---

(1) (Ch. 2193) Pleiades is the collection of stars which start to appear at dawn in the early summer when it gets very hot in Ḥijāz at the early season of the ripening of fruits. The appearance of these stars is a sign of the ripening of dates.
2196. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet forbade the sale of (date) fruits till they were red or yellow and fit for eating.

(86) CHAPTER. The sale of date-palms (date trees) before their benefit is evident. (i.e., their dates are ripe).

2197. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet forbade the sale of fruits till their benefit is evident; and the sale of date-palms till the dates are almost ripe. He was asked what ‘are almost ripe’ meant. He replied, “Got red and yellow.”

(87) CHAPTER. If somebody sells fruits before their benefit is evident and free from blights and then they get afflicted with some defects, they will be given back to the seller.

2199. Narrated Ibn Shihāb: If somebody bought fruits before their benefit is evident and then the fruits were spoiled with blights, the loss would be suffered by the owner (not the buyer).

Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not sell or buy fruits before their benefit was evident and do not sell fresh fruits (dates) for dried dates.”

(88) CHAPTER. To buy foodstuff on credit.

2200. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet ﷺ bought some foodstuff from a Jew on credit and mortgaged his armour to him.

(89) CHAPTER. If one wishes to buy (a better quality of) dates for (a low quality of) dates [that is a kind of Ribā (usury) and is called Ribā-Al-Fadl].

2201, 2202. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī and Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ appointed somebody as a governor of Khaibar. That governor brought to him an excellent kind of dates...
(from Khaibar). The Prophet ﷺ asked, "Are all the dates of Khaibar like this?" He replied, "By Allâh, no, O Allâh's Messenger! But we barter one Sa' of this (type of dates) for two Sâ' of dates of ours and two Sa' of it for three of ours." Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "Do not do so [as that is a kind of Ribâ (usury)] but sell the mixed dates (of inferior quality) for money, and then buy good dates with money."

(90) CHAPTER. Whoever sold or rented date-palms which were pollinated, or land which was sown (with wheat or barley).

2203. Narrated Nâfî', the freed-slave of Ibn 'Umar: If pollinated date-palms are sold and nothing is mentioned (in the contract) about their fruits, the fruits will go to the person who has pollinated them, and so will be the case with the slave and the cultivator. Nâfî' mentioned those three things.

2204. Narrated 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, "If somebody sells pollinated date-palms, the fruits will be for the seller unless the buyer stipulates that they will be for himself (and the seller agrees)."
(91) CHAPTER. The sale of unharvested crops for a measured quantity of foodstuff.

2205. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allah's Messenger forbade Al-Muzābana, i.e., to sell ungathered dates of one's garden for measured dried dates or fresh ungathered grapes for measured dried grapes; or standing crops for measured quantity of foodstuff. He forbade all such bargains.

(92) CHAPTER. The sale of date-palms completely (with roots and stems).

2206. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet said, "Whoever pollinates date-palms and then sells them, the fruits will belong to him unless the buyer stipulates that the fruits should belong to him (and the seller agrees)."

(93) CHAPTER. Baiʿ Al-Mukhādara (the sale of grains or vegetables before their benefit is evident).

2207. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah's Messenger forbade Muhāqala, Mukhādara, Mulamasa, Munābadha and Muzābana. (See glossary and previous Ahadith for the meanings of these terms.)
2208. Narrated Ḥumaid: Anas said, “The Prophet forbade the selling of dates till they were almost ripe.” We asked Anas, “What does ‘almost ripe’ mean?” He replied, “They get red and yellow. The Prophet added, ‘If Allah destroyed the fruits present on the trees, what right would the seller have to take the money of his brother (somebody else)?’”

(94) CHAPTER. The sale and eating of spadix (edible pith growing at the upper part of the trunk of a palm tree).

2209. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I was with the Prophet while he was eating spadix. He said, “From the trees there is a tree which resembles a faithful believer.” I wanted to say that it was the date palm, but I was the youngest among them (so I kept quiet). He added, “It is the date-palm.”

(95) CHAPTER. In cases where there is no fixed judgement, the traditions and conventions of each community are to be referred to, to deduce a judgement in such matters as sales, renting, measuring and weighing.

Shuraih told the weavers, “You are permitted to follow your own conventions to solve your problems (it is legal for you to stick to your traditions in bargain).”

Narrated ‘Abdul Wahab: Ayyub said he heard from Muhammad who said, “There is no harm in selling for eleven what you buy for ten, and you are allowed to take a profit for expenses.”

The Prophet told Hind, “Take what is reasonable and sufficient for you and your sons.” Allāh says: “Whoever is poor, can eat (from the orphan’s property) what is just and reasonable (according to his labours).” (V.4:6).

Al-Ḥasan hired a donkey from ‘Abbūlāh bin Mirdās and asked him about the hire. The latter replied that it was for two Daniq (a Daniq equals 1/6th Dirham). So Al-Ḥasan rode away. Another time, Al-Ḥasan came to ‘Abbūlāh bin Mirdās and asked him to hire the donkey to him and rode away without asking him about the hire, but he sent him half a Dirham.\(^1\)

\(2210\). Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Abū Taiba cupped Allāh’s Messenger and so Allāh’s Messenger ordered that a Sā’ of dates be paid to him and ordered his masters (for he was a slave) to reduce his tax.\(^2\)

\(2211\). Narrated ‘Aishah: Hind, the mother of Mu‘āwiyah said to Allāh’s Messenger, “Abū Sufyān (her husband) is a miser. Am I allowed to take from his money secretly?” The Prophet said to her, “You and your sons may take what is sufficient, just and reasonable.”

---

\(^1\) (Ch. 95) Al-Ḥasan did not ask about the hire the second time depending on what they had agreed upon the first time. He sent ‘Abbūlāh more than what was due out of generosity.

\(^2\) (H. 2210) Slaves had to pay their masters certain taxes.
2212. Narrated 'Urwa: I heard 'Aishah saying, “The Holy Verse: ‘...Whoever amongst guardians is rich, he should take no wages but if he is poor, let him have for himself what is just and reasonable (according to his labour)’ (V.4 :6), was revealed concerning the guardian of the orphans who looks after them and manages favourably their financial affairs; if the guardian is poor, he could have from it what is just and reasonable (according to his labour).”

2213. Narrated Jābir: Allah's Messenger ﷺ gave pre-emption (to the partner) in every joint property, but if the boundaries of the property were demarcated or the ways and streets were fixed, then there was no pre-emption.

2214. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abbullāh رضي الله عنهما: Allah's Messenger ﷺ decided the validity of pre-emption in every joint...
undivided property, but if the boundaries were well marked or the ways and streets were fixed, then there was no pre-emption.

Narrated 'Abdul Wâhid the same as above but said, ‘...in every joint undivided thing...’

Narrated Hishãm from Ma'mar the same as above but said, ‘...in every property...’

(98) CHAPTER. If somebody buys something for another without his permission and the latter accepts it.

2215. Narrated Ibn 'Umar Li the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘While three persons were walking, rain began to fall and they had to enter a cave in a mountain. A big rock rolled over and blocked the mouth of the cave. They said to each other, ‘Invoke Allâh with the best deed you have performed (so that Allâh might remove the rock)’. One of them said, ‘O Allâh! My parents were old and I used to go out for to graze (my animals). On my return I would milk (the animals) and take the milk in a vessel to my parents to drink. After they had drunk from it, I would give it to my children, family and wife. One day I was delayed and on my return I found my parents sleeping, and I disliked to wake them up. The children were crying at my feet (because of hunger). That state of affairs continued till it was dawn. O Allâh! If You regard that I did it only for Your sake, then please remove this rock so that we may see the sky.' So, the rock was moved a bit. The second said, 'O Allah! You know that I was in love with a cousin of mine, like the deepest love a man may have for a woman, and she told me that I would not get my desire fulfilled unless I paid her one hundred Dinār (gold pieces). So, I struggled for it till I gathered the desired amount, and when I sat in between her legs, she told me to be afraid of Allah, and asked me not to deflower her except rightfully (by marriage). So, I got up and left her. O Allah! If You regard that I did it only for Your sake, kindly remove this rock.' So, two-thirds of the rock was removed. Then the third man said, 'O Allah! No doubt You know that once I employed a worker for one Farāq (three Sā') of millet, and when I wanted to pay him, he refused to take it, so I sowed it and from its yield I bought cows and a shepherd. After a time that man came and demanded his money. I said to him: Go to those cows and the shepherd and take them for they are for you. He asked me whether I was joking with him. I told him that I was not joking with him, and all that belonged to him. O Allah! If You regard that I did it only for Your sake, then please remove the rock.' So, the rock was removed completely from the mouth of the cave."[See Vol 4. Hadith No.3465.]
(99) CHAPTER. Buying and selling with Mushrikun (pagans) and with the enemy at war.

2216. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahman bin Abū Bakr: We were with the Prophet when a tall Mushrik with long matted unkempt hair came driving his sheep. The Prophet asked him, “Are those sheep for sale or for gifts?” The Mushrik replied, “They are for sale.” The Prophet bought one sheep from him.

(100) CHAPTER. The purchase of a slave from the enemy at war and giving him (to somebody) as a gift and manumitting him.

The Prophet asked Salmān to make a contract of his manumission with his masters. In reality Salmān was a free man but the Mushrikun oppressed him and sold him.

‘Ammār, Ṣuḥāib and Bilāl were taken as captives in (war) booty.

Allāh said:

“And Allāh has preferred some of you above others in wealth and properties. Then, those who are preferred will by no means hand over their wealth and properties to those (slaves) whom their right hand possess, so that they may be equal with them in respect thereof. Do they then deny the Favour of Allāh?” (V.16:71)

(1) (Ch. 100) This example Allāh has set forth for the (pagans, etc.) who associate false deities with Allāh that they would not agree to share their wealth with their slaves, then how they agree to share false deities with Allāh in His worship.
The Prophet said, “The Prophet Ibrahim (Abraham) emigrated with Sarah and entered a village where there was a king from amongst the kings, or a tyrant from amongst the tyrants. (The king) was told that Ibrahim (Abraham) had entered (the village) accompanied by a woman who was one of the most charming woman. So, the king sent for Ibrahim and asked, ‘O Ibrahim (Abraham)! Who is this lady accompanying you?’ Ibrahim replied, ‘She is my sister (i.e., in religion).’ Then Ibrahim (Abraham) returned to her and said, ‘Do not contradict my statement, for I have informed them that you are my sister. By Allah, there are no true believers on the earth except you and I.’” Then Ibrahim (Abraham) sent her to the king. When the king got to her, she got up and performed ablution, offered Salat (prayer) and said, ‘O Allah! If I have believed in You and Your Messenger, and have saved my private parts from everybody except my husband, then please do not let this disbeliever overpower me.’ On that the king fell in a state of unconsciousness (or had an epileptic fit) and started moving his legs. On seeing the condition of the king, Sarah said, ‘O Allah! If he should die, the people will say that I have killed him.’ The king regained his power, and proceeded towards her but she got up again and performed ablution, offered Salat (prayer) and said, ‘O Allah! If I have believed in You and Your Messenger and have kept my private parts safe from all except my husband, then please do not let this disbeliever overpower me.’ The king again fell in a state of unconsciousness (or had an epileptic fit) and started moving his legs. On seeing that state of the king, Sarah said, ‘O Allah! If he should die, the people will say that I have killed him.’ The king got either two or three attacks, and after recovering from the last attack he said, ‘By Allah! You have sent a Satan to me. Take her to Ibrahim (Abraham) and give her Ajar (Hagar).’ So she came back to Ibrahim (Abraham) and said, ‘Allah humiliated the disbeliever and gave us a slave-girl for service’.”

2218. Narrated ‘Aishah: Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas and ‘Abd bin Zam’a quarrelled over a boy. Sa’d said, “O Allah’s Messenger! This boy is the son of my brother (‘Utba bin Abi Waqqas) who took a promise from me that I would take him as he was his (illegal) son. Look at him and see whom he resembles.” ‘Abd bin Zam’a said, “O Allah’s Messenger! This is my brother and was born on my father’s bed from his slave-girl.” Allah’s Messenger cast a look at the boy and found definite resemblance to ‘Utba and then said, “The boy is for you, O ‘Abd bin Zam’a. The child goes to the owner of the bed (on which he was born), and the adulterer gets nothing but the stones (despair, i.e., to be stoned to death). Then the Prophet said, “O Sauda bint Zam’a! Screen yourself from this boy.” So, Sauda never saw him again.

2219. Narrated Sa’d that his father said: ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Auf said to Suhaib, “Fear Allah and do not ascribe yourself to somebody other than your father.” Suhaib replied, “I would not like to say it even if I were given large amounts of money, but I say

(1) (H. 2217) Ibrãhim (Abraham) accepted the gift from the infidel.
I was kidnapped in my childhood.”

2220. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair: Hakim bin Hizam said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I used to do good deeds in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance, such as keeping good relations with my kith and kin, manumitting slaves and giving alms. Shall I receive a reward for all that?” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ replied, “You embraced Islam with all the good deeds which you did in the past.”

(101) CHAPTER. The hides of dead animals before tanning.

2221. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما:

Once Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ passed by a dead sheep and said to the people, “Wouldn’t you benefit by its skin?”

The people replied that it was dead.

The Prophet ﷺ said, “But its eating only is illegal.”

(102) CHAPTER. The killing of pigs.

And Jâbir said, “The Prophet ﷺ made the sale of pigs illegal.”

2222. Narrated Abû Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “By Him (Allâh) in Whose Hands my soul is, surely the son of Maryam (Mary) 'Iesa (Jesus)\(^{(1)}\) will shortly descend amongst you people (Muslims) and will judge mankind justly by the Law of the Qur'ān (as a just ruler) and will break the cross and kill the pigs and abolish the Jizya (a tax taken from the non-Muslims, who are under the protection of the Muslim government. This Jizya tax will not be accepted by 'Iesa [(Jesus) عليه السلام]. Then there will be abundance of money and nobody will accept charitable gifts. [See Fath Al-Bārī, for details].

\((103)\) CHAPTER. The fat of the dead animal should not be melted, nor should it be sold.

Jābir narrated this from the Prophet ﷺ.

\(2223.\) Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: ‘Umar was informed that a certain man has sold an alcoholic drink. ‘Umar said, “May Allah curse him! Doesn’t he know that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘May Allah curse the Jews, for Allah had forbidden them to eat the fat of animals but they melted it and sold it’.\(^{(2)}\)

\(2224.\) Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “May Allah curse the Jews, because Allah made fat illegal for

\((2)\) (H. 2223) This indicates that it is not permissible to sell a thing which is illegal to eat.
34–THE BOOK OF SALES (BARGAINS)

(104) CHAPTER. The selling of the pictures of inanimated objects having no souls and what is hated from that.

2225. Narrated Sa’id bin Abi Al-Hasan: While I was with Ibn ‘Abbâs, a man came and said, “O father of ‘Abbâs! I am a human being and my sustenance is from my manual profession and I make these pictures.” Ibn ‘Abbâs said, “I will tell you only what I heard from Allah’s Messenger . I heard him saying, ‘Whoever makes a picture will be punished by Allah till he puts soul (life) in it, and he will never be able to put soul (life) in it.’” Hearing this, that man heaved a sigh and his face turned pale. Ibn ‘Abbâs said to him, “What a pity! If you insist on making pictures I advise you to make pictures of trees and any other inanimated objects having no souls.”

[See Fath Al-Bâri, for details]
(105) CHAPTER. Trade of alcoholic drinks is illegal.

Jābir رضي الله عنه said, “The Prophet ﷺ made the trade of alcoholic drinks illegal.”

2226. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: When the last verses of Sūrat Al-Baqarah were revealed, the Prophet ﷺ went out (of his house to the mosque) and said, “The trade of alcoholic drinks has been made illegal.”

(106) CHAPTER. The sin of a person who sells a free man (knowingly and intentionally).

2227. Narrated Abu Hurairah رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh says, ‘I will be against three persons on the Day of Resurrection:

1. One who makes a covenant in My Name, but he proves treacherous.
2. One who sells a free person (as a slave) and eats the price.
3. And one who employs a labourer and gets the full work done by him but does not pay him his wages’.”

(107) CHAPTER. The Prophet ﷺ ordered the Jews to sell their land when he exiled them (drove them out of Al-Madīnah).

(108) CHAPTER. The sale of a slave (for a slave) and an animal for an animal on credit.

And Ibn ‘Umar bought a mount (riding camel) for four camels which he promised to deliver at Ar-Rabadha. Ibn 'Abbâs said, “One camel may be better than two.” Râfî bin Khâdîjî once bought a camel for two camels and he delivered one instantly and said, “If Allâh will, I will bring you the other tomorrow without delay.” And said Ibn Al-Musaiyâb. “There is no Ribâ (in animals) i.e., in selling one camel for two, or one sheep for two sheep on credit.”

Ibn Sirîn said, “There is no harm in selling one camel for two on credit.”

2228. Narrated Anas: Amongst the captives was Șâfiyya. First she was given to Dîhya Al-Kalbi and then to the Prophet ﷺ.

(109) CHAPTER. The sale of slaves.

2229. Narrated Abû Sa’îd Al-Khûdri: At that while he was sitting with Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ (an Ansaﬁ man came) and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! We get female captives as our share of booty, and we are interested in their prices, what is your opinion about coitus interruptus?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do you really do that? It is better for you not to do it. No soul that which Allâh has destined to exist, but will surely come into existence.”

[See Fath Al-Bârî]
CHAPTER. The sale of Mudabbar (i.e., a slave who is promised by his master to be manumitted after the latter’s death).

2230. Narrated Jābir: The Prophet ﷺ sold a Mudabbar (on behalf of his master who was still living and was in need of money).

2232, 2233. Narrated Zaid bin Khālid and Abū Hurairah L4; that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was asked about an unmarried slave-girl who committed illegal sexual intercourse. They heard him saying, “Flog\(^1\) her, and if she commits illegal sexual intercourse again after that, flog her again, and on the third (or the fourth) offense, sell her.”\(^2\)

2234. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “If a slave-girl of yours commits illegal sexual intercourse

---

\(^1\) (H. 2232) A slave-girl committing illegal sexual intercourse is punished with 50 lashes, which are half the lashes given to a free unmarried person. Stoning is not prescribed for slaves committing illegal sexual intercourse.

\(^2\) (H. 2232) The narrator is not sure whether the Prophet ﷺ said, “...the third or the fourth offense...”
and her illegal sexual intercourse is proved, she should be lashed, and after that nobody should blame her, and if she commits illegal sexual intercourse the second time, she should be lashed and nobody should blame her after that, and if she does the offense for the third time and her illegal sexual intercourse is proved, she should be sold, even for a hair rope."

(111) CHAPTER. One can travel with a slave-girl without knowing whether she is pregnant or not?

Al-Hasan found no harm in her master’s kissing or fondling with her.

Ibn ‘Umar said, “If a slave-girl who is suitable to have sexual relations is given to somebody as a gift, or sold or manumitted, her master should not have sexual intercourse with her before she gets one menstruation so as to be sure of absence of pregnancy, and there is no such necessity for a virgin.”

‘Ata said, “There is no harm in fondling with one’s pregnant(1) slave-girl without having sexual intercourse with her. Allâh said:

‘Except with their wives and the (woman slaves) whom their right hands possess…”’

(V.70:30)

2235. Narrated Anas bin Malik: the Prophet ﷺ came to Khaibar and when Allâh made him victorious and he conquered the town by breaking the enemy’s defense, the beauty of Safiyya bint Huyai bin Akhtab was mentioned to him. Her husband had been killed while she was a bride. Allâh’s

(1) (Ch. 111) Pregnant from another man, not her master.
Messenger selected her for himself and he set out in her company till he reached Saddar-Rawha' where her menses were over and he married her. Then Hais (a kind of meal) was prepared and served on a small leather sheet (used for serving meals). Allah's Messenger then said to me, "Inform those who are around you (about the wedding banquet)." So that was the marriage banquet given by Allah's Messenger for (his marriage with) Safiyya. After that we proceeded to Al-Madina and I saw that Allah's Messenger was covering her with a cloak while she was behind him. Then he would sit beside his camel and let Safiyya put her feet on his knees to ride (the camel).

(112) CHAPTER. The sale of dead animals and idols.

2236. Narrated Jäbir bin 'Abdullah رضي الله عنهما: In the year of the conquest of Makkah, I heard Allah's Messenger saying, "Allah and His Messenger made illegal the trade of alcoholic liquors, dead animals, pigs and idols." The people asked, "O Allah's Messenger! What about the fat of dead animals, for it was used for greasing the boats and the hides; and people use it for lights?" He said, "No, it is illegal." Allah's Messenger further said, "May Allah curse the Jews, for Allah made the fat (of animals) illegal for them, yet they melted the fat and sold it and ate its price."

2236. ابْنُ يَزِيدُ بْنِ أَبِي حُبَيْبٍ، عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ خَيْرِيْبٍ، عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ سَمَّىَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُما: أَنَّهُ سَمَّىَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يُقُولُ وَهُوَ بِمَعَةٍ عَامَّةً مَّنُّ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولُهُ ﷺ حَرَّمَ بِنَسْخِهِ الْإِنْسْمَاتِ وَالجَِّنَّةِ وَالجَِّنَّاتِ وَالأَضْنَامِ. قَالَ: أَفْيَلَ بِرَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ، أَرَأَيْتُ شُحُومُ الْإِنْسْمَاتِ فَإِنَّهُ يَظْلِلُ بِهَا الْتَّسْمَنُ وَيَدْهِرُ بِهَا الْجَِّلْوُدُ. وَيُسْتَضْيِعُ بِهَا الْبَنَاتُ. فَقَالَ: لَا، هُوَ حَرَامٌۚ ثُمَّ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَنِّي ذَلِكَ: قَاتِلُ اللَّهِ الْبَيْهُدَةُ، إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَمْ نَفَّرَ حَرَّمَهُ شُحُومُهَا جُمُولُهُ ثُمَّ
(113) CHAPTER. The price of a dog.

2237. Narrated Abū Mas'ūd Al-Anṣārī: Allah's Messenger forbade taking the price of a dog, money earned by prostitution and the earnings of a soothsayer.

2238. Narrated Aun bin Abu Juhaifa: I saw my father buying a slave whose profession was cupping, and ordered that his instruments (of cupping) be broken. I asked him the reason for doing so. He replied, "Allâh's Messenger prohibited taking money for blood, the price of a dog, and the earnings of a slave-girl by prostitution; he cursed her who tattoos and her who gets tattooed, the eater of Ribâ (usury) and also the one who gives it and the maker of pictures."
The Book of As-Salām

(A sale in which the price is paid at once for goods to be delivered later)

(1) CHAPTER. As-Salām by a definite known specified measure.

2239.Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: Allah's Messenger ﷺ came to Al-Madina and the people used to pay in advance the price of fruits to be delivered within one or two years. (The subnarrator is in doubt whether it was one to two years or two to three years.) The Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever pays money in advance for dates (to be delivered later) should pay it for known specified weight and measure (of the dates)."

Narrated Ibn Abī Najīh as above, mentioning only known specific measure.

(2) CHAPTER. As-Salām for a known specified weight.

2240.Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: The Prophet ﷺ came to Al-Madina and the people used to pay in advance the price of dates to be delivered within two or three years. He said (to them), "Whoever pays in advance the price of a thing to be delivered later should pay it for a known specified measure, at known specified weight, for a known specified time-period,"
35 - THE BOOK OF AS-SALAM

Narrated Ibn Abî Najîh as above, saying, “He should pay the price in advance for a known specified measure and for a known specified time-period.”

2241. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet came (to Al-Madîna) and he told the people (regarding the payment of money in advance that they should pay it) for known specified measure and a known specified weight and known specified time-period.

2242, 2243. Narrated Shu‘ba: Muhammad or ‘Abdullâh bin Abû Al-Mujâlid said, “’Abdullâh bin Shaddâd and Abû Burda differed regarding As-Salam, so they sent me to Ibn Abî Aûfâ and I asked him about it. He replied, ‘In the lifetime of Allâh’s Messenger, Abû Bakr and Umar, we used to pay in advance the prices of wheat, barley, dried grapes and dates to be delivered later.’ I also asked Ibn Abzâ and he, too, replied as above.”
(3) CHAPTER. As-Salam to a person who has got nothing (to pay for the prices he receives in advance).

2244, 2245. Narrated Muhammad bin al-Mujālīd: ‘Abdullāh bin Shaddād and Abū Burdā sent me to ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Aūfā and told me to ask ‘Abdullāh whether the people in the lifetime of the Prophet used to pay in advance for wheat (to be delivered later). ‘Abdullāh replied, “We used to pay in advance to the peasants of Sham for wheat, barley and olive oil for a known specified measure to be delivered in a known specified time-period.” I asked (him), “Was the price paid (in advance) to those who had the things to be delivered later?” ‘Abdullāh bin Aūfā replied, “We did not use to ask them about that.” Then they sent me to ‘Abdur Rahman bin Abzā and I asked him. He replied, “The Companions of the Prophet used to practise As-Salam in the lifetime of the Prophet and we did not use to ask them whether they had standing crops or not.”

Narrated Muḥammad bin Abī Al-Mujālīd as above (Hadīth No.2244, 2245) and said, “We used to pay them in advance for wheat and barley (to be delivered later).”

Narrated Ash-Shaibānī, “And also for oil.”

Narrated Ash-Shaibānī (who said) “We used to pay in advance for wheat, barley and dried grapes.”
2246. Narrated Ābū Bakhtārī Aṭ-Ṭā‘ī: I asked Ibn ‘Abbas about As-Salām for (the fruits of) date-palms. He replied, “The Prophet forbade the sale of dates on the trees till they became fit for eating and could be weighed.” A man asked what to be weighed (as the dates were still on the trees). Another man sitting beside Ibn ‘Abbās replied, “Till they are cut and stored.”

Narrated Ābū Al-Bakhtārī: I heard Ibn ‘Abbās (saying) that the Prophet forbade... etc. as above.

(4) CHAPTER. As-Salām for (the fruits of) date-palms.

2247, 2248. Narrated Ābū al-Bakhtārī: I asked Ibn ‘Umar about As-Salām for (the fruits) of date-palms. He replied, “The Prophet forbade the sale of dates till their benefit becomes evident and fit for eating, and also the sale of silver (for gold) on credit.”

I asked Ibn ‘Abbās about As-Salām for dates and he replied, “The Prophet forbade the sale of dates till they were fit for eating and could be estimated.”

2249, 2250. Narrated Abū Al-Bakhtārī: I

(1) (H. 2246) In some narrations occurs: ‘Till they could be estimated (while still on the trees).’
asked Ibn 'Umar about As-Salam for dates. Ibn 'Umar replied, "The Prophet forbade the sale (of fruits) of date-palms until they were fit for eating; and also forbade the sale of silver for gold on credit." I also asked Ibn 'Abbâs about it. Ibn 'Abbâs replied, "The Prophet forbade the sale of dates till they were fit for eating, and could be weighed." I asked him, "What is to be weighed (as the dates are on the trees)" A man sitting by Ibn 'Abbâs said, "It means till they are cut and stored."

(5) CHAPTER. The guarantor in As-Salam.

2251. Narrated 'Âishah: Allah's Messenger bought some foodstuff (barley) from a jew on credit and mortgaged his iron armour to him (the amour stands for a guarantor).

(6) CHAPTER. Mortgaging in As-Salam.

2252. Narrated Al-A'mash: We argued at Ibrâhîm's dwelling place about mortgaging in As-Salam. He said, "'Âishah said, 'The Prophet bought some foodstuff from a jew on credit and the payment was to be made by a known definite time-period, and he mortgaged his iron armour to him.'"
(7) CHAPTER. As-Salam for a fixed specified period.

Ibn ‘Abbās, Abu Sa‘īd, Al-Aswad and Al-Ḥasan permitted it. Ibn ‘Umar said, “There is no harm in buying foodstuff to be delivered within a known specified time-period, at a known fixed price provided that it is not standing crops that have not yet become ripe and free from blights and diseases.”

2253. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet came to Al-Madina and the people used to pay in advance the prices of fruits to be delivered within two to three years. The Prophet said (to them), “Buy fruits by paying their prices in advance on condition that the fruits are to be delivered to you according to a known specified measure, within a known specified time-period.” Ibn Najīḥ said, “...by a known specified measure and a known specified weight.”

2254, 2255. Narrated Muḥammad bin Abī Al-Mujālid: Abū Burda and ‘Abdullāh bin Shaddād sent me to ‘Abdur Raḥmān bin Abzā and ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Aūfā to ask them about the As-Salaf (As-Salam). They said, “We used to get war booty while we were with Allāh’s Messenger, and when the peasants of Sham came to us we used to pay them in advance for wheat, barley, and oil to be delivered within a known fixed time-period.” I asked them, “Did the peasants own standing crops or not?” They replied, “We never asked them about it.”
(8) CHAPTER. As-Salam in buying a she-camel to be delivered after it has given birth.

2256. Narrated 'Abdullãh ibn 'Amr ibn Al-'As: The people used to sell camels on the basis of Ḥabai'il-Ḥabala. (1) The Prophet ﷺ forbade such sale. Nafi' explained Ḥabal-il-Ḥabala by saying, "The she-camel is to be delivered to the buyer after the she-camel gives birth."

(1) (H. 2256) See glossary.
(1) CHAPTER. Shufa (pre-emption) is valid if the property is undivided, but if the limits become defined, then there is no pre-emption.

2257. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ gave the verdict of pre-emption (Shufa) for every undivided joint thing (property). But if the limits are defined (or demarcated) or the ways and streets are fixed, then there is no pre-emption.

(2) CHAPTER. The partner should inform his partner, who has the right of pre-emption, of his intention to sell his share before selling it.

Al-Hakam said, “If the pre-emptor allows his partner to sell before selling, then he has no pre-emption any more.” Ash-Ša’bi said, “If the pre-emptor witnesses the sale of what he has the right to buy by pre-emption and does not object to that sale, he loses the right of pre-emption.”

2258. Narrated ‘Amr bin Ash-Sharīd: While I was standing with Sa’d bin Abī Waqqās, Al-Miswar bin Makhrama came and put his hand on my shoulder. Meanwhile Abū Rāfī’, the freed slave of the Prophet ﷺ came and asked Sa’d to buy from him the (two) dwellings which were in his house. Sa’d said, “By Allāh I will not buy them.” Al-Miswar said, “By Allāh, you shall buy them.” Sa’id replied, “By Allah, I will not pay more than four thousand (Dirhams) by installments.” Abū Raffi’ said, “I have been offered five hundred Dinār (for it) and had I not heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, ‘The neighbour has more right than anyone else because of his nearness, I would not give them to you for four thousand (Dirhams) while I am offered five hundred Dinār (one Dinār equals ten Dirhams) for them.” So, he sold it to Sa’id.

(3) CHAPTER. Who is considered as the nearer neighbour?

2259. Narrated ‘Āishah ﷺ: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have two neighbours and would like to know to which of them I should give presents.” He replied, “To the one whose door is nearer to you.”
(1) CHAPTER. To hire a pious man.

The Statement of Allāh (swt)

“... Verily, the best of men for you to hire is the strong, the trustworthy.” (V.28:26)

(And what is said about) the honest treasurer, and the person who does not employ the one who is in an earnest pursuit of a job (position).

2260. Narrated Abu Mūsā Al-Ash'ārī (رضي الله عنه) : The Prophet ﷺ said, “The honest treasurer who gives willingly what he is ordered to give, is one of the two charitable persons (the second being the owner).”

2261. Narrated Abū Mūsā : I went to the Prophet ﷺ with two men from Ash'ārī tribe. I said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “I do not know that they want employment.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “No, we do not appoint for our jobs anybody who demands it earnestly.”

(2) CHAPTER. To shepherd sheep for Qirāt.(1)

(1) (Ch. 2) One Qirāt equals one-half Danīq and one Danīq equals one-sixth of Dirham. Sometimes it may very big as Uhud mountain (at Al-Madina).
2262. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh did not send any Prophet but he shepherded sheep.” His Companions asked him, “Did you do the same?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Yes, I used to shepherd the sheep of the people of Makkah for some Qirāt.”

(3) CHAPTER. The employment of Mushrikun (by Muslims) if necessary, or if no Muslim is available for that purpose.

And the Prophet ﷺ employed the Jews of Khaibar (for the purpose of irrigating the land).

2263. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ and Abū Bakr employed a (Mushrik) man from the tribe of Banī Ad-Dail and the tribe of Banī ‘Abd bin ‘Adī as a guide. He was an expert guide and he broke the oath contract which he had to abide by with the tribe of Al-‘Āṣi bin Wã’il, and he was on the religion of Quraish pagans (Mushrikun). The Prophet ﷺ and Abū Bakr had confidence in him and gave him their riding camels and told him to bring them to the cave of Thaur after three days. So he brought them their two riding camels after three days, and both of them (the Prophet ﷺ and Abū Bakr) set out accompanied by ‘Amir bin Fuhaira and the Daili guide who guided them below Makkah along the road leading to the sea-shore.

[راجع: 247]
(4) CHAPTER. It is legal if somebody hires someone to work for him after three days, or after one month or after a year. When that period elapses they should carry out their contract.

2264. Narrated 'Aishah the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ and Abû Bakr hired a man from the tribe of Bani Ad-Dail as an expert guide who was a pagans (Mushrik) follower of the religion of the pagans (Musjirikun) of Quraish. The Prophet ﷺ and Abû Bakr gave him their two riding camels and took a promise from him to bring their riding camels in the morning of the third day to the cave of Thaur.

(5) CHAPTER. Employing labourers for services in holy battles.

2265. Narrated Ya'lã bin Umaiyya رضي الله عنه: I fought in Jaisji-al- 'Usra (Ghazwa of Tabûk) along with the Prophet ﷺ and in my opinion that was the best of my deeds. At that time I had an employee who quarrelled with someone, and one of them bit and cut the other's finger and caused his own tooth to fall out. He, then, went to the Prophet ﷺ (with a complaint) but the Prophet ﷺ cancelled the suit and said to the complainant, "Did you expect him to let his finger in your mouth so that you might snap and cut it as does a stallion camel?"
2266. Narrated Ibn Juraij from 'Abdullãh bin Abû Mulaika from his grandfather a similar story: A man bit the hand of another man and caused his own tooth to fall out, but Abû Bakr judged that he had no right for compensation (for the broken tooth).

(6) CHAPTER. If somebody employs someone and tells him the period for which he is employed, is it permissible for him not to tell him the nature of the work?

(It is permissible, if he takes into consideration Allâh’s Statement): He said: “I intend to wed one of these two daughters of mine to you… (till the end of the Verse) ‘...Allâh is a Surety over what we say…” (V.28: 27, 28)

(7) CHAPTER. It is permissible for one to employ someone to repair a wall which is about to collapse.

2267. Narrated Ubâi bin Ka'b: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Both of them [Mûsa (Moses) and Al-Khîdr] proceeded on till they reached a wall which was about to fall.” Sa‘îd said, “(Al-Khîdr pointed) with his hands (towards the wall) and then raised his hands and the wall became straightened up.” Ya‘lû said, “I think Sa‘îd said, ‘He (Khidr) passed his hand over it and it was straightened up.’ (Mûsa said to him), “If you had wanted you could have taken wages for it.” Sa‘îd said, “Wages with which to buy food.”
(8) CHAPTER. Employment up to midday.

2268. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet said, "Your example and the example of the people of the two Scriptures (i.e., Jews and Christians) is like the example of a man who employed some labourers and asked them, 'Who will work for me from morning till midday for one Qirat?' The Jews accepted and carried out the work. He then asked, 'Who will work for me from midday up to the 'Salat-ul-Asr for one Qirat?' The Christians accepted and fulfilled the work. He then said, 'Who will work for me from the 'Asr till sunset for two Qirats?' You, Muslims have accepted the offer. The Jews and the Christians got angry and said, 'Why should we work more and get lesser wages?' (Allāh) said, 'Have I withheld part of your right?' They replied in the negative. He said, 'It is My Blessing, I bestow upon whomever I wish.'"

(9) CHAPTER. Employment up to the 'Asr.

2269. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Umar bin Al-Khattāb: Allāh’s Messenger said, "Your example and the example of Jews and Christians is like the example of a man who employed some labourers to whom he said, ‘Who will work for me up to midday for one Qirat each?’ The Jews carried out the work for one Qirat each; and then the Christians carried out the work up to the Asr for one Qirat each; and now you Muslims are working from the Asr up to sunset for two Qirat each. The Jews and Christians got angry and said, ‘We work more and are paid less.’ The employer (Allâh) asked them, ‘Have I usurped some of your right?’ They replied in the negative. He (Allah) said, ‘That is My Blessing, I bestow upon whomever I wish.’”

(10) CHAPTER. The sin of him who withholds the wages of the employee.

2270. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allâh said, ‘I will be an opponent to three types of people on the Day of Resurrection:
1. One who makes a covenant in My Name, but proves treacherous;
2. One who sells a free person (as a slave) and eats his price; and
3. One who employs a labourer and takes full work from him but does not pay him for his labour.’”
(11) CHAPTER. Employment from ‘Asr till night.

2271. Narrated Abu Musa: The Prophet said, “The example of Muslims, Jews and Christians is like the example of a man who employed labourers to work for him from morning till night for specific wages. They worked till midday and then said, ‘We do not need your money which you have fixed for us and let whatever we have done be annulled.’ The man said to them, ‘Don’t quit the work, but complete the rest of it and take your full wages.’ But they refused and went away (like the Jews who refused to believe in the Message of Jesus). The man employed another batch after them and said to them, ‘Complete the rest of the day and yours will be the wages I had fixed for the first batch.’ So, they worked till the time of ‘Asr. Then they said, ‘Let what we have done be annulled and keep the wages you have promised us for yourself. The man said to them ‘Complete the rest of the work, as only a little of the day remains.’ But they refused (like the Christians who refused to believe in the Message of Muhammad). Thereafter he employed another batch to work for the rest of the day and they worked for the rest of the day till sunset, and they received the wages of the two former batches (like the Muslims). So, that was the example of this light [Islamic Monotheism, the Qur’an, the Sunna (legal ways of the Prophet) and the guidance which Prophet Muhammad brought] which they (Muslims) have accepted willingly.” (1)

(1) (H. 2271) The Jews refused to believe in the Message of Jesus (Jesus), so all their work was annulled; similarly, the Christians refused to accept the Message of Muhammad and thus their work was annulled too. Such people were not rewarded, because they refused to have true Faith for the rest of their lives and died as disbelievers. They should have believed in the latest Message; for their insistence on keeping their old
(12) CHAPTER. Whosoever employed a labourer (and after completing the work) the labourer left the wages and went away. The employer invested that money in some way and increased it thereby, or whoever invested somebody else’s money in business and increased it thereby.

2272. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “Three men from among those who were before you, set out together till they reached a cave at night and entered it. A big rock rolled down the mountain and closed the mouth of the cave. They said (to each other), ‘Nothing could save you from this rock but to invoke Allah by giving reference to the righteous deed which you have done (for Allah’s sake only).’ So, one of them said, ‘O Allah! I had old parents (whom I used to provide milk first) and I never provided my family (wife, children etc.) with milk before them. One day, by chance I was delayed, and I came late (at night) while they had slept. I milked the sheep for them and took the milk to them, but I found them sleeping. I disliked to provide my family with the milk before them. I waited for them and the bowl of milk was in my hand and I kept on waiting for them to get up till the day dawned. Then they got up and drank the milk. O Allah! If I did that for Your sake only, please relieve us from our critical situation caused by this rock.’ So, the rock shifted a little, but they could not get out.”

=religion deprived them of the reward which they would have got for their previous good deeds achieved before the advent of the new religion. On the other hand, Muslims accepted and believed in all the three Messages and deserved a full reward for their complete surrender to Allah. (Al-Qastalan, Vol. 4)
The Prophet further said, "The second man said, 'O Allah! I had a cousin who was the dearest of all people to me and I wanted to have sexual intercourse with her but she refused. Later, she had a hard time in a year from amongst the famine years and she came to me and I gave her one hundred and twenty Dinãrs on the condition that she would not resist my desire, and she agreed. When I was about to fulfil my desire, she said: It is illegal for you to outrage my chastity except by legitimate marriage. So, I thought it a sin to have sexual intercourse with her and left her, though she was the dearest of all the people to me, and also I left the gold I had given her. O Allah! If I did that for Your sake only, please relieve us from the present calamity.' So, the rock shifted a little more, but still they could not get out from there."

The Prophet added, "Then the third man said, 'O Allah! I employed few labourers and I paid them their wages with the exception of one man who did not take his wages and went away. I invested his wages and I got much property thereby. (Then after some time) he came and said to me: O Allah's slave! Pay me my wages. I said to him: All the camels, cows, sheep and slaves you see, are yours. He said: O Allah's slave! Don't mock at me. I said: I am not mocking at you. So, he took all the herd and drove them away and left nothing. O Allah! If I did that for Your sake only, please relieve us from the present suffering.' So, that rock shifted completely and they got out walking."
(13) CHAPTER. One who employs himself to carry loads on his back and then gives in charity from his wages, and (what is said about) the wages of porters.

2273. Narrated Abū Mas‘ūd Al-Ansārī: Whenever Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered us to give in charity we would go to the market and work as porters to earn a Mudd (two hand-fulls) (of foodstuff), but now some of us have one hundred thousand Dirham or Dinār. (The sub-narrator) Shaqiq said, “I think Abū Mas‘ūd meant himself by saying (some of us).”

(14) CHAPTER. Wages of a broker.

Ibn Sirin, ‘Aṭā’, Ibrāhim and Al-Ḥasan did not see any harm in them. Ibn ‘Abbās said, “There is no harm if one says (to a broker), ‘Sell this garment for such a price and whatever more you get, is for you.’”

Ibn Sirin said, “If one says to a broker, ‘Sell it for such a price and if you get more, the profit will be for you or divided between us,’ there is no harm in it.”

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Muslims should abide by their conditions.”

2274. Narrated Tāwūs: Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ said, “The Prophet ﷺ forbade the meeting of caravans (on the way) and...”
ordained that no townsman is permitted to sell things on behalf of a bedouin.” I asked Ibn ‘Abbās, “What is the meaning of his saying, ‘No townsman is permitted to sell things on behalf of a bedouin.’” He replied, “He should not work as a broker for him.”

(15) CHAPTER. Is it permissible for a Muslim to work as an employee for Mushriqun in a land of infidelity?

2275. Narrated Khabbāb: I was a blacksmith and did some work for Al-'Aṣ bin Wā'il. When he owed me some money for my work, I went to him to ask for that amount. He said, “I will not pay you unless you disbelieve in Muḥammad (ﷺ).” I said, “By Allāh! I will never do that till you die and be resurrected.” He said, “Will I be dead and then resurrected after my death?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “There I will have property and offspring and then I will pay you your due.” Then Allāh revealed: “Have you seen him who disbelieved in Our “Ayat” (this Qur’ān and Muḥammad ﷺ) and said: I shall certainly be given wealth and children?” (V.19: 77)

(16) CHAPTER. What is paid for Ruqya (i.e., Divine Speech recited as a means of curing diseases) with Sūrat Al-Fātiha, when practiced over an Arab tribe.
2276.Narrated Abū Sa‘īd al- Khadhīr:

Some of the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ went on a journey till they reached some of the Arab tribes (at night). They asked the latter to treat them as their guests but they refused. The chief of that tribe was then bitten by a snake (or stung by a scorpion) and they tried their best to cure him but in vain. Some of them said (to the others), “Nothing has benefited him, will you go to the people who resided here at night, it may be that some of them might possess something (as treatment).” They went to the group of the Companions (of the Prophet ﷺ) and said, “Our chief has been bitten by a snake (or stung by a scorpion) and we have tried everything but he has not benefited. Have you got anything (useful)?” One of them replied, “Yes, by Allah! I can recite a Ruqya, but as you have refused to accept us as your guests, I will not recite the Ruqya for you unless you fix for us some wages for it.” They agreed to pay them a flock of sheep. One of them then went and recited (Sūrat Al-Fāṭiha): All the praises and thanks be to Allah, the Lord of the ‘Alamin (mankind, jinn and all that exists). And puffed over the chief who became all right as if he was released from a chain, and got up and started walking, showing no signs of sickness. They paid them what they agreed to pay. Some of them (i.e., the Companions) then suggested to divide their earnings among themselves, but the one who performed the recitation said, “Do not divide them till we go to the Prophet and narrate the whole story to him, and wait for his order.” So, they went to Allah’s Messenger and narrated the story. Allah’s Messenger asked, “How did you come to know that Sūrat Al-Fātiha was recited as Ruqya?” Then he added, “You have done the right thing. Divide (what you have earned) and assign a share for me as well.” The Prophet smiled thereupon.

(17) CHAPTER. The taxes imposed on the slaves by their masters; and the leniency in imposing taxes on female slaves.

2277. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: When Abū Taiba cupped the Prophet and the Prophet ordered that he be paid one or two ʿSāʾ of foodstuff and he interceded with his masters to reduce his taxes.

(18) CHAPTER. The wages of one who has the profession of cupping.

2278. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When the Prophet was cupped, he paid the man who cupped him his wages.
2279. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When the Prophet was cupped, he paid the man who cupped him his wages. If it had been undesirable he would not have paid him.

2280. Narrated Anas: The Prophet used to get cupped and would never withhold the wages of any person.

(19) CHAPTER. Whoever appealed to the masters of a slave to reduce his taxes.

2281. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet sent for a slave who had the profession of cupping, and he cupped him. The Prophet ordered that he be paid one or two Sā', or one or two Mudd of foodstuff, and appealed to his masters to reduce his taxes.

(20) CHAPTER. The earnings of prostitutes and female-slaves.

Ibrāhīm hated the earnings of female wailers and female singers.

The Statement of Allah: “…And force not your maids to prostitution, if they desire chastity, in order that you may make a gain in the (perishable) goods of this worldly life. But if anyone compels them (to prostitution) then after such compulsion, Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful (to those women i.e., He will forgive them... because they have been forced to do this evil action unwillingly") (V.24:33).

2282. Narrated Abu Mas'ud Al-Ansari: Allah's Messenger prohibited (from taking) the price of a dog, the earnings of a prostitute, and the charges taken by a sooth-sayer.

2283. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet prohibited the earnings of slave-girls (through prostitution).

(21) CHAPTER. (Charging for) the semen of a male animal, (i.e., copulation of animals).

(22) CHAPTER. If somebody rents land and he or the owner of the land dies (will the contract be cancelled)?

According to Ibn Sirin the inheritors have no right to expel the tenant before the term of the contract has elapsed.

Al-Ḥakam, Al-Ḥasan and Ayās bin Mu'āwiya said, “The contract remains valid till the end of the term.”

Ibn 'Umar said, “The Prophet rented the land of Khaibar on the terms that half the yield would be his share. That contract continued during the lifetime of the Prophet, Abu Bakr, and the early part of ‘Umar's caliphate.” It was not mentioned that Abu Bakr renewed the contract after the death of the Prophet.

2285. Narrated Abdullâh bin Umar: “Allâh’s Messenger gave the land of Khaibar to the Jews to work on it and cultivate it and take half of its yield.” Ibn Umar added, “The land used to be rented for a certain portion (of its yield).” Nâfi mentioned the amount of the portion but I forgot it.

2286. Râfi’ bin Khadij said, “The Prophet forbade renting farms.”

Narrated ‘Ubaidullâh, Nâfi: Ibn ‘Umar said: (The contract of Khaibar continued) till ‘Umar evacuated the Jews (from Khaibar).
38 - THE BOOK OF AL-ḤAWĀLAT

(1) CHAPTER. Al-Ḥawāla (the transference of a debt from one person to another. It is an agreement whereby a debtor is released from a debt by another becoming responsible for it).

Can Ḥawāla be rejected by the creditors after accepting it?

Al-Ḥasan and Qatāda said, “If the transferee was rich when the debt was transferred, the agreement is final and irrevocable by the creditor.”

Ibn ‘Abbās said, “When two partners disassociate and one of them accepts assets while the other accepts debts as a part of his share, if the debts could not be collected (because of the death of the debtor, his bankruptcy, or his denial of the debt, etc.), the one who has accepted the debts would have no right to demand any compensation from his partner.” This is applied also in setting the affairs of inheritors.

2287. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Procrastination (delay) in paying debts by a wealthy man is injustice. So, if your debt is transferred from your debtor to a rich debtor, you should agree.”(1)

(2) CHAPTER. If somebody’s debt are transferred to a rich debtor, the Ḥawāla

(1) (H. 2287) As the postponement of paying debts by a rich person is injustice, one should accept Ḥawāla upon that man, for one may be better able to collect the debt from the rich man than the transferor. Thus, by accepting the Ḥawāla one helps the rich man to avoid injustice. (Fath Al-Bārī).
is irrevocable...

2288. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Procrastination (delay) in paying debts by a wealthy person is injustice. So, if your debts is transferred from your debtor to a rich debtor, you should agree.”

(3) CHAPTER. If the debts due on a dead person are transferred to somebody, the transference is legal and valid.

2289. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa': Once, while we were sitting in the company of Prophet ﷺ, a dead body was brought. The Prophet ﷺ was requested to lead the funeral Šalāt (prayer) for the deceased. He said, “Is he in debt?” The people replied in the negative. He said, “Has he left any wealth?” They said, “No.” So, he led his funeral prayer. Another dead person was brought and the people said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Lead his funeral Šalāt (prayer).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Is he in debt?” They said, “Yes.” He said, “Has he left any wealth?” They said, “Three Dinâr.” So, he led the funeral prayer. Then a third dead person was brought and the people said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “Please lead his funeral Šalāt (prayer).” He said, “Has he left any wealth?” They said, “No.” He asked, “Is he in debt?” They said, (“Yes! He has to pay) three Dinâr.” He [refused to offer funeral Šalāt (prayer) and] said, “Then offer Šalāt (prayer) for your (dead) companion.” Abu Qatâda said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Lead his funeral prayer, and I will pay his debt.” So, he led the Šalāt (prayer).
39 – THE BOOK OF AL-KAFALA

(1) CHAPTER. Al-Kafala (i.e., the pledge given by somebody to the creditor to guarantee that the debtor will be present at a certain specific place to pay his debt or fine, or to undergo a punishment, etc.) in loans and debts with oneself or other things (e.g., one’s money).

2290. Narrated Muḥammad bin ‘Amr Al-Aslamī that his father Ḥamza said: ‘Umar sent him (i.e., Ḥamza) as a Ṣadaqa/Zakāt collector. A man had committed illegal sexual intercourse with the slave-girl of his wife. Ḥamza took (personal) sureties for the adulterer till they came to ‘Umar. ‘Umar had lashed the adulterer one hundred lashes. ‘Umar confirmed their claim (that the adulterer had already been punished) and excused him because of being ignorant. (1)

Jarīr Al-Ash’ath said to Ibn Mas‘ūd regarding renegades (i.e., those who became infidels after embracing Islam), “Let them repent and take (personal) sureties for them.” They repented and their relatives stood sureties for them. (2)

(1) (H. 2290) This is an abridged version of a long story which goes: ‘Umar sent Ḥamza to collect Zakāt. A man argued with his wife before Ḥamza. He told her to pay the Zakāt of the wealth of her slave-girl’s son, while she told him to pay the Zakāt of his son’s wealth. Ḥamza asked what the matter was. He was told that the man was the husband of that woman and that he had committed illegal sexual intercourse with her slave-girl who gave birth to a boy. The woman manumitted the boy who inherited the wealth from his mother. On hearing the story, Ḥamza said to the man, “I will definitely stone you (in punishment of the crime).” The people said, “The case had been taken to ‘Umar (the caliph) who gave him one hundred lashes but did not sentence him to stoning.” Somebody stood surety for the man. When Ḥamza came to ‘Umar, ‘Umar confirmed their claim and said that he had not stoned him, because he had committed illegal sexual intercourse ignorantly (i.e., he thought that it was legal for him to have sexual relation with his wife’s slave-girl).

(Ibid p. 374).

(2) (Ch. 2290) The story of the renegades was narrated by Hāritha bin Madrab, who=
According to Hammād, if somebody stands surety for another person and that person dies, the person giving surety will be released from responsibility. According to Al-Ḥakam, his responsibility continues.

2291. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "An Iṣrailā man asked another Iṣrailā to lend him one thousand Dinār. The second man required witnesses. The former replied, 'Allāh is sufficient as a witness.' The second said, 'I want a surety.' The former replied, 'Allāh is sufficient as a surety.' The second said, 'You are right,' and lent him the money for a certain period. The debtor went across the sea. When he finished his job, he searched for a conveyance so that he might reach in time for the repayment of the debt, but he could not find any. So, he took a piece of wood and made a hole in it, inserted in it one thousand Dinār and a letter to the lender and then closed (i.e., sealed) the hole tightly. He took the piece of wood to the sea and said, 'O Allāh! You know well that I took a loan of one thousand Dinār from so-and-so. He demanded a surety from me but I told him that Allāh's Guarantee was sufficient and he accepted Your Guarantee. He then asked for a witness and I told him that Allāh was sufficient as a witness. No doubt, I have tried hard to find a conveyance so that I could pay back his money but could not find, so I hand over this money to You.' Saying that, he threw the piece of wood into the sea.
the sea till it went out far into it, and then he went away. Meanwhile he started searching for a conveyance in order to reach the creditor's country. One day the lender came out of his house to see whether a ship had arrived bringing his money, and all of a sudden he saw the piece of wood in which his money had been deposited. He took it home to use as fire-wood. When he sawed it, he found his money and the letter inside it. Shortly after that, the debtor came bringing one thousand Dinār to him and said, 'By Allah, I had been trying hard to get a boat so that I could bring you your money, but failed to get one before the one I have come by.' The lender asked, 'Have you sent something to me?' The debtor replied, 'I have told you I could not get a boat other than the one I have come by.' The lender said, 'Allāh has delivered on your behalf the money you sent in the piece of wood. So, you may keep your one thousand Dinār and depart, guided on the right path'."

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

(2) "...To those also with whom you have made a pledge (brotherhood), give them their due portion by Wasiyya (wills)...

(V. 4:33)"
made a pledge," Ibn 'Abbās said, "When the emigrants came to the Prophet in Al-Madīna, the emigrant would inherit the Ansārī, while the latter's relatives would not inherit him because of the bond of brotherhood which the Prophet established between them (i.e., the emigrants and the Ansār). When the Verse: 'And to everyone We have appointed heirs' (V.4:33) was revealed, it cancelled [the bond (the pledge) of brotherhood regarding inheritance]." Then he said, "The verse: 'To those also with whom you have made a pledge (brotherhood) remained valid regarding co-operation and mutual advice, while the matter of inheritance was excluded; and it became permissible to assign something in one's testament to the person who had had the right of inheriting before.

2293. Narrated Anas: 'Abdur-Rahmān bin 'Auf came to us and Allah's Messenger established a bond of brotherhood between him and Sa'd bin Rabī'.

2294. Narrated 'Āṣim: I asked Anas bin Mālik (saying): "Have you been conveyed (or ever heard) that the Prophet said, 'There is no alliance in Islām'?" He replied, "The Prophet made alliance between Quraish and the Ansār in my house."
(3) CHAPTER. He who undertakes to repay the debts of a dead person has not the right to change his mind.

Al-Hasan said the same.

2295. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa': A dead person was brought to the Prophet so that he might lead the funeral prayer for him. He asked, "Is he in debt?" When the people replied in the negative, he led the funeral prayer. Another dead person was brought and he asked, "Is he in debt?" They said, "Yes." He (refused to lead the prayer and) said, "Lead the prayer of your friend." Abú Qatada said, "O Allâh's Messenger! I undertake to pay his debt." Allâh's Messenger then led his funeral prayer.

2296. Narrated Jâbir bin 'Abdullâh: Once the Prophet said (to me), "If the money of Bahraín comes, I will give you so much and so much (a certain amount from it)." The Prophet had breathed his last before the money of Bahraín arrived. When the money of Bahraín reached, Abû Bakr announced, "Whoever was promised by the Prophet should come to us." I went to Abû Bakr and said, "The Prophet promised me so-and-so." Abû Bakr gave me a handful of coins and asked me to count it. When I counted them, they were five hundred in number. Abû Bakr then said, "Take twice the amount you have taken (besides)."

(4) CHAPTER. The pledge of protection given to Abû Bakr (by someone) during the 2297.Narrated ‘Aishah, wife of the Prophet: Since I reached the age when I could remember things, I have seen my parents worshipping according to the right faith of Islam. Not a single day passed but Allah’s Messenger visited us, both in the morning and in the evening. When the Muslims were persecuted, Abu Bakr set out for Ethiopia as an emigrant. When he reached a place called Bark-al-Qimad, he met Ibn Ad-Daghina, the chief of the Qara tribe, who asked Abu Bakr, “Where are you going?” Abu Bakr said, “My people have turned me out of the country and I would like to tour the world and worship my Lord.” Ibn Ad-Daghina said, “A man like you will not go out, nor will he be turned out as you help the poor earn their living, keep good relation with your kith and kin, help the disabled (or the dependents), provide guests with food and shelter, and help people during their troubles. I am your protector. So, go back and worship your Lord at your home.” Ibn Ad-Daghina went along with Abu Bakr and took him to the chiefs of Quraish saying to them, “A man like Abu Bakr will not go out, nor will he be turned out. Do you turn out a man who helps the poor earn their living, keeps good relations with kith and kin, helps the disabled, provides guests with food and shelter, and helps the people during their troubles?” So, Quraish allowed Ibn Ad-Daghina’s guarantee of protection and told Abu Bakr that he was secure, and said to Ibn Ad-Daghina, “Advise Abu Bakr to worship his Lord in his house and to offer prayer and read what he liked and not to hurt us and not to do these things publicly, for we fear that our sons and women may follow him.” Ibn Ad-Daghina told Abu Bakr of all that. So, Abu Bakr continued worshipping his Lord in his house and did not offer Salât (prayer) or recite Qur'ân aloud except in his house. Later on Abû Bakr had an idea of building a mosque in the courtyard of his house. He fulfilled that idea and started offering Salât (prayer) and reciting Qur'ân there publicly. The women and the offspring of the Mushrikun(1) started gathering around him and looking at him in astonishment. Abû Bakr was a softhearted person and could not help weeping while reciting Qur'ân. This horrified the Mushrik chiefs of Quraish. They sent for Ibn Ad-Dagina and when he came, they said, “We have given Abû Bakr protection on condition that he will worship his Lord in his house, but he has transgressed that condition and has built a mosque in the courtyard of his house and offered his Salât and recited Qur'ân in public. We are afraid lest he mislead our women and offspring. So, go to him and tell him that if he wishes he can worship his Lord in his house only, and if not, then tell him to return your pledge of protection as we do not like to betray you by revoking your pledge, nor can we tolerate Abû Bakr’s declaration of Islam (his worshipping) in public.”

‘Aishah added: Ibn Ad-Daghina came to Abû Bakr and said, “You know the conditions on which I gave you protection, so you should either abide by those conditions or revoke my protection, as I do not like to hear the Arabs saying that Ibn Ad-Daghina gave the pledge of protection to a person and his people did not respect it.” Abû Bakr said, “I revoke your pledge of protection and am satisfied with Allah’s Protection.” At that time Allah’s Messenger was still in Makkah and he said to his Companions, “Your place of

(1) (H. 2297) Al-Mushrikûn: Polytheists, pagans, idolators, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (µ)} emigration has been shown to me. I have seen salty land, planted with date-palms and situated between two mountains which are the two Ḥarra." So, when the Prophet ﷺ told it, some of the companions migrated to Al-Madīna, and some of those who had migrated to Ethiopia returned to Al-Madīna. When Abū Bakr prepared for emigration, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to him, “Wait, for I expect to be permitted to emigrate.” Abū Bakr asked, “May my father be sacrificed for your sake, do you really expect that?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ replied in the affirmative. So, Abū Bakr postponed his departure in order to accompany Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, and fed two camels which he had with the leaves of Samur trees for four months.

(5) CHAPTER. The debts.

2298. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Whenever a dead man in debt was brought to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ (for funeral prayer) he would ask, “Has he left anything to repay his debt?” If he was informed that he had left something to repay his debts, he would offer his funeral prayer, otherwise he would tell the Muslims to offer their friend’s funeral prayer. When Allâh made the Prophet ﷺ wealthy through conquests, he said, “I am more rightful than other believers to be the guardian of the believers, so if a Muslim dies while in debt, I am responsible for the repayment of his debt, and whoever leaves wealth (after his death) it will belong to his heirs.”
(1) CHAPTER. A partner can deputize for another while distributing things etc.

No doubt, the Prophet \( \text{ŋ} \) shared his \textit{Hady} (i.e., sacrificing animals) with ‘Ali and then ordered ‘Ali to distribute them.

2299. Narrated ‘Ali رضي الله عنه: \textit{Allāh’s Messenger} \( \text{ŋ} \) ordered me to distribute the saddles and skins of the \textit{Budn} which I had slaughtered.

2300. Narrated ‘Uqba bin ‘Amir that the Prophet ﷺ had given him sheep to distribute among his companions and a male kid was left (after the distribution). When he informed the Prophet ﷺ of it, he said (to him), “Offer it as a sacrifice on your behalf.”

(2) CHAPTER. If a Muslim deputizes a non-Muslim warrior in a country of infidelity or in a Muslim state, the contract is valid.

2301. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Auf رضي الله عنه: I got an agreement written between me and Umaiyya bin Khalaf that Umaiyya would look after my property (or family) in Makkah and I would look after his in Al-Madīna. When I mentioned the word ‘Ar-Rahmān’ in the documents Umaiyya said, “I do not know ‘Ar-Rahmān.’ Write down to me your name, (with which you called yourself) in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance.” So, I wrote my name “Abdu ‘Amr’. On the day (of the battle) of Badr, when all the people went to sleep, I went up the hill to protect him. Bilāl(1) saw him (i.e., Umaiyya) and went to a gathering of Anṣār and said, “(Here is) Umaiyya bin Khalaf! ‘I will not be saved if Umaiyya is saved’. (Woe to me if he escapes)!” So, a group of Anṣār went out with Billāl to follow us (‘Abdur-Rahmān and Umaiyya). Being afraid that they would catch us, I left Umaiyya’s son for them to keep them busy but the Anṣār killed the son and insisted on following us. Umaiyya was a fat man, and when they approached us, I told him to kneel down, and he knelt, and I laid myself on him to protect him, but the Anṣār killed him by passing their swords underneath me, and one of them injured my foot with his sword. (The subnarrator said, “Abdur Rahmān used to show us the trace of the wound on the back of his foot.”)

(3) CHAPTER. To deputize one in exchanging money and weighing goods.

‘Umar and Ibn ‘Umar deputized (a person) in money exchanges.

2302, 2303. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī and Abū Hurairah:

(1) (H. 2301) Umaiyya used to torture Bilāl severely when he was in Makkah because he had embraced Islām.
Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ employed someone as a governor at Khaibar. When the man came to Al-Madina, he brought with him dates called Janīb. The Prophet ﷺ asked him, “Are all the dates of Khaibar of this kind?” The man replied, “(No), we exchange two Sā’ of bad dates for one Sā’ of this kind of dates (i.e., Janīb), or exchange three Sā’ for two.” On that, the Prophet ﷺ said, “Don’t do so, as it is a kind of Ribā (usury) but sell the dates of inferior quality for money, and then buy Janīb with the money.” The Prophet ﷺ said the same thing about dates sold by weight.

[See Hadith No.2312].

(4) CHAPTER. If a shepherd or a deputy saw a dying sheep or something which is going to be spoiled, he is allowed to slaughter the sheep and save the thing liable to be spoiled.

2304. Narrated Ka‘b bin Mālik: We had some sheep which used to graze at Sal‘. One of our slave-girls saw a sheep dying and she broke a stone and slaughtered the sheep with it. He (my father) said to them (the people), “Don’t eat it till I ask the Prophet ﷺ about it (or till I send somebody to ask the Prophet ﷺ).” So, he asked or sent somebody to ask the Prophet ﷺ, and the Prophet ﷺ permitted them to eat it. ‘Ubaidullah (a subnarrator) said, “I admire that girl, for though she was a slave-girl, she dared to slaughter the sheep.”
(5) CHAPTER. It is permissible to depute a person whether he is present or absent.

‘Ubaidullāh bin ‘Amr wrote to his representative who was not present, to pay (Sadaqat-al-Fitr) on behalf of the children both young and old.

2305. Narrated Ābu Hurairah ra:
The Prophet ﷺ owed somebody a camel of a certain age. When he came to demand it back, the Prophet ﷺ said (to some people), “Give him (his due).” When the people searched for a camel of that age, they found none, but found a camel one year older. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Give (it to) him.” On that, the man remarked, “You have given me my right in full. May Allāh give you in full.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “The best amongst you is the one who pays the rights of others generously.”

(6) CHAPTER. To depute a person to repay debts.

2306. Narrated Ābu Hurairah ra:
A man came to the Prophet ﷺ demanding his debts and behaved rudely. The Companions of the Prophet ﷺ intended to harm him, but Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said (to them), “Leave him, for the creditor (i.e., owner of a right) has the right to speak.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ then said, “Give him a camel of the same age as that of his.” The people said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! There is only a camel that is older and better than his.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Give (it to) him, for the best amongst you is he who pays the rights of others generously.”
(7) CHAPTER. It is permissible for one to give a gift to a deputy (of some people) or to their intercessor.

This is confirmed by the statement of the Prophet ﷺ to the delegates of the tribe of Hawâzin when they appealed to him to return the booty to them. The Prophet ﷺ said, “I give my share to you.”

2307, 2308. Narrated Marwân bin Al-Ḥakam and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: When the delegates of the tribe of Hawâzin after embracing Islam, came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, he got up. They appealed to him to return their properties and their captives. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said to them, “The most beloved statement to me is the true one. So, you have the option of restoring your properties or your captives, for I have delayed distributing them.” (The narrator added), Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had been waiting for them for more than ten days on his return from Taif. When they realized that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ would return to them only one of the two things, they said, “We choose our captives.” So, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ got up in the gathering of the Muslims, praised Allah as He deserved, and said, “Then after! These brothers of yours have come to you with repentance (asking for Allah’s Forgiveness) and I see it proper to return their captives to them. So, whoever amongst you likes to do that as a favour, then he can do it, and whoever of you wants to stick to his share till we pay him from the very first booty which Allah will give us then he can do so.” The people replied, “We agree to give up our shares willingly as a favour for Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.” Then Allah’s Messenger said, “We don’t know who amongst you has agreed and who has not. Go back and your chiefs may tell us your opinion.” So, all of them returned and their chiefs discussed the matter with them and then they (i.e., their chiefs) came to Allah’s Messenger to tell him that they (i.e., the people) had given up their shares gladly and willingly.

(8) CHAPTER. If someone deputes a person to give something but does not mention how much to give, it is permissible for the deputy to distribute it amongst the people according to the conventional custom.

2309. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh : I was accompanying the Prophet on a journey and was riding a slow camel that was lagging behind the others. The Prophet passed by me and asked, “Who is this?” I replied, “Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh.” He asked, “What is the matter, (why are you late)?” I replied, “I am riding a slow camel.” He asked, “Do you have a stick?” I replied in the affirmative. He said, “Give it to me.” When I gave it to him, he beat the camel and rebuked it. Then that camel surpassed the others thenceforth. The Prophet said, “Sell it to me.” I replied, “It is (a gift) for you, O Allah’s Messenger.” He said, “Sell it to me. I have bought it for four Dinār (gold pieces) and you can keep on riding it till Al-Madīna.” When we approached Al-Madīna, I started going (towards my house). The Prophet ﷺ said, “Where are you going?” I said, “I have married a widow.” He said, “Well done.” When we reached Al-Madīna, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O Bilāl, pay him (the price of the camel) and give him extra money.” Bilāl gave me four Dinār and one Qirāt extra. (A from me.” The Qirāt was always in Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh’s purse.\(^{(1)}\)

(9) CHAPTER. A woman can depute the ruler in the matter of marriage.

2310. Narrated Sahl binSa’d: A woman came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I want to give up myself to you.” A man said, “Marry her to me.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “We agree to marry her to you with what you know of the Qur’ān by heart.”

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 2309) The Prophet ﷺ did not mention how much extra money Bilāl was to give, so Bilāl gave according to convention.
(10) CHAPTER. If a person deputes somebody, and the deputy leaves something, and the owner agrees that, then it is allowed, and if the deputy lends something of what is in his custody, for a specific time, it is permissible (if the owner agrees).

2311.Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ deputed me to keep Sadaqat (Al-Fitr) of Ramadān. A comer(1) came and started taking handfuls of the food stuff (of the Sadaqa) (stealthily). I took hold of him and said, “By Allah, I will take you to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.” He said, “I am needy and have many dependents, and I am in great need.” I released him, and in the morning Allah’s Messenger ﷺ asked me, “What did your prisoner do yesterday?”(2) I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The person complained of being needy and of having many dependents, so, I pitied him and let him go.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Indeed, he told you a lie and he will be coming again.” I believed that he would show up again as Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had told me that he would return. So, I waited for him watchfully. When he (showed up and) started stealing handfuls of foodstuff, I caught hold of him again and said, “I will definitely take you to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.” He said, “Leave me, for I am very needy and have many dependents. I promise I will not come

(1) (H.2311) Comer: Satan
(2) (H.2311) Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was inspired Divinely about the whole story and this was the reason why he asked Abū Hurairah, though Abū Hurairah had told him nothing.
back again.” I pitied him and let him go. In the morning Allâh’s Messenger asked me, “What did your prisoner do?” I replied, “O Allâh’s Messenger! He complained of his great need and of too many dependents, so I took pity on him and set him free.” Allâh’s Messenger said, “Verily, he told you a lie and he will return.” I waited for him attentively for the third time, and when he (came and) started stealing handfuls of the foodstuff, I caught hold of him and said, “I will surely take you to Allâh’s Messenger as at the third time you promise not to return, yet you break your promise and come.” He said, “(Forgive me and) I will teach you some words with which Allâh will benefit you.” I asked, “What are they?” He replied, “Whenever you go to bed, recite Ayat-al-Kursî – ‘Allâhu la ilâhâ illâ Huwal-Hâyi-ul Qâiyûm’(1) till you finish the whole Verse. (if you do so), Allâh will appoint a guard for you who will stay with you and no satan will come near you till morning”. So, I released him. In the morning, Allâh’s Messenger asked, “What did your prisoner do yesterday?” I replied, “He claimed that he would teach me some words by which Allâh will benefit me, so I let him go.” Allâh’s Messenger asked, “What are they?” I replied, “He said to me, ‘Whenever you go to bed, recite Ayat-al-Kursî from the beginning to the end – Allâhu la ilâhâ illâ Huwal-Hâyi-ul Qâiyûm’. ’.” He further said to me, ‘(If you do so), Allâh will appoint a guard for you who will stay with you, and no satan will come near you till morning.’ [Abû Hurairah or another subnarrator) added that they (the Companions) were very eager to do good deeds]. The Prophet said, “He really spoke the truth, although he is an absolute liar. Do you know whom you were talking to, these three nights, O Abū Hurairah?” Abū Hurairah said, “No.” He said, “It was Satan.”

11) CHAPTER. If a deputy sells something (in an illegal manner), the transaction is invalid.

2312. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd al-Khudrī: Once Bilāl brought Barnī (i.e., a kind of dates) to the Prophet and the Prophet asked him, “From where have you brought these?” Bilāl replied, “I had some inferior type of dates and exchanged two Sā‘ of it for one Sā‘ of Barnī (dates) in order to give it to the Prophet to eat.” Thereupon the Prophet said, “Beware! Beware! This is definitely Riba’ (usury)! This is definitely Riba’ (usury). ! Don’t do so, but if you want to buy (a superior kind of dates), sell the inferior kind of dates for money and then buy the superior kind of dates with that money.”

12) CHAPTER. The deputyship for managing the Waqf (religious endowment) and the expenses of the trustee. The trustee can provide his friends from it and he himself can eat from it reasonably (according to his work).

2313. Narrated ‘Amr concerning the Waqf of ‘Umar: It was not sinful of the trustee (of the Waqf) to eat or provide his friends from it, provided the trustee had no intention of collecting fortune (for himself). Ibn 'Umar was the manager of the trust of 'Umar and he used to give presents from it to those with whom he used to stay at Makkah.

(13) CHAPTER. To depute a person to carry out a (legal) Allah's ordained punishment.

2314, 2315. Narrated Zaid bin Khalid and Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “O Unais! Go to the wife of this (man) and if she confesses (that she has committed illegal sexual intercourse), then stone her to death.”

2316. Narrated 'Uqba bin Al-Hārith: When An-Nuaimān or his son was brought in a state of drunkenness, Allah's Messenger ordered all those who were present in the house to beat him. I was one of those who beat him. We beat him with shoes and palm-leaf stalks.
(14) CHAPTER. To depute someone to sacrifice Budn (camels for sacrifice) and to look after them.

2317. Narrated 'Aishah Allah's Mother: I twisted the garlands of the Hady (i.e., animals for sacrifice) of Allah's Messenger ﷺ with my own hands. Then Allah's Messenger ﷺ put them around their necks with his own hands, and sent them with my father (to Makkah). Nothing legal was regarded illegal for Allah's Messenger ﷺ till the animals were slaughtered.\(^{(1)}\)

(15) CHAPTER. If a person tells his deputy, "Spend it as Allah directs you," and the deputy says, "I have heard what you have said."

2318. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Abū Talḥa was the richest man in Al-Madina amongst the Ansār, and Beeruba' (garden) was the most beloved of his property, and it was situated opposite the mosque (of the Prophet ﷺ). Allah's Messenger ﷺ used to enter it and drink from its sweet water. When the following Divine Verse was revealed: "By no means shall you attain Al-Bīrār (piety, righteousness, here it means Allah's Reward i.e., Paradise), till you spend (in Allah's Cause) of that which you love..." (V.3:92) Abū Talḥa got up in front of Allah's Messenger ﷺ and said, "O Allah's

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 2317) Sending the Hady to Makkah while one is somewhere else, does not require that one should be treated as a Muhārim.\[^{291}\]
Messenger! Allah says in his Book, ‘By no mean shall you attain Al-Birr (piety, righteousness, etc., – here it means Allah’s Reward i.e., Paradise) unless you spend (in Allah’s Cause) of that which you love...’ and verily, the most beloved to me of my property is Bairubah (garden), so I give it in charity and hope for its reward from Allah. O Allah’s Messenger! Spend it wherever you like.” Allah’s Messenger appreciated that and said, “That is perishable wealth! That is perishable wealth! I have heard what you have said; I suggest you to distribute it among your relatives.”(1) Abú Talha said, “I will do so, O Allah’s Messenger.” So, Abú Talha distributed it among his relatives and cousins. The subnarrator (Málik) said, the Prophet said: “That is a profitable wealth,” instead of “perishable wealth.”

(16) CHAPTER. To depute a trustworthy treasurer for the treasury and similar things.

2319. Narrated Abu Müsa ji: The Prophet said, “An honest treasurer who gives what he is ordered to give fully, perfectly and willingly to the person to whom he is ordered to give, is regarded as one of the two charitable persons.”(2)

(1) (H. 2318) That is perishable wealth and it is better for you to spend it in charity whereby you will get what will be imperishable (i.e., Allah’s Reward).
(2) (H. 2319) The owner is the other charitable person.
41 - THE BOOK OF CULTIVATION AND AGRICULTURE

(1) CHAPTER. The superiority of sowing seeds and planting trees if some of the product is eaten (by people or animals).

The Statement of Allah (SwT): "Then tell Me about the seed that you sow in the ground, is it you that make it to grow, or are We the grower? Were it Our Will, We could crumble it to dry pieces..." (V.56: 63-65)

2320. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "There is none amongst the Muslims who plants a tree or sows seeds, and then a bird, or a person or an animal eats from it, but is regarded as a charitable gift for him."

2321. It is narrated that Abû Umâma al-Bahhîthi saw some agricultural equipments and said, "I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying: "There is no house in which these equipment enter except that Allah will cause humiliation to enter it.'"

(2) CHAPTER. What is to be afraid of the results of indulging in the agricultural mechanical equipment, or to transgress the prescribed limits.

2322. It is narrated that Abû Umâma al-Bahhîthi saw some agricultural equipments and said, "I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying: "There is no house in which these equipment enter except that Allah will cause humiliation to enter it.'"
(3) CHAPTER. Keeping a watch-dog for the farm.

2322. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "Whoever keeps a dog, one Qirāt (of the reward) of his good deeds is deducted daily, unless the dog is used for guarding a farm or cattle."

Abū Hurairah (in another quotation) said: “The Prophet said, “… unless it is (used) for (guarding) sheep or farms, or for hunting.”

Abū Hurairah added: The Prophet said, “… unless a dog is kept (for guarding) cattle or for hunting.”

2323. Narrated As-Sa'ib bin Yazid: Abu Sufyān bin Abū Zuhair, a man from Azd Shamlʿa and one of the Companions of the Prophet said, "I heard Allah's Messenger saying, 'If one keeps a dog which is meant for guarding neither a farm nor cattle will get a daily deduction of one Qirāt of the reward of his good deeds.'"

=oppression and humiliation, especially under the feudal system. By indulging in this work, one may neglect Jihad in Allah's Cause and other important Allah's Obligations. It is also said that this Hadith is concerned with those living near the enemies: If they got busy in agriculture and left Jihad, the enemies might overcome and humiliate them. Of course, the Hadith should not be taken literally. Farming is not undesirable in itself but we should beware the results of indulging too much in it. (Fath Al-Bāri)
I asked, “Did you hear this from Allâh’s Messenger؟” He said, “Yes, by the Lord of this mosque.”

(4) CHAPTER. Employing oxen for ploughing.

2324. Narrated Abû Hurairah Z: The Prophet said, “While a man was riding a cow, it turned towards him and said, ‘I have not been created for this purpose (i.e., carrying), I have been created for ploughing.’” The Prophet added, “I, Abû Bakr and ‘Umar believe in this story.” The Prophet further said, “A wolf caught a sheep, and when the shepherd chased it, the wolf said, ‘Who will be its guard on the day of wild beasts, when there will be no shepherd for it except I?’” After narrating it, the Prophet said, “I, Abû Bakr and ‘Umar too believe it.” (Abû Salama (a subnarrator) said, “Abû Bakr and ‘Umar were not present then.”)

---

(1) (H. 2324) The Prophet talked on behalf of Abû Bakr and ‘Umar, because he was sure that they would believe the story when they heard it.

(2) (H. 2324) It has been written that a wolf also spoke to a shepherd during the Prophet’s lifetime near Al-Madîna as narrated in Musnad Imâm Ahmad in the Musnad of Abû Sa’îd Al-Khûdri (Vol. 3): Narrated Abû Sa’îd Al-Khûdri (Vol. 3): Narrated Abû Sa’îd Al-Khûdri (Vol. 3): Narrated Abû Sa’îd Al-Khûdri (Vol. 3): Narrated Abû Sa’îd Al-Khûdri

(3) (H. 2324) The Prophet talked on behalf of Abû Bakr and ‘Umar, because he was sure that they would believe the story when they heard it.
41 - THE BOOK OF CULTIVATION AND AGRICULTURE

(5) CHAPTER. (It is permissible for one) to say to another, “Look after my date-palm trees or other trees and share the fruits with me.”

2325. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Ansār said to the Prophet ﷺ, “Distribute the date-palm trees between us and our emigrant brothers.” He replied, “No.” The Ansār said (to the emigrants), “Look after the trees (water and watch them) and share the fruits with us.” The emigrants said, “We listen and obey.”

(6) CHAPTER. The cutting of trees and date-palm trees.

Anas said, “The Prophet ﷺ ordered that the date-palm trees be cut down and they were cut down.”

2326. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet ﷺ got the date-palm trees of the tribe of Bani An-Nādīr burnt and the trees cut down at a place called Al-Buwaira. Ḥassān bin Thabit said in a poetic verse:

=the shepherd to inform the people (about his story) and he informed them. Then Allāh’s Messenger said: “He (the shepherd) has spoken the truth. By Him (Allāh) in Whose Hands my soul is, the Day of Resurrection will not be established till beasts of prey (سَعَةٍ) speak to the human beings, and the stick lash and the shoe-laces of a person speak to him and his thigh informs him about his family as to what happened to them after him [(Musnad Imām Ahmad, Vol. 3, in the Musnad of Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri]. (See H. 3663).

(1) (Ch. 6) The date-palm trees referred here to are those of the mosque of the Prophet which were cut down during its construction.
"The chiefs of Bani Lu’ai found it easy to watch fire spreading at Al-Buwaira."(1)

(7) CHAPTER:

2327. Narrated Rafi’ bin Khadij: We worked on farms more than anybody else in Al-Madina. We used to rent the land at the yield of specific delimited portion of it to be given to the landlord. Sometimes the vegetation of that portion was affected by blights etc., while the rest remained safe and vice versa, so the Prophet forbade this practice. At that time gold or silver were not used (for renting the land).

(8) CHAPTER. Temporary share-cropping contract on the basis of dividing the yield into halves, one for each partner or on other basis.

Narrated Abù Ja’far: All the emigrants in Al-Madina used to cultivate the land (for the Ansâr) on the condition of having one-third or one-fourth of the yield. ‘Ali, Sa’d bin Malik, ‘Abdullâh bin Mas‘ûd, ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul ‘Aziz, Al-Qâsim, ‘Urwa and the families of Abû Bakr, of ‘Umar and of ‘Ali, and Ibn Sîrîn cultivated the land of ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Yazîd on the basis of taking a portion of the yield." ‘Umar made a deal with the people that if he provided the seeds,

(1) (H. 2326) The trees were burnt and the palm trees were cut down to make an open space for fighting.
he would get half of the yield, and if they provided the seeds, they would get so-and-so much. Al-Ḥasan said, “There is no harm if the land belongs to one, but both spend on it and the yield is divided between them.” Az-Zuhri had the same opinion. Al-Ḥasan said, “There is no harm if cotton is picked on the condition of having half the yield.” Ibrāhim, Ibn Sirīn, ‘Atā, Al-Ḥakam, Az-Zuhri and Qatāda said, “There is no harm in giving the yarn to the weaver to weave into cloth on the basis that one-third of the cloth is given to the weaver for his labour.” Maʿmar said, “There is no harm in hiring animals for a definite (fixed) period on the basis that one-third or one-fourth of the products carried by the animals is given to the owner of the animals.”

2328. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: The Prophet concluded a contract with the people of Khāibar to utilize the land on the condition that half the products of fruits or vegetation would be their share. The Prophet used to give his wives one hundred Wasq each, eighty Wasq of dates and twenty Wasq of barley. (When ‘Umar became the caliph) he gave the wives of the Prophet the option of either having the land and water as their shares, or carrying on the previous practice. Some of them chose the land and some chose the Wasq, and ‘Aishah chose the land.
(9) CHAPTER. When no period is specified in the contract of share-cropping.

2329. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar:
The Prophet made a deal with the people of Khaibar that they would have half the fruits and vegetation of the land they cultivated.

(10) CHAPTER:

2330. Narrated ‘Amr: I said to Tawús, “I wish you would give up Mukhābara (share-cropping), for the people say that the Prophet forbade it.” On that Tawús replied, “O ‘Amr! I give the land to sharecroppers and help them. No doubt; the most learned man, namely Ibn ‘Abbás told me that the Prophet had not forbidden it (i.e., Al-Mukhābara) but said, ‘It is more beneficial for one to give his land free to one’s brother than to charge him a fixed rental.’”

(11) CHAPTER. Share-cropping with the Jews.

2331. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger gave the land of Khāibar to the Jews on the condition that they work on it and cultivate it, and be given half of its yield.

---

(1) (H. 2330) Sharecropping is not forbidden, but it is recommended that one should let his Muslim brethren utilize one’s own land without charging them anything.
(12) CHAPTER. What conditions are disliked in share-cropping.

2332. Narrated Râfî': We worked on farms more than anybody else in Al-Madîna. We used to rent the land and say to the owner, "The yield of this portion is for us and the yield of that portion is for you (as the rent)." One of those portions might yield something and the other might not. So, the Prophet forbade us to do so.

(13) CHAPTER. If a person invests the money of someone else in cultivation without taking his permission and the enterprise effects profit, (to whom will the profit belong?).

2333. Narrated 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar: The Prophet said, "While three men were walking, it started raining and they took shelter (refuge) in a cave in a mountain. A big rock rolled down from the mountain and closed the mouth of the cave. They said to each other, 'Think of good deeds which you did for Allah's sake only, and invoke Allah by giving reference to those deeds so that He may remove this rock from you.' One of them said, 'O Allah! I had old parents and small children and I used to graze the sheep for them. On my return to them in the evening, I used to milk (the sheep) and start providing my parents first of all before my children. One day I was delayed and came late at night and found my parents sleeping. I milked (the sheep) as usual and stood by their heads. I hated to wake them up and disliked to give milk to my children before them, although my children were weeping (because of hunger) at my feet till the day dawned. O Allâh! If I did this for Your sake only, kindly remove the rock so that we could see the sky through it.' So, Allâh removed the rock a little and they saw the sky. The second man said, 'O Allâh! I was in love with a cousin of mine like the deepest love a man may have for a woman. I wanted to outrage her chastity but she refused unless I gave her one-hundred Dinâr. So, I struggled to collect that amount. And when I sat between her legs, she said: O Allâh’s slave! Be afraid of Allâh and do not deflower me except rightfully (by legal marriage). So, I got up. O Allâh! If I did it for Your sake only, please remove the rock.' The rock shifted a little more. Then the third man said, ‘O Allâh! I employed a labourer for a Faraq of rice and when he finished his job and demanded his right, I presented it to him, but he refused to take it. So, I sowed the rice many time till I gathered cows and their shepherd (from the yield). (Then after some time) he came and said to me: Fear Allâh (and give me my right). I said: Go and take those cows and the shepherd. He said: Be afraid of Allâh! Don't mock at me. I said: I am not mocking at you. Take (all that). So, he took all that. O Allâh! If I did that for Your sake only, please remove the rest of the rock.' So, Allâh removed the rock.”

41 - THE BOOK OF CULTIVATION AND AGRICULTURE

(14) CHAPTER. The Auqāf (i.e., endowments) of the companions of the Prophet ﷺ and the land of Kharāj (Zakāt), the contracts of share-cropping and other agreements of the companions.

The Prophet ﷺ said to 'Umar, “Give those trees as a whole in charity (as Waqf) so that those might not be sold but their fruits can be spent and given in charity.” So, 'Umar gave those trees in charity.

2334. Narrated Zaid bin Aslam on the authority of his father: 'Umar ﷺ said, “But for the future Muslim generations, I would have distributed the land of the villages I conquer among the soldiers as the Prophet ﷺ distributed the land of Khaibar.” (1)

(15) CHAPTER. Whoever cultivates neglected uncultivated land belonging to nobody (will own it).

‘Ali رضي الله عنه had the same opinion concerning such land in Kufa. 'Umar said, “Whoever cultivates uncultivated land (belonging to nobody) will possess it.”

‘Umar and Ibn ‘Auf narrated the same from

(1) (H. 2334) 'Umar رضي الله عنه meant to keep the land as Waqf for the Muslims to benefit by through the Kharāj (Zakāt of cultivated land).
the Prophet adding, “... provided that the land does not belong to any Muslim; otherwise one has no right to plant anything in it oppressively.”

2335. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet said, “He who cultivates land that does not belong to anybody is more rightful (to own it).” ‘Urwa said, “‘Umar gave the same verdict in his caliphate.”

(16) CHAPTER:

2336. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Umar: While the Prophet was passing the night at his place of rest in Dhul-Hulaifa in the bottom of the valley (of Al-'Aqiq), he saw a dream and it was said to him, “You are in a blessed valley.” Mūsā said, “Salim let our camels kneel at the place where 'Abdullāh used to make his camel kneel, seeking the place where Allah’s Messenger used to take a rest, which is situated below the mosque which is in the bottom of the valley; it is midway between the mosque and the road.”

2337. Narrated ‘Umar: While the Prophet was in Al-'Aqiq he said, “Someone [meaning Jibrīl (Gabriel)] came to me from my Lord tonight (in my dream) and said, ‘Offer the Salāt (prayer) in this blessed valley and say (I intend to perform) ‘Umra along with Hajj (together)."

(17) CHAPTER. If the owner of the land (says to the tenant), "I let you utilize the land as long as Allāh permits you," and does not mention a specific time for the expiration of the lease, then the lease can be continued according to the approval of both the parties.

2338. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: ‘Umar, a messenger of Allāh, expelled the Jews and the Christians from Hijāz. When Allāh’s Messenger had conquered Khāibār, he wanted to expel the Jews from it as its land became the property of Allāh, His Messenger, and the Muslims.

Allāh’s Messenger intended to expel the Jews but they requested him to let them stay there on the condition that they would do the labour and get half of the fruits.

Allāh’s Messenger told them, “We will let you stay on this condition, as long as we wish.” So, they (i.e., Jews) kept on living there until ‘Umar forced them to go towards Taimā’ and Aρiḥā’.
2339. Narrated Râfi‘bin Khadijâ: My uncle Zuhair said, “Allâh’s Messenger forbade us to do a thing which was a source of help to us.” I said, “Whatever Allâh’s Messenger said was right.” He said, “Allâh’s Messenger sent for me and asked, ‘What are you doing with your farms?’ I replied, We give our farms on rent on the basis that we get the yield produced at the banks of the water streams (rivers) for the rent, or rent it for some Wasq of barley and dates.” Allâh’s Messenger said, ‘Do not do so, but cultivate (the land) yourselves or let it be cultivated by others gratis, or keep it uncultivated.’ I said, ‘We hear and obey.’”

[See Hadîth No.2346, 2447].

2340. Narrated Jâbir: The people used to rent their land for cultivation for one-third, one-fourth or half its yield. The Prophet said, “Whoever has land should cultivate it himself or give it to his (Muslim) brother gratis for cultivation; otherwise keep it uncultivated.”

2341. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The majority of the religious scholars agree that to rent the land for its yields was not allowed by the Prophet, but to rent it for money was allowed. See Fath Al-Bârî.

(1) (H. 2339) The majority of the religious scholars agree that to rent the land for its yields was not allowed by the Prophet, but to rent it for money was allowed. See Fath Al-Bârî.
Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, "Whoever has land should cultivate it himself or give it to his (Muslim) brother gratis for cultivation; otherwise he should keep it uncultivated."

[See Hadîth No.2346, 2347].

2342. Narrated ‘Amr: When I mentioned it (i.e., the narration of Râfî' bin Khadij. No.2339) to Tawús, he said, "It is permissible to rent the land for cultivation, for Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما said, ‘The Prophet ﷺ did not forbid that, but said: One had better give the land to one’s brother gratis rather than charge a certain amount for it.’"

2343. Narrated Nâfi’: Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما used to rent his farms in the time of Abû Bakr, 'Umar, 'Uthmân, and in the early days of Mu‘âwiyâ.

2344. Then he was told the narration of Râfî' bin Khadij that the Prophet ﷺ had forbidden the renting of farms. Ibn ‘Umar went to Râfî' and I accompanied him. He asked Râfî' who replied that the Prophet ﷺ had forbidden the renting of farms. Ibn ‘Umar said, “You know that we used to rent our farms in the lifetime of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ for the yield of the banks of the water streams (rivers) and for certain amount of figs.

[And in some copies of Sahîh Al-Bukhârî it is written “At-Tibn” i.e., chopped straw instead of figs.]
2345. Narrated Sālim: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar bin ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar said, “I knew that the land was rented for cultivation in the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.” Later on Ibn ‘Umar was afraid that the Prophet ﷺ had forbidden it, and he had no knowledge of it, so he gave up renting his land.

(19) CHAPTER. To rent the land for gold and silver.

Ibn ‘Abbās said, “The best thing to do is to take the uncultivated land on yearly rental basis.”

2346, 2347. Narrated Hanzla bin Qais: Rāfī’ bin Khadij said, “My two uncles told me that they (i.e., the companions of the Prophet ﷺ) used to rent the land in the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ for the yield on the banks of water streams (rivers), or for a portion of the yield stipulated by the owner of the land. The Prophet ﷺ forbade it.” I said to Rāfī’, “What about renting the land for Dīnār and Dirham?” He replied, “There is no harm in renting for Dīnār-Dirham. Al-Laith said, “If those who have discernment for distinguishing what is legal from what is illegal looked into what has been forbidden concerning this matter, they would not permit it; for it is surrounded with dangers.”

(1) (H. 2346) Al-Laith agrees in the Hadith with the common opinion of the scholars who think that renting the land is forbidden if it leads to arrogance and mischief; the principle of renting is not illegal. The scholars differ as to what ways of renting are permissible. And the majority of the religious scholars agree that to rent the land for=
(20) CHAPTER:

2348. Narrated Abu Hurairah

Once the Prophet was narrating (a story), while a bedouin was sitting with him. (saying), "One of the inhabitants of Paradise will ask Allah to allow him to cultivate the land. Allah will ask him, 'Are you not living in the pleasures you like?' He will say, 'Yes, but I like to cultivate the land.'" The Prophet added, "When the man (will be permitted) he will sow the seeds and the plants will grow up and get ripe, ready for reaping and so on till it will be as huge as mountains within a wink. Allah will then say to him, 'O son of Adam! Here you are. Take it and gather (the yield); nothing satisfies you.'" On that, the bedouin said, "The man must be either from Quraish (i.e., an emigrant) or an Anṣārī, for they are farmers, whereas we are not farmers." The Prophet smiled (at this).

(21) CHAPTER. What is said about planting trees.

=its yields was not allowed by the Prophet but to rent it for money was allowed. (Fath Al-Bârî)
2349. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d:
We used to be very happy on Friday as an old lady used to cut some roots of the Silq, which we used to plant on the banks of our small water streams, and cook them in a pot of her’s, adding to them, some grains of barley. [Ya’qúb, the sub-narrator said, “I think the narrator mentioned that the food did not contain fat or melted fat (taken from meat).”] When we offered the Friday prayer we would go to her and she would serve us with the dish. So, we used to be happy on Fridays because of that. We used not to take our meals or the midday nap except after the Jumu’ah prayer.

2350. Narrated Abú Hurairah:
The people say that Abú Hurairah narrates too many narrations. In fact Allâh knows whether I say the truth or not. They also say: “Why do the emigrants and the Ansâr not narrate as he does?” In fact, my emigrant brethren were busy trading in the markets, and my Ansâr brethren were busy with their properties. I was a poor man keeping the company of Allah’s Messenger ☉ and was satisfied with what filled my stomach. So, I used to be present while they (i.e., the emigrants and the Ansâr) were absent, and I used to remember while they forgot (the Hadîth). One day the Prophet ☉ said, “Whoever spreads his sheet till I finish this statement of mine and then gathers it over his chest, will never forget anything of my statement.” So, I spread my covering sheet which was the only garment I had, till the Prophet ☉ finished his statement and then I gathered it over my chest. By Him Who had sent him (i.e., Allah’s Messenger ☉) with the truth, since then I did not forget even a single word of that statement of his, till this day of mine. By Allāh, but for two Verses in Allāh's Book, I would never have related any narration (from the Prophet ﷺ).” (These two Verses are): “Verily, those who conceal the clear proofs, evidences and the guidance, which we have sent down… (up to)… the Most Merciful.” (V.2:159, 160)
CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

"... And We have made from water every living thing. Will they not then believe." (V.21:30)

And His Statement: "Then tell me about the water that you drink. Is it you who cause it from the rainclouds to come down, or are We the Causer of it to come down? If We willed, We verily could make it salt (and undrinkable), why then do you not give thanks (to Allah)?" (V.56:68-70).

(1) CHAPTER. Whoever thinks that giving water in charity, or as a gift or by way of a testament is permissible, whether it is divided or not.

Narrated ‘Uthmãn ibn Affân: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Who will buy the well of Râmah (a well-known well in Al-Madîna) (and endow it for the good of Muslims) so that he may use it as the other Muslims do without any privilege?” ‘Uthmân bought it.

2351. Narrated Sahl bin Sa‘d: A tumbler (full of milk or water) was brought to the Prophet ﷺ who drank from it, while on his right side there was sitting a boy who was the youngest of those who were present, and on his left side there were old men. The Prophet ﷺ asked, “O boy, will you allow me to give it (i.e., the rest of the drink) to the old men?” The boy said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I will not give preference to anyone over me to drink the rest of it from which you have drunk.” So, the Prophet ﷺ gave it to him.

(1) (Ch. 1) Al-Bukhârî wants to refute the opinions of those who think that water cannot be possessed. (Fath Al-Bârî).

2352. Narrated Az-Zuhri: Anas bin Malik ṭaḥṣilī said that once a domestic sheep was milked for Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ while he was in the house of Anas bin Malik. The milk was mixed with water drawn from the well in Anas’ house. A tumbler of it was presented to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ who drank from it. Then Abū Bakr was sitting on his left side and a bedouin on his right side. When the Prophet ﷺ removed the tumbler from his mouth, ‘Umar was afraid that the Prophet ﷺ might give it to the bedouin, so he said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Give it to Abū Bakr who is sitting by your side.” But the Prophet ﷺ gave it to the bedouin, who was to his right and said, “You should start with the one on your right side.”

(2) CHAPTER. Whoever said, “The owner of the water has the right to drink till he is satisfied, as the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Superfluous water should not be withheld from others.’”

2353. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not withhold the superfluous water, for that will prevent people from grazing their cattle.”

(1) (H. 2353) This Ḥadīth means that if one has a well near which there is a pasture and there is no other source of water in the area, one should not withhold the water from the sheep grazing there, for that would make it impossible for the sheep to graze there as they would be in great need of water after grazing. So, to withhold the water means to prevent sheep from grazing as well. (Fath Al-Bārī).
2354. Narrated Abū Hurairah that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not withhold the superfluous water in order to withhold the superfluous grass.”

(3) CHAPTER. If one digs a well in his own land and somebody falls in it and dies, the owner is not responsible.

2355. Narrated Abū Hurairah that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No blood-money will be charged if somebody dies in a mine, or in a well, or is killed by an animal; and if somebody finds a treasure in his land he has to give one-fifth of it to the government.”

(4) CHAPTER. Disputes and controversies about wells and the settlement of such disputes and controversies.

2356, 2357. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd) that The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever takes a false oath to deprive somebody of his property will meet Allāh while He will be angry with him.”

Allāh revealed: “Verily, those who

(1) (H. 2355) The owner of the well is not responsible if somebody falls and dies in it, if the well is in his land or in uncultivated land belonging to nobody. (This is true concerning mines also.) But if the well is dug on the way of the Muslims or in the land of somebody else without his permission and somebody falls and dies in it, then the person who has dug the well has to pay blood-money.

If an animal has untied itself and kills somebody or spoils his property, the owner of the animal is not responsible unless he is present at the time of the accident. (Al-Qastalānt) purchase a small gain at the cost of Allāh’s Covenant, and their oaths…” (V.3:77)

Al-Ash’ath came (to the place where ‘Abdullāh was narrating) and said, “What has Abū ‘Abdur-Rahmān (i.e., ‘Abdullāh) been telling you? This Verse was revealed concerning me. I had a well in the land of a cousin of mine. The Prophet ﷺ asked me to bring witnesses (to confirm my claim). I said, ‘I do not have witnesses.’ He said, ‘Let the defendant take an oath then.’ I said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! He will take a (false) oath immediately.’ Then the Prophet ﷺ mentioned the above narration and Allāh revealed the Verse to confirm what he had said.” (See Ḥadīth No.2515, 2516)

(5) CHAPTER. The sin of him who withholds water from wayfarer and travellers.

2358. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There are three types of people whom Allāh will neither look at them on the Day of Resurrection, nor will he purify them (from sins) and they shall have a painful torment. They are:
1. A man possessed superfluous water, on a way and he withheld it from travellers.
2. A man who gave a Bai’ā (pledge) to a ruler and he gave it only for worldly benefits. If the ruler gives him something he gets satisfied, and if the ruler withholds something from him, he gets dissatisfied.

3. And a man displayed his goods for sale after the Asr prayer (and took a false oath by) saying, 'By Allah, except Whom none has the right to be worshipped, I have been given so much for my goods,' and somebody believes him (and buys them).

The Prophet ﷺ then recited: “Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allah’s Covenant and their oaths…”
(V.3:77)
(7) CHAPTER. The land nearer to the source of water has the right to be irrigated before the one that is farther.

2361.Narrated ‘Urwa: When a man from the Anṣār quarrelled with Az-Zubair, the Prophet said, “O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) first and then let the water flow (to the land of the others).” On that the Anṣārī said (to the Prophet), “Is it because he is your aunt’s son?” On that the Prophet said, “O Zubair! Irrigate till the water reaches the walls between the pits around the trees and then stop (i.e., let the water go to the other’s land).” I think the following Verse was revealed concerning this event:

“But no, by your Lord, they can have no Faith, until they make you (O Muhammad) judge in all disputes between them.” (V.4:65)

(8) CHAPTER. The land nearer to the source of water has the right to be covered with water up to the ankles.

2362. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair: An Anṣārī man quarrelled with Az-Zubair about a canal in the Harra which was used for irrigating date-palms. Allāh’s Messenger, ordering Az-Zubair to be moderate, said, “O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) first and then leave the water for your neighbour.” The Anṣārī said, “Is it because he is your aunt’s son?” On that the colour of the face of Allāh’s Messenger changed (because of anger) and he said, “O Zubair!
Irrigate (your land) and withhold the water till it reaches the walls that are between the pits around the trees.” So, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ gave Az-Zubair his full right. Az-Zubair said, “By Allâh, the following Verse was revealed in that connection:

‘But no, by your Lord, they can have no Faith, until they make you (O Muhammad ﷺ) judge in all disputes between them.’” (V.4:65)

(The subnarrator). Ibn Shihâb said to Juraij (another subnarrator), “The Ansâr and the other people interpreted the saying of the Prophet ﷺ: ‘Irrigate (your land) and withhold the water till it reaches the walls between the pits around the trees,’ as meaning up to the ankles.”

(9) CHAPTER. The superiority of providing water (to those who need it).

2363. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “While a man was walking he felt thirsty and went down a well and drank water from it. On coming out of it, he saw a dog panting and eating mud because of excessive thirst. The man said, ‘This (dog) is suffering from the same problem as that of mine. So he (went down the well), filled his shoe with water, caught hold of it with his teeth and climbed up and watered the dog. Allâh thanked him for his (good) deed and forgave him.” The people asked, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Is there a reward for us in serving (the) animals?” He replied, “Yes, there is a reward for serving any animate (living being).”
2364. Narrated Asma' bint Abi Bakr: The Prophet offered the eclipse Salat (prayer), and then said, “Hell was displayed so close that I said, ‘O my Lord! Am I going to be one of its inhabitants?’” Suddenly he saw a woman. I think he said, “...who was being scratched by a cat.” He said, “What is wrong with her?” He was told, “She had imprisoned it (i.e., the cat) till it died of hunger.”

2365. Narrated 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar: Allâh’s Messenger said, “A woman was tortured and was put in (Hell) Fire because of a cat which she had kept locked till it died of hunger.” Allâh’s Messenger further said, “Allâh knows better. Allâh said (to the woman), ‘You neither fed it nor watered it when you locked it up, nor did you set it free to eat the vermin of the earth.’”

(10) CHAPTER. Whoever thinks that the owner of a tank, or of a leather water-container has more right to use the water than any other person.

2366. Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd: Once a tumbler (full of milk or water) was brought to Allâh's Messenger who drank from it, while on his right side there was sitting a boy who was the youngest of those who were present, and on his left side there were old men. The Prophet asked, "O boy! Do you allow me to give (the drink) to the elder people (first)?" The boy said, "I will not give preference to anybody over me to have my share from you, O Allah's Messenger!" So, he gave it to the boy.

2367. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, some people will be driven away from my Tank [Haud (Al-Kauthar)] on the Day of Resurrection as strange camels are driven away from a private tank (trough)."

2368. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet said, "May Allah be Merciful to the mother of Isma'il (Ishmael)! If she had left the water of Zamzam (fountain) as it was, (without constructing a basin for keeping the water), (or said, "If she had not taken handfuls of its water"), it would have been a flowing stream. Jurhum (an Arab tribe) came and asked her, 'May we settle at your dwelling?' She said, 'Yes, but you have no right to possess the water.' They agreed.”

2369. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "There are three types of people whom Allâh will neither speak to them, nor look at them, on the Day of Resurrection. (They are):

1. A man who takes an oath falsely that he has been offered for his goods so much more than what he is given,

2. A man who takes a false oath after the Asr (prayer) in order to grab a Muslim’s property, and

3. A man who withholds his superfluous water. Allâh will say to him, ‘Today I will withhold My Grace from you as you withheld the superfluity of what you had not created.’

(11) CHAPTER. No Himâ (private pasture) except according to what Allâh and His Messenger did. (1)

2370. Narrated As-Sa’b bin Jaththâma:
Allâh’s Messenger said, “No Himâ (2) except for Allâh and His Messenger (3). We have been told that Allâh’s Messenger made a place called An-Naqi’ as Hima, and ‘Umar made Ash-Sharaf and Ar-Rabadha Hima (for grazing the animals of Zakât).

(1) (Ch. ii) This means that the Imam has the right to assign certain pastures for certain purposes (e.g., for grazing the animals of the Zakât). Nobody would then have the right to use the pastures for other purposes. (Fath Al-Bâri)

(2) (H. 2370) The origin of this word is that when an Arab chief came to a certain place suitable for pasturing, he would let his dog bark at a high place. The area across which the sound of the dog spread would be a private pasture for the chief’s cattle, and nobody else would have the right to graze his cattle in it. So Hima means a private pasture, originally belonging to nobody, and nobody is allowed to cultivate it, but it is kept for grazing private animals. (Fath Al-Bâri)

(3) (H. 2370) Allâh’s Messenger and the Muslim leaders only have the right to keep pastures of this sort; no individual has the right to keep Hima for his personal good as the Arabs used to do in the Pre-Islâmic Period of Ignorance. (Ibid.)
(12) CHAPTER. Drinking water by people and watering animals from the rivers.

2371. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Keeping horses may be a source of reward to some (men), a shelter to another (i.e., means of earning one's living), or a burden to a third. He, to whom the horse will be a source of reward is the one who keeps it in Allah's Cause (prepare it for holy battles) and ties it by a long rope in a pasture (or a garden). He will get a reward equal to what its long rope allows it to eat in the pasture or the garden, and if that horse breaks its rope and crosses one or two hills, then all its foot-steps and its dung will be counted as good deeds for its owner; and if it passes by a river and drinks from it, then that will also be regarded as a good deed for its owner even if he has had no intention of watering it then. Horses are a shelter from poverty to the second person who keeps horses for earning his living so as not to ask others, and at the same time he gives Allah's Right (i.e., Zakāt) (from the wealth he earns through using them in trading etc.), and does not overburden them. He who keeps horses just out of pride and for showing off and as a means of harming the Muslims, his horses will be a source of sins to him."

When Allah's Messenger ﷺ was asked

(1) (H. 2371) Horses are kept as a means of conveyance or for commercial purposes. One may use them in the way that pleases Allah and gets a reward for his obedience, another may use them in disobeying Allah and is consequently punished, and still another may use them just for earning his living. (Qastalānī) about donkeys, he replied, “Nothing particular was revealed to me regarding them except this general unique Verse which is applicable to everything:

‘So whosoever does good equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant), shall see it. And whosoever does evil equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant), shall see it’.”(1)

2372. Narrated Zaid bin Khâlid رضي الله عنه: A man came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and asked about Al-Luqâa (a fallen thing). The Prophet ﷺ said, “Recognise its container and its tying material and then make public announcement about it for one year and if its owner shows up, give it to him; otherwise use it as you like.” The man said, “What about a lost sheep?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “It is for you, your brother or the wolf.” The man asked “What about a lost camel?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Why should you take it as it has got its water-container (its stomach) and its hooves and it can reach the places of water and can eat the trees till its owner finds it?”(3)

(13) CHAPTER. The selling of wood and grass.

2373. Narrated Az-Zubair bin Al-
‘Awwām: The Prophet ﷺ said, "No doubt, one had better take a rope (and cut) and tie a bundle of wood and sell it whereby Allāh will keep his face away (from Hell-fire) rather than ask others who may give him or not.”

2374. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No doubt, it is better for anyone of you to cut a bundle of wood and carry it over his back (and earn his living thereby) rather than to ask somebody who may or may not give him.” (See H. 2074).

2375. Narrated Ḥusain bin ‘Āli: ‘Āli bin Abī Ṭalib said, “I got a she-camel as my share of the war booty on the day (of the battle) of Badr, and Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ gave me another she-camel. I let both of them kneel at the door of one of the Anṣār, intending to carry Iḍkhār on them to sell it and use its price for my wedding banquet on marrying Fāṭima. A goldsmith from Bani Qainuqā’ was with me. Hamza bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib was in that house drinking wine and a lady singer was reciting:

‘O Hamza! (Kill) the (two) fat old she-camels (and serve them to your guests).’

So Ḥamza took his sword and went towards the two she-camels and cut off their humps and opened their flanks and took a part of their livers.” (I said to Ibn Shihāb, “Did he take part of the humps?” He replied, “He cut off their humps and carried them away.” ‘Ali further said, “When I saw that dreadful sight, I went to the Prophet and told him the news. The Prophet came out in the company of Zaid bin Harithah who was with him then, and I, too, went with them. He went to Hamza and spoke harshly to him. Hamza looked up and said, ‘Aren’t you only the slaves of my forefathers?’ The Prophet retreated and went out. This incident happened before the prohibition of drinking (alcoholic drinks).”

(14) CHAPTER. The uncultivated pieces of land (granted by the ruler to some individuals).

2376. Narrated Anas: The Prophet decided to grant a portion of the uncultivated land of Bahrain to the Ansâr. The Ansâr said, “(We will not accept it) till you give a similar portion to our emigrant brothers (from Quraish).” He said, “(O Ansâr!) You will soon see people giving preference to others, so remain patient till you meet me (on the Day of Resurrection).”

(1) (H. 2376) This prophecy was a sign of the Prophethood of Allâh’s Messenger. It came true that the Quraish kings had the source of wealth and power in their hands. The Prophet tells the Ansâr to be patient and wait for a great reward in the Hereafter as a compensation for the pleasures they would miss in this life.
(15) CHAPTER. Documentation of the land grants.

2377. Narrated Anas: The Prophet called the Anṣār so as to grant them a portion of (the land of) Bahrain. They said, "O Allah's Messenger! If you grant this to us, write a similar document to our Quraish (emigrant) brothers." But the Prophet did not have enough grants and he said, "After me you will see the people giving preference (to others), so be patient till you meet me."(1)

(16) CHAPTER. Milking she-camels at water places.

2378. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "One of the rights of a she-camel is that it should be milked at a place of water."

(17) CHAPTER. One may have the right to pass through a garden or to have a share in date-palms.

The Prophet said, "If somebody sells date-palms after pollinating them, their fruits will be for him and he has the right to enter

(1) (Ch. 2377) Perhaps the grants given to the Anṣār were land grants or money grants from the Jizya tax levied from that land. The Prophet could not assign similar grants to the emigrants, perhaps because there were not many conquests then. (Qastalānī) the garden and irrigate the date-palms till he reaps the fruits. The owner of ‘Ariya has a similar right.”

2379. Narrated ‘Abdullāh Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If somebody buys date-palms after they have been pollinated, the fruits will belong to the seller unless the buyer stipulates the contrary. If somebody buys a slave having some property, the property will belong to the seller unless the buyer stipulates that it should belong to him.”

2380. Narrated Zaid bin Thābit  The Prophet ﷺ permitted selling the dates of the ‘Arāyā for ready dates by estimating the amount of the former (as they are still on the trees).

2381. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh  The Prophet ﷺ forbade the sales called Al-Mukhābara, Al-Muḥaqala and Al-Muzābana and the selling of fruits till they are free from blights. He forbade the selling of the fruits except for money, except the ‘Arāyā.

2382. Narrated Abū Hurairah  The Prophet ﷺ allowed the sale of the dates of the ‘Arāyā for ready dates by estimating the former which should be estimated as less than five Awsuq or five Awwuq. (Dawūd, the subnarrator is not sure as to the right amount.)\(^{(1)}\)

2383, 2384. Narrated Rāfi’ bin Khadij and Sahl bin Abī Hathma: Allāh’s Messenger forbade the sale of Muzābana, i.e., selling of fruits for fruits, except in the case of ‘Arāyā; he allowed the owners of ‘Arāyā such kind of sale.

(1) (H. 2382) Since there is doubt about the limits of estimation, less than five Awsuq is regarded as the legal amount; five Awsuq or more is regarded as illegal. (Qaṣaṣālān).
(1) CHAPTER. Whoever buys a thing on credit and does not have its price or has it, but not at the place of the transaction.

2385. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنَّه: While I was in the company of the Prophet ﷺ in one of his Ghazawāt, he asked, “What is wrong with your camel? Will you sell it?” I replied in the affirmative and sold it to him. When he reached Al-Madīna, I took the camel to him in the morning and he paid me its price.

2386. Narrated Al-A’mash: When we were with Ibrāhīm, we talked about mortgaging in deals of Salam. Ibrāhīm narrated from Aswād that ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها had said, “The Prophet ﷺ bought some foodstuff on credit from a Jew and mortgaged an iron armour to him.”

(2) CHAPTER. Whoever takes the money of the people intending to repay it or to destroy it or to spoil it.

2387. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever takes the money of the people with the intention of repaying it, Allāh will repay it on his behalf, and whoever takes it in order to destroy it, then Allāh will destroy him.”
(3) CHAPTER. Repayment of debts.

And the Statement of Allah (4:58):

"Verily! Allah commands that you should render back the trusts to those, to whom they are due; and that when you judge between men, you judge with justice. Verily, how excellent is the teaching which He (Allah) gives you! Truly, Allah is Ever All-Hearer, All-Seer." (V.4:58)

2388. Narrated Abu Dhar رضي الله عنه: Once, while I was in the company of the Prophet ﷺ, he saw the mountain of Uḥud and said, "I would not like to have this mountain turned into gold for me unless nothing of it, not even a single Dinār remains of it with me for more than three days (i.e., I will spend all of it in Allah’s Cause), except that Dinār which I will keep for repaying debts.” Then he said, “Those who are rich in this world would have little reward in the Hereafter, except those who spend their money here and there (in Allah’s Cause), and they are few in number.” Then he ordered me to stay at my place and went not far away. I heard a voice and intended to go to him but I remembered his order, “Stay at your place till I return.” On his return I asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! (What was) that noise which I heard?” He said, “Did you hear anything?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “Jibril [Gabriel (عـلـي الـسلام)] came to me and said, ‘Whoever amongst your followers dies, worshipping none along with Allah, will enter Paradise.’” I said, “Even if he did such and such things (i.e., even if he stole or committed illegal sexual intercourse)
He (ﷺ) said, “Yes.”

2389. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “If I had gold equal to the mountain of Uhud, it would not please me that it should remain with me for more than three days, except an amount which I would keep for repaying debts.”

(4) CHAPTER. To buy camels on credit.

2390. Narrated Abu Hurairah: A man demanded his debts from Allah’s Messenger ﷺ in such a rude manner that the companions of the Prophet ﷺ intended to harm him, but the Prophet ﷺ said, “Leave him, no doubt, for he (the creditor) has a right to demand it (harshly). Buy a camel and give it to him.” They said, “The camel that is available is older and better than the camel he demands.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Buy it and give it to him, for the best among you are those who repay their debts handsomely.”
(5) CHAPTER. Demanding debts handsomely.

2391. Narrated Ḥudhaifa: I heard the Prophet saying, “Once a man died and was asked, ‘What did you use to say (or do) (in your lifetime)?’ He replied, ‘I was a businessman and used to give time to the rich to repay his debt and (used to) deduct part of the debt of the poor.’ So he was forgiven (his sins.)”

Abū Ma’sūd said, “I heard the same (Hadith) from the Prophet.”

(6) CHAPTER. Can one give an older (camel) than that he owes?

2392. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man came to the Prophet and demanded a camel (the Prophet owed him). Allāh’s Messenger told his companions to give him (a camel). They said, “We do not find except an older and better camel (than what he demands).”

(The Prophet ordered them to give him that camel).

The man said, “You have paid me in full and may Allāh also pay you in full.” Allāh’s Messenger said, “Give him, for the best amongst the people is he who repays his debts in the most handsome manner.”

(7) CHAPTER. Repaying debts handsomely.

2393. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet owed a camel of a certain age to a man who came to demand it back. The Prophet ordered his companions to give him. They looked for a camel of the same age... but found nothing but a camel one year older. The Prophetﷺ told them to give it to him. The man said, “You have paid me in full, and may Allāh pay you in full.” The Prophetﷺ said, “The best amongst you is he who pays his debts in the most handsome manner.”

2394. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: I went to the Prophetﷺ while he was in the mosque. (Mis‘ar thinks, that Jābir went in the forenoon.) The Prophetﷺ told me to offer two Rak‘ât prayer, and then he repayed me the debt he owed me and gave me an extra amount.

2395. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: My father was martyred on the day (of the battle) of Uhud, and he was in debt. His creditors demanded their rights persistently. I went to the Prophetﷺ (and informed him about it). He told them to take the fruits of my garden and exempt my father from the debts, but they refused to do so. So, the Prophetﷺ did not give them my garden and told me that he would come to me the next morning. He came to us early in the morning and wandered among the date-palms and invoked Allāh to bless their fruits. I then plucked the dates and paid the creditors, and there remained some of the dates for us.
(9) CHAPTER. It is permissible for one to settle one's accounts by repaying for the dates one owes, dates or other things, and one can repay them without weighing or measuring them (if the creditor agrees).

2396. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh: When my father died he owed a Jew thirty Awsuq (of dates). I requested him to give me respite for repaying but he refused. I requested Allāh's Messenger to intercede with the Jew. Allāh's Messenger went to the Jew and asked him to accept the fruits of my trees in place of the debt but the Jew refused. Allāh's Messenger entered the garden of the date-palms, wandering among the trees and ordered me (saying), “Pluck (the fruits) and give him his due.” So, I plucked the fruits for him after the departure of Allāh's Messenger and gave his thirty Awsuq, and still had seventeen Awsuq extra for myself. Jābir said: I went to Allāh's Messenger to inform of what had happened, but found him offering the Asr prayer. After the Salāt (prayer) I told him about the extra fruits which remained. Allāh's Messenger told me to inform ('Umar) Ibn Al-Khattāb about it. When I went to 'Umar and told him about it, 'Umar said, “When Allāh's Messenger walked in your garden, I was sure that Allāh would definitely bless it.”
2397. Narrated 'Aishah: Allah's Messenger used to invoke Allah in the Salat (prayer) saying, “O Allah, I seek refuge with you from all sins, and from being in debt.” Someone said, “O Allah's Messenger! (I see) very often you seek refuge with Allah from being in debt.” He replied, “If a person is in debt, he tells lies when he speaks, and breaks his promises when he promises.”

2398. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet said, “If someone leaves some property, it will be for the inheritors, and if he leaves some weak offspring, it will be for us to support them.”

2399. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet said, “I am closer to the believers than their ownsesthes in this world and in the Hereafter, and if you like, you can read Allah's Statement:

‘The Prophet is closer to the believers than their ownsesthes...’ (V.33:6)

So, if a true believer dies and leaves... behind some property, it will be for his inheritors (from the father’s side), and if he leaves behind some debt to be paid or needy offspring, then they should come to me as I am the guardian of the deceased.”

(12) CHAPTER. Procrastination (delay) in repaying debts by a wealthy person is injustice.

2400. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Procrastination (delay) in repaying debts by a wealthy person is injustice.”

(13) CHAPTER. The owner of the right has the permission to demand his right.

The Prophet ﷺ said, “The delay in the payment of debt by one who can afford to pay, justifies his defamation and torture by the lender.” Defamation means that the lender tells him in public that he has delayed the payment. Torture means legal imprisonment.

2401. Narrated Abu Hurairah: A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and demanded his debts and used harsh words. The companions of the Prophet ﷺ wanted to harm him, but the Prophet ﷺ said, “Leave him, as the (creditor) (one who has a right) has the full right to demand it (or to speak harshly).”
(14) CHAPTER. If somebody lends something or sells it on credit or deposits it as a trust, and the new possessor gets bankrupt, the former owner has more right than the other creditors to restore that thing if he finds it with the bankrupt.

Al-Ḥasan said, "If somebody becomes bankrupt and he is judged to be so, he is not permitted to free his slave or sell or buy things."

Saʿīd bin Al-Musaiyab said, "ʿUthmān gave a verdict that if a creditor took something from the debtor before the latter was declared bankrupt, it would belong to him (i.e., the other creditors would have no right to take it), and if the creditor recognized his things, he had more right to restore them (than any other creditor)."

2402. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If a man finds his very things with a bankrupt, he has more right to take them back than anyone else."

(15) CHAPTER. Whoever delayed the repayment of debts for a day or so and did not regard it as procrastination.

Jābir said, "When the creditors of my father demanded their rights persistently, the Prophet ﷺ requested them to take the fruits of my garden instead of the debt, but they refused. So, the Prophet ﷺ neither gave..." them the fruits nor had the fruits plucked for them, but said, ‘I will come to you tomorrow.' He came to us early in the morning and invoked Allah to bless the garden’s fruits, and so I paid the creditors their rights.”

(16) CHAPTER. Whoever sold the property of a bankrupt or a poor man and divided the money amongst the creditors or gave it (piecemeal) to the man to spend it on his affairs.

2403. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullãh: A man pledged that his slave would be manumitted after his death. The Prophet asked, “Who will buy the slave from me?”(1) Nu‘aim bin ‘Abdullãh bought the slave and the Prophet took its price and gave it to the owner.

(17) CHAPTER. It is permissible to lend money for a fixed time or sell on credit for a fixed time.

Ibn ‘Umar said concerning loans for a fixed time, “There is no objection to it, even if the debtor gives more than he owes if the creditor has not stipulated it.”

‘Atâ‘ and ‘Amr bin Dinãr said, “The lender has no right to demand his money before the due time of payment.”

2404. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger mentioned an Israeli man who asked another Israeli to lend him money, and the latter gave it to him for a fixed period. (Abû Hurairah mentioned the rest of the narration.)

[See chapter: Kafâla in loans and

(1) (H. 2403) The man became in need or in debt, so the Prophet sold the slave for him although he had promised that he would be manumitted after his death.
debts. Hadith 2291].

(18) CHAPTER. Intercession for the reduction of debts.

2405. Narrated Jābir: When ‘Abdullāh (my father) died, he left behind children and debts. I asked the lenders to put down some of his debt, but they refused, so I went to the Prophet to intercede with them, yet they refused. The Prophet said (to me), “Classify your dates into their different kinds: Iḍhq Ibn Zaid, Lean and ‘Ajwa, each kind separately and call all the creditors and wait till I come to you.” I did so, and the Prophet came and sat beside the dates and started measuring to each his due till he paid them fully, and the amount of dates remained as it was before, as if he had not touched them.

2406. (On another occasion) I took part in one of Ghazawāt along with the Prophet and I was riding one of our camels. The camel got tired and was lagging behind the others. The Prophet hit it on its back. He said, “Sell it to me, and you have the right to ride it till Al-Madina.” When we approached Al-Madina, I took the permission from the Prophet to go to my house, saying, “O Allah’s Messenger! I am married recently.” The Prophet asked, “Have you married a virgin or a matron (a widow or divorcee)?” I said, “I have married a matron, as ‘Abdullāh (my father) died and left behind daughters small in their ages, so I married a matron... who may teach them and bring them up with good manners." The Prophet then said (to me), "Go to your family." When I went there and told my maternal uncle about the selling of the camel, he admonished me for it. On that I told him about its slowness and exhaustion and about what the Prophet had done to the camel and his hitting it. When the Prophet arrived, I went to him with the camel in the morning and he gave me the price of the camel and the camel itself, and also my share from the war booty as he gave the other people.

(19) CHAPTER. What is forbidden as regards wasting money.

And the Statement of Alläh تَعَالَى:
"... And Alläh likes not mischief..." (V.2:205).
"... Verily Alläh does not set right the work of Al-Mufsidūn (the evil-doers, corrupters)..." (V.10:81)
And the Statement of Alläh تَعَالَى:
"Does your Salāt (prayer) command that we give up what our fathers used to worship, or that we give up doing what we like with our property?..." (V.11:87)
Alläh تَعَالَى also said:
"And give not unto the foolish your property..." (V.4:5)
And to keep away from all these (things), and (also) what is forbidden as regards deceit.

2407. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: A man came to the Prophet سَلَّم وَسَلَّم and said, "I am often betrayed in bargaining." The Prophet سَلَّم وَسَلَّم advised him, "When you buy something, say (to the seller), 'No deception'." The man used to say so afterwards.
2408. Narrated Al-Mughira bin Shu’ba رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allah has forbidden for you (1) to be undutiful to your mothers, (2) to bury your daughters alive, (3) to not to pay the rights of the poor and others (e.g. charity) and (4) to beg of men (i.e., begging). And Allah hates for you (1) Qal and Qal (sinful and useless talk like backbiting or that you talk too much about others), (2) to ask too many questions, (in disputed religious matters), and (3) to waste the wealth (by extravagance with lack of wisdom and thinking).”

(20) CHAPTER. A slave is a guardian of the property of his master and he should not use it except with the master’s permission.

2409. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “Everyone of you is a guardian and responsible for what is in his custody. The ruler is a guardian of his subjects and responsible for them; a husband is a guardian of his family and is responsible for it; a lady is a guardian of her husband’s house and is responsible for it, and a servant is a guardian of his master’s property and is responsible for it.” I heard that from Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and I think that the Prophet ﷺ also said, “A man is a guardian of his father’s property and is responsible for it; so all of you are guardians and responsible for your wards and things under your care.”
(1) CHAPTER. What is mentioned about the people, and quarrels between the Jews and the Muslims.

2410. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Mas’üd: I heard a man reciting a Verse (of the Qur’ân) but I had heard the Prophet reciting it differently. So, I caught hold of the man by the hand and took him to Allah’s Messenger who said, “Both of you are right.” Shu’ba, the subnarrator said, “I think he said to them, ‘Don’t differ, for the nations before you differed and perished (because of their differences).’”

2411. Narrated Abü Hurairah: Two persons, a Muslim and a Jew, quarrell ed. The Muslim said, “By Him Who gave Muhammad superiority over all the people!” The Jew said, “By Him Who gave Mûsa superiority over all the people!” At that the Muslim raised his hand and slapped the Jew on the face. The Jew went to the Prophet and informed him of what had happened between him and the Muslim. The Prophet sent for the Muslim and asked him about it. The Muslim informed him of the event. The Prophet said, “Do not give me superiority over Mûsa, for on the Day of Resurrection all the people will fall unconscious and I will be one of them, but I will be the first to regain consciousness, and will see Mûsa standing and holding the side of the Throne (of Allah). I will not know whether (Mûsa) has also fallen unconscious and got up before me, or Allâh has exempted him from that stroke.”

2412. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudrî: While Allâh’s Messenger was sitting, a Jew came and said, “0 Abû Qâsim! One of your companions has slapped me on my face.” The Prophet asked who that was. He replied that he was one of the Anàr. The Prophet sent for him, and on his arrival, he asked him whether he had beaten the Jew. He (replied in the affirmative and) said, “I heard him taking an oath in the market saying, ‘By Him Who gave Mûsa (Moses) superiority over all the human beings.’ I said, ‘0 wicked man! (Has Allâh given Mûsa superiority) even over Mu‘âammad?’ I became furious and slapped him over his face.” The Prophet said, “Do not give a Prophet superiority over another, for on the Day of Resurrection all the people will fall unconscious; and I will be the first to emerge from the earth, and will see Mûsa standing and holding one of the pillars of the Throne. I will not know whether Mûsa has fallen unconscious or the first unconsciousness was sufficient for him.”(1)

(1) (H. 2412) This is an allusion to the event where Mûsa (Moses) fell unconscious on wishing to see Allâh when he was beside the mountain. (See the Qur’ân V. 7:143)
2413. Narrated Anas: A Jew crushed the head of a girl between two stones. The girl was asked who had crushed her head, and some names were mentioned before her, and when the name of the Jew was mentioned, she nodded agreeing. The Jew was caught and when he confessed, the Prophet ordered that his head be crushed between two stones.

(2) CHAPTER. Whoever cancelled the deals done by a weak-minded or an extravagant person even if the ruler had not assumed control over his wealth.

Ja'bir narrated that the Prophet rejected the gift of charity (given by a poor man) before he prohibited him (from giving in charity).

Malik said, “If a person is in debt and he has nothing except a slave, it is not permissible for him to manumit the slave.”

(3) CHAPTER. If somebody sells a thing for a weak-minded person and pays him the price, and advised him to utilize it in a proper way and not to spoil it, and he spoils it, he can stop him from doing so, for the Prophet had forbidden the wasting of the property. The Prophet ordered the person who said that he had always been cheated in buying, to say, at the time of the deal, “No cheating!” The Prophet did not take his money (of the person who sold his slave, because he had not proved foolish).

2414. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: A man was often cheated in buying. The Prophet said to him, “When you buy something, say (to the seller), ‘No cheating.’” The man used to say so thenceforward.

2415. Narrated Jābir: A man manumitted a slave and he had no other property than that, so the Prophet cancelled the manumission (and sold the slave for him). Nu‘aim bin An-Nahhām bought the slave from him.

(4) CHAPTER. The talk of opponents against each other.

2416, 2417. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin Mas‘ūd: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Whoever takes a false oath so as to take the property of a Muslim (illegally) will meet Allāh while He will be angry with him.”

Al-Ash’ath said: By Allāh, that saying concerned me. I had common land with a Jew, and the Jew later on denied my ownership, so I took him to the Prophet who asked me whether I had a proof of my ownership. When I replied in the negative, the Prophet asked the Jew to take an oath. I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! He will take an oath and deprive me of my property.” So, Allāh revealed the following Verse:

“Verily: those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allāh’s Covenant and their oaths…” (V.3:77)
2418. Narrated `Abdullâh bin Ka’b bin Mâlik: Ka’b bin Mâlik demanded his debt back from Ibn Abi Ḥadrâd in the mosque and their voices grew louder till Allâh’s Messenger ᴨheard them while he was in his house. He came out to them raising the curtain of his room and addressed Ka’b, “O Ka’b!” Ka’b replied, “Labbaik, O Allâh’s Messenger.” (He said to him), “Reduce your debt to half,” gesturing with his hand. Ka’b said, “I have done so, O Allâh’s Messenger!” On that the Prophet ᴨsaid to Ibn Abi Ḥadrâd, “Get up and repay the debt to him.”

2419. Narrated `Umar bin Al-Khattâb: I heard Hîshâm bin Ḥâkim bin Ḥizâm reciting Sūrat Al-Furqân in a way different to that of mine. Allâh’s Messenger ᴨhad taught it to me (in a different way). So, I was about to quarrel with him [during the Salât (prayer)] but I waited till he finished, then I tied his garment round his neck and seized him by it and brought him to Allâh’s Messenger ᴨand said, “I have heard him reciting Sūrat Al-Furqân in a way different to the way you taught it to me.” The Prophet ᴨordered me to release him and asked Hîshâm to recite it. When he recited it, Allâh’s Messenger ᴨsaid, “It was revealed in this way.” He then asked me to recite it. When I recited it, he said, “It was revealed in this way. The Qur’ân has been revealed in seven different ways, so recite it in the way that is easier for you.”

(5) CHAPTER. Turning out the sinners and the quarrelsome people of the houses after the impropriety of their behaviour gets evident.

‘Umar turned Abū Bakr’s sister (out of the house) for her wailing (over a dead person).

2420. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “No doubt, I was about to order somebody to pronounce the Iqāma of the (compulsory congregational) Salāt (prayer) and then I would go to the houses of those who do not attend the Salāt (prayer) (in mosque) and burn their houses over them."’ (See H. 644).

(6) CHAPTER. To file a case for fulfilling the will of the deceased.

2421. Narrated ‘Āishah: ‘Abd bin Zam'a and Sa'd bin Abi Waqqās carried the case of their claim of the (ownership) of the son of a slave-girl of Zam'a before the Prophet. Sa'd said, “O Allah’s Messenger! My brother, before his death, told me that when I would return (to Makkah), I should search for the son of the slave-girl of Zam'a and take him into my household.”

(1) (H. 2420) See Iqāmat-as-Salāt in glossary.
custody as he was his son.” ‘Abd bin Zam’a said, “He is my brother and the son of the slave-girl of my father, and was born on my father’s bed.” The Prophet noticed a resemblance between ‘Utba and the boy but he said, “O ‘Abd bin Zam’a! You will get this boy, as the son goes to the owner of the bed. You, Sauda, screen yourself from the boy.”

(7) CHAPTER. Tying the person who is liable to do mischievous things.

Ibn ‘Abbās chained ‘Ikrima to teach him the Qur’ān, the Prophet’s Sunna (legal ways), and the knowledge of Farā‘id (laws of inheritance).

2422. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger sent horsemen to Najd and they arrested and brought a man called Thumāma bin Uthāl, the chief of Yamāma, and they fastened him to one of the pillars of the mosque. When Allah’s Messenger came up to him; he asked, “What have you to say, O Thumāma?” He replied “I have good news, O Muḥammad!” Abū Hurairah narrated the whole narration which ended with the order of the Prophet, “Release him!” (See H. 4372)

(8) CHAPTER. Fastening and imprisoning in the Haram.

Nāfi’ bin Al-Ḥārith bought a house from Ṣafwān bin Umaiyya for using it as a prison on the condition that the deal would be confirmed if 'Umar agreed to it, and if 'Umar did not agree to it, Šafwān would take four hundred (Dinar). Ibn Az-Zubair imprisoned (the culprits) in Makkah."

2423. Narrated Ābū Hurairah: The Prophet sent some horsemen to Najd and they arrested and brought a man called Thumāma bin Uthāl from the tribe of Bani Ḥanifa, and they fastened him to one of the pillars of the mosque.

(9) CHAPTER. (The creditor’s) pursuit (after his debtors).

2424. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Ka‘b bin Mālik Al-Ansārī on the authority of Ka‘b bin Mālik that ‘Abdullāh bin Ābī Ḥadrād Al-Aslāmi owed him some debt. Ka‘b met him and caught hold of him and they started talking and their voices grew louder. The Prophet passed by them and addressed Ka‘b, pointing out to him to reduce the debt to half. So, Ka‘b got half of the debt and exempted the debtor from the other half.

(10) CHAPTER. Demanding one’s debts.

2425. Narrated Khabbāb: I was a blacksmith in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance, and ‘Āṣ bin Wā’il owed me some money. I went to him to demand it, but he said to me, “I will not pay you unless you reject faith in Muḥammad.” I replied, “By Allāh, I will never disbelieve Muḥammad till Allāh let you die and then resurrect you.” He said, “Then wait till I die and come to life again, for then I will be given property and offspring and will pay your right.” So, this revelation came:

“Have you seen him who disbelieved in Our Ayāt (this Qur’ān and Muḥammad) and said, ‘I shall certainly be given wealth and children [if I will be alive (again)].’”

(V.19:77)
45 – THE BOOK OF AL-LUQATA

(A well-tied pouch or purse or lost things picked up by somebody).

(1) CHAPTER. When the owner of the Luqata informs its description exactly (proves that it belongs to him) it should be returned to him.

2426. Narrated Ubaī bin Ka'b: I found a purse containing one hundred Dinar. So I went to the Prophet (and informed him about it), he said, “Make public announcement about it for one year.” I did so, but nobody turned up to claim it, so I again went to the Prophet who said, “Make public announcement for another year.” I did, but none turned up to claim it. I went to him for the third time and he said, “Keep the container and the string which is used for its tying and count the money it contains, and if its owner comes, give it to him; otherwise, utilize it.”

The subnarrator Salama said, “I met him (Suwaid, another subnarrator) in Makkah and he said, ‘I don’t know whether Ubaï made the announcement for three years or just one year.’”

(2) CHAPTER. Lost camels.

2427. Narrated Zaid bin Khālid Al-Juhāni: A bedouin went to the Prophet (and asked him about picking up a lost thing. The Prophet said, “Make public announcement about it for one year. Remember the description of its container and the string with which it is tied; and if somebody comes and claims it and describes it correctly (give it to him); otherwise, utilize it.” He said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! What about a lost sheep?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “It is for you, for your brother (i.e., its owner), or for the wolf.” He further asked, “What about a lost camel?” On that the face of the Prophet ﷺ became red (with anger) and said, “You have nothing to do with it, as it has its feet, its water reserve and can reach places of water and drink, and eat trees.”

(3) CHAPTER. Lost sheep.

2428. Narrated Yahyâ: Yazid Maulâ Al-Munba’ith heard Zaid bin Khâlid al-Juhâni رضي الله عنه saying, “The Prophet ﷺ was asked about Luqâta. He said, ‘Remember the description of its container and the string it is tied with, and announce it publicly for one year.’” Yazid added, “If nobody claims then the person who has found it can spend it, and it is regarded as a trust entrusted to him.” Yahyâ said, “I do not know whether the last sentence were said by the Prophet ﷺ or by Yazid.” Zaid further said, “The Prophet ﷺ was asked, ‘What about a lost sheep?’ The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Take it, for it is for you or for your brother (i.e., its owner) or for the wolf.’” Yazid added that it should also be announced publicly. The man then asked the Prophet ﷺ about a lost camel. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Leave it, as it has its feet, water-container (reservoir), and it will reach a place of water and eat trees till its owner finds it.”
(4) CHAPTER. If the owner of a lost thing is not found for one year, then the thing is for the one who has found it.

2429. Narrated Zaid bin Khalid رضي الله عنه: A man came and asked Allah's Messenger ﷺ about picking a lost thing. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Remember the description of its container and the string it is tied with, and make public announcement about it for one year. If the owner shows up, give it to him; otherwise, do whatever you like with it." He then asked, "What about a lost sheep?" The Prophet ﷺ said, "It is for you, for your brother (i.e., its owner), or for the wolf." He further asked, "What about a lost camel?" The Prophet ﷺ said, "It is none of your concern. It has its water-container (reservoir) and its feet, and it will reach water and drink it and eat the trees till its owner finds it."

(5) CHAPTER. If someone finds a piece of wood or a lash or similar things in the sea.

2430. Narrated 'Abdur-Rahmân bin Hurmuz: Abu Hurairah رضي الله عنه said, "Allah's Messenger ﷺ mentioned an Israeli man." Abu Hurairah then told the whole narration. (At the end of the narration it was mentioned that the creditor) went out to the sea, hoping that a boat might have brought his money. Suddenly he saw a piece of wood and he took it to his house to use as firewood. When he sawed it, he found his money and a letter in it.

[See Hadith No. 2291 for details].

(6) CHAPTER. If somebody finds a date on the way.
2431. Narrated Anas: The Prophet passed by a date fallen on the way and said, “Were I not afraid that it may be from a Ṣadaqa (charity), I would have eaten it.”

2432. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Sometimes when I return home and find a date fallen on my bed, I pick it up in order to eat it, but I fear that it might be from a Ṣadaqa (charity), so I throw it.”

(7) CHAPTER. How the Luqata at Makkah is to be announced.

Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet said, “Nobody should pick up the Luqata (lost things) (of Makkah) except the one who makes public announcement for it.” Ibn ‘Abbas said (in another narration): The Prophet said, “None should pick up the fallen things of Makkah except that who announces it publicly.”

2433. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allāh’s Messenger also said, “It (i.e., Makkah’s) thorny bushes should not be uprooted and its game should not be chased, and picking up its fallen things is illegal except by him who makes public announcement about it, and its grass should not be cut.” ‘Abdās said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Except Idhkhir (a kind of grass).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Except Idhkhir.”

2434. Narrated Abū Hurairah: When Allāh gave victory to His Messenger  over the people of Makkah, Allāh’s Messenger  stood up among the people and after glorifying Allāh, said, “Allāh has prohibited fighting in Makkah and has given authority to His Messenger and the believers over it, so fighting was illegal for anyone before me, and was made legal for me for a part of a day, and it will not be legal for anyone after me. Its game should not be chased, its thorny bushes should not be uprooted, and picking up its fallen things is not allowed except for one who makes public announcement for it, and he whose relative is murdered has the option either to accept a compensation for it or to retaliate.” Al-‘Abdās said, “Except Al-Iddhikhir, for we use it in our graves and houses.” Allāh’s Messenger  said, “Except Al-Iddhikhir.” Abū Shāh, a Yemenite, stood up and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Get it written for me.” Allāh’s Messenger  said, “Write it for Abū Shāh.” (The sub-narrator asked Al-Auzā‘i): What did he mean by saying, “Get it written, O Allāh’s Messenger?” He replied, “The speech which he had heard from Allāh’s Messenger .”
(8) CHAPTER. No animal may be milked without the permission of its owner.

2435. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger said, “An animal should not be milked without the permission of its owner. Does any of you like that somebody comes to his store and breaks his container and takes away his food? The udders of the animals are the stores of their owners where their provision is kept, so nobody should milk the animals of somebody else, without the permission of its owner.”

(9) CHAPTER. If the owner of lost property comes back after a year, it should be returned to him as it is a trust with the one who has found it.

2436. Narrated Zaid bin Khalid Al-Juhani: A man asked Allâh’s Messenger about the Luqata. He said, “Make public announcement of it for one year, then remember the description of its container and the string it is tied with; utilize the money, and if its owner comes back after that, give it to him.” The people asked, “O Allâh’s Messenger! What about a lost sheep?” Allâh’s Messenger said, “Take it, for it is for you, for your brother, or for the wolf.” The man asked, “O Allâh’s Messenger! What about a lost camel?” Allâh’s Messenger got angry and his cheeks or face became red, and said, “You have no concern with it as it has its feet, and its water-container, till its owner finds it.”

(10) CHAPTER. Should one pick up a fallen thing, lest it should be spoilt or taken by somebody who does not deserve it?

2437. Narrated Suwaid bin Ghafala: While I was in the company of Salmān bin Rabī‘a and Zaid bin Sūhān, in one of the holy battles, I found a whip. One of them told me to drop it, but I refused to do so and said that I would give it to its owner if I found him, otherwise I would utilize it. On our return we performed Ḥajj and on passing by Al-Madīna, I asked Ubai bin Ka‘b about it. He said, “I found a bag containing a hundred Dinār in the lifetime of the Prophet and took it to the Prophet who said to me, ‘Make public announcement about it for one year.’ So, I announced it for one year and went to the Prophet who said, ‘Announce it publicly for another year.’ So, I announced it for another year. I went to him again and he said, ‘Announce for another year.’ So I announced for still another year. I went to the Prophet for the fourth time, and he said, ‘Remember the amount of money, the description of its container and the string it is tied with, and if its owner comes, give it to him; otherwise, utilize it.’”

Salama narrated the above narration from Ubai bin Ka‘b, adding, “I met the subnarrator at Makkah later on, but he did not remember whether Ka‘b had announced what he had found for one year or three years.”

(11) CHAPTER. Whoever announced the Luqata in public and did not hand it over to the ruler.

(12) CHAPTER:

2439. Narrated Abú Bakr: While I was on my way, all of a sudden I saw a shepherd driving his sheep, I asked him whose servant he was. He replied that he was the servant of a man from Quraish, and then he mentioned his name and I recognized him. I asked, “Do your sheep have some milk?” He replied in the affirmative. I said, “Are you going to milk for me?” He replied in the affirmative. I ordered him and he tied the legs of one of the sheep. Then I told him to clean the udder (teats) of dust and to remove dust off his hands. He removed the dust off his hands by clapping his hands. He then milked a little milk. I put the milk for Allāh’s Messenger in a pot and closed its mouth with a piece of cloth and poured water over it till it became cold. I took it to the Prophet and said, “Drink, O Allāh’s Messenger!” He drank it till I was pleased.
Concerning oppressions and unlawful taking (of something) by violence.

And the Statement of Allâh عَزَّ وَجَلَّ:

"Consider not that Allâh is unaware of that which the Zâlimûn (polytheists, wrong-doers) do, but He gives them respite up to a Day when the eyes will stare in horror. (They will be) hastening forward with necks outstretched, their heads raised up (towards the sky), their gaze returning not towards them and their hearts empty (from thinking because of extreme fear). And warn (O Muĥammad ﷺ) mankind of the Day when the torment will come unto them; then the wrong-doers will say: 'Our Lord! Respite us for a little while, we will answer Your Call and follow the Messengers!' (It will be said): 'Had you not sworn aforetime that you would not leave (the world for the Hereafter). And you dwelt in dwellings of men who wronged themselves, and it was clear to you how We had dealt with them. And We put forth (many) parables for you.' Indeed they planned their plot, and their plot was with Allâh, though their plot was not such as to remove the mountains (real mountains or the Islamic laws) from their places (as it is of no importance)(1). So think not that Allâh will fail to keep His Promise to His Messengers. Certainly Allâh is All-Mighty, All-Able of Retribution." (V.14:42-47)

(1) CHAPTER. Retaliation (on the Day of Judgement) in cases of oppressions.

(1) (Ch. 1) It is said in Tafsîr Ibn Kathîr as regarding this Verse that the Quraish pagans plotted against Prophet Muĥammad ﷺ to kill him but they failed and were unable to carry out their plot which they plotted.
2440. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: Allah’s Messenger said, “When the believers pass safely over (the bridge across) Hell, they will be stopped at an arched bridge in between Hell and Paradise, where they will retaliate upon each other for the injustices done among them in the world, and when they get purified of all their sins, they will be admitted into Paradise. By Him in Whose Hands the soul of Muhammad is, everybody will (recognize) his dwelling in Paradise better than he recognizes his dwelling in this world.”

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

No doubt! The curse of Allah is on the Zūlīmūn (polytheists, oppressors, and the wrong-doers) (V.11:18)

2441. Narrated Ṣafwān bin Mu‘īriz Al-Māzīnī: While I was walking with Ibn ‘Umar holding his hand, a man came in front of us and asked, “What have you heard from Allah’s Messenger about An-Najwa?” Ibn ‘Umar said, “I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, ‘Allāh will bring a believer near Him and shelter him with His Screen and ask him: Did you commit such and such sins? He will say: Yes, my Lord. Allāh will keep on asking him till he will confess all his sins and will think...

(1) (Ch. 2441) An-Najwa is confidential talk between Allāh and his devotee on the Day of judgement. It is a favour from Allāh upon His devotee. The Hadith explains the word clearly. that he is ruined. Allah will say: I did screen your sins in the world and I forgive them for you today. And then he will be given the book (record) of his good deeds. Regarding disbelievers and hypocrites (their evil acts will be exposed publicly) and the witnesses will say: These are the ones who lied against their Lord. No doubt! The curse of Allah is on the Zalimun (polytheists, oppressors and the wrong-doers).’’ (V.11:18)

(3) CHAPTER. A Muslim should not oppress another Muslim, nor should he hand him over to an oppressor.

2442. Narrated 'Abduilah bin 'Umar: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “A Muslim is a brother of another Muslim, so he should not oppress him, nor should he hand him over to an oppressor. Whoever fulfilled the needs of his brother, Allah will fulfill his needs; whoever brought his (Muslim) brother out of a discomfort, Allah will bring him out of the discomforts of the Day of Resurrection, and whoever screened a Muslim, Allah will screen him on the Day of Resurrection.”

(4) CHAPTER. Help your brother whether he is an oppressor or he is an oppressed one. (See Hadith 2444 below).

2443. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “Help your brother, whether he is an oppressor or he is an oppressed one.”

2444. Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger said, “Help your brother, whether he is an oppressor or he is an oppressed one. People asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! It is all right to help him if he is oppressed, but how should we help him if he is an oppressor?” The Prophet said, “By preventing him from oppressing others.”

(5) CHAPTER. To help the oppressed.

2445. Narrated Mu`awiya bin Suwaid: I heard Al-Bara’ bin ‘Azib saying, “The Prophet ordered us to do seven things and prohibited us from doing seven other things.” Then Al-Bara’ mentioned:

(He ordered us the following):
1. To pay a visit to the sick (enquiring about his health),
2. to follow funeral procession,
3. to say to a sneezer, “May Allah be Merciful to you” (if he says, ‘Praise be to Allah!’),
4. to return greetings,
5. to help the oppressed,
6. to accept invitations,
7. to help others to fulfill their oaths.

[See Hadith 5863 and H. 1239]

2446. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet said, “A believer to another believer is like a building whose different parts reinforce each other.” The Prophet then clasped his hands, with the fingers interlaced (while saying that).
(6) CHAPTER. To retaliate upon an oppressor (by invoking Allâh to punish him).

As is referred to in this Statement of Allâh:

“Allâh does not like that the evil should be uttered in public except by him who has been wronged. And Allâh is Ever All-Hearer, All-Knower.” (V.4:148)

“And those who, when an oppressive wrong is done to them, take revenge.” (V.42:39)

Ibrahim said, “They disliked to be humiliated, and when they were powerful, they would forgive (their oppressors).”

(7) CHAPTER. Forgiveness granted by the oppressed person.

As is referred to by the Statement of Allâh

“Whether you (mankind) disclose (by good words of thanks) a good deed (done to you in the form of a favour by someone), or conceal it, or pardon an evil... verily, Allâh is Ever Oft-Pardoning, All-Powerful.” (V.4:149)

“The recompense for an evil is an evil like thereof, but whoever forgives and makes reconciliation, his reward is with Allâh; Verily, He likes not the Zâlimûn (polytheists, oppressors and wrong-doers). And indeed whosoever takes revenge after he has suffered wrong, for such there is no way (of blame) against them.

The way (of blame) is only against those who oppress men and wrongly rebel in the earth without justification; for such there will be a painful torment.

And verily, whosoever shows patience and forgives, that would truly be from the things recommended by Allâh.

And whomsoever Allâh sends astray, for him there is no Wâli (protector, helper, guardian) after Him. And you will see the Zâlimûn (polytheists, wrong-doers, oppressors) when they behold the torment, they will say: Is there any way of return (to the world).” (V.42:40-44)

(8) CHAPTER. Az-Zulm (oppression) will be a darkness on the Day of Resurrection.

(9) CHAPTER. One should save oneself from the curse of the oppressed.

2448. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet sent Mu‘âdh to Yemen and said, “Be afraid, from the curse of the oppressed as there is no screen between his invocation and Allâh.”

(10) CHAPTER. If the oppressed one forgives the oppressor, is it necessary to describe his oppression?

2449. Narrated Abû Hurairah: (A) [H. 2448] Allâh will respond to his invocation and punish the oppressor sooner or later. (Qâṣâ’il).
Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Whoever has oppressed another person concerning his reputation or anything else, he should beg him to forgive him before the Day of Resurrection when there will be no money (to compensate for wrong deeds), but if he has good deeds, those good deeds will be taken from him according to his oppression which he has done, and if he has no good deeds, the sins of the oppressed person will be loaded on him."

(11) CHAPTER. If the oppressed person forgives the oppressor, he has no right to back out (of his forgiveness).

2450. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها regarding the explanation of the following Verse:

“And if a woman fears cruelty or desertion on her husband’s part…” (V.4:128)

A man may dislike his wife and intend to divorce her, so she says to him, "I give up my rights, so do not divorce me." The above Verse was revealed concerning such a case.

(12) CHAPTER. If a person allows another or permits him (the latter) to have something of his right and does not clarify as to how much is that?

2451. Narrated Saḥl bin Sa’d As-Sa’idi: A drink (milk mixed with water) was brought to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ who drank some of it. A boy was sitting to his right, and some old men to his left. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to the boy, “Do you allow me to give the rest of the drink to these people?” The boy said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I will not give preference to anyone over me to have my share from you (i.e., to drink the rest of it from which you have drunk).” So Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ handed the bowl (of drink) to the boy. [See Ḥadīth No.2351].

(13) CHAPTER. The sin of him who usurps the land of others.

2452. Narrated Sa’īd bin Zaid: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever usurps the land of somebody unjustly, his neck will be encircled with seven earths (on the Day of Resurrection).”

2453. Abū Salama narrated that there was a dispute between him and some people (about a piece of land). When he told ‘Āishah about it, she said, “O Abū Salama! Avoid taking the land unjustly, for the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Whoever usurps even one span of the land of somebody, his neck will be encircled with seven earths (on the Day of Resurrection).’”
2454. Narrated Sālim’s father (i.e., ‘Abdullah ﷺ): The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever takes a piece of the land of others unjustly, he will sink down the seven earths on the Day of Resurrection.”

(14) CHAPTER. If somebody allows another to do something, the permission is valid.

2455. Narrated Jabala: “We were in Al-Madina with some of the Iraqi people, and we were struck with drought (famine) and Ibn Az-Zubair used to give us dates. Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ used to pass by us and say, “The Prophet ﷺ forbade us to eat two dates at a time, unless one takes the permission of one’s companions.”

2456. Narrated Abū Mas‘ūd: There was an Anṣārī man called Abū Shu‘aib who had a slave butcher. Abū Shu‘aib said to him, “Prepare a meal sufficient for five persons so that I might invite the Prophet ﷺ.”
Besides other four persons." Abū Shuʿaib had seen the signs of hunger on the face of the Prophet and so he invited him. Another man who was not invited followed the Prophet. The Prophet said to Abū Shuʿaib, "This man has followed us. Do you want him to share the meal?" Abū Shuʿaib said, "Yes."

(15) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

Yet he is the most quarrelsome of the opponents... (V.2:204)

2457. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet said, "The most hated person to Allāh is the most quarrelsome person of the opponents."

(16) CHAPTER. The sin of a man who quarrels unjustly over something while he knows that he is wrong.

2458. Narrated Umm Salama: "Allāh's Messenger heard some people quarrelling at the door of his dwelling. He came out and said, "I am only a human being, and opponents come to me (to settle their problems); may be someone amongst you can present his case more eloquently than the other, whereby I may consider him true and give a verdict in his favour. So, if I give the right of a Muslim to another by mistake, then it is only a portion of (Hell) Fire, he has the option to take or give up (before the Day of Resurrection)."
(17) CHAPTER. (The sin of) the person who, when quarrelling, behaves impudently (i.e., by using bad words or false accusation).

2459. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Amr: The Prophet said, “Whoever has (the following) four (characteristics) will be a hypocrite, and whoever has one of the following four characteristics will have one characteristic of hypocrisy until he gives it up. These are:

1. Whenever he speaks, he tells a lie;
2. whenever he makes a promise, he breaks it;
3. whenever he makes a covenant, he proves treacherous;
4. and whenever he quarrels, he behaves impudently in an evil, insulting manner.”

[See Vo. 1, Hadith No.33, 34).

(18) CHAPTER. The retaliation of the oppressed person if he finds the property of his oppressor.

Ibn Sirin said, “The oppressed person can take what is equal to the amount taken by the oppressor.” He then recited:

“And if you punish (your enemy, O you believers in the Oneness of Allâh), then punish them with the like of that with which you were afflicted…” (V.16:126)

2460. Narrated ‘Âishah: Hind bint ‘Utba (Abû Sufyân’s wife) came and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Abû Sufyân is a miser. Is there any harm if I spend something from his property for our children?” He said, “There is no harm for you if you feed them from it justly and reasonably (with no extravagance).”

2461. Narrated ‘Uqba bin ‘Amir: We said to the Prophet ﷺ, “You send us out and it happens that we have to stay with such people who do not entertain us. What do you think about it?” He said to us, “If you stay with some people and they entertain you as they should for a guest, accept their hospitality, but if they don’t do, take the right of the guest from them.”

(19) CHAPTER. What is said about sheds.

And the Prophet ﷺ along with his companions, sat in the shed of Banī Sā’īda.

2462. Narrated ‘Umar: When Allāh took away the soul of His Prophet ﷺ at his death, the Ansār assembled in the shed of Banī Sā’īda. I said to Abū Bakr, “Let us go.” So, we came to them (i.e., to Ansār) at the shed of Banī Sā’īda.

[See Vol 5, Hadith No.3667, for details].
(20) CHAPTER. No one should prevent his neighbour from fixing a wooden peg in his wall.

2463. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "No one should prevent his neighbour from fixing a wooden peg in his wall." Abū Hurairah then said (to his companions), "Why do I find you averse to it? By Allah, I certainly will narrate it to you."

(21) CHAPTER. Spilling wine on the way.

2464. Narrated Anas: I was the butler of the people in the house of Abū Ṭalḥa, and in those days drinks were prepared from dates. Allah's Messenger ordered somebody to announce that alcoholic drinks had been prohibited. Abū Ṭalḥa ordered me to go out and spill the wine. I went out and spilled it, and it flowed in the streets of Al-Madina. Some people said, "Some people were killed and wine was still in their stomachs." On that the Divine revelation came:

"Those who believe and do righteous good deeds, there is no sin on them for what they ate (in the past)...." (V.5:93)
(22) CHAPTER. What is said about the open courtyards of houses and sitting in them, and sitting on the ways.

Narrated ‘Āishah : Abū Bakr got a mosque constructed in front of his house and used to offer Salāt (prayer) and recite the Qur’ān there. The women and children of the Mushrikūn used to encircle him and were astonished at his behaviour. The Prophet ﷺ was staying at Makkah during those days.

2465. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri : The Prophet ﷺ said, “Beware! Avoid sitting on the roads (ways).” The people said, “There is no way out of it as these are our sitting places where we have talks.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “If you must sit there, then observe the rights of the way.” They asked, “What are the rights of the way?” He said, “They are the lowering of your gazes (on seeing what is illegal to look at), refraining from harming people, returning greetings, enjoining Al-Ma‘rūf (i.e., Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam orders one to do) and forbidding Al-Munkar (i.e., polytheism, disbelief, and all that Islam has forbidden).”

(23) CHAPTER. The digging of wells on the ways (is permissible) if they do not cause trouble to the people.

2466. Narrated Abū Hurairah : The Prophet ﷺ said, “A man felt very thirsty while he was on the way, there he came across a well. He went down the well, quenched his thirst and came out.
Meanwhile he saw a dog panting and licking mud because of excessive thirst. He said to himself, ‘This dog is suffering from thirst as I did.’ So, he went down the well again and filled his shoe with water and watered the dog. Allāh thanked him for that deed and forgave him. The people said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Is there a reward for us in serving the animals?” He replied: “Yes, there is a reward for serving any animate (living being).”

[See Ḥadīth No.2363].

(24) CHAPTER. To remove harmful things from the roads.

Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “To remove harmful things from the roads is Sadaqa (a charitable act).”

(25) CHAPTER. (The permissibility of living on) higher places of a house, looking upon other houses or not looking upon other houses, whether these places are on roofs or not.

2467. Narrated Usāma bin Zaid ﷺ: Once the Prophet ﷺ stood at the top of one of the castles (or higher buildings) of Al-Madīna and said, “Do you see what I see? No doubt I see the places or spots of Al-Fītan (trials and afflictions) amongst your houses as numerous as the spots where rain-drops fall (during a heavy rain).

[See Ḥadīth No.1878]
2468. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Abbãs : I had been eager to ask ‘Umar about the two ladies from among the wives of the Prophet regarding whom Allah said (in the Qur‘ân saying) : “If you two (wives of the Prophet namely ‘Âishah and Hafşa) turn in repentance to Allah, your hearts are indeed so inclined (to oppose what the Prophet likes)…” (V.66:4), till I performed the Hajj along with ‘Umar. (And on our way back from Hajj) he went aside (to answer the call of nature) and I also went aside along with him carrying a tumbler of water. When he had answered the call of nature and returned, I poured water on his hands from the tumbler and he performed ablution. I said, “O chief of the believers!” Who were the two ladies from among the wives of the Prophet to whom Allah said: ‘If you two (wives of the Prophet namely ‘Âishah and Hafşa) turn in repentance to Allah, your hearts are indeed so inclined (to oppose what the Prophet likes)…” (V.66:4) He said, “I am astonished at your question, O Ibn ‘Abbãs. They were ‘Âishah and Hafsa.” Then ‘Umar went on relating the narration and said, “I and an Ansãrî neighbour of mine from Bani Umaiyya bin Zaid who used to live in ‘Awãlî Al-Mdîna, used to visit the Prophet in turns. He used to go one day, and I another day. When I went, I would bring him the news of what had happened that day regarding the instructions and orders, and when he went, he used to do the same for me. We, the people of Quraish, used to have authority over women, but when we came to live with the Ansãr, we noticed that the Ansãr women had the upperhand over their men, so our women started acquiring the habits of the Ansārī women. Once I shouted at my wife and she shouted back at me in return and I disliked that she should answer me back. She said, ‘Why do you take it ill that I retort upon you? By Allāh, the wives of the Prophet ﷺ retort upon him, and some of them may not speak with him for the whole day till night.’ What she said scared me and I said to her, ‘Whoever amongst them does so, will be a great loser.’ Then I dressed myself and went to Hafṣa and asked her, ‘Does any of you keep Allāh’s Messenger angry all the day long till night?’ She replied in the affirmative. I said, ‘She is a ruined losing person (and will never have success)! Doesn’t she fear that Allāh may get angry for the anger of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and thus she will be ruined? Don’t ask Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ too many things, and don’t retort upon him in any case, and don’t desert him. Demand from me whatever you like, and don’t be tempted to imitate your neighbour (i.e., ‘Aīshah) in her behavior towards the Prophet ﷺ, for she (i.e., ‘Aīshah) is more beautiful than you, and more beloved to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. In those days it was rumoured that Ghassān, (a tribe living in Shām) was getting prepared their horses to invade us. My companion went (to the Prophet ﷺ) on the day of his turn, went and returned to us at night and knocked at my door violently, asking whether I was sleeping. I was scared (by the hard knocking) and came out to him. He said that a great thing had happened. I asked him: ‘What is it? Have Ghassān come?’ He replied that it was worse and more serious than that, and added that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had divorced all his wives. I said, ‘Hafṣa is a ruined loser! I expected that it would happen some day.’ So I dressed myself and offered the Fajr (prayer) with the Prophet ﷺ. Then the Prophet ﷺ entered an upper room and stayed there alone. I went to Ḥafṣa and found her weeping. I asked her, ‘Why are you weeping? Didn’t I warn you? Have Allāh’s Messenger divorced you all?’ She replied, ‘I don’t know. He is there in the upper room.’ I then went out and came to the pulpit and found a group of people around it and some of them were weeping. Then I sat with them for some time, but could not endure the situation. So, I went to the upper room where the Prophet was and requested to a black slave of his: ‘Will you get the permission of (Allāh’s Messenger) for ‘Umar (to enter)?’ The slave went in, talked to the Prophet about it and came out saying, ‘I mentioned you to him but he did not reply.’ So, I went and sat with the people who were sitting by the pulpit, but I could not bear the situation, so I went to the slave again and said: ‘Will you get the permission for ‘Umar?’ He went in and brought the same reply as before. When I was leaving, behold, the slave called me saying, ‘Allāh’s Messenger has granted you permission.’

So, I entered upon the Prophet and saw him lying on a mat without bedding on it, and the mat had left its mark on the body of the Prophet, and he was leaning on a leather pillow stuffed with palm fibres. I greeted him and while still standing, I said: ‘Have you divorced your wives?’ He raised his eyes to me and replied in the negative. And then while still standing, I said chattily: ‘Will you heed what I say, O Allah’s Messenger! We, the people of Quraish used to have the upper hand over our women (wives), and when we came to the people whose women had the upper hand over them,...’” ‘Umar told the whole story (about his wife). “On that the Prophet smiled.” ‘Umar further said, “I then said, ‘I went to Ḥafṣa and said to her: Do not be tempted to imitate your companion (‘Aishah) for she is more beautiful than you and more beloved to the Prophet ﷺ.' The Prophet ﷺ smiled again. When I saw him smiling, I sat down and cast a glance at the room, and by Allah, I couldn’t see anything of importance but three hides. I said (to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ) ‘Invoke Allah to make your followers prosperous for the Persians and the Byzantines have been made prosperous and given worldly luxuries, though they do not worship Allah?’ The Prophet ﷺ was leaning then (and on hearing my speech he sat straight) and said, ‘O Ibn Al-Khattāb! Do you have any doubt (that the Hereafter is better than this world)? These people have been given rewards of their good deeds in this world only.’ I asked the Prophet ﷺ, ‘Please ask Allah’s Forgiveness for me.’ The Prophet ﷺ did not go to his wives because of the secret which Hafsa had disclosed to ‘Aishah,(1) and he said that he would not go to his wives for one month as he was angry with them when Allah admonished him (for his oath that he would not approach Maria). When twenty-nine days had passed, the Prophet ﷺ went to ‘Aishah first of all. She said to him, ‘You took an oath that you would not come to us for one month, and today only twenty-nine days have passed, as I have been counting them day by day.’ The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘The month is also of twenty-nine days.’ That month consisted of twenty-nine days. ‘Aishah said, ‘When the Divine Revelation of “choice” was revealed, the Prophet ﷺ started with me, saying to me, ‘I am telling you something, but you needn’t hurry to give the reply till you consult your

(1) (H. 2468) The Prophet ﷺ was alone with Maria on the day that was devoted to ‘Aishah. When Hafsa learned that, the Prophet ﷺ told her to keep that as a secret and promised that he would not come near Maria. But Hafsa disclosed the secret to ‘Aishah who got angry and then provoked the Prophet ﷺ who took an oath that he would desert her for one month.
parents.' 'Aishah knew that her parents would not advise her to part with the Prophet. The Prophet said that Allâh had said: 'O Prophet (Muhammad)! Say to your wives... (up to)... an enormous reward.' (V.33:28) 'Aishah said, 'Am I to consult my parents about this? I indeed prefer Allâh, His Messenger, and the home of the Hereafter.' After that the Prophet gave the choice to his other wives and they also gave the same reply as 'Aishah did.'

2469. Narrated Anas: Allâh’s Messenger took an oath that he would not go to his wives for one month as his foot had been sprained. He stayed in an upper room when ‘Umar went to him and said, "Have you divorced your wives?" He said, "No, but I have taken an oath that I would not go to them for one month." The Prophet stayed there for twenty-nine days, and then came down and went to his wives.

(26) CHAPTER. Whoever tied his camel at the pavement (of the mosque) or at the gate of the mosque.

2470. Narrated Jâbir: The Prophet entered the mosque, and I, too, went there after tying the camel at the pavement of the mosque. I said (to the Prophet), "This is your camel." He came out and started examining the camel and said, “Both the camel and its price are for you.”

(27) CHAPTER. Standing and urinating at the dumps of some people.

2471. Narrated Ḥudhaifah: I saw Allāh’s Messenger coming (or the Prophet came) to the dumps of some people and urinated there while standing.

(28) CHAPTER. (The reward of him) who removes a branch of a tree or any other thing which harms the people from the way.

2472. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “While a man was on the way, he found a thorny branch of a tree there on the way and removed it. Allāh thanked him for that deed and forgave him.”

(29) CHAPTER. When there is a dispute about a public way and the owner of the land wishes to build (something), he should leave seven cubits for the people to pass through.

2473. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet judged that seven cubits should be left as a public way when there was (30) CHAPTER. Robbing (taking away somebody’s property publicly by force without his permission).

‘Ubada said, “We gave the Bai’a (pledge) to the Prophet ﷺ that we would not commit robbery.”

2474. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Yazid Al-Anãri: The Prophet ﷺ forbade robbery (taking away what belongs to others by force without their permission), and also forbade mutilation (or maiming) of bodies.

2475. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “When an adulterer commits illegal sexual intercourse, then he is not a believer at the time he is committing it, and when a drinker of an alcoholic liquor drinks it, then he is not a believer at the time of drinking it, and when a thief steals, then he is not a believer at the time of stealing, and when a robber robs, and the people look at him, then he is not a believer at the time of committing robbery.”

(31) CHAPTER. The breaking of the cross and the killing of the pigs.

2476. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “The Hour will not be established until the son of Mary descends amongst you and will judge mankind justly by the Law of the Qur’ān (as a just ruler); he will break the cross, kill the pigs, and abolish the Jizya tax. Money will be in abundance so that nobody will accept it (as charitable gifts).” (See H. 2222) [See Fath Al-Bārī]

(32) CHAPTER. (Is it permissible) to break the pots containing wine, or tear the leather containers holding wine? If one breaks an idol, a cross, or a drum (for amusement), or any other thing, the wood of which is useless (should one give a compensation)?

A case of a drum broken by somebody was presented to Shuraīḥ who did not impose a compensation on the person who had broken it.

2477. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa': On the day (the battle) of Khaibar the Prophet saw fires being lighted. He asked, “Why are these fires being lighted?” The people replied that they were cooking the meat of donkeys. He said, “Break the pots and throw away their contents.” The people

(1) (H. 2476) The Jizya is a tax imposed on non-Muslims who would keep their own religion rather than embrace Islam, this will not be accepted by ‘Iesa (Jesus) but all people will be required to embrace Islam and there will be no other alternative.
said, “Shall we throw away their contents and wash the pots (rather than break them)?” He said, “Wash them.”

2478. Narrated ’Abdullãh bin Mas'ûd رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ entered Makkah and (at that time) there were three hundred and sixty idols around the Ka'bah. He started stabbing the idols with a stick he had in his hand and reciting:

“...And say Truth (i.e., Islamic Monotheism or this Qur'an or Jihad against polytheists) has come and Batil (falsehood, i.e., Satan or polytheism) has vanished.” (V.17:81)

2479. Narrated Al-Qäsim: ‘Aishah ﷺ said that she hung a curtain decorated with pictures on a cupboard. The Prophet ﷺ tore that curtain and she turned it into two cushions which remained in the house for the Prophet ﷺ to sit on.

(33) CHAPTER. (What is said about) one who fights to protect his property?

2480. Narrated ’Abdullãh bin ‘Amr رضي الله عنهما: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Whoever is killed while protecting his property, then he is a martyr.”

(34) CHAPTER. If a person breaks a wooden bowl or something else belonging to somebody, (should he give a compensation)?

2481. Narrated Anas: While the Prophet was with one of his wives, one of the Mothers of the believers (i.e., one of his wives) sent a wooden bowl containing food with a servant. The wife (in whose house he was sitting) stroke the bowl with her hand and broke it. The Prophet collected the shattered pieces and put the food back in it and said, “(Help yourselves and) eat.” He kept the servant and the bowl till he had eaten the food. Then the Prophet gave another unbroken bowl to the servant and kept the broken one.

(35) CHAPTER. If one pulls down a wall, one should build a similar one in its place.

2482. Narrated Abú Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “There was an Israeli man called Juraij, while he was offering prayer, his mother came and called him, but he did not respond to her call. He said (to himself) whether he should continue the prayer or reply to his mother. She came to him the second time and called him and... said, ‘O Allah! Do not let him die until he sees the faces of prostitutes.’ Juraij used to live in a hermitage. A woman said that she would entice Juraij, so she went to him and presented herself (for an evil act) but he refused. She then went to a shepherd and allowed him to commit an illegal sexual intercourse with her and later she gave birth to a boy. She alleged that the baby was from Juraij. The people went to Juraij and broke down his hermitage, pulled him out of it and abused him. He performed ablution and offered the prayer, then he went to the male (baby) and asked him: ‘O boy! Who is your father?’ The baby replied that his father was the shepherd. The people said that they would build for him a hermitage of gold but Juraij asked them to make it of mud only.” (See H. 3436)
(1) CHAPTER. About (sharing) meals and the \textit{Nahd} (i.e., sharing the expenses of a journey or putting the journey food of the travellers together to be distributed among them in equal shares) and \textit{Urūd} (i.e., sharing other goods).

And how to divide what can be measured or weighed i.e., without measuring or weighing it; or by measuring or weighing it.

Muslims see no harm in practising \textit{Nahd} by which some (the partners) may eat so much, and some may eat so much of the food (without measuring or weighing it). And what about distributing gold and silver without weighing them, and about eating two dates at a time (when sharing a meal).

2483. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: “Allāh’s Messenger \(\text{صقی} \) sent an army towards the sea coast and appointed Abū ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrāḥ as their chief, and the army consisted of three hundred men including myself. We marched on till we reached a place where our food was about to finish. Abū ‘Ubaida ordered us to collect all the journey food and it was collected. My (our) journey food was dates. Abū ‘Ubaida kept on giving us our daily ration in small amounts from it, till it was exhausted. The share of everyone of us used to be one date only.” I said, “How could one date benefit you?” Jābir replied, “We came to know its value when even that too finished.” Jābir added, “When we reached the sea-shore, we saw a huge fish which was like a small mountain. The army ate from it for eighteen days. Then Abū ‘Ubaida ordered that two of its ribs be fixed and they were fixed in the ground. Then he ordered that a she-camel be ridden and it passed under the two ribs (forming an arch) without touching them.”

2484. Narrated Salama: Once the journey-food diminished and the people were reduced to poverty. They went to the Prophet and asked his permission to slaughter their camels, and he permitted them. Umar met them and they told him about it, and he said, “How would you survive after slaughtering your camels?” Then he went to the Prophet and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! How would they survive after slaughtering their camels?” Allâh’s Messenger ordered Umar, “Call upon the people to bring what has remained of their food.” A leather sheet was spread and all the journey food was collected and heaped over it. Allâh’s Messenger stood up and invoked Allâh to bless it, and then directed all the people to come with their utensils, and they started taking from it till all of them got what was sufficient for them. Allâh’s Messenger then said: I testify that “La ilaha il/allah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh), and I am the Messenger of Allâh.”

2485. Narrated Râfi’ bin Khadij: We used to offer the Asr prayer with the Prophet and slaughter a camel, the meat of which would be divided in ten parts and we would eat the cooked meat before sunset.
2486. Narrated Abū Mūsa: The Prophet ﷺ said, “When the people of Ash’ari tribe ran short of food during the holy battles, or the food of their families in Al-Madīna ran short, they would collect all their remaining food in one sheet and then distribute it among themselves equally by measuring it with a bowl. So, these people are from me, and I am from them.”

(2) CHAPTER. Partners possessing joint property (sheep) have to pay its Zakāt equally.

2487. Narrated Anās that Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddīq wrote to him the law of Zakāt which was made obligatory by Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. He wrote: Partners possessing joint property (sheep) have to pay its Zakāt equally.

(3) CHAPTER. Division of sheep.

2488. Narrated ‘Abāya bin Rīfā‘a bin Rāfi‘ bin Khādij: My grandfather said, “We were in the company of the Prophet ﷺ at Dhul-Ḥulaifa. The people were struck with hunger and captured some camels and sheep (as booty). The Prophet ﷺ was behind the people. They hurried and slaughtered the animals and put their meat in pots and started cooking it. (When the Prophet ﷺ came) he ordered the pots to be upset and then he distributed the animals (of the booty), regarding ten sheep as equal to one camel. One of the camels fled and the people ran after it till they were exhausted. At that time there were few horses. A man threw an arrow at the camel, and Allah stopped the camel with it. The Prophet said, ‘Some of these animals are like wild animals, so if you lose control over one of these animals, treat it in this way (i.e., shoot it with an arrow).’

My grandfather added, ‘We were afraid that we may meet the enemies in the future and have no knives; [we asked the Prophet], ‘can we slaughter the animals with reeds?’ The Prophet said, ‘Use whatever causes blood to flow, and eat the animals if the Name of Allah has been mentioned on slaughtering them. Do not slaughter with teeth or fingernails and I will tell you why: It is because teeth are bones (i.e., cannot cut properly) and fingernails are the tools used by the Ethiopians (whom we should not imitate for they are infidels).’

(4) CHAPTER. A partner sharing a meal should not eat two dates at a time unless he gets the permission of his partner.

2489. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet decreed that one should not eat two dates together at a time unless he gets the permission from his companions (sharing the meal with him).

2490. Narrated Jabala: While at Al-

(1) (H. 2488) The Prophet did not agree to their slaughtering the animals of the booty before distributing them among the soldiers.
Madina we were struck with famine. Ibn Az-Zubair used to provide us with dates as our food. Ibn ‘Umar used to pass by us and say, “Don’t eat two dates together at a time as the Prophet ﷺ has forbidden eating two dates together at a time (in a gathering) unless one takes the permission of one’s companion brother.”

(5) CHAPTER. To get a joint property evaluated with an adequate price.

2491. Narrated Nāfi’: Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنه said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘If one manumits his share of a jointly possessed slave, and can afford the price of the other share according to the adequate price of the slave, the slave will be completely manumitted; otherwise he will be partially manumitted.’”

(Ayyūb, a subnarrator is not sure whether the saying “... otherwise he will be partially manumitted” was said by Nāfi’ or the Prophet ﷺ).

2492. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever manumits his share of a jointly possessed slave, it is imperative for him to get that slave manumitted completely by paying the remaining price, and if he does not have sufficient money to manumit him, then the price of the slave should be estimated justly, and he (the slave) is to be allowed to work and earn the amount that will manumit him (without overburdening him)”.

[النَّظَرُ: ٢٥٠٣] ٢٥٠٥
(6) CHAPTER. Can one draw lots for divisions and shares?

2493. Narrated An-Nu‘mān bin Bashir: The Prophet said, “The example of the person abiding by Allâh’s Orders and Restrictions in comparison to those who violate them is like the example of those persons who drew lots for their seats in a ship. Some of them got seats in the upper part, and the others in the lower. When the latter needed water, they had to go up to bring water (and that troubled the others), so they said, ‘Let us make a hole in our share of the ship (and get water) saving those who are above us from trouble. So, if the people in the upper part left the others do what they had intended, all of them would be perished, but if they prevented them (from doing so), both parties would be saved.”

(7) CHAPTER. The partnership of orphans and other inheritors.

2494. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair that he had asked ‘A’ishah about the meaning of the Statement of Allâh (V.4:3):

“And if you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly... (up to)... or four... (V.4:3)

She said, “O my nephew! This is about the orphan girl who lives with her guardian and shares his property. Her wealth and beauty may tempt him to marry her without giving her an adequate Mahr (bridal-money) which might have been given by another suitor. So, such guardians were forbidden to marry such girls.”
orphan girls unless they treated them justly and gave them the most suitable Mahr; otherwise they were ordered to marry any other woman.” ‘Aīshah further said, “After that Verse the people again asked the Prophet (about the marriage with orphan girls), so Allâh revealed the following Verses:

‘They ask your legal instruction concerning women… (up to)… and yet whom you desire to marry…’ (V.4:127)

What is meant by Allâh’s Saying:

‘And about what is recited unto you’ is the former Verse which goes:

‘And if you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphan girls, then marry (other) women of your choice…’

‘Aīshah ṭabīhī allâh ʿanâhâ said, “Allâh’s Saying in the other Verse:

‘…Yet whom you desire to marry…’ means the desire of the guardian to marry an orphan girl under his supervision when she has not much property or beauty (in which case he should treat her justly). The guardians were forbidden to marry the orphan girls under their care possessing property and beauty without being just to them, as they generally refrain from marrying them (when they are neither beautiful nor wealthy).”
(8) CHAPTER. Sharing land, etc.

2495. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنـهـما: The Prophet ﷺ established the right of Shuf’a (i.e., pre-emption) in joint properties; but when the land is divided and the ways are demarcated, then there is no pre-emption.

(9) CHAPTER. If partners divide the houses, etc., none of them has the right of backing out or the right of pre-emption.

2496. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنـهـما: The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘The right of pre-emption is valid in every joint property, but when the land is divided and the way is demarcated, then there is no right of pre-emption.’

(10) CHAPTER. Sharing gold, silver and other articles used in money exchange.

2497, 2498. Narrated Sulaimān bin Abū Muslim: I asked Abū Minhāl about money exchange from hand to hand. He said, “I and a partner of mine bought something partly in cash and partly on credit.” Al-Barā’ bin ‘Azib passed by us and we asked about it. He replied, “I and my partner Zaid bin Al-Arqam did the same and then went to the Prophet ﷺ and asked him about it. He ﷺ said, ‘Take what was from hand to hand and leave what was on credit.’”
(11) CHAPTER. Partnership with a Dhimmi
(A Jew or a Christian under the protection of a Muslim Government and Al-Mushirkūn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans) in share-cropping.

2499. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: Allāh’s Messenger rented the land of Khaibar to the Jews on the condition that they would work on it and cultivate it and take half of its yield.

(12) CHAPTER. Distribution of sheep and dividing them justly.

2500. Narrated ‘Uqba bin ‘Amir that Allāh’s Messenger gave him some sheep to distribute among his companions in order to sacrifice them and a kid was left. He told the Prophet about it and the Prophet said to him, “Sacrifice it on your behalf.”

(13) CHAPTER. The sharing of food, etc.

It is said that a man offered some price for something and another man signalled him to buy it. When ‘Umar noticed that, he considered the second man as a partner of the first.

2501, 2502. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Hishām, that his mother Zainab bint Humaid took him to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Take the Bai‘a (pledge) from him.” But he said, “He is still too young for the pledge,” and passed his hand on his (i.e., ‘Abdullāh’s) head and invoked for Allāh’s Blessing for him. Zuhra bin Ma‘bad stated that he used to go with his grandfather, ‘Abdullāh bin Hishām, to the market to buy foodstuff. Ibn ‘Umar and Ibn Az-Zubair would meet him and say to him, “Be our partner, as the Prophet ﷺ invoked Allāh to bless you.” So, he would be their partner, and very often he would win a camel’s load and send it home.

(14) CHAPTER. Sharing the slaves.

2503. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever manumits his share of a jointly possessed slave, it is imperative on him to manumit the slave completely if he has sufficient money to pay the rest of its price which is to be estimated justly. He should pay his partners their shares and release him.”
2504. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Whoever manumits his share of a jointly possessed slave, it is essential for him to manumit the slave completely if he has sufficient money. Otherwise he should look for some work for the slave (to earn what would enable him to emancipate himself), without overburdening him with work.”

(15) CHAPTER. Sharing the Hady and Budn. (Is it permissible for one) to share the Hady with somebody else after it has been slaughtered?

2505, 2506. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet (along with his companions) reached Makkah in the morning of the fourth of Dhul-Hijjah assuming Ḥijāz for Ḥajj only. So when we arrived at Makkah, the Prophet ordered us to change our intentions of the Ḥijāz for ‘Umrah and that we could finish our Ḥijāz after performing the ‘Umrah and could go to our wives (for sexual intercourse). The people began talking about that(1). Jābir said surprisingly, “Shall we go to Mina while semen is dribbling from our male organs?”(2) Jābir moved his hand while saying so. When this news reached the Prophet he delivered a Khutba (religious talk) and said, “I have been informed that some people were saying so-and-so. By Allāh I fear Allāh more than you do, and am more obedient to Him than you. If I had known what I know now, I would not have brought

---

(1) (H. 2505) People thought that it was sinful to perform ‘Umrah during the months of Ḥajj, so when the Prophet ordered them to perform ‘Umrah with Ḥajj (i.e., Ḥajj-at-Tamattu’), they were astonished.

the Hady (sacrifice) with me and had the Hady not been with me, I would have finished the Ihram.” At that, Surāqa bin Malik stood up and asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! Is this permission for us only or is it forever?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “It is forever.” In the meantime ‘Ali bin Abī Talib came from Yemen and was saying Labbaik for what the Prophet ﷺ has intended. (According to another man, ‘Ali was saying Labbaik for Hajj similar to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ). The Prophet ﷺ told him to keep on the Ihram and let him share the Hady with him.

(16) CHAPTER. Whoever regarded ten sheep as equal to one camel in distribution.

2507. Narrated ‘Abāya bin Rīfā‘a: My grandfather, Rāfī’ bin Khadij, said, “We were in the valley of Dhul-Hulaifa of Tihāma in the company of the Prophet ﷺ and had some camels and sheep (of the booty). The people hurried (in slaughtering the animals) and put their meat in the pots and started cooking. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ came and ordered them to upset the pots, and distributed the booty considering one camel as equal to ten sheep. One of the camels fled and the people had only a few horses, so they got worried. (The camel was chased and) a man stopped the camel by throwing an arrow at it. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Some of these animals are untamed like wild animals, so if anyone of them went out of your control, then you should treat it as you have done now.’” My grandfather said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We fear that we may meet our enemy tomorrow and we have no knives, could we slaughter the animals with reeds?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes, or you can use what would make blood flow (slaughter) and you can eat what is slaughtered and the Name of Allâh is mentioned at the time of slaughtering. But don’t use teeth or fingernails (in slaughtering). I will tell you why, as for teeth, they are bones, and fingernails are used by Ethiopians for slaughtering.”

[See Hadith No. 2488]
(1) CHAPTER. The mortgaging in places occupied by settled population and the Statement of Allah:

"And if you are on a journey and cannot find a scribe, then let there be a pledge taken (i.e., mortgaging)...." (V.2:283)

2508. Narrated Anas: No doubt, the Prophet mortgaged his armour for barley grains. Once, I took barley bread with some dissolved fat on it to the Prophet and I heard him saying, “The household of Muhammad did not possess except a Sā’ (of food grain, barley, etc.) for both the morning and the evening meals, although they were nine houses.”

(2) CHAPTER. Mortgaging an armour.

2509. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet bought some foodstuff on credit for a limited period and mortgaged his armour for it.

(3) CHAPTER. Mortgaging the arms.

2510. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Who would kill Ka‘b bin Al-Ashraf as he has harmed Allah and His Messenger ﷺ?” Muhammad bin Maslama (got up and) said, “I will kill him.” So, Muhammad bin Maslama went to Ka'b and said, “I want a loan of one or two Wasq of foodgrains.” Ka'b said, “Mortgage your women to me.” Muhammad bin Maslama said, “How can we mortgage our women, and you are the most handsome among the Arabs?” He said, “Then mortgage your sons to me.” Muhammad said, “How can we mortgage our sons, as the people will abuse them for being mortgaged for one or two Wasq of foodgrains? It is shameful for us. But we will mortgage our arms to you.” So, Muhammad bin Maslama promised him that he would come to him next time. They (Muhammad bin Maslama and his companions) came to him as promised and murdered him. Then they went to the Prophet ﷺ and told him about it.

(4) CHAPTER. It is permissible to mortgage an animal used for riding or milking.

Mughira narrated that Ibrāhīm said: One can ride and milk the lost animal in proportion to the amount of food one gives to it; this is valid also for mortgaged animals.

2511. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “One can ride the mortgaged animal because of what one spends on it, and one can drink the milk of a milch animal as long as it is mortgaged.”

2512. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The mortgaged animal can be used for riding as long as it is fed; and the milk of the milch animal can be drunk according to what one spends on it. The one who rides the animal or drinks its milk should provide the expenditures.”

(5) CHAPTER. Mortgaging things to Jews and others.

2513. Narrated 'Aishah: Allah's Messenger bought some foodstuff from a Jew and mortgaged his armour to him.

(6) CHAPTER. If a dispute arises between the mortgagor and mortgagee, a proof is to be provided by the plaintiff, otherwise the defendant has to take an oath (if he insists on denying the plaintiff's claim).

2514. Narrated Ibn Abū Mulaika: I wrote a letter to Ibn 'Abbās and he wrote to me that the Prophet had given the verdict that the defendant had to take an oath.

2515, 2516. Narrated Abū Wā'il: 'Abdullāh (bin Mas'ūd) said, "Whoever took a false oath in order to grab somebody's property will meet Allāh while Allāh will be angry with him." Allāh revealed the following Verse to confirm that:
“Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allâh’s Covenant and their oaths, (to)... painful torment.” (V.3:77)

Al-Ash’ath bin Qais came to us and asked as to what Abû Abdur-Rahmân (i.e., Ibn Mas‘ûd) was telling us.” We related the story to him. On that he said, “He has told the truth. This Verse was revealed about me. I had some dispute with another man regarding a well and we took the case before Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said (to me), ‘Produce two witnesses (to support your claim); otherwise the defendant has the right to take an oath (to refute your claim).’ I said, ‘The defendant would not mind to take a false oath.’ Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ then said, ‘Whoever took a false oath in order to grab someone else’s property will meet Allâh, and Allâh will be angry with him.’ Allâh then revealed what confirmed it.” Al-Ash’ath then recited the following Verse:

“Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allâh’s Covenant, and their oaths... (to)... they shall have a painful torment!” (V.3:77)

[See Hadîth No.2356, 2357]
(1) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the manumission and its superiority

And the Statement of Allah:

"(It is) freeing a neck (slave). Or giving food in a day of hunger (famine), to an orphan near of kin."... (V.90:13-15)

2517. Narrated Abu Hurairah:
The Prophet said, “Whoever frees a Muslim slave, Allah will save all the parts of his body from the (Hell) Fire as he has manumitted the body-parts of the slave.”

Sa’id bin Marjana said that he narrated that Hadith to ‘Ali bin Al-Husain and he manumitted his slave for whom Abdullãh bin Ja’far had offered him ten thousand Dirham or one thousand Dinãr.

(2) CHAPTER. What is the best kind of manumission (of slaves)?

2518. Narrated Abu Dhar:
I asked the Prophet, “What is the best deed?” He replied, “To believe in Allah and to fight for His Cause.” I then asked, “What is the best kind of manumission (of slaves)?” He replied, “The manumission of the most expensive slave and the most beloved by his master.” I said, “If I cannot afford to do that?” He said, “Help the weak or do good for a person who cannot work for himself.” I said, “If I cannot do that?” He said, “Refrain from harming others for this will be regarded as a charitable deed for your own good.”

(3) CHAPTER. Manumitting slaves at the time of eclipses, or on the appearance of some other signs of Allah, is recommended.

2519. Narrated Asma’ bint Abū Bakr رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ ordered us to manumit slaves at the time of solar eclipses.

2520. Narrated Asmā’ bin Abū Bakr رضي الله عنها: We were ordered to manumit slaves at the time of lunar eclipses.

(4) CHAPTER. If one manumits a male slave owned by two persons or a female slave owned by a number of partners.

2521. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever manumits a slave owned by two masters, should manumit him completely (not partially) if he is rich after having its price evaluated.”
2522. Narrated 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Whoever manumits his share of a jointly possessed slave and he has sufficient money to manumit him completely, should let its price be estimated by a just man and give his partners the price of their shares and manumit the slave; otherwise (i.e., if he has not sufficient money) he manumits the slave partially."

2523. Narrated Ibn 'Umar رضي الله عنه : Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Whoever manumits his share of a jointly possessed slave, then it is essential for him to get that slave manumitted completely as long as he has the money to do so. If he has not sufficient money to pay the price of the other shares (after the price of the slave is evaluated justly), the manumitter manumits the slave partially in proportion to his share.

2524. Narrated Ibn 'Umar Rضي الله عنه : The Prophet ﷺ said, "He who manumits his share and has money sufficient to free the remaining portion of that slave's price (justly estimated) then he should manumit him (by giving the rest of his price to the other co-owners)."

Nâfi' added, "Otherwise the slave is partially free.” Ayyūb is not sure whether the last statement was said by Nāfi‘ or it was a part of the Ḥadīth.

2525. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar that he used to give his verdict regarding the male or female slaves owned by more than one master, one of whom may manumit his share of the slave. Ibn ‘Umar used to say in such a case, “The manumitter should manumit the slave completely if he has sufficient money to pay the rest of the price of that slave (which is to be justly estimated) and the other share-holders are to take the price of their shares and the slave is freed (released from slavery).” Ibn ‘Umar narrated this verdict from the Prophet ﷺ.

(5) CHAPTER. Whoever manumits his portion of a common slave and does not possess enough money to manumit him completely, then that slave should be helped to work without hardship to earn what will enable him to get complete freedom according to the writing (of emancipation).

2526. Narrated Abū Hurairah that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever manumits his portion of a (jointly possessed) slave…”

2527. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever manumits his portion of a common slave should manumit the slave completely by paying the rest of his price from his money if he has enough money; otherwise the price of the slave is to be estimated and the slave is to be helped to work without hardship till he pays the rest of his price.”

(6) CHAPTER. What is said about manumission and divorce by mistake or by forgetfulness. Manumission of slave should be for Allah’s sake only.

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Everybody will get the reward according to what he has intended.” Doing things by forgetfulness or by mistake is not regarded as intentional action.

2528. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh has accepted my invocation to forgive what whispers in the hearts of my followers, unless they put it to action or utter it.” (See Hadith No.6664 Vol.8) 2529. Narrated ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb: The Prophet said, “The (reward of) deeds depends on intentions, and every person will get the reward according to what he has intended. So, whoever emigrates for Allāh and His Messenger, then his emigration will be for Allāh and His Messenger, and whoever emigrates for worldly benefits or for a woman to marry then his emigration will be for what he emigrated for.”

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No.1]

(7) CHAPTER. If somebody says to his slave that he is for Allāh; and by that he intends to manumit him (the slave is manumitted). And the witness for manumission.

2530. Narrated Qais: When Abū Hurairah accompanied by his slave set out intending to embrace Islām they lost each other on the way. The slave then came when Abū Hurairah was sitting with the Prophet. The Prophet said, “O Abū Hurairah! Your slave has come back.” Abū Hurairah said, “Indeed, I would like you to witness that I have manumitted him.” That happened at the time when Abū Hurairah recited (the following poetic verse):

‘What a long tedious tiresome night!

Nevertheless, it has delivered us from the land of Kufr (disbelief).’
2531. Narrated Abū Hurairah: On my way to the Prophet I was reciting:

‘What a long tedious tiresome night!

Nevertheless, it has delivered us from the land of Kufr (disbelief).’

I had a slave who ran away from me on the way. When I went to the Prophet and gave the Bai’a (pledge) for embracing Islam, the slave showed up while I was still with the Prophet who remarked, “O Abū Hurairah! Here is your slave!” I said, “I manumit him for Allâh’s sake,” and so I manumitted him.

2532. Narrated Qais: When Abū Hurairah accompanied by his slave came intending to embrace Islâm, they lost each other on the way. (When the slave showed up) Abū Hurairah said (to the Prophet), “I make you witness that the slave is free for Allâh’s Cause.”

(8) CHAPTER. Umm Al-Walad (i.e., a slave woman who begets a child for her master).
Narrated Abū Hurairah ﺔ‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏‏... slave would be manumitted after his death. The Prophet called for that slave and sold him\(^{(1)}\). The slave died the same year.

(10) CHAPTER. The selling and conferring on others of the Walā of a manumitted slave.\(^{(2)}\)

2535. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger forbade the selling or conferring on others of the Walā of a manumitted slave.

2536. Narrated ‘Aishah: I bought Barira, but her masters put the condition that her Walā would be for them. I told the Prophet about it. He said (to me), “Manumit her, as her Walā will be for the one who pays the price.” So, I manumitted her. The Prophet called Barira and gave her the option of either staying with her husband or leaving him. She said, “Even if he gave me so much money, I would not stay with him,” and so she preferred her freedom to her husband.

(11) CHAPTER. If the brother or the uncle of somebody was taken as a war prisoner, then can he ransom him if he is a Mushrik?

Narrated Anas: Al-‘Abbās said

---

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 2534) The liberator was needy, so the Prophet sold the slave for him, permitting him to cancel his promise of manumitting the slave after his death.

\(^{(2)}\) (Ch. 10) Walā: See glossary. to the Prophet ﷺ, “I ransom myself and ‘Aqil.” ‘Ali got his share of the booty from the property which was given by his brother ‘Aqil and his uncle Al-‘Abbās.

2537. Narrated Anas: Some men of the Ansār asked for the permission of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “Allow us to give up the ransom from our nephew Al-‘Abbās. The Prophet ﷺ said (to them), “Do not leave (even) a Dirham (of his ransom).”

(12) CHAPTER. Manumission of a Mushrik (pagan, polytheist, idolater)

2538. Narrated Hishām: My father told me that Ḥakīm bin Ḥizām ﷺ manumitted one hundred slaves in the Pre-Islāmic Period of Ignorance and slaughtered one hundred camels (and distributed them in charity). When he embraced Islam he again slaughtered one hundred camels and manumitted one hundred slaves. Ḥakīm said, “I asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! What do you think about some good deeds I used to practise in the Pre-Islāmic Period of Ignorance regarding them as deeds of righteousness?’ ” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “You have embraced Islām along with all those good deeds you did.”
(13) CHAPTER. Whover possessed Arab slaves and gave them as presents, or sold them, or had sexual relation with the females among them, or accepted their ransom, or took their offspring as captives.

And the Statement of Allah (SWT):

“The example (of two men – a believer and a disbeliever); a slave (disbeliever) under the possession of another, he has no power of any sort, and (the other), a man (believer) on whom We have bestowed a good provision from Us, and he spends thereof secretly and openly. Can they be equal? (By no means, not). All the praises and thanks be to Allah. Nay! (But) most of them know not.” (V.16:75)

2539, 2540. Narrated Marwan and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: When the delegates of the tribe of Hawazin came to the Prophet (PBUH), and they requested him to return their properties and captives the Prophet (PBUH) stood up and said to them, “I have other people with me in this matter (as you see) and the most beloved statement to me is the true one; you may choose either the properties or the prisoners as I have delayed their distribution.” The Prophet (PBUH) had waited for them for more than ten days since his arrival from Ta’if. So, when it became evident to them that the Prophet (PBUH) was not going to return them except one of the two, they said, “We choose our prisoners.” The Prophet (PBUH) got up amongst the people and glorified and praised Allah as He deserved and said, “Then after, these brethren of yours have come to us with repentance, and I see it logical to return them the captives. So, whoever amongst you likes to do that as a favour, then he can do it, and whoever of you likes to stick to his share till we recompense him from the very first war booty which Allah will give us, then he can do so (i.e., give up... the present captives).” The people unanimously said, “We do that (return the captives) willingly.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “We do not know which of you have agreed to it and which have not, so go back and let your leaders forward us your decision.” So, all the people then went back and discussed the matter with their leaders who returned and informed the Prophet ﷺ that all the people had willingly given their consent to return the captives. This is what has reached us about the captives of Hawazin.

Narrated Anas that ‘Abbas said to the Prophet ﷺ, “I paid for my ransom and ‘Aqil’s ransom.”

2541. Narrated Ibn ‘Aun: I wrote a letter to Nafi’, and Nafi’ wrote in reply to my letter that the Prophet ﷺ had (suddenly) attacked Banu Mustaliq (without warning while they were heedless) and their cattle were being watered at the places of water. Their fighting men were killed and their women and children were taken as captives; the Prophet ﷺ got Juwairiya on that day. Nafi’ said that Ibn ‘Umar had told him the above narration and that Ibn ‘Umar was in that army.

2542. Narrated Ibn Mu‘hairiz: I saw Abü Sa‘îd and asked him about coitus interruptus. Abü Sa‘îd said, “We went with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ in the Ghazwa of Bani Al-Mustaliq and we captured some of the Arabs as captives, and the long separation... from our wives was pressing us hard and we wanted to practise coitus interruptus. We asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ (whether it was permissible). He said, “It is better for you not to do so. No soul, (that which Allāh has) destined to exist, up to the Day of Resurrection, but will definitely come into existence.”

2543. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﺑﻦْ ﺯﻬﺰٌرْ رَٰبِعَةٌ ﺑﻦْ ﺯﻬﺰٌرْ: I have loved the people of the tribe of Banī Tamīm ever since I heard three things Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said about them. I heard him saying, “These people (of the tribe of Banī Tamīm) would stand firm against Ad-Dajjāl.” When the Sadaqāt (gifts of charity) from that tribe came, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “These are the Sadaqāt (i.e., charitable gifts) of our folk.” Āishah had a slave-girl from that tribe, and the Prophet ﷺ said to Āishah, “Manumit her as she is a descendant of (the Prophet) Isma‘īl [Ishmāel].”
(14) CHAPTER. The superiority of him who teaches his slave-girl good manners.

2544. Narrated Abū Mūsa: Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, "He who has a slave-girl and educates and treats her nicely and then manumits her and marries her, will get a double reward." (See H. 5083)

(15) CHAPTER. The saying of the Prophet ﷺ: Slaves are your brothers, so feed them with the like of what you eat.

And the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:
"Worship Allāh and join none with Him (in worship), and do good to parents, kinsfolk, orphans, Al-Masā́kin (the poor), the neighbour who is near of kin, the neighbour who is a stranger, the companion by your side, the wayfarer (you meet) and those (slaves) whom your right hands posses. Verily, Allāh does not like such as are proud and boastful." (V.4:36)

2545. Narrated Al-Ma'rūr bin Suwaid: I saw Abū Dhar Al-Ghifārī wearing a cloak, and his slave, too, was wearing a cloak. We asked him about that (i.e., how both were wearing similar cloaks). He replied, "Once I abused a man and he complained of me to the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ asked me, 'Did you abuse him by slighting his mother?' He added, 'Your slaves are your brethren upon whom Allâh has given you authority. So, if one has one's brethren under one's control, one should feed them with the like of what one eats and clothe them with the like of what one wears. You should not overburden them with what they cannot bear, and if you do so, help them (in their hard job)."

(16) CHAPTER. (The reward of) a slave who worships his Lord (Allâh) in a perfect manner and he is also honest and faithful to his master.

2546. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, "If a slave is honest and faithful to his master and worships his Lord (Allâh) in a perfect manner, he will get a double reward." (See H. 5083)

2547. Narrated Abû Mûsa Al-Ash'ari: The Prophet ﷺ said, "He who has a slave-girl and teaches her good manners and educates her and then manumits and marries her, will get a double reward; and any slave who observes Allâh's Right and his master's right will get a double reward." (See H. 5083)

2548. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, "A pious slave gets a double reward." Abû Hurairah added:
Chapter 2549. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Goodness and comfort are for him who worships his Lord (Allāh) in a perfect manner and serves his master sincerely.”

(17) CHAPTER. It is disliked to look down upon a slave or to say, “My slave” or “My slave-girl.”

Allāh ﷺ says:

“And (also marry) the ʿalīhūn (pious, fit and capable ones) of your (male) slaves and maid-servants (female slaves)...” (V.24:32)

And Allāh ﷺ said,

“A slave (disbeliever) under the possession of another” (V.16:75) “… They both found her lord (i.e., her husband) at the door…” (V.12:25) “… believing girls [from among those (slaves) whom you right hands possess]…” (V.4:25)

And the Prophet ﷺ said, “Get up for your master.”

Allāh ﷺ says:

“… Mention me to your lord (i.e., your king so as to get me out of the the prison)…” (V.12:42)

(1) (H. 2548) Abū Hurairah mentioned Jihād, Hāj and duty towards mother as obstacles in the way of his wish, because a slave cannot practise any of these actions without his master’s permission. (Qaṣṭalānī).
(The Prophet said), “And who is your master?”

2550. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet said, “If a slave serves his Saiyīd (i.e., master) sincerely and worships his Lord (Allāh) perfectly, he will get a double reward.” (See H. 5083)

2551. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet said, “The Mamlūk (slave) who worships his Lord (Allāh) in a perfect manner, and is dutiful, sincere and obedient to his Saiyīd (master), will get a double reward.” (See H. 5083)

2552. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “You should not say, ‘Feed your lord (Rabbaka), help your lord in performing ablution, or give water to your lord’ but should say, ‘My master (e.g. feed your master instead of lord) (Saiyīdī), or ‘My guardian (Maulā), and one should not say, ‘My slave (‘Abbāt), or ‘My girl-slave (Amātī), but should say, ‘My lad (Fatāt), or ‘My boy (Ghulāmī).’”

2553. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “If one manumits his

(1) (Ch. 17) This chapter recommends that one should not call his slave a slave; yet the word is used by Allāh and His Messenger on many occasions. In this chapter the male slave is called Abīd in Arabic; the female slave Amā; the master Saiyīd; or Rabb. The slave is also called Mamlūk, and the female slave Fatāt.
share of a common slave (‘Abd), and he has money sufficient to free the remaining portion of the price of the slave (justly estimated), then he should free the slave completely by paying the rest of his price; otherwise the slave is freed partly.”

2554. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: “Allāh’s Messenger said, “Everyone of you is a guardian and is responsible for his charges. The ruler who has authority over people, is a guardian and is responsible for them, a man is a guardian of his family and is responsible for them; a woman is a guardian of her husband’s house and children and is responsible for them; a slave (‘Abd) is a guardian of his master’s property and is responsible for it; so all of you are guardians and are responsible for your charges.”

2555, 2556. Narrated Abū Hurairah and Zaid bin Khālid: The Prophet said, “If a slave-girl (Ama) commits illegal sexual intercourse, scourge her; if she does it again, scourge her again; if she repeats it, scourge her again.” The narrator added that on the third or the fourth offence, the Prophet said, “Sell her even for a hair rope.”
(18) CHAPTER. When your servant brings your meal to you?

2557. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “When your servant brings your meal to you then if you do not let him sit and share the meal, you should at least give him a mouthful or two mouthfuls of that meal or a meal or two meals, as he has prepared it.”

(19) CHAPTER. The slave is a guardian of the property of his master.

The Prophet ﷺ has referred the ownership of the property to the master.

2558. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: that he heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “Everyone of you is a guardian and is responsible for his charge; the ruler is a guardian and is responsible for his subjects; the man is a guardian of his family and responsible for his charges; a woman is a guardian of her husband’s house and responsible for her charges; and the servant is a guardian of his master’s property and is responsible for his charge.” I definitely heard the above from the Prophet ﷺ and think that the Prophet ﷺ also said, “A man is a guardian of his father’s property and responsible for his charges; so everyone of you is a guardian and responsible for his charges.”
(20) CHAPTER. If somebody beats a slave, he should avoid his face.

2559. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “If somebody fights (or beats somebody) then he should avoid (hitting) the face.”
(A slave who binds himself to pay a certain amount equivalent for his freedom by seeking writing of emancipation from his master).

CHAPTER. The sin of one who falsely accuses his slave of illegal sexual intercourse.

(1) CHAPTER. Al-Mukātab and the payment of his price by yearly installment.

And Allah’s Statement:

"...And such of your slaves as seek a writing (of emancipation), give them such writing, if you find that there is good and honesty in them. And give them something (yourselves) out of the wealth of Allah which He has bestowed upon you..." (V.24:33)

Narrated Ibn Juraij: I asked ‘Atä’, “Will it be necessary for me to give a slave the writing of emancipation if I come to know that such a slave has money or property?” ‘Atä’ replied, “I consider it obligatory.”

‘Amr bin Dinar asked ‘Atä’, “Have you a proof (narration) for your verdict?” He replied in the negative and added that Mūsa bin Anas told him that Sirin sought from Anas a writing of emancipation, and Sirin was a very rich slave, but Anas refused to grant him his desire. Sirin went to ‘Umar who ordered Anas with his lash and recited:

‘Give them such writing, if you find that there is good and honesty in them...’ (V.24:33)

Anas then gave him a writing (of emancipation)."

2560. Narrated ‘Aishah that Barira came to seek her help in her writing of emancipation and she had to pay five Ūqīya
(of gold) by five yearly installments. ‘Aishah said to her, “Do you think that if I pay the whole sum at once, your masters will sell you to me, and I will free you and your Wala’(1) will be for me.” Barīra went to her masters and told them about that offer. They said that they would not agree to it unless her Wala would be for them. ‘Aishah further said, “I went to Allah’s Messenger and told him about it.” Allah’s Messenger said to her, “Buy Barīra and manumit her and the Wala’ will be for the liberator.” Allah’s Messenger then got up and said, “What about those people who stipulate conditions that are not present in Allah’s Laws? If anybody stipulates a condition which is not in Allah’s Laws, then what he stipulates is invalid. Allah’s Conditions (Laws) are the truth and are more solid.”

(1) (H. 2560) Wala: See glossary.
so." Barira informed her masters of that but they refused and said, "If she (i.e., 'Aishah) is seeking Allah's Reward, then she can do so, but your Walâ' will be for us." 'Aishah mentioned that to Allah's Messenger who said to her, "Buy and manumit her, as the Walâ' is for the liberator." Allah's Messenger then got up and said, "What about the people who stipulate conditions which are not present in Allah's Laws? Whoever imposes conditions which are not present in Allah's Laws, then those conditions will be invalid, even if he imposed these conditions a hundred times. Allah's Conditions (Laws) are the truth and are more solid."

2562.Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Umar: 'Aishah wanted to buy a slave-girl in order to manumit her. The girl's masters stipulated that her Walâ' would be for them. Allah's Messenger said (to 'Aishah), "What they stipulate should not stop you, for the Walâ' is for the liberator."
‘Aishah said, “If your masters agree, I will pay them the sum at once and free you on condition that your Walā’ will be for me.” Barira went to her masters but they refused that offer. She (came back) and said, “I presented to them the offer but they refused, unless the Walā’ will be for them.” Allāh’s Messenger heard of that and asked me about it, and I told him about it. On that he said, “Buy and manumit her and stipulate that the Walā’ should be for you, as Walā’ is for the liberator.” ‘Aishah added, “Allāh’s Messenger then got up amongst the people, glorified and praised Allāh, and said, ‘Then after: What about some people who impose conditions which are not present in Allāh’s Laws? So, any condition which is not present in Allāh’s Laws is invalid even if they were one hundred conditions. Allāh’s Ordinance is the truth, and Allāh’s Condition is stronger and more solid. Why do some men from you say, ‘0 so-and-so! Manumit the slave but the Walā’ will be for me?’ Verily, the Walā’ is for the liberator.”

(4) CHAPTER. The selling of a Mukātab on his agreement.

‘Aishah رضي الله عنها said, “A Mukātab remains a slave as long as he has not paid the whole amount.” Zaid bin Thābit said, “He remains a slave even if he owed one Dirham.” Ibn ‘Umar said, “He remains a slave whether living or dead, or became insane, so long as he still has to pay something (from the writing of emancipation).”

2564. Narrated 'Amra bint 'Abdur-Raḥmān: Barīra went to 'Āishah, the Mother of the faithful believers, to seek her help in her emancipation. 'Āishah said to her, “If your masters agree, I will pay them your price in a lump sum and manumit you.” Barīra mentioned that offer to her masters but they refused to sell her unless the Walā’ will be for them. 'Āishah told Allāh’s Messenger s about it. He said, “Buy and manumit her as the Walā’ is for the liberator.”

(5) CHAPTER. If a Mukātab slave asks somebody to buy and free him, it is permissible for that person to buy him.

2565. Narrated 'Abdul Wāhid bin Aiman: I went to 'Āishah and said, “I was the slave of Utba bin Abū Lahab. Utba died and his scns became my masters who sold me to Ibn Abū 'Amr who manumitted me. The sons of Utba stipulated that my Walā’ should be for them.” 'Āishah said, “Barīra came to me and she was given the writing of emancipation by her masters and she asked me to buy and manumit her. I agreed to it, but Barīra told me that her masters would not sell her unless her Walā’ will be for them.” 'Āishah said, “I am not in need of that.” When the Prophet s heard that, or he was told about it, he asked 'Āishah about it. 'Āishah mentioned what Barīra had told her. The Prophet s said, “Buy and manumit her and let them stipulate whatever they like.” So, `Aishah bought and manumitted her and her masters stipulated that her Walā’ should be for them. The Prophet ﷺ said, “The Walā’ will be for the liberator even if they stipulated a hundred conditions.”
51 - THE BOOK OF GIFTS AND THE SUPERIORITY OF GIVING GIFTS AND THE EXHORTATION FOR GIVING GIFTS

(1) CHAPTER. Superiority of giving gifts.

2566. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “O Muslim women! None of you should look down upon the gift sent by her she-neighbour even if it were the trotters of the sheep (fleshless part of legs).”

2567. Narrated 'Urwa: 'Āishah said to me, “O my nephew! We used to see the crescent, and then the crescent in this way we saw three crescents in two months and no fire (for cooking) used to be made in the houses of Allāh’s Messenger. I said, “O my aunt! Then what use to sustain you?”'Āishah said, “The two black things: dates and water, our neighbours from Anãr had some Mana’ih(1) and they used to present Allāh’s Messenger some of their milk and he used to make us drink.”

(2) CHAPTER. Giving a little as a gift.

(1) (Ch. 2567) Mana’ih is the plural of Maniha, which means a special sort of gift in the form of a she-camel or a sheep which is given temporarily so that its milk may be used and then it is returned to the owner.
2568. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “I shall accept the invitation even if I were invited to a meal of a sheep’s trotter, and I shall accept the gift even if it were an arm or a trotter of a sheep.”

2569. Narrated Sahl: The Prophet sent for a woman from the emigrants and she had a slave who was a carpenter. The Prophet said to her “Order your slave to prepare the wood (pieces) for the pulpit.” So, she ordered her slave who went and cut the wood from the tamarisk and prepared the pulpit for the Prophet. When he finished the pulpit, the woman informed the Prophet that it had been finished. The Prophet asked her to send that pulpit to him, so they brought it. The Prophet lifted it and placed it at the place in which you see now.”

2570. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abū Qatada Al-Aslami that his father said, “One day I was sitting with some of the Prophet’s companions on the way to Makkah. Allāh’s Messenger was ahead of us. All of my companions were in the state of Ḥajj while I was a non-Muhrim. They saw an onager while I was busy repairing my shoes, so they did not tell me about it but they wished I had seen it. By chance I looked up and saw it. So, I turned to the horse, saddled it and rode on it, forgetting to take the spear and the whip. I asked them if they could hand over to me the whip and the spear but they said, ‘No, by Allah, we shall not help you in that in any way.’ I became angry and got down from the horse, picked up both the things and rode the horse again. I attacked the onager and slaughtered it, and brought it. They took it (cooked some of it) and started eating it, but they doubted whether it was allowed for them to eat it or not, as they were in the state of Ihram. So, we proceeded and I hid with me one of its forelegs. When we met Allah’s Messenger and asked him about the case, he asked, ‘Do you have a portion of it with you?’ I replied in the affirmative and gave him that fleshy foreleg and he ate all of it, while he was in the state of Ihram.”

(4) CHAPTER. Whoever asks others to give him water.

2571. Narrated Anas: Once Allah’s Messenger visited us in this house of ours and asked for something to drink. We milked one of our sheep and mixed it with water from this well of ours and gave it to... him. Abū Bakr was sitting on his left side and 'Umar in front of him and a bedouin on his right side. When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ finished, ‘Umar said to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, “Here is Abū Bakr.” But Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ gave the remaining milk to the bedouin and said twice, “The (persons on the) right side! So, start from the right side.” Anas added, “It is the Prophet’s Sunna,” and repeated it thrice.

(5) CHAPTER. Accepting the gift of game.

The Prophet ﷺ accepted the fleshy foreleg of the game from Abū Qatada.

2572. Narrated Anas ﷺ: We provoked a rabbit at Marr-az-Zahrān till it started jumping and the people ran after it but were exhausted. I overpowered and caught it, and gave it to Abu Talḥa who slaughtered it and sent its hip or two thighs to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. (The narrator confirms that he sent two thighs). The Prophet ﷺ accepted that. (The subnarrator asked Anas, “Did the Prophet ﷺ eat from it?” Anas replied, “He ate from it.”)

(6) CHAPTER. The acceptance of a gift.

2573. Narrated As-Sā’b bin Jaththāma ﷺ: An onager was presented to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ at the place called Al-
Abwâ’ or Waddân, but Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ rejected it. When the Prophet ﷺ noticed the signs of sorrow on the giver’s face he said, “We have not rejected your gift, but we are in the state of Ihrâm.” (i.e., if we were not in a state of Ihrâm we would have accepted your gift). (Fatâh Al-Bârî).

(7) CHAPTER. The acceptance of a gift.

2574.Narrated ‘Âishah, The people used to look forward for the day of my ('Âishah’s) turn to send gifts to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ in order to please him.

2575. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: My aunt Umm Hufaid, sent some dried yoghurt (butter free), ghee (clarified butter) and a mastigar (sand lizard) to the Prophet ﷺ as a gift. The Prophet ﷺ ate the dried yoghurt and butter but left the mastigar because he disliked it. Ibn ‘Abbâs said, “The mastigar was eaten at the table of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and if it had been illegal to eat, it could not have been eaten at the table of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ.”

2576. Narrated Abû Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Whenever a meal was brought to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, he would ask whether it was a gift or Ṣadaqa (something given in charity). If he was told that it was Ṣadaqa, he would tell his Companions to eat it, but if it was a gift, he would hurry to share it with them.

2577. Narrated Anas bin Malik Z: Some meat was brought to the Prophet ﷺ and it was said that the meat had been given in charity to Barira. He said, “It was Ṣadaqa (charity) for Barira but a gift for us.”

2578. Narrated ‘Aishah: I intended to buy Barira but her masters stipulated that her Wāla’ should be for them. When the Prophet ﷺ was told about it, he said to me, “Buy and manumit her, as the Wāla’ is for the liberator.” Once, Barira was given some meat, and the Prophet ﷺ asked, “What is this?” I said, “It has been given to Barira in charity.” He said, “It is Ṣadaqa (charity) for her but a gift for us.” Barira was given the option (to stay with her husband or to part with him). ‘Abdur-Rahman (a subnarrator) wondered, “Was her husband a slave or a free man?” Shu’ba (another subnarrator) said, “I asked ‘Abdur-Rahmān whether her husband was a slave or a free man. He replied that he did not know whether he was a slave or a free man.”
2579. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyah: Once the Prophet went to ‘Aishah and asked her whether she had something (to eat). She said that she had nothing except the mutton which Umm ‘Atiyah had sent to (Barira) in charity. The Prophet said that it had reached its destination (i.e., it is no longer an object of charity.)

2580. Narrated ‘Aishah: The people used to send gifts to the Prophet on the day of my turn. Umm Salama said: “My companions (the wives of the Prophet other than ‘Aishah) gathered and they complained about it. So I informed the Prophet about it on their behalf, but he remained silent.

2581. Narrated ‘Urwa that ‘Aishah said: The wives of Allâh’s Messenger were in two groups.” ‘Urwa added: One group consisted of ‘Aishah, Hafsa, Safiyya and Sauda; and the other group consisted of Umm Salama and the other wives of Allâh’s Messenger. The Muslims knew that Allâh’s Messenger loved ‘Aishah, so if any of them had a gift and wished to give to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, he would delay it till Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had come to ‘Aishah’s home and then he would send his gift to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in her home. The group of Umm Salama discussed the matter together and decided that Umm Salama should request Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ to tell the people to send their gifts to him in whatever wife’s house he was. Umm Salama told Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ of what they had said, but he did not reply. Then they (those wives) asked Umm Salama about it. She said, “He did not say anything to me.” They asked her to talk to him again. She talked to him again when she met him on her day, but he gave no reply. When they asked her, she replied that he had given no reply. They said to her, “Talk to him till he gives you a reply.” When it was her turn, she talked to him again. He then said to her, “Do not hurt me regarding ‘Aishah, as the Divine Revelations do not come to me on any of the beds except that of ‘Aishah.” On that Umm Salama said, “I repent to Allāh for hurting you.” Then the group of Umm Salama called Fātima, the daughter of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and sent her to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ to say to him, “Your wives request to treat them and the daughter of Abū Bakr on equal terms.” Then Fātima conveyed the message to him. The Prophet ﷺ said, “O my daughter! Don’t you love whom I love?” She replied in the affirmative and returned and told them of the situation. They requested her to go to him again, but she refused. They then sent Zainab bint Jahsh who went to him and used harsh words saying, “Your wives request you to treat them and the daughter of Ibn Abū Quḥāfa on equal terms.” On that she raised her voice and turned to ‘Aishah who was sitting and insulted her so much so that Allāh’s Messengerﷺ looked at ‘Āishah to see whether she would retort. ‘Āishah started replying to Zainab till she silenced her. The Prophetﷺ then looked at ‘Āishah and said, “She is really the daughter of Abū Bakr.”(1)

(9) CHAPTER. What sort of presents (gifts) should not be rejected.

2582. Narrated ‘Azra bin Thābit Al-

(1) (H. 2581) She is really as honest, wise and well-versed as her father.
Anṣārī: When I went to Thumama bin ‘Abdullāh, he gave me some perfume and said that Anas would not reject the gifts of perfume. Anas said: The Prophet ṣṣ used not to reject the gifts of perfume.

(10) CHAPTER. Whoever thinks that it is permissible to give as a gift, something not present.

2583, 2584. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama رضي الله عنها and Marwān: When the delegates of the tribe of Hawāzin came to the Prophet ṣṣ, he stood up amongst the people, glorified and praised Allāh as He deserved, and said, “Then after: Your brethren have come to you with repentance and I see it logical to return to them their captives; so whoever amongst you likes to do that as a favour, then he can do it, and whoever of you likes to stick to his share till we give him his right from the very first Fai’ (war booty)(1) which Allāh will bestow on us, then (he can do so).” The people replied, “We do that (to return the captives) willingly as a favour for your sake.”

(11) CHAPTER. Compensation for a gift.

2585. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: Allāh’s Messenger ṣṣ used to accept gifts and used to give something in return.

(1) (H. 2583) Fai’: See glossary.
(12) CHAPTER. Giving gifts to one’s sons.

If somebody gives something to some of his sons then it is not permissible unless he does justice to all of his sons and gives the same to the other sons equally, but no one has the right to bear witness to what one’s father does. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do justice when giving a gift to your children.” Is it permissible for the father to demand back the gift which he has given to his children? What one can eat from one’s son’s property? One can eat reasonably without extravagance. And the Prophet ﷺ bought a camel from ‘Umar and gave it to Ibn ‘Umar and said, “Dispose it as you like.”

2586. Narrated An-Nu‘mān bin Bashīr that his father took him to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “I have given this son of mine a slave.” The Prophet ﷺ asked, “Have you given all your sons the like?” He replied in the negative. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Take back your gift then.”

(13) CHAPTER. The witnesses for Al-Hibah (the gifts).

2587. Narrated ‘Āmir: I heard An-Nu‘mān bin Bashīr رضي الله عنهما on the pulpit saying, “My father gave me a gift but 'Amra bint Rawāha (my mother) said that she would not agree to it unless he made Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ as a witness to it. So, my father went to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, ‘I have given a gift to my son from 'Amra bint Rawāha, but she ordered me to make you as a witness to it, O Allāh’s Messenger!’ Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ asked, ‘Have you given (the like of it) to everyone of your sons?’ He replied in the negative. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Be afraid of Allāh, and be just to your children.’ My father then returned and took back his gift.”

(14) CHAPTER. Giving gifts by a husband to his wife, and by a wife to her husband.

Ibrāhīm said, “It is permissible.” ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul ‘Azīz said, “None of them can take his gift back.” The Prophet ﷺ took permission from his wives to let him stay with ‘Āishah during his illness. The Prophet ﷺ said, “A person who takes back his gift (what he donates) is like a dog that swallows back its vomit.” Az-Zuhri said, “If a husband asks his wife to remit all or some of the Mahr (bridal money), and shortly after her consent he divorces her whereupon she demands what she has given up, then should he pay back her gift, if he has deceived her. But if she has given her free consent willingly and the man has meant no deception, the gift is valid, for Allāh ﷻ says:

“... But if they, of their own good pleasure, remit any part of it to you…” (V.4:4)
2588. Narrated Az-Zuhri: ‘Ubaidullah bin ‘Abdullãh told me that ‘Aishah had said, “When the Prophet became sick and his condition became serious, he requested his wives to allow him to be treated in my house, and they allowed him. He came out leaning on two men while his feet were dragging on the ground. He was walking between Al-‘Abbãs and another man.” ‘Ubaidullah said, “When I informed Ibn ‘Abbãs of what ‘Aishah had said, he asked me whether I knew who was the second man whom ‘Aishah had not named. I replied in the negative. He said, ‘He was ‘Alî bin Abî Talib.’”

2589. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: The Prophet said, “One who takes back his gift (which he has already given) is like a dog that swallows its vomit.”

(15) CHAPTER. It is permissible for a woman to give gifts to somebody other than her husband and to free her slaves in the lifetime of her husband provided that she is not weak-minded. If she is weak-minded, then it is not permissible.

Allãh says:
“And give not unto the foolish your property…” (V.4:5)

2590. Narrated Asmã: Once I said, ‘O Allãh’s Messenger! I have no property except what has been given to me by Az-Zubair (i.e., her husband). May I give in charity?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Give in charity and do not withhold it (i.e., wealth) otherwise Allâh withhold it from you.”

2591. Narrated Asmâ’ bint Az-Zubair: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Give (in charity) and do not withhold your wealth by counting and hoarding it, being afraid that it may be exhausted (by spending in Allâh’s Cause) lest Allâh should withhold His Blessings from you; and do not withhold your money lest Allâh should withhold it from you.”

2592. Narrated Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn ‘Abbas: that Maimûna bint Al-Hârith (the wife of the Prophet ﷺ) said that she manumitted a slave-girl but did not take the permission of the Prophet ﷺ. On her turn when the (Prophet ﷺ) came to her house she said, “Do you know O Allah’s Messenger, that I have manumitted my slave-girl?” He (ﷺ) asked, “Have you (already) done it?” She replied, “Yes.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “You would have got more reward if you had given her (i.e., the slave-girl) to one of your maternal uncles.”

2593. Narrated ‘Aishah: Whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ wanted to go on a journey, he would draw lots as to which of his wives would accompany him. He would take her whose name came out. He used to fix for each of them a day and a night. The subnarrator added: “Sauda bint Zam'a gave up her (turn) day and night to 'Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ in order to seek the pleasure of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ (by that action).”

(16) CHAPTER. Who is to be given the gift first?

2594. Narrated Maimūna, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ that she manumitted her slave-girl and the Prophet ﷺ said to her, “You would have got more reward if you had given the slave-girl to one of your maternal uncles.”

2595. Narrated 'Āishah ﷺ: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have two neighbours; which of the two should I give a gift?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “(Give) to the one whose door is nearer to you.”
(17) CHAPTER. Whoever refused to accept a present for a certain reason.

‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-Aziz said, “A gift was (really) a gift during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger ☪, but today it is a bribe.”

2596. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Abbas; that he heard As-Sa‘b b. Jaththâma Al-Laithi, who was one of the companions of the Prophet ☪, saying that he gave the meat of an onager to Allah’s Messenger ☪ while he was at a place called Al-Awâ’ or Waddân, and was in a state of Ihram. The Prophet ☪ did not accept it. When the Prophet ☪ saw the signs of sorrow on As-Sa‘b’s face because of not accepting his present, he said (to him), “We are not returning your present, but we are in the state of Ihram.”

[See Hadith No.2244, 2245]

2597. Narrated Abû Humayd As-Sa‘i’dî; that the Prophet ☪ appointed a man from the tribe of Al-Azîd, called Ibn Al-Lutabiyya for collecting the Zakât. When he returned he said, “This (i.e., the Zakât) is for you and this has been given to me as a present.” The Prophet ☪ said, “Why hadn’t he stayed in his father’s or mother’s house to see whether he would be given presents or not? By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, whoever takes something from the resources of the Zakât (unlawfully) will be carrying it on his neck on the Day of Resurrection; if it be a camel, it will be grunting; if a cow, it will be mooing; and if a sheep, it will be bleating.” The Prophet ☪ then raised his hands till we saw the whiteness of his armpits, and he said...
thrice, “O Allah! Haven’t I conveyed Your Message (to them)?”

(18) CHAPTER. If somebody gives somebody else a present, or promises to give him a present, and one of them dies before the gift reaches the other person.

‘Ubaida said, “If both the giver and the receiver have died but the present was set aside (i.e., separated) in the lifetime of the receiver, it will be given to his inheritors, and if it was not separated, it will go to the inheritors of the giver.” Al-Hasan said, “It will be given to the inheritors of the receiver (i.e., to whom the present was meant) no matter who died first, if the gift has been delivered to the messenger.”

2598. Narrated Jābir: The Prophet said to me, “I will give you so much (the Prophet pointed thrice with his hands) when the funds of Bahrain will come to me.” But the Prophet died before the money reached him. (When it came,) Abū Bakr ordered an announcer to announce that whoever had a money claim on the Prophet, or was promised to be given something, should come to Abū Bakr. I went to Abū Bakr and told him that the Prophet had promised to give me so much. On that Abū Bakr gave me three handfuls (of money).

(19) CHAPTER. How to take over the slave and property (given as gifts)?
NARRATED IBN ‘UMAR: I was riding a troublesome camel, and the Prophet \( \mathbb{P} \) bought it and said: “It (this camel) is for you, O ‘Abdullah.”

[See Hadith No.2610, 2611].

2600. Narrated Abu Hurairah: A man came to Allāh’s Messenger \( \mathbb{P} \) and said, “I am ruined.” The Prophet \( \mathbb{P} \) asked, “What do you mean?” He said, “I had a sexual intercourse with my wife during Ramadan (while observing fast).” The Prophet \( \mathbb{P} \) asked him, “Can you manumit a slave?” He replied in the negative. He then asked him, “Can you observe \( \text{Saum} \) (fast) for two successive months continuously?” He replied in the negative. The Prophet \( \mathbb{P} \) then asked him, “Can you feed sixty poor persons?” He replied in the negative. In the meantime an Ansārī man came with a basket full of dates. The Prophet \( \mathbb{P} \) said to the man, "Take it and give it in charity (as an expiation of your sin)." The man said, "Should I give it to some people who are poorer than we, O Allah's Messenger? By Him Who has sent you with the Truth, there is no family between Al-Madina's two mountains poorer than we." Allah's Messenger told him to take it and provide his family with it."

(21) CHAPTER. If a creditor gives the debt, due to him, as a gift.

According to Al-Ḥakam, it is permissible. Al-Hasan bin 'Ali  gave up the debt due to him to a man as a gift. The Prophet said, "If somebody owes something, he should either repay it or get it remitted." Jabir said, "When my father was martyred, he was in debt. So, the Prophet asked his creditors to take the fruits of my garden and forgive my father."

2601. Narrated Jabir bin 'Abdullah: My father was martyred on the day (of the battle) of Uhud and his creditors demanded the debt back in a harsh manner. So, I went to Allah's Messenger and informed him of that, he asked them to accept the fruits of my garden and excuse my father, but they refused. So, Allah's Messenger did not give them the fruits, nor did he cut them and distribute it among them, but said, "I will come to you tomorrow morning." So, he came to us the next morning and walked about in between the date-palms and invoked Allah to bless their fruits. I plucked the fruits and gave back all the rights of the creditors in full, and a lot of fruits were left for us. Then I went to Allah's Messenger, who was sitting, and informed him about what happened. Allah’s Messenger told ‘Umar, who was sitting there, to listen to the story. ‘Umar said, “Don’t we know that you are Allah’s Messenger? By Allah! You are Allah’s Messenger!”

(22) CHAPTER. The giving of a gift by one person to a group.

Asmā’ said to Al-Qāsim bin Muhammad and Ibn Abū ‘Atīq, “I inherited some land in the forest from my sister ‘Āishah, and Mu‘āwiya offered me one hundred thousand for it, but I give it to both of you as a gift.”

2602. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: A drink (of milk mixed with water) was brought to the Prophet who drank some of it while a boy was sitting on his right and old men on his left. The Prophet said to the boy, “If you permit me, I’ll give (the rest of the drink to) these old men first.” The boy said, “I will not give preference to anyone over me as regards my share from you, O Allah’s Messenger!” The Prophet then put that container in the boy’s hand.

[See Hadith No.2351]

(23) CHAPTER. The received and unreceived gifts, and the divided and undivided gifts.

The Prophet and his companions gave to the people of Hawāzin what they had got from them as war booty, although it had not been divided yet.

2603. Jābir said, “I went to the Prophet in the mosque and he paid me my right and gave me more than he owed me.”

2604. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: I sold a camel to the Prophet on one of the journeys. When we reached Al-Madīna, he ordered me to go to the mosque and offer two Rak‘ā. Then he weighed for me (the price of the camel in gold) and gave an extra amount over it. A part of it remained with me till it was taken by the army of Sham on the day of Harra.”

2605. Narrated Sahl bin Sa‘d: A drink (of milk mixed with water) was brought to Allāh’s Messenger while a boy was sitting on his right side and old men were sitting on his left side. He asked the boy, “Will you allow me to give it to these (people)?” The boy said, “No, by Allāh, I will not give preference to anyone over me as regards my share from you.” Then the Prophet put the bowl in the boy’s hand.

2606. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger owed a man some debt (and that man demanded it very harshly).
The companions of the Prophet wanted to harm him, but the Prophet said to them, “Leave him, as the one who has a right (creditor) has the right to demand it (or speak harshly).” He then added, “Buy (a camel) of the same age and give it to him.” They said, “We cannot get except a camel older and better than that of his.” He said, “Buy it and give it to him, as the best amongst you is he who pays back his debt in the most handsome way.”

(24) CHAPTER. If a group of persons gives a gift to some people.

2607, 2608. Narrated Marwän bin Al-Hakam and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: When the delegates of the tribe of Hawãzin came to the Prophet, they requested him to return their property and their captives. He said to them, “As you see, this concerns also other people along with me, and the best statement to me is the true one, so you may choose one of two alternatives; either the captives or the property and (I have not distributed the booty, for) I have been waiting for you.” When the Prophet had returned from Ta’if, he waited for them for more than ten nights. When they came to know that the Prophet would not return except one of the two, they chose their captives. The Prophet then stood up amongst the Muslims, glorified and praised Allâh as He deserved, and then said, “Then after: These brothers of yours have come to you with repentance (asking for Allâh’s Forgiveness), and I see it proper to return their captives. So, whoever amongst you likes... to do that as a favour, then he can do it, and whoever of you wants to stick to his share till we pay him from the very first Fai (i.e., war booty) which Allāh will give us, then he can do so.” The people said, “We return (the captives) to them willingly as a favour, O Allāh’s Messenger!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I do not know who of you has given his consent and who has not; so go back and your leaders may present your decision to me.” The people went away, and their leaders discussed the matter with them, and then came to the Prophet ﷺ to tell him that all of them had given their consent (to return the captives) willingly.

(Az-Zuhri, the subnarrator said, “This is what we know about the captives of Hawazin.”)

(25) CHAPTER. Whosoever is given a gift while some people are sitting with him, he only has the right to have it.

Ibn `Abbas Ṭa`lī is reported to have said that the people sitting with that person will be his co-owners. But this report is not confirmed by an authentic narration.

2609. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ took a camel of a certain age from somebody on credit. Its owner came and demanded it back (harshly). The Prophet ﷺ said, “No doubt, he who has a right, has the full right to demand it.” Then the Prophet ﷺ gave him an older and better camel than his camel and said, “The best amongst you is he who repays his debts in the most handsome way.”

2610. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar that he was in the company of the Prophet on a journey, riding a troublesome camel belonging to ‘Umar. The camel used to go ahead of the Prophet. So, Ibn ‘Umar’s father would say, “O ‘Abdullâh! No one should go ahead of the Prophet.” The Prophet said to him, “Sell it to me.” ‘Umar said to the Prophet, “It is for you.” So, he bought it and said, “O ‘Abdullâh! It is for you, and you can do with it what you like.”

(26) CHAPTER. If someone gives a camel as a gift to a man riding it, then the deed is valid.

2611. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: We were in the company of the Prophet on a journey, and I was riding a troublesome camel. The Prophet asked ‘Umar to sell that camel to him. So, ‘Umar sold it to him. The Prophet then said, “O ‘Abdullâh! The camel is for you.”

(27) CHAPTER. The presenting of a gift of clothes, the wearing of which is disliked.

2612. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb saw a silken dress (cloak) being sold at the gate of the mosque and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Would that you buy it and wear it on Fridays and when the delegates come to you!” Allâh’s Messenger said, “This is worn by the one who will have no share in the Hereafter.” Later on, some silk dresses were brought and Allah’s Messenger sent one of them to ‘Umar. ‘Umar said, “How do you give me this to wear while you said what you said about the dress of ‘Utärid?”(1) Allah’s Messenger said, “I have not given it to you to wear.” So, ‘Umar gave it to a Mushrik brother of his in Makkah.

2613. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Once the Prophet went to the house of Fāṭima but did not enter it. ‘Ali came and she told him about that. When ‘Ali asked the Prophet about it, he said, “I saw a (multi-coloured) decorated curtain on her door. I am not interested in worldly things.” ‘Ali went to Fāṭima and told her about it. Fāṭima said, “I am ready to dispense with it in the way he suggests.” The Prophet ordered her to send it to such and such needy people.”

2614. Narrated ‘Ali: The Prophet gave me a silken dress as a gift and I wore it. When I saw the signs of anger on his face, I cut it into pieces and distributed it among my wives.”

(1) (H. 2612) ‘Umar  is referring to the previous occasion when Allah’s Messenger refused to buy the cloak sold at the gate of the mosque.
(28) CHAPTER. The acceptance of presents from Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans)

Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "When Ibrāhīm (Abraham) migrated along with Sārah, he reached a town ruled by a king or a tyrant. The latter ordered his men to give Sārah, Ājar." The Prophet was given a cooked poisoned sheep as a present.

Narrated Abū Hurairah: The king of Aila sent a white mule to the Prophet, and the Prophet sent him a garment and wrote to him a confirmation of the treaty concerning his country.

2615. Narrated Anas: A Jubba (i.e., cloak) made of thick silken cloth was presented to the Prophet. The Prophet used to forbid people to wear silk. So, the people were pleased to see it. The Prophet said, "By Him in Whose Hands Muhammad's soul is, the handkerchiefs of Sa'd bin Mu'ādh in Paradise are better than this."

2616. Anas added, "The present was sent to the Prophet by Ukaidir (a Christian) from Dauma."

2617. Narrated Anas bin Malik: A Jewess brought a poisoned (cooked) sheep for the Prophet who ate from it. She was brought to the Prophet and was asked, "Shall we kill her?" He said, "No." Anas added: "I continued to see the effect of the..."
poison on the palate of the mouth of Allah's Messenger ﷺ.

2618. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Abū Bakr رضي الله عنهما: We were one hundred and thirty persons accompanying the Prophet ﷺ who asked us whether anyone of us had food. There was a man who had about a Sa' of wheat flour which was mixed with water to make dough (for baking bread). Then a very tall man from Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ) came driving the sheep. The Prophet ﷺ asked him, “Will you sell us (a sheep) or give it as a present?” He said, “I will sell you (a sheep).” The Prophet ﷺ bought a sheep and it was slaughtered. The Prophet ﷺ ordered that its liver and other abdominal organs be roasted. By Allah, the Prophet ﷺ gave every person of the one hundred and thirty a piece of that; he gave all those of them who were present; and kept the shares of those who were absent. The Prophet ﷺ then put its meat in two huge basins and all of them ate to their fill, and even then more food was left in the two basins which were carried on the camel (or said something like it).

(29) CHAPTER. Giving presents to Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters).

And the Statement of Allah تعالى:

“Allah does not forbid you to deal justly and kindly with those who fought not against 2619. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما:
‘Umar saw a silken cloak over a man for sale and requested the Prophet ﷺ to buy it in order to wear it on Fridays and while meeting delegates. The Prophet ﷺ said, “This is worn by the one who will have no share in the Hereafter.” Later on, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ got some silken cloaks similar to that one, and he sent one to ‘Umar. ‘Umar said to the Prophet ﷺ, “How can I wear it, while you said about it what you said?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I have not given it to you to wear, but to sell or to give to someone else.” So, ‘Umar sent it to his brother at Makkah before he (his brother) embraced Islam.

2620. Narrated Asmā’ bint Abū Bakررضي الله عنها:
My mother came to me during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and she was a Mushrikah (polytheist, idolatress, pagan). I said to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ (seeking his verdict), “My mother has come to me and she desires to receive a reward from me, shall I keep good relations with her?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes, keep good relation with her.”

(30) CHAPTER. It is not legal for anyone to take back his presents or Šadaqa (things given in charity).
2621. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas:
The Prophet ﷺ said, “He who takes back his present is like him who swallows his vomit.”

2622. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas:
The Prophet ﷺ said, “The bad example is not for us. He who takes back his present is like a dog that swallows back its vomit.”

2623. Narrated 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb:
I gave a horse in Allāh’s Cause. The person to whom it was given did not look after it. I intended to buy it back from him, thinking that he would sell it cheap. When I asked the Prophet ﷺ, he said, “Don’t buy it, even if he gives it to you for one Dirham as the person who takes back what he has given in charity, is like a dog that swallows back its vomit.”

(31) CHAPTER.

2624. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Ubaidullāh bin Abū Mulaika: The sons of Ṣuhaib, (Ṣuhaib, who was the freed slave of Bani Jud‘ān) claimed that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had given two houses and one room to...
Suhaib. Marwan asked, “Who will testify your claim?” They replied that Ibn ‘Umar would do so. Marwan sent for Ibn ‘Umar who testified that Allah’s Messenger had really given Suhaib two houses and a room. So, Marwan gave the verdict (in favour of Suhaib’s sons), because of (Ibn ‘Umar’s) witness.

(32) CHAPTER. What is said about the ‘Umra and the Ruqba.

If one says, “I give you the house as ‘Umra,” one means, “I give it to you to live in as long as you are alive.”

2625. Narrated Jabin: The Prophet gave the verdict that ‘Umra is for the one to whom it is presented.

2626. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “‘Umra is permissible.” ‘Ata’ said, “Jabin narrated the same to me from the Prophet.”

(1) (Ch. 32) ‘Umra: This kind of gift is also called Ruqba, which is derived from the Arabic verb meaning ‘to wait’ because both the giver and the person given to, used to wait for the death of each other so that the house etc. (given as gift) would belong to him permanently. (Fath Al-Bari)
(33) CHAPTER. Borrowing a horse from some people.

2627. Narrated Anas: Once, the people of Al-Madīna were frightened, so the Prophet borrowed a horse from Abū Ṭalha called Al-Mandūb, and rode it. When he came back he said, “We have not seen anything (to be afraid of), but the horse was very fast.”

(34) CHAPTER. To borrow something for the bride at the time of her wedding.

2628. Narrated 'Aīshah and she was wearing (a coarse dress) costing five Dirham. 'Aīshah said, “Look up and see my slave-girl who refuses to wear it in the house, though during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger I had a similar dress which no woman desiring to appear elegant (before her husband) failed to borrow from me.”

(35) CHAPTER. The superiority of the Manīḥa, i.e., a milch she-camel or a sheep lent to somebody to use its milk and return it to its owner afterwards.

2629. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “What a good Manīḥa (the she-camel which has recently 2736. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, “Allah has ninety-nine names, i.e., one hundred less one, and whoever counts them (believes in their meanings and acts accordingly) will enter Paradise.” (Please see Hadith No.6410 Vol.8)

(19) CHAPTER. Conditions in Waaf (i.e., religious endowment).

2737. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: 'Umar bin Al-Khattāb got some land in Khaibar and he went to the Prophet to consult him about it, saying, “O Allah's Messenger I got some land in Khaibar better than which I have never had, what do you suggest that I do with it?” The Prophet said, “If you like you can give the land as endowment and give its fruits in charity.” So 'Umar gave it in charity as an endowment on the condition that it would not be sold nor given to anybody as a present and not to be inherited, but its yield would be given in charity to the poor people, to the kith and kin, for freeing slaves, for Allah's Cause, to the travellers and guests; and that there would be no harm if the guardian of the endowment ate from it with Ma'ruf (according to his labour with good intention), and fed others without storing it for the future…”
2735. Narrated ‘Amra: ‘Aishah said that Barira came to seek her help in the writing of her emancipation. ‘Aishah said to her, “If you wish, I will pay your masters (your price) and the Walâ’ will be for me.” When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ came, she told him about it. The Prophet ﷺ said to her, “Buy her (i.e., Barira) and manumit her, for the Walâ’ is for the one who manumits.” Then Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ ascended the pulpit and said, “What about those people who stipulate conditions which are not present in Allâh’s Laws? Whoever stipulates such conditions as are not present in Allâh’s Laws, then those conditions are invalid even if he stipulated a hundred such conditions.”

(18) CHAPTER. What kinds of conditions are permissible; and what is exempted from the decision; and the conditions which are well-known amongst the people, and if somebody says, “One hundred minus one or two.”

Narrated Ibn Sirîn: A man said to a hirer of animals, “Prepare your travelling animals, and if I should not go with you on such and such day, I shall pay you one hundred Dirhams,” but he did not go on that day. Shuraih said, “If anyone puts a condition on himself of his own free will without being under duress, he has to abide by it.”

Narrated Ayyûb from Ibn Sirîn: A man sold foodstuff and the buyer told the seller that if he did not come to him on Wednesday, then the deal would be cancelled (i.e., invalid) and he did not turn up on that day.” Shuraih said to the buyer, “You have broken your promise,” and gave the verdict against him.
We do not know any of the women emigrants who deserted Islam after embracing it. We have also been told that Abū Basīr bin Asīd Ath-Θhaqafi came to the Prophet ﷺ as a Muslim emigrant during the truce. Al-Akhnas bin Shariq wrote to the Prophet ﷺ requesting him to return Abū Basīr.

(16) CHAPTER. Conditions in loans.

Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما and ‘Aṭā said, “If one lends something for a certain period, the debt is valid.”

2734. Narrated Abu Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ mentioned a person who asked an Israeli man to lend him one thousand Dinārs, and the Israeli lent him the sum for a certain fixed period.

(17) CHAPTER. Al-Mukātab (i.e., the slave who is given the writing of emancipation for a certain sum) and about the invalidity of those conditions which contradict Allāh’s Laws.

Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما said regarding Al-Mukātab, “Their conditions are those which are mutually agreed upon by them.” Ibn ‘Umar or ‘Umar said, “Any condition which is against Allāh’s Laws, is invalid, even if one stipulates a hundred such conditions.”
2733. Narrated Az-Zuhri: 'Urwa said, "'Aishah told me that Allah's Messenger used to examine the women emigrants. We have been told also that when Allah revealed the order that the Muslims should return to the Musřikûn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans) what they had spent on their wives who emigrated (after embracing Islam) and that the Muslims should not keep disbelieving women as their wives, 'Umar divorced two of his wives, Qariba, the daughter of Abû Umaiyya and the daughter of Jarwal Al-Khuza'i. Later on Mu'āwiya married Qariba and Aba Jahm married the other."

When the Musřikûn refused to pay what the Muslims had spent on their wives, Allah revealed:

"And if any of your wives had gone from you to the disbelievers ......" (V.60:11)

So, Allah ordered that the Muslim whose wife has gone, should be given, as a compensation of the Mahr he had given to his wife, from the Mahr of the wives of the Musřikûn who had emigrated deserting their husbands.
supporters." When Abū Basīr heard that he understood that the Prophet would return him to them again, so he set out and left till he reached the seashore. Abū Jandal bin Suhail got himself released from them (i.e., infidels) and joined Abū Basīr. So, whenever a man from Quraish embraced Islam he would follow Abu Basir till they formed a strong group. By Allāh, whenever they heard about a caravan of Quraish heading towards Sham, they stopped it and attacked and killed them (i.e., infidels) and took their properties. The people of Quraish sent a message to the Prophet requesting him for the sake of Allāh and kith and kin to send for (i.e., Abū Basīr and his companions) promising that whoever (amongst them) came to the Prophet would be secure. So the Prophet sent for them (i.e., Abū Basīr's companions) and Allāh revealed the following Divine Verses:

“And it is He Who has witheld their hands from you and your hands from them in the midst of Makkah, after He made you victors over them... (up to)... pride and haughtiness, the pride and haughtiness of the time of ignorance.” (V.48:24-26)

And their pride and haughtiness was that they did not confess (write in the treaty) that he (i.e., Muhammad) is the Prophet of Allāh and refused to write: “In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful,” and prevented the Muslims from visiting the Ka‘bah.
there was a danger of killing each other. Then some believing women came (to the Prophet) and Allah revealed the following Divine Verses:

"O you who believe, when the believing women come to you as emigrants examine them... (up to)... the disbelieving women as wives." (V.60:10)

‘Umar then divorced two wives of his who were infidels. Later on Mu‘āwiyah bin Abū Sufyān married one of them, and Ṣafwān bin Umāiyah married the other.

When the Prophet returned to Al-Madīna, Abū Baṣīr, a new Muslim convert from Quraish came to him. The infidels sent in his pursuit two men who said (to the Prophet), “Abide by the promise you gave us.” So, the Prophet handed him over to them. They took him out (of the city) till they reached Dhul-Hulaifa where they dismounted to eat some dates they had with them. Abū Baṣīr said to one of them, “By Allāh, O so-and-so, I see you have a fine sword.” The other drew it out (of the scabbard) and said, “By Allāh, it is very fine and I have tried it many times.” Abū Baṣīr said, “Let me have a look at it.” When the other gave it to him, he hit him with it till he died, and his companion ran away till he came to Al-Madīna and entered the mosque running. When Allāh’s Messenger saw him he said, “This man appears to have been frightened.” When he reached the Prophet he said, “My companion has been murdered and I would have been murdered too.” Abū Baṣīr came and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger, by Allāh, Allāh has made you fulfil your obligations by your returning me to them (i.e., the infidels), but Allāh has saved me from them.” The Prophet said, “Woe to his mother! what an excellent war kindler he would be, should he only have Tawaf around it?' He said, 'Yes, but did I tell you that we would visit the Ka'bah this year?' I said, 'No.' He said, 'So you will visit it and perform Tawaf around it.' 'Umar further said, 'I went to Abū Bakr and said, 'O Abū Bakr! Isn't he truly Allāh's Prophet?' He replied, 'Yes.' I said, 'Isn't our cause just and the cause of our enemy unjust?' He replied, 'Yes.' I said, 'Then why should we be humble in our religion?' He said, 'Indeed, he is Allāh's Messenger and he does not disobey his Lord, and He will make him victorious. Adhere to him as, by Allāh, he is on the right.' I said, 'Was he not telling us that we would go to the Ka'bah and perform Tawaf around it?' He said, 'Yes, but did he tell you that you would go to the Ka'bah this year?' I said, 'No.' He said, 'You will go to Ka'bah and perform Tawaf around it'. (Az-Zuhri said, '‘Umar said, 'I performed many good deeds as expiation for the improper questions I asked them'.') When the writing of the peace treaty was concluded, Allāh's Messenger said to his companions, "Get up and slaughter your sacrifices and get your head shaved." By Allāh none of them got up, and the Prophet repeated his order thrice. When none of them got up, he left them and went to Umm Salama and told her of the people's attitudes towards him. Umm Salama said, "0 the Prophet of Allah! Do you want your order to be carried out? Go out and don't say a word to anybody till you have slaughtered your sacrifice and call your barber to shave your head." So, the Prophet went out and did not talk to anyone of them till he did that, i.e., slaughtered the sacrifice and called his barber who shaved his head. Seeing that, the companions of the Prophet got up, slaughtered their sacrifices, and started shaving the heads of one another, and there was so much rush that Prophet said to Suhail, “On the condition that you allow us to visit the House (i.e., Ka'bah) so that we may perform Tawaf around it.” Suhail said, “By Allah, we will not (allow you this year) so as not to give chance to the ‘Arabs to say that we have yielded to you, and we will allow you next year.” So, the Prophet got that written. Then Suhail said, “We also stipulate that you should return to us whoever comes to you from us, even if he embraced your religion.” The Muslims said, “Glorified be Allah! How will such a person be returned to the Mushrikun (polytheists, idolaters, pagans) after he has become a Muslim?” While they were in this state Abū Jandal bin Suhail bin ‘Amr came from the valley of Makkah staggering with his fetters and fell down amongst the Muslims. Suhail said, “O Muhammad! This is the very first term with which we make peace with you, i.e., you shall return Abū Jandal to me.” The Prophet said, “The peace treaty has not been written yet.” Suhail said, “I will never allow you to keep him.” The Prophet said, “Yes, do.” He said, “I won’t do.” Mikraz said, “We allow you (to keep him).” Abū Jandal said, “O Muslims! Will I be returned to the pagans though I have come as a Muslim? Don’t you see how much I have suffered?” Abū Jandal had been tortured severely for the Cause of Allah. ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab said, “I went to the Prophet and said, ‘Aren’t you truly the Messenger of Allah?’ The Prophet said, ‘Yes, indeed.’ I said, ‘Isn’t our cause just and the cause of the enemy unjust?’ He said, ‘Yes.’ I said, ‘Then why should we be humble in our religion?’ He said, ‘I am Allah’s Messenger and I do not disobey Him, and He will make me victorious.’ I said, ‘Didn’t you tell us that we would go to the Ka’bah and perform Ka'bah.” When he returned to his people, he said, “I saw the Budn garlanded (with coloured knotted ropes) and marked (with stabs on their backs). I do not think it is advisable to prevent them from visiting the Ka'bah.” Another person called Mikraz bin Haft got up and sought their permission to go to Muhammad, and they allowed him, too. When he approached the Muslims, the Prophet said, “Here is Mikraz and he is a vicious man.” Mikraz started talking to the Prophet and as he was talking, Suhail bin 'Amr came. When Suhail bin 'Amr came, the Prophet said, “Now the matter has become easy.” Suhail said to the Prophet, “Please conclude a peace treaty with us.” So, the Prophet called the clerk and said to him, “Write: By the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.” Suhail said, “As for ‘Gracious,’ by Allâh, I do not know what it means. So write: By Your Name O Allâh, as you used to write previously.” The Muslims said, “By Allâh, we will not write except: By the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.” The Prophet said, “Write: By Your Name O Allâh.” Then he dictated, “This is the peace treaty which Muhammâd, the Messenger of Allâh has concluded.” Suhail said, “By Allâh, if we knew that you are Allâh’s Messenger we would not prevent you from visiting the Ka'bah, and would not fight with you. So, write: “Muhammâd bin 'Abdullah.” The Prophet said, “By Allâh! I am Messenger of Allâh even if you people do not believe me. Write: Muhammâd bin 'Abdullah.” (Az-Zuhri said, “The Prophet accepted all those things, as he had already said that he would accept everything they would demand if it respects the Ordinance of Allâh, (i.e., by letting him and his companions perform 'Umra.)" anything of it. (As it was taken through treason).” ‘Urwa then started looking at the companions of the Prophet ﷺ. By Allâh, whenever Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ spitted, the spittle would fall in the hand of one of them (i.e., the Prophet’s companions) who would rub it on his face and skin; if he ordered them they would carry his orders immediately; if he performed ablution, they would struggle to take the remaining water; and when they spoke to him, they would lower their voices and would not look at his face constantly out of respect. ‘Urwa returned to his people and said, “O people! By Allâh, I have been to the kings and to Caesar, Khosrau and An-Najâshi, yet I have never seen any of them respected by his courtiers as much as Muhammad (ﷺ) is respected by his companions. By Allâh, if he spitted, the spittle would fall in the hand of one of them (i.e., the Prophet’s companions) who would rub it on his face and skin; if he ordered them, they would carry out his order immediately; if he performed ablution, they would struggle to take the remaining water; and when they spoke, they would lower their voices and would not look at his face constantly out of respect.” ‘Urwa added, “No doubt, he has presented to you a good reasonable offer, so please accept it.” A man from the tribe of Bani Kinânah said, “Allow me to go to him,” and they allowed him, and when he approached the Prophet ﷺ and his companions, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “He is so-and-so who belongs to the tribe that respects the Budn (i.e., camels of the sacrifice). So, bring the Budn in front of him.” So, the Budn were brought before him and the people received him while they were reciting Talbiya. When he saw that scene, he said, “Glorified be Allâh! It is not fair to prevent these people from visiting the proposal, you'd better accept it and allow me to meet him." They said, "You may meet him." So, he went to the Prophet and started talking to him. The Prophet told him almost the same as he had told Budail. Then 'Urwa said, "O Muḥammad! Won't you feel any scruple in extirpating your relations? Have you ever heard of anyone amongst the Arabs extirpating his relatives before you? On the other hand, if the reverse should happen, (nobody will aid you, for) by Allah, I do not see (with you) dignified people, but people from various tribes who would run away leaving you alone." Hearing that, Abū Bakr abused him and said, "Do you say we would run and leave the Prophet alone?" 'Urwa said, "Who is that man?" They said, "He is Abū Bakr." 'Urwa said to Abū Bakr, "By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, were it not for the favour which you did to me and which I did not compensate, I would retort on you." 'Urwa kept on talking to the Prophet and seizing the Prophet's beard as he was talking while Al-Mughira bin Shu'ba was standing near the head of the Prophet, holding a sword and wearing a helmet. Whenever 'Urwa stretched his hand towards the beard of the Prophet, Al-Mughira would hit his hand with the handle of the sword and say (to 'Urwa), "Remove your hand from the beard of Allah's Messenger." 'Urwa raised his head and asked, "Who is that?" The people said, "He is Al-Mughira bin Shu'ba." 'Urwa said, "O treacherous! Am I not doing my best to prevent evil consequences of your treachery?" Before embracing Islām Al-Mughira was in the company of some people. He killed them and took their property and came (to Al-Madīnah) to embrace Islām. The Prophet said (to him), "As regards your Islām, I accept it, but as for the property I do not take Hudaibiya and they had milch camels (or their women and children) with them, and will wage war against you, and will prevent you from visiting the Ka'bah.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “We have not come to fight anyone, but to perform the ‘Umra. No doubt, the war has weakened Quraish and they have suffered great losses, so if they wish, I will conclude a truce with them, during which they should refrain from interfering between me and the people (i.e., the Arab infidels other than Quraish), and if I have victory over those infidels, Quraish will have the option to embrace Islâm as the other people do, if they wish; they will at least get strong enough to fight. But if they do not accept the truce, by Allâh in Whose Hands my soul is, I will fight with them defending my Cause till I get killed, but (I am sure) Allâh will definitely make His Cause victorious.” Budail said, “I will inform them of what you have said.” So, he set off till he reached Quraish and said, “We have come from that man (i.e., Muhammad ﷺ) whom we heard saying something which we will disclose to you if you should like.” Some of the fools among Quraish shouted that they were not in need of this information, but the wiser among them said, “Relate what you heard him saying.” Budail said, “I heard him saying so and so,” relating what the Prophet ﷺ had told him. ‘Urwa bin Mas’ûd got up and said, “O people! Aren’t you the sons?” They said, “Yes.” He added, “Am I not the father?” They said, “Yes.” He said, “Do you mistrust me?” They said, “No.” He said, “Don’t you know that I invited the people of ‘Ukâz for your help, and when they refused I brought my relatives and children and those who obeyed me (to help you)?” They said, “Yes.” He said, “Well, this man (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) has offered you a reasonable on the right.” By Allah, Khâlid did not perceive the arrival of the Muslims till the dust arising from the march of the Muslim army reached him, and then he turned back hurriedly to inform Quraish. The Prophet went on advancing till he reached the ʿnâya (i.e., a mountainous way) through which one would go to them (i.e., people of Quraish). The she-camel of the Prophet sat down. The people tried their best to cause the she-camel to get up but in vain, so they said, Al-Qâsâwâ’ (i.e., the she-camel’s name) has become stubborn! Al-Qâsâwâ’ has become stubborn!” The Prophet said, “Al-Qâsâwâ’ has not become stubborn, for stubbornness is not her habit, but she was stopped by Him Who stopped the elephant.” Then he said, “By the Name of Him in Whose Hands my soul is, if they (i.e., the Quraish infidels) ask me anything which will respect the Ordinances of Allah, I will grant it to them.” The Prophet then rebuked the she-camel and she got up. The Prophet changed his way till he dismounted at the farthest end of Al-Ḥudaiya at a pit (i.e., well) containing a little water which the people used in small amounts, and in a short while the people used up all its water and complained to Allah’s Messenger of thirst. The Prophet took an arrow out of his arrow-case and ordered them to put the arrow in that pit. By Allah, the water started and continued sprouting out till all the people quenched their thirst and returned with satisfaction. While they were still in that state, Budail bin Warqa Al-Khuza’i came with some persons from his tribe Khuza’a and they were the advisers of Allah’s Messenger who keep no secret from him and were from the people of Tihama. Budail said, “I left Ka’b bin Lu’ā and ʿĀmir bin Lu’āl residing at the profuse water of Al-they are our enemies and the only people whom we suspect, I have made up my mind to exile them.” When ‘Umar decided to carry out his decision, one of Abū Al-Ḥuqiq’s sons came and addressed ‘Umar, “O chief of the believers, will you exile us although Muḥammad (ﷺ) allowed us to stay at our places, and made a contract with us about our properties, and accepted the condition of our residence in our land?” ‘Umar said, “Do you think that I have forgotten the statement of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, i.e.: ‘What will your condition be when you are expelled from Khaibar and your camel will be carrying you night after night?’” The Jew replied, “That was a joke from Abul-Qāsim.” ‘Umar said, “O the enemy of Allāh! You are telling a lie.” ‘Umar then drove them out and paid them the price of their properties in the form of fruits, money, camel saddles and ropes, etc.”

(15) CHAPTER. The conditions of Jihad and peace treaties with (non-Muslim) warriors, and the writing of the conditions.

2731, 2732. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama and Marwân whose narrations attest each other: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ set out at the time of Al-Ḥudaibīya (treaty), and when they proceeded for a distance, he said, “Khālid bin Al-Walid leading the cavalry of Quraish constituting the front of the army, is at a place called Al-Ǧhamīm, so take the way
"If your masters agree, I will pay them the whole sum provided the Waldā’ will be for me." Barira went to her masters and told them about it, but they refused the offer and she returned from them while Allâh’s Messenger was sitting. She said, “I presented the offer to them, but they refused unless the Waldā’ would be for them.” When the Prophet heard that and ‘Aishah told him about it, he said to her, “Buy Barira and let them stipulate that her Waldā’ will be for them, as the Waldā’ is for the manumitter.” ‘Aishah did so. After that Allâh’s Messenger got up amidst the people, glorified and praised Allâh and said, “What is wrong with some people who stipulate things which are not in Allâh’s Laws? Any condition which is not in Allâh’s Laws is invalid even if there were a hundred such conditions. Allâh’s Rules are the most valid and Allâh’s Conditions are the most solid. The Waldā’ is for the manumitter.”

(14) CHAPTER. If the landlord stipulates in the contract of share-cropping that he would terminate the contract whenever he likes.

2730. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: When the people of Khaibar dislocated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar’s hands and feet, Umar got up delivering a Khutba (religious talk) saying, “No doubt, Allâh’s Messenger made a contract with the Jews concerning their properties, and said to them, ‘We allow you (to stand in your land) as long as Allâh allows you.’ Now ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar went to his land and was attacked at night, and his hands and feet were dislocated, and as we have no enemies there except those Jews, the Messenger of Allah,” and then he narrated the whole story about him. Al-Khidr said to Mūsa, “Did I not tell you that you would not be able to have patience with me.” (V.18:72). Mūsa then violated the agreement for the first time because of forgetfulness, then Mūsa promised that if he asked Al-Khidr about anything, the latter would have the right to desert him. Mūsa abided by that condition and on the third occasion he intentionally asked Al-Khidr and caused that condition to be applied. The three occasions referred to above are referred to by the following Verses:

‘...Call me not to account for what I forgot, and be not hard upon me for my affair
(with you).’ (V.18:73)

‘...Till they met a boy and he (Al-Khidr) killed him...’

‘Then they both proceeded ... found therein a wall about to collapse and he (Al-Khidr) set it up straight...’(1) (V.18:77)

(13) CHAPTER. Conditions for Walā’.

2729. Narrated ‘Urwa: ‘Ā‘ishah said, “Barira came to me and said, ‘My people (masters) have written the contract for my emancipation for nine Awaq (of gold) to be paid in yearly installments, one Uqīya per year; so help me.’” ‘Ā‘ishah said (to her),

(1) (H. 2728) In the second case Moses abided by the condition though there was no written agreement or witnesses. So when Khidr said to him, “This is the parting between me and you.” Moses accepted his decision because it agreed with the condition he himself had set up.
Barira? He said, 'Buy her and manumit her, no matter what they stipulate.' 'A'ishah added, 'I bought and manumitted her, though her masters had stipulated that her Walâ would be for them.' The Prophet ﷺ said, 'The Walâ is for the liberator, even if the other stipulated a hundred conditions.'

(11) CHAPTER. Conditions concerning divorce.

2727. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ forbade:
(i) The meeting of the caravan (of goods) on the way,
(ii) That a residing person sells goods of a bedouin,
(iii) That a woman stipulates the divorce of the wife of the would be husband,
(iv) That a man tries to cause the cancellation of a bargain concluded by another. He also forbade An-Najsh and that one withholds the milk in the udder of an animal so that he may deceive people on selling it.

[See Hadîth 2656]

(12) CHAPTER. Verbal conditions with the people.

2728. Narrated Ubaî bin Ka‘b ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Mûsâ (Moses عليه الصبر والمصانع):
be stoned to death. So, in lieu of that I ransomed my son by paying one hundred sheep and a slave-girl. Then I asked the religious scholars about it, and they informed me that my son must be lashed one hundred lashes, and be exiled for one year, and the wife of this (man) must be stoned to death.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, I will judge between you according to Allah’s Laws. The slave-girl and the sheep are to be returned to you, your son is to receive a hundred lashes and be exiled for one year. You, O Unais, go to the wife of this (man) and if she confesses her guilt, stone her to death.” Unais went to that woman next morning and she confessed. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ ordered that she be stoned to death.

(10) CHAPTER. The conditions permissible in the case of a slave who has a writing for emancipation, if he agrees to be sold to somebody else who promises to free him.

2726. Narrated Aiman Al-Makki: When I visited ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها, she said, “Barira who had a written contract for her emancipation for a certain amount came to me and said, ‘O Mother of the believers! Buy me and manumit me, as my masters will sell me.’ ‘Aishah agreed to it. Barira said, ‘My masters will sell me on the condition that my Wala’(1) will go to them.’ ‘Aishah said to her, ‘Then I am not in need of you.’ The Prophet ﷺ heard of that, or was told about it and so he asked ‘Aishah, ‘What is the problem of Wala’?”

(H. 2726) Wala’: See the glossary.
did not give any yield, so we were forbidden (by the Prophet) to follow such a system, but we were allowed to rent the land for money.

(8) CHAPTER. The conditions which are not permissible in the contracts of marriage.

2723. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “No town-dweller should sell for a bedouin. Do not practise Najsh (i.e., do not offer a high price for a thing which you do not want to buy, in order to deceive the people). No Muslim should offer more for a thing already bought by his Muslim brother, nor should he demand the hand of a girl already engaged to another Muslim. A Muslim woman shall not try to bring about the divorce of her sister (i.e., another Muslim woman) in order to take her place herself.”

(9) CHAPTER. The conditions which are not permissible in the legal punishments prescribed by Allah.

2724, 2725. Narrated Abū Hurairah and Zaid bin Khālid Al-Juhani: A bedouin came to Allah’s Messenger and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I ask you by Allah to judge my case according to Allah’s Laws.” His opponent, who was more learned than he, said, “Yes, judge between us according to Allah’s Laws, and allow me to speak.” Allah’s Messenger said, “Speak.” He (i.e., the bedouin or the other man) said, “My son was working as a labourer for this (man) and he committed illegal sexual intercourse with his wife. The people told me that it was obligatory that my son should 2720. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ gave the land of Khaibar to the Jews on the condition that they would work on it and cultivate it and they would get half of its yield.

(6) CHAPTER. The terms and the conditions of Mahr at the time of the marriage contract.

‘Umar said, “The rights are limited by the conditions, and you will get only what you stipulate.”

Narrated Al-Miswar, “I heard the Prophet ﷺ once mentioning his son-in-law and praising him highly as a sincere son-in-law. He said, ‘Whenever he talked to me, he spoke the truth and whenever he promised me, he fulfilled his promise.’”

2721. Narrated ‘Uqba bin ‘Amir رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “From among all the conditions which you have to fulfill, the conditions which make it legal for you to have sexual relations (i.e., the marriage contract) have the greatest right to be fulfilled.”

(7) CHAPTER. The conditions in sharecropping.

2722. Narrated Rãfi’ bin Khadij رضي الله عنه: We used to work in the fields more than the other Anṣâr, and we used to rent the land (for the yield of a specific portion of it). But sometimes that portion or the rest of the land...
(5) CHAPTER. Conditions in contracts (of share-cropping etc.).

2719. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Anṣār said to the Prophet, “Divide our date-palms between us and our emigrant brothers.” The Prophet said, “No.” The Anṣār said to the emigrants, “You may do the labour (in our gardens) and we will share the fruits with you.” The emigrants said, “We hear and obey.”
(4) CHAPTER. It is permissible for the seller to stipulate that he should ride the (sold) animal up to a certain place.

2718. Narrated Jābir: While I was riding a (slow) and tired camel, the Prophet ﷺ passed by and beat it and prayed for Allāh’s Blessings for it. The camel became so fast as it had never been before. The Prophet ﷺ then said, “Sell it to me for one Uqiyā (of gold).” I said, “No.” He again said, “Sell it to me for one Uqiyā (of gold).” So I sold it and stipulated that I should ride it to my house. When we reached (Al-Madīna) I took that camel to the Prophet ﷺ and he gave me its price. I returned home but he sent for me (and when I went to him) he said, “I was not going to take your camel. So, take your camel as a gift for you.” (Various narrations are mentioned here with slight variations in expressions relating the condition that Jābir had the right to ride the sold camel up to Al-Madīna).
the Zakāt and to be sincere and true to every Muslim [i.e. order them for Al-Maruf (i.e. Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam has ordained) and to forbid them from Al-Munkar (i.e. disbelief, polytheism and all that Islam has forbidden), and to help them, to be kind and merciful to them].

(2) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) the sale of pollinated date-palms.

2716. Narrated `Abdullāh bin `Umar: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “If someone sells pollinated date-palms, their fruits will be for the seller, unless the buyer stipulates the contrary.”

(3) CHAPTER. The conditions of selling.

2717. Narrated `Urwa: `Āishah told me that Barīra came to seek her help in writing for emancipation and at that time she had not paid any part of her price. `Āishah said to her, “Go to your masters and if they agree that I will pay your price (and free you) on condition that your Walā’ will be for me, I will pay the money.” Barīra told her masters about that, but they refused, and said, “If `Āishah wants to do a favour she could, but your Walā’ will be for us.”

`Āishah informed Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ of that and he ﷺ said to her, “Buy and manumit Barīra as the Walā’ will go to the manumitter.”
2713. Narrated ‘Urwa: ‘Aishah told me, “Allah’s Messenger used to examine them according to this Verse:

‘O you who believe! When believing women come to you as emigrants, examine them... (upto)... Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.’” (V.60:10-12)

‘Aishah said, “When any of them agreed to that condition Allah’s Messenger would say to her, ‘I have accepted your Bai’a (pledge).’ He would only say that, but, by Allah he never touched the hand of any woman (i.e., never shook hands with them) while taking the Bai’a (pledge) and he never took their Bai’a (pledge) except by his words (only).”

2714. Narrated Jarir: When I gave the Bai’a (pledge) to Allah’s Messenger, he stipulated that I should be sincere and true to every Muslim i.e. order them for Al-Ma’rūf (i.e. Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam has ordained) and to forbid them from Al-Munkar (i.e. disbelief, polytheism and all that is forbidden), and to help them, to be kind and merciful to them].

(See H. 57 and its chapter)

2715. Narrated Jarir bin ‘Abdullāh: I gave the Bai’a (pledge) to Allah’s Messenger for Ḥaqimat-as-Salāt, paying

(1) (H. 2713) The condition mentioned in the Verse, i.e., that they will not associate anything in worship with Allah, that they will not steal, that they will not commit illegal sexual intercourse, that they will not kill their children, that they will not utter slander intentionally forging falsehood (i.e., by making illegal children belonging to their husbands), and that they will not disobey you in any Ma’rūf (Islamic Monotheism and all that which Islam ordains).... (V.60:12).

(2) (H. 2715) Ḥaqimat-as-Salāt: See the glossary.
(1) CHAPTER. The conditions permissible on embracing Islam, and in contracts and transactions.

2711, 2712. Narrated Marwân and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama from the Companions of Allah’s Messenger: When Suhail bin ‘Amr agreed to the Treaty of Hudaybiyya, one of the things he stipulated then, was that the Prophet should return to them (i.e., the Al-Mushrikûn) anyone coming to him from their side, even if he was a Muslim; and would not interfere between them and that person. The Muslims did not like this condition and got disgusted with it. Suhail did not agree except with that condition. So, the Prophet agreed to that condition and returned Abû Jandal to his father Suhail bin ‘Amr. Thenceforth the Prophet returned everyone in that period (of truce) even if he was a Muslim. During that period some believing women emigrants including Umm Kûthîim bint ‘Uqba bin Abu Mu’ait who came to Allah’s Messenger and she was a young lady then. Her relative came to the Prophet and asked him to return her, but the Prophet did not return her to them for Allah had revealed the following Verse regarding women:

“...When believing women come to you as emigrants, examine them, Allah knows best as to their Faith... (up to)... nor are the disbelievers lawful (husbands) for them...”

(V.60:10)

(1) (Ch. 1) Some conditions are permissible, others are not; for example, a non-Muslim on embracing Islam has the right to stipulate that he shall not be ordered to move from one country to another, but he cannot stipulate that he may not perform the Ṣalāt (prayers). (Fath Al-Bâri) from Ibn Abū Hadrad in the mosque. Their voices grew louder till Allāh’s Messenger heard them while he was in his house. So, he lifted the curtain of his room and called Ka'b bin Mālik saying, “O Ka'b!” He replied, “Labbaik! O Allāh’s Messenger!” He beckoned to him with his hand suggesting that he deduct half the debt. Ka'b said, “I agree, O Allāh’s Messenger!” Allāh’s Messenger then said (to Ibn Abū Hadrad), “Get up and pay him the rest.”
(14) CHAPTER. Bringing about reconciliation in case of dispute concerning debts.

2710. Narrated 'Abdullah bin Ka'b that Ka'b bin Malik told him that in the lifetime of Allah's Messenger ﷺ he demanded his debt (i.e., dates) of my garden in lieu of the debt of my father, but they refused the offer, as they thought that it would not cover the full debt. So, I went to the Prophet ﷺ and told him about it. He (ﷺ) said (to me), "When you pluck the dates and collect them in the Mirbad (i.e., a place where dates are dried), call me." Finally, he came accompanied by Abu Bakr and 'Umar and sat on the dates and invoked Allah to bless them. Then he said, "Call your creditors and give them their full rights." So, I paid all my father's creditors in full and yet thirteen extra Wasq of dates remained, seven of which were 'Ajwa and six were Laun, or six of which were 'Ajwa and seven were Laun. I met Allah's Messenger ﷺ at sunset and informed him about it. On that he smiled and said, "Go to Abu Bakr and 'Umar and tell them about it." They said, "We perceived that that was going to happen, as Allah's Messenger ﷺ did what he did."
both of them used for irrigation. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said to Az-Zubair, “O Zubair! Irrigate (your garden) first, and then let the water flow to your neighbour.” The Anṣārī became angry and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Is it because he is your cousin?” On that the complexion of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ changed (because of anger) and he said (to Az-Zubair), “Irrigate (your garden) and then withhold the water till it reaches the walls (surrounding the palms).” So, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ gave Az-Zubair his full right. Before that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had given a generous judgement beneficial for Az-Zubair and the Anṣārī, but when the Anṣārī irritated Allah’s Messenger ﷺ he gave Az-Zubair his full right according to the evident law. Az-Zubair said, “By Allah! I think the following Verse was revealed concerning that case:

‘But no, by your Lord, they can have no Faith, until they make you (O Muhammad ﷺ) judge in all disputes between them...’” (V.4:65)

(13) CHAPTER. Reconciliation between the creditors and between the inheritors and the repayment of debts by giving an amount that is not specified or counted.

Ibn ‘Abbās said, “There is no harm if two partners agree that one of them takes the debts and the other takes the assets, but if the property of any of them is ruined the loser has no right to claim it from the other partner.”

2709. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: My father died and was in debt. I suggested that his creditors take the fruits.
voices grew very loud. The Prophet passed by them and said, “O Ka'b,” beckoning with his hand as if intending to say, “Deduct half the debts.” So, Ka'b took half what the other owed him and remitted the other half.

(11) CHAPTER. The superiority of making peace and establishing justice among the people.

2707. Narrated Abü Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “There is a Sadaqa to be given for every joint of the human body; and for every day on which the sun rises there is a Sadaqa (i.e., charitable gift to be given), the one who establishes justice among people is considered as a Sadaqa.

[See Vol. 4, Hadith No.2891, 2989]

(12) CHAPTER. If the Imãm (i.e., ruler) suggests a (re)conciliation but the defendant refuses it, he is to be judged by the evident valid law.

2708. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair: ‘Rebi’ah bin ‘Utba bin ‘Affan told me that he quarreled with an Anšârî man who had participated in (the battle of) Badr in front of Allah’s Messenger about a water stream which

(1) (H. 2707) One is supposed to thank Allah for the many favours Allah has bestowed upon one; one of these numberless favours is the miraculous creation of the three hundred and sixty joints of man’s body. Allah rewards those who bring about peace among people with their justice, and such good deeds compensate for the Sadaqa which one should pay as a sign of gratitude to Allah.
(10) CHAPTER. Should the Imam suggest reconciliation?

2705. Narrated `Aishah: Once, Allah's Messenger heard the loud voices of some opponents quarrelling at the door. One of them was appealing to the other to deduct his debt and asking him to be lenient, but the other was saying, "By Allah, I will not do so." Allah's Messenger went out to them and said, "Who is the one who was swearing by Allah that he would not do a favour?" That man said, "I am that person, O Allah's Messenger! I will give my opponent whatever he wishes."

2706. Narrated `Abdullâh bin Ka'b bin Mâlik from Ka'b bin Mãlik: `Abdullâh bin Abû Hadrad Al-Aslamî owed Ka'b bin Mâlik some money. One day the latter met the former and demanded his right, and their
53 – THE BOOK OF PEACE MAKING (OR RECONCILIATION)

Allah said:
“... Then make peace between them both...”
(V.49:9)

2704. Narrated Al-Hasan (Al-Basri): By Allah, Al-Hasan bin ‘Ali led large battalions like mountains against Mu‘awiya. ‘Amr bin Al-‘As said (to Mu‘awiya), “I surely see battalions which will not turn back before killing their opponents.” Mu‘awiya who was really the best of the two men said to him, “O ‘Amr! If these killed those and those killed these, who would be left with me for the jobs of the people, who would be left with me for their women, who would be left with me for their children?” Then Mu‘awiya sent two Qurashi men from the tribe of ‘Abd Shams called ‘Abdur Rahmān bin Sumura and Abdullah bin ‘Amir bin Kuraiz to Al-Hasan saying to them, “Go to this man (i.e., Al-Hasan) and negotiate peace with him and talk and appeal to him.” So, they went to Al-Hasan and talked and appealed to him to accept peace. Al-Hasan said, “We, the offspring of ‘Abdul Mu’talib, have got wealth and people have indulged in killing and corruption (and money only will appease them).” They said to Al-Hasan, “Mu‘awiya offers you so and so, and appeals to you and entreats you to accept peace.” Al-Hasan said to them, “But who will be responsible for what you have said?” They said, “We will be responsible for it.” So, whatever Al-Hasan asked they said, “We will be responsible for it for you.” So, Al-Hasan concluded a peace treaty with Mu‘awiya. Al-Hasan (Al-Baṣri) said: I heard Abū Bakra saying, “I saw Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) on the pulpit and Al-Hasan bin ‘Ali was by his side. The Prophet (ﷺ) was looking once at the people and once at Al-Hasan bin ‘Ali saying, ‘This son of mine is a Saiyid (i.e., a noble) and may Allah make peace between two big groups of...”
2702. Narrated Sahl bin Abū Hathma: 'Abdullāh bin Sahl and Muḥaiyisa bin Mas'ūd bin Zaid went to Khaibar when it had had a peace treaty (with the Muslims).

2703. Narrated Anas b. Ar-Rabī', the daughter of An-Naḍr broke the tooth of a girl, and the relatives of Ar-Rabī' requested the girl’s relatives to accept the arṣ (compensation for wounds etc.) and forgive the (offender), but they refused. So, they went to the Prophet who ordered them to bring about retaliation. Anas b. An-Naḍr asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! Will the tooth of Ar-Rabī’ be broken? No, by Him Who has sent you with the Truth, her tooth will not be broken.” The Prophet said, “O Anas! Allah’s Law ordains retaliation.” Later the relatives of the girl agreed and forgave her. The Prophet said, “There are some of Allah’s slaves who, if they take an oath by Allah, are responded to by Allah (i.e., their oath is fulfilled).” Anas added, “The people agreed and accepted the arṣ.”

(8) CHAPTER. Agreement about Diya (blood money).

(9) CHAPTER. The saying of the Prophet to Al-Hasan bin ‘Ali, “This son of mine is Saiyid (a noble) and may Allah make peace between two big groups (of Muslims) through him.” And the Statement of
53 - THE BOOK OF PEACEMAKING (OR RECONCILIATION)

On the day of Ḥudaybiyya, the Prophet ﷺ made a peace treaty with the Al-Mushrikūn on three conditions:
1. The Prophet ﷺ would return to them any person from Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans).
2. Al-Mushrikūn pagans would not return any of the Muslims going to them, and
3. The Prophet ﷺ and his companions would come to Makkah the following year and would stay there for three days and would enter Makkah with their weapons in cases, e.g., swords, arrows, bows, etc.

Abū Jandal came hopping, his legs being chained, but the Prophet ﷺ returned him to Al-Mushrikūn.

2701.Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ set out for the ‘Umra but the disbelievers of Quraish prevented him from reaching the Ka’bah. So, he slaughtered his sacrifice and got his head shaved at Al-Hudaybiyya, and agreed with them that he would perform ‘Umra the following year and would not carry weapons except swords, and would not stay in Makkah except for the period they allowed. So, the Prophet ﷺ performed the ‘Umra in the following year and entered Makkah according to the treaty, and when he stayed for three days, the disbelievers ordered him to depart, and he departed.
(the next year) and the time limit passed, the Makkans went to ‘Ali and said, “Tell your friend (i.e., the Prophet) to go out, as the period (agreed to) has passed.” So, the Prophet went out of Makkah. The daughter of Ḥamza ran after them (i.e., the Prophet and his companions), calling, “O Uncle! O Uncle!” ‘Ali received her and led her by the hand and said to Fāṭima, “Take your uncle’s daughter.” Zaid and Ja’far quarrelled about her. ‘Ali said, “I have more right to her as she is my uncle’s daughter. Ja’far said; “She is my uncle’s daughter, and her aunt is my wife.” Zaid said, “She is my brother’s daughter.” The Prophet judged that she should be given to her aunt, and said that the aunt was like the mother. He then said to ‘Ali, “You are from me and I am from you”, and said to Ja’far, “You resemble me both in character and appearance”, and said to Zaid, “You are our brother (in faith) and our freed slave.”

(7) CHAPTER. To make peace with Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans).

This chapter includes Abū Sufyān’s narration.

Narrated ‘Aūf bin Mālik: The Prophet said, “There will be a peace treaty between you and Bani Al-Asfar (the Byzantines).”

2700. Narrated Al-Bara’ bin ‘Azib: “There will be a peace treaty between you and Bani Al-Asfar.”

(1) (H. 2699) The Prophet had established the bond of brotherhood between Zaid, his freed slave, and Ḥamza, the Prophet’s uncle. This is why Zaid said, “She is my brother’s daughter.” The Prophet in addressing the three persons claiming the right of taking Ḥamza’s daughter, is consoling them by relating them to himself, so that they would not be dissatisfied with his judgement. to rub it out.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ rubbed it out and made peace with them on the condition that the Prophet ﷺ and his companions would enter Makkah (next year) and stay there for three days, and that they would enter with their weapons in cases.

[See. Hadîth No. 2731, 2732].

2699. Narrated Al-Barâ’: When the Prophet ﷺ intended to perform ‘Umra in the month of Dhul-Qa’da, the people of Makkah did not let him enter Makkah till he settled the matter with them by promising to stay in it for three days only. When the document of treaty was written, the following was mentioned: ‘These are the terms on which Muhammad ﷺ, the Messenger of Allâh agreed (to make peace).’ They said, “We will not agree to this, for if we believed that you are Allâh’s Messenger we would not prevent you, but you are Muḥammad bin ‘Abdullâh.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I am Allâh’s Messenger and also Muḥammad bin ‘Abdullâh.” Then he said to ‘Ali, “Rub off (the words) ‘Allâh’s Messenger’”, but ‘Ali said, “No, by Allâh, I will never rub off your name.” So, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ took the document and wrote, ‘This is what Muḥammad bin ‘Abdullâh has agreed upon: No arms will be brought into Makkah except in their cases, and nobody from the people of Makkah will be allowed to go with him (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) even if he wished to follow him and he (the Prophet ﷺ) will not prevent any of his companions from staying back in Makkah if the latter wants to stay.’ When the Prophet ﷺ entered Makkah slave-girl and the sheep are to go back to you, and your son will get a hundred lashes and one year exile." He then addressed somebody, "O Unais! Go to the wife of this (man) and stone her to death." So, Unais went and stoned her to death.

2697. Narrated 'Aishah R.A.: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If somebody innovates something which is not present in our religion (of Islamic Monotheism), then that thing will be rejected.

(6) CHAPTER. How to write: These are the terms on which so-and-so, the son of so-and-so reconciled with so-and-so, the son of so-and-so, without mentioning the name of the tribe or the family name.

2698. Narrated Al-Barâ' bin 'Azib R.A.: When Allah's Messenger ﷺ concluded a peace treaty with Al-Mushrikûn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans) at Al-Hûdaiyya, 'Ali bin Abi 'Tâlib wrote the document and he mentioned in it, "Muhammad, Allah's Messenger ﷺ." The Al-Mushrikûn said, "Don't write 'Muhammad, Allah's Messenger', for if you were a Messenger we would not fight with you." Allah's Messenger ﷺ asked 'Ali to rub it out, but 'Ali said, "I will not be the person
(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh (عَزَّ وَجَلَّ):

"...If they make terms of peace between themselves; and making peace is better...”
(V.4:128)

2694. Narrated 'Āishah: The following Verse:

"And if a woman fears cruelty or desertion on her husband’s part…” (V.4:128)

This Verse means if the husband notices something unpleasant about his wife, such as old age or the like, and wants to divorce her, but she asks him to keep her and provide for her as he wishes).

(5) CHAPTER. If some people are (re)conciled on illegal basis, their (re)conciliation is rejected.

2695, 2696. Narrated Abū Hurairah and Zaid bin Khālid Al-Juhāni: A bedouin came and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Judge between us according to Allah’s Laws.” His opponent got up and said, “He is right. Judge between us according to Allah’s Laws.” The bedouin said, “My son was a labourer working for this man, and he committed illegal sexual intercourse with his wife. The people told me that my son should be stoned to death; so, in lieu of that, I paid a ransom of one hundred sheep and a slave-girl to save my son. Then I asked the learned scholars who said, ‘Your son has to be lashed one hundred lashes and has to be exiled for one year.’” The Prophet ﷺ said, “No doubt, I will judge between you according to Allah’s Laws. The two men to get angry, and the two groups started fighting with sticks, shoes and hands. We were informed that the following Divine Verse was revealed (in this concern):

“And if two parties or groups among the believers fall to fighting, then make peace between them both…” (V.49:9)

(2) CHAPTER. He who makes peace between the people is not a liar.

2692. Narrated Umm Kulthum bint Uqba that she heard Allâh’s Messenger saying, “He who makes peace between the people by inventing good information or saying good things, is not a liar.”

(3) CHAPTER. The saying of the ruler to his companions, “Let us go to bring about a (re)conciliation between (people).”

2693. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: Once the people of Qubâ’ fought with each other till they threw stones on each other. When Allâh’s Messenger was informed about it, he said, “Let us go to bring about a (re)conciliation between them.”
he turned round and saw the Prophet standing behind him. The Prophet beckoned him with his hand to keep on offering Salāt (prayer) where he was. Abū Bakr raised his hand and praised Allāh and then retreated till he came in the (first) row, and the Prophet went ahead and lead the people in the Salāt (prayer). When the Prophet finished the Salāt (prayer), he turned towards the people and said, "O people! When something happens to you during the Salāt (prayer), you start clapping, in fact clapping is (permissible) for women only. If something happens to one of you in his Salāt (prayer), he should say: 'Subhān Allāh', (Glorified be Allāh), for whoever hears him (saying so) will direct his attention towards him. O Abū Bakr! What prevented you from leading the people in the Salāt (prayer) when I beckoned to you (to continue)?" Abū Bakr replied, "It did not befit the son of Abū Quḥāfa to lead the Salāt (prayer) in front of the Prophet."

2691. Narrated Anas: It was said to the Prophet: "Would that you see 'Abdullāh bin Ubai." So, the Prophet went to him, riding a donkey, and the Muslims accompanied him, walking on salty barren land. When the Prophet reached 'Abdullāh bin Ubai, the latter said, "Keep away from me! By Allāh, the bad smell of your donkey has harmed me." On that an Ansārī man said (to 'Abdullah), "By Allāh! The smell of the donkey of Allāh's Messenger is better than your smell." On that a man from 'Abdullāh's tribe got angry for 'Abdullah's sake, and the two men abused each other which caused the friends of the
(1) CHAPTER. What has been said regarding (re)conciliation between the people.

And the Statement of Allāh:

"There is no good in most of their secret talks, save (in) him who orders Ṣadaqa (charity in Allāh's Cause), or Ma'ruf (Islamic Monotheism and all the good and righteous deeds which Allāh has ordained), or conciliation between mankind; and he who does this, seeking the good Pleasure of Allāh, We shall give him a great reward."

(V:4:114)

And the going of the ruler to the places (where disputes arise) to bring about a reconciliation between people through his companions.

2690. Narrated Saḥl bin Sa'd:
There was a dispute amongst the people of the tribe of Bani 'Amr bin 'Auf. The Prophet ﷺ went to them along with some of his companions in order to make peace between them. The time for the Ṣalāt (prayer) became due but the Prophet ﷺ did not turn up; Bilāl pronounced the Adhān (call for Ṣalāt) for the Ṣalāt (prayer), but the Prophet ﷺ did not turn up, so Bilāl went to Abū Bakr and said, “The time for the Ṣalāt (prayer) is due and the Prophet ﷺ is detained, would you lead the people in the Ṣalāt (prayer)?” Abū Bakr replied, “Yes, if you wish.” So, Bilāl pronounced the Iqāma of the Ṣalāt (prayer) and Abū Bakr went ahead [to lead the Ṣalāt (prayer)], but the Prophet ﷺ came walking among the rows till he joined the first row. The people started clapping and they clapped too much, and Abū Bakr used not to look hither and thither in the Ṣalāt (prayer), but...
2688.Narrated 'Aishah: Whenever Allah's Messenger intended to go on a journey, he used to draw lots among his wives and would take with him the one on whom the lot fell. He also used to fix for everyone of his wives a day and a night, but Sauda bint Zam'a gave her day and night to 'Aishah, the wife of the Prophet intending thereby to please Allah's Messenger.

2689. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "If the people knew what is (the reward of) pronouncing the Adhān [call for the Salāt (prayers)] and (of being in) the first row (in the Congregational prayer), and if they found no other way to get this privilege except by casting lots, they would certainly cast lots for it. If they knew (the reward of) the noon prayer, they would race for it, and if they knew (the reward of) the morning (i.e., Fajr) and 'Ishā' (late evening) Salāt (prayers), they would present themselves for the Salāt (prayers) even if they had to crawl to reach there.” (See H. 615) boat. The people of the upper part came and asked him, (saying), 'What is wrong with you?' He replied, 'You have been troubled much by me (coming up to you), and I have to get water.' Now, if they prevent him from doing that they will save him and themselves, but if they leave him (to do what he wants), they will destroy him and themselves."(1)

(See H. 2493)

2687. Narrated Umm Al-'Alã that when the Ansâr drew lots as to which of the emigrants should dwell with which of the Ansâr, the name of 'Uthmân bin Maz'un came out (to be in their lot). Umm Al-'Alã further said, "'Uthmân stayed with us, and we nursed him when he got sick, but he died. We shrouded him in his clothes, and Allâh's Messenger came to our house and I said, (addressing the dead 'Uthmân), 'O Abû As-Sâ'ib! May Allâh be Merciful to you. I testify that Allâh has blessed you.' The Prophet said to me, 'How do you know that Allâh has blessed him?' I replied, 'I do not know O Allâh's Messenger! May my parents be sacrificed for you.' Allâh's Messenger said, 'As regards 'Uthman, by Allâh he has died and I really wish him every good, yet, by Allâh, although I am Allâh's Messenger, I do not know what will be done to him.'" Umm Al-'Alã added, "By Allâh, I shall never attest the piety of anybody after him. And what Allâh's Messenger said made me sad." Umm Al-'Alã further said, "Once I slept and saw in a dream, a flowing stream for 'Uthmân. So, I went to Allâh's Messenger and told him about it, he said, 'That is (the symbol of) his (good) deeds.'"

(1) (H. 2686) This means that one should not only avoid violating Allâh's limits but should prevent others from doing so; otherwise the whole society gets corrupted and the good and the evil people are destroyed without discrimination.
(30) CHAPTER. Drawing lots to solve problems.

And the Statement of Allah:
"...When they cast lots with their pens as to which of them should be charged with the care of Maryam (Mary)..." (V.3:44)

Ibn ‘Abbas (explaining the Verse) said, “They drew lots (by throwing their pens in the river); the pens went along the stream except Zakariya’s pen which stood stationary against the flow of the stream, and so Zakariya was charged with the care of Maryam.”

Allah also said, “Fasahama! He (Prophet Jonah عليه السلام) (agreed to) cast lots, and he was among the losers,” means, “the lot fell on him”. (V.37:141)

Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: “The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘The example of the person abiding by Allah’s Orders and Limits (or the one who abides by the limits and regulations prescribed by Allah) in comparison to the one who do wrong and violate Allah’s Limits and orders is like the example of people drawing lots for seats in a boat. Some of them got seats in the upper part while the others in the lower part; those in the lower part have to pass by those in the upper one to get water, and that troubled the latter. One of them (i.e., the people in the lower part) took an axe and started making a hole in the bottom of the
(29) CHAPTER. ‘Al-Mushrikün (idolaters, polytheists, and pagans) should not be asked to give witness or the like (i.e., their witnesses are not acceptable).

Ash-Sha'bî said, “The witnesses of the people of the different religions against one another is not valid,” as Allâh says:

‘So, We planted amongst them enmity and hatred...’ (V.5:14)

Abû Hurairah said, “The Prophet  said, ‘Neither believe the people of the Scriptures, nor disbelieve them, but say: We believe in Allâh and whatever was revealed by Him.’”

2685. Narrated ’Ubaidullah bin ‘Abdullah bin ’Utba: Ibn ‘Abbâs  said, “O assembly of Muslims! How do you ask the people of the Scriptures, though your Book (i.e., the Qur’ân) which was revealed to His Prophet  is the most recent information from Allâh and you recite it, (the Qur’ân) that has not been distorted? Allâh has informed you that the people of the Scriptures distorted and changed what was revealed to them, with their own hands and they said (as regards their changed Scriptures): ‘This is from Allâh,’ in order to get some worldly benefit thereby.” Ibn Abbâs added, “Isn’t the knowledge revealed to you sufficient to prevent you from asking them? By Allâh, I have never seen any one of them asking you (Muslims) about what has been revealed to you.”

(1) (Ch. 29) Al-Hasan and some other scholars say that the witness of somebody against someone belonging to another religion, is not valid, but it is valid if the two persons belong to the same religion. Ash-Sha’bi permits the witness of Muslims in cases involving non-Muslims.
to be dishonest,
(3) Whenever he promises, he breaks his promise.” (See H. 33)

2683. Narrated Muhammad bin ‘Alî: Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh said, “When the Prophet died, Abû Bakr received some property from Al-‘Alâ bin Al-Hadrâmi. Abû Bakr said to the people, ‘Whoever has a money claim on the Prophet, or was promised something by him, should come to us (so that we may pay him his right).’” Jâbir added, “I said (to Abû Bakr), ‘Allâh’s Messenger promised me that he would give me this much, and this much, and this much (spreading his hands three times).’” Jâbir added, “Abû Bakr counted for me and handed me five hundred (gold pieces), and then five hundred, and then five hundred.”

2684. Narrated Sa’îd bin Jubair: A Jew from Hîra asked me which one of the two periods Mûsâ (i.e., Prophet Moses) completed. I said, “I don’t know, (but wait) till I see the most learned Arab and enquire him about it.” So, I went to Ibn ‘Abbâs and asked him. He replied, “Mûsâ completed the longer and better period.” Ibn ‘Abbâs added, “No doubt, a Messenger of Allâh always does what he says.”
(28) CHAPTER. Whoever sees that promises should be fulfilled.

Al-Hasan supported this judgement. (Allâh says:)

“And mention in the Book (the Qur’ân) Isma’il (Ishmael): Verily! He was true to what he promised.” (V.4:54)

Ibn Al-Ashwa’ judged that promises should be fulfilled, and he mentioned that Samura adopted the same opinion.

Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama \(I\leftarrow\Gamma_{\Gamma_{\Gamma}}\): I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying: (about one of his sons-in-law), “He promised me and fulfilled his promise.” Narrated Abu Abdullãh (Al-Bukhãri): I saw Ishãq bin Ibrahim depending on Ibn Ashwa’s narration in giving verdicts.

2681. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Abbas \(I\leftarrow\Gamma_{\Gamma_{\Gamma}}\): Abû Sufyân told me that Heraclius said to him, “When I enquired you what he (i.e., Muhammad ﷺ) ordered you, you replied that he ordered you to establish the Salât (prayer), to speak the truth, to be chaste, to keep promises and to pay back trusts.” Then Heraclius added, “These are really the qualities of a Prophet.” (See H. 7)

2682. Narrated Abû Hurairah \(I\leftarrow\Gamma_{\Gamma_{\Gamma}}\): Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The signs of a hypocrite are three:

1. Whenever he speaks, he tells a lie,
2. Whenever he is entrusted, he proves during the month of Ramadan.” The man said, “Am I to fast any other days?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No, unless you wish to observe the optional fast voluntarily.” Then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ told him about the compulsory Zakāt. The man asked, “Do I have to give anything besides?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No, unless you wish to give in charity voluntarily.” So, the man departed saying, “By Allāh I will neither do more nor less than that.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If he has said the truth he will be successful.” (See H. 46)

2679.Narrated ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنه:The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever has to take an oath should swear by Allāh or keep quiet.”
(i.e., He should not swear by other than Allāh.)

(27) CHAPTER. Whoever produces the proof after (the defendant) has taken the oath.

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Perhaps some of you are more eloquent and persuasive in presenting their arguments than their opponents.” Tawūs, Ibrahim and Shuraih said, “A clear, just evidence (produced by the plaintiff) is more valid than a false oath (taken by the defendant).”

2680. Narrated Umm Salama رضي الله عنها: Once Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “You people present your cases to me and some of you may be more eloquent and persuasive in presenting their arguments. So, if I give some one’s right to another (wrongly) because of the latter’s (tricky) presentation of the case, I am really giving him a piece of fire; so he should not take it.”
by revealing the Divine Verse:

‘Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allâh’s Covenant and their oaths... (up to)... a painful torment’”

(V.3:77)

Al-Ash’ath met me and asked, “What did ‘Abdullãh tell you today?” I said, “Such and such.” He said, “The Verse was revealed regarding my case.”

(26) CHAPTER. How (and with what) to swear?

Allâh said:

“They swear by Allâh...” (V.9:56, 62, 74, 95).

And Allâh said:

“...They come to you swearing by Allâh: ‘We meant no more than goodwill and conciliation’.” (V.4:62)

The expressions used in Arabic for ‘By Allâh’ are: Bil-lãhi, Tal-lãhi, Wal-lãhi.

The Prophet ﷺ said, “And a man who takes a false oath in the Name of Allâh after the ‘Asr prayer. The Prophet ﷺ said, “One should not swear except by Allâh.”

2678. Narrated Ţalîha bin ‘Ubaidullah رضي الله عنه: A man came to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ asking him about Islâm, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said,

(1) “You have to offer five compulsory congregational Salât (prayers) in a day and a night (24 hours).” The man asked, “Are there any more compulsory Salât (prayers) for me?” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No, unless you like to offer Nawâfil (i.e., optional Salât).” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ then added,

(2) “You have to observe Saum (fasts)
(24) CHAPTER. If (some people have to take an oath) and each of them wants to take it first.

2674. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ṭ: The Prophetﷺ asked some people to take an oath, and they hurried for it. The Prophetﷺ ordered that lots should be drawn amongst them as to who would take the oath first.

(25) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah ﷻ:

"Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allah’s Covenant and their oaths, they shall have no portion in the Hereafter (Paradise). Neither will Allah speak to them, nor look at them on the Day of Resurrection nor will He purify them, and they shall have a painful torment." (V.3:77)

2675. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abū Aufā Ṭ: A man displayed some goods in the market and took a false oath that he had been offered so much for them, though he was not offered that amount. Then the following Divine Verse was revealed:

"Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allah’s Covenant and their oaths..." (V.3:77)

Ibn Abū Aufā added, “Such person as described above is a treacherous Ribā-eater (i.e., eater of usury).”

2676, 2677. Narrated Abū Wa’il from ‘Abdullāh Ṭ: The Prophetﷺ said, “Whoever takes a false oath in order to grab another man’s (or his brother’s) property, then Allāh will be angry with him when he will meet Him.” Then Allāh ﷻ confirmed this... them (from the sins), and they shall have a painful torment. (They are):

(1) A man possessed superfluous water on a way and he withheld it from the travellers,

(2) A man who gives a Bai'a (pledge) to a Muslim ruler and gives it only for worldly gains. If the ruler gives him what he wants, he remains obedient to it, otherwise he does not abide by it, and

(3) A man bargains with another man after the 'Aṣr prayer and the latter takes a false oath in the Name of Allāh claiming that he has been offered so much for the thing and the former (believes him and) buys it."

(23) CHAPTER. The defendant has to take an oath wherever it becomes legally compulsory, and it is not imperative to take him from his place to another place (i.e., a sacred place like a mosque) for this purpose.

Marwān ordered Zaid bin Thābit to take an oath on the pulpit, but the latter said, "I will take an oath at my place," and started taking the oath and refused to take it on pulpit. Marwān was surprised at his refusal. The Prophet ﷺ said to the plaintiff, "Produce your two witnesses, or else the defendant has to take an oath." But he did not specify (where the oath was to be taken).

2673. Narrated Ibn Mas'ūd ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever takes a (false) oath in order to grab (others) property, then Allāh will be angry with him when he will meet Him."
Prophet said, 'Whoever takes a false oath in order to grab (other's) property, then Allah will be angry with him when he will meet Him. Then Allah revealed its confirmation. Al-Ash’ath then recited the above Divine Verse.' (V.3:77)

(21) CHAPTER. If someone claims something or accuses somebody of illegal sexual intercourse, he should search for the proof and he is to be given a respite to get an evidence.

2671. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Hilāl bin Umāiyah accused his wife before the Prophet of committing illegal sexual intercourse with Shaykh bin Sa‘māh. The Prophet said, “Produce a proof, or else you would get the legal punishment (by being lashed) on your back.” Hilāl said, “O Allah’s Messenger! If anyone of us saw another man over his wife, would he go to search for a proof?” The Prophet went on saying, “Produce a proof or else you would get the legal punishment (by being lashed) on your back.” The Prophet then mentioned the narration of Li‘ān (as in the Holy Book). (Surat An Nūr: No.24)

(22) CHAPTER. The taking of an oath after the ‘Asr prayer.

2672. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “There are three types of people whom Allah will neither speak to them nor look at them nor purify.

(1) (H. 2671) Literally, Li‘ān means cursing, legally it means an oath by which a husband claims that his wife has committed illegal sexual intercourse. The wife in her turn denies the accusation and takes a similar oath. In both oaths Allah is invoked to curse the liar. The case ends with divorce but no punishment is imposed on any of the two because there are no witnesses to confirm the accusation.
men. And if there are not two men (available), then a man and two women, such as you agree for witnesses, so that if one of them (two women) errs, the other can remind her...’” (V.2:282)

I added, “If one witness and the oath of the plaintiff were sufficient, there would be no need for one of the two women to remind the other.”

2668. Narrated Ibn Abū Mulaika: Ibn ‘Abbas wrote that the Prophet ﷺ gave his verdict on the basis of the defendant’s oath.

2669, 2670. Narrated Abū Wail: ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd) (رضي الله عنه) said, “Whoever takes a (false) oath in order to grab some property (unjustly), Allāh will be angry with him when he will meet Him. Allāh confirmed that through His Divine Revelation:

‘Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allāh’s Covenant and their oaths... (up to)... a painful torment.’” (V.3:77)

Al-Ash’ath bin Qais came to us and asked, “What is Abū ‘Abdur-Raḥmān (i.e., ‘Abdullāh) telling you?” We told him what he was narrating to us. He said, “He was telling the truth; this Divine Verse was revealed in connection with me. There was a dispute between me and another man about something and the case was presented before Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ who said, ‘Produce your two witnesses or else the defendant is to take an oath.’ I said, The defendant will surely take a (false) oath without heed.’ The
(19) CHAPTER. The question of the judge to the plaintiff, “Have you a proof?” before asking the defendant to take an oath.

2666, 2667. Narrated ‘Abdullãh رضي الله عنه: Allãh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If somebody takes a false oath in order to grab the property of a Muslim (unjustly) by that oath, then Allãh will be angry with him when he will meet Him.” Al-Ash’ath اشثثاث informed me, “By Allãh! This was said regarding me. There was a dispute about a piece of land between me and a man from the Jews who denied my right. I took him to the Prophet ﷺ. Allãh’s Messenger ﷺ asked me, ‘Do you have an evidence?’ I replied in the negative. He said to the Jew, ‘Take an oath.’ I said, ‘O Allãh’s Messenger! He will surely take an oath and take my property unjustly.’” So, Allãh revealed:

“Verily! those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allãh’s Covenant and their oaths…” (V.3:77)

(20) CHAPTER. The defendant must take an oath in matters concerning property or legal punishments.

The Prophet ﷺ said, (that the plaintiff must have) “Two witnesses, otherwise (the defendant) should take the oath.”

Ibn Shubruma said, “When Abû Az-Zinãd asked me my opinion about the verdict that one witness and the oath of the plaintiff are sufficient, I said, “Allãh نعالي stated:

‘...And get two witnesses out of your own referred to by the Statement of Allâh

"And those of your women as have passed the age of monthly courses, (up to) until they deliver (their burdens) . . . " (V.65:4)

Al-Hasan bin Šâlih said, "I saw a neighbouress of mine who became a grandmother at the age of twenty-one." (1)

2664. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allâh's Messenger called me to present myself in front of him on the eve of the battle of Uhud, while I was fourteen years of age at that time, and he did not allow me to take part in that battle, but he called me in front of him on the eve of the battle of the Trench when I was fifteen years old, and he allowed me (to join the battle)." Nafi' said, "I went to 'Umar bin 'Abdul Azîz who was caliph at that time and related the above narration to him.
He said, "This age (fifteen) is the limit between childhood and manhood," and wrote to his governors to give salaries to those who reached the age of fifteen. (2)

2665. Narrated Abû Sa'id Al-Khudrî: The Prophet said, "Taking a bath on Friday is compulsory for those who have attained the age of puberty."

---

(1) (Ch. 18) This woman attained puberty at the age of nine and married to give birth to a daughter at ten; the daughter had the same experience.

(2) (H. 2664) When a Muslim reached the age of fifteen, he was regarded as a soldier ready to carry arms when required; on this basis he was given a salary.
2662. Narrated Abū Bakra: A man praised another man in front of the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Woe to you, you have cut off your companion’s neck, you have cut off your companion’s neck,” repeating it several times and then added, “Whoever amongst you has to praise his brother should say, ‘I think that he is so-and-so, and Allah knows exactly the truth, and I do not confirm anybody’s good conduct before Allah, but I think him so-and-so,’ if he really knows what he says about him.”

(17) CHAPTER. What is hated of exaggeration in praising, and one should say only what he knows.

2663. Narrated Abū Mūsa Al-Ashʿarī: The Prophet ﷺ heard someone praising another and exaggerating in his praise. The Prophet ﷺ said, “You have ruined or cut the man’s back (by praising him much).”

(18) CHAPTER. The boys attaining the age of puberty and the validity of their witness.

And the Statement of Allah ﷻ:

“And when the children among you come to puberty, then let them (also) ask for permission.” (V.24:59)

Al-Mughira said, “I attained puberty at the age of twelve.” The attaining of puberty by women is with the start of menses, as is CHAPTER. If only one man attests the (good) conduct of another, then it is sufficient.

Abū Jamila said, “I found a foundling, and when ‘Umar saw me he said (what may mean), ‘Perhaps what you intend to do will cause you trouble,’ as if he was accusing me (of denying my paternity of the child and claiming falsely that he was a foundling). My monitor said, ‘He is really a pious man.’ ‘Umar said to me, ‘If it is so, then go (and be the child’s guardian) and we will provide for it (from the Muslim’s treasury).’” slander (against 'Aishah the wife of the Prophet) are a group among you...'
(V.24:11)

"When Allâh gave the declaration of my innocence, Abû Bakr, who used to provide for Mistâh bin Athatha, for he was his relative, said, 'By Allâh, I will never provide Mistâh with anything because of what he said about 'Aishah.' But Allâh later revealed:

'And let not those among you who are blessed with graces and wealth swear not to give (any sort of help) up to Oft-forgiving, Most-Merciful.' (V.24:22)

"After that Abu Bakr said, 'Yes! By Allâh! I like that Allâh should forgive me,' and resumed helping Mistâh whom he used to help before."

'Aishah added: "Allâh’s Messenger also asked Zainab bint Jaâsh (i.e., the Prophet’s wife) about me saying, ‘What do you know and what did you see?’ She replied, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! I refrain to claim hearing or seeing what I have not heard or seen. By Allâh, I know nothing except goodness about ‘Aishah.’" ‘Aishah further added, "Zainab was competing with me (in her beauty and the Prophet’s love), yet Allâh protected her (from being malicious), for she had piety."
girl and did not have much knowledge of the Qur'an. I said, 'I know, by Allah, that you have listened to what people are saying and that has been planted in your minds and you have taken it as a truth. Now, if I told you that I am innocent, and Allah knows that I am innocent, you would not believe me, and if I confessed to you falsely that I am guilty, and Allah knows that I am innocent, you would believe me. By Allah, I cannot find for you and I, an example, except that of Yūsuf's (Joseph's) father [i.e., Yaqūb (Jacob)] who said, "... So, (for me) patience is most fitting. And it is Allah (Alone) Whose help can be sought against that (lie) which you describe.' (V.12:18). Then I turned to the other side of my bed hoping that Allah would prove my innocence. By Allah, I never thought that Allah would reveal Divine Revelation in my case, as I considered myself too inferior to be talked of in the Qur'an. I had hoped that Allah's Messenger might have a dream in which Allah would prove my innocence. By Allah, Allah's Messenger had not got up and nobody had left the house before the Divine Revelation came to Allah's Messenger. So, there overtook him (i.e., the Prophet) the same state which used to overtake him, (when he used to have, on being inspired Divinely). He was sweating so much so that the drops of the sweat were dropping like pearls though it was a (cold) wintry day. When that state of Allah's Messenger was over, he was smiling and the first word he said, 'Aishah! Thank Allah, for Allah has declared your innocence.' My mother told me to go to Allah's Messenger. I replied, 'By Allah I will not go to him and will not thank but Allah.'

So Allah revealed:

'Verily! Those who brought forth the hypocrites.' On this, the two tribes of 'Aûs and Khazraj got excited and were about to fight each other, while Allâh’s Messenger was standing on the pulpit. He got down and quietened them till they became silent and he kept quiet. ('Aîshah continued:) On that day I kept on weeping so much so that neither did my tears stop, nor could I sleep.

In the morning my parents were with me and I had wept for two nights and a day, till I thought my liver would burst from weeping. While they were sitting with me and I was weeping, an Ansârî woman asked my permission to enter, and I allowed her to come in. She sat down and started weeping with me. While we were in this state, Allâh’s Messenger came and sat down and he had never sat with me since the day they forged the accusation. No revelation regarding my case came to him for a month. He recited Shahâdah (i.e., La ilâha illallâh wa anna Muhammad-ar-Rasul Allâh—none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh, and Muhammad is Allâh’s Messenger) and then said, ‘O ‘Aîshah! I have been informed such and such about you; if you are innocent, then Allâh will soon reveal your innocence, and if you have committed a sin, then repent to Allâh and ask Him to forgive you, for when a person confesses his sin and asks Allâh for forgiveness, Allâh accepts his repentance.’ When Allâh’s Messenger finished his speech, my tears ceased completely and there remained not even a single drop of it. I requested my father to reply to Allâh’s Messenger on my behalf. My father said, ‘By Allâh, I do not know what to say to Allâh’s Messenger.’ I said to my mother, ‘Talk to Allâh’s Messenger on my behalf.’ She said, ‘By Allâh, I do not know what to say to Allâh’s Messenger.’ I was a young added, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Keep your wife, for, by Allah, we know nothing about her but good.’ Ali bin Abi Talib said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Allah has not imposed restrictions on you, and there are many women other than she, yet you may ask the woman-servant who will tell you the truth.’ On that Allah’s Messenger called Barira and said, ‘O Barira! Did you ever see anything which roused your suspicions about her?’ Barira said, ‘No, by Allah. Who has sent you with the Truth, I have never seen in her anything faulty except that she is a girl of immature age, who sometimes sleeps and leaves the dough for the goats to eat.’ On that day Allah’s Messenger ascended the pulpit and requested that somebody support him in punishing ‘Abdullah bin Ubai bin Salul. Allah’s Messenger said, ‘Who will support me to punish that person (‘Abdullah bin Ubai bin Salul) who has hurt me by slandering the reputation of my family? By Allah, I know nothing about my family but good, and they have accused a person about whom I know nothing except good, and he never entered my house except in my company.’

Sa’d bin Mu‘adh got up and said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! By Allah, I will relieve you from him. If that man is from the tribe of the ‘Aans, then we will chop his head off, and if he is from our brothers, the Khazraj, then order us, and we will fulfill your order.’ On that Sa’d bin ‘Ubada, chief of the Khazraj and before this incident, he had been a pious man, got up, motivated by his zeal for his tribe and said, ‘By Allah, you have told a lie; you cannot kill him, and you will never be able to kill him.’ On that Usaid bin Al-Hudair got up and said (to Sa’d bin ‘Ubada), ‘By Allah! you are a liar. By Allah, we will kill him; and you are a hypocrite, defending the
But he would come, greet and say, ‘How is that (girl)?’ I did not know anything of what was going on till I recovered from my ailment and went out with Umm Mistah to the Manäsi where we used to answer the call of nature, and we used not to go to answer the call of nature except from night to night and that was before we had lavatories near to our houses. And this habit of ours was similar to the habit of the old Arabs in the open country (or away from houses). So, I and Umm Mistah bin Ruhm went out walking. Umm Mistah stumbled because of her long dress and on that she said, ‘Let Mistah be ruined.’ I said, ‘You are saying a bad word. Why are you abusing a man who took part in (the battle of) Badr?’ She said, ‘O Hanta (you there), didn’t you know what they said?’ Then she told me the rumours of the false accusers. My sickness was aggravated, and when I returned home, Allah’s Messenger came to me, and after greeting he said, ‘How is that (girl)?’ I requested him to allow me to go to my parents. I wanted then to be sure of the news through them. Allah’s Messenger allowed me, and I went to my parents and asked my mother, ‘What are the people talking about?’ She said, ‘O my daughter! Don’t worry much about this matter. By Allah, never is there a charming woman loved by her husband who has other wives, but the women would forge false news about her.’ I said, ‘Glorified is Allah! Are the people really talking of this matter?’ That night I kept on weeping and could not sleep till morning. (The subnarrator added:) In the morning Allah’s Messenger called ‘Ali bin Abi Talib and Usama bin Zaid, when he saw the Divine Revelation delayed, to consult them about divorcing his wife (i.e., ‘Aishah). Usama bin Zaid said what he knew of the good reputation of his wives and returned to look for it and was delayed because of that. The people who used to carry me on the camel, came to my Hawdaj and put it on the back of the camel, thinking that I was in it, as, at that time, women were light in weight, and thin and lean, and did not use to eat much. So, those people did not feel the difference in the heaviness of the Hawdaj while lifting it, and they put it over the camel. At that time I was a young lady (less than 15 years old). They set the camel moving and proceeded on. I found my necklace after the army had gone, and came to their camp to find nobody. So, I went to the place where I used to stay, thinking that they would discover my absence and come back in my search. While in that state, I felt sleepy and slept. Safwân bin Mu‘âṭṭal As-Sulâmi Adh-Dhakwâni was behind the army and reached my abode in the morning. When he saw a sleeping person, he came to me, and he had seen me before veiling. So, I got up when I heard him saying, ‘Innâ lillâhi wa innâ ilaîhi râji‘ûn’ (Truly to Allâh we belong and truly to Him we shall return)... (2:156).’ He made his camel kneel down. He got down from his camel, and put his leg on the front legs of the camel and then I rode and sat over it. Safwân set out walking, leading the camel by the rope till we reached the army who had halted to take rest at midday. Then whoever was meant for destruction, fell into destruction, (some people accused me falsely) and the leader of the false accusers was ‘Abdullâh bin Ubâi bin Salûl. After that we returned to Al-Madîna, and I became ill for one month while the people were spreading the forged statements of the false accusers. I was feeling during my ailment as if I were not receiving the usual kindness from the Prophet which I used to receive from him when I got sick.
(14) CHAPTER. The witness of a wet nurse.

2660. Narrated ‘Uqba bin Al-Harith: I married a woman and later on a woman came and said, “I suckled you both.” So, I went to the Prophet (to ask him about it). He said, “How can you (keep her as a wife) when it has been said (that you were foster brother and sister)? Leave (divorce) her.”

(15) CHAPTER. The women’s attesting the honourable record of each other.

2661. Narrated ‘Aishah, (the wife of the Prophet): “Whenever Allâh’s Messenger intended to go on a journey, he would draw lots amongst his wives and would take with him the one upon whom the lot fell. During a Ghazwa of his, he drew lots amongst us and the lot fell upon me, and I proceeded with him after Allâh had decreed the use of the veil by women. I was carried in a Hawdaj (on the camel) and dismounted while still in it. When Allâh’s Messenger had finished his Ghazwa and returned home, and we approached the city of Al-Madîna, Allâh’s Messenger ordered us to proceed at night. When the order of setting off was given, I walked till I left the army (camp) behind to answer the call of nature. After finishing I returned (to the camp) to depart (with the others) and suddenly realized that my necklace over my chest was missing. So, I
(12) CHAPTER. The witness of women.

And the Statement of Allah

"... And if there are not two men (available), then a man and two women..."

(V.2:282)

2658. Narrated Abū Sa`īd Al-Khadrī: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Isn’t the witness of a woman equal to half of that of a man?” The women said, “Yes.” He said, “This is because of the deficiency of a woman’s mind.”

(13) CHAPTER. The witness of male and female slaves.

Anas said, “The witness of a slave is to be trusted, provided he is a just, well-reputed man.” Shuraih and Zurara bin Aūfa considered it permissible. Ibn Sirīn considered the witness of a slave permissible except when in favour of his master. A. .Iasan and Ibhrīm considered it permissible in minor matters. Shuraih said, “You are all the sons of slaves and slave-girls.”

2659. Narrated 'Uqba bin Al-Ḥārith that he had married Umm Yahyā bint Abū Ihāb. He said, “A black slave-lady came and said, ‘I suckled you both.’ I then mentioned that to the Prophet ﷺ who turned his face aside.” Uqba further said, “I went to the other side and told the Prophet ﷺ about it. He said, ‘How can you (keep her as your wife) when the lady has said that she suckled both of you (i.e., you and your wife)?’” So, the Prophet ﷺ ordered him to divorce her.
2656. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “Bilāl pronounces the Adhān when it is still night (before dawn), so eat and drink till the next Adhān is pronounced (or till you hear Ibn Umm Maktūm’s Adhān).” Ibn Umm Maktūm was a blind man who would not pronounce the Adhān till he was told that it was dawn.

2657. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: Some outer garments were presented to (or received by) the Prophet and my father (Makhrama) said to me, “Let us go to the Prophet so that he may give us something from the garments.” So, my father stood at the door and spoke. The Prophet recognized his voice and came out carrying a garment and telling Makhrama the good qualities of that garment, adding, “I have kept this for you, I have kept this for you.”
(11) CHAPTER. The witness of a blind man, his marriage, his affairs, the marriage conducted by him, and his buying and selling; and accepting his call for the Salāt (prayer), etc., and what can be known by sound or voice.

Al-Qāsim, Al-Ḥasan, Ibn Sīrīn, Az-Zuhrī and ‘Aṭā permitted the witness of the blind. ʿAsh-Shaʿbī said, “The witness of a blind man is valid if he is intelligent and witty.” Al-Ḥakam said, “The witness of a blind man in certain things is to be accepted.” Az-Zuhri said, “Suppose Ibn ʿAbbās gave a witness against me, would you reject his witness?” Ibn ʿAbbās used to send a man to watch the sunset so that he might break his fast. He would ask about the dawn, and if he was informed that it was dawn, he would offer two Rakʿā prayer. Sulaiman bin Yasar said, “I asked ‘Āishah to admit me into her house, and she recognized my voice and said, “Sulaiman! Come in, as you are still a slave so long as you still owe part of the price of your manumission.” Samura bin Jundab accepted the evidence of a veiled woman.

2655. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet ﷺ heard a man (reciting the Qurʾān) in the mosque, and he said, “May Allāh bestow His Mercy upon him. No doubt, he made me remember such and such Verses of such and such Sūrah which I dropped (from my memory).”

Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet ﷺ performed the Tahajjud prayer in my house, and then he heard the voice of ʿAbbād who was offering Salāt (prayer) in the mosque, and said, “O ʿĀishah! Is this ʿAbbād’s voice?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “O Allāh! Be Merciful to ʿAbbād!”
Allah is All-Knower of what you do.”
(V.2:283)

"... And if you distort your witness (V.4:135) means ‘distort your witness with your tongues…”

2653. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ was asked about the great sins,
He said, “They are:

1. To join others in worship with Allâh,
2. To be undutiful to one’s parents,
3. To kill a person (which Allâh has forbidden to kill) (i.e., to commit the crime of murdering).
4. And to give a false witness.”

2654. Narrated Abü Bakra رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said thrice, “Should I inform you about the greatest of the great sins?” They said, “Yes, O Allah’s Messenger!” He said,
“(1) To join others in worship with Allâh
(2) and to be undutiful to one’s parents.”
The Prophet ﷺ then sat up after he had been reclining (on a pillow) and said, “(3) And I warn you against giving a lying speech (false statement),” and he kept on saying that warning till we thought he would not stop.

[See Vol. 8, Hadith No.5976]
2652. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet ﷺ said: “The best people are the people of my century (generation), then those coming after them, and then those coming after the latter. After that there will come some people whose witness will precede their oaths, and their oaths will precede their witness.” Ibrāhīm (a sub-narrator) said, “We used to be beaten for taking oaths by saying, ‘I bear witness by the Name of Allāh or by the Covenant of Allāh.’”

(10) CHAPTER. What has been said about false witness.

In respect of the Saying of Allāh ﷻ:

“And those who do not bear witness to falsehood…” (V.25:72)

What is said about hiding or concealing evidences, as Allāh ﷻ says:

“… And conceal not the evidence for he, who hides it, surely his heart is sinful. And

(1) (H. 2652) Ibrāhīm means that when they were still boys, their elders would beat them if they took oaths, so that they would not get accustomed to taking oaths on all occasions even needlessly. (Fath Al-Bārī)
2649. Narrated Zaid bin Khalid: Allāh’s Messenger ordered that an unmarried man who committed illegal sexual intercourse be scourged one hundred lashes and sent into exile for one year.

(9) CHAPTER. Do not be a witness for injustice, if asked for that.

2650. Narrated An-Nu‘mān bin Bashīr: My mother asked my father to present me a gift from his property; and he gave it to me after some hesitation. My mother said that she would not be satisfied unless the Prophet is made a witness to it. I being a young boy, my father held me by the hand and took me to the Prophet. He said to the Prophet, “His mother, bint Rawaba, requested me to give this boy a gift.” The Prophet said, “Do you have other sons besides him?” He said, “Yes.” The Prophet said, “Do not make me a witness for injustice.”

Narrated Ash‘Sha‘bī that the Prophet said, “I will not become a witness for injustice.”

2651. Narrated Zahdam bin Mudarrīb: I heard ‘Imran bin Ḥusain saying, “The Prophet said, ‘The best amongst you people are those living in my century (generation), then those coming after them, but his (future) witness will be accepted.’

Ath-Thauri said, ‘If a slave is scourged (for falsely accusing others of illegal sexual intercourse) and later on he is manumitted, then his (future) witness is to be accepted. If somebody who has received such punishment is made a judge, his decisions will be valid.’

Some people said, ‘The witness of a false-accuser is not to be accepted even if he repented.’ They added: ‘The marriage is not legal unless it is witnessed by two witnesses; it is permissible that the two witnesses can be those who have received such punishments, but the slaves are not to be accepted as witnesses to marriage.’ He accepts the witness of the person who has received the punishment (for falsely accusing others of illegal sexual intercourse) and the witness of a male slave and a female slave concerning the appearance of the new moon (i.e., crescent) (of the month of fasting etc.).

How to know the repentance of a person who has received the punishment of false accusation and no doubt, the Prophet ﷺ kept an adulterer in exile for one year. The Prophet ﷺ did not allow anybody to talk to Ka'b bin Malik and his two companions for fifty days.

2648. Narrated ‘Urwah bin Az-Zubayr: A woman committed theft in the Ghazwa of the Conquest (of Makkah) and she was taken to the Prophet ﷺ who ordered her hand to be cut off. ‘Aishah said, ‘Her repentance was perfect and she was married (later) and used to come to me (after that) and I would present her needs to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.’
this (man)?” I replied, “My foster brother.” He said, “O 'Aishah! Be sure about your foster brothers, as fostership is only valid if it takes place in the suckling period (before two years of age as the child sucks with hunger).”

(8) CHAPTER. The witness of a person falsely accusing somebody of illegal sexual intercourse and the witness of a thief or an adulterer.

The Statement of Allah

"...And reject their testimony forever, they indeed are the Fasiqun (liars, rebellious, disobedient to Allah). Except those who repent thereafter and do righteous deeds...” (V.24:4,5)

‘Umar gave legal punishment of scourging to Abū Bakra, Shibl bin Ma'bad and Na‘īf for accusing Al-Mughīra for illegal sexual intercourse falsely, and then they were made to repent and he said that whoever repented, his witness would be accepted (in the future). ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Utba, ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul Aziz, Sa‘īd bin Jubair, Tāwūs, Mujāhid, Ash-Sha‘bī, ‘Ikrima, Az-Zuhrī, Muhārib bin Dithār, Shuraib and Mu‘āwiyah bin Qurra considered it permisible (i.e., the witness of the false accusers after being punished). Abū Az-Zinād said, “Our verdict in Al-Madīna is that, if the false accuser (of others of illegal sexual intercourse) withdraws the accusation and repents, then his (future) witness is acceptable.” Ash-Sha‘bī and Qatādā said, “If he tells that he has told a lie, the legal punishment will be instituted against him, 2645.Narrated Ibn `Abbãs: The Prophet said about Ḥamza's daughter, "I am not legally permitted to marry her, as foster suckling relations are treated like blood relations (in marital affairs). She is the daughter of my foster brother."

2646.Narrated `Aishah, the wife of the Prophet: While the Prophet was with me (in my house), I heard a man asking Ḥafṣa's permission to enter her house. `Aishah further said, "I said, 'O Allah's Messenger! I think the man is Ḥafṣa's foster uncle.'" `Aishah added, "O Allah's Messenger! There is a man asking the permission to enter your house." Allah's Messenger replied, "I think the man is Ḥafṣa's foster uncle." `Aishah said, "If so-and-so were living (i.e., her foster uncle) would he be allowed to visit me?" Allah's Messenger said, "Yes, he would, as the foster suckling relations are treated like blood relations (in marital affairs)." [i.e., those things which are illegal because of blood relations are to be considered as illegal because of the corresponding foster suckling relations].

2647.Narrated `Aishah: Once the Prophet came to me while a man was in my house. He said, "O `Aishah! Who is praised the deceased. 'Umar said, “It has been affirmed (Paradise).” Then a third funeral procession passed by and the people talked badly of the deceased. 'Umar said, “It has been affirmed (Hell).” I asked 'Umar, “O chief of the believers! What has been affirmed?” He said, “I have said what the Prophet said. He said, “Allah will admit into Paradise any Muslim whose good character is attested by four persons.’ We asked the Prophet, ‘If there were three witnesses only?’ He said, ‘Even three.’ We asked, ‘If there were two only?’ He said, ‘Even two.’ But we did not ask him about one witness.”

(7) CHAPTER. To give witness concerning lineage, foster suckling relations and dead persons, who died long before.

The Prophet said, “I and Abū Salama were suckled by Thuwaiba.”

The necessity of being sure of the witness in such cases.

2644. Narrated 'Aishah: Aflah asked the permission to visit me but I did not allow him. He said, “Do you veil yourself before me although I am your uncle?” 'Aishah said, “How is that?” Aflab replied, “You were suckled by my brother's wife with my brother's milk.” I asked Allāh's Messenger about it, and he said, “Aflah is right, so permit him to visit you.”
you practise publicly, so we will trust and favour the one who does good deeds in front of us, and we will not call him to account about what he is really doing in secret, for Allāh will judge him for that; but we will not trust or believe the one who presents to us with an evil deed even if he claims that his intentions were good.

(6) CHAPTER. How many witnesses are sufficient to attest one's good or bad record?

2642. Narrated Anas: A funeral procession passed in front of the Prophet and the people praised the deceased. The Prophet said, “It has been affirmed (Paradise).” Then another funeral procession passed by and the people talked badly of the deceased. The Prophet said, “It has been affirmed (Hell).” Allāh’s Messenger was asked, “O Allāh’s Messenger! You said it has been affirmed for both?” The Prophet said, “The testimony of the people (is accepted), (for) the believers are Allāh’s witnesses on the earth.”

2643. Narrated Abū Al-Aswad: Once I went to Al-Madīna and at that time there was an outbreak of disease and the people were dying rapidly. I was sitting with ‘Umar and a funeral procession passed by. The people praised the deceased. ‘Umar said, “It has been affirmed (Paradise).” Then another funeral procession passed by. The people (prayer) inside the Ka'bah while Al-Faḍl said that he had not offered ʿSalāt, so the people accepted Bilāl’s assertion. Similarly, if two persons give witness that such a person owes another one thousand Dirham, but two other witnesses state that he owes him one thousand and five hundred Dirham then the judgement will be based on the higher amount.

2640. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin Abū Mulaika from ʿUqba bin Al-Ḥarīth: ʿUqba married the daughter of Abū Ihāb bin ‘Azīz, and then a woman came and said, “I suckled ʿUqba and his wife.” ʿUqba said to her, “I do not know that you have suckled me, and you did not inform me.” He then sent someone to the house of Abū Ihāb to enquire about that but they did not know that she had suckled their daughter. Then ʿUqba went to the Prophet ﷺ in Al-Madīnah and asked him about it. The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “How (can you keep your wife) after it has been said (that both of you were suckled by the same woman)?” So, he divorced her and she was married to another man.

(5) CHAPTER. The just witnesses. And the Statement of Allah ﷺ:

“And take as witness two just persons from among you (Muslims)…” (V.65:2)

“... such as you agree for witnesses…” (V.2:282)

2641. Narrated ʿUmar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb رضي الله عنه: People were (sometimes) judged by the revealing of a Divine Revelation during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, but now there is no longer any more (new revelation). Now, we judge you by the deeds of the previous revelation.
would have revealed his reality.”

[See Vol. 4, Hadith No.3055, 3056, for details]

2639. Narrated ‘Aishah: The wife of Rifa‘a Al-Qurazi came to the Prophet and said, “I was Rifa‘a’s wife, but he divorced me and it was a final irrevocable divorce. Then I married ‘Abdur-Rahman bin Az-Zubair but he is impotent.” The Prophet asked her, “Do you want to re-marry Rifa‘a? You cannot, unless you enjoy a complete sexual relation with your present husband and he enjoys a complete sexual relation with you.” Abü Bakr was sitting with Allah’s Messenger and Khalid bin Sa‘id bin Al-‘Ash was at the door waiting to admitted. He said, “O Abü Bakr! Do you hear what this (woman) is revealing frankly before the Prophet?”

(4) CHAPTER. When a witness or witnesses give an evidence.

And some people say that they do not know such an evidence, then the case will be decided according to the statement of the witnesses. A-Humaidi said, “This (judgement) was adopted when Bilal said that the Prophet had offered Salāt harmed me by defaming the reputation of my family? By Allâh, I have not known about my family anything except good, and they mentioned (i.e., accused) a man about whom I did not know anything except good.”

(3) CHAPTER. The witness of an eavesdropper.

‘Amr bin Huraith allowed such a witness and said, “This is the way to be followed to discover the reality of an evil person.” Ibn Sirîn, ‘Aṭâ’ and Qatâda said, “A witness can be based on hearing only (i.e., even if the hearer does not see the speaker.)” Al-Ḥasan used to say at the time of giving evidence, “They did not make me a witness but I heard such and such.”

2638. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger and Ubâi bin Ka’b Al-Ansârî went to the garden where Ibn Saiyyâd used to live. When Allah’s Messenger entered (the garden), he started hiding himself behind the date-palms as he wanted to hear secretly the talk of Ibn Saiyyâd before the latter saw him. Ibn Saiyyâd wrapped with a soft decorated sheet was lying on his bed murmuring. Ibn Saiyyâd’s mother saw the Prophet hiding behind the stems of the date-palms. She addressed Ibn Saiyyâd saying, “O Saf, this is Muhammad.” Hearing that Ibn Saiyyâd stopped murmuring (or got cautious), the Prophet said, “If she had left him undisturbed, he would not have known that it was I who had sent him orders. One who温州ت علّمُ إِلَّا خُرَى، وَقَالَتْ تَرَى: إِنَّ رَأَيْتُ عَلَيْهَا أَمْرًا أَعْمِضْهُ أَكْثَرَ مِن أَنْ تَأْخِفَهَا جَارِيَةً حَدِينَةً، الْسَّنَّةَ نَتَخَيَّمَ عَنْ عَجَّجَ أَهْلِهَا، فَتَأْتِي الْدَاخِرَ قَالَهُ. فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: اِنَّىْ وَعَذَّرْنَا فِي رَجُلٍ تَلْفَغَ أَذَاٰهُ فِي أَهْلِي بَيْنِي؟ فَوَلَّا مَا عَلَمْتُ مِنْ أَهْلِي إِلَّا خُرَى، وَلَقَدْ ذَكَرَوْا رَجُلًا مَا عَلَمْتُ عَلَيْهِ إِلَّا خُرَىٰ. (1) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the rule that the plaintiff has to produce a proof.

The Statement of Allah:
"O you who believe! When you contract a debt for a fixed period, write it down..."
(V.2:282)

And the Statement of Allah:
"O you who believe! Stand out firmly for justice, as witnesses to Allah... (to the end of the verse) Ever Well-Acquainted with what you do." (V.4:135)

(2) CHAPTER. If a person attests the honourable record of a witness by saying, "I do not know except good about him."

In the narration of the forged story (i.e., the accusation of 'Aīshah رضي الله عنها) when the Prophet consulted Usāma (regarding 'Aīshah), Usāma said, "Keep your wife, as we know nothing about her except good."

2637. Narrated 'Urwa bin Al-Musaiyab, 'Alqama bin Waqqás and 'Ubaidullah bin Abdullâh about the story of 'Aīshah رضي الله عنها and their narrations were similar attesting each other, when the liars said what they invented about 'Aīshah, and the Divine Revelation was delayed, Allāh's Messenger sent for 'Alî and Usâma to consult them in divorcing his wife (i.e., 'Aīshah). Usâma said, "Keep your wife, as we know nothing about her except good."

Barira said, "I cannot accuse her of any defect except that she is still a young girl who sleeps, neglecting her family's dough which the domestic goats come to eat (i.e., she was too simple-minded to deceive her husband)."

Allāh's Messenger said, "Who can help me to take revenge over the man who has..."
2635. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “The Prophet Ibrahim (Abraham) migrated with Sarah. The people (of the town where they migrated) gave her Ajar (i.e., Hajar). Sarah returned and said to Ibrahim, “Do you know that Allah has humiliated that disbeliever and he has given a slave-girl for my service?”

2636. Narrated ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab: Once I gave a horse (for riding) in Allah’s Cause. Later, I saw it being sold. I asked Allah’s Messenger (whether I could buy it). He said, “Don’t buy it, for you should not get back what you have given in charity.”

(37) CHAPTER. If somebody gives another person a horse (as a gift) then the rule is the same as that concerning the ‘Umra or Sadaqa (i.e., the giver has no right to claim restitution).

Some people said, “The giver retains the right to claim restitution.”
bedouin came to the Prophet and asked him about emigration. The Prophet said to him, “May Allah be Merciful to you. The matter of emigration is difficult. Have you got some camels?” He replied in the affirmative. The Prophet asked him, “Do you pay their Zakāt?” He replied in the affirmative. The Prophet asked him, “Do you lend (give) some of them to others (as gratis) so that their milk may be utilized by others?” The bedouin said, “Yes.” The Prophet asked, “Do you milk them on the day of watering them?” He replied, “Yes.” The Prophet said, “Do good deeds beyond the merchants (or the sea) and Allah will never disregard any of your deeds.” (See Hadith No.3923, Vol.5)

2634. Narrated Tawús that he was told by the most learned one amongst them, i.e., Ibn ‘Abbās, that the Prophet went towards some land which was flourishing with vegetation and asked to whom it belonged. He was told that such and such a person took it on rent. The Prophet said, “If he had given it to him gratis rather than charging him a fixed rent.”

(36) CHAPTER. It is permissible if somebody says, “I give this slave-girl to you for your service according to the prevalent convention known amongst the people.”

Some people said, “She is regarded as something lent temporarily, but if someone says, ‘I give you this garment to wear,’ then it is a gift.”
2631. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Amr that Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There are forty good qualities (virtuous deeds) and the best of them is the Manîha of a she-goat; and anyone who does one of these virtuous deeds, hoping for Allâh’s Reward with firm confidence that he will get it, then Allâh will make him enter Paradise because of it.”

Hassan (a subnarrator) said, “We tried to count those good deeds below the Manîha; we mentioned replying to the sneezer, removing harmful things from the road, etc., but we failed to count even fifteen.”

2632. Narrated Jâbir that some men had excess land (more than they can cultivate themselves) and they said that they would give it to others to cultivate on the condition that they would get one-third or one-fourth or half of its yield. The Prophet ﷺ said “Whoever has land should cultivate it himself or give it free to his brother for cultivation, but if his brother refuses then he should or keep it uncultivated.”

2633. Narrated Abû Sa`îd that A... given birth and which gives profuse milk) is, and (what a good Maniha) (the sheep which gives profuse milk, a bowl in the morning and another in the evening) is!"

Narrated Malik: Maniha is a good deed of charity.

2630. Narrated Ibn Shihab Az-Zuhri: Anas bin Malik said, “When the emigrants came to Al-Madina from Makkah they had nothing, whereas the Ansar had land and property. The Ansar gave them their land on condition that the emigrants would give them half the yearly yield and work on the land and provide the necessaries for cultivation.” His (i.e., Anas’) mother, who was also the mother of Abdullah bin AbU Talba, gave some date-palms to Allâh’s Messenger who gave them to his freed slave-girl (Umm Aiman) who was also the mother of Usama bin Zaid. When the Prophet finished from the fighting against the people of Khaibar and returned to Al-Madina, the emigrants returned to the Ansar the fruit gifts which the Ansar had given them. The Prophet also returned to Anas’ mother the date-palms. Allâh’s Messenger gave Umm Aiman other trees from his garden in lieu of the old gift.

(1) CHAPTER. Al-Waṣāya (The Wills)

And the statement of the Prophet ﷺ:
“One should have his Waṣāya (last will and testament) written and kept ready with him.”

And the Statement of Allah ﷻ:
“It is prescribed for you, when death approaches any of you, if he leaves wealth, that he make a bequest to parents... (up to)... some unjust...” (V.2:180-182)

2738. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It is not permissible for any Muslim who has something to will, to stay for two nights without having his last will and testament written and kept ready with him.”

2739. Narrated ‘Amr bin Al-Hārith, the brother of the wife of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ: When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ died, he did not leave any Dirham or Dīnār (i.e., money) or a slave or a slave-woman or anything else except his white mule, his arms and a piece of land which he had given in charity.
2740. Narrated 'Ahdullh bin Abu AUfa: I asked 'Ahdullh bin Abu AUfa, "Did the Prophet \( \approx \) make a will?" He replied, "No." I asked him, "How is it then that the making of a will has been enjoined upon people (or that they are ordered to make a will)?" He replied, "The Prophet \( \approx \) bequeathed Allah's Book (i.e., the Qur'an)."

2741. Narrated Al-Aswad: In the presence of 'Aishah some people mentioned that the Prophet \( \approx \) had appointed 'Ali by will as his successor. 'Aishah said, "When did he appoint him by will?" Verily, when he died he was resting against my chest (or said: in my lap) and he asked for a washbasin and then collapsed while in that state, and I could not even perceive that he had died, so when did he appoint him by will?"

(2) CHAPTER. One would rather leave one's inheritors wealthy than leave them (poor) begging others.

2742. Narrated Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas: The Prophet \( \approx \) came visiting me while I was (sick) in Makkah, ('Amir the subnarrator said, and he disliked to die in the land whence he had already migrated). He (i.e., the Prophet \( \approx \)) said, "May Allah bestow His Mercy on Ibn 'Afrâ' (Sa'd bin Khaula)." I said, "O Allah's Messenger! May I will all my property (in charity)?" He said, "No." I said, "Then may I will half of it?" He said, "No." I said, "One-third?" He said,
"Yes, one-third, yet even one-third is too much. It is better for you to leave your inheritors wealthy than to leave them (poor) begging others, and whatever you spend for Allâh’s sake will be considered as a charitable deed, even the handful of food you put in your wife’s mouth. Allâh may lengthen your age so that some people may benefit by you, and some others be harmed by you.”

At that time Sa’d had only one daughter.

(3) CHAPTER. To will one-third of one’s property.

Al-Hasan said, “A Dhimmi (i.e., a non-Muslim living under the protection of an Islamic government) is not allowed to will more than one-third of his property. And Allâh said: “And so judge (you O Muhammad) among them by what Allâh has revealed.....(V.5:49)

2743. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: I recommend that people reduce the proportion of what they bequeath by will to the fourth (of the whole legacy), for Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “One-third, yet even one-third is too much.”

2744. Narrated Sa’d: I fell sick and the Prophet ﷺ paid me a visit. I said to him, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I invoke Allâh that He may not let me expire in the land whence I migrated (i.e., Makkah).” He said, “May Allâh give you health and let the people benefit by you.” I said, “I want to will my property, and I have only one daughter and I want to will half of my property (to be given in charity).” He said, “Half is too much.” I said, “Then I will one-third.” He said, “One-third, yet even one-third is too much.” (The narrator added, “So the people started to will one-third of their property and that was permitted for them.”)

(4) CHAPTER. The saying of a testator to the executor, “Look after my son,” and what is permissible for the executor to claim.

2745. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, ‘Utba bin Abi Waqqas entrusted (his son) to his brother Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas saying, “The son of the slave-girl of Zam’a is my (illegal) son, take him into your custody.” So, during the year of the Conquest (of Makkah) Sa’d took the boy and said, “This is my brother’s son whom my brother entrusted to me.” ‘Abd bin Zam’a got up and said, “He is my brother and the son of the slave-girl of my father and was born on my father’s bed.” Then both of them came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and Sa’d said, “O Allah’s Messenger! This is my brother’s son whom my brother entrusted to me.”

Then ‘Abd bin Zam’a got up and said, “This is my brother and the son of the slave-girl of my father.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O ‘Abd bin Zam’a! This boy is for you as the boy belongs to the bed (where he was born), and for the adulterer is the stone.” Then the Prophet ﷺ said to his wife Sauda bint Zam’a, “Screen yourself from this boy,” when he saw the boy’s resemblance to ’Utba. Since then the boy did not see Sauda till he died.

(5) CHAPTER. If a patient gives an evident clear sign by nodding, (is that sign to be taken as a valid evidence?).

2746. Narrated Anas: A Jew crushed the head of a girl between two stones. She was asked, “Who has done so to you, so-and-so? so-and-so?”, till the name of the Jew was mentioned, whereupon she nodded (in agreement). So the Jew was brought and was questioned till he confessed.
The Prophet then ordered that his head be crushed with stones. (See H. 2413)

(6) CHAPTER. A legal heir has no right to inherit\(^1\) through a will.

2747. Narrated Ibn ’Abbas: The custom (in olden days) was that the property of the deceased would be inherited by his offspring; as for the parents (of the deceased), they would inherit by will of the deceased. Then Allah cancelled from that custom whatever He wished and fixed for the male double the amount inherited by the female, and for each parent a sixth (of the whole legacy) and for the wife an eighth\(^2\) or a fourth\(^3\) and for the husband a half or a fourth.

\(1\) (Ch. 6) In Islam, what the deceased leaves is distributed among his heirs according to a certain ratio. The deceased may bequeath one-third of his property to other than his legal heirs who should not inherit by means of such a will.

\(2\) (H. 2747) When the deceased leaves children.

\(3\) (H. 2747) When the deceased is childless.
(7) CHAPTER. Giving in charity at the time of death.

2748. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man asked the Prophet, “O Allah’s Messenger! What kind of charity is the best?” He replied, “To give in charity when you are healthy and greedy, hoping to be wealthy and afraid of becoming poor. Don’t delay giving in charity till the time comes when you are on the deathbed when you say, ‘Give so much to so-and-so and so much to so-and-so,’ and at that time the property is not yours but it belongs to so-and-so (i.e., your inheritors).”

(8) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

It is mentioned that Shuraiḥ, 'Umar bin 'Abdul-'Azīz, Ţāwūs, 'Aţā' and Ibn Udhaina regarded as valid the acknowledgement of a debt by a sick man. Al-Ḥasan said, “The most valid charity is what is given on the last day of one’s present life and the first day of the life to come (i.e., on the day one dies).”

Ibřāhīm and Al-Ḥakam said, “If a sick person absolves an heir from debt, the heir is regarded as absolved.” Rāfī’ bin Khadij made a will that his Fazāriyya wife should not let anybody share with her the contents of her house.

Al-Ḥasan said, “If somebody on his deathbed says to his slave, ‘I have freed you’, the manumission is valid.”

Ash-Sha'bi said, “If a dying woman says, ‘My husband has paid what he owed me and I have received it,’ her confession is valid.” Some people say, “The dying person’s confession (of debt to some of his heirs) is not valid because such a confession rouses suspicion.” But they approve of a confession concerning a trust, goods, and silent partnership, but the Prophet ﷺ said, “Avoid suspicion, suspicion is the worst of false tales.”

It is not legal for one to eat up the Muslims’ wealth (unjustly), for the Prophet ﷺ said, “The sign of a hypocrite is that when he is entrusted with something he proves treacherous.” And Allāh ﷻ said:

“Verily! Allāh commands that you should render back the trusts to those to whom they are due…” (V.4:58), without restricting this order to the heirs or some other people.

2749. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The signs of a hypocrite are three: (1) Whenever he speaks, he tells a lie; (2) whenever he is entrusted he betrays (proves dishonest); (3) whenever he promises, he breaks his promise.” (See H. 33)

(9) CHAPTER. The explanation of the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:

“…After payment of legacies that they may have bequeathed or debts…” (V.4:12)

The Prophet ﷺ is reported to have judged that the debt should be paid before the execution of the will.
The Statement of Allah

“Verily! Allah commands that you should render back the trusts of those, to whom they are due:…” (V.4:58).

So, returning the trust must take precedence over the execution of the voluntary will.

The Prophet ﷺ said, “No giving in charity is recommended except if one is wealthy.” Ibn ‘Abbās said, “A slave cannot make a will without his master’s consent.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “A slave is a guardian of the property of his master.”

2750. Narrated ‘Urwa bin ‘Az-Zubair: Ḥākim bin Ḥizām ﷺ said, “I asked Allah’s Messenger ﷺ for something, and he gave me, and I asked him again and he gave me and said, ‘O Ḥākim! This wealth is green and sweet (i.e., as tempting as fruits), and whoever takes it without greed then he is blessed in it, and whoever takes it with greediness, he is not blessed in it and he is like one who eats and never gets satisfied.

“The upper (i.e., giving) hand is better than the lower (i.e., taking) hand.” Ḥākim added, “I said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! By Him Who has sent you with the Truth I will never demand anything from anybody after you till I die.’” Afterwards, Abū Bakr used to call Ḥākim to give him something but he refused to accept anything from him. Then ‘Umar called him to give him (something) but he refused. Then ‘Umar said, “O Muslims! I offered to him (i.e., Ḥākim) his share which Allah has ordained for him from this booty and he refuses to take it.” Thus Ḥākim did not ask anybody for anything after the Prophet ﷺ, till he died - may Allah bestow His Mercy upon him.
2751. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I heard Allâh’s Messenger saying, “Everyone of you is a guardian and is responsible for his charges: the ruler (i.e., Imam) is a guardian and responsible for his subjects; and a man is a guardian of his family and is responsible for his charges; and a lady is a guardian in the house of her husband and is responsible for her charge; and a servant is a guardian of the property of his master and is responsible for his charge.” I think he also said, “And a man is a guardian of the property of his father.”

(10) CHAPTER. If somebody founds an endowment (or bequeathes) his relatives by a will (is it permissible?). And who are considered as relatives.

Narrated Anas: The Prophet said to Abû Talha, “Give (your garden) to the poor amongst your relatives.” So he gave it to Hassân and Ubaī bin Ka‘b.

Anas added in another narration, “So he gave it to Hassân and Ubaī bin Ka‘b who were nearer relatives to him than I.” The relation between Hassân and Ubaï to Abû Talha was as follows: Abû Talha’s name was Zaid, the son of Sahl, the son of Al-Aswad, the son of Harãm, the son of ‘Amr, the son of Zaid Manãt, the son of ‘Adi, the son of ‘Amr, the son of Malik, the son of An-Najjar. Hassan was the son of Thabit, the son of Al-Mundhir, the son of Harâm, this means that Abu Talha and Hassan had a common great grandfather (i.e., Harâm, the third in the line of descent). Hassan and Abu Talha and Ubaï had a common ancestor, ‘Amr bin Malik, the sixth in the lineage, as Ubaï was the son of Ka'b, the son of Qais, the son of ‘Ubaïd, the son of Zaid, the son of Mu‘awiya, the son of ‘Amr, the son of Malik, the son of An-Najjar.

Some scholars say, “If one wants to will some of his wealth to one’s relatives, they must be among those who share a Muslim common ancestor with one.”

2752. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said to Abu Talha, “I recommend that you divide (this garden) amongst your relatives.” Abu Talha said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I will do the same.” So, Abu Talha divided it among his relatives and cousins.

Ibn ‘Abbas said, “When the Qur’anic Verse:

‘And warn your tribe (O Muhammad) of near kindred’ (V.26:214) was revealed, the Prophet started calling the various big families of Quraisy, ‘O Banî Fihâ! O Banî ‘Adî!’”

Abu Hurairieh said, “When the Verse: ‘And warn your tribe (O Muhammad) of near kindred’, was revealed, the Prophet said (in a loud voice), ‘O people of Quraisy!’”
(11) CHAPTER. Are children and women included under the term of relatives (concerning wills)?

2753. Narrated Abú Hurairah ḥ:

When Allâh revealed the Verse: "And warn your tribe (O Muhammad ﷺ) of near kindred," Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ got up and said, “O Quraish people (or said similar words)! Buy (i.e., save) yourselves (from the Hell-fire) as I cannot save you from Allâh's punishment; O Banî Abd Manãf! I cannot save you from Allâh's punishment; O 'Abbãs bin 'Abdul Mu'talîb! I cannot save you from Allâh's punishment; O 'Abbàs, the aunt of Allâh's Messenger! I cannot save you from Allâh's punishment; O Fâtîma bint Muhammad! Ask me anything from my wealth, but I cannot save you from Allâh's punishment.”{(1)
(12) CHAPTER. Can the founder of an endowment have the benefit of his endowment?

‘Umar stipulated that the administrator of an endowment could eat from the yield of the endowment. The founder of an endowment or somebody else may be the trustee of the endowment. Similarly, if one offers a Badana (i.e., camel for sacrifice) or something else in Allah’s Cause, he is allowed to benefit by it in the same way as others benefit by it even if he did not stipulate that.

2754. Narrated Anas: The Prophet saw a man driving a Badana and said to him, “Ride on it.” The man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! It is a Badana.” (The Prophet repeated his order) and on the third or fourth time he said, “Ride it, woe to you” or said: “May Allah be Merciful to you.”

2755. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger saw a man driving a Badana and said to him, “Ride on it,” and on the second or the third time he added, “Woe to you.”

(13) CHAPTER. If one declares his wish to found an endowment, his endowment is valid even before its conveyance to those for whom it is intended.

As ‘Umar founded an endowment and said that it was not sinful for its administrator to eat from its yield, but he did not specify whether he (i.e., 'Umar) or someone else would be its administrator. The Prophet ﷺ said to Abû Ṭalha, “I recommend that you should divide it (i.e., the garden) among your relatives.” So Abû Ṭalha agreed and distributed it among his relatives and his cousins.

(14) CHAPTER. When someone says, “My house is Ṣadaqa (i.e., gift of charity) for Allâh’s sake,” and does not specify whether it is for the poor or for some other people, then the Ṣadaqa is valid and he can give it to his relatives or whomever he wishes.

The Prophet ﷺ allowed Abû Ṭalha when he said, “The most beloved of my property is (the garden of) Bairuhã and I wish to give it in charity for Allâh’s sake.” The Prophet ﷺ considered his deed valid. Some say that it is invalid unless it is specified as to whom the Ṣadaqa is to be given. But the first statement (i.e., that it is valid) is more correct.

(15) CHAPTER. If someone says, “My land or my garden is Ṣadaqa for Allâh’s sake on my mother’s behalf,” his Ṣadaqa is valid even if he did not specify to whom it is to be given.

2756. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The mother of Sa’d bin ‘Ubâda died in Sa’d’s absence. He said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! My mother died in my absence; will it be of any benefit for her if I give Ṣadaqa(1) on her behalf?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes,” Sa’d said, “I make you a witness that I gave my garden called Al-Mikhrãf in charity on her behalf.”

---

(1) (H. 2756) Ṣadaqa: here means charity. [See H. No. 2762].
(16) CHAPTER. It is permissible for one to give part of his wealth or some of his slaves or animals in charity or as an endowment.

2757. Narrated Ka'b bin Malik: I said, "O Allah's Messenger! For the acceptance of my repentance I wish to give all my property in charity for Allah's sake through His Messenger." He said, "It is better for you to keep some of the property for yourself." I said, "Then I will keep my share in Khaibar."

(17) CHAPTER. Whoever gave something to his representative to give in charity and then the latter returned it to him.

2758. Narrated Anas: When the Holy Verse: 'By no means shall you attain Al-Birr (piety, righteousness, it means here Allah's Reward i.e., Paradise), unless you spend of that which you love...', (V.3:92) was revealed, Abū Talḥa went to Allah's Messenger and said, "O Allah's Messenger! Allah, the Blessed, the Superior states in His Book: 'By no means shall you attain Al-Birr, unless you spend of that which you love...', (V.3:92) and the
The most beloved property to me is Bairuhã' (which was a garden where Allâh’s Messenger used to go to sit in its shade and drink from its water). I give it to Allâh and His Messenger hoping for Allâh’s Reward in the Hereafter. So, O Allâh’s Messenger! Use it as Allâh orders you to use it.” Allâh’s Messenger said, “Bravo! O Abû Talha, it is fruitful property. We have accepted it from you and now we return it to you. Distribute it amongst your relatives.” So, Abû Talha distributed it amongst his relatives, amongst whom were Ubaï and Hassan. When Hassan sold his share of that garden to Mu‘awiyah, he was asked, “How do you sell Abû Talha’s Sadaqa?” He replied, “Why should not! sell a Sa’ of dates for a Sa’ of money?” The garden was situated in the courtyard of the palace of Banî Jadila built by Mu‘awiyah.

(18) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

And when the relatives and the orphans and Al-Masakin (the poor) are present at the time of division, give them out of the property...” (V.4:8)

(1) (Ch. 17) The description between brackets is said by Anas.
(2) (Ch. 17) This shows that Ka‘b did not give his garden as an endowment, otherwise Hassan could not have sold it.
Some people claim that the provision in the above Verse is abrogated; by Allah, it is not abrogated, but the people have stopped acting upon it. There are two kinds of guardians (who are in charge of the inheritance): One is that who inherits; such a person should give (of what he inherits to the relatives, the orphans and the needy, etc.), the other is that who does not inherit (e.g., the guardian of the orphans); such a person should speak kindly and say (to those who are present at the time of distribution), I can not give it to you (as the wealth belongs to the orphans)."

(19) CHAPTER. It is recommended that something should be given in charity on behalf of a person who dies suddenly. And the execution of the vows of the deceased.

2760. Narrated ‘Áishah رضي الله عنها: A man said to the Prophet ﷺ, “My mother died suddenly, and I think that if she could speak, she would have given in charity. May I give in charity on her behalf?” He ﷺ said, “Yes! Give in charity on her behalf.”

2761. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما: Sa’d bin ‘Ubāda رضي الله عنه asked Allah’s Messenger ﷺ (for his legal opinion) saying, “My mother died and she had had an unfulfilled vow.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Fulfil it on her behalf.”
(20) CHAPTER. The witnesses in the foundation of an endowment or in giving in charity.

2762. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs that the mother of Sa’d bin ‘Ubâda, the brother of Bani Sâ’ida, died in Sa’d’s absence, so he came to the Prophet saying, “O Allâh’s Messenger! My mother died in my absence, will it benefit her if I give Sadaqa (in charity) on her behalf?” The Prophet said, “Yes.” Sa’d said, “I take you as my witness that I give my garden Al-Mikhrâf in charity on her behalf.”

(21) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

“And give unto orphans their property, and do not exchange (your) bad things for (their) good ones; and devour not their substance (by adding it) to your substance. Surely, this is a great sin.

“And if you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphan-girls, then marry (other) women of your choice…” (V.4:2,3).

2763. Narrated Az-Zuhri: ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair said that he asked ‘Aishah about the meaning of the Qur’anic Verse:

“And if you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphan-girls then marry (other) women of your choice…” (V.4:2-3)

‘Aishah said, “It is about a female orphan under the guardianship of her guardian who...”
is inclined towards her because of her beauty and wealth, and likes to marry her with a Mahr less than what is given to women of her standard. So they (i.e., guardians) were forbidden to marry the orphans unless they paid them a full appropriate Mahr, (otherwise) they were ordered to marry other women instead of them. Later on the people asked Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ about it. So Allâh revealed the following Verse:

‘They ask your legal instruction (O Muḥammad ﷺ!) concerning women, say: Allâh instructs you about them,...' (V.4:127)

“And in this Verse, Allâh indicated that if the orphan-girl was beautiful and wealthy, her guardian would have the desire to marry her without giving her an appropriate Mahr equal to what her peers could get, but if she was undesirable for lack of beauty or wealth, then he would not marry her, but seek to marry some other woman instead of her. So, since he did not marry her when he had no inclination towards her, he had not the right to marry her when he had an interest in her, unless he treated her justly by giving her a full Mahr and securing all her rights.”

(22) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

“...”
take no wages, but if he is poor, let him have for himself what is just and reasonable (according to his labour). And when you release their property to them, take witnesses in their presence; and Allāh is All-Sufficient in taking account.

“There is a share for men and a share for women from what is left by parents, and those nearest related, whether the property be small or large – a legal share.” (V.4:6,7)

CHAPTER. How a guardian is to deal with an orphan’s wealth and what he can eat thereof according to his labour.

2764. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: In the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, ‘Umar gave in charity some of his property, a garden of date-palms called Thamgh. ‘Umar said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I have some property which I prize highly and I want to give it in charity.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Give it in charity (i.e., as an endowment) with its land and trees on the condition that the land and trees will neither be sold nor given as a present, nor bequeathed, but the fruits are to be spent in charity.” So ‘Umar gave it in charity, and it was for Allāh’s Cause, the emancipation of slaves, for the poor, for guests, for travellers, and for kinsmen. The person acting as its administrator could eat from it reasonably and fairly, and could let a friend of his eat from it, provided he had no intention of becoming wealthy by its means.

2765. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The following Verse:
...And whoever (amongst the guardian) is rich, he should take no wages, but if he is poor, let him have for himself what is just and reasonable…” (V.4:6) was revealed in connection with the guardian of an orphan, and it means that if he is poor he can have for himself (from the orphan’s wealth) what is just and reasonable (according to his labour) from the orphan's share of the inheritance.

(23) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh (W.S.):

"Verily, those who unjustly eat up the property of orphans, they eat up only fire into their bellies, and they will be burnt in the blazing Fire!" (V.4:10)

2766. Narrated Abû Hurairah R.A. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Avoid the seven great destructive sins.” The people enquired, “O Allah’s Messenger! What are they?” He said, “(1) To join others in worship along with Allâh; (2) To practise sorcery, (3) To kill the life which Allah has forbidden except for a just cause, (according to Islamic law); (4) To eat up Ribâ (usury); (5) To eat up an orphan’s wealth; (6) To show one’s back to the enemy and fleeing from the battlefield at the time of fighting, and (7) To accuse chaste women, who never even think of anything touching chastity and are good believers.”

(24) CHAPTER. Allâh’s Statement:

“...And they ask you concerning orphans. Say: ‘The best thing is to work honestly in their property, and if you mix your affairs with theirs, then they are your brothers. And Allâh knows him who means mischief (e.g.,

---

(1) (H. 2766) Ribâ: See glossary. to swallow their property) from him who means good (e.g., to save their property). And if Allāh had wished, He could have put you into difficulties. Truly, Allāh is All-Mighty, All-Wise.’” (V.2:220)

2767. Nāfi’ said, “Ibn ‘Umar never refused to be appointed as a guardian.”

The most beloved thing to Ibn Sirīn concerning an orphan’s wealth was that the orphan’s advisors and guardians would assemble to decide what is best for him.

When Tawūs was asked about something concerning an orphan’s affairs, he would recite:

‘...And Allāh knows him who means mischief from him who means good...’ (V.2:220)

‘Aṭā’ said concerning some orphans, “The guardian is to provide for the young and the old orphans according to their needs from their shares.”

(25) CHAPTER. The employment of an orphan on a journey and at home, provided it is beneficial for him. And (it is obligatory) for the mother and the stepfather of an orphan to look after him (even if they were not his guardians).

2768. Narrated Anas: When Allāh’s Messenger came to Al-Madīna he did not have any servant. Abū ʿUṯāma (Anas’ stepfather) took me to Allāh’s Messenger and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Anas is a wise boy, so let him serve you.” So, I served him at home and on journeys. If I did anything, he never asked me why I did it, and if I refrained from doing anything, he never asked me why I refrained from doing it.
(26) CHAPTER. If somebody gives a piece of land as an endowment and does not mark its boundaries, the endowment is valid. The same is applied to objects of charity.

2769. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Abū Tālha had the greatest wealth of datepalms amongst the Ānṣār in Al-Madīna, and he prized above all his wealth (his garden) Bairuhã', which was situated opposite the mosque (of the Prophet ﷺ). The Prophet ﷺ used to enter it and drink from its fresh water. When the following Divine Verse were revealed:

“By no means shall you attain Al-Bīr (piety, righteousness, here it means Allāh’s Reward i.e., Paradise) unless you spend (in Allāh’s Cause) of that which you love…” (V.3:92)

Abū Tālha got up saying, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Allāh says: ‘By no means shall you attain Al-Bīr, unless you spend (in Allāh’s Cause) of that which you love…’, and I prize Bairuhã above all my wealth, which I want to give in charity for Allāh’s sake, hoping for its reward from Allāh. So you can use it as Allāh directs you.” On that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Bravo! It is a profitable (or perishable) property. (Ibn Maslama is not sure as to which word is right, i.e., profitable or perishable.) I have heard what you have said, and I recommend that you distribute this amongst your relatives.” On that Abū Tālha said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I will do (as you have suggested).” So, Abū Tālha distributed that garden amongst his relatives and cousins.
2770. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: A man said to Allah’s Messenger, “My mother has died, will it benefit her if I give in charity on her behalf?” The Prophet replied in the affirmative. The man said, “I have a garden and I make you a witness that I give it in charity on her behalf.”

(27) CHAPTER. If a group of persons give a jointly-owned piece of land as an endowment, the foundation of the endowment is valid.

2771. Narrated Anas: When the Prophet ordered that the mosque be built, he said, “O Bani An-Najjār! Suggest to me the price for this garden of yours.” They replied, “By Allah! We will demand its price from none but Allah.”

(28) CHAPTER. How to write the endowment?

2772. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: When ‘Umar got a piece of land in Khaibar, he came to the Prophet saying, “I have got a piece of land better than which I have never got. So, what do you advise me regarding it?”
The Prophet said, “If you wish you can keep it as an endowment to be used for charitable purposes.” So, ‘Umar gave the land in charity (i.e., as an endowment) on the condition that the land would neither be sold nor given as a present, nor bequeathed, (and its yield) would be used for the poor, the kinsmen, the emancipation of slaves, * Jihad*, and for guests and travellers; and its administrator could eat in a reasonable just manner (according to his labour), and he also could feed his friends without intending to (store anything from it in order to) become wealthy by its means.”

(29) CHAPTER. The usufruct of an endowment may be spent for the wealthy, the poor and the guests.

2773. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: ‘Umar got some property in Khaibar and he came to the Prophet and informed him about it. The Prophet said to him, “If you wish you can give it in charity.” So, ‘Umar gave it in charity (i.e., as an endowment) the yield of which was to be used for the good of the Al-Fuqarā (the poor), Al-Masākin (the poor), the kinsmen, and the guests.

(30) CHAPTER. The foundation of an endowment of a piece of land for building a mosque.

2774. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: When Allah’s Messenger came to Al-Madīna, he ordered that a mosque be built. He said, “O Bani An-Najjār! Suggest to me the price for this garden of yours.” They replied, “By Allah, we will demand its price from none but Allah.”
(31) CHAPTER. Giving animals; particularly horses and property and gold and silver as endowments.

Az-Zuhri was asked, "If somebody founds an endowment of one thousand Dinâr and gives the sum to his boy who is a trader to invest it in business and declares that the profit of the money will be given in charity to the poor and the relatives, does the founder have the right to use anything of the profit of the one thousand Dinâr? And if he does not assign its profit to the poor?" Az-Zuhri said, "He does not have the right to use anything of it (i.e., in either case)."

2775. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Once 'Umar gave a horse in charity to be used in Allah's Cause (Jihâd - holy fighting). It had been given to him by Allah's Messenger. 'Umar gave it to a man in charity to use it in Allah's Cause. Then 'Umar was informed that the man had put that horse for sale, so he asked Allah's Messenger whether he could buy it. Allah's Messenger replied, "You should neither buy nor take back what you have given in charity."

(32) CHAPTER. The salary of the administrator of an endowment.

2776. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "My heirs will not inherit a Dinâr or a Dirham (i.e., money), for whatever I leave, excluding the adequate support of my wives and the wages of my employees, is to be given in charity."
2777. Narrated Ibn 'Umar:
When 'Umar founded an endowment he stipulated that its administrator could eat from it and also feed his friend without intending to store anything for himself from it in order to become wealthy.

(33) CHAPTER. If somebody keeps a piece of land or a well as an endowment, or stipulates that he should benefit by its water as the other Muslims do (will this be permissible)?

Anas kept a house as an endowment and whenever he came (to Al-Madina) he used to stay in it.

Az-Zuhair gave his house in charity (i.e., as an endowment) and told his divorced daughters to dwell therein without harming or being harmed, but if any of them remarried, she would have no right to stay there.

Ibn 'Umar kept his share from his father's house to be inhabited by the needy amongst 'Abdullh's family (i.e., his own family).

2778. Abū 'Abdur-Rahmān narrated:
When 'Uthmān was circled (by the rebels), he looked upon them from above and said, ‘I ask you by Allāh, I ask nobody but the companions of the Prophet ﷺ, don’t you know that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Whoever will (buy and) dig the well of Rūma will be granted Paradise,’ and I (bought and) dug it? Don’t you know that he said, ‘Whoever equip the army of ‘Usra (i.e., Tabuk’s Ghazwa) will be granted Paradise,’ and I equipped it?’” They attested whatever he said.

When ‘Umar founded his endowment he said, “Its administrator can eat from it.” The management of the endowment can be taken over by the founder himself or any other person, for both cases are permissible.

(34) CHAPTER. It is permissible for the founder of an endowment to say, “We will demand its price, from none but Allâh.”

2779. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said (at the time of building the mosque), “O Bani An-Najjar! Suggest to me the price for your garden.” They replied, “We will demand its price from none but Allâh.”

(35) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

2780. Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما said, “A man from the tribe of Bani Sahm went out in the company of Tamîm Ad-Darî and ‘Adi bin Baddâ’. The man of Bani Sahm died in a land where there was no Muslim. When Tamîm ﷺ and ‘Adi returned conveying the property of the deceased, they claimed that they had lost a silver bowl with gold engraving. Allāh’s Messenger made them take an oath (to confirm their claim), and then the bowl was found in Makkah with some people who claimed that they had bought it from Tamīm and ‘Adi. Then two witnesses from the relatives of the deceased got up and swore that their witnesses were more valid than the witnesses of ‘Adi and Tamīm, and that the bowl belonged to their deceased fellow. So, this Verse was revealed in connection with this case;

‘O you who believe! When death approaches any of you...’,” (V.5:106)

(36) CHAPTER. The payments of the debts of the deceased by the executor (of the will) in the absence of other inheritors.

2781. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullah Al-Anṣārī: My father was martyred on the day (of the Ghazwa) of Uḥud and left six daughters and some debts to be paid. When the time of plucking the date-fruits came, I went to Allāh’s Messenger and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! You know that my father was martyred on the day of Uḥud and owed much debt, and I wish that the creditors would see you.” The Prophet said, “Go and collect the various kinds of dates and place them separately in heaps”. I did accordingly and called him. On seeing him, the creditors started claiming their rights pressingly at that time. When the Prophet saw how they behaved, he went round the biggest heap for three times and... sat over it and said, “Call your companions (i.e., the creditors).” Then he kept on measuring and giving them, till Allāh cleared all my father’s debts. By Allāh, it would have pleased me that Allāh would clear the debts of my father even though I had not taken a single date to my sisters. But by Allāh, all the heaps were complete, (as they were) and I looked at the heap where Allāh’s Messenger was sitting and noticed as if not a single date had been taken thereof.

Allāh تعالى said: “So we planted amongst them enmity and hatred”.

العُرَمَاء. قال: اذهب فئْبِرِكْ كُلْ نُمْرٍ على ناحية، فقَعْبَتْ نَمْ دُعوْيَهْ، فَلَمَا نَظَرُوا إِلَّاهَا أُغْرِرْوا بِهِ بَلَّكَ السَّاعَةِ، فَلَمَا رَأَيْتُ ما يُصِنْعُونَ طَفَّ حَوْلٍ أَغْضُبُوا بِبَعْضٍ ثَلَاثَ مَرَاتّ ثُمَّ جَلََسَ عَلَّيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ: «ذَٰلِكَ أَصْحَابِيْكَ فَمَا زَالَ يَكْبِلُ أَنْفُسُهُ حَتَّى أَذَى اللَّهُ أَمَانَةَ وَالِيِّدِي، وَأَنَا وَاللَّهِ رَاضِي أن يَؤْدِي اللَّهُ أَمانَةً وَالِيِّدِي، وَلَا أُرِجُحُ إِلَى أَخْوَانِي نَمْرَةً. فَسُلَّمَ اللَّهُ الْبِيَادِرُ كُلَّهَا حَتَّى اِنْظُرَ إِلَى الْبِيَادِرِ الْلَّذِي عَلَّيْهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ كَانَهُ ثُمَّ يُنْفِصُ نَمْرَةً واحِدَةٍ. قَالَ أَبُو عَبْدِ اللَّهِ: أُغْرِرْوا بِهِ يَخْنِي هَيْجَوُوا بِهِ. ﴿فَأَغْرَبَّهَا يِتَهَشُّهُمُ القَدْرَةُ ﴾ [رَاجِعٌ: 2: 127] .
56 – THE BOOK OF JIHĀD(1)
(Fighting for Allah’s Cause)

(1) CHAPTER. The superiority of Jihad.

And the Statement of Allah:

“Verily, Allah has purchased of the believers their lives and their properties; for the price that theirs shall be the Paradise. They fight in Allah’s Cause, so they kill (others) and are killed. It is a promise in truth which is binding on Him in the Taurat (Torah) and the Injeel (Gospel) and the Qur’ân. And who is truer to his convenant than Allah? Then rejoice in the bargain which you have concluded... (up to)... And give glad tidings to the believers.” (V.9:111, 112)

2782. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Mas’ûd: I asked Allah’s Messenger, “O Allah’s Messenger! What is the best deed?” He replied, “To offer the Salât (prayers) at their early stated fixed times.” I asked, “What is next in goodness?” He replied, “To be good and dutiful to your parents.” I further asked, “What is next (in goodness)?” He replied, “To participate in Jihad in Allah’s Cause.” I did not ask Allah’s Messenger anymore and if I had asked him more, he would have told me more.

(1) Al-Jihad (Holy fighting) in Allah’s Cause (with full force of numbers and weaponry), is given the utmost importance in Islam, and is one of its pillars (on which it stands). By Jihad Islam is established, Allah’s Word is made superior. [His Word being (La ilãha illallah which means none has the right to be worshipped but Allãh), and His religion (Islam) is propagated. By abandoning Jihad, (may Allah protect us from that). Islam and the Muslims fall into an inferior position, their honour is lost, their land is stolen, their rule and authority vanish. Jihad is an obligatory duty in Islam, on every Muslim, and he who tries to escape from this duty or does not in his innermost heart wish to fulfil this duty, dies with one of the qualities of a hypocrite.
2783. Narrated Ibn ʿAbbās: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There is no Hijra (i.e., emigration) (from Makkah to Al-Madina) after the Conquest (of Makkah), but Jihad and good intention(1) remain; and if you are called (by the Muslim ruler) for Jihad, go forth immediately.”

2784. Narrated ʿAishah: “O Allah’s Messenger! We consider Jihad as the best deed. Should we not fight in Allah’s Cause?” He said, “The best Jihad (for women) is Hajj-Mabrûr (i.e., Hajj which is done according to the Prophet’s Sunna and is accepted by Allah).”

[See Hadith No. 1861, Vol. 3]

2785. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “Guide me to such a deed as equals Jihad (in reward).” He replied, “I do not find such a deed.” Then he added, “Can you, while the Muslim fighter has gone for Jihad enter your mosque to perform Salât (prayer) without cease and observe Saum (fast) and never break your Saum?” The man said, “But who can do that?”(2) Abū Hurairah: “رضي الله عنيها

(1) (H. 2783) After the conquest of Makkah there was no need for Muslims to emigrate from Makkah to Al-Madina. The Prophet ﷺ tells his companions that one can attain rewards through Jihad against Kufri, i.e., to fight for Allah’s Cause when there is a call for it, otherwise one should have the intention to participate in Jihad and this intention has the same reward as that of Jihad itself.

(2) (H. 2785) Of course, nobody can offer Salât (prayer) and fast incessantly, and since= added, "The Mujahid (i.e., Muslim fighter) is rewarded even for the footsteps of his horse while it wanders about (for grazing) tied in a long rope."

(2) CHAPTER. The best among the people is that believer who strives his utmost in Allâh's Cause with both his life and property.

And the Statement of Allâh (Exalted be He):

"O you who believe! Shall I guide you to a trade that will save you from a painful torment. That you believe in Allâh and His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ), and that you strive hard and fight in the Cause of Allâh with your wealth and your lives, that will be better for you, if you but know! (If you do so), He will forgive you your sins, and admit you into Gardens under which rivers flow, and pleasant dwellings in 'Adn (Eden) Paradise, that is indeed great success." (V.61:10-12)

2786. Narrated Abû Sa'id Al-Khudrî: Somebody asked, "O Allâh's Messenger! Who is the best among the people?" Allâh's Messenger ﷺ replied, "A believer who strives his utmost in Allâh's Cause with his life and property." They asked, "Who is next?" He replied, "A believer who stays in one of the mountain paths worshipping Allâh and leaving the people secure from his mischief."(1) =the Muslim fighter is rewarded as if he was doing such good impossible deeds, no possible deed equals Jihad in reward.

(1) (H. 2786) This is true in times of afflictions and disorder, otherwise social life is better than seclusion as the Prophet ﷺ says in a Hadith reported by At-Tirmidhi: "He who mixes with people and endures their mischief is better rewarded than he who does not mix with people and does not endure their mischief." (Qâstalânî)
2787. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard Allah's Messenger saying, "The example of a Mujahid in Allah's Cause — and Allah knows better who really strives in His Cause — is like a person who observes Saum (fast) and offers Salat (prayer) continuously. Allah guarantees that He will admit the Mujahid in His Cause into Paradise if he is killed, otherwise He will return him to his home safely with rewards and war booty."

(3) CHAPTER. The invocation of men and women that Allah may let them participate in Jihād and adorn them with martyrdom.

‘Umar said, "O Allah! Grant me martyrdom in the town of Your Messenger."

2788, 2789. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah's Messenger used to visit Umm Ḥarām bint Mīlḥān, who would offer him meals. Umm Ḥarām was the wife of ‘Ubāda bin Aṣ-Ṣāmit. Allah's Messenger, once visited her and she provided him with food and started looking for lice in his head. Then Allah's Messenger slept, and afterwards woke up smiling. Umm Ḥarām asked, "What causes you to smile, O Allah's Messenger?" He said, "Some of my followers who (in a dream) were displayed before me as fighters in Allah's

(1) (H. 2788, 2789) It is evident from the life history of the Prophet that he used to take bath daily even twice daily or more, and it is not logical that he could have lice in his head, perhaps she was combing or oiling his hairs.
Cause (on board a ship) amidst this sea cause me to smile; they were as kings on the thrones (or like kings on the thrones).” (Ishāq, a subnarrator is not sure as to which expression the Prophet used.)

Umm Hārām said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh that He makes me one of them.” Allāh’s Messenger invoked Allāh for her and slept again and woke up smiling. Once again Umm Hārām asked, “What makes you smile, O Allāh’s Messenger?” He replied, “Some of my followers were displayed before me as fighters in Allāh’s Cause,” repeating the same dream. Umm Hārām said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh that He makes me one of them.” He said, “You are amongst the first ones.” It happened that she sailed on the sea during the Caliphate of Mu‘āwiyah bin Abī Sufyān, and after she disembarked, she fell down from her riding animal and died.

(4) CHAPTER. The grades of the Mujāhidūn (Muslim fighters) in Allāh’s Cause.
2790. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Whoever believes in Allah and His Messenger, performs \textit{Iqámát-as-\textit{Salát}} and observes \textit{Saum} (fasts) of the month of Ramadán, then it will be a promise binding upon Allah to admit him to Paradise, no matter whether he fights in Allah’s Cause or remains in the land where he is born.” The people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Shall we acquaint the people with this good news?” He said, “Paradise has one hundred grades which Allah has reserved for the \textit{Mujáhídün} who fight in His Cause, and the distance between each of two grades is like the distance between the heaven and the earth. So, when you ask Allah (for something), ask for \textit{Al-Fíradús} which is the middle (best) and the highest part of Paradise.” [The subnarrator added, “I think the Prophet also said, ‘Above it (i.e., \textit{Al-Fíradús}) is the Throne of the Most Gracious (i.e., Allah), and from it gush forth the rivers of Paradise.’”]

2791. Narrated Samura: The Prophet said, “Last night two men came to me (in a dream) and made me ascend a tree and then admitted me into a better and superior \textit{Dár} (abode, dwelling place, house, etc.) better of which I have never seen. One of them said, ‘This \textit{Dár} is the \textit{Dár} of martyrs’.”
CHAPTER. To proceed in Allah’s Cause in the forenoon and in the afternoon. A place in Paradise as small as the bow of one of you (is better than the world and whatever is in it).

2792. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, “A single endeavour (of fighting) in Allah’s Cause in the forenoon or in the afternoon is better than the world and whatever is in it.”

2793. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “A place in Paradise as small as a bow is better than all that on which the sun rises and sets (i.e., all the world).” He also said, “A single endeavour in Allah’s Cause in the afternoon or in the forenoon is better than all that on which the sun rises and sets.”

2794. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: The Prophet said, “A single endeavour in Allah’s Cause in the afternoon and in the forenoon is better than the world and whatever is in it.”

CHAPTER. Al-Hur-ul-Ein (houris — fair females) and their qualities.

They are called so as one’s eyesight is... perplexed while looking at them, and also because of the intense blackness of their irises and intense whiteness of the sclerotic coat of their eyes. And Allâh’s Statement:

“And We shall marry them to Hûr (fair females) with wide lovely eyes. (V.44:54).

2795. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Nobody who dies and finds good from Allâh (in the Hereafter) would wish to come back to this world, even if he were given the whole world and whatever is in it, except the martyr who, on seeing the superiority of martyrdom, would like to come back to the world and get killed again (in Allâh’s Cause).”

2796. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, “A single endeavour (of fighting) in Allâh’s Cause in the afternoon or in the forenoon is better than all the world and whatever is in it. A place in Paradise as small as the bow or lash of one of you is better than all the world and whatever is in it. And if a woman (Hûr etc.) from Paradise appeared to the people of the earth, she would fill the space between heaven and the earth with light and pleasant scent; and her headcover is better than the world and whatever is in it.”

=Adam رَحْمَةَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ, with intense black irises of their eyes and intense white scleras. [For details see the book (Hâdi-Al-Arwâh by Ibn Al-Qaiyim)] (Ch. 54).
(7) CHAPTER. The wish for martyrdom.

2797. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet said, “By Him in Whose Hands my soul is! Were it not for some men amongst the believers who dislike to be left behind me and whom I cannot provide with means of conveyance, I would certainly never remain behind any Sarîya (army-unit) going out for Jihad in Allah's Cause. By Him in Whose Hands my soul is! I would love to be martyred in Allah's Cause and then come back to life and then get martyred, and then come back to life again and then get martyred and then come back to life again and then get martyred.”

2798. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: The Prophet delivered a Khutba (religious talk) and said, “Zaid took the flag and was martyred, and then Ja'far took the flag and was martyred, and then Abdullah bin Rawâba took the flag and was martyred too, and then Khâlid bin Al-Walid took the flag, though he was not appointed as a commander, and Allah made him victorious.” The Prophet further added, “It would not please us to have them with us.” Ayyûb, a subnarrator, added, “Or the Prophet, shedding tears, said, ‘It would not please them to be with us.’”

(1) (H. 2798) The Prophet meant that those martyrs were in a better place than this world. He (i.e., the Prophet) shed tears while mentioning them, because he pitied their families who would grieve for their loss not knowing that they had moved to a better place.
56 - THE BOOK OF JIHAD (Fighting for Allah's Cause)

(8) CHAPTER. The superiority of him who goes in Allah's Cause and dies on the way, for he will be regarded as one of the martyrs.

And the Statement of Allah Alone:

"...And who-so-ever leaves his home as an emigrant unto Allah and His Messenger, and death overtakes him, his reward is then surely incumbent upon Allah..." (V.4:100)

2799, 2800. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Umm Harâm said, "Once the Prophet ﷺ slept in my house near to me and got up smiling. I said, 'What makes you smile?' He replied, 'Some of my followers who [in a dream] were displayed before me sailing on this green sea like kings on thrones.' I said, 'O Allah's Messenger! Invoke Allah to make me one of them.'" So the Prophet ﷺ invoked Allâh for her and went to sleep again. He did the same (i.e., got up and told his dream) and Umm Harâm repeated her question and he gave the same reply. She said, "Invoke Allah to make me one of them." He said, "You are among the first batch." Later on, it happened that she went out in the company of her husband 'Ubâdah bin As-Sâmit who went for Jihad, and it was the first time the Muslims undertook a naval expedition led by Mu'âwiyah. When the expedition came to an end and they were returning to Sham, a riding animal was presented to her to ride, but the animal let her fall and thus she died.

(9) CHAPTER. (The reward of) him who is injured or stabbed in Allah's Cause.
2801. Narrated Anas: The Prophet sent seventy men from the tribe of Banu Sulaim to the tribe of Banu 'Amir. When they reached there, my maternal uncle said to them, “I will go ahead of you, and if they allow me to convey the message of Allah’s Messenger (it will be all right); otherwise you will remain close to me.” So he went ahead of them and the Mushrikun granted him security. But while he was reporting the message of the Prophet, they beckoned to one of their men who stabbed him to death. My maternal uncle said, “Allahu Akbar (Allah is the Most Great!) By the Lord of the Ka’bah, I am successful.” After that they attacked the rest of the party and killed them all except a lame man who went up to the top of the mountain. (Hammâm, a subnarrator said, “I think another man was also saved along with him”). Jibrîl (Gabriel) informed the Prophet that they (i.e., the martyrs) met their Lord, and He was pleased with them and made them pleased. We used to recite, “Inform our people that we have met our Lord, He is pleased with us and He has made us pleased.” Later on this Qur’anic Verse was abrogated (cancelled). The Prophet invoked Allah for forty days to curse the murderers from the tribe of Rîl, Dhakwân, Banî Liyân and Banî ‘Uṣâïyya who disobeyed Allah and His Messenger.

2802. Narrated Jundab bin Su‘ân: In one of the holy battles, a finger of Allah’s Messenger (got wounded and) bled. He said, “You are just a finger that bled, and what you got is in Allah’s Cause.”
(10) CHAPTER. (The superiority of) him who is wounded in Allâh’s Cause.

2803. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “By Him in Whose Hands my soul is! Whoever is wounded in Allah’s Cause — and Allah knows well who gets wounded in His Cause — will come on the Day of Resurrection with his wound having the colour of blood but its smell will be the smell of musk (perfume).”

(11) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

“Say: Do you wait for us (anything) except one of the two best things (martyrdom or victory)?…” (V.9:52)

Battles are always undecided and victory is shared by the opponents in turns.

2804. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Abbas: “Abû Sufyãn told me that Heraclius said to him, ‘I asked you about the outcome of your battles with him (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) and you told me that the outcome is undecided and victory is shared by us in turns.’”

So the Messengers are put to trials in this way but the ultimate victory is always theirs.

(12) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh ﷻ:
“Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allâh (i.e., that they have gone out for Jihad (holy fighting) and showed not their backs to the disbelievers), of them some have fulfilled their obligations (i.e., have been martyred), and some of them are still waiting, but they have never changed (i.e., they never proved treacherous to their covenant which they concluded with Allâh) in the least.”

(V.33:23)

2805. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik:

My uncle Anas bin An-Nâdr was absent from the battle of Badr. He said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I was absent from the first battle you fought against Al-Mushrikûn(1). (By Allâh) if Allâh gives me a chance to fight Al-Mushrikûn, no doubt Allâh will see how (bravely) I will fight.” On the day of Uhud when the Muslims turned their backs and fled, he said, “O Allâh! I apologize to You for what these (i.e., his companions) have done, and I denounce what these (i.e., Al-Mushrikûn) have done.” Then he advanced and Sa’d bin Mu’adh met him. He said “O Sa’d bin Mu’adh! By the Lord of An-Nâdr, Paradise! I am smelling its aroma coming from before (the mountain of) Uhud.” Later on Sa’d said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I cannot achieve or do what he (i.e., Anas bin An-Nâdr) did. We found more than eighty wounds by swords and arrows on his body. We found him dead and his body was mutilated so badly that none except his sister could recognize him by his fingers.”

We used to think that the following Verse was revealed concerning him and other men of his sort: “Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allâh.”

(1) (H. 2805) Al-Mushrikûn: (Polytheists, pagans, idolators, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allâh and in His Messenger Muhammad (S)).
Allāh . . . till the end of verse (V. 33: 23).

2806. His sister Ar-Rubâl' broke a front tooth of a woman and Allāh’s Messenger ordered for retaliation. On that Anas (bin An-Naḍr) said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! By Him Who has sent you with the Truth, my sister’s tooth shall not be broken.” Then the opponents of Anas’ sister accepted the compensation and gave up the claim of retaliation. So Allāh’s Messenger said, “There are some people amongst Allāh’s slaves whose oaths are fulfilled by Allāh when they take them.”

2807. Narrated Khârija bin Zaid: Zaid bin Thâbit said, “When the Qur’ân was compiled from various written manuscripts, one of the Verses of Sūrat Al-Ahzâb was missing which I used to hear Allāh’s Messenger reciting. I could not find it except with Khuzaima bin Thâbit Al-Ansârî, whose witness Allāh’s Messenger regarded as equal to the witness of two men. And the Verse was: “Among the believers are men who have been true to their convenant with Allāh . . .” (V. 33: 23)
(13) CHAPTER. Practising good deeds before taking part in a (holy) battle.

Abū Ad-Dardā’ said, “Indeed (the result of) your fighting is according to your deeds.”

The Statement of Allāh:

“O you who believe! Why do you say that which you do not do? Most hateful it is with Allāh that you say that which you do not do. Verily, Allāh loves those who fight in His Cause in rows (ranks) as if they were a solid structure” (V.61:2-4)

2808. Narrated Al-Barā’ b. ‘Azīz: A man whose face was covered with an ironmask (i.e., clad in armour) came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Shall I fight or embrace Islām first?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Embrace Islām first and then fight.” So he embraced Islām, and was martyred. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A little work, but a great reward. [He did very little (after embracing Islām), but he will be rewarded in abundance].”

(14) CHAPTER. Whoever is struck and killed by an arrow thrown by an unidentified person.

2809. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Umm Ar-Rubai’ bint Al-Barā’, the mother of Ḥāritha bin Sūrāqa came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “A man whose face was covered with an ironmask (i.e., clad in armour) came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Shall I fight or embrace Islām first?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Embrace Islām first and then fight.” So he embraced Islām, and was martyred. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A little work, but a great reward. [He did very little (after embracing Islām), but he will be rewarded in abundance].”
and said, “O Allâh’s Prophet! Will you tell me about Hâritha?” Hâritha has been killed (i.e., martyred) on the day of (the battle of) Badr with an arrow thrown by an unidentified person. She added, “If he is in Paradise, I will be patient; otherwise, I will weep bitterly for him.” He said, “O mother of Hâritha! There are Gardens in Paradise and your son got the Firdaus Al-Alâ (i.e., the best place in Paradise).”

(15) CHAPTER. Whoever fights so that Allâh’s Word (i.e., Allâh’s religion of Islamic Monotheism) be superior.

2810. Narrated Abû Músâ: A man came to the Prophet and asked, “A man fights for war booty; another fights for fame and a third fights for showing off; which of them is in Allâh’s Cause?” The Prophet said, “He who fights that Allâh’s Word (i.e., Allâh’s religion of Islamic Monotheism) be superior, is in Allâh’s Cause.”

(16) CHAPTER. (The superiority of him) whose feet get covered with dust in Allâh’s Cause.

And the Statement of Allâh: “It was not becoming of the people of Al-Madîna and the bedouins of the neighbourhood to remain behind Allâh’s Messenger (Muhammad when fighting in Allâh’s Cause)… (up to)… Surely, Allâh wastes not the reward of Al-Muhsinūn (the doers of good)” (V.9:120).

2811. Narrated Abū ‘Abs, and he is 'Abdur-Rahmān bin Jabr: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Anyone whose both feet get covered with dust in Allāh’s Cause will not be touched by the (Hell) fire.”

(17) CHAPTER. To remove the dust which falls on one’s head (whilst striving) in Allāh’s Cause.

2812. Narrated ‘Ikrima that Ibn ‘Abbās told him and ‘Ali bin ‘Abdullāh to go to Abū Sa‘īd and listen to some of his narrations. So they both went (and saw) Abū Sa‘īd and his brother irrigating a garden belonging to them. When he saw them, he came up to them and sat down with his legs drawn up and wrapped in his garment and said, “(During the construction of the mosque of the Prophet ﷺ) we carried the adobe of the mosque, one brick at a time while ‘Ammār used to carry two at a time. The Prophet ﷺ passed by ‘Ammār and removed the dust off his head and said, ‘May Allāh be Merciful to ‘Ammār. An aggressive group will kill him. ‘Ammār will be inviting them (his murderers) to (obey) Allāh and they will invite him to the (Hell) fire.” (See H. 447)

(18) CHAPTER. To take a bath after fighting and (after being soiled with) dust.
2813. Narrated ‘Aishah: When Allah’s Messenger returned on the day of the battle of Al-Khandaq (i.e., Trench), he put down his arms and took a bath. Then Jibril (Gabriel) whose head was covered with dust, came to him saying, “You have put down your arms! By Allah, I have not put down my arms yet.”

Allah’s Messenger said, “Where (to go now)?” Jibril said, “This way,” pointing towards the tribe of Banu Quraiza. So Allah’s Messenger went out towards them.

(19) CHAPTER. The superiority of (those people for whom) the following Statement of Allah was revealed:

“Think not of those who are killed in the Way of Allah as dead. Nay, they are alive, with their Lord, and they have provision. They rejoice in what Allah has bestowed upon them of His Bounty, and rejoice for the sake of those who have not yet joined them, but are left behind (not yet martyred) that on them no fear shall come, nor shall they grieve. They rejoice in a Grace and a Bounty from Allah, and that Allah will not waste the reward of the believers.” (V.3:169-171)

2814. Narrated Anas bin Malik: For thirty days Allah’s Messenger invoked Allah to curse those who had killed the companions of Bi‘r Ma‘una; he invoked evil upon the tribes of Ril, Dhakwan, and ‘Usaiya who disobeyed Allah and His Messenger. There was revealed about those who were killed at Bi‘r Ma‘una a Qur‘anic Verse we used to recite, but it was cancelled later on. The Verse was:

“Inform our people that we have met our Lord.
He is pleased with us and He has made us pleased.”

2815. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullãh رضي الله عنه, “Some people drank alcoholic drinks in the morning of the day (of the battle) of Uhud and were martyred (on the same day).” Sufyân was asked, “(Were they martyred) in the last part of the day?” He replied, “Such information does not occur in the narration.”

(20) CHAPTER. The shade of angels on the martyr.

2816. Narrated Jâbir رضي الله عنه: My father’s mutilated body was brought to the Prophet ﷺ and was placed in front of him. I went to uncover his face but my companions forbade me. Then mourning cries of a lady were heard, and it was said that she was either the daughter or the sister of ‘Amr. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Why is she crying?” Or said, “Do not cry, for the angels are still shading him with their wings.” (Al-Bukhãri asked Šadaqa, a subnarrator, “Does the narration include the expression: ‘Till he was lifted?’” The latter replied, “Jâbir may have said it.”)

(1) (H. 2815) This happened before the prohibition of alcoholic drinks.
(21) CHAPTER. The wish of the (martyred) Mujāhid to return to the world.

2817. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, “Nobody who enters Paradise likes to return to the world even if he got everything on the earth, except a martyr who wishes to return to the world so that he may be martyred ten times because of the honour and dignity he receives (from Allāh).”

(22) CHAPTER. Paradise is under the blades of swords (Jihād in Allāh’s Cause).

Narrated Al-Mughīra bin Shu’ba: Our Prophet told us about the Message of our Lord that “… whoever amongst us is killed (in Jihād in Allāh’s Cause), will go to Paradise.” ‘Umar asked the Prophet, “Is it not true that our men who are killed (in Jihād in Allāh’s Cause), will go to Paradise and their’s (i.e., those of Al-Musjirikūn) will go to the (Hell) fire?” The Prophet said, “Yes.”

2818. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Aufa: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Know that Paradise is under the shades of swords (Jihād in Allāh’s Cause).”
(23) CHAPTER. (The reward of him) who wishes to beget a son to send for Jihâd.

2819. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Once Sulaimân (Solomon), son of Dawûd (David) said, ‘(By Allah!) Tonight I will have sexual intercourse with one hundred or ninety-nine women, each of whom will give birth to a knight who will fight in Allah’s Cause.’ On that his companion said: say, ‘In sha Allah’ (If Allah wills), but he did not say, ‘In sha Allah’. So none except one of those women conceived and gave birth to a half-man. By Him in Whose Hands Mūhammad’s soul is, if he had said, ‘In sha Allah’, (he would have begotten sons) all of whom would have been knights striving in Allah’s Cause.” (See H. 6639)

(24) CHAPTER. Bravery and cowardice in the battle.

2820. Narrated Anas: The Prophet was the best, the bravest and the most generous of all the people. Once the people of Al-Madîna got frightened, but the Prophet rode a horse and went ahead of them and said, “We found this horse very fast.”
2821. Narrated Muḥammad bin Jubair: Jubair bin Muṭ‘im told me that while he was in the company of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ with the people returning from Ḥunain, some people (bedouins) caught hold of the Prophet ﷺ and started begging of him so much so that he had to stand under a (kind of thorny) tree (i.e., Samurah) and his cloak was snatched away. The Prophet ﷺ stopped and said, “Give me my cloak. If I had as many camels as these thorny trees, I would have distributed them amongst you and you will not find me a miser or a liar or a coward.”

(25) CHAPTER. Seeking refuge with Allāh from cowardice.

2822. Narrated ‘Amr bin Maimūn Al-Audi: Sa’d used to teach his sons the following words as a teacher teaches his students the skill of writing, and used to say that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to seek refuge with Allāh from them at the end of every Salāt (prayer). Those words are:

“O Allāh! I seek refuge with You from cowardice, and seek refuge with You from being brought back to semile old age and seek refuge with You from the Fitnah (trials or afflictions) of the world, and seek refuge with You from the punishments in the grave.”
2823. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet used to say, “O Allah! I seek refuge with You from helplessness, laziness, cowardice and senile old age; I seek refuge with You from Fitnah (trials or afflictions) of life and death and seek refuge with You from the punishment in the grave.”

(26) CHAPTER. Whoever described what he has witnessed in the war.

2824. Narrated As-Sa‘ib bin Yazid: I was in the company of Talha bin ‘Ubaydullah, Sa‘d, Al-Miqdad bin Al-Aswad and ‘Abdur-Rahman bin ‘Auf, and I heard none of them narrating anything from Allah’s Messenger but Talha was talking about the day (of the battle) of Uhud.

(27) CHAPTER. The obligation of going out for Jihad when there is a general call to arms, and what sort of Jihad and intentions are compulsory.

And the Statement of Allah:

“March forth, whether you are light (being young, healthy and wealthy) or heavy (being ill, old and poor), and strive hard with your wealth and your lives in the Cause of Allah. This is better for you, if you but knew. Had it been a near gain (booty in front of them) and an easy journey, they would have followed you, but the distance (Tabuk expedition) was long for them, and they would swear by Allah (saying), ‘If we only could, we would certainly have come forth with you.’ They destroy their own selves, and Allah knows that they are liars,” (V.9:41,42)

And His Statement:

“O you who believe! What is the matter with you, that when you are asked to march forth in the Cause of Allah, (i.e., Jihad), you cling heavily to the earth? Are you pleased with the life of this world rather than the Hereafter?” (up to) Able to do all things.” (V.9:38-39)

2825. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs L4 On the day of the Conquest (of Makkah) the Prophet  said, “There is no emigration after the Conquest (of Makkah), but Jihad and intentions.(1) When you are called (by the Muslim ruler) for Jihad (holy fighting in Allah’s Cause) go forth immediately.”

(See Hadith No.2783)

(28) CHAPTER. (What about) a disbeliever who kills a Muslim and later on embraces Islam and starts doing good deeds and gets killed (in Allah’s Cause)?

(1) (H. 2825) i.e., to participate in Jihad when there is a call for it, otherwise you must have intention to participate in Jihad and this intention has the same reward as that of the Jihad itself.
2826. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger  said, "Allāh welcomes two men with a smile; one of whom kills the other and both of them enter Paradise. One fights in Allāh's Cause and gets killed. Later on Allāh forgives the killer (who embraces Islām and) also gets martyred (in Allāh's Cause)."

2827. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I went to Allah's Messenger while he was at Khaibar after it had fallen in the Muslim's hands. I said, "O Allah's Messenger! Give me a share (from the land of Khaibar)."

One of the sons of Sa'id bin Al-'Aṣ said, "O Allah's Messenger! Do not give him a share." I said, "This is the murderer of Ibn Qauqal." The son of Sa'id bin Al-'Aṣ said, "Strange! A Wabr (i.e., guinea pig) who has come down to us from the mountain of Qadim (i.e., grazing place of sheep) blames me for killing a Muslim who was given superiority by Allāh because of me, and Allāh did not disgrace me at his hands (i.e., was not killed as an infidel)." (The subnarrator said, "I do not know whether the Prophet gave him a share or not.")
(29) CHAPTER. Whoever preferred Jihād to Ṣaum (fasting).

2828. Narrated Anas bin Mālik:
In the lifetime of the Prophet, Abū Ťahā did not observe Ṣaum (fast) because of the Jihād, but after the Prophet died I never saw him without observing Ṣaum except on ‘Īd-ul-‘Fīr and ‘Īd-ul-‘Adhā.

(30) CHAPTER. There are seven martyrs other than those who are killed in Jihād (i.e., eight).

2829. Narrated Abū Hurairah:
Allah’s Messenger said, “Five are regarded as martyrs: They are those who die because of (1) plague, (2) abdominal disease, (3) drowning or (4) wrecking of building etc., and (5) the martyrs in Allāh’s Cause.”

2830. Narrated Anas bin Mālik:
The Prophet said, “Plague (the cause of) martyrdom of every Muslim (who dies because of it).”

(31) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

---

(1) (Ch. 30) Five are mentioned in Hadith No.82 plus, the one who dies because of burns, pneumonia and childbirth.
“Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home), except those who are disabled (by injury or are blind or lame) ..(up to)...
Ever Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.”
(V.4:95,96).

2831. Narrated Al-Barã’. ṭ: When the Divine Revelation: “Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home)...” was revealed, the Prophet ṫ sent for Zaid (bin Thãbit) who came with a shoulder-blade and wrote on it. Ibn Umm Maktûm complained about his blindness and on that the following verse was revealed: “Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home) except those who are disabled (by injury, or are blind or lame)...” (V.4:95)

2832. Narrated Sahîl bin Sa’d As-Sã’idi: I saw Marwãn bin Al-Ḥakam sitting in the mosque. So, I came forward and sat by his side. He told us that Zaid bin Thãbit had told him that Allah’s Messenger ṫ had dictated to him the Divine Verse:

“Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home) and those who strive hard and fight in the Cause of Allah.” (V.4:95)

Zaid said, “Ibn Umm Maktûm came to the Prophet ṫ while he was dictating to me that very Verse. On that Ibn Umm Maktûm said, “O Allah’s Messenger! If I had power, I would surely take part in Jihad.” He was a blind man. So Allah ṫ sent down the revelation to His Messenger ṫ while his thigh was on mine and it became so heavy for me that I feared that my thigh would be broken. Then that state of the Prophet ṫ was over after Allah ṫ revealed “... except those who are disabled (by injury or are blind or lame).” (V.4:95)
(32) CHAPTER. Patience during fighting.

2833. Narrated Sālim Abū An-Nadr: ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Aūfā wrote and I read what he wrote... that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When you meet them (i.e., your enemy in the battlefield) then be patient.”

(33) CHAPTER. Rousing and exhorting people to fight.

And the Statement of Allāh جَلَّ لَهُ الْحَقُّ وَجَلَّ عَلَيْهِ الْقَدْرَ [V. 8:65]

2834. Narrated Anas: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ went towards the Ḳhandaq (i.e., trench) and saw the Muhājirūn (emigrants) and the Anṣār digging in a very cold morning as they did not have slaves to do that for them. When he noticed their fatigue and hunger he said, “O Allāh! The real life is that of the Hereafter, (so please) forgive the Anṣār and the Muhājirūn.” In its reply the Muhājirūn[1] and the Anṣār said, “We are those who have given the Bai’a (pledge) to Muḥammad ﷺ that we will carry on Jihād as long as we live.”

[1] (H. 2834) The word “Emigrants” at other places has been written as Muhājirūn. See glossary for Muhājirūn.
2835. Narrated Anas: The Muhajirun (emigrants) and the Ansar started digging the trench around Al-Madina carrying the earth on their backs and saying, "We are those who have given the Bai'a (pledge) to Muhammad that we will carry on Jihad as long as we live." The Prophet kept on replying, "O Allah, there is no good except the good of the Hereafter; so confer Your Blessings on the Ansar and the Muhajirun."

2836. Narrated Al-Bara': The Prophet went on carrying (the earth) and saying, "Without You (O Allah!) we would have got no guidance."

2837. Narrated Al-Bara': On the day (of the battle) of Al-Ahzab (the Confederates) I saw the Prophet carrying earth, and the earth was covering the whiteness of his abdomen. And he was saying, "Without You (O Allah!) we would have got no guidance, nor given in charity, nor offered Salat (prayers). So please bless us..."
with tranquillity and make firm our feet when we meet our enemies. Indeed (these) people have rebelled against us, but never shall we yield if they try to bring Fitnah (trial, affliction) upon us.”

(35) CHAPTER. (The reward of) whoever is held back from Jihād by a legal cause.

2838. Narrated Anas: We returned from the Ghazwa of Tabūk along with the Prophet ﷺ. (See Hadith No.2839 below).

2839. Narrated Anas: While the Prophet ﷺ was in a Ghazwa he said, “Some people have remained behind us in Al-Madīna and we never crossed a mountain path or a valley, but they were with us (i.e., sharing the reward with us), as they have been held back by a (legal) excuse.”

(36) CHAPTER. The superiority of observing Saum (fast) in Allah’s Cause (to seek His good pleasure).

2840. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Whosoever observes Saum (fast) for one day in Allah’s Cause (to seek His good pleasure), Allah will keep his face away from the (Hell) Fire (a distance covered by a journey of) seventy years.”

(37) CHAPTER. The superiority of spending in Allah’s Cause (i.e., for Jihad).

2841. Narrated Abú Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Whoever spends two things in Allah’s Cause, will be called by all the gatekeepers of Paradise who will be saying, ‘O so-and-so! Come here.’” Abú Bakr said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Such persons will never be destroyed.” The Prophet said, “I hope you will be one of them.”

2842. Narrated Abú Sa’id Al-Khudri: Allah’s Messenger ascended the pulpit and said, “Nothing worries me as to what will happen to you after me, except the temptation of worldly blessings which will be conferred on you.” Then he mentioned the worldly pleasures. He started with the one (i.e., the blessings) and took up the other (i.e., the pleasures). A man got up saying, “O Allah’s Messenger! Can the good bring about evil?” The Prophet remained silent and we thought that he was being inspired Divinely, so all the people kept silent with awe. Then the Prophet wiped the sweat off his face and asked, “Where is the preceding questioner?” “Do you think wealth is good?” He repeated thrice, adding, “No doubt, good brings nothing but good. Indeed it is like what grows on the banks of a stream which either kills or nearly kills the grazing animals because of gluttony except the vegetation-eating animal which eats till both its flanks are full (i.e., till it gets satisfied), and then stands in the sun and defecates and urinates and again starts grazing. This worldly property is sweet vegetation. How excellent the wealth of the Muslim is, if it is collected through legal means and is spent in Allah’s Cause and on orphans, poor people and travellers? But he who does not take it legally is like an eater who is never satisfied, and his wealth will be a witness against him on the Day of Resurrection.”

(38) CHAPTER. The superiority of one who prepares a Ghâzi (fighter for Jihâd) or looks after his dependents in his absence.

2843. Narrated Zaid bin Khâlid i: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “He who prepares a Ghâzi going in Allah’s Cause is (given a reward equal to that of) a Ghâzi; and he who looks after properly the dependents of a Ghâzi going in Allah’s Cause is (given a reward equal to that of) a Ghâzi.”

2844. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ used not to enter any house in Al-Madîna except the house of Umm Sulaim besides those of his wives... when he was asked why, he said, “I take pity on her as her brother was killed in my company.”

2845. Narrated Ibn ‘Aun: Once Mūsa bin Anas while describing the battle of Yamāma, said, “Anas bin Mālik went to Thābit bin Qais, who had lifted his clothes from his thighs and was applying Hanūt to his body. Anas asked, ‘O uncle! What is holding you back (from the battle)’? He replied, ‘O my nephew! I am coming just now,’ and went on perfuming himself with Hanūt, then he came and sat (in the row). Anas then mentioned that the people fled from the battlefield. On that Thābit said, ‘Clear the way for me to fight the enemy. We would never do so (i.e., flee) in the company of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. How bad the habits you have acquired from your enemies!’ ”

2846. Narrated Jābir: “Who will bring me the information about the enemy on the day (of the battle) of Al-Ahzāb (the Confederates)?” Az-Zubair said, “I will.” The Prophet ﷺ said again, “Who will bring me the information about the enemy?” Az-Zubair said again, “I will.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Every Prophet... had a \textit{Hawari} (disciple) and my \textit{Hawari} is Az-Zubair.”

(41) CHAPTER. Can the reconnoiterrer be sent alone?

2847. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: \textit{رضي الله عنهم} When the Prophet \textit{صلى الله عليه وسلم} called the people (\textit{Sadaqa}, a subnarrator, said, “Most probably that happened on the day of \textit{Al-Khaḍaqaq}”) Az-Zubair responded to the call (i.e., to act as a reconnoiterrer). (The Prophet \textit{صلى الله عليه وسلم}) called the people again and Az-Zubair responded to the call. The Prophet \textit{صلى الله عليه وسلم} then said, “Every Prophet had a \textit{Hawari} (disciple) and my \textit{Hawari} is Az-Zubair bin Al-‘Awwām.”

(42) CHAPTER. The travelling of two persons together.

2848. Narrated Mālik bin Al-Huwairith: On my departure from the Prophet \textit{صلى الله عليه وسلم} he said to me and to a friend of mine, “You two, pronounce the \textit{Adhān} and the \textit{Iqāma} for the \textit{Salāt} (prayer) and let the elder of you lead the \textit{Salāt} (prayer).”

(43) CHAPTER. Good will remain (as a permanent quality) in the forelocks of horses (especially those kept for the purpose of \textit{Jihād}) till the Day of Resurrection.
2849. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin 'Umar: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Good will remain (as a permanent quality) in the forelocks of horses (meant for Jihåd) till the Day of Resurrection.”

2850. Narrated Urwa bin Al-Ja’d: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Good will remain (as a permanent quality) in the forelocks of horses (meant for Jihåd), till the Day of Resurrection.”

2851. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There is a blessing in the forelocks of horses (meant for Jihåd).”

(44) CHAPTER. Jihåd is to be carried on whether the Muslim ruler who calls for it is good or bad.

By virtue of the saying of the Prophet ﷺ, “Good will remain (as a permanent quality) in the forelocks of horses (meant for Jihåd), till the Day of Resurrection.”

2852. Narrated ‘Urwa Al-Båriqi: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Good will remain (as a permanent quality) in the forelocks of horses (meant for Jihād) till the Day of Resurrection, for they bring about a reward (in the Hereafter) and booty (in this world)."

(45) CHAPTER. (The superiority of) the one who keeps a horse (for the purpose of Jihād in Allāh’s Cause), as is indicated by the Statement of Allāh: “[And make ready against them all you can of power,] including steeds of war (tanks, planes, missiles, artillery etc.)…” (V.8:60)

2853. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If somebody keeps a horse (for Jihād) in Allāh’s Cause, motivated by his faith in Allāh and his belief in His Promise, then he will be rewarded on the Day of Resurrection for what the horse has eaten or drunk and for its dung and urine as good deeds in his balance.”

(46) CHAPTER. To name a horse and a donkey.

2854. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Qatāda: Abū Qatāda went out (on a journey) with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ but he was left behind with some of his companions who were in a state of Ihram. He himself was not in a state of Ihram. They saw an onager before he could see it. When they saw the onager, they did not speak anything till Abū Qatāda saw it. So, he rode over his horse... called Al-Jarāda and requested them to give him his lash, but they refused. So, he himself took it and then attacked the onager and slaughtered it. He ate of its meat and his companions ate too, but they regretted their eating. When they met the Prophet ﷺ (they asked him about it) and he asked, “Have you some of its meat (left) with you?” Abū Qatāda replied, “Yes, we have its leg with us.” So, the Prophet ﷺ took and ate it.

2855. Narrated Sahl: In our garden there was a horse belonging to the Prophet ﷺ called Al-Luḥaif or Al-Lukhaif.

2856. Narrated Mu‘ādh ﷺ: I was a companion-rider behind the Prophet ﷺ on a donkey called ‘Ufair. The Prophet ﷺ asked, “O Mu‘ādh! Do you know what Allāh’s Right on His slaves is, and what the right of His slaves on Him is?” I replied, “Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ know better.” He said, “Allāh’s Right on His slaves is that they should worship Him ( Alone) and should not worship anything else besides Him. And slaves’ right on Allāh is that He should not punish him who worships none besides Him.” I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Should I not inform the people of this good news?” He said, “Do not inform them of it, lest they should depend on it (solely).”
2857. Narrated Anas bin Malik L Ṭab‘ī: Once there was a feeling of fright in Al-Madina, so the Prophet ﷺ borrowed a horse belonging to us called Mandūb (and he rode away on it). (When the Prophet ﷺ returned) he said, “I have not seen anything of fright and I found it (i.e., this horse) very fast.”

(47) CHAPTER. What has been said about the evil omen of a horse.

2858. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar Ṭab‘ī: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Evil omen is in three things: The horse, the woman and the house.”

2859. Narrated Sahl bin Sa‘d As-Sā‘īdī: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said “If there is any evil omen in anything, then it is in the woman, the horse and the house”. [See the footnote of Hadith No.2858].

(1) (H. 2858) Superstition is disliked in Islam, but if one should think that there are things of bad omen, one may find such bad omen in a horse that is obstinate or not used for Jihad, a woman that is sterile or discontented or impudent, a house that is not spacious or far from mosque or neighbouring a bad neighbour.
(48) CHAPTER. Horses (are kept) for three (purposes), and the Statement of Allâh جَلَّ وَلَطِيفَهُ:

“And (He has created) horses, mules and donkeys, for you to ride and as an adornment. And He creates (other) things of which you have no knowledge.” (V.16:8)

2860. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﺑ. ﻲ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Horses are kept for one of three purposes; for some people they are a source of reward, for some others they are a means of shelter (livelihood) and for some others they are a source of sins. The one for whom they are a source of reward, is he who keeps a horse for Allâh’s Cause (i.e., Jihad), tying it with a long tether on a meadow or in a garden with the result that whatever it eats from the area of the meadow or the garden where it is tied, will be counted as good deeds for his benefit, and if it should break its rope and jump over one or two hillocks then all its dung and its footmarks will be written as good deeds for him; and if it passes by a river and drinks water from it even though he had no intention of watering it, even then he will get the reward for its drinking. As for the man for whom horses are a source of sins, he is the one who keeps a horse for the sake of pride and show-off and showing enmity for Muslims, such a horse will be a source of sins for him. When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was asked about donkeys, he replied, “Nothing has been revealed to me about them except this unique, comprehensive Verse:

‘So, whosoever does good equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant) shall see it. And whosoever does evil equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant) shall see it.’” (V.99:7,8)
(49) CHAPTER. Whoever beats somebody else’s animal during the battle (intending to help its rider).

2861. Narrated Abu ‘Aqil: Abu Al-Mutawakkil An-Najji said: I called on Jabir bin ‘Abdullah Al-Ansari and said to him, “Relate to me what you have heard from Allah’s Messenger.” He said, “I accompanied him on one of the journeys.” (Abu ‘Aqil said, “I do not know whether that journey was for the purpose of Jihad or ‘Umra.”) “When we were returning,” Jabir continued, “the Prophet said, ‘Whoever wants to return earlier to his family, should hurry up.’ We set off and I was on a black red-tainted camel having no defect, and the people were behind me. While I was in that state the camel stopped suddenly (because of exhaustion). On that the Prophet said to me, ‘O Jabir, wait!’ Then he hit it once with his lash and it started moving on a fast pace. He then said, ‘Will you sell the camel?’ I replied in the affirmative. When we reached Al-Madina, and the Prophet went to the mosque along with his companions, I, too, went to him after tying the camel on the pavement at the mosque gate. Then I said to him, ‘This is your camel.’ He came out and started examining the camel and saying, ‘The camel is ours.’ Then the Prophet sent some Awaq (i.e., an amount) of gold saying, ‘Give it to Jabir.’ Then he asked, ‘Have you taken the full price (of the camel)?’ I replied in the affirmative. He said, ‘Both the price and the camel are for you.’”
(50) CHAPTER. Riding on an unmanageable animal or a stallion horse.

Rāshid bin Sa’d said, “The early Muslims preferred to ride stallions, for they were faster and more daring (than mares).”

2862. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: There was a feeling of fright in Al-Madīnah, so the Prophet borrowed a horse called Mandūb belonging to Abū Ṭalḥa and mounted it. (On his return) he said, “I did not see anything of fright and I found this horse very fast.”

(51) CHAPTER. The share of the horse (from the booty)...

Mālik said, “A share of the booty is to be devoted to horses including Al-Baradhin (non-Arab horses), by virtue of the Statement of Allāh:

‘And (He has created) horses, mules and donkeys for you to ride...’” (V.16:8)

2863. Narrated Ibn ʿUmar: Allāh’s Messenger fixed two shares for the horse and one share for its rider (from the war booty).

(52) CHAPTER. Leading somebody else’s animal during the battle.
2864. Narrated Abū Ishāq: Somebody asked Al-Barā’ bin ‘Āzib, “Did you flee deserting Allāh’s Messenger during the battle of Hunain?” (Al-Barā’) replied, “But Allāh’s Messenger did not flee. The people of the tribe of Hawāzin were good archers. When we met them, we attacked them, and they fled. When the Muslims started collecting the war booty, Al-Mushrikūn faced us with arrows, but Allāh’s Messenger did not flee. No doubt, I saw him on his white mule and Abū Sufyān was holding its reins and the Prophet was saying, ‘I am the Prophet without a lie: I am the son of ‘Abdul Muṭṭalib.’”

(53) CHAPTER. The saddle and the stirrup of an animal.

2865. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: When the Prophet put his feet in the stirrup and the she-camel got up carrying him he would start reciting Talbiya at the mosque of Dḥul-Ḥulaifa.

(54) CHAPTER. The riding of an unsaddled horse.

2866. Narrated Anas: The Prophet met them (i.e., the people) while he was riding an unsaddled horse with his sword slung over his shoulder.

(55) CHAPTER. A slow horse.

2867. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Once, the people of Al-Madina were frightened, so the Prophet Ṣaw rode a horse belonging to Abū Ṭalḥa and it ran slowly, or was of short paces. When he returned, he said, “I found your (i.e., Abū Ṭalḥa’s) horse very fast. After that the horse could not be surpassed in running.”

(56) CHAPTER. Horse races.

2868. Narrated (‘Abdullāh) bin ‘Umar: The Prophet Ṣaw arranged for a horse race amongst the horses that had been made lean to take place between Al-Ḥafyā’ and Thanāyāt Al-Wadā’ (i.e., names of two places) and the horses which had not been made lean from Ath-Thanāyāt to the mosque of Bani Zuraq. I was also amongst those who took part in that horse race. Sufyān, a subnarrator, said, “The distance between Al-Ḥafyā’ and Thanāyāt Al-Wadā’ is five or six miles; and between Thanāyāt and the mosque of Bani Zuraq is one mile.”

(57) CHAPTER. Idmār (the preparation) of horses for racing (by a process by which strong fat horses are turned into lean ones through giving them limited amounts of food).

2869. Narrated 'Abdullãh رضي الله عنُّهُ: The Prophet سائِلَهُ: حَنَّانًا اللَّبَّيْثُ، عَنْ نَافِعَ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ رضِي الله عَنْهُ: أَنَّ النَّبِيّ صلى الله عليه وسلم بَيْنَ الحَيْلِ الَّتِي لَمْ تُصَمَّرْ وَكَانَ أَمْدَهَا مِنَ النَّيْنَاءِ إِلَى مَسْجِدِ بَنِي زُرَىْ، وَأَنَّ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ابْنُ عُمَّرَ كَانَ سَابِقًّا بِهَا. قَالَ أَبُو عُبَیْدُ اللَّهِ: أَمْدَى: غَاَيةٌ ﴿فَطَالَ عَلَيْهِمْ ﴾[الحَدِيد] [رَاجِعُ: 420].

(58) CHAPTER. The extreme limit of the distance of the race of horses that have been made lean.

2870. Narrated Abû Islaq: Mûsã bin ‘Uqba said, نَافِع: أَنَّ النَّبِيّ صلى الله عليه وسلم بَيْنَ الحَيْلِ الَّتِي لَمْ تُصَمَّرْ وَكَانَ أَمْدَهَا مِنَ النَّيْنَاءِ إِلَى مَسْجِدِ بَنِي زُرَىْ، وَأَنَّ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ابْنُ عُمَّرَ كَانَ سَابِقًّا بِهَا. قَالَ: ﴿فَطَالَ عَلَيْهِمْ ﴾[الحَدِيد]. ﴿فَطَالَ عَلَيْهِمْ ﴾[الحَدِيد].

(59) CHAPTER. The she-camel of the Prophet ﷺ.

Ibn ‘Umar said, “The Prophet ﷺ made Usama ride behind him on Al-Qaswa’ (i.e., the Prophet’s she-camel).” Al-Miswar said, “The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Al-Qaswa’ has not become stubborn.”

2871. Narrated Anas: The she-camel of the Prophet ﷺ was called Al-‘Adbå’.

2872. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ had a she-camel called Al-‘Adbå’ which could not be excelled in a race. (Humaid, a subnarrator said, “Or could hardly be excelled.”) Once, a bedouin came riding a camel below six years of age which surpassed it (i.e., Al-‘Adbå) in the race. The Muslims felt it so much that the Prophet ﷺ noticed their distress. He then said, “It is incumbent upon Allâh (or it is Allâh’s law) that He lowers or brings down whatever rises high in the world.”

[See Vol. 8, Hadîth No.6501]

(60) CHAPTER. Going to holy battles on a donkey.

(61) CHAPTER. The white mule of the Prophet ﷺ.

(Anas referred to this in a narration). Abû Humaid said, “The king of Aila presented a white mule to the Prophet ﷺ.”

2873. Narrated ‘Amr bin Al-Hârith: The Prophet ﷺ did not leave anything behind him after his death except a white mule, his arms and a piece of land which he left to be given in charity.

2874. Narrated Al-Barā'ī that a man asked him, “O Abū ‘Umāra! Did you flee on the day (of the battle) of Hunain?” He replied, “No, by Allah, the Prophet ﷺ did not flee; but the hasty people fled and the people of the tribe of Hawāzin attacked them with arrows, while the Prophet ﷺ was riding his white mule. Abū Sufyān bin Al-Ḥarīth was holding its reins, and the Prophet ﷺ was saying, ‘I am the Prophet without a lie, I am the son of ‘Abdul Muṭṭalib.’”

(62) CHAPTER. The Ḥijād of women.

2875. Narrated ‘Aishah, the Mother of faithful believers: I requested the Prophet ﷺ to permit me to participate in Ḥijād, but he said, “Your Ḥijād is (the performance of) Ḥajj. (Pilgrimage to Makkah).”

2876. Narrated ‘Aishah, the Mother of the faithful believers: The Prophet ﷺ was asked by his wives about the Jihad and he replied, “The best Jihad (for you) is (the performance of) Hajj.”

(63) CHAPTER. The participation of a woman in a sea battle.

2877, 2878. Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ went to the daughter of Milhān and reclined there (and slept) and then (woke up) smiling. She asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! What makes you smile?” He replied, “(In a dream I saw) some people amongst my followers were sailing on the green sea in Allah’s Cause, resembling kings on thrones.” She said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Invoke Allah to make me one of them.” Then he (slept again and woke up and) smiled. She asked him the same question and he gave the same reply. She said, “Invoke Allah to make me one of them.” He replied, “You will be amongst the first group of them; you will not be amongst the last.” Later on she married ‘Ubāda bin As-Samit and then she sailed on the sea with bint Qaraza, Mu’awiya’s wife (for Jihad). On her return, she mounted her riding animal, which threw her down breaking her neck, and she died on falling down.
(64) CHAPTER. The man’s selection of one of his wives to accompany him in holy battles.

2879. Narrated ‘Aishah: Whenever the Prophet wanted to proceed on a journey, he used to draw lots amongst his wives and would take the one upon whom the lot fell. Once, before setting out for Jihâd, he drew lots amongst us and the lot came to me; so I went with the Prophet; and that happened after the revelation of the Verses of Hijâb (i.e., veiling).

(65) CHAPTER. The Jihâd of women and their fighting along with men.

2880. Narrated Anas: On the day (of the battle) of Uhud when (some) people retreated and left the Prophet, I saw ‘Aishah bint Abi Bakr and Umm Sulaim, with their robes tucked up so that the bangles around their ankles were visible hurrying with their water-skins (in another narration it is said, “carrying the water-skins on their backs”). Then they would pour the water in the mouths of the people, and return to fill the water-skins again and came back again to pour water in the mouths of the people.

(1) (H. 2880) This event took place before the revelation of the Verses of Hijâb (i.e., the veil). (Fath Al-Bârî; volume 6).
(66) CHAPTER. The carrying of water-skins by the women to the people (and giving them water to drink) during holy battles.

2881. Narrated Tha'labah bin Abi Malik: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb distributed some garments amongst the women of Al-Madīna. One good garment remained, and one of those present with him said, “O chief of the believers! Give this garment to your wife, the (grand) daughter of Allāh’s Messenger.” They meant Umm Kulthūm, the daughter of ‘Alī. ‘Umar said, “Umm Salīt has more right (to have it).” Umm Salīt was amongst those Ansāri women who had given the Bai‘a (pledge) to Allâh’s Messenger. ‘Umar said, “She (i.e., Umm Salīt) used to carry the water-skins to provide us water on the day of Uhud.”

(67) CHAPTER. The treatment of the wounded by the women during holy battles.

2882. Narrated Ar-Rubā’il bint Mu‘awwidh: We were in the company of the Prophet providing the wounded with water and treating them and bringing the killed and the wounded (to Al-Madīna from the battlefield).

(68) CHAPTER. The bringing back of the wounded and the killed by the women.
2883.Narrated Ar-Rubā‘i bint Mu‘awwidh: We used to take part in holy battles with the Prophet by providing the people with water and serving them and bringing the killed and the wounded back to Al-Madīna.

(69) CHAPTER. Removing the arrow from the body.

2884. Narrated Abū Mūsā: Abū ‘Āmir was hit with an arrow in his knee, so I went to him and he asked me to remove the arrow. When I removed it, the water started dribbling from it. Then I went to the Prophet and told him about it. He said, “O Allāh! Forgive ‘Ubayd Abū ‘Āmir.”

(70) CHAPTER. Vigilance during holy battles in Allāh’s Cause.

2885. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet was vigilant one night and when he reached Al-Madīna, he said, “Would that a pious man from my companions guard me tonight!” Suddenly we heard the clatter of arms. He said, “Who is that?” He (the new comer) replied, “I am Sa’d bin Abī Waqqāṣ and have come to guard you.” So, the Prophet slept (that night).
2886. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "Let the slave of Dinar and Dirham, and Qatifa and Khamisa (i.e., money and luxurious clothes) perish for he is pleased if these things are given to him, and if not, he is displeased!"

2887. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "Let the slave of Dinar and Dirham, and Qatifa and Khamisa perish as he is pleased if these things are given to him, and if not, he is displeased. Let such a person perish and relapse, and if he is pierced with a thorn, let him not find anyone to take it out for him. So that he would not be able to work and earn what he desires most. The latter are the characteristics of a person who is not interested in worldly privileges, he does not seek fame or high social rank; his sole ambition is to win Paradise and Allah's Pleasure."
CHAPTER 41. The service, during holy battles.

2888. Narrated Anas: I was in the company of Jarir bin ‘Abdullah in a journey and he used to serve me, though he was older than I. Jarir said, “I saw the Ansar doing a thing (i.e., showing deep respect and great reverence to the Prophet) for which I have vowed that whenever I meet any of them, I will serve him.”

2889. Narrated Anas bin Malik: I went along with the Prophet to Khaibar so as to serve him. (Later on) when the Prophet returned, he on seeing the Uhud mountain, said, “This is a mountain that loves us and is loved by us.” Then he pointed towards Al-Madina with his hand and said, “O Allah! Make the area which is in between Al-Madina’s two mountains a sanctuary as Ibrahîm (Abraham) made Makkah a sanctuary. O Allah! Bless us in our Sā‘ and Mudd (i.e., units of measuring).”

2890. Narrated Anas: We were with the Prophet (on a journey) and the only shade one could have was the shade made by one’s own garment. Those who observed Saum (fast) did not do any work... and those who did not observe Saum (fast) served the camels and brought the water on them and treated the sick and wounded. So, the Prophet said, “Today, those who were not observing Saum (fast) took (all) the reward.”

(72) CHAPTER. The superiority of him who carries the luggage of his companions during a journey.

2891. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Charity is obligatory every day on every joint of a human being. If one helps a person in matters concerning his riding animal by helping him to ride it, or by lifting his luggage on to it, all this will be regarded as charity. A good word, and every step one takes to offer the compulsory congregational Salât (prayer), is regarded as charity; and guiding somebody on the road is regarded as charity.”

(73) CHAPTER. The superiority of guarding (Muslims from infidels) for a day in Allah’s Cause.

And the Statement of Allah: “O you who believe! Endure and be more patient (than your enemy), and guard your territory by stationing army units permanently at the places from where the enemy can attack you, and fear Allah, so

(1) (H. 2890) This does not mean that those who deserved Saum (fast) did not deserve any reward, but it means that those who did not observed Saum deserved double reward, because they served themselves as well as the persons observing Saum (fast).

(2) (H. 2891) To show gratitude to Allah by keeping your body safe and sound you should give in charity, or do charitable deeds.
that you may be successful.” (V.3:200)
